NUMBER 5609

DISTRICT S. S. CONVENTION.

Grifton, N. C., Aug. 30.

The second annual session of the tenth district Sunday School Association met in the Disciples church, Grifton, N. C., Wednesday Aug. 25th, '09, at ten o'clock a. m., President J. Marvin Ormond in the chair, and was opened with devotional exercises conducted by Dr. P. B. Loftin.

The address was delivered by R. L. Blow, which was responded to by the president.

Reports and enrolments showed twenty-seven schools represented as follows: Pitt county fourteen, Lenoir ten, and Greene three, showing an aggregate of 207 teachers and officers, 1924 pupils, total 2131, average attendance 1219, increase for year 148. Twenty-five schools reported open twelve months in the year, one six months, and one failed to report length of time.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale addressed the convention for thirty minutes on the "Relative value of teacher as compared with curriculum, environment and pupil," followed by Rev. T. H. King on "What a preacher should know and why he should know it."

Prof. Joseph Kinsey spoke on "How to select teachers for the various classes."

The president stated that he was fortunate in having present Brother S. M. Smith, of Raleigh, statistician of the State Sunday School Association, who would address the convention. Brother Smith came forward and conducted for thirty minutes a round table conference, after which the convention adjourned until 2:15 p. m.

Convention met in evening-session, and was opened with prayer by Brother A. G. Coward. Brother S. M. Smith delivered an address on "The organization of Sunday school work and the benefits arising therefrom," followed by Prof. F. C. Nye, on "How to prepare and teach a lesson."

The president stated that the time had arrived for the convention to go into the election of officers for the ensuing year, and appointed R. W. Pope, R. L. Blow, Rev. T. H. King, A. G. Coward and W. W. Ormond a committee to make recommendations.

The committee came in and read the following report: "We your committee beg leave to report that we recommend for president R. L. Blow, for vice president E. J. Chapman, for secretary and treasurer W. F. Harper." The convention accepted the report.

Upon motion of R. L. Blow the convention by a rising vote expressed its appreciation to the Sunday school and the good people of Grifton and community for their hospitality; to the speakers and others who helped to make the convention a success; to the officers for their efficient services and faithful discharge of duty.

Motion by secretary and seconded by Prof. Nye, that the officers of the county association of the district, together with the district officers, be constituted an executive committee a part of whose duty is to select a place and appoint a time for holding the next district Sunday school convention.

The convention adjourned with benediction by Bro. Smith. W. F. Harper, Sec.

NATIONAL GINNERS' REPORT.

Gives Condition of Cotton Crop on August 24 at 64.1.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 30.—The report of the National GINNERS' Association, made public this afternoon, gives the condition of cotton up to and including August 24, as 64.1 per cent.

"This is the lowest condition in a number of years," the report says, "and indicates a crop of about 10,500,000 bales. An early frost would reduce these figures somewhat, and a late frost would probably increase the total yield to 11,000,000 bales."

The report of averages by States as follows:

Alabama, 64; Arkansas, 59; Florida, 76; Georgia, 74; Louisiana, 54; Mississippi, 62; Missouri, 80; North Carolina, 75; Oklahoma, 58; South Carolina, 76; Missouri, 75; Texas, 57. General average, 64.1.

This indicates a crop of about 2,000,000 bales for Texas. GINNERS report that they ginned 1,565,785 bales last year in Texas and they estimate they will gin 776,119 bales this year, with average weather.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK IN HOUSE.

Intruder Frightened Away By Call for Police.

At a late hour Monday night some one tried to break in the residence of Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, on Sutton lane. Prof. Ragsdale was out of town and his eldest daughter, Miss Hennie, heard some one trying to open the front door. She listened for some time to satisfy herself that some one was at the door and then from the front window of her room up stairs called to Miss Eula Cox, who lives across the street, and asked the latter to telephone to Policeman Clark, there being no telephone in Prof. Ragsdale's home. When the would-be intruder heard this he sprang from the porch and ran off. Policeman Clark hurried there but the man had gone. A later investigation showed distinct tracks about the front parlor window and also in the yard where the man had run.

The Pickerts Please the People.

A very large audience greeted the Pickerts company Monday night in their opening bill, "The Vengeance of Denise," by Col. J. Milliken, with Miss Lillian Pickert in the title role.

The play was full of tragedy, and the performers supported their respective parts excellently. It was a drama that demanded good acting, and the cast fully met this demand. The specialties were pleasing, especially those by Mr. Pickert and his three daughters. The ovation given their appearance showed the high favor in which they were held by the audience. The illustrated songs of Mr. Cleary were much enjoyed.

The bill for tonight is "Hello Bill" with new specialties.

Large Tobacco Sale.

The last day of August showed the largest sale of tobacco at the warehouses of any day since the season began. Roughly estimated there was near 200,000 pounds on the market, and prices showed improvement that brought comment among the farmers. September is expected to show an increase in both receipts and prices.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. J. T. MEADOWS.

Died at the residence of her husband in Greenville, Aug. 18th, 1909, Josie T. Meadows, aged 54. Death came and with his chilling hand touched the bright and cheerful brow of her, and claimed her for his own. How sad it makes home where happiness and gladness once reigned. This one of those mournful events which plunge families and the community into the very depths of grief. When those we love and the useful are stricken down in life, we are struck with deep sorrow. We can only place our hands upon our lips, and raise our eyes to Heaven and breathe in our hearts, "Thy will be done." The subject of this sketch was born in Greenville county, Va., her father being Col. T. W. Goodrick, and her mother Mary E., daughter of Col. E. H. H. Blick, and granddaughter of General Joseph A. Arrington, of Warren county, North Carolina. She is survived by husband, J. T. Meadows, two sons, Messrs. Tom and Mat Duke, three sisters and three brothers.

Until taken with declining health, for the past few years, she had before a life of comfort and happiness in the family circle of which she was such an ornament, and surrounded by friends who esteemed her so highly for her devotion to her family. Kind and genial in her manners, to know her was to love her. Though she is gone where there is pleasure ever more, yet the beauty and fragrance of her example, and her virtue remain with us as a precious souvenir of her we lost so soon, and loved so much. Let us press onward to meet her in that happy home.

We know that "God doeth all things well," that He makes no mistakes, and that in some way it is best for all concerned. "For all things work together for good to them that love God." We are assured that she loved Him, and we think of her as in Heaven and may it be another tie drawing us to that blest abode. She was taken to Henderson, and funeral was held from the Methodist church conducted by Rev. Craven. She was laid to rest by loving hands, beautiful flowers were placed upon the grave. Many expressions of appreciation of her gentle consecrated life was heard on every hand.

"Dearest one thou hast left us,
And our loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal,
Yet again, we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life has fled,
When in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed."

"One who loved her."

It Was 7 to 5 for Conviction.

We see from an account in the Kinston Free Press that the jury in the Longfellow trial stood 7 for conviction and 5 for acquittal when the jury was discharged Saturday night. As the report as published in The Reflector Monday had these figures reversed, we make this correction.

Farmers Hold Conference With Winston Tobacco Board of Trade.

Winston-Salem, Aug. 30.—A committee headed by Sheriff J. C. Wall, of Stokes county, representing a branch of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America, held a conference with the Tobacco Board of Trade here today and asked the manufacturers and leaf dealers to guarantee to the growers an average of 12 1/2 cents a pound for all tobacco sold on this market by members of the farmers' organization.

The conference was harmonious, but the dealers declined to promise any fixed price, explaining that it would be impossible for them to arrive at any judgment until the supply and demand could be foreseen and also the quantity of this year's crop.

CARD FROM SUPT. OF HEALTH.

Makes Statement Relative to Fumigation at Pest House.

Editor of The Reflector,
I noticed in Monday's Reflector that the report of the grand-jury to the Superior court that they visited the pest-house and made this report: "We find the pest-house, near the county home has been left in a very bad condition—with the bed covering scattered over the yard and we understand has not been properly fumigated." I want so say exactly what has been done.

It was impossible to fumigate the blankets, or bed covering, inside of the house as there were no chairs nor anything else to spread them on so that the fumes could come in contact with all parts of the blankets, therefore, they were carried out doors and dipped into antiseptic solution in order to disinfect them. They were then spread over bushes and stumps on the yard so that the sun and rain might further disinfect them.

Now, these blankets and every thing else in the pesthouse belong to the town of Greenville. I could have burned them with the town's consent, but, did I know how soon we might have another case of smallpox? After the blankets were carried through the process above described, the house was closed as tightly as possible and was thoroughly fumigated.

I cannot imagine who misinformed the jury. They must have known it was untrue when they reported it. Wm. Fountain, Supt. of Health.

HELP THOSE WHO HELP YOUR COMMUNITY.

The Reflector has many times been complimented on what it does for the advancement of Greenville and Pitt county. This is gratifying, for we like to feel that the paper is doing something for its community and that the people recognize its influence in this particular. But do the people realize the help we have in doing this? Do they appreciate the fact that The Reflector could accomplish nothing without the assistance of its patrons? Every subscriber helps that much, but the paper could live only a short time were it not for the advertising and job printing received from the business men. True the paper gives them full value for every dollar so invested, yet it would soon cease without their co-operation.

Now we are mentioning these things because there is a duty the mass of Reflector readers should feel resting upon themselves. That duty is that they should patronize the men whose help makes it possible for them to have a home paper, and enable the paper to be a help to the community. You have but to look over the pages of this paper every day to see the names of the men who co-operate with enterprises that help the community. They are men who act on the principle that this is "Our Greenville, yours if you come." They are public spirited men, men who believe in home institutions, and such men will treat you right when you deal with them. If you believe in your home, spend your money with the men who try to build up your home.

LATE GOERS TO PUBLIC PLACES.

One thing the people of Greenville should learn is to go to public entertainments on time. They have fallen into the very bad habit of going late, and it is a fault that ought to be corrected, out of respect for others if not for their own sakes. Monday night, for instance, though the curtain was fully ten minutes late in rising, hardly more than half the audience were in their seats when it went up. All through the first act tardy ones were coming in and there was so much confusion that nothing could be heard from the stage. Of course the late comers lost the thread of the play, and the confusion they caused placed those who had gone early to as great disadvantage. It is a pity that people will strive to be so annoyingly stylish, if that is a good name for it.

They are ranging their guns on Speaker Cannon again, but he will spike them.

Tariff Fraud, Says Parker.

Ex Judge Alton B. Parker, who was the Democratic candidate for president in 1908, made the following statement yesterday on the new tariff bill:

"The opinion widely entertained and sometimes expressed in the campaign of 1908 that the Republican platform's promise of a revision of the tariff was intended to deceive the people is now fully justified.

"By bold and impudent speech senators and members of congress have asserted that the plank promised a revision, not a reduction of tariff duties. Their only reward is public contempt, for their arguments demonstrate that the purpose of the tariff plank was to cheat and defraud the voters. And at the same time the action of the majority in Congress makes them parties to the fraud, in that they sought to consummate it.

"The president has made a strong effort to secure at least an appearance of party honesty, but the little he has accomplished has been at great cost, for one more precedent is created of an executive using his great power to coerce a co-ordinate and independent department of government in violation of the spirit of the constitution.

"And after all, what shall this unseemly struggle to gain or retain largess avail the tariff barons in the end? Only a little, for it will be found that this tariff act does not, like its predecessors, close the subject for a period of years, but instead, it and the circumstances surrounding its making will but serve to open again the fight. The final outcome will wipe out the unjust results if not the stain of the fraud."—New York World.

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the gods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dullness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "tonics" and "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting. Indigestion and the serious ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means. Kodol supplies this natural means. It performs the stomach's work for it—just as the stomach should perform it—while the stomach takes a little rest, "for the stomach's sake."

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

BANK VAULTS.

Precautions For the Purpose of Following the Cracksmen.

Many banks, especially those in cities, have their vaults protected by an elaborate system of concealed wires connected to a central office not so far away, so that the least tampering with the combination lock or any attack upon the door or walls will give the alarm at the central office, where men are waiting day and night to run to the rescue. The exact method and devices that are used are kept rather secret, for fear the burglars themselves might learn too much about them, but it may be explained that one part of the apparatus is an extremely sensitive relay located at the central office. This delicate instrument closes a local circuit which sounds the alarm the moment there is the slightest disturbance of the hidden wires at and near the vault, so that a gang of burglars could hardly get to work with their drills and their nitroglycerin before the officers of the law would be upon them.

In addition to protecting vaults and safes from the direct attacks of robbers, electricity affords another safeguard by furnishing light which floods the premises with its searching beams. Indeed, many banks, stores and warehouses rely mainly upon the electric light, without which the thickest walls and the strongest and most complicated locks would be useless. They turn it on at night and leave their window shutters wide open, so that the interior may be in full view of the policeman or watchman passing the windows all night. This makes it practically impossible for lawbreakers to work unseen.

To protect the money windows of banks the teller behind the window has a concealed push button at hand, oftentimes placed under the counter where he can touch it unobserved. If any one tries to steal any money, the teller can call an officer instantly in this way. The circuit is sometimes arranged to close the bank doors also by an electrically operated mechanism before the thief has time to get to them and escape.—Harper's Weekly.

Unwritable English.

"Did you know that there is at least one sentence in English that can be spoken, but that it is impossible to write?" asked a University of Pennsylvania senior. "Yes, it's correct English, I suppose, and then again it isn't. Here is the sentence, although I swear I don't know how you are going to write it: 'There are three twos in the English language.' You see, if you spell it t-w-o the sentence is incorrect, as it is if you spell it either t-o-o or t-o. Catch the point? Really, it is incorrect to say it, although it certainly should be possible to express the thought. This thing has got me going, and it simply goes to show what a mess the English language is. There certainly is a word 'two' and a word 'too' and another 'to,' and they are all three pronounced alike—two, too or to—which makes it correct to say there are 'three twos' or 'three toos' or 'three tos' in the English language. But what's the use?"—Philadelphia Record.

Kidney Troubles Attack Greenville Men and Women, Old and Young.

Kidney ills seize young and old. Come quickly with little warning. Children suffer in their early years—Can't control the kidney secretions. Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain.

Women worry, can't do daily work. Men have lame and aching backs. The cure for man, woman or child. Is to cure the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys—

Cure all forms of kidney suffering. Greenville testimony proves it. Miss Susan Kainul, 5 3 N. Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says: "I derived great benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills and take pleasure in recommending them. For some time I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and had distressing pains through my loins. My kidneys were very weak and the frequent passages of the secretions caused me great annoyance. My back pained me severely and when first arising in the morning I was so lame and sore that I could scarcely get around. I at length procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Wooten's drug store and through their use I was entirely relieved of these troubles. The fact that my kidneys have given me no trouble since leads me to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills most highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Not Afraid of a Ghost.
In a village in England a man went running into an inn at 9 o'clock at night and cried out that there was a ghost in his back yard. There were fourteen men in the inn, and not one of them dared to go home with the man and investigate. There was a person who dared, however, and that was the landlord's daughter, a girl of fourteen. Some of the men followed her at a distance, and she went into the yard and up to the ghost, flapping its arms about, and discovered a man's white shirt flapping on the clothesline in a strong breeze. That's about the way all ghosts turn out.—Exchange.

Mr. Jigley—Don't say it! You were going to say you suppose I looked in the glass, weren't you?
Miss Pert—Not at all. I don't consider you interesting or educated.—Catholic Standard and Times.

The Cowcatcher.
While the visitor told how he had ridden thirty thrilling miles on the cowcatcher of a locomotive five-year-old Lorella listened attentively. As he concluded she asked, "Did you catch the cow, Mr. Blank?"—Chicago News.
