Crops are fine and farmers are well up with their work.

The Centre Brick tobacco warehouse is for rent. It is conveniently located and lighted. The right man can do a good business here this season. Apply to J. R. Smith & Bro.

There is a move on foot to build one or two prize houses. We must have the room as we want to sell 5,000,000 pounds of tobacco here this season.

At a meeting of the town councilmen Tuesday night, Richard Wingate was elected police.

Mrs. F. G. Buhman went to Grifton Wednesday.

Mrs. Thos. L. Willingham entertained Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jesse Cannon and Mrs. Thos. E. Peden. A unique feature of this "sunset social" was the relating of reminiscences of bygone days by several ladies present. After an hour spent in this pleasant manner the table was spread in the grove under the trees and loaded down with good things from the well filled baskets and lunch boxes of these excellent house keepers. Mrs. Peden has done much for the benefit of the town of Ayden and the uplift of the community at large and

GOOD ADVICE FOR BRIDES.

Pay More Attention to Cooking Lessons and Less to the Preparation of Trousseau.

What secret relation there is between matrimony and needlework is one of the seven wonders of the world. As soon as the engagement ring is safely on, the girl flies to a sewing machine or embroidery frame, and there she stays up to the last moment, says Helen Corinne Hambridge in The Delineator for June.

There is no prettier sight than a woman engaged on a dainty bit of needlework for her trousseau—artists have made it a study for painting from time immemorial—but in the name of all that is reasonable, where is the necessity for providing dozens and dozens of undergarments, dresses enough to last years, and hat ditto? I know a young bride whose boast is that she tied seven hundred baby ribbon bows for her lingerie and worked one thousand eyelets in the same. Before marriage she was perfectly capable of existing without all this prodigious stock of undergarments and was content to be simply well supplied. She was not going to the far north or darkest Africa where white goods are practically unobtainable, but intended to stay in her home city where she could buy what she wanted right along, and get things at bargain sales occasionally.

Instead of the girl's effort to provide so much in the way of clothing for her marriage being commendable, it is actually the reverse—a vanity of vanities. A sufficient supply for a year's wear is all that should ever be made for the lingerie part of the trousseau; and as to hats and gowns, only enough for the season in which one is being married. There is something distinctly vulgar in this mad rush for clothes during the engagement period. It is not the finest way by any means to fit one's self for the new duties of life. Half of the sewing hours devoted to cooking lessons and the study of domestic economy would prove a far better investment.

Masonic Opera House.

Pictures for today. Chinatown Slavery, this picture is instructive and interesting as it shows the evil life of Chinatown. Twin Brothers a very funny picture. Lucky Jim, another one of those pretty little romances. In spite of all the rain the opera house performance last night was well patronized. You will always find the crowd at the opera house, rain or shine. The pictures for tonight and Saturday are very fine. Only two more days to help the church benefit.

Potato Quotations.

The prices of potatoes were quoted today as follows:
New York—$3.25 to $3.75.
Philadelphia—$4.

Mrs. Cannon is known far and wide as one interested in all that tends to elevate, and cheerfully responds to all opportunities to help all who need her strength, courage and purse. All present express themselves as having spent a most pleasant hour with these two of Ayden's best women and with each other. The hostess was assisted in a charming manner by Miss Lizzie Hines, Mesdames Fred Beaman and Turnage.

MR. LEONIDAS FLEMING DEAD.

Passed Away After a Long Illness
Thursday Afternoon.

Mr. Leonidas died at 5:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nana Brown, on Second street. He had been an invalid and great sufferer for many months and his death was not unexpected.

Mr. Fleming was born June 19th, 1845, making him a few days less than 64 years of age at the time of his death. He was a native of Pitt county, and was a useful citizen. He was a prosperous farmer and spent most of his life on his estate in the Great Swamp section. Becoming too feeble to longer look after the duties of his farm he moved to Greenville to live with his daughter, his wife dying here about three years ago.

He was a Confederate soldier, and served with valor through the civil war, and except on the last reunion day was a prominent figure among his comrades when they gathered annually on Memorial day.

For many years Mr. Fleming was a justice of the peace, was once a member of the Board of County Commissioners, and soon after moving to Greenville served a year on the Board of Aldermen. He was also a member and officer of the Primitive Baptist church at Great Swamp. In whatever position he was placed he always performed his duties faithfully.

He is survived by two sons and two daughters—Mr. J. L. Fleming, of Greenville; Dr. M. I. Fleming, of Hamilton; Mrs. Nana Brown and Mrs. J. B. White, of Greenville.

The burial takes place at 5 o'clock this afternoon in Cherry Hill cemetery, services conducted at the grave by Elder M. T. Lawrence, of Hamilton. The pall bearers are Messrs O. W. Harrington, D. C. Moore, A. L. Blow, R. L. Humber, J. S. Conleton, D. E. House, R. W. King, J. L. Little, T. R. Moore, R. J. Cobb, D. L. James and C. W. Harvey.

For Sale.

On Monday, June 21st, at 12 o'clock we will sell at public auction to the highest bidder before the court house in Greenville one house now used for the Free Will Baptist church known as the public school house. And one lot 75x75 on Eleventh street near said church. Terms of sale one-fourth cash, remainder by Jan. 1st, 1910.

First ward in the mayor's office.

Second ward in the court house.

Third ward in Centre Brick warehouse.

Fourth ward in Parham's warehouse.

Fifth ward in Star warehouse.

Government Cotton Report.

The government cotton crop report issued today places the condition of the crop at 81.1 and the percentage of decrease in acreage at a little above 4.

WITH THE ALDERMEN

Not Much Business at This Session.

The Board of Aldermen met in regular monthly session Thursday night with five members present. There was not much business to demand attention outside of the monthly reports of officers and allowing accounts.

An order was passed to pay W. E. Hooker $331.20 for a deed for a one foot strip of land and a half interest in the brick wall of his building adjoining the town where the city hall is being built.

The street committee reported streets in fair condition, also that they had remedied the trouble caused by overflow on property of D. J. Whichard and James Brown as ordered at last meeting.

The street committee was given further time for the construction of a bridge across the Harrington ravine at the east end of Fourth street, to investigate as to the kind of bridge should be built.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale and ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis were before the board on the matter of opening a street from Dickinson avenue to Eighth street, and action was deferred to a special meeting to be held on the 24th.

The board adjourned to meet again Monday night, 7th.

Thomas Galloway.

The Salem Methodist church, near Grimesland, was the scene of a beautiful marriage Wednesday afternoon at half after five o'clock, when Miss Helen Galloway became the bride of Mr. Edward B. Thomas, of Greenville. The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being white and green. The wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Levi Holiday, of Grimesland. Messrs W. L. Hall, of Greenville, and W. S. Galloway, of Grimesland, as ushers passed down opposite aisles. Then came the dame of honor, Mrs. W. L. Patrick, of Greenville, attired in a lovely gown of white messaline, while up the opposite aisle came the maid of honor, Miss Susie Moore, of Greenville, beautifully gowned in a wisteria messaline. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. J. C. Galloway, and was met at the altar by the groom attended by his best man, Mr. Luther Thomas, of Virginia.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Bridgers, pastor of the bride. The bride was becomingly dressed in a going away gown of Copenhagen blue, with hat gloves to match. A large number of useful and valuable presents were received. The bride is one of Pitt's most charming young ladies. The groom is the popular book-keeper of the Consolidated Tobacco Co. They left via Norfolk and Southern, for a tour of Northern cities, after which they will be at home, in Greenville.

False Statement Corrected.

My competitors are trying to get orders for tobacco flues by telling farmers they have bought me out of the business, patterns and all. It is entirely false, as I am still very much in the flue business and have a large stock on hand. Flues now ready for delivery. Come early to avoid the rush.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

Miss Ellen Parker, of Washington, came up Thursday evening for a visit here.

Mrs. W. G. Williams returned home Thursday from a visit to Concord, Goldsboro and Wilson.

Miss Helen Cox, of Greensboro, who has been visiting her grandparents here, left Thursday evening for Ayden.

Miss Bessie Hackney, of Wilson, who had been visiting Miss Mary Smith, returned home Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. P. Fleming and little daughter, of Pactolus and Miss Estelle Thigpen are visiting their sisters, Mrs. O. W. Harrington and Mrs. G. E. Cherry.

Mrs. J. F. Smith, of Goldsboro, arrived here Wednesday afternoon for a several weeks visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Abrams, and other relatives.

Statistics of Lynchings.

New York, June 3.—That 3,284 men, women and children have been lynched in this country in the last quarter of a century, was the assertion of Mrs. Ida Wells Barnett, at the National Negro Conference, in this city.

Asking why this was permitted by a Christian nation, Mrs. Barnett quoted John Temple Graves as saying that the mob stands as the most potential bulwark between the women of the South and such a carnival of crime as would precipitate the annihilation of the negro race. All know that this is untrue, Mrs. Barnett said.

"The lynching record," she added, "discloses the hypocrisy of the lynchers."

Ice Cream.

When you want the best ice cream, made from pure cream, place your orders with Peacheos Bros., at the Candy Kitchen. We have all flavors—vanilla, chocolate, strawberry and peach. Can furnish it in bricks and slices when desired. Orders for Sunday should be placed on Saturday and deliveries will be made promptly, packed in ice, in time for Sunday dinner.

Free Will Baptist Meeting.

The meeting last night at the Free Will Baptist church was very good. Dr. E. L. St. Claire preached a delightful sermon on the subject "Sin." There will be service tonight at 8:15. Subject "God's Remedy for Sin." There is a treat in store for all who can hear Dr. St. Claire on this important theme. The public invited.

Nature Naturally Explained.

Henry, aged two, had become very much interested in watching his mother make comfortable. When the first snow came, his bed being near a window, he awoke early in the morning and called loudly to his mama, "O mama, the trees are all covered with battin'."—The Delineator for June.

A Sympathetic Critic.

The minister was resting after the morning service, when his small son asked him sympathetically, "Does it make you tired to preach, papa?" "Yes, my son." Well, it makes me tired, too, to hear you, papa."—The Delineator for June.

FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1909.

Truly this is "Our Greenville, yours if you come."

It has the real ring of welcome, "Our Greenville, yours if you come."

The Reflector takes pleasure in saying to every reader, and everybody else, that this is "Our Greenville, yours if you come."

The senate has decided to do some night work and make the sessions cover ten hours a day. Then they will come nearer earning their pay.

On Thursday Governor Kitchin announced the appointment of Hon. J. S. Manning, of Durham, as successor to Judge Connor as associate justice of the Supreme court.

The mayor of Philadelphia says he will maintain order, but it is noticed the street car strikers are doing about as they please, even going to the extent of destroying property.

Those who stop to consider the present financial condition of Greenville will go slow in the matter of making any breaks in the board of aldermen. The town has a floating indebtedness of some $20,000 that must soon be provided for. The present aldermen have the movement on foot to relieve this floating debt, and their experience makes them more capable of handling the matter. It is a time that the board needs men of experience rather than novices, and every citizen who has the proper regard for the credit and progress of the town will think well before joining a movement to make changes at this time.

The Editor's Compensation.

The man who edits the average country newspaper cannot well avoid treading on somebody's toes continually, must expect hard work and little thanks; must expect to be called a coward because he does not "pitch into" everything that somebody thinks is wrong and a fool if he speaks out too plainly on public evils. He must expect to grind other people's axes and turn the grindstone himself. Still, we think it is one of the noblest professions on earth, the one in which the earnest man can do the most good to his fellow man and in which an honorable man can wield much power for good.—Ex.

Must Buy Home Paper.

A score or more of young girls at Beaverville, Ind., have formed a league to promote refinement among young men, and among other things, have resolved to marry no man who drinks, smokes or chews and who does not take the home paper. Drinking is considered the chief evil, smoking and chewing comes next, while the young women assert that when a man does not take the home paper it is evidence of want of

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

"It is getting time that some of the big excursions were being brought by Raleigh," says The Evening Times of that city. Just wait until June 10th, brother and you will see one roll in that is worth looking at. The Baraca class of Memorial Baptist Sunday school will take a big part of Greenville to Raleigh that day, and they are going to take possession of the capital for the time being.—Greenville Reflector.

We will be glad to have all of Greenville come right along, and we will take a day off and show you the sights around the Capital City. Among the many attractions you will find here will be a real baseball team in action on that day. The Capital City is growing as fast as a boy of twelve summers, and we have many things here that will interest the people from all over the state. Raleigh is an ideal place for an excursion and we will give you a good time as often as you come. Bring the Baraca class and all the other classes and all the town and you will have the trip of your life.—Raleigh Times.

The North Carolina delegation in congress is getting badly mixed up on the tariff. The scene is being watched with considerable interest. As the people learn more of the tariff and the burdens it imposes upon them the more interest they show about the matter. Wisdom demands that a protective tariff should be abolished. Protection is only paying tribute to monopolies and trusts and the people are growing weary of this robbery.—Washington Progress.

Some of the newspaper reports get it confused every year. The South observes Memorial Day. The North observes Decoration Day. The spirit is the same but the Southern sentiment embodying both remembrance and decoration, we take it, is the finest.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect the aching back, Urinary troubles, diabetes, surely follow. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve backache, Cure eaery kidney ill. Greenville citizens endorse them. Mrs. J. S. Stokes, Twelfth and Evans Sts., Greenville, N. C., says: "For some time I suffered severely from kidney and bladder complaint. My kidneys were weak and the irregular passages of the secretions caused me great annoyance. I also had bearing-down pains through my abdomen and sharp, shooting twinges through my loins. There was a tender spot across my kidneys and at times my limbs pained intensely. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and was so much impressed that I procured them at Wooten's drug store. They soon relieved the pains in my sides and limbs, restored my kidneys to a normal condition and at present I am feeling a great deal better in every way. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for the great improvement."

The Man Who Wins.

Business is not like backing horses. The man who wins in business wins because he has deserved to win; the man who loses does so because he deserves to lose. This truth may not always be obvious, but it is none the less true. Of course the unsuccessful man won't admit it. It would be better for him if he did, for then he would seek for the deficiency in himself which brought about his failure and strive to eliminate it. It is the old principle of the survival of the fittest. The fittest is the man of pluck, with strong belief in his own powers and a keen energy to seize every chance. The man who believes in luck would probably be more profitably employed in backing horses, where his peculiar talents would have more play.—London Opinion.

An Oriental Blessing.

A well known representative from China, who was a guest at a wedding in a capital city, was approached after the ceremony by the best man and jocularly asked to go over to the young couple and pronounce a parental blessing. The obliging dignitary complied with pleasure. Placing his hands on the blushing bride and shaking bridegroom, he said: "May every new year bless you with a man-child offspring until they shall number twenty-five in all. May these twenty-five man-children offspring present you with twenty-five times twenty-five grandchildren, and may these grandchildren—"

But the little bride grey hysterical about this time, and the oriental blessing was ended amid the laughter of the guests.—Ladies' Home Journal.

ARAB SCHOOLS.

Their Peculiar Methods in Teaching and Studying.

"An Arab school," said a traveler, "is one of the most interesting places in Cairo to visit. The children, with the schoolmaster, sit upon the floor or the ground in a semicircle, and each has a tablet of wood which is painted white and upon which the lessons are written. When the latter are learned they are washed out and replaced by other lessons.

"During study hours the Arab schools remind one of the Chinese, for the children all study aloud, and as they chant they rock back and forth like trees in a storm, and this movement is continued for an hour or more at a time. The schoolmaster rocks back and forth also, and altogether the school presents a most novel appearance as well as sound. Worshipers in the mosques always move about while reciting the Koran, as this movement is believed to assist the memory.

"The desks of the Arab schools are old contrivances of palm sticks, upon which is placed the Koran or one of the thirty sections of it. After learning the alphabet the boys take up the study of the Koran, memorizing entire chapters of it until the sacred book is entirely familiar.

"A peculiar method is followed in learning the Koran. The study begins with the opening chapter, and from this it skips to the last. The last but one is then learned, then the last but two, and so on in inverted order, ending finally with the second chapter.

"During the student's progress it is customary for the schoolmaster to send on the wooden tablet a lesson painted in black and red and green to the father, who returns it after inspection with a couple of plasters pasted upon it. The salaries of the schoolmasters are very meager indeed,"—Washington Herald.

Though you drive Nature out with a pitchfork, she always comes back.—German Proverb.

A Real Burglar Proof Safe.

A curious modern invention is to be seen by a favored few in the Bank of England. It is claimed to be an absolutely burglar proof safe, because at night it is lowered into a subvault of heavy masonry and concrete.

When the safe reaches the bottom of the vault it is fastened down by massive steel lugs, operated by a triple time lock. Until these lugs are released automatically at a fixed time no human agency can raise the safe. As for breaking through the subvault and walls of stone and concrete ten feet thick, even with dynamite—well, the burglar must shake his head sorrowfully and admit that he has met his Waterloo in that safe.—Boston Post.

Not Particular.

"Sir," said the young man respectfully, "I am a poor man, and you are a millionaire. It seems presumptuous in me no doubt to aspire to the hand of your daughter. But my love for her is so great that I cannot be stopped by such considerations. Love scorns conventions and conveniences. Ah, sir, will you give her to me?"

The old magnate seemed interested. "But which of my four daughters do you want?" he asked, not unkindly.

Eagerly the suitor made answer, "Oh, I'll leave that to you, sir!"—Pearson's.

Dixon's pencils, you know what they are, at Reflector Book Store.

As you have probably noticed, most shoes have a tendency to wrinkle and "bunch up" across the toes after the shoes have been worn a few times. This is the fault of the lasting (the process of pulling and stretching the leather over the wooden last.)

The RALSTON method has remedied this fault. Ralston vamps are first crimped (see illustration) then lasted. There are no bunches, no wrinkles, because every part of the vamp fits the last perfectly without straining the leather at any point. This adds to the wear of the shoe. It also explains the reason why Ralstons retain their smart appearance until worn out.

There are other unusual features of RALSTON SHOE construction which will appeal to you. Come in and look over our new styles.
