THE REFLECTOR PIANO CONTEST.

Candidates are at Work and the List of Voters Grows.

It was three weeks ago that the voting contest began for the beautiful baby upright Boudoir piano, which The Reflector is going to give away on Christmas eve, and the contest grows more interesting as each day goes by. People are awakening to the realization that somebody is going to get an elegant piano absolutely free, and more of them are planning to enter the contest, which is open to everybody—individual school or church.

Have you not some favorite in the contest, or who you would like to nominate, and help them with your votes? It costs you nothing to vote, and all it costs contestants is a little work. When a candidate goes to you, subscribe to The Reflector, or pay up your subscription and vote. If you are not waited on by a candidate, you can call at the office to pay your subscription or send it in by mail, and let us know who you wish to vote for, and the votes will be entered just as you direct. Help some candidate by getting a Reflector subscription receipt and voting.

Here is the standing of the vote today, but some contestants have votes not yet turned in:

Miss Mary Johnson	10,000
Miss Lottie Blow	7,125
Miss Mavis Belle Evans	4,050
Miss Lillie R. Tucker	5,600
James Tingle	2,050
Quinerly School	1,775
Miss Jessie Hodges	1,000
Miss Christine Johnson	1,050
Mrs. John Cheek	1,000
Miss Beulah Mumford	2,700
Miss Maud Mooring	1,250

If no candidate is in this list for whom you wish to vote, you can nominate and vote for any you wish, and the nomination will give your candidate a thousand votes to start with.

The question has been asked if a candidate can withdraw and the vote already received be transferred to another? Or if two or more candidates can later in the contest combine their votes against a leader? To both of these questions the answer is no. Votes once recorded and cast in the lock-box prepared for them cannot be changed. If a candidate withdraws from the race the vote of that candidate cannot be counted for anyone else, nor can there be any combination of votes by two or more candidates.

It is a fair and open contest, and the piano is to be awarded for the largest number of votes secured by getting subscriptions for The Reflector. Only one candidate can win the piano, and that one must have the largest number of votes, but all the others who work in the contest will be given a cash commission on the subscriptions brought in, so they will be paid for the work they do. No need of any candidate feeling discouraged. Get out and work with a determination to win.

In the meantime, if you want to examine this Boudoir piano that The Reflector will give away, and see what a magnificent instrument it is, go to the music room of Fineman & White, where it is on exhibition, and those gentlemen will be pleased to show it and explain its merits.

Lost—A silver pocketbook, on Dickerson avenue, between Harris House and Mumford's store. Finder return to Mrs. W. C. Dresback at Harris House, and receive reward.

CANNON-TUCKER.

A Beautiful Marriage at St. John's Church.

Grifton, N. C., 22.—On Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Episcopal church, parish of St. John's, Pitt county, Miss Fred J. Tucker, daughter of Mr. Joshua Lawrence Tucker, was given in marriage to Mr. Clarence Victor Cannon, of Ayden.

The church had been beautifully decorated with palms and ferns banked high against the chancel wall, the green contrasting to good advantage with the white altar hangings and the white carpet, which stretched from the altar to the vestibule.

Mrs. Edward Graham Mallison, of Washington, gave Schubert's "Serenade." Her gown was white messaline satin with black hat. Miss Doretha Farmer rendered the wedding music, giving Lohengren's bridal chorus for processional and Mendelssohn's wedding march for recessional.

Mrs. Walter F. Harding, the bride's sister, was dame of honor. She was gowned in blue moire silk, wearing a black hat and carried carnations. Miss Blanche Cannon, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore white messaline satin, with black hat and carried carnations.

Then entered the beautiful bride on the arm of her brother, Mr. Walter F. Harding, who gave the bride away. At the altar rail they were met by the groom with his best man, Mr. John W. Coward, of Ayden. They took their place, four abreast, and according to the old English custom, the vows were said and troth plighted.

Rev. W. E. Cox, of Wilmington, performed the ceremony. He was a personal friend of the bride, having presented her for confirmation.

The bride was attired in a going away gown of London snipe with hat and gloves to match. She carried bride roses.

The ushers were Messrs. Allan Cannon and Elmer Gardner, both of Ayden. All the gentlemen wore black suits, tie of black, with grey gloves.

After receiving congratulations the bridal party, together with many friends, drove to Grifton, where they took the train for points north.

They received quite a number of beautiful gifts from friends and relatives.

Keep Money in the Bank.

When a man takes his money out of a bank and buries it in the garden, or gives it to a friend to keep in his boot-leg for him it generally turns out that somebody finds the spot in the garden or the friend takes a sudden notion to emigrate. The most absurd thing one can do is to draw money from institutions that are managed by honest men and hide it about the house or trust it to the care and keeping of supposed friends. Every surplus dollar should be deposited and kept in the bank until it is needed, because more than ninety-nine out of every one hundred banks are absolutely safe, and you can get your money whenever you want it. This is by no means the case when you entrust it to the keeping of an individual friend.—Waxhaw Enterprise.

Miss Flora Brewer, the pretty fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. Charlie Brewer, ran away from home Monday with Billy Rimpolis, a Greek employed at Crystal Ice Cream and Candy Company, and their whereabouts are unknown. They went from here to Greensboro in an automobile, it is said, where they tried to get a Greek to help them get a marriage license, but he refused. It was learned that they left on train No. 35 going south, but their destination could not be learned. The girl's parents are trying to find her.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

REFLECTOR EDITOR ATTACKED.

J. R. Hutchings Makes Cowardly Assault After Threatening Letter.

While on his way to the office a little before 9 o'clock this morning, D. J. Whichard, editor of The Reflector, was assaulted, in a most cowardly manner, by J. R. Hutchings.

The editor had just passed the passage way in front of King's stables when Hutchings stepped out of this passage way behind him, calling his name, which caused him to look around, and as he did so Hutchings struck Whichard a blow just below the temple and caught him around the arms and body to overpower him. In the scuffle that followed and while Hutchings was striking Whichard with one hand and holding him with the other, Whichard with much difficulty got out his pistol and fired two shots, but his arm was so entangled that he could take no aim and the shots missed his assailant. Hutchings then wrenched the pistol out of Whichard's hand, pushed him through the glass window in front of the stable, and pinioning him to the window sill struck him over the head with the pistol.

The editor had received a threatening letter from Hutchings the day before, and in anticipation of being attacked had armed himself. When Hutchings was arrested immediately after the assault the officer found a pistol on him also.

SHOULD LOOK AHEAD.

The business men of Goldsboro are much exercised over an ordinance passed by the aldermen requiring the removal of overhead signs and awning posts from the sidewalks, and are endeavoring to have the ordinance repealed. The business men are making a mistake in that particular, that is if they would like for the looks of the principal streets of the city to be improved. If such obstructions as overhead signs and awning posts are removed, after observing the improved appearance for a time they would never want to go back to previous conditions. That was the experience Greenville had. There was a stir here for a time over the removal of sidewalk obstructions, but they were removed, and the business street looks so much better that now an expression is never heard in favor of putting the obstructions back.

CLUB TAKES FORWARD STEP.

Carolina Club had an interesting meeting Friday night to consider matters determining its vitality. The club has some outstanding indebtedness, and running expenses had reached a figure in excess of receipts, hence some action was necessary, or disorganization would result. This matter was fully discussed at the meeting and a vote followed to levy an assessment on the members to apply on the indebtedness, and to increase the annual dues to cover running expenses and make some allowance for improvements. This was a right step. Carolina club is too useful an organization to be hampered with debt, and for it to disband would be a calamity to the town. It should have the support and the encouragement of the people, and the membership ought to be much larger.

JUDGE ALLEN ENDORSED.

When Judge Connor was made a Federal judge, it became the duty of the governor to appoint a successor to fill the vacancy on the Supreme court bench of the State caused by his resignation of that position. While this appointment could only be until the next general election, which comes next year, there are several candidates for it. The appointment went to Hon. J. S. Manning, but there must be a regular nomination and election next year. It is announced that Judge W. R. Allen, who was one of the aspirants for appointment by the governor, will be a candidate for the nomination, and the bar of Johnston county

Columbus, Ga., was put down as one of the places President Taft would visit on his tour of the country, and the board of trade of that city had preparations on the way for a great welcome to him. But learning that the president's train will make a stop there of only ten minutes, the board of trade adopted a resolution expressing its indignation and declaring that the organization would take no part in a welcome to the president. There is an old saying that something "broke loose in Georgia."

The State fair next year is to be a semi-centennial exposition, the fair having been organized for fifty years. That means a big fair, and it will be kept open for two weeks instead of one.

When Growers Speculate.

Farmers of Spartanburg county, South Carolina, who some time ago contracted to deliver certain amounts of cotton at so much a pound when their crops were gathered and who did not raise as much as they contracted to deliver have fared badly. Some are buying cotton at a higher price than that at which they contracted to sell, in order to comply with their contracts. Those farmers will be willing next year to wait until their cotton is ready for market before selling it. It was considered to be hard on the farmers when they had each year to sell their crop beforehand in order to secure funds wherewith to cultivate the crop, and one would suppose that as soon as they become independent and able to raise crops with their own money they would have no more future sales dealings. But it seems that many voluntarily did what they formerly considered themselves unhappily forced to do. In a word, they speculated on the bear side of the market, and lost. High cotton beat them. All cotton speculation is risky in the extreme, but such farmers as tackle it would deserve better of their fellows if they sided with high cotton, not low. —Charlotte Observer.

Player Pianos,

In fact, with either of these Player Pianos as a companion, you have the advantage of playing the music yourself--the music you best like, and playing it in that rich, full manner, bringing out the delicate beauties of the melody which even many skilled pianists fail to develop, and this, possible with the veriest novice, without your knowing one note from another.

We will take your deaf and dumb piano in exchange.

SUMMER IS GONE

And now is a good time to have your summer suit nicely cleaned and pressed, so it can be put away and kept for months. It is time to bring your overcoat and have it cleaned and overhauled for winter, perhaps it needs a new collar or re-lining. A little work on it may save buying a new one. I am ready to do this work for you as it ought to be done.

New Tailored Suits

For months we have been keeping an eye on the production of the greatest garment manufacturers and style originators, both in this country and abroad, watching for the distinctive, out of the ordinary thoughts which spring up as it were, the multitude of handsome stamped out designs, which mark the display of ready-to-wear garments. We have been studying the style effects for fall at close range, too—drinking in some fashion messages of what is to be needed in woman's wearables and watching our selection of suits with first hand knowledge of your needs.

A MOST GORGEOUS DISPLAY OF FALL SHOWING

MUNFORD'S ENCHANTINGLY PRETTY WEAVES RADIANT WITH AUTUMNAL COLORS.

BEAUTIFUL AS THE MOUNTAIN SIDE when the autumn sun shines on the trees and grasses of dull Brown, Green, Blue and Gold, are the new goods for the coming season. Rich effects, every weave, which fashion has declared worth while is here at tempting prices. Many a beautiful sheen conceals a coating of lead to give weight, which causes the fabric to cut with very little wear. When you buy our goods, you buy absolutely the best our money can buy. That is why among people of this vicinity our goods have such a recognized standard. Choose the goods for the new class from our enticing values.

STYLISH CLOTHES FOR MEN.

In developing this special line we have anticipated every whim—every need of the young men who care for their dress. They are better suits than you'll find most anywhere else this season. Cut on vigorous lines and finished with due details—those details that young men are so keen about—shown in a wide range of styles, fine, fancy Worsted and Navy Blue Serge.

BOYS' SCHOOL SUITS—TIMELY VALUES.

Our complete fall line of school clothes has arrived and when we say school clothes, we mean something more than substantial knock-about clothes. These new suits enlist the same pains-taking care of the designers as do the suits for young men, and that is saying a great deal. Why shouldn't our boys have clothes full of class and style as well as we grown up folks?

BOYS, YOUR SUITS ARE HERE!

SELLS IT CHEAPER

STYLISH MILLINERY.

For more than a decade this store's Millinery has been the premier event of the season. Each season they've grown nearer to perfection. In the great numbers, the vanity, the exclusiveness, and artistic elegance of the Hats assembled for this fall's exhibit, all our previous similar displays have been far out classed. Our Millinery Department with its magnificent settings of new fall Millinery will present a marvelously interesting and beautiful picture.

OUR OWN DESIGNERS

have had in view for the last several months the requirements of this event, and their contributions are equally praised-worthy. The prestige of this store as a style source will be immeasurably increased by the many beautiful creations and adoptions in the present exhibit. So elaborate presentation of fascinating modes has never before been attempted.
