THE WOMAN'S CORNER WOMAN'S CLUB OF GREENVILLE.

Held Interesting Meeting Thursday Afternoon.

The Woman's Club of Greenville met at four-thirty o'clock Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. S. M. Schultz, Mrs. T. A. Person, first vice president presiding.

After the accustomed business proceedings, the constitution and by-laws, which had been previously carefully reviewed by a most able committee, were again read and unanimously adopted.

Problems relative to the welfare of the club and of the community at large were then discussed with serious interest by the earnest women gathered together there.

We were glad to have with us Mrs. R. R. Cotten, who joined the discussions with her usual enthusiasm and helpfulness.

After the regular business the president in the chair announced that the literary exercises of the meeting in May would be appropriate to Carolina Day.

A very clever contest prepared by Mrs. Person was the first feature of the program and all enjoyed the game of hide-and-seek with a number of our governors. As this may be interesting to some other North Carolinians we will give you the game.

See how many governors you can find. We will tell you if you call their names correctly.

OUR GOVERNORS.

1. The cook's studio.
2. A disease of a weak brain.
3. A dressmaker's terror.
4. A bird.
5. A narrow street.
6. A pretty valley.
7. The song of silk.
8. The emblem of purity.
9. A fowl.
10. One who grinds.
11. In debt.
12. A rock.
13. A young man in love.
14. The leach's grip.
15. Greenville's beloved.

Quite a number of important events in the history of our state were reviewed briefly and discussed with lively interest.

The singing of "The Old North State" closed the program, and the club adjourned to meet June 10, the place of meeting to be decided later. H. Reporter.

RAILROAD CAN BUILD SPUR.

Board of Aldermen So Order.

The Board of Aldermen held a special meeting Thursday night and passed an order granting the Norfolk & Southern railroad permission to lay a spur track on South Pitt street to the storage warehouse of Harvey & Ferrell. The order made a change so that the spur track will not run by the building of R. O. Jeffress, over which there came near being a controversy Thursday. Instead of beginning south of Tenth St., and running across that street it will begin near Ninth street and run to the warehouse, not crossing Tenth street at all nor going near the Jeffress property. Mr. Jeffress through an attorney entered a protest in this also, but was overruled by the aldermen and the railroad given permission to proceed with laying the spur.

Largest shipment flue iron ever received in Greenville at one time. I want your orders for flues.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

STATE CONVENTION COMES TO CLOSE.

Officers for Next Year—Rockingham Gets Next Convention.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

After some discussion a motion was adopted that each circle represented pledge a certain amount for the year to help pay the remaining indebtedness on their cottage at the school.

A motion was adopted thanking the druggists of the State for furnishing free medicines and attention to patients under the ministrations of The King's Daughters, and that newspaper throughout the State be requested to make mention of this vote of thanks.

A report was made on the Silver Cross, the official paper of the organization, and the circles were urged to subscribe for it.

Salisbury and Rockingham extended invitations for the next convention, and in the vote the decision was in favor of Rockingham as the next place of meeting.

A motion was adopted that some delegate from Patient Circle of Greenville be selected to respond to the address of welcome at the next annual convention.

The result of the nominating ballot was announced and the following were elected officers for the next year:

State secretary—Mrs W. H. S. Burgwyn, of Weldon.

Assistant State secretary—Miss Easdale Shaw, of Rockingham.

Recording secretary—Mrs. G. A. Coggeshall, of Oxford.

Treasurer—Mrs. D. Y. Cooper, of Henderson.

Executive committee—Mrs. A. L. Blow, Greenville; Mrs. C. W. Kelloway, Wilmington; Mrs. F. I. Holloway, Raleigh; Miss Blanche Pickard, Chapel Hill; Miss Elizabeth Schwarburg, Southern Pines.

THURSDAY NIGHT.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. H. Shore.

After an anthem and a quartette by the Musical Club, the committee on resolutions made the following report:

Resolved, That in convention assembled we, the North Carolina Branch of the King's Daughters and Sons, wish to offer our expressions of thanks and appreciation.

We realize that The King's Daughters have enjoyed in this city a hospitality of such kind and generous quality that a formal record can ill express our grateful appreciation. When every citizen has seemed to feel himself a gracious host, it is hard to select any for special mention.

Our sincere thanks are tendered to the Patient Circle of Greenville whose generosity made the convention a pleasant reality, for the delicious luncheons served each day. To the Methodist congregation for the use of their handsome church so beautifully decorated; the ministers who invoked Divine blessings on our sessions; the delightful reception at the Carolina Club.

To Mrs. Clarence G. Burton, our guest of honor from the Central Council, for her inspiring words and co-operation; Mrs. J. B. Cherry for her charming music; Mr. Charlie James for a beautiful solo; also to Mrs. T. E. Hooker, the president, and each member of the Musical Club who added greatly to the pleasure of the convention.

To Mr. Whichard for the ac-

MR. S. J. M. BLOW DEAD.

Passed Away Thursday Night in Ayden.

Mr. Samuel Joseph Marston Blow died about 11 o'clock Thursday night at the home of Mr. Luther McLawhorn, in Ayden, with whom he boarded. He had been in very poor health for several months and much of the time was confined to his bed, but recently had so much improved that he was out again. He was about his business during the day Thursday, and died suddenly while sitting in a chair in his room.

Mr. Blow was a native of Greenville and about 55 years of age. Most of his life was spent here until he moved to Winterville soon after the establishment of that town, and from there moved to Ayden about six years ago. Having been more or less connected with The Reflector during its existence and always a staunch friend of the paper and editor, he conducted the Winterville department in this paper, as he also did in Ayden after going to that town. It is not amiss to say that both these towns felt the effect of his excellent letters, and their development was in no small degree due to his labors. He believed in talking for the place in which he made his home. At Ayden he served a few terms as mayor of the town and was a justice of the peace by State appointment at the time of his death.

"Bud Joe," as everybody familiarly called him, really felt like a brother to all, for he was everybody's friend. Such genial disposition as he possessed is rare, and his friendship and loyalty was the kind that endures. He delighted in doing something for the pleasure of his associates, and it was always with the spirit of self-forgetfulness. His sense of appreciation was the keenest, and no act of kindness toward him, it matters not how small, was ever forgotten, nor would he fail to express his gratitude therefor.

He was a member of two fraternal orders—Masons and Pythians—and was true to their principles. Among the members he was held in highest esteem. The Pythian lodge of Ayden took charge of his remains and almost the entire membership came with the body to Greenville to conduct the funeral service, the Masons also sending an escort of several of that fraternity. Both sister orders of Greenville joined with them in paying the last mark of respect at his grave.

The remains upon arrival here on the morning A. C. I. train were taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. M. D. Higgs, on Third street, from which the funeral took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon with the Pythian burial service, the interment being in Cherry Hill cemetery.

The deceased is survived by one sister, Mrs. M. D. Higgs, and two brothers, Messrs. H. A. and A. L. Blow.

One Southern Democratic senator wants protection on lumber, another wants it on that new fangled tan bark, another wants it on sugar, and so it goes. Just as well fall in line with the straight-out Republican policy of protection and go the whole thing flat-footed. It really looks like Raleigh is going to move now in earnest and get that long-talked-about auditorium. A deal has been effected for a large lot in a splendid location and the plan is to erect thereon a municipal building and auditorium with a four to six thousand seating capacity. When Raleigh completes this auditorium and brings hotel accommodations up in keeping with it, the city may again come into note as a place for holding conventions.

An American has been arrested in Norway on a confession that he murdered Mrs. Guinness, the Indiana woman who made her premises a graveyard for a number of men whom she lured to her home and murdered. The man arrested says he helped Mrs. Guinness commit several crimes and then murdered her. The fellow may be a sensationalist or just crazy, or may have this as a ruse to get free passage back to America in case he should be brought over for trial. It is recalled that one man is already serving a penitentiary term on the charge of burning Mrs. Guinness' home, what was supposed to be her remains being found in the ashes.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Vacation Dangers.

The schools and colleges of the land have closed their doors for a season. The tired brain-workers seek for relaxation, for a change of environment, for rest. The wealthy classes flock aboard the trans-Atlantic greyhound to "do Europe." All, who possibly can do so, take a vacation. This is as it should be! It is characteristically American too, for no nation under the sun can afford to idle away a portion of the summer, as can our prosperous American people. And thus mountain-retreats and summer-resorts and ocean-beaches and lake-shores will be populated by a dense mass of pleasure-seekers. Alas that comparatively so few people understand how to spend a vacation! Instead of the simple life, of simple enjoyments, of the trackless forest and the quiet water-side, they choose summer hotels and various resorts, where the tyranny of social demands and social pleasures are in full swing. Life becomes an endless repetition of the very things they left behind at home, functions and excursions follow each other day after day and night after night. But the real danger is far more subtle and lies far more deeply hidden. It is the spiritual danger, to which our vacations expose us. Things, which would not be tolerated at home for a moment, are condoned when one is "out on a vacation." The Sabbath may be dutifully observed at home; it seems to have no special meaning for many during the summer recess. The church door stands open at nearly every resort, yet few enter the house of God. Launches on the water-courses and automobiles on the roads are filled with men and women, whom one notices with a start of astonishment. Even office-bearers in the church, nay ministers of the gospel, are not free from the general charge of infidelity to their vows of faith. Prayer is neglected, and in many a trunk, the one thing needful, God's Holy Word, is conspicuously absent. These things ought not to be so! The claims of faith and of true religion can never be localized. One takes them along wherever he goes. God is everywhere, and his holy Law is everywhere, unchangeably the same. The true child of God knows this and meets the urgent temptations, which lie hidden in every vacation, with an added prayer and strong resolve to bear the livery of his king, wherever the period of relaxation may lead.—Christian Observer.

Why RALSTON SHOES are non-wrinkling

As you have probably noticed, most shoes have a tendency to wrinkle and "bunch up" across the toes after the shoes have been worn a few times. This is the fault of the lasting (the process of pulling and stretching the leather over the wooden last.)

The RALSTON method has remedied this fault. Ralston vamps are first crimped (see illustration) then lasted. There are no bunches, no wrinkles, because every part of the vamp fits the last perfectly without straining the leather at any point. This adds to the wear of the shoe. It also explains the reason why Ralstons retain their smart appearance until worn out.

There are other unusual features of RALSTON SHOE construction which will appeal to you. Come in and look over our new styles.

TAKE IT IN TIME.

Just as Scores of Greenville People Have.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect the aching back, Urinary troubles, diabetes, surely follow. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve backache, Cure every kidney ill. Greenville citizens endorse them.

Mrs. J. S. Stokes, Twelfth and Evans Sts., Greenville, N. C., says: "For some time I suffered severely from kidney and bladder complaint. My kidneys were weak and the irregular passages of the secretions caused me great annoyance. I also had bearing-down pains through my abdomen and sharp, shooting twinges through my loins. There was a tender spot across my kidneys and at times my limbs pained intensely. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and was so much impressed that I procured them at Wooten's drug store. They soon relieved the pains in my sides and limbs, restored my kidneys to a normal condition and at present I am feeling a great deal better in every way. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for the great improvement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
