ACROSS-STATE ROAD POSSIBLE

Interest in Coast to Mountain Highway.

After a most delightful automobile trip to the coast of North Carolina, Mr. John A. Park has returned to Raleigh, bubbling over with enthusiasm over the proposed mountain-coast automobile route across the State. The possibility of such a thing as a good smooth road from one end of the State to the other is not so vague as might appear on first thought, and indeed, from the interest that is already being shown by wide-awake cities and towns in various counties it looks like the highway will soon be a reality.

For the purpose of ascertaining the possibility of driving an automobile through the less accessible parts of the State, Mr. Park has made a number of trips east, and also to the west for some distance, making a critical observation of the roads traversed. It was only last summer that Mr. Park drove a car from Raleigh to Morehead City, over a route that was declared impossible and at the time when the eastern part of the State was in the grip of heavy floods. There were a few bad roads encountered upon that journey, although the cost of putting the route into proper shape for constant use by automobiles would not be prohibitive.

Mr. Park's latest trip was in a direction precisely east of Raleigh, terminating at Plymouth, on Albemarle sound, after traveling 146 miles from the State capitol. The fact that this distance was covered in eleven and a half hours, by a twenty horse-power car, shows that the roads are by no means in bad condition. People along the route covered manifested great interest in the proposed mountains-to-coast highway and many cities and towns are now already actively engaged in promoting the greatly-desired road.

From Raleigh to Wakefield there is a good dirt road twenty miles long which needs only a few slight repairs and fills to put it into excellent condition. From Wakefield to Wilson, a distance of thirty miles, that portion of the road through Johnston and Nash counties, is mostly in a deplorable condition, compared to the usual county road, and would have to receive some attention if it were expected to give constant service. The roads of Wilson county are macadamized for many miles, affording quite a treat to the automobilist. In Pitt, Beaufort and Washington counties, the roads are firm and level, with few washouts and holes.

There was very little sand encountered on Mr. Park's trip, so little, he states that his car pulled through all of it on high-speed except in one instance near the end, although at no time was it necessary to do any pushing or pulling of the comic-paper order. The purpose of the trip was to find out if an automobile could be successfully operated over the worst portions of the roads, and Mr. Park has thoroughly demonstrated the fact that it can be done.—Raleigh News and Observer.

New Buildings.

Harvey & Ferrall are building a large tobacco storage warehouse near the Norfolk & Southern depot on Pitt street. It will be a brick building 110x135 feet. Work is going on rapidly on it.

B. E. Parham will soon have work begun on several brick stores on Dickinson avenue, near his tobacco warehouse.

IMPORTANT MEETING

Of Board of Trustees of the East Carolina Teachers Training School.

The trustees of the East Carolina Teachers Training School will meet here at 11 a. m. next Friday to consider plans for opening this school this fall. This is a meeting of vast importance and it is earnestly hoped that every member of the board will lay aside every other duty and attend this meeting.

The call of president Joyner is as follows:

Raleigh, N. C., June 7, 1909.

Dear Sir:
You are hereby notified of a meeting of the board of trustees of the East Carolina Teachers Training School, at Greenville, Friday morning, June 11th, at 11 o'clock, to consider the report of the executive committee and to complete arrangements for opening the school this fall. This is the most important meeting of the board yet held, and it is absolutely necessary that every member shall attend. I sincerely trust that you will not permit anything but serious providential hindrance to prevent your attendance. Your aid and counsel are essential at this crisis.

Very truly yours,
J. Y. Joyner, Chairman.

BLACK JACK ITEMS.

Black Jack, N. C., June 7.

The entertainment given by the Winterville Sunday school Sunday was enjoyed by a large audience. We were glad to see the children so well trained in their work. It shows that they have had the proper instructions given by their teachers. We are always glad to have visitors with us. We cordially invite all to come out and help in our work.

Misses Lula Arnold and Julia Mills were the guests of Miss Martha Williams Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Clara Belle Harper, of Winterville, is spending this week with relatives here.

J. C. Galloway attended Sunday school here Sunday and also gave us a very interesting talk on the work.

Heber McLawhorn, of Winterville, was here Sunday.

Miss Clyde Smith, of Shelmdine, spent Sunday here.

There was quite a large crowd from Galloway's school here Sunday.

Robert Dixon and son, H. E. Dixon, went to Washington Saturday.

J. W. Seymour and little daughter went to Greenville Saturday.

Miss Lillie Buck was the guest of Miss Martha Clark Sunday.

There was an interesting debate again Friday night by the young men. There will be another debate Friday night. Querry. "Resolved, that the U. S. was not justifiable in subduing the Philippine Islands." All cordially invited to come out and hear the discussion. Come and we will try to entertain you.

W. L. Clark, H. E. Dixon, J. H. Mills, E. L. Clark went to Greenville today.

Corn and tobacco are looking fine, cotton is somewhat small for the time of year.

Potato Quotations.

The prices of potatoes were quoted today as follows:

New York—$3.50 to $4.
Cleveland—$4.75 to $5.
Philadelphia—$4 to $4.50.
Norfolk—$4 to $4.50.
Baltimore—$3.50 to $4.

FAMOUS TOMATO GROWER.

Mr. D. D. Haskett Takes the Lead With This Palatable Vegetable.

Mr. D. D. Haskett is making fame as a grower of tomatoes. Near his home on Twelfth street he has a large plot of the finest vines we ever saw for the time of year. Some of the vines are now about 5 feet tall and already heavily fruited. The outlook is that in a few days he will be ready to market fine tomatoes in large quantities with the supply continuing for some time. Mr. Haskett says he is learning more about tomatoes every year—that is he is learning how to produce finer ones and get them to ripen earlier. In 1907 he put the first ripe ones on the market July 6th, in 1908 he bettered this record by having ripe ones June 18th, while this year he had some on the market June 5th. He says that next year he expects to beat this and be on the market by June 1st. His are also of the best variety.

At the Masonic Opera House.

The "Passion Play" was patronized last night by an enormous crowd with expressions that it was undoubtedly the finest picture they had ever seen.

Owing to the great number turned away who could not "squeeze" a seat in the balcony or down stairs, also by many special requests of those who witnessed it, this beautiful picture will be repeated tonight.

Tomorrow's program: "Where there's a will there's a way." A very interesting story of a young man, who leaves home, for London where he falls in love with a beautiful actress, afterwards becoming engaged.

The father of the young man very much opposed to the match, takes a trip to London with the intention of breaking this engagement.

The actress disguising herself as a maid waits upon the old man, after his arrival, winning his confidence, etc.

A very pretty finish; the old man giving his consent, and after the marriage a father's blessing.

The other two pictures are very pretty and interesting, the first "Your turn Marquis" very handsomely colored.

The second, "Between Love and Honor" which is one of those tinted pictures, where "Pathe" shows that he can excel the other pictures in rich tints, scenery, etc.

Town Election.

A quieter election could not have been held than the one in Greenville Monday for the election of mayor and one alderman in each ward. There was no opposition whatever to any nominee, hence the voting was light and without special interest in any ward. All the aldermen whose terms will expire the first of July were re-nominated and elected, hence the board will continue just as it was the past year.

Evangelistic Services.

A series of evangelistic services will be held in the Universalist church beginning on July 1st, and closing July 6th. Rev. W. O. Bodell will have charge of the services, assisted by Dr. A. M. Bradley, of Spencer, Mass. The people of Greenville and vicinity are earnestly and cordially invited to attend these services.

Willard O. Bodell, Pastor.

KING'S CROSS ROADS ITEMS.

Kings X Roads, June 7, 1909.

Mrs. W. S. E. Smith and Miss Irene Smith visited Miss Lena Caroway last Saturday night.

Miss Addie O. Corbett and Miss Iola Smith attended the quartly meeting at Otter's Creek Saturday and Sunday.

W. E. Smith and family spent Sunday with Arron Tyson, near Farmville.

J. L. Worthington, of Macclesfield, spent part of last week with his brother, Walter Worthington.

Misses Ethel Reid and Lillian Parker spent last week with their grandmother, Mrs. W. C. Moore.

Miss Ora Matthews is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith and Miss Carrie Smith and C. E. Case were the guests of W. S. E. Smith Friday night.

Mrs. Dola Parker spent Wednesday evening with Mrs. Bettie Matthews who is right sick.

Miss Irene Smith spent Tuesday night Miss Helen Smith.

Our farmers are well pleased with their tobacco crop. It is growing right on.

Gem Theatre.

The program tonight is one of the best ever shown in the city. The feature subject entitled "The Shepherdess" is a beautifully hand colored film of exceptional merit. Two other good subjects—a comedy, a "Dumb Hero" a picture telling a pathetic story of a dog's love for its master together with illustrated songs make up a program worthy of your consideration. Remember the Gem is the coolest place and shows the best pictures at all times to be seen in the city. Don't forget the performance Friday and Saturday nights for the benefit of Episcopal church choir. Big musical program in addition to usual pictures and songs. Tomorrow night we show the famous motion picture entitled "Slumberland or general Phil Sheridan's Ride Through Georgia." Don't miss it.

Editor Reflector:
Will you kindly tell me if any of the aldermen of the town who are in favor of compelling property owners on Evans street to put sewerage in their stores, own and pay taxes on any property on Evans street, or much on any other street in this tax accursed town? Will some man of heart and a sane mind tell me how a widowed woman with no income but the rent from a store can pay for such, pay taxes, insurance and repairs, and have bread to eat? Have the people of this good little country town gone mad, or do they want to drive people away from it?

Some of us will have to leave, or the city fathers will have to come to their sober senses. Will the people submit without any hearing whatever?

An Overburdened Taxpayer.

Lower Tobacco Prices Predicted.

There is an attempt in the West to broaden the area of tobacco production this year and it will very likely prove successful. New interest is awakened in Missouri, especially, and a strong attempt will be made to plant a large crop in that State, which for years has lessened its area of tobacco culture.

This large increase in Western acreage must have its effect on common tobacco grown in Virginia and North Carolina next fall. The farmer cannot take present prices as an index of what they will be next year, except that if they index anything at all it is low prices eight months hence.—Southern Tobacco Journal.

Fine Old Names.

A brisk discussion is afoot just now among the Southern editors over the question of who "put the kettle on." It was either Molly, or Polly or Jennie, or Johnny, or Jerusha. However the dispute may end, it certainly is pleasant to hear those dear old names again. In this whimsical age of Maymes and Jaynes and Ethyls and Maries, and Susannes and Daysies and Annettes and Helenes, there's a decidedly wholesome sound to Molly and Polly.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Passion Play.

An immense crowd was at the opera house Monday night to witness the "Passion Play." It was by far the best exhibit of moving pictures ever seen here, and the music of Mr. Baraes accompanying the different scenes was splendid. The same pictures and music will be repeated tonight.

Meeting in Free Will Church.

The meeting at the Free Will Baptist church is on the increase all the while. The subject of "Washing the Saints Feet" was ably discussed Monday night and highly enjoyed by all who were present.

Those who miss hearing Dr. St. Claire are missing a fine deal. Their opportunity is fast passing away and Thursday night will close the meeting.

We hope to see all of those who have not attended go out tonight. We heartily insist that those of other choirs will feel at home with us.

We hope to have a new and more handsome building in the near future. Asking the kind co-operation of all our friends,

Yours and His,
D. A. Windham, Pastor.

TUESDAY, JUNE 8, 1909.

This week the senate is pulling wool on the tariff.

One of the suggested slogans for Greenville that the town might well put into practice is "Watch Greenville get clean."

The one thing that Pitt county folks should now keep uppermost in their minds is good roads. The sentiment ought to grow until every section of the county has good roads.

That Uncle Sam run short nearly a hundred million dollars in expenditures during the past fiscal years shows that his pocket book is getting in about as bad condition as ordinary folks. The difference in his favor is his good credit.

The grand jury of the Federal court in Raleigh returned true bills of indictment for embezzlement against J. R. B. Carraway, cashier of the National Bank of New Bern. The bill also included the names of J. F. Taylor and Editor C. L. Stevens of the New Bern Journal as accessories to the embezzlement. The case will be watched with much interest.

In Buncombe county the practice has heretofore prevailed of putting striped convict suits on all persons sentenced to the roads, regardless of the offense for which sentence was passed. This is contrary to law, and the attention of Buncombe officials has been called to the fact that no persons are to wear strips except those convicted of a felony, and it is unlawful to put strips on persons convicted of misdemeanors.

A meeting of the trustees of East Carolina Teachers Training School is called for Friday, 11th. This meeting is for the purpose of making plans for the school to open next fall. We take it that the most important work of the trustees at this meeting will be the selection of a president for the school. In this no mistake should be made. If the school is to be the success desired the very best man possible to obtain should be placed at its head. The Reflector believes from expression heard in various sections of the State that there is a wide spread desire on the part of the people that Hon. J. Y. Joyner, present State Superintendent of Public Instruction, be president of this institution. There is no doubt that there is not another man anywhere who could do as much for the school as Mr. Joyner, and every effort should be made to induce him to take the presidency of it.

ters would arrange to have shorter services. If they would announce that promptly at twelve o'clock the benediction would be pronounced, the attendance would increase. The tendency to lengthen the service and multiply the songs and to preach over half an hour is in part responsible for small attendance.

Why not, Mr. Preacher, shorten the services and let everybody know that one hour is the maximum length of every service? Of course, we understand, that it requires more work for a minister to preach a short sermon than a long one. A parson once said to his congregation: "My brethren, I hope you will pardon a long sermon today. The truth is that I have been too busy during the week to prepare a short sermon, and having to preach without proper preparation I am forced to scatter and take too much time."

There is a tradition at Yale that, whenever a visiting preacher asks President Hadley how long it is customary for the sermon to be, Mr. Hadley replies: "There is no limit, sir, upon the time you may preach; but this is a Yale tradition that no souls are saved after the first twenty minutes."

This applies to other places as well as Yale.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Smart Dog For a Fact.

Chief of Police Young has a dog that he would not part with for any sum of money. Not only is he a good watch dog, but he is a fishing dog also. Mr. Young generally takes him when he goes fishing, and more than once he has played his part. Some time ago Mr. Young went out for an evening's sport. Of course, the dog went too. A trout hung himself to the hook and made away across the pond with hook, pole and all. Mr. Dog saw what had happened and into the water he went, grabbed the pole with his teeth and brought fish, pole and all to the bank. Several times the dog was pulled under the water, but he held his grip. He is a bull dog and they are the kind that never gives up.—Rockingham Anglo-Saxon.

Surprising, What Kodol Will Do

For you, when you need it. But the longer you neglect indigestion, the more you will suffer before Kodol can restore Good Digestion.

And, of course, indigestion if neglected long enough, brings on serious diseases in which Kodol cannot benefit you. Some of these there is no help for at all. There are, in fact, very few ailments which cannot be traced directly to impure blood. And impure blood is always due to a disordered stomach. Use Kodol and prevent Nervous Dyspepsia. Kodol will effectually assist Nature to secure a complete restoration of good digestion. It does this by at once digesting all food in the stomach and keeping it digested, until the stomach is rested and can resume its own work. Kodol removes the cause—and the effect quickly removes itself. When it is recalled that Apoplexy, Heart Disease, Cancer—and even Consumption—are due to poor digestion, and poisons thus transmitted to the blood, and throughout the system—the importance of maintaining good digestion is at once realized.

We knew what Kodol would do before ever the first bottle was sold. If we did not know just what it will do, we would not guarantee it the way we do. It is easy for you to prove Kodol—the next (or the first) time you have an attack of indigestion. And you will certainly be surprised at the results. It is perfectly harmless. There can be no harm in trying something that may do you a great deal of good—when it costs you nothing if it doesn't.

Our Guarantee
Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one family. The large bottle contains 3 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle. Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT LIVER TROUBLES

A dull sluggish liver always brings a dull, sluggish feeling to the entire body. When the liver works properly the blood courses through the body in a bright red stream. When the liver is inactive the blood becomes dull and muddy, and it is full of poisonous matter. A great many people try to get a fine, clear, pink and white complexion by rubbing things on their faces. They might rub a lifetime and the same yellow complexion would remain—for the liver causes it. Only bright, red blood brings fine complexions. Blood loaded with impurities from the liver sends the impurities out through the pores of the skin and turns the skin a brownish yellow.

To get rid of the dull, heavy feeling and muddy yellow complexion get the liver to working again. Two 50c bottles of Bloodine will do it nine times out of ten. If you are troubled with constipation and straining use Bloodine Liver Pills with the Bloodine. For sale by M. M. Sauls, Ayden, N. C. and J. W. Bryan, Greenville, N. C.

Abating a Nuisance.

The Langworths lived in a corner house so easily accessible from the street that they were constantly annoyed by persons ringing to ask where other possible inhabitants of that block were to be found. Finally, goaded to desperation by these interruptions, the family boy attempted to put a stop to the nuisance.

"I guess," said he complacently, "there won't be any more folks asking if the Browns, the Biddles or the Hansons live in this house. I've fixed 'em."

"What have you done?" queried Mrs. Langworth.

"Hung out a sign."

"And what did you print on it, laddie?"

"Just five words," replied Harold proudly, "Nobody lives here but us."—Lippincott's.

Wrong Again.

A political speaker was attacking the government of the day with more venom than reason. A man at the back of the hall at last cried out, "You're wrong, sir!" A little nettled, the orator continued without heading. Presently, in answer to another strong assertion, came again, "You're wrong, sir!" The speaker looked angry, but continued on the warpath. "You're wrong, sir!" again rang out.

Angrily addressing the persistent one, the orator cried: "Look here! I could tell this man something about this government which would make his hair stand on end!"

"You're wrong again, sir!" came exultantly from the critic as he stood up and removed his hat. His head was as bald as the proverbial billiard ball.—London Globe.

As you have probably noticed, most shoes have a tendency to wrinkle and "bunch up" across the toes after the shoes have been worn a few times. This is the fault of the lasting (the process of pulling and stretching the leather over the wooden last.)

The RALSTON method has remedied this fault. Ralston vamps are first crimped (see illustration) then lasted. There are no bunches, no wrinkles, because every part of the vamp fits the last perfectly without straining the leather at any point. This adds to the wear of the shoe. It also explains the reason why Ralstons retain their smart appearance until worn out.

There are other unusual features of RALSTON SHOE construction which will appeal to you. Come in and look over our new styles.
