Some of the Things to be Seen There.

Another big crowd was there last night. Electric lights were good and everybody enjoyed it.

And the end comes tonight:

The Old Plantation with the cak walk and prize dances last night was immense.

It can be said to the credit of the Barkoot Amusement Company that all the attractions with it are clean and well worth the price of admission to see them. Mr. Barkoot and those associated with him are clever people and they have given a week of good amusement.

Everybody is tired and ready for the rest that follows a week of excitement.

REFLECTOR PIANO CONTEST.

Is Now On and Somebody Will Get the Prize.

On Christmas eve The Reflector is going to give away the beautiful baby upright Boudoir piano that is on exhibition at the music room of Fineman & White. Many people have been there to look at and try the piano, and they express delight at its excellent tone and volume. It is a magnificent instrument and will be a prize indeed to whoever wins it. And the person will get it who does the best work and turns in the most subscribers to The Reflector:

Some are already at work, and do not find it hard to get people to help them by subscribing to The Reflector. What they are doing you can do. The contest is open to everybody where the Reflector circulates, and those who enter it can work anywhere they please, the territory being unlimited.

Look over the schedule of votes and learn how the subscriptions count, then go out after them and get your friends to help you.

Below is published the list of those who have already been nominated and each of them is started off with 1000 votes in the nomination. Other nominations will be made, as they can enter the contest at any time.

Miss Mavis Belle Evans	1000
Miss Vashti Dean	1000
Miss Mary Johnston	1000
Miss Lillie R. Tucker	1000
Mrs. John H. Cheek	1000
Miss Jessie Hodges	1000

Next Wednesday the standing of the votes will be published for the first time, and every contestant should send in as many as possible by then. Now everybody get busy.

There is only one prize to be given, the handsome piano, but that those who enter the contest and fail to win this prize may feel that they have not labored in vain, we will at the close of the contest pay them a cash commission on all subscriptions they get for The Reflector. Now get to work knowing you will be paid for what you do, whether you win the piano or not.

SATURDAY, OCT. 2, 1909.

The next big amusement for Greenville is Howe's circus on the 18th.

Peary might have expected a noise like trouble when he started to find the pole in a ship named Roosevelt.

Strike Greenville people any time you please and you always find them the right kind. That is why everybody likes Greenville so well.

When the people of Pitt county fully awake to the needs of good roads and make up their minds to spare no effort to get them, you will see this become the greatest county in the State. Pitt county has a people who are unsurpassed, her lands are rich in fertility, her educational advantages are the equal of any, and a system of good roads added to these advantages would bring an era of prosperity that would put the county well in the forefront. Talk good roads and do not rest until every section of the county has them.

The Cotton Future Farmer Sore.

Much disappointment is being felt by a large number of farmers throughout this section because of the fact that they sold cotton for September and October delivery at a figure considerably lower than the price of spot cotton now. Middling cotton today was quoted at 12 1/2 cents per pound. Even as early as April and throughout May, June and July many farmers were anxious about the price of cotton during this fall and fearing that there would be a large crop made throughout the South sold portions of their crop. The sales were made on the basis of what futures were worth at that time. For instance, if October futures were 11 cents in May, farmers entered in a compact with exporters which stipulated that they should receive about 10 90 for so many bales to be delivered in October. Large amounts of cotton were sold as low as 10 and 11 cents and the farmers must now fulfill their contracts although they will secure from a half cent to two and a half cents under the market price now. The dealers expect the farmers who sold for future delivery to come up promptly despite the fact that they will lose some money. If cotton had gone to six cents instead of 12 and 13 cents the farmers who sold cotton would quickly demand their contract price, say the cotton men.—Anderson Mail.

Big Chicken Ranch in Wilkes

Perhaps few people outside of the immediate section know that there is anywhere in North Carolina a chicken ranch or preserve on which there are six thousand of the feathered family that so much delight the heart and please the palate of a Methodist preacher. But such is a fact, and Wilkes county is the home of this industry according to the North Wilkesboro Hustler. In a recent issue it said:

In passing this week we visited the W. S. Church place at Summit, the great game chicken preserve of Wilkes county. Chickens are shipped from this place to all parts of the world—South Africa, South America, Cuba and throughout the West. He has ten chicken yards and 1,000 chickens in ten yards, and 52 yards in the surrounding community, making about 6,000 chickens.

OUR PIANO WAREROOM

Now Open.

WITH the exception of two makes which have not reached us yet, the most of the makes which we intend to handle are now on our floor, next to Carr & Atkins Hardware Co.

The grandest display ever shown. In this magnificent group of pianos can be seen, the artistic Lester. This strictly high grade piano is used in the leading Conservatories of the U. S., among them in the New England Conservatory, Boston, largest musical institution in the U. S. The East Carolina Teachers' Training School, Greenville, N. C., has also equipped its music departments with these famous instruments. The renowned Henry and S. G. Lindeman Pianos, this concern is one of the most noted of the pioneers in the piano industry in this country. Of this piano we quote from the music trades:

"Mr. Henry Lindeman is considered to be one of the few really scientific and expert piano makers we have living today. He is also recognized as an expert scale drawer and his reputation for developing the same is second to none in the trade. He stands pre-eminent as a maker of scales of pianos." Six other makes are all standard and legitimate. Among those "the Boudoir pianos" known as the smallest high grade, upright, ever manufactured "Nothing ever like it" A truly artistic little piano and is the artists' favorite of the little pianos. We thus quote the celebrated Madam Emma Calve: "Relative to the Boudoir Piano, which I purchased for my private use last February and used by me in my Trans-Continental Tour. I desire to say that this piano has certainly proved itself to be a little jewel. To state the whole truth, I am enthusiastic over this little piano. It possesses a quality of tone that is sweet and sympathetic, being practically well adapted to accompanying my voice, and a volume that is the equal of, if not surpassing, pianos of usual size. It is truly a wonderful little piano, and I would not dispose of mine for any consideration."

We invite the public to visit our wareroom. Are you considering the purchase of pianos, or have you one in your home on trial? Come and look at ours, and your home will be made happier and your pocket book will remain decidedly in a healthier condition. Terms to suit your convenience. Come and listen to the Lindeman, Lester, Milton and Bjure Bros. Player-pianos. Daily recitals.
