TRIBUTE TO J. A. HYMAN.

Hall of Covenant Lodge No. 17, I. O. O. F.

June 8th, 1909.
Noble Grand and Brothers:

The "Grim Reaper" has chosen for his remorseless harvest another member of our order.

On Sunday morning, May 30th, just before the hour of dawn, the spirit of Brother James Ashley Hyman took its flight to that undiscovered country "from whose bourne no traveler returns."

Brother Hyman was born in Pitt county, N. C., Aug. 9th, 1874. On Sept. 10th, 1893, he was married to Miss Mamie Moore. In 1896 he moved to Greenville and lived here about three years, representing the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

While a resident of Greenville he was initiated into Covenant Lodge April 3th, 1897, and remained a faithful member until death.

He also joined the Memorial Baptist church and on Sunday, June 19th, 1898, the ordinance of baptism was administered to him and his wife. It was a beautiful sight standing on the bank of the Tar just as the sun was going down, to see husband and wife buried together in baptism, but not more beautiful than the devoted Christian life they have lived ever since.

In 1899 his company sent him to Newport News, Va., thence to Buffalo, N. Y. In 1904 he was sent back to his native State and stationed at Washington. After working there for two years his health failed, and he went to the western part of our State to regain health, but in vain. In April, 1907, he was compelled to give up his agency with the Metropolitan (for which he had worked so faithfully and successfully) and after trying several sanatoriums without any benefit he returned to his father's (Mr. David Hyman) home to await the end. His loving and devoted wife outwatched the hours as she kept her tireless vigil by his couch. But medical science and the care of friends and loved ones were alike in vain. The great "white plague" had laid its blighting touch upon him, and his constitution gradually succumbed, and after grappling with death for two years he passed into the "great beyond." How long he stood upon the shore of that boundless sea that marks the division between this and another life, listening to the billows of eternity as they broke ceaselessly at his feet, no man can tell. But this I know—and I knew him more intimately than any of you; that no misgivings haunted him, no terrors shook his constant soul. Calmly, peacefully, quietly, like a child lulled to sleep on its mother's breast he breathed his last. He sleeps in the bosom of his native county, amid the scenes, and among the relatives and friends he loved so well. The sod, green under the smile of returning summer, lies lightly on his breast, and his native pine forest "dewy with nature's tear-drops, mourns his requiem and grieves, if aught inanimate e'er grieves" over the untimely death of one of our loyal, faithful and true sons. D. L. James.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

It was with sad hearts on May 30th, 1909, that we heard that the spirit of our beloved brother, J. A. Hyman, had taken its flight. Brother Hyman was a faithful member of our fraternity, and we realize with sorrow that our ranks are again broken, yet we humbly submit to the will of Him who doeth all things well. We deeply sympathize with the widow of our deceased brother, she who has been so faithful in his long suffering; also to other members of his family who most keenly feel their loss. And may they so live that again they may all be happily reunited.

Resolved, That our lodge be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days; and that this token of our esteem for Brother Hyman be spread upon our minutes, a copy sent to his devoted wife, and that a copy be given to our home paper for publication.

GREENVILLE ICE PLANT.

Now Running and Ready to Fill Orders.

The Greenville Ice Plant, which The Reflector mentioned some weeks ago as being in course of construction, was recently completed and is now running on full time, turning out 14 tons of ice per day. City water has been put in at the ice plant, so that the filtered water can be used, and the product of the plant is absolutely pure. Hill & Johnson, the proprietors, are determined to see that the people have no cause to complain of not being able to get ice hereafter. The output of their plant is sufficient to supply the home demand and also have a surplus for filling out of town orders, which they will do promptly. For the city delivery they are now running four wagons that cover the town twice each day, morning and afternoon, and call orders will be filled between the regular rounds of the delivery wagons.

This is a home enterprise that should have the support of the people of the town. These gentlemen have at large expense established this plant, and it is a benefit to the town, both in convenience and industry. The very best way to build up your town is to stand by home enterprises.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Levy Taxes and Revise Jury List.

Outside of the routine business, the Board of county commissioners at June meeting revised the jury list for two years, made the tax levy for 1909, and re-elected Mr. Joe McLawhorn as superintendent of the convict camp. There were three other applicants for this position, but Mr. McLawhorn received the unanimous vote of the board.

The tax levy for this year was made the same as last year: For general county purposes 20 1/2 cents; for schools 18 cents, for roads 12 cents, for interest on bond 3 1/3 cents: This added to 25 cents for the State makes the total tax 78 2/3 cents on each $100 valuation.

In Grifton, Ayden and Farmville there are special school taxes of 30 cents, and in Bethel 25 cents.

Gem Theatre.

Tonight as an extra attraction we present the strongest dramatic picture of the year. The Power of Labor, showing in detail the fight as waged by labor against monopoly. By far the best picture of its kind ever produced, nothing like it ever seen here before. Three other subjects each of which is in a class by itself and well worth price of admission, especially may this be said of "A Gallant Guardsman" 1,000 feet of beautifully colored film, telling an interesting little love story of the kind you can understand. Illustrated song by Mr. Alley, entitled, "Some Day You Will Miss Me" concludes the longest and without doubt the best program ever shown in the city. Remember the Gem is the coolest place and shows the best pictures to be seen in the city. Tomorrow night is the date for the benefit performance of Episcopal church choir. Let every one feel cordially invited to attend.

It shall be the duty of the superintendent of the Water & Light department to present all bills for wiring, or the placing of wires and fixtures in any house or on the premises of any individual, firm or corporation, or for any water taps or piping on or to said premises; which shall be done on the first of each month for all such service rendered in the preceding month.

Upon the failure or refusal of such individual, firm or corporation to pay such bill, it shall be the duty of the superintendent to cut off the current and water from the premises of such individual, firm or corporation, until such bill shall be paid.

Hel Bowling being the holder of the winning coupon.

FIRE THIS MORNING.

The Rieves House Has Narrow Escape.

A little before 8 o'clock this morning smoke was seen coming from the windows of the third story of the Rieves House, corner of Greene and Third streets, and an alarm of fire was sent in. The firemen quickly responded to the alarm and located the fire in a storage room at the head of the hall on third floor. The door of this room was not opened until a line of hose could be run to it, and when a stream was turned on the fire was quickly put out. The fire had started in some way among the bedding stored in this room. Everything in the room was damaged and a hole was burned through the floor. Damage was also done by water flooding the lower floors of the building. It is fortunate that the fire was discovered so promptly, for if it had gained much headway it is doubtful if the building could have been saved.

The building belongs to Mr. J. J. Cherry and is occupied by Mrs. Lucy Rieves as a boarding house.

Mrs. S. I. Dudley Dies Suddenly.

The many friends of the family were greatly shocked about 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, upon learning that Mrs. S. I. Dudley had died suddenly at her home about a mile from town. Mrs. Dudley had a chill Sunday, and while she had been up and looking after her household duties since then she had complained of not feeling well. About 4 o'clock Wednesday she telephoned to a doctor for some medicine for her child who was also sick. Some later Mr. Dudley went to the house from his work and was talking to his wife as she lay down to rest. When he was about to leave the room she called him back in a tone that indicated that she was in distress, and turning back he was horrified to see that she was dying. She passed away in a few moments.

Mrs. Dudley was a daughter of the late Mr. D. H. Moore, and was an excellent woman. She was married to Mr. Dudley about four years ago while he was deputy sheriff and they made their home in Greenville during his continuance in that office, afterwards moving to the Johnson place across the river where Mr. Dudley conducts a dairy. Besides the husband she leaves one child six months old.

Baraca Excursion to Raleigh.

The excursion run to Raleigh today over the Norfolk & Southern road by the Baraca class of the Memorial Baptist Sunday school, was indeed a success in point of number of people carried. All five of the coaches taken from Greenville were crowded when the train pulled out, and there were messages from Farmville and Wilson that large crowds were in waiting there to join the excursion. More coaches were taken on at both of these stations. The weather was fine and we hope the excursionists will have a good day all through.

Mr. Richard Randolph Hurt.

Mr. Richard Randolph, who works at the factory of the Building & Lumber Co., was painfully hurt Wednesday afternoon. He was about to throw the belt off a machine when the piece of timber he was using for this purpose was caught in the belt and hurled in his face. His nose and forehead were badly

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. House went to Bethel today.

Mrs. T. A. Person left this morning for Richmond.

D. R. Cutler, of Washington, spent the day in the city.

Mrs. P. M. Johnston and two children left this morning for a visit to Henderson.

Avon Cromartie came in Wednesday evening to visit his sisters here. In April while a flagman for the A. C. L. between Rocky Mount and Florence, half of his right foot was cut off in an accident. He has since been in a hospital, but now seems to be getting along fairly well with his injury.

The Last Chance.

Needless to say that the congregation at the Free Will Baptist church was highly pleased with the sermon last night, and words of praise are coming from many who were there. Dr. St. Claire delivered an excellent address on the subject "Wonderful Love." The sermon tonight is the last for the present, and perhaps forever, that the people will hear from the lips of the noted blind evangelist.

We sincerely hope that the people will come out and hear him on his farewell topic "Home, Sweet Home" one that we all love to hear so much.

Opportunities to hear such men on such important themes are rare and seldom.

Our appointments are every third Sunday. We will be pleased to have you any time, but we do hope you will come out tonight.

Hoping to have you any time. We are yours and His.

D. A. Windham, Pastor.

The Winslow at Morehead.

A telegram from Morehead City this morning says the torpedo boat Winslow is disabled in the sound near the Atlantic Hotel, and will likely be there for several days. This is the boat on which Worth Bagley was killed off the coast of Cuba during the Spanish American war, and it is an object of interest to the people of North Carolina. It is likely that a large number of people will go on the Norfolk & Southern excursion to Morehead City Sunday to see the Winslow.

Notice to Tax Payers

Tax payers of Pitt county will take notice, and list their taxes before the list taker of their respective townships, as prescribed in Chapter 440 section 73 public laws of North Carolina Act 1909, or show why double tax should not be charged.

Why RALSTON SHOES are non-wrinkling

As you have probably noticed, most shoes have a tendency to wrinkle and "bunch up" across the toes after the shoes have been worn a few times. This is the fault of the lasting (the process of pulling and stretching the leather over the wooden last.)

The RALSTON method has remedied this fault. Ralston vamps are first crimped (see illustration) then lasted. There are no bunches, no wrinkles, because every part of the vamp fits the last perfectly without straining the leather at any point. This adds to the wear of the shoe. It also explains the reason why Ralstons retain their smart appearance until worn out.

There are other unusual features of RALSTON SHOE construction which will appeal to you. Come in and look over our new styles.
