WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

Newspaper Notes From Our Hustling Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C. Sept. 29, 1909.

D. S. Chapman, of Greenville, spent Thursday night here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Chapman.

Miss Venie Crawford spent yesterday in Ayden.

B. F. Manning went to Snow Hill yesterday.

Miss Sadie Little and Mrs. W. B. Stocks were in town a short time Friday.

J. E. Greene spent Thursday night with relatives in Grifton.

The ladies of the school have elected the following officers for the Philo-altean Literary society for this session: Miss Jeanette Cox, president; Miss Louise Satterthwaite, vice president; Miss Lillian Baker, secretary; Miss Esther Johnson, treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Boushall, critic; Miss Dora Cox, chaplain. With these excellent officers the society bids fair to do better work this session than ever before.

Misses Mimie Cox and Rosabell Taylor went to Ballards yesterday.

Rev. T. H. King is conducting a series of meetings at Mills school house this week.

Miss Sarah Barker came in Saturday from Washington to spend several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Barker.

Misses Carrie and Henrietta Wesson left Monday to visit relatives in South Carolina.

J. F. Harrington left for Norfolk Sunday morning.

Miss Vivian Roberson spent Sunday at her home at Gold Point.

J. D. Cox left Saturday for Fairmont.

Rev. B. F. Huske preached an excellent sermon in the Episcopal church here Sunday evening.

Saturday was another good day for the bank, deposits being over $12000. Mr. Edmundson tells us that this is nothing unusual. It seems like good business to us.

Miss Rosabell Taylor, who has been spending several days with Miss Mimie Cox, returned to her home near Grifton, Tuesday.

Miss Taylor is a former student of W. H. S. and has many friends here, all of whom were delighted to see her.

Rev. Luther Bridgers preached one of the finest sermons we ever heard in the M. E. church here last Sunday morning. He is indeed a pulpit orator of a high order. His father, Rev. J. B. Bridgers preached at night.

I am representing the oldest and strongest fire and life insurance companies in the world. Office in bank building.

J. S. Ross.

Einstein Bros. to Leave Kinston.

Merchants throughout this entire section are showing great interest in the great removal sale being conducted by Einstein Bros., at Kinston, N. C. This firm is closing out all dry goods and notions at sacrifice prices and our merchants are taking advantage of same. Sale will last until Oct. 15. Einstein Bros. will open in their beautiful new quarters at Wilmington, N. C. Nov. 1st. This sale is for merchants only.

The End of the Century Book Club will meet Wednesday, October 6, at Cottdale. President requests a large attendance as business of importance will be transacted.

Mrs. Bert Moye, Sec.

CARNIVAL NOTES.

Some of the Things to be Seen There.

Electric lights were on for a time last night but very poor and disappointing, and before 10 o'clock were off entirely. The carnival people's lamps made light inside the tents, and the moon helped the cause on the outside. It was a beautiful night and a large crowd went out. Good lights are promised for tonight.

Mat Gay, the high diver, gave his somersault from the 102 feet tower into the tank of water at 4:30 p. m. It was a daring feat well executed, and witnessed by a great crowd. The feat could not be given at night because of absence of lights.

There are many possessors of canary birds won in the paddle drawing.

"Dolletta," the little mother (Mrs. Boykin) is quite an interesting little woman and talks well. Her daughter is a cute little girl and amuses herself with many playthings in the tent.

The ferris wheel and merry-go-round were well patronized.

The "crazy house" is all that its name implies and affords much amusement.

One of the main features is the Old Plantation, which opened Tuesday night to a tremendous crowd and proved to be the best of its kind that has been to our town. The vaudeville was fine and the old plantation scenes take the older people back to slavery days and the old "daddy and mammy." Everybody is sure to be pleased with this attraction. If you have the blues it is a sure cure.

Angelo Mummolo's Royal Italian Band is easily the best that ever played in Greenville. It is a rare treat to hear it. Those who heard their concert on Evans street Tuesday night say it was one of the best programs they ever heard rendered on the streets. They give concerts on Evans street at 1 and 7 p. m. daily.

Notice to Ice Customers.

In order to continue in operation the plant formerly owned by Hill & Johnson, it is found necessary to sell the product for cash, and no sales will be made after this date except on this basis. The schedule of prices as follows:

Less than 100 pounds, 50 cents per hundred.

Less than 300 pounds and over 100, 40 cents per hundred.

300 pound blocks, 33½ cents per hundred.

Ice tickets can be had at the office or from the drivers at the following prices:

210 pounds, $1.00.

500 pounds, $2.25.

1000 pounds, $4.00.

Sunday deliveries have been discontinued and you should have your needs supplied on Saturdays. The factory will be opened on Sunday morning from 9 o'clock a. m. to 10:30 a. m.

It is the purpose of the management to see that patrons receive good service, and all complaints telephoned to 109 will have prompt attention.

H. A. White, Trustee.

HOWE'S GREAT LONDON SHOWS.

Memories of Youth Awakened—In Greenville Oct. 13.

There is nothing more pathetic on earth than the urchin who stands outside the big tent, views his companions blithely pass before him to enter paradise, while all the time the hideous consciousness is his that he has not been able to muster the price of admission. He may grow up later to be a great and good man, and become president of the United States, but he does not care for that now—he would give all his chances in this world for the possession of the little slip of cardboard which would put him face to face with the gleesome, fleasome baboon. If you meet any such wistful hangers-on at the outer pale of the Land of Heart's Desire, and are moved by the memories of your youth to pass him in, you will do a better deed than if you found him hungry in the street and fed him, for he will digest the meal and need another before long, but a circus is worth missing many meals to see.

So go to the circus, and don't be so ashamed of wanting to go that you make the excuse that you are just going to take care of the children. Admit that you like it. Go and eat peanuts, and laugh at the clown and feel young and happy again. The clown is another test. He will be, to all intents and purposes, the first clown that you ever saw; and he will have the same jokes; but if you attend in the proper spirit, you will laugh in the same places. The clown is not meant to minister to your sense of humor; his is the higher function of testing the degree of youth which you retain.

Howe's Great London shows coming for two exhibitions Wednesday, Oct. 13.

Interesting Mission Services.

Large congregations are attending the mission services conducted by Archdeacon Webber in St. Paul's Episcopal church. Tuesday night he preceded the sermon with an instruction on the Bible as the Word of God, that was very interesting and helpful. The subject of his sermon was "Five Blessings of Christianity". Archdeacon Webber is a charming speaker, and his discourses here this week will prove a blessing to the community. All who can should attend the services which are held each day at 7:30 a. m., 10 a. m., 4 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Leave Off Side Strips.

We note some of the ginners are still packing cotton with side strips, when they will have to dock their cotton four pounds to cover same or lose the difference in price, this being the rule on every exchange. There is just enough bagging, without side strips, to cover the bale after it is compressed, and we have to depend upon the exporters to handle three-fourths of all the crop. Take notice and do not put on side strips, as it means loss to the farmers.

Speight & Co.

Dr. James Appointed.

Among the delegates appointed by Governor Kitchin to represent North Carolina at the convention in New Orleans of the Gulf to the Lakes Deep Waterway Association, is Dr. D. L. James, of Greenville.

ROCHDALE ITEMS.

Rochdale, N. C., Sept. 29, 1909

Mrs. Ivy Smith and Mark Smith went to Snow Hill Friday and returned Sunday.

Mrs. Mills Smith and Mrs. C. E. McLawhon went calling at T. E. Robinson's and B. P. Willoughby's Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Willoughby, from near Farmville, were here Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McLawhon went to Farmville Sunday to attend church.

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Smith and David Smith, of Marlton, were in our section Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Joyner and son, Nash, were attending our Sunday school at Smith's school house Sunday evening.

Leon and Ruel Tyson from near Renston, were visiting their grandfathers, Joab Tyson and R. A. Willoughby, Saturday and Sunday morning.

We had a very good Sunday school at Smith's school house Sunday evening and hope every one that can will be present next Sunday, as it will be the beginning of a new Sunday school year. It is just three years old.

Mrs. Pattie F. Smith who was sick at B. P. Willoughby's last week, is well and returned home Sunday evening.

We had it stormy and rainy yesterday and cool. Indications are this morning that we will have some fair weather for a few days, though it is windy.

Mills Smith and children, Misses Ruby, Christine and Sherrod, went to Greenville today to attend the carnival.

BETHEL ITEMS.

Bethel, N. C., Sept. 29, 1909.

Mrs. W. A. James, of Asheville, an old resident of this place, is here visiting friends and relatives. Everybody gladly welcomed her to her old home.

Miss Minnie Bell, of Littleton, has come into our midst as a saleslady for Blount Bros. We give her a hearty welcome to our town.

The meeting at the Baptist church closed Tuesday night with several additions to the church. Rev. Mr. Ryland did some good preaching and made many friends in and around Bethel.

The new brick building near the depot is fast nearing completion and will be used for offices by Drs. Thigpen and Ward.

M. O. and N. H. Blount, Seymour Bullock and Dr. Manning made a flying trip to Greenville Friday. They were gone from here but three hours.

Mrs. Eva Cobb, of Mildred, and her guest, Miss Julia Wentz, of Washington, D. C., were pleasant visitors here last week.

Miss Mary Whitehurst, of Grindool, is spending some time with Miss Maud Barnhill this week.

John Sherrod, of Whitakers, spent Sunday and Sunday night in Bethel.

M. O. and M. K. Blount spent Sunday in Williamston.

Misses Manning and Stancil, of the graded school faculty, spent Sunday at their respective homes.

The Athenian Literary Society of Bethel High School was re-organized Sept. 28th, with the following officers: Baxter Carson, president; W. C. Whitehurst, vice president; Miss Manie Whitehurst, secretary; Miss Margaret Lloyd, treasurer; Miss Lettie Elizabeth Parker, critic; Miss Christine Stancil, monitor; and Prof. J. B. Martin, chaplain.

WEDNESDAY, SEP. 29, 1909.

We do not get out of the hands of the ice man before the coal man has us.

Peary gave further indications of his smallness when he refused to let Cook's records and instruments be brought back to America on the Roosevelt.

The Twentieth Century Club of Cincinnati, a suffragist organization, has petitioned the mayor of that city to appoint women on the police force. It does not strike us that women would make good police officers.

Some people will stop long enough in the busy whirl to get down to worrying about what may take place a thousand or a million years hence, just like they were going to be here to be effected about conditions existing then. Foolish people!

This year's experience ought to convince farmers that it is best to practice greater diversification of crops. We believe another year will show a larger number of them in Pitt county who do not place their dependence on one money crop to the exclusion of home supplies. The farmer who has well filled barns and smokehouse does not feel the pinch of low priced tobacco like the man who has his corn and meat to buy.

Taken At Their Word.

It is the custom in the courts of law for the judge to assign a lawyer to a defendant in case of murder or other crime, who has not the money to employ counsel. It has also been the custom for the judge to make this assignment from the ranks of the young lawyers who are just starting out in life and it happens often that the defendant does not get the benefit of experienced service. In New York recently, this matter was brought to the attention of the courts by the lawyers themselves who contended that prisoners too poor to pay seldom get lawyers of any ability. Following this came an offer from one hundred and thirty-five lawyers of prominence offering their service. The judge took notice. Almost immediately following, three men were arraigned in Judge Malone's court, each with a murder charge against him and no money to pay a lawyer. Remembering the offer of the lawyers to take the defense of the pauper defendants, Judge Malone proceeded to select William R. Hornblower to defend one prisoner; Delancey Nicoll to defend the second and Samuel Untermyer to defend the third. No poor prisoner ever before got the services of such prominent counsel; but the lawyers will not work for nothing. The State will pay them a fee of $500 in each case.—Charlotte Chronicle.

We Need More People.

Fifteen years ago people thought that this country had about as many people in it as it would support. Now everybody knows that we have a mere sprinkling of folks here as compared to the number the country is capable of supporting. Cumberland county has resources amply sufficient for 100 persons in the place of every man, woman and child now living in the county. And the same is true of the counties adjoining Cumberland. We have reached the conclusion that there are very, very few acres of land in this section that cannot be made to produce four times as much as the average acre is now producing. The people of this country have just merely begun to develop our resources.—Fayetteville Index.

Land Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior court of Pitt county, made on the 28th day of September, 1909, in a certain special proceeding therein pending, entitled Caddy James, administrator of J. D. Bullock deceased, against Alice Page and others, I will, on Monday, November 1st, 1909, before the court house door in the town of Greenville, sell at public sale to the highest bidder for cash, two certain pieces or parcels of land situate in Carolina township, Pitt county, described as follows: One tract known as the Davenport Land, adjoining lands of Martha Turner, Simon Barnhill and others, containing 25 acres, more or less. And one other tract known as the Old Rollins Land, adjoining the lands of C. J. Briley, W. G. Little, James Briley and others, containing 100 acres, more or less.

This the 29th day of September, 1909.

A HARD STRUGGLE.

Many a Greenville Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching. With distressing urinary disorders. Daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. One hundred thousand people endorse this claim.

Here is one case: Mrs. Joseph Fly, Jr. Rose Street Rocky Mount, N. C., says: "I am pleased to testify in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills, as the results I obtained from their use proved them to be a remedy of great merit. I suffered considerably from dull, nagging backaches and sharp pains across my loins. If I stooped, lifted or made a quick movement, the twinges were more noticeable and often it was hard for me to perform my household duties. I always felt tired and languid and was devoid of energy or ambition. Believing that the trouble arose from my kidneys, I started using Doan's Kidney Pills. They helped me at once and further use disposed of the pains in my back, regulated the passages of the kidney secretions and gave me renewed strength. I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DEMOCRATIC PEERS.

The House of Peers Not One of Birth or Ancestry.

Strangely enough, the house of lords still remains the most democratic institution in England. It may still claim for itself to be the Witenagemot, or gathering of wise men, and one wonders why it does not defend itself along those lines.

It is not a house of birth or ancestry, for it is composed today to an overwhelming extent of successful men from almost every walk of life. No one cares a fig what a man's ancestry was in this matter of fact land if he succeeds, if he becomes rich and powerful.

The mother of the great Queen Elizabeth was the daughter of a plain English gentleman.

A pot girl of Westminster married the master of the pothouse. After his death she consulted a lawyer named Hyde. Mr. Hyde married her. Mr. Hyde afterward became lord chancellor, with the title of Lord Clarendon, and his wife, the former pot girl, bore him a daughter. This daughter married the Duke of York and became the mother of Mary and Anne Stewart, both afterward queens of England.

It is evident that if queens of England may have a barmaid for grandmother lesser mortals need not fret on the subject of ancestry.

The Englishman would not be what he is nor would he in the least be transmitting his very valuable Saxon heritage if he gave up his democratic custom of an aristocracy of power for the feeble continental custom of an aristocracy of birth. What the one and the other is today answers the question as to the relative merits of the two systems without need of discussion. The English, though nowadays many of them do not know it themselves, are the most democratic of all nations.

William the Conqueror divided England among the commanders of his army and conferred about twenty earldoms. Not one of these exists today, nor do any of the honors conferred by William Rufus, 1087-1100; Henry I, 1100-1135; Stephen, 1135-1154; Henry II, 1154-1189; Richard I, 1189-1199; or John, 1199-1216.

A Missing Point.

"Professor," said an acquaintance, "you understand Latin, do you not?"

"Well," replied the professor, "I may be said to have a fair knowledge of Latin."

"I know everybody says you have. I wish you would tell me what 'volix' means. Nobody that I have asked seems to have heard the word."

"If there is any such word as 'volix,' madam, of which I have serious doubts, I certainly do not know what it means."

"You surprise me, professor. A man of your attainments ought to know that 'volix' means vol. ix."

The professor devoted a moment to calling up his reserves and bringing his light artillery into action.

"It is no wonder, madam," he said, "that I did not see the point of your joke. You left the point out of it."

Quick Witted Divines.

Dr. P. S. Henson once delivered his lecture on "Fools" at the New York Chautauqua. In introducing him Bishop Vincent said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, we are now to listen to lecture on 'Fools,' by one"—The audience broke into a roar of laughter, and after it had died away Bishop Vincent added, "of the most brilliant men in America."

Dr. Henson rose and, with a genial smile, said, "Ladies and gentlemen, I am not so great a fool as Bishop Vincent"—Another roar of laughter, after which the speaker added, "would have you believe."

Diagnosis.

Into a general store of a town in Arkansas there recently came a darky complaining that a ham which he had purchased there was not good.

"The ham is all right, Zeph," insisted the storekeeper.

"No, it ain't, boss," insisted the negro. "Dat ham's shore bad!"

"How can that be," continued the storekeeper, "when it was cured only last week?"

The darky scratched his head reflectively and finally suggested: "Den mebbe it's had a relapse."

PRISONERS OF WAR.

Friendly Foes That Changed Places as Guests and Hosts.

A cheerful incident of the war between the states is told in "Mission Ridge and Lookout Mountain." The Third Ohio, under Streight's command, was en route for Richmond, prisoners of war.

One night they camped, worn, famished, with hearts heavy and homesick, near the place where a Confederate regiment, the Fifty-fourth Virginia, was stationed. Many of the southerners strolled over to the prison camp to see the sorry show of the poor, supperless Yankees.

They did not stay long. Back to their own camp they hurried and soon returned with kettles of coffee, corn bread, bacon—the best they had and all they had. Presently little fires began to twinkle in the prison camp, and the aroma of coffee rose like a fragrant cloud of thank offering. Union guests and Confederate hosts mingled. The next morning the prisoners departed.

Now comes a happy sequel which well balances the affair. Later, when the prisoners were exchanged, the Third Ohio was encamped near Kelly's ferry, on the banks of the Tennessee. On the day of the storming of Mission ridge among the prisoners taken were numbered the Fifty-fourth Virginia.

Some of the Third Ohio were on duty at the ferry when the prison detachments arrived.

"What regiment is that?" they asked. When told they started on the run, shouting as they went:

"The Fifty-fourth Virginia's at the ferry!"

They dashed into their camp with the news. The place was astir instantly. Treasures of coffee, bacon, sugar, beef, preserved peaches—everything was turned out and carried double quick to the ferry. The circumstances were the same, with the difference that guests and hosts had changed places.

She Threw Him Over Twice. "Why have you thrown over Mr. Pitcoe?" "Oh, I could never marry a man with a crooked leg." "What made his leg crooked?" "I ran over it with my motor car." Success Magazine.

Explained.

"War," cried the pale-visaged gentleman, "is a sin and a disgrace! War is an abomination—a blot on civilization! The very name of war is enough to make a decent, respectable man go and hang himself out of pure disgust!"

Having thus delivered himself, he left the clubroom, his face distorted with emotion.

"Seems to feel rather deeply on the subject," said a member who had been listening to the peroration. "Perhaps he lost some near relative through war."

"He did," chimed in another.

"May I ask who it was?"

"You may. It was his wife's first husband."

A Mighty Old Table.

A wealthy man was once exhibiting proudly to a younger acquaintance a table which he had bought. He said it was 500 years old.

"That is nothing," remarked his young visitor. "I have in my possession a table which is more than 3,000 years old."

"Three thousand years old!" said the host. "That is impossible. Where was it made?"

"Probably in India."

"In India! What kind of a table is it?"

"The multiplication table."

The Old Good Trait.

Leader—Can you spare us a 'a' penny, mate?

Worker—Wotcher want a 'a' penny for?

Leader—Cos I got one, and I want another for the price of 'arf a pint.

Worker—Ever done a day's work in yer life?

Leader—No, guv'nor, cawn't say as I 'ave.

Worker—Well, yer never done a pore bloke out of a job, anyway. 'Ere's yer 'a' penny.—London Punch.

These Useless Questions.

"Billy, did you ever pick up a live trolley wire with your bare hands?"

"Many a time."

"Didn't it give you a shock?"

"Gave me a shock? It killed me dead every time."—Chicago Tribune.

ABOUT YOUR CLOTHES!

THE time has come for you to consider where to buy, and what to buy.

We don't mean to dictate to any theclothes they should buy, but if you will allow us to put you into some of our

SUMMER IS GONE

And now is a good time to have your summer suit nicely cleaned and pressed, so it can be put away and kept for months. It is time to bring your overcoat and have it cleaned and overhauled for winter, perhaps it needs a new collar or re lining. A little work on it may save buying a new one. I am ready to do this work for you as it ought to be done.

PAUL MITRICK, The Tailor.

CAN'T GO TO THE CARNIVAL

Didn't Sell Tobacco at the Gum The Man Who Did Can be Seen on the Midway Any Time.

HE DIDN'T SELL AT THE GUM
 Now how kum I got dese rugs on my back
 An' sets on a kart instid uv er hack?
 I'll tell yo' de traf, I will fer er fac',
 I didn't sell mah bakker at de Gum.

Now, how kum mah laigs ain't stouter an' rounder,
 Jes like dese uv er new born five pounder?
 An' how kum mah pocket book as flat as er flounder?
 I didn't sell mah bakker at de Gum.

Now, how kum mah kart is 'apidated, An' it an' me is allus beriated?
 De reason, I sho' is stated--
 I didn't sell mah bakker at de Gum.

Now, how kum I drive sich er scrawney beast,
 Wid no mo' git dan ten yeah ole east,
 Er gittin' ter places er day a'ter de feas?
 I didn't sell mah bakker at de Gum.

How kum I's gwine ter git de price dis yeah,
 An' not hab no 'casion ter shed er teah?
 I's gwine ter load mah kart an' hitch up mah steah
 An' sell mah bakker at de Gum.

How kum I bin sich er fool, I wonder? But bless de Lawd, I's dun foun' out mah blunder,
 An' now, twell jedgment as sho' as thunder,
 I's gwine ter sell all mah bakker at de Gum.

THIS MAN DID

I sell my tobacco at the Gum
 Now why do I look so prosperous and fat;
 And wear handsome clothes and a stylish hat?
 No question to answer as easy as that
 I sell my tobacco at the Gum.

Now why do I drive such a splendid team,
 That flashes through town just like a sunbeam?
 And why, when I like, I feed on ice cream?
 I sell my tobacco at the Gum.

Now, why did I buy a new plantation?
 And raise enough to furnish the nation,
 Besides taking care of each needy relation?
 I sell my tobacco at the Gum.

Now, why do I swim while so many sink?
 Those who stand so close to poverty's brink?
 You will know at once if you only think,
 I sell my tobacco at the Gum.

Now, why I have piles laid up in the bank,
 And live like a king or a noble of rank?
 On life's shaky platform I have this strong plank--
 I sell my tobacco at the Gum.

Now, I say to the farmer, who feels like a bore,
 As he stands so dead close to the poor-house door
 My friends here's the reason I am rich and you are poor,
 I sell my tobacco at the Gum.
