REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

Complimented by Court for Excellent Work During Term.

The grand jury of the August term of Superior court completed its work Saturday and filed its report. Just before being discharged Judge Guion and Solicitor Alberneby both expressed to the jury their appreciation for the excellent work done and the care given all matters coming before them. They especially complimented the foreman, saying they had never seen a man of his age conduct the labors of a grand jury better than he had done.

Following is the report of the jury:

Hon. O. H. Guion, Judge Presiding:

We, the grand jury, beg to submit the following: We have diligently inquired into the conduct of the people and have presented all violators of the law that have come to our knowledge.

We have visited and closely inspected the court house and the several offices in it, and found them all well kept.

We visited the jail, convict camp and county home. We found them in good condition and the inmates well cared for with no complaint from any of them.

We find the pest house near the county home has been left in a very bad condition with the bed covering scattered over the yard, and we understand has not been properly fumigated.

We find Joseph Lee Stocks, a minor, has an estate in this county without a guardian.

Respectfully submitted,
L. R. Whichard,
Foreman Grand Jury.

Rawls Withdraws Appeal.

The spectators in the recorder's court were surprised this morning when Attorney Bryant, representing Mr. Rawls, arose and addressing the court in a few words said that he wished to withdraw the appeal of his client and enter a plea of nolo contendere. He further said that his client would submit to a fine, if the two other cases now pending against him were not pressed.

The prosecuting attorney did not make any objections to this action and recommended to the court that the plea be accepted. The court did accept the plea and in one case he was fined $125 and costs. In the other cases he was taxed with the costs. The two cases now pending against Mr. Rawls were not pressed.

This action was taken this morning in view of the fact that Rawls' was not a regular blind tiger, and also that he wanted to engage in business elsewhere.—Durham Sun.

Mayor's Court.

Saturday evening E. L. Daughtrige made an assault upon Jarvis Campbell, the trouble growing out of a dispute about some laundry. The matter was heard before Mayor Whedbee this morning and Daughtrige was fined $2 and costs.

There were a few other trivial cases before the mayor at this morning's court.

Criminal Docket Finished.

The criminal docket of August term of court was finished Saturday and Solicitor Alberneby left Sunday morning for his home in Beaufort. The court this week will try civil cases.

AUNT WINNIE SAYS COME ACROSS

Ayden, N. C. Aug. 28, 1909.
Editor Reflector:

I see Capt. Hutchings thinks Sept. 1st, soon enough to open the tobacco market. In the Progressive Farmer of this week I see an article from Mr. A. J. Moye on the same point. He thinks Aug. 25th soon enough, and he seem to think tobacco low enough, etc. Now, Mr. Hutchings makes a kind of a fling at the Consolidated Tob. Co. I will say if his house and the other one not belonging to the Consolidated Co., will chip in and help, I suggest that the Greenville warehousemen send three good and reliable men to headquarters to lay our troubles before them and see if anything can be done to secure a better price for the present crop. If not then we had as well continue to sell and pay as far as we can.

I would advise that we clod hoppers live more at home in the future and we will not need so much money.

It is up to you, Capt. Hutchings to see if your house will come across. If so I nominate you as one of the three.

Aunt Winnie.

Marriage Licenses.

Register of Deeds W. M. Moore has issued the following licenses since last report:

No white.
COLORED.
G. A. Edwards and Catherine R. Norris.

Jacob Edwards and Henrietta Edwards.

Miss Lizzina Moore left this morning for Burgaw to resume her duties as principal of the high school there.

Liquor in Court.

The solicitor's table in the court room had much the appearance of a blind tiger at one time on Saturday. A trial coming under that head was in progress, and the State was on hand with the goods. There were bottles of liquor of all sizes and shapes in evidence, showing that the defendant had prepared to do business on a large scale. And how it did make some mouths water through desire to come in contact with the necks of those bottles.

Mistrial in Longfellow Case.

The case against J. S. Longfellow for bigamy in the Superior court at Kinston resulted in a mistrial. The case was given to the jury about midday Saturday, and failing to reach a verdict by eleven o'clock that night a mistrial was then ordered. It is reported that at the time of being discharged the jury stood 7 for acquittal and 5 for conviction. Longfellow was required to give $2,000 bond.

C. W. B. M. Meeting.

The Auxiliary to the C. W. B. M. will meet with Mrs. Henry T. King Wednesday afternoon 4 o'clock. All members should be present as this is the close of the missionary year and election of officers. Those unable to attend please see the secretary or treasurer at once.

Spitting on Sidewalk.

Recently we heard much comment upon the unsightly appearance of the paved sidewalks caused by spitting upon them. This could be remedied if the aldermen would pass an ordinance prohibiting spitting on the pavements.

PITT SUPERIOR COURT.

August Term for the Trial of Criminal Cases Now in Session.

The following cases have been disposed of:

Tom Little Jr. and Walter Little, house breaking, plead guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Andrew James and Sarah Spruill, fornication and adultery, guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Charlie Shaw, assault with deadly weapon, guilty, sentenced ninety days on roads.

Alex Cromley selling liquor unlawfully, guilty, fined $50 and costs.

Thad Gorham, house breaking and larceny, not guilty.

John Daniel, assault with deadly weapon, pleads guilty, sentenced six months and costs.

Henry Staton, col. who plead guilty in four cases, for selling liquor was sentenced to roads for 2 months in each and payment of costs in the other case judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

George Mitchell, who had been found guilty of simple assault, was sentenced to roads for thirty day and costs. In another case for assault with deadly weapon he was sentenced for sixty days and costs.

In case against Jordan Cox for selling liquor a mistrial was made, the jury having the case for twenty four hours without reaching a verdict.

Modin Parker, who had been convicted of carrying concealed weapon in suit case, appealed to Superior court.

Watermelons $9.25 Each.

The Mt. Airy News tells that Mr. Chas. Creed, a young farmer of the vicinity of Mt. Airy, was on his way to church one night recently and passed his watermelon patch, which was alongside the public road. He was astonished to find a buggy standing in the road beside the melon patch and a stranger totting two of his largest melons to that same buggy. When Mr. Creed demanded how come it turned out that a drummer passing along the highway was seized with a desire to possess some of the melons and had sent his driver into the patch to get them. The drummer made frank admission and offered to pay; but when Mr. Creed named $1 as the price for the two melons the drummer objected and drove off, leaving the melons in Creed's possession.

Under the circumstances the Surry man was aggrieved and he drove to Mt. Airy and asked for a warrant. Then the drummer got busy, employed a lawyer and agreed to pay $5 for the melons to stop proceedings, but when he got through the incident had cost him $18.50—$9.25 each for the melons, and it is not recorded that he went back after the melons.

Four Pickets Here.

The Four Pickets Company arrived here Sunday morning and will tonight begin a three nights' engagement in the opera house. There are sixteen people in the company and they have a splendid program of royalty plays and good specialties. The Pickets are favorites here and will be greeted by large audiences.

The band with the company gave a concert about noon. They make good music.

ROBESON CORN FARMER.

Will Raise 1,000 Bushels on Ten Acres—His Methods of Cultivation.

Mr. J. D. Johnson's crack 10-acre field of corn, at his place on rural route No. 4, from Red Springs, some 12 miles from Lumberton, was referred to in Monday's Robesonian. This is to tell more about it.

It is a special field on land that has been brought to a high state of cultivation, and many men who have been over the field say that the 10 acres will yield this year 1,000 bushels of corn. The same land, mark you, was sold some years ago by two men who said it was too poor to make a living! And Mr. Johnson has before this made a bale and a half of cotton to the acre on this same land.

The corn is planted in 5 foot rows, will average about 12 inches apart in the drill, 2 good ears to every stalk, at a conservative estimate some have 3 and 4. All the fertilizer used is home-made manure scattered broadcast. The land has been sub-soiled, but not this year. The method of cultivation was as follows:

First, land was broken good and deep, then manure broadcast, at out 6 loads to the acre; cross harrowed with disc and pulverizing harrows, both ways with each; 5-foot rows laid off deep with middle "buster;" corn planted in furrows and harrow dragged crosswise to cover; harrowed each way with pulverizing harrow until knee high; then plowed deep with 22 inch sweep and finished with same.

At last plowing Mr. Johnson sowed soja beans and harrowed them in. This he considers far ahead of the common pea. It is to be a good land-improver, it makes three times the forage and all stock are fond of them.

Mr. Johnson does not know the variety of corn. He purchased a bushel from a man who advertised in The Progressive Farmer, stating that he had made 103 bushels to the acre, and he finds the corn as good as represented.—Lumberton Robesonian.

Civil Court

The civil term of Pitt Superior court began this morning with Judge O. H. Guion presiding. The regular jurors are J. E. Whitehurst, T. F. Proctor, J. H. Edwards, Benj. Wall, W. E. Boyce, B. N. Carroway, K. R. Wooten, L. B. Dupree, W. T. Pierce, J. B. Pittman, H. L. Coward, J. R. Corey, L. F. Evans, Jesse L. Whichard, Josephus Moye, J. B. Johnston.

Ugly Cloud.

About the blackest, ugliest looking cloud we ever saw came up suddenly about dark Sunday evening. Many people were alarmed lest a cyclone was coming, but some wind and a little rain was all that struck here. A considerable fall in the temperature followed. So far we have heard of no damage elsewhere.

Customers for whom we have laundrying done will please be ready to pay for same on delivery. We cannot afford to do this work on credit, and delivery clerk will be instructed to leave no packages without payment of charges thereon.

Soon will be in order reports that schools are having the largest opening in their history.

The baseball season of the Eastern Carolina League closed Saturday. Wilson won the pennant.

After being five weeks in trial in the Federal court at Asheville, Breese and Dickerson, the Asheville bank wreckers, were found guilty. Both received the same sentence, two years in prison and a fine of $2,500.

By abolishing the standing army and cutting off unjust pensions, the government could save enough money to meet all its other expenses. The army is useless, and the pension list is the rankest fraud of modern ages.

With the president setting the example of using Sunday as a day of work, what can be expected of the people? It is not a pleasant thought that the president of the greatest nation in the world has no regard for Sabbath observance.

Buy at or Near Home.
The practice of passing over home merchants and patronizing mail order houses in distant cities because, apparently, a few dollars or a few cents can be saved on purchases is bad in many ways. The results are often unsatisfactory and if all the incidental costs were considered it would be found in most instances to be more expensive.

Persons who adopt this practice often make the excuse that they cannot get the goods they desire from home merchants. The thought never occurs to them that it is their practice of sending off for the goods which prevents similar articles being kept in stock by home merchants. It is the demand (except where a few rarely required articles are concerned) that makes the supply and if home people would show more disposition to buy of home merchants they would find what they consider the necessity for sending orders to distant cities rapidly disappearing. Most home merchants would be glad to carry stocks adequate to all usual demands were they encouraged by the business which now goes to department and mail order stores far away. Furthermore, of course, some weight should be given the fact that the home merchants are heavily taxed for the maintenance of home government and for all local improvements.—Charlotte Observer.

Not Dead But Sleeping.
Home merchants who do not make a business of advertising and thereby endeavoring to keep trade at home, have no right to complain of the business that is gradually being gathered in from the towns and country by the mail order houses of the cities. The mail order business is rapidly increasing and will increase faster if home merchants do not offset it, by convincing the people that it is to their advantage to trade at home. The city houses know the value of advertising, and every mail is flooded with announcements and they are drawing more and more trade away from the home merchants every year. People are going to trade where they think it is to their advantage, and the home merchant who hasn't got confidence enough in his own business to lay its advantages regularly and systematically before the people need not be surprised if they are induced by others to buy from them. Advertising has become just as much a part of the business of every enterprise as bookkeeping, salesmanship or stock-taking, and the merchants who can't write advertisements are either learning to do it or are hiring others who can.—Monroe Journal.

Cotton Will Be High.
A cotton expert advanced the belief yesterday that cotton would sell at a high price this fall right from the opening of the market. The general condition of the crop is regarded as auguring a rather small yield and for this reason it is almost universally admitted that the selling price will be remunerative during the marketing season. Reports from the cotton belt indicate that the crop has been seriously damaged by droughts in some sections and too much rain in others.—Charlotte Observer.

With reference to the baseball pictures in cigarette packages, the Charlotte Observer says this "trading upon the small boy's passion for baseball as well as for collecting to make a cigarette fiend of him, is diabolical—nothing less." It is diabolical, and if the enormity of the offence was appreciated as it should be it would arouse a spirit of indignation in North Carolina that would stop this traffic in the bodies and souls of boys.—Statesville Landmark.

The modern Carolina farmers are moving towards high standards. Two bales of cotton per acre and 100 bushels of corn per acre are getting to be nothing uncommon. When these figures are made the average, the farmer will be the capitalist of the country.—Charlotte Chronicle.

FUJI MOUNTAIN.

The Spell Cast by Japan's Matchless Cone of Pearl.

Other mountains may be painted with some fair degree of truth and justice—even the beautiful Jungfrau—but not so Fuji. Its loveliness is so delicate and its moods so ever changing and evanescent that, no matter how skilled the artist, the most he can ever hope to accomplish is only to give some faint idea of its charm of a moment. The spell cast by the softness, grace and symmetry of that matchless cone of pearl floating in the sky is far beyond his reach.

Every nature worshiper visiting Japan has fallen in adoration at the foot of Fuji, and foreign writers and poets have followed their Japanese brothers in vainly attempting to describe the feelings with which they have been inspired.

Who that has seen the snow clad crest gleaming so white and pure against the deep blue of the winter sky will not admit that the mountain is worthy of all the praise that has been bestowed upon it, and more.

It is not only the physical charms of the mountain that cast so powerful a spell, though they alone would make of Fuji an object of homage to every lover of the beautiful in any land on earth, but it is also the wondrous web of legend spun around the snowy peak that is as charming and full of delightful mystery and sentiment as the moods of its beauty are capricious and fitful—a delicious combination that marks Fuji as unique among all the mountains of the earth.

Fuji is a dormant volcano—an isolated cone, tapering from a circumference of about a hundred miles at its base to but a fortieth part of that distance at the summit. It cannot be accounted extinct, for at the eastern side of the mountain top the ash is very hot in places, testifying to the presence of fissures leading to the fires below, which may at any time burst forth again.

Tradition tells us that Fuji rose from the earth in a single night, while simultaneously a great depression appeared in the earth, 150 miles away to the southwest, which is now filled with the waters of Lake Biwa.

Geologists say that Fuji is but a young volcano, not yet having destroyed its beauty by bursting the crater rim—a fate that usually overtakes mountains of this nature sooner or later.

Odd Cures For Rheumatism.

Cures for rheumatism are almost as old as the complaint itself. In the midland counties of England it was formerly considered that the right forefoot of a hare, worn constantly in the pocket, was an amulet against rheumatism, while the Dutch peasantry still cherish a belief in the preservative virtues of a borrowed or stolen potato. Stranger than these, however, was the remedy discovered by a servant girl at the village of Stanton, in the Cotswolds, who contrived to be confirmed three times, in the belief that confirmation was an unfailing cure for rheumatism.

Summer in Greenland.

Among the interesting observations made by the Danish northeast Greenland expedition is one on the sudden coming of summer in that land of ice and fiords. The change is described as sudden. Gradually the temperature of the snow had risen to the freezing point, and then in one day it all melted. "The rivers were rushing along, flowers were budding forth, and in the air the butterflies were fluttering." The birds came nearly all on the same day, and most of them even at the same hour. One day there were only the ordinary ptarmigan and the raven; the next there were thrush, the ring plover, the goose, the eider duck and many others.

Delicately Put.

"The first day out was perfectly lovely," said the young lady just back from abroad. "The water was as smooth as glass, and it was simply gorgeous. But the second day was rough and—er—decidedly dis-gorgeous."—Everybody's.

Kidney Troubles Attack Greenville Men and Women, Old and Young.

Kidney ills seize young and old. Come quickly with little warning. Children suffer in their early years—Can't control the kidney secretions. Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain.

Women worry, can't do daily work. Men have lame and aching backs. The cure for man, woman or child. Is to cure the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Cure all forms of kidney suffering. Greenville testimony proves it.

Miss Susan Kai, sul. 5 3 N. Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says: "I derived great benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills and take pleasure in recommending them. For some time I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and had distressing pains through my loins. My kidneys were very weak and the frequent passages of the secretions caused me great annoyance. My back pained me severely and when first arising in the morning I was so lame and sore that I could scarcely get around. I at length procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Wooten's drug store and through their use I was entirely relieved of these troubles. The fact that my kidneys have given me no trouble since leads me to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills most highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FORECLOSURE SALE.

By virtue of the authority vested in me and contained in a decree of foreclosure, made in the Superior court of Pitt county, on the 30th day of August, 1901, in the cause of L. C. Skinner vs. B. B. Jones and wife, Fannie M. Jones, I will expose to public sale before the court house door in Greenville, Pitt county, on Saturday the 2nd day of October, 1909, at 12 o'clock M., the following described tracts of land in the order following, to wit:

1st. I will sell that certain tract of land situate in Contentnea township and adjoining the lands of Samuel Mumford and others, known as the Tripp place, being the same lands deeded to B. A. Jones and wife by Edwin Tripp and wife, and afterwards deeded to B. B. Jones by B. A. Jones and wife, containing 81 1-2 acres more or less.

2nd. I will sell lots Nos. 3 and 4 and part of lot No. 2 in the division of the lands of the late Skellon Dennis adjoining the lands of J. A. Griffin, James Jones and others, containing 45 acres more or less. With this 45 acres I will sell one other tract of land in said State and county, adjoining the lands of Mary Jones McLawhorn, Lonnie McLawhorn, Mack Manning, containing 2 1/2 acres more or less, being the tract of land deeded to B. B. Jones by Mary Jones, June 4, 1908. These two tracts of land containing 65 acres more or less. Terms of sale cash.

This 30th day of August, 1909.

Harry Skinner, Jr., Commr.
