STATE NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

In the sinking of a naval tug boat near Boston, on Wednesday, two North Carolinians were among the number drowned. They were Dr. C. F. Trotter, of Hendersonville and C. L. Taylor, of Franklinton.

A Durham policeman was fined $50 in the recorder's court for striking with his billet a man who had called him a liar. Friends of the officer paid the fine for him.

The grand jury of Buncombe county Superior court found a true bill for murder against Policeman Watkins who on last Saturday night shot two men in the hotel at Black Mountain, one of whom died.

Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 11.—Dr. E. L. Hunter, dean of the dental profession of this city, and one of the foremost dentists in the State, died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. D. Sedberry, where he has lived for several years. He was in his usual state of health when retiring last night but was found dead in his bed this morning, having evidently died from heart failure.

Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 12.—Last night burglars entered the store of Earnest Sikes, in Campbellton, lower Fayetteville, blew open the safe and got three hundred and sixty dollars in cash, some deeds and other papers. Nitroglycerine was inserted in two holes drilled in the safe door, one at the top, the other near the combination and the door was blown off its hinges.

Greensboro, Aug. 12.—Capt J. H. DeWitt, acting manager the Greensboro Furniture Company, met with a distressing, and possibly fatal, accident at the factory at noon today by getting caught in the shafting of a machine. His escape from instant death was miraculous, since he was whirled around the shaft several times. When extricated it was found that his left arm was completely mangled and broken in several places, and he was bruised all over.

Mount Airy, N. C., Aug. 12.—A boiler exploded yesterday at Pink Ayer's place, five miles north of this city, perhaps fatally injuring Mallard Rumley, whose skull was fractured. Sydney Lowe was frightfully injured, his face and body being fearfully lacerated and burned. Ponce McMillan was seriously burned. Robt. Thomas was burned about the body. The first named will die, so your correspondent learns from Dr. Joseph Hollingsworth, the attending physician. The boiler was hurled one hundred and ten yards from the mill and the engine one hundred and five feet.

Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City, N. C., Aug. 12.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad was held at the Atlantic hotel today. The election of directors, including two new members, Messrs. S. W. Ferebee, of Stonewall, Pamlico county, and G. W. Richardson, of Dover. Mr. Ferebee, later being elected president. Samuel M. Brinson, of New Bern, was elected attorney general and Charles Dewey and D. J. Broadhurst were re-elected expert and secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Mapeto, N. C., Aug. 12.—Al. Thompson, a white man, shot

Dividends From Encouragement.

Are you a miser with your words of approval? Do you think of saying a pleasant thing or two when some one in your company does a good piece of work—and then reconsider your impulse, and keep silent?

Don't do it! Indiscriminate praise is senseless, and no business man of intelligence indulges in it; but there are excellent dividends to be gathered from the word of approval dropped at the right time—and on the right spot.

Increased ability comes from experience, and the man who is given a word of encouragement now and then is going to get experience, by going out of his way in your behalf. He will strive harder to make your business a success—and every time he does that he increases his efficiency.

Make your words of approval reap dividends for you!

They can do it; they will do it; and when you bring a smile of happiness to the face of the employee you have said something pleasant to, you are planting a seed that will grow into a tree of efficiency, bearing fruit for you!—Paragraphs.

Free Entertainment.

There has been some misunderstanding in regard to the entertainment of the veterans at Charlotte during the reunion to be held there August 25 and 26, which the Chronicle of that city corrects for the local committee on entertainment.

All veterans attending this reunion will be entertained free, but arrangements have been made at the hotels for special rates for those who prefer to stop at a hotel. Every veteran may expect the best of entertainment while in that city, and without cost to himself, unless he rather go to a hotel.

Back to Asylum.

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Harry K. Thaw was today adjudged insane by Justice Mills in a decision handed in the Supreme court and ordered to be sent back to the Matteawan state asylum for the criminal insane immediately.

Good Crops in Chicod and Swift Creek.

Standard Keeper J. L. Hobbard tells The Reflector he has just been on a trip through the southeast section of the county, covering much of Chicod and Swift Creek townships, and that the crops in that section are fine.

and instantly killed his wife near Maneto yesterday afternoon and attempted to kill W. H. Seaman, with whom she had eloped some weeks ago. Thompson had kept possession of his two children by the woman, and when his wife and Seaman returned today they stole the children from the parties in whose possession Thompson had left them while he was at his work. The report is that Thompson, upon learning that they had returned and secured his children, armed himself with a revolver and went demanding them. Seaman met him in the porch and refused to surrender the children, whereupon Thompson shot him down, in the meantime the woman was seen trying to escape with the smaller child in her arms and Thompson, with the weapon still smoking, shot her dead.

POSTOFFICE TO MOVE.

Will Go to Quinerly Building in October.

About the middle of October the postoffice will be removed from its present location in the Proctor building, corner Evans and Third streets, to the Quinerly store about midway between Fourth and Fifth streets. The lease at the Proctor corner expires Oct. 15th. A representative of the postoffice department was here some weeks ago to receive proposals for another term and out of those submitted the Quinerly-building was accepted, notice to this effect being received Thursday evening. An entire new equipment will be put in for the office.

Made Good His Promise to Marry After Forty-Seven Years.

Joseph Byrne of Kansas, who left this city to enlist in the Union army for service in the civil war and told little Mary B. Bergold that he might return some day to marry her, made good his 47-year-old promise today when he secured a marriage license. They will be married tomorrow.

Neither has been married before. Byrne was 18 years old when he enlisted and Miss Bergold was 8 and lived near him. He spoke half in jest, although the child had always been his favorite. After the war he went West and prospered there and now has a comfortable fortune.

Recently he returned to this city and found that Miss Bergold was still unmarried. His youthful liking for her soon returned and he asked if she would marry him. He is now 65 years old and she is 55.—Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dispatch.

Deaths by Drowning.

In May 621 persons were drowned in the United States; in June 1,176. The figures for July will show a large total. August, the height of vacation season, will set the record of wasted lives. Every Saturday afternoon and Sunday in every city and considerable rural region a long roll is written of the names of the drowned. Some of these deaths are due to faulty supervision, management of excursion boats, but neglect is the one great cause.—New York World.

Cause for Not Drawing.

Thursday Mr. J. F. Brinkley was trying to smoke a cigar that would not draw well. Upon examination a large nail was found through the middle of the cigar.

Builds Nest in Pants Pocket.

Mr. L. Pierce, who lives near Colerain, related to us on Old Soldiers' Day a remarkable and unique story. He said: My son's pants hung up near the window in his room. He had not worn them in several days, and when he took them down to put, them on he discovered a bird's nest in one of the pockets. Being somewhat of a sympathetic nature, Mr. Pierce did not disturb the nest and hung his pants back up.

And in due course of time he found four little eggs, and later four little birds. This happened a short time ago, and now Mr. Pierce says the old mother bird and the four little ones are frequent visitors in his son's room. This is no "fish story," or "feathery fiction" but an actual happening and we venture to say the only case of the kind on record.—Windsor Ledger.

Funeral This Afternoon.

The remains of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Tunstall, who died in a hospital in Baltimore Thursday morning, reached here on the 1.12 Coast Line train today, accompanied by the mother and Mrs. J. S. Tunstall who were with the child at the hospital. Funeral service conducted by Rev. D. W. Arnold takes place at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mr. J. S. Tunstall, on Dickinson avenue, the interment following in Cherry Hill cemetery.

22 Babies in 27 Years.

Skowhegan, Me., Aug. 12.—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickie, of Canaan, yesterday, the twenty-second child born to them in twenty seven years. Mrs. Dickie was married when she was only 14 years old and Mr. Dickey was only a few years her senior. Of the twenty-two children not one has been sick except with childhood ailments. They are all living in Canaan. The oldest one is 25 years of age.

Repairing Culvert.

The town street committee of the aldermen is having a concrete foundation built under the culvert that crosses Evans street south of the graded school. After this is completed there is not likely to be further trouble with it washing out and causing a cave in when big rains come.

Editor Joseph E. Robinson, of the Goldsboro Argus, has announced himself as a candidate for congress in the third district.

Georgia's freak legislature has adjourned. If the Constitution and Journal would do likewise there might be quiet for a space in that blustery city.

Prosperity should be informed that congress is through tinkering with the tariff, and the country would like to see it come along. We need prosperity, and need it in a hurry.

He escaped punishment for his crime on the plea of insanity and should be kept in confinement. ## GOATS AS TRAIL MAKERS.

The brush eating instinct of the Angora goat is being successfully demonstrated on the Lassen National Forest in California where they are cutting trails for fire guards through the brushy areas on the slopes of the mountains.

The animals, which number 3,000, have been divided into two bands and under the care of the herders are grazed within certain well defined areas so that their work may be concentrated on the brush within those limits. The result is that they have practically killed nearly all the brush in the course either by eating it up entirely, or by barking, as in the case of the heavy manzanita bushes. At the beginning of the experiment there was some doubt as to the goats willingness to eat the manzanita, but it has been found that where there is little else they will just as readily attack it as any other bushes.

The grazing season was so late this year on the Lassen Forest that the goats did not begin operations until about the middle of June, but since then they have made rapid progress and the result promises to be a success from every point of view. The trails will first be opened and then kept free of sprouts by the goats, saving the government considerable labor in cutting them out by hand as has been done heretofore, while the brushy forage which otherwise would have been wasted will

Kidney Troubles Attack Greenville Men and Women, Old and Young.

Kidney ills seize young and old. Come quickly with little warning. Children suffer in their early years—Can't control the kidney secretions. Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain.

Women worry, can't do daily work. Men have lame and aching backs. The cure for man, woman or child. Is to cure the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys—

Cure all forms of kidney suffering. Greenville testimony proves it.

Miss Susan Kai sul, 53 N. Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says: "I derived great benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills and take pleasure in recommending them. For some time I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and had distressing pains through my loins. My kidneys were very weak and the frequent passages of the secretions caused me great annoyance. My back pained me severely and when first arising in the morning I was so lame and sore that I could scarcely get around. I at length procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Wooten's drug store and through their use I was entirely relieved of these troubles. The fact that my kidneys have given me no trouble since leads me to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills most highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

support 3,000 goats very comfortably.

There is a disposition among many well-meaning people to conceal the real condition of the crops with the hope or keeping the facts from the trusts and combinations that oppress the farmer, but to no avail. The trusts have the money to pay for securing the information at first hands and this they do. Last week a representative of the peanut trust was in Rich Square on his tour of inspection through the peanut belt. We have information from a source we consider reliable that the peanut cleaners have their representatives on the road during the months of July and August making personal inspection of the peanut fields, who report the conditions exactly as they find them. In this way the factories learn more about the condition of the growing crops than the farmer can possibly know.—Rich Square Times.

Roger O'Maro, a detective of Pittsburg, says that Evelyn Thaw is the cause of all of Harry's troubles. Well any fool knows that, without being a detective. But the poor fellow needs to be put in an asylum or home for children, in order to be taken care of properly.—New Bern Sun.

The Difference Between Poor and Good Cabinet Work

It is a fact not generally known that very few sewing machine manufacturers produce their own cabinet work. This is a distinct industry in itself.

The Singer Company owns and operates the largest and best equipped factory in the world, exclusively devoted to the production of the highest grade sewing machine cabinet work.

Only the finest woods procurable are used. To insure the proper selection of these woods, a corps of expert wood rangers is employed, whose duty it is to purchase individual trees, the grain and growth of which entitle them to use in Singer cabinet work.

This is why Singer cabinet work, besides being the most durable, is also the most beautiful,—the Singer process brings out all the richness and natural beauty of the wood.

AMERICAN WANDERLUST.

A Habit Which Strengthens the Cohesive Unity of the Nation.

Less than half the members of the United States senate and house of representatives are native born in the states which they represent. Nothing could more clearly show the alert activities of the American people and that constant intermingling of the inhabitants of the several states which adds so much to the cohesive unity of the nation. The boy who goes to a distant state often accomplishes more than the one who goes straight on in the footprints of his father in the home village. Even Daniel Webster was not born in the old Bay State, whose influence and dignity he so well sustained and whose people mourned him so sincerely when his great life closed.

This wandering from state to state has resulted in the organizing in New York city of many state societies, which aim to gather together the natives of their respective states annually to revive the pleasant memories of the old home days, with their thousand clinging ties.

What would happen if the American people should cease to wander about the country? is a question often asked. It is said that an eastern man never amounts to anything until he goes west and that a western man has to come east in order to attain his full stature mentally. The northern man is advised to go south to learn gentle courtesy and chivalric bearing, the southerner to go north to add more iron to his blood. There can be no doubt that this constant evolution has encouraged the birth of new ideas, just as the whirling of the kitescope developed a toy into our present wonderful moving pictures, which gives us glimpses of life in motion all over the world.—Joe Mitchell Chapple in National Magazine.

THE HURRYING BARBER.

Speed Manifested More In the Motions Than in the Results.

"Barbers," remarked the man with the short hair, "are born unable to hurry. Just you go into a shop, as I did the other day, wanting a hair cut, and ask the barber how long it will take. He told me, 'Oh, about twenty minutes' and I said to go ahead."

"That barber honestly believed he was hurrying, but he couldn't leave out those little snip-snips about the back of the neck they are all so fond of doing, and he had to cut the hair as if he were chiseling priceless marble. When it got to be about half an hour I said to him, 'You're a pretty bad judge of time, aren't you?' He came back with something about not wanting to turn out a poor job."

"I've known it to happen often in the case of shaving. When you tell a barber to hurry he dashes around on the tiled floor at imminent risk of falling, and he splashes the lather into your eyes and your mouth, but the fact remains that he takes as much time as usual to rub the lather into your face and as much time to shave you."

"I begin to believe there is some sort of rule regarding time that all barbers observe, because I have timed them. Once I asked a barber to hurry shaving me, and he had all the motions, but took up just as much time as when he went along at his usual gait."

"I imagine they believe the customer will be satisfied with the appearance of speed, and that's the reason they run around so and breathe heavily as if winded when changing from one side of the chair to the other."—New York Sun.

Children of Criminals.

It is a curious fact—one all at variance with the doctrines of heredity, but borne out by police records—that the children of crooks, of all classes, rarely turn out to be crooks themselves. Deeper study of the subject might reveal that they are possessed of the criminal instincts, but that the tragically close example of the punishment and wretchedness that attend a criminal career has been a terrifying deterrent. The fact, at any rate, remains. The rogues' galleries of Scotland Yard, New York and Chicago may be studied in vain for the photographs of a father and a son.—Argonaut.

He Did His Part Thoroughly.

In order to avoid an argument with a woman suffragist on the subject of her hobby a happy bachelor gallantly acquiesced in the truth of her assertions.

"But, sir," sternly remarked the spinster, "your admission is anything but creditable to you. What, for instance, have you ever done for the "emancipation of woman?" "Madam," responded the gentleman, with a polite smile and a bow, "I have at least remained a bachelor!"

Seemed All Right.

"Mamma, why don't you want me to play with that Kudger boy?"

"Because, dear, I know the family. He hasn't good blood in him."

"Why, mamma, he's been vaccinated twice, and it wouldn't take either time."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Making and Earning Money.

"What is the difference between making money and earning money?" asked the youth.

"Sometimes the difference is a trip to the penitentiary for counterfeiting," answered the home grown philosopher.—Chicago News.

The Wit of Everts.

Once when twitted on his small size by a statesman of the strenuous type the late William M. Everts retorted, "That remark proves what I have always asserted—that in your eyes measures were more important than men."

To another critic, who found fault with his habit of stringing out a whole paragraph without a break by the use of parenthetical clauses, he said cheerfully, "I have noticed that criminals object to long sentences."
