SATURDAY, JUNE 5, 1909.

Greenville usually does what the people make up their minds to do.

If you are for Greenville in earnest, show your faith by your works.

It has the real ring of welcome, "Our Greenville, yours if you come."

So many strikes do not argue well for the boasted return of prosperity.

There are not any easy jobs, and the man hunting for a soft snap can go to the bean patch. Any job that is well performed requires plenty of work and attention.

Don't stop to grumble that your own place is not as good as somebody else's. Make the best of your surroundings, do your duty at whatever you are engaged in, let your presence be felt, and you will not find much time for complaining.

Again the Reflector feels like doffing its hat to the people of Greenville on their wise action in the primaries Friday night. The unanimity with which the voters of every ward went to their meetings and re-nominated the entire old ticket shows that they want experienced men to conduct the important affairs of the town that must be looked after in the next few months. The same men who have been looking after these matters can now go right on with them without interruption and we believe the result will be beneficial to the town. Let all dissensions and misrepresentations now cease and everybody work together for the advancement of Greenville.

In past years there have been some people who would not list their taxes before the appointed township list takers, but would wait later to list before the county commissioners. This course may have been prompted by ulterior motives, but we will not argue that point. We will say, however, that those who have practiced that way of listing in the past had better not do so again unless they prefer to pay double tax. The last legislature passed a very stringent law on this point and leaves the county commissioners no discretion in the matter except to follow the law. The entire month of June is set apart for listing and that is time enough, and every person subject to tax had just as well step up and do his duty.

A Matter of Business.
An exchange makes the following timely remarks:
"Don't get it into your head to pay the newspaper man as an act of charity—that he has to $100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

live, and feel that you had just as well help a little. A newspaper is just as legitimate a business as the dry goods or grocery business, and it is just as necessary to the building of the town and country in which it exists as any other business. Further than that, every man in the country gets benefit from the paper whether he is a subscriber or not. The editor does more for the development of the country than any other man, if he has the good of the country at heart. Don't figure that he has to be an editor to make a living, either. The majority of them can do other things, too. "So, as you are getting benefit from the home paper, don't you think you ought to subscribe for it and help the editor to do a good work—not as an act of charity, but as a matter of business and self-interest? We do."

Make it a Rule.

The trading public should bear in mind that it is always best and safest to trade with the home merchants as they usually carry in stock everything needed to sustain life and make the home comfortable, cozy and happy. Should you need a special article your merchant may not have in stock, it would be safest to let him order it for you and thereby save you risk of being cheated out of your hard earned money. Local merchants as a rule, know with whom to place their orders to their own and customer's protection and they are in every way prepared to give you wise counsel.—Ee.

Men and women who work for wages should bear in mind that when they fail to give their employer the amount of labor that they should they are not doing the "square thing," and while "time-killing" by too much talking or any other manner of idleness is not looked upon as stealing from your employer, there is a very little difference, as it is your time and labor he is paying you for.—Louisburg Times.

A STEADY DRAIN

Sick Kidneys Weaken the Whole Body--Make You Ill, Languid and Depressed.

Sick kidneys weaken the body through the continual drainage of life-giving albumen from the blood into the urine, and the substitution of poisonous uric acid that goes broadcast through the system, sowing the seeds of disease. Loss of albumen causes weakness, languor, depression, uric poisoning causes rheumatic pain, nervousness, nausea, cricks in the back, gravel and kidney stones. The proper treatment is a kidney treatment, and the best remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Great Greenville cures prove it.

James Hardison, 319 E. Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says: "My kidneys were weak and the secretions passed too frequently, especially at night when I was forced to rise several times. In the morning my back was very lame and I was subject to pains through my loins. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Wooten's drug store, restored my kidneys to a normal condition. I am now able to sleep well and the lameness and soreness across the small of my back has entirely disappeared. I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to live up to representations and I have no hesitation in giving them my endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FAMOUS DEAD HEATS.

Those Between More Than Two Horses Not Frequent Now.

Dead heats on the flats do not occur with such frequency as they did. As it is, we get quite enough of "dead heats of two," but there is a spice of romance about a "dead heat of three," says Bailey's English Magazine.

At York in 1896 for the Badminton plate three horses passed the post locked together. They were Messala, Bajardo and Casso Con, ridden respectively by M. Cannon, T. Loates and S. Loates. A third Loates was fourth on Hampsteadale, and he was beaten only a short head by the leading trio.

In 1880 at the Lewes summer meeting Scobell, Wandering Nun and Mazurka ran a dead heat for the Astley stakes. Only a head behind the struggling trio came Thora and Cumberland, also running a dead heat and placed fourth by the judge. Some good judges who saw the race declare that if it had been called a dead heat of five no one would have caviled at the official verdict.

In 1845, on the Thursday of the Newmarket Houghton meeting, two dead heats of three occurred in the same afternoon.

In 1882 there was a dead heat of three in a field of five for the race called the Sandown Derby, but afterward known as the Electric stakes, run over the straight five furlong course at Sandown park. The dead heaters were R. S. Evans' Marden (R. Wyatt), P. Lorillard's Gerald (F. Webb) and the Duke of Hamilton's Leonora (J. Watts). In the run-off Marden, who in the meantime had had his plates removed and ran unshed, won by three lengths, a head only separating second and third.

The most notable dead heat of three was the finish for the Cesarewitch in 1857 between El Hakim, Prioress, an American entry, and Queen Bess. There were thirty-four runners, and the starting prices of the dead heaters were 8 to 1 El Hakim, 30 to 1 Prioress and Queen Bess.

In the decider, which was run off in the waning light, George Fordham was substituted for Tankesley on Prioress and Bray for Little on El Hakim. The change of jockeys appears to have worked to some advantage in the case of the American mare, for she won the decider by a length and a half, a head separating the other two.

Once there was a dead heat of four at Newmarket in a sweepstakes for two-year-olds, run over the first half of the Abingdon mile. This was at the Houghton meeting in 1855. Five started, and the race resulted in a dead heat of four, the fifth horse being only beaten half a length. The decider was won by a head, half a length separating second and third. Tiny Wells rode the winner, the original favorite, a chestnut filly called Overreach, by Birdcatcher.

Avoid Danger

When you are sick, or suffering from any of the troubles peculiar to women, don't delay—take Cardui, that well-known and successful remedy for women. Thousands of women have used Cardui and been benefited. Why not you? Don't take any chance. Get Cardui, the old, reliable, oft-tried remedy, for women of all ages.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Luzania Morgan, Sneedville, Tenn., writes: "For ten years I suffered with the turn of life, and tried many remedies without relief. I had pains all over my body and at times I could not sit up. At last I took Cardui and now I can do my housework. I have told many ladies about Cardui and recommend it to all sick women." Try it.

AT ALL DRUG STORES

As you have probably noticed, most shoes have a tendency to wrinkle and "bunch up" across the toes after the shoes have been worn a few times. This is the fault of the lasting (the process of pulling and stretching the leather over the wooden last.)

The RALSTON method has remedied this fault. Ralston vamps are first crimped (see illustration) then lasted. There are no bunches, no wrinkles, because every part of the vamp fits the last perfectly without straining the leather at any point. This adds to the wear of the shoe. It also explains the reason why Ralstons retain their smart appearance until worn out.

There are other unusual features of RALSTON SHOE construction which will appeal to you. Come in and look over our new styles.
