We had a very good Sunday school at Smith's school house Sunday evening. Eld. Peeden attended and gave the children a good lecture. Joe Smith delivered a very good and appropriate lecture of about fifteen minutes to the school which all appreciated very much indeed. We are very glad to have Joe with us in our school while spending his vacation at home.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas Almighty God for some wise purpose has seen fit to remove from amongst us our beloved brother, J. M. Blow, the familiar voice that administered or responded to the solemn obligations is now hushed forever on earth, The eyes that looked into our own with the responsive glances of Friendship, Charity and Benevolence will gaze upon us no more. The hand that gave us the true Pythian grasp lies motionless; the warm heart is pulseless now in the sanctuary of its icy bosom. The generous soul that thrilled so promptly and so often to the manly sympathies of Pythianism has risen at last from the tenement of clay to its immortal mansion in the skies. He has left our castle hall below to travel the valley of the shadow death to the glorious and everlasting lodge on high. Be it resolved:

1. That a link from our endless chain of fraternity has been severed which can never be replaced. That in the death of Brother Blow we feel an irretrievable loss. We miss him as a friend, a brother and a comrade, with us are left aching hearts and flowing tears. We dreamed not that his days were numbered, and that his form would now be locked in the last embrace of nature. But his record is clear; his obligations are discharged; he sleeps in peace.

2. That to the grief-stricken family we humbly commend the comforting influence of God's goodness and mercy. May the grace of this living kindness remain with them in the hours sadness and woe, that they may be strengthened by His presence and better enabled to bear the great affliction which has befallen them.

3. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to The Daily Reflector; a copy to The Free Will Baptist and a copy be spread upon our records.

"Sleep, O brother, softly sleep,
While thy loved ones for thee weep;
May thy spirit from above
Hear us in fraternal love.

While the days are fleeting by;
And we learn we too, must die,
Deepest love we ever hold
For thy scaplet, blue and gold.

When the ebb of time is o'er,
When the world shall be no more,
Still in hills of light above,
Shall we life in deathless love."

Free Will Baptist Meeting.

The revival at the Free Will Baptist church remains good. There is much interest manifested from time to time. Dr. St. Claire being unable to fill the stand Tuesday night, and it was left to the pastor, Rev. D. A. Windham, however, the crowd was not finally disappointed, for he delivered a very helpful sermon on the subject "Lord Save Me or I Perish." It is very likely that Dr. St. Claire will be able to fill the stand tonight and will have a good sermon prepared for all who can possibly hear him.

The people have only two more chances to hear him for the present time. We hope all will take advantage of this splendid opportunity to hear the noted blind evangelist before he leaves our city.

Fine Peaches.

Mr. J. C. Taylor, of Bethel, has gone ahead or anything in the way of peaches that we have seen this season. This morning he brought The Reflector some very fine ones, both in size and flavor.

SHOWING TO BE PROUD OF.

Fine Record of The Home Building and Loan Association.

The directors of The Home Building and Loan Association held their monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon in the office of the secretary. At this meeting applications for loans aggregating $8,000 were passed upon, which gives a good idea of how the people regard the association as an institution through which to build houses.

The most remarkable feature of this meeting was a report of the secretary showing the condition of the association at the close of business on June 7th, in that it is a showing of which every member of the association can feel proud. We give the following summary from this report:

Gem Theatre.

The program tonight is the best ever shown in the city, not only in the number of subjects, but the high character of each which exceeds anything ever seen here before. Two of the subjects, "Slumberland" a beautifully colored film and "Sheridan's Ride Through Georgia" especially appeal to those who like the best in motion pictures. Mr. Alley will render "Some Day You Will Miss Me" illustrated with beautiful slides. The last two pictures entitled, Cave of the Spooks and College Chums, show some very funny situations and help to make up a program the equal of which you have never had the pleasure of witnessing. On Friday and Saturday nights there will be a benefit for the Episcopal church choir. Some very good pictures have been secured, also a musical by some of the best talent in the city. Every one is cordially invited to attend. Tomorrow night we present, "The Power of Labor" a very strong dramatic subject of exceptional merit. Remember the gem is the coolest place and shows the best pictures to be seen in the city.

Masonic Opera House.

For today's program we refer you to yesterday's edition of The Reflector, which will give you an outline of the pictures. Also tomorrow's program—"Two Ladies and a Beggar," "Dream Spectres" (Handsomely colored.) "The Chaperon" and "Bunco Men and the Rube" both comic.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1909.

Feuds are creating trouble in Kentucky again.

Yes, sir, it is "Our Greenville, yours if you come."

They have gone to roasting Mr. Bryan again, but if he keeps up his past record he will come out of it without being much scorched.

There is nothing that concerns the welfare of the farmers more than good roads, but taken as a whole there is nothing that they show less interest in—unless it be raising their home supplies.

Greenville folks usually stand together and when they do something happens that is worth while. But the division over the location of a site for the public building is not doing any good, only delaying the getting of a building that much longer. A representative of the government treasury department came here, went over the situation thoroughly and made his recommendation for a site. That recommendation should stand and be accepted by the government.

If The Reflector has one pet more than another among the business institutions of Greenville, it is The Home Building and Loan Association. Its record has been watched with pride and we have many times made reference to its splendid work. In our news columns today mention is made of the last statement of the secretary of the association, and the showing there ought to be gratifying not only to every shareholder but also to every person interested in the up building of Greenville. Though the association is just a little more than three years old, in that time it has loaned more than $47,000 to people of the community with which to build, buy or pay off indebtedness on their homes. It is a remarkable record, and the splendid management and success of the association entitles it to the cooperation and good wishes of everybody in the community.

Fixing For a Fight.

They are already fixing up another big political fight in North Carolina, and growing out of the appointment of Associate Justice Manning to the Supreme Court bench. Judge Connor, whom he succeeded, had but two years to serve and at the end of that time Justice Manning will have to go before the people for election. The talk is that he will be opposed by Judge W. R. Allen, now of the Superior Court bench, and who aspired to the appointment given to Mr. Manning. Judge Allen, it will be remembered, was endorsed by ex-Governor Aycock and by a large following of influential Democrats. The politicians think that with Allen they can defeat Manning for the Supreme

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Court bench, using as a club, the fact that he was Governor Kitchin's manager in the late campaign and that he was given the appointment solely as a matter of reward. It is understood that matters are being shaped to give the nomination for governor unanimsously to Mr. Locke Craig, and if this is done, Allen's cause will be greatly strengthened, but Manning, by virtue of holding the office, will have the inside track. The political possibilities of the next two years in this State are of a character to keep the politicians astir.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Were Not "Fitten."

The Republican office-seekers, who were foaming at their mouths (in private) last month because the president appointed a Democrat as Federal Judge, are now trying to find a place to light. They know if they publicly abuse Mr. Taft they cannot connect with the pie-counter and if they commend him they naturally ask him to give the other important jobs to Democrats. In that dilemma Postmaster Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, offered a refuge by explaining that Judge Connor was appointed because the Republicans could not agree. That refuge was hailed widely and gladly by the pie eaters. But the Asheville-Gazette News, Republican, refuses that lodgement, saying that "nothing could be further from the facts." Mr. Taft distinctly said on several occasions in substance: "I prefer to appoint a Republican. but if I cannot find one that measures up to my standard, I will appoint a Democrat." He searched diligently, and the only reason no Republican was named, according to Mr. Taft, was because he could not find one who was "fitten."—Raleigh News and Observer.

At least one learned educator—of course if he is an educator he is learned—is out in advocacy of a change of name for the winding up of schools and colleges from commencement, which he terms a misnomer, to something else more expressive. Some years ago this paper mentioned the matter and the dearly beloved school teachers laughed at us. However, it is not such a misnomer after all in one respect. It is the commencement of work in that after the schools close, the faculty, from president down, proceed to get out on the road and drum for patronage. In this respect it is the commencement of work.—Greensboro Record.

THE BANANA TREE.

Each Piece of Fruit Represents a Single Flower.

Tropical trees and plants, with their luxuriant growth and brilliant flowers, are very interesting. In Hawaii there is not the hoarding or niggardliness of slow growth. Nature does everything with a lavish hand. Small annuals in colder climes do not seem remarkable when they have their full growth but to perfect their flower and seed, but in the larger growth of the tropics this does seem a remarkable feature.

During my stay on the windward side of the island of Oahu I have been studying the banana tree. In growth and habit it is exceedingly interesting. Very truly does it live but to produce its fruit, for, though a stem attains a height of from twelve to eighteen feet, as soon as one bunch of bananas ripens it is "pau" in Hawaiian parlance, "finished" in English. It is cut down and another tiny shoot starts from the ground to pursue the same course.

Each banana represents a single flower, and we eat the fleshy seed, not the ovary, something as in the apple, only that the seeds have no covering, as in that fruit. The large cluster of flowers is inclosed in leaflike coverings, which roll back and fall off, one by one, as a hand of the flowers is ready to open. By a hand one means two rows of flowers going half around the stem. I have often wondered what was meant in the oriental stores by a "hand" of bananas. Now I understand by looking at the empty stem from which we have just finished eating the delicious fruit. As soon as the fruit first begins to turn the stem is cut and hung up to ripen. Bananas hanging in the porch to be used at will are a very good substitute for the apple of colder climes.

But to return to the flowers. The first hand of flowers turns very soon into tiny green bananas, and then the next leaflike bract rolls back and falls off, and a hand of flowers comes to light, till, one after another, these hands have made a large bunch of bananas. In those that I have examined the last flowers have not come to perfection, and there is often seen hanging a folded bunch at the extreme end of the covering.—Living Church.

Peculiar Marriage Rites.

Northern India and the island of Banquet can certainly claim to have the most peculiar marriage rites of any country. In the former a cow and a calf are invariably required at the marriage. The animals are driven into a narrow running stream, the priests and the betrothed couple also standing in the water. The man and woman each catch hold of the cow's tail, and the priest pours water out of a glass vessel upon their joined hands, while all present mutter certain prayers. The young folks are then declared to be man and wife, and the priest claims the cow and calf as his fee. In the island of Banquet the officiating priest takes a sharp knife and with it makes a small incision in the right leg of the bride and bridegroom. From each incision he gathers a few drops of blood and transfers them to the other one's leg. This operation, together with a short religious formula, constitutes the whole of the marriage ceremony.

A Wonderful "Coo."

Some of the tenants of a Scotch nobleman noted for his temperance principles were being entertained one day at dinner. There were plenty of aerated water and milk for them, but nothing stronger. One of the farmers, who knew by experience what to expect, had provided himself with a flask of rum and, unknown to a brother farmer, poured a generous quantity into the glass of milk which his neighbor had elected to drink. In due time the unsuspecting farmer put the glass to his lips and seemed to enjoy it so that he never stopped till he finished it. Then he turned to his friend and remarked, "Hech, man Tammas, what a coo!"

A STEADY DRAIN

Sick Kidneys Weaken the Whole Body--Make You Ill, Languid and Depressed.

Sick kidneys weaken the body through the continual drainage of life-giving albumen from the blood into the urine, and the substitution of poisonous uric acid that goes broadcast through the system, sowing the seeds of disease. Loss of albumen causes weakness, languor, depression, uric poisoning causes rheumatic pain, nervousness, nausea, cricks in the back, gravel and kidney stones. The proper treatment is a kidney treatment, and the best remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Great Greenville cures prove it.

James Hardison, 319 E. Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says: "My kidneys were very weak and the secretions passed too frequently, especially at night when I was forced to rise several times. In the morning my back was very lame and I was subject to pains through my loins. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Wooten's drug store, restored my kidneys to a normal condition. I am now able to sleep well and the lameness and soreness across the small of my back has entirely disappeared. I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to live up to representations and I have no hesitation in giving them my endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Duffer's Record.

Mark Allerton in London M. A. P. tells this story from the golf links: A duffer inquired of his wearied caddie, "How many's that, Sandy?" The caddie replied: "Ye're playin' yer ninth. Ye tappit it aff the tee in yin, ye missed it a'the-gither in twa, went intae the bunker in three. Ye didna get oot in four, but ye got oot in five. Ye gaed intae the whins in sax, ye didna get oot in seven. But ye got oot in acht, and noo yer playin' yer ninth."

Why RALSTON SHOES are non-wrinkling

As you have probably noticed, most shoes have a tendency to wrinkle and "bunch up" across the toes after the shoes have been worn a few times. This is the fault of the lasting (the process of pulling and stretching the leather over the wooden last.)

The RALSTON method has remedied this fault. Ralston vamps are first crimped (see illustration) then lasted. There are no bunches, no wrinkles, because every part of the vamp fits the last perfectly without straining the leather at any point. This adds to the wear of the shoe. It also explains the reason why Ralstons retain their smart appearance until worn out.

There are other unusual features of RALSTON SHOE construction which will appeal to you. Come in and look over our new styles.
