THE WOMAN'S CORNER

BURN THE TRASH.

Timely Suggestion to Help Keep the Town Clean.

Dear Mr. Editor:

As another Monday has passed and the trash man has not passed, we beg to say a few words in behalf of our town officials. In your reply to Mrs. Information Seeker last Friday, you stated that as there was so much work to be done, the trash man was unable to make his usual rounds. We are glad that the street force is busily engaged, and while some may say that the force is inadequate, and should be increased, we must all remember that Greenville's treasury cannot be overflowing, on account of recent heavy drains. Therefore it is incumbent on every citizen to do all he can to help these good officials keep the town free of rubbish and trash. We have noticed in several places that piles of paper and trash have been burned. Now this is a good example to be followed by everyone, and it is amazing how the town work of carting away the trash could be lightened if every householder would do the same thing.

Let us, therefore, work together, and by burning everything that can be burned, lighten the work of the town officials in keeping the streets clean of loose paper and trash. A Helper.

The King's Daughters Express Thanks.

The Patient Circle of The King's Daughters of Greenville desire to return profound thanks and appreciation to all the citizens of our town who so kindly contributed time and services to render the stay of our delegates pleasant during the recent convention.

Especially will they ever remember the kindness extended by Carolina Club in permitting the use of their handsome rooms for the luncheons and reception; also the Methodist congregation who so generously offered their beautiful church for the services. The Musical Club and their accomplished president, Mrs. Travis Hooker, were most kind in furnishing delightful music that added much to the enjoyment of all present.

Too much cannot be said in gratitude to Messrs. Wiley Brown and W. H. Dail, Jr., whose services were invaluable in assisting with the transportation of our guests and their baggage; nor of Mr. O. E. Warren for his donations of beautiful cut flowers.

Mrs. R. Williams, Treas.
Mrs. J. L. Wooten, Sec.
Mrs. A. L. Blow, Pres.

Thanks to Physicians and Druggists

The North Carolina Branch of The King's Daughters and Sons, assembled in State convention in Greenville May 26-27, by rising vote expressed sincere thanks to the physicians and druggists throughout the State for their ready response to all demands made upon them for services and medicine by members of the order. Committee.

State papers please copy.

*The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Jarvis Memorial church will meet with Mrs. S. T. Hooker on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Let every member be present as a report from the recent meeting of the Board at Chatanooga.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., June 1, 1909.
Miss Ella Wayne spent Sunday visiting friends in Farmville.

Mrs. W. W. Dawson and Misses Harvey and Earl Tucker of Grifton, spent Monday in town.

Miss Nancy Coward, of Greenville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Dixon.

We must congratulate our colored friends on their very good order Saturday and Sunday. Our streets were thronged with delegates, ministers and visitors. The occasion was a Baptist union meeting.

We doff our hats, and make our most polite bow to our street committee for the work done on the streets. Several streets in Ayden would remind the pedestrian of Patton avenue in Asheville, and Broad street in Richmond.

Messrs Dixon & Dixon, are offering a gold fountain pen at Saul's Drug store for the most suitable slogan for their tobacco warehouse now in course of erection. Suggest the slogan, sign your name, seal it up and hand to Dr. Sauls, which will be opened by a committee on June 10th.

Miss Essie Brooks, of Grifton, spent Monday in town.

Maj. J. A. Davis spent Sunday in Washington visiting his daughter, Mrs. Mallison.

Ed. Garris and family spent Sunday in the country.

J. R. Smith and family spent Sunday in the country visiting Mrs. L. C. Fletcher.

Miss Jimmie Lee Davis left Tuesday for a visit to Washington.

Henry Skinner and J. W. Quinerly are off today on a fishing trip to Clay Root.

I. J. McGlohon left Monday evening for New Bern.

Field peas, rape and millet seed at J. R. Smith Co.

Mayor Barwick wishes to call attention to ordinances 10, 44, 49, relative to cleaning premises, stock running at large, and front gates left standing open on the street. The gate problem is a nuisance, swinging open all day and night on the street. We feel sure our people only need their attention called to this matter.

Capt. D. G. Berry spent Sunday in Scotland Neck.

Governor Kitchin has appointed W. J. Boyd, of Ayden, as one of the delegates to represent North Carolina at the National Charity Convention to be held in New York June 9 to 16.

J. W. Glenn and family have returned from Stoneville, Mr. Glenn's former home.

Prof. Cale, of Grifton, has been elected superintendent of Ayden graded school. He comes to us highly recommended by the good people of Grifton.

The trustees of Free Will Baptist seminary at their annual meeting re-elected Prof. T. E. Peden principal, and Miss Lillian Munn, assistant principal.

L. L. Kittrell & Co. have purchased the entire stock of furniture, rugs, etc. of L. H. Worthington & Co. and moved it across the street.

Don't neglect your premises, be sure to use plenty of lime and ward off fever and other sickness. "An ounce of preventive is better than a pound of cure."

The cook room of Oel Manning caught fire on top Sunday while his wife was cooking dinner. Fortunately it was discovered in COMMUNICATION FROM A CITIZEN.

Mr. Editor:

You seem to be deeply concerned about that meeting held at "Hasket's store" on Saturday night. A few citizens did gather there to discuss town matters, which they had a right to do. The democratic platform declares for equal rights to all. This gathering was composed largely of citizens of that part of the town recently taken in, that part without light and water and which people have been paying for lights and water for two years.

Some of the questions asked at this gathering: Did the board of commissioners promise to give this part light and water after collecting one tax from them?

Did a competent book keeper offer to do the work of the town clerk for $600 per year, and are they now paying the present incumbent $900? Did the present mayor say that he could not serve for the present salary, and did the aldermen promise if elected to pay him $900?

Was the report of the expert on the books of the town spread upon the minutes, and then "cut out"?

Is it equal rights to spend the taxes of all the people for the gratification and pleasure of a few?

Your article indicates that you've "seen the hand writing on the wall." The mills of the gods grind slow, but they grind.

Is the day current being run at a loss to the tax payers, for special privileges?

Voters from the Wards.

With the Committee.

The slogans suggested for Greenville in contest for The Reflector's $3 Parker fountain pen prize are now in the hands of the committee—Mayor H. W. Whedbee, Postmaster R. C. Flanagan and Mr. H. A. White. Forty letters were turned over to the committee, and as some of these letters contain as many as twenty different suggestions it can be imagined what the committee has to do to compare all of them and select the best. As soon as the committee renders a decision it will be published.

For Sale.

On Monday, June 21st, at 12 o'clock we will sell at public auction to the highest bidder before the court house in Greenville one house now used for the Free Will Baptist church known as the public school house. And one lot 75x75 on Eleventh street near said church. Terms of sale one-fourth cash, remainder by Jan. 1st. 1910.

Church Benefit.

Tonight at Masonic opera house "The Star of Bethlehem."

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES.

A beautiful reverential picture, showing the eventful period immediately preceding the birth of the gentlest of men.

The life of the time is faithfully shown, and the hardships attending the wanderings of Mary and Joseph; their seeking shelter, being denied, and finally forced to find refuge in a stable.

The arrival of the wise men called Magi, gentle philosophers from Persia and India, bearing gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh for the child, whom they worship as a King.

Herod, the king, sends for the wise men, questions them regarding the coming of Christ; where he is to be born, and time—for he is very much troubled withal.

The wise men are warned by an angel and depart from Judea, returning unto their own country. Joseph and Mary are also warned and flee with the child into Egypt.

Herod, exceedingly angry, sends forth his command to slay all the children in Bethlehem from two years and under—hoping to encompass the death of the child whose coming he feared.

Throughout, the action is beautifully sustained; enacted in a reverent spirit. Costumes and characters historically correct.

The scenes wherein the shepherds watched by night—the humble stable and lowly manger—the arrival of the wise men bearing gifts, and the tender devotion shown.

Will Build Church at Farmville.

Rev. J. B. Cook went to Farmville today to join with others of a committee appointed to select a site and let the contract for a Baptist church building in that town. The recent union meeting at Hobgood took up this matter and appointed a committee to take charge of it, with instructions to have the building completed in time for holding the union meeting there on the fifth Sunday in October.

Charles-Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrie J. Chapman request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter Gladys Cornelia to Mr. Thad Bessent Charles Wednesday morning June the sixteenth

*nineteen hundred and nine at seven o'clock at their home near Grifton, North Carolina.

False Statement Corrected.

My competitors are trying to get orders for tobacco flues by telling farmers they have bought me out of the business, patterns and all. It is entirely false, as I am still very much in the flue business and have a large stock on hand. Flues now ready for delivery. Come early to avoid the rush.

TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1909.

Tax listing has begun, and the day of our lamentation is at hand.

The commencement orator has about finished his job for this season.

Beginning with June Acts 5:1-9 is suggested as timely reading for tax listers.

Greenville should do things to draw people to the town, not drive them away.

The seashore and mountain resorts are opening and the summer exodus will follow.

Today's primary to nominate a candidate for mayor means too much for Greenville to be treated lightly.

If you feel proper interest in the welfare of Greenville you will not vote for an incompetent man for mayor.

This is a critical time for Greenville, and much is going to depend upon the primary today and the election next Monday.

July first is the date suggested by which the special session of congress will adjourn. So there will be another month of the agony.

You have until half past eight o'clock tonight to vote in the primary for mayor. Go get in a vote for H. W. Whedbee if you want a mayor worthy the name.

You can't always go by a name. The town of Zephyr, in Texas, was struck by a tornado that almost demolished it. Thirty-two persons were killed outright and fifty others wounded.

The Chronicle says that fully half a dozen men in Charlotte are ready to fork over the $1,000 license tax on "near beer" saloons imposed by the aldermen. There must be an immense profit in selling the stuff, or perhaps, it is easy to operate a "blind tiger" in connection.

A party of congressmen under the chaperonage of Congressman John H. Small is making a trip of inspection of the North Carolina section of the inland waterway. Congressman Small has been a great factor in interesting the government in the waterway and its accomplishment is due largely to his efforts.

In order to give points to immigrants coming over, the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society of New York will put lecturers on each of the big liners, who, by means of addresses in the immigrants' native language, as well as by moving pictures, will point out the disadvantages of life in the American cities and the advantages of life on the farms.—N. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

"It is getting time that some of the big excursions were being brought to Raleigh," says The Evening Times of that city. Just wait until June 10th, brother, and you will see one roll in that is worth looking at. The Baraca class of Memorial Baptist Sunday school will take a big part of Greenville to Raleigh that day, and they are going to take possession of the capital for the time being.

Abdul Hamid.

Oh, don't you remember A. Hamid, Ben Bolt, sweet Abdul, who wore a tin crown? His servants would shake at the sound of his voice, and tremble with fear at his frown; they have filed him away in the cooler, Ben Bolt, the Young Turks have camped on his frame; his henchmen they hung to the beams of a bridge, and sweet Abdul is out of the game. Oh, don't you remember the Yidiz Kiosk, the smoothest kiosk in the bunch? It was there that he herded his wives by the gross, and handed them garlic for lunch; they have taken his wives to the dump ground, Ben Bolt, a wailing and lachrymose group; they gave eight hundred decrees of divorce, and sweet Abdul is deep in the soup. Oh, don't you remember the poison, Ben Bolt, that we used when we wished to kill rats? Old Ab is afraid, if he swallows his grub, he'll get some of that 'tween his slats; he's feeling all day at his head-piece, Ben Bolt, to see if it's still on his neck; in Turkey, they say, there's the dawn of reform, but sweet Abdul's reduced to a wreck.

THE GENUINE has the RED Z on the front of each package and the signature and seal of J. H. ZEILIN & CO., on the side, IN RED.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT LIVER TROUBLES

A dull sluggish liver always brings a dull, sluggish feeling to the entire body. When the liver works properly the blood courses through the body in a bright red stream. When the liver is inactive the blood becomes dull and muddy, and it is full of poisonous matter. A great many people try to get a fine, clear, pink and white complexion by rubbing things on their faces. They might rub a lifetime and the same yellow complexion would remain—for the liver causes it. Only bright, red blood brings fine complexions. Blood loaded with impurities from the liver sends the impurities out through the pores of the skin and turns the skin a brownish yellow.

To get rid of the dull, heavy feeling and muddy yellow complexion get the liver to working again. Two 50c bottles of Bloodline will do it nine times out of ten. If you are troubled with constipation and straining use Bloodline Liver Pills with the Bloodline. For sale by M. M. Sauls, Ayden, N. C. and J. W. Bryan, Greenville, N. C.

A NEW INVENTION

The accompanying cut is an illustration of a patented improvement in plows. It is a boltless combination plow. A complete turning plow, with changeable parts of various sizes. A complete cotton and tobacco plow, with double front points, shares, sweeps and half-sweep points of various shapes and sizes to suit the different requirements of growing crops. All parts are easily shifted and the plow may be changed from a turning plow to a cotton plow in the shortest time, compared to plows adjusted with wrenches and bolts. Handles and beam also adjusted to any desired position with the least inconvenience and in the shortest time. The inventor invites correspondence and investigation from parties desiring to take up the matter with a view of placing this up-to-date invention upon the market.

Palindromes.

A palindrome is a word or sentence that reads the same forward or backward. The making of palindromes in Latin was at one time a favorite pastime. It calls for the exercise of some constructive and analytic skill. Not many English palindromes are known. The supposed self introduction of the father of humanity to his quondam rib is the most familiar:

"Madam, I'm Adam."
Sometimes an unintentional palindrome comes to light, as in the shop sign in Yreka, Cal.: "Yreka Bakery."

Palindromes of considerable length may be evolved—as, for instance, the supposed reply the girl makes to her mother's question regarding the progress of the class in Latin:

"O, ma! No pupils slip up on amo."—Journal of Education.

Who Owned the Fish.

There is in Wales a creek five miles long, connecting two small lakes. About fifty persons own property along this creek, and for years and years the people have disputed as to who owned the fish in it. Not long ago two boys got into a fight over the fish they were catching, and the dispute was at last carried into the courts. The decision of the judge was odd enough. He decreed that any one claiming to own any of the fish should attach a brass tag to the tails of the fish with the owner's name in plain letters, and that in the future he must catch his own fish or none at all. This unique decision put an end to the dispute.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Sign of Your Uncle.

The use of three gilt balls as the symbol of the pawnbroker's trade came into use with the Lombards, who were the first great money lenders of the world. Of the Lombards the princely Medici family of Florence were the first to make money lending a business. On the Medici coat of arms had been engraved three gilt balls, and this insignia had been handed down generation after generation as a symbol of money lending. One pawnbroker of London told a friend that it meant getting the security of double the value of what is lent. Two of the balls would therefore indicate what the money lender took and the third what he gave.—London Modern Society.

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dullness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these. Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "tonics" and "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting. Indigestion and the serious ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means.

Kodol supplies this natural means. It performs the stomach's work for it—just as the stomach should perform it—while the stomach takes a little rest, "for the stomach's sake."

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 24 times as much as the fifty cent bottle. Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

Why RALSTON SHOES are non-wrinkling

As you have probably noticed, most shoes have a tendency to wrinkle and "bunch up" across the toes after the shoes have been worn a few times. This is the fault of the lasting (the process of pulling and stretching the leather over the wooden last.)

The RALSTON method has remedied this fault. Ralston vamps are first crimped (see illustration) then lasted. There are no bunches, no wrinkles, because every part of the vamp fits the last perfectly without straining the leather at any point. This adds to the wear of the shoe. It also explains the reason why Ralstons retain their smart appearance until worn out.

There are other unusual features of RALSTON SHOE construction which will appeal to you. Come in and look over our new styles.
