THE REFLECTOR PIANO CONTEST

INTEREST IN IT IS GROWING FAST.

The List of Candidates and Their Votes are Published Today—And New Ones Coming in.

Since The Reflector piano contest opened interest in it has grown daily, and the contestants who have already entered are at work earnestly to secure the prize. Since the list was published Saturday some new names have been added, and others are to be announced soon. The contest will be a spirited one, and while only one can win the piano, The Reflector is not going to let the others labor without compensation, but will reward them with a cash prize at the end of the contest in accordance with the number of subscribers each has secured for the paper.

Friends of the contestants should help them in working for this handsome prize. If not already a subscriber to The Reflector, take it and let the corresponding number of votes go to the candidate of your choice. If you are taking the paper, pay up your subscription and renew as far ahead as you desire. Every subscription, long or short, helps the candidate that much. The purpose of this contest is to get more subscribers to The Reflector and to induce those in arrears to pay up and renew. Do this promptly and you help yourself, some friend, and the paper. If you have a favorite in the contest, get out and work some for her. You will see below the names of the candidates who have so far entered the race.

Bethel, Stokes, Pactolus, Grimesland, Grifton, Ayden, Farmville, Falkland, and every other community in the county should have candidates in the contest. From some of these places word has already come of some to be nominated. Send on the names and let them get to work. The contest is open to everybody and candidates can work where they please. Don't wait, but begin at once. The standing of the vote at noon today, so far as reported is as follows:

Miss Mary Johnston	4500
Miss Lottie Blow	2925
James Tingle	2050
Miss Mavis Belle Evans	1725
Miss Lillie R. Tucker	1000
Miss Jessie Hodges	1000
Mrs. John H. Cheek	1000
Miss Christine Johnston	1000

We know all the votes secured are not counted in the above as some have not reported. The candidates can suit their pleasure about letting their full vote be published, but the names of subscribers should be sent in as fast as possible so the paper can be started to them. The list of votes will be published again Saturday.

Every day people are going to the music room of Fineman & White to see the baby upright Boudoir piano which The Reflector will give in this contest. It is a beauty, a gem of musical instruments, and fortunate will be the one into whose possession it falls Christmas eve. Go and ask these gentlemen to let you see and test the piano, which they will do with pleasure, and you will be delighted with it.

Several worked-over cook stoves and heaters, good as new and look as nice, at about half price. Phone 76.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

News Notes From Our Hurling Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C., Oct. 6, 1909. Mrs. Charlie Aldridge left here Saturday for Scotland Neck to attend the Primitive Baptist association.

In the absence of Rev. T. H. King from the Baptist church, last Sunday, Prof. H. F. Brinson supplied for him. His sermon was excellent.

The Baraca Bible class of Winterville Baptist Sunday school, elected the following officers last Sunday: L. G. Whitley, president; Eugene Cannon, vice president; Paul N. Strother, secretary; W. C. Harris, assistant secretary; Wm. G. Morris, treasurer; F. C. Nye, teacher and reporter. Nearly all the boys in W. H. S. are now enrolled, and the class is still advancing.

O. W. Rollins was in Ayden Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kittrell, Misses Hattie Kittrell and Vivian Roberson and J. E. Green attended the Primitive Baptist association at Scotland Neck Sunday.

J. L. Rollins and W. G. Morris attended services at Ayden Sunday night.

J. B. Franks, who accepted a position with the Flanagan Buggy Company lately, moved to Greenville Monday.

Miss Grace Snow, of New Bern, came in Friday to be in school here this session.

R. W. Dail seems to be all smiles lately—its a boy.

Walter Nobles lost a nice horse Tuesday. The horse had spasmodic colic.

S. C. Carroll and J. W. Harper attended services at Reedy Branch Tuesday night.

Misses Bettie Council and Lizzie Harrell, of Oak City, came in Monday to enter school.

F. A. Edmondson left here Saturday for his home at Eureka and returned Monday. He reports that his mother, who has been very sick, is much better.

The series of meetings at Reedy Branch are being well attended by the people here.

Robt. Bryan, from California, is visiting M. G. Bryan.

A. W. Ange bought another horse Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Newit Smith, of Hugo, have been visiting Miss Delia Hazelton at W. H. S.

The yearly meeting at the Free Will Baptist church will begin Friday morning and continue through Sunday night. There will be both day and night services.

Rev. Mr. Mercer was in town Tuesday.

Bishop Strange will conduct services in the Episcopal church Thursday night and Friday morning. All are cordially invited.

Quite a number entered W. H. S. Monday. The enrollment will soon reach 150.

We are glad to announce that Rev. R. A. McFarland, pastor of the Baptist church at Scotland Neck, will deliver an address in the W. H. S. auditorium, Thursday night, October 14th. He is an excellent speaker. All are cordially invited to be present.

Miss Nellie Webbs, of Saratoga, entered school Monday.

F. C. Nye, A. G. Cox and J. B. Carroll attend services at Mills' school house Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Bridgers, of Ayden, was in town Monday.

J. B. Kittrell, who has lately accepted a position in Greenville, was at his home here Sunday night.

A. G. Cox attended the meet-

AYDEN ITEMS.

News Notes From a Hurling Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., Oct. 6, 1909.

Ben Dixon and his little sister, Hannah, spent Saturday in Greenville.

Dr. M. M. Sauls left Sunday morning for Richmond, where he will spend a few days with his wife and little daughter, who are visiting her mother.

C. L. Cannon is filling Dr. M. M. Sauls' place in the drug store while he is away.

Miss Fay Corey, from near Ayden, spent Sunday and a part of Monday with Miss Agnes Dixon.

C. R. Townsend, of Greenville, made a very pleasant call to our little town Saturday.

The Methodists are going right on with work on the new church. It will not be very long before we will have a new M. E. church in Ayden.

W. E. Hooks and family left Monday morning for their home in Fremont.

James Tingle has been away for the past few days.

We are very glad to learn that Miss Esther Blount is gradually improving.

With Mrs. W. B. Wilson.

On Tuesday evening from 8:30 to 12:30 Mrs. W. B. Wilson very delightfully entertained a number of friends at a card party in honor of Mrs. N. S. Fulford, of Washington.

The game of the evening was bridge, there being five tables of players. The guest prize, a large Indian plaque, was awarded to Mrs. Fulford. The score prize, a large Indian bust, was won by Miss Irma Cobb, and the consolation prize, an Indian figure, by Miss Janie Brown. There was much interest in the game and the contest was close.

At the conclusion of the game a delightful three-course luncheon was served, the souvenirs being birch bark canoes with an Indian brave and paddle.

Mrs. Wilson is a charming entertainer and her guests greatly enjoyed the evening.

Pink Birthday Party.

From 3:30 to 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon little Miss Nell Douglas White celebrated her ninth birthday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. White. About fifty of her little friends were with her to enjoy the happy occasion.

The home was decorated throughout in pink, the ices and confections being in keeping with the color scheme.

There was a voting contest for the prettiest girl present and the prize, a set of gold pins, was won by Miss Louise Fleming.

As the guests took their departure they wished Miss Nell many happy returns of the day.

Died at Hospital.

On Tuesday evening the remains of Mr. W. D. Moore reached Greenville and were taken out to his former home, near Grindle creek, for interment. Mr. Moore died in the State hospital at Raleigh, where he had been an inmate for several months.

ROCHDALE ITEMS.

Rochdale, N. C., Oct. 5, 1909.

Mrs. C. E. McLawhorn spent a short while at T. A. Nichols' last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills Smith went to Greenville Thursday to see the carnival and on other business.

R. E. Willoughby went to Greenville to attend the carnival Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smith and Miss Carrie Belle Smith went to the carnival Thursday.

John Nobles, of Noblestown, was at R. A. Willoughby's a short while Friday.

There were so many people of our section that attended the carnival last week that I can't name them all but I think there were sixteen Smith's that attended from one to three days besides a good many others.

Mrs. C. E. McLawhorn, and son, Milton, spent Friday night at C. L. Tyson's near Renston.

Mrs. Bettie Caraway, of Hookerton, is visiting Mrs. Ivy Smith.

Miss Mabelle Flanagan, of Farmville, visited Miss Gertie Smith Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Flanagan returned to her home near Farmville Sunday.

Mrs. R. M. Starkey and Mrs. McArthur visited Mrs. C. E. McLawhorn Sunday.

Miss Janie Tyson, of Renston, is visiting relatives here.

We had very good preaching at May's chapel Friday night, Saturday and Sunday by Rev. Waters, of Ayden seminary.

We had the best Sunday school at Smith's school house Sunday evening in its history.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Joyner and two children, from near Farmville, spent Sunday evening at C. E. McLawhorn's and attended Sunday school here.

Miss L. E. Gray, of Murfreesboro, came in Saturday to take charge of the school at Smith's school house Monday morning, and Miss Mary Joyner, of Farmville, came Monday morning to take charge of the primary class. We think them both very good teachers.

C. R. Townsend, of Greenville, was in our town Sunday evening.

Miss Agnes Smith went to Greenville this morning to enter school there.

Ladies Ready-to-Wear Exhibit.

Mr. Morris who has charge of the ready-to-wear exhibit for Oettinger Bros. of Kinston, N. C. at the store of Wiley Brown, wishes to inform the ladies that he will remain here Thursday until 5 p. m. Arrangements have been made for more room, and some additional garments will be added to the display.

Watch the Gum Grow.

The highest average made on the market this season was made at the "Gum" today when our entire sales averaged $12.23.

If it be true that money talks then sell your tobacco at the "Gum" warehouse, the daddy of the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Co. J. P. Lovelace, Mgr.

Mr. E. Lang Dead.

Mr. Elisha Lang died Tuesday night at his home in Grifton. He was a large farmer and merchant and carried on his business with marked success. His death is indeed a loss to his town and county. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon with Masonic honors, Mr. Lang having been a member of that order.

The air ships have a way of getting better too.

A woman's club is more than apt to be a hat pin.

And the new hats this season are larger than ever.

Nothing is cheap at any price if you have no need of it.

With it all the county needs good roads more than anything else.

Now and then the officers pull a fellow who is trying to get too intimate with the president in his tour around the country.

It brings a feeling of pride to see the good looking gathering of students at the training school. Eastern North Carolina can hold her own against the world.

A London paper predicts that it will be no great while before serviceable airships can be bought for $750. Here is notice that they must get below that price before we invest.

The sheriff of Rutherford county went out and stopped a crew in their work building a railroad bridge on Sunday. That work was not a necessity and should be allowed no more than any other.

Talk! Of course we will. We had rather say one word for Greenville any time than a dozen words against it. And further we do not have any patience with any fellow who knocks his town. Move on when you get dissatisfied.

As to Town Boosting.

Here is something that will do to read over more than once. It is being handed around, credited to "an exchange," so we do not know to whom to attribute the sensible talk. Read it:

Good citizens always have a good word to say for their home town. They know its good points, and if there are other peculiarities, they do not present them.

The grumbler who knows all the bad features of a town and mentions them at every opportunity is not only a poor citizen, but one who does nothing to improve the town he lives in. It is good enough to provide a home for him and perhaps a place of business, or an occupation, but that is forgotten in the general flow of complaint.

Every resident can do something for the betterment of his town. If he cannot improve property for lack of means or ownership, he can at least keep his own home neat and clean. He can have a clean yard, a grass plot or something, to add to the appearance of the place, and above all he can say a good word for the place at every opportunity.

The grumbler should take a trip out west and hear the boomers there talk about their towns. It may be only a string of shacks and shanties, the most pretentious being one story high with a dashboard front, but the enthusiastic citizen will tell you how long it is since the first settler located and how the place is growing. He will point out the places which have acquired local fame or notoriety, will tell of the prospects, of the things they are going to have and the room for expansion, which is bounded by the horizon.

The visitor can't help smiling, but he feels that the resident has the right spirit. He is doing the things which will make good in time. And even in a small community, where all are imbued with the same spirit, wonders are accomplished.

How much better this spirit is than that of the grumbler, who is sure that his town was the last place made, and was made of the leavings. How much better it would be for the grumbler to examine his home and his place of business to see if he is not contributing his bit to make his home town look cheap and untidy. If every grumbler should take time to clean up his own surroundings, the town would look better at once and the new interest in it that would be bred of a conscious effort to improve it, even in a small way, would make the grumbler a better neighbor and a better citizen.

Why should it be necessary to fire a cannon eleven times when a nation in the person of a Rear-Admiral makes an afternoon call? It is unnecessary to fire a cannon eleven times when a woman makes an afternoon call, and there is no excuse for a nation's being fussier than the average woman. —Durham Sun.

A HARD STRUGGLE.

Many a Greenville Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching. With distressing urinary disorders. Daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. One hundred thousand people endorse this claim.

Here is one case:
Mrs. Joseph Fly, Jr. Rose Street Rocky Mount, N. C., says: "I am pleased to testify in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills, as the result I obtained from their use proved them to be a remedy of great merit. I suffered considerably from dull, nagging rack-aches and sharp pains across my loins. If I stooped, lifted or made a quick movement, the twinges were more noticeable and often it was hard for me to perform my household duties. I always felt tired and languid and was devoid of energy or ambition. Believing that the trouble arose from my kidneys, I started using Doan's Kidney Pills. They helped me at once and further use disposed of the pains in my back, regulated the passages of the kidney secretions and gave me renewed strength. I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

OUR PIANO WAREROOM Now Open.

WITH the exception of two makes which have not reached us yet, the most of the makes which we intend to handle are now on our floor, next to Carr & Atkins Hardware Co. The grandest display ever shown. In this magnificent group of pianos can be seen, the artistic Lester. This strictly high grade piano is used in the leading Conservatories of the U. S., among them in the New England Conservatory, Boston, largest musical institution in the U. S. The East Carolina Teachers' Training School, Greenville, N. C., has also equipped its music departments with these famous instruments. The renowned Henry and S. G. Lindeman Pianos, this concern is one of the most noted of the pioneers in the piano industry in this country. Of this piano we quote from the music trades:

"Mr. Henry Lindeman is considered to be one of the few really scientific and expert piano makers we have living today. He is also recognized as an expert scale drawer and his reputation for developing the same is second to none in the trade. He stands pre-eminent as a maker of scales of Pianos." Six other makes are all standard and legitimate. Among those "the Boudoir pianos" known as the smallest high grade, upright, ever manufactured "Nothing ever like it" A truly artistic little piano and is the artists' favorite of the little pianos. We thus quote the celebrated Madam Emma Calve: "Relative to the Boudoir Piano, which I purchased for my private use last February and used by me in my Trans-Continental Tour, I desire to say that this piano has certainly proved itself to be a little jewel. To state the whole truth, I am enthusiastic over this little piano. It possesses a quality of tone that is sweet and sympathetic, being practically well adapted to accompanying my voice, and a volume that is the equal of, if not surpassing, pianos of usual size. It is truly a wonderful little piano, and I would not dispose of mine for any consideration."

We invite the public to visit our wareroom. Are you considering the purchase of pianos, or have you one in your home on trial? Come and look at ours, and your home will be made happier and your pocket book will remain decidedly in a healthier condition. Terms to suit your convenience. Come and listen to the Lindeman, Lester, Milton and Buge Bros. Player-pianos. Daily recitals.

FINEMAN and WHITE

Kissing the Book.
In England and all the English speaking countries the kissing of the book before the oath comes from the practice of touching a "haldame," or sacred object, as the old Roman touched the altar or Harold the casket of relics. The form "So help me God" is inherited from ancient Teutonic-Scandinavian law, under which the old northmen, touching the blood daubed ring on the altar, swore, "So help me Frey and Nordh and the Almighty God"—that is, Thor. The first and last of these are the two old English gods, whose names we keep up in Friday and Thursday.—New York American.

Why Women's Minds Are Cleaner.
"Of course women should vote," he said. "Women deserve the suffrage as much as men—more, because their minds are purer and cleaner."
"Cleaner?" cried the sweet young thing he had taken in to dinner. "Of course they are, ever and ever so much cleaner! But how do you know that?"
"Because they change them so much oftener," said he solemnly.—Exchange.

Not Unanimous.
She—There's Mrs. Toozle. She seems quite reconciled to the death of her first husband. He—Yes, but I'm afraid her second never will be.—Illustrated Bits.

In the adversity of our best friends we often find something which does not displease us.—Rochefourmid.

SUMMER IS GONE

And now is a good time to have your summer suit nicely cleaned and pressed, so it can be put away and kept for months. It is time to bring your overcoat and have it cleaned and overhauled for winter, perhaps it needs a new collar or re lining. A little work on it may save buying a new one. I am ready to do this work for you as it ought to be done.

EAST CAROLINA

TEACHERS' TRAINING SCHOOL

Her Teachers, and Pupils, Welcome.

As the splendid autumn sun rose over the golden dawn of the East Carolina Teachers' Training School this morning, baptising it in a flood of golden light, a thousand hearts in Greenville bid a happy welcome to a hundred happy maidens and young men assembled beneath that sun-kissed dome, the beauty and pride of the old North State; and every one of her sons and daughters who come seeking light and wisdom, from the honored institution is given a hearty welcome to every heart and every home in Greenville, and especially by one who is always willing and ready to serve every one to the best of his knowledge and ability.

Wishing one and all a happy and prosperous year in their new work,
I am yours to serve,
