A. D. Cox had a cataract cut from his eye last Wednesday by Dr. Cox. We hope his eye will soon be all right again.

From the Pen of Mr. T. C. Davis.

Our townsman, Mr. T. C. Davis, has written a very interesting article which appeared in the Greenville Reflector, which relates to reminiscences of Mr. John Tartt Eason, who was a well-known character in Edgecombe, Pitt, Wilson, Greene and Martin counties during his day. This character who weighed about four hundred and fifty pounds, relates Mr. Davis, appeared at all speaking and public meetings of his "circuit" and the sketch of this interesting personage of the past is delightful reading. Mr. Davis writes in a most entertaining style and we regret that we are unable to reproduce the article furnished The Reflector.—Wilson Times.

"Her American Husband."

This musical comedy which appears in the opera house Thursday night, is the second attraction in the lyceum course under the auspices of the End of the Century Book Club for the benefit of the public library. While the price of admission to such an entertainment is worth more, the ladies have decided to make reserved seats to the public at only 75 cents, general admission 50 cents, and school boys in the gallery 25 cents. The price to season subscribers will be the same as for all attractions in the course. The entire opera house should be filled Thursday night.

North Carolina Day.

On North Carolina Day this year, December 17, the children in the public schools of the state will study western North Carolina, taking up various topics laid down in the pamphlet which will be forthcoming from the educational department. Among the articles for study will be one dealing with the construction of the railroad built by the state, in the main, from Salisbury to Asheville. Noting this fact we are reminded of the service Calvin Graves, of Caswell county, performed for the western half of North Carolina when the proposition of building the North Carolina railroad to Charlotte was being considered by the legislature. It seems that the east was bitterly opposed to this project and voted against it so solidly, that the vote in the senate resulted in a tie. The fate of a great section of the state hung in the balance. Graves was presiding officer. He voted for the west. From the North Carolina railroad sprang the Western North Carolina railroad, and we sincerely hope that when that subject is taken up in the schools of the west December 17, mention will be made of Calvin Graves. There ought to be a monument to him somewhere in the west, doubly so, because if we mistake not, his vote cost him popularity and "killed" him politically.—Lexington Dispatch.

Herbert Little and Annie Parker.

Dedication at Farmville.

Many Greenville people went to Farmville Sunday to attend the dedication of the new Baptist church there. The attendance at the service was very large, and the excellent sermon of Dr. R. T. Vann was much enjoyed. The new church is a beautiful building and Farmville should be proud of it. The Farmville people manifested the spirit of hospitality that prevails there and entertained the visitors handsomely.

This week Rev. M. A. Adams, of Ahoskie, is assisting the pastor, Rev. Jesse McCarter, in an evangelistic meeting in the new church.

Hallow'en Party.

From 7 to 12 o'clock tonight, in the city hall, the ladies of the Christian church will have a Hallow'en party for the benefit of the church. The menu consisting of oyster cocktail, oyster stew, chicken salad, beaten biscuits, pickles, coffee, ice cream and cake. Everybody cordially invited.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

The future chief money crop of Western North Carolina is its apple crop. No better apples are grown anywhere in the world and it is gratifying to know that much attention is being paid to the planting and care of orchards in the mountain counties. At the recent State fair the apples attracted more attention than any other exhibit from Western North Carolina.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Beaufort, Oct. 30.—Not guilty, was the verdict of the jury brought in at 9 o'clock tonight, in the case of S. J. Sanders, who has been on trial during the week accused of shooting Y. Z. Newberry just two weeks ago tonight, at Newport. The close of the prosecution was the four hour argument of Solicitor Abernethy, today, the case going to the jury about 4 o'clock this afternoon, the resulting verdict being for acquittal.

Hallow'en.

Wilson, N. C., Oct. 30, 1909. Editor Reflector:

To those interested in Hallow'en, as a harmless gaiety, will regret the old-time tales of Wizzards and Goblins that has well nigh disappeared in the more practical tastes of our young people, and which really is more in keeping with sacred evening.

This is the day on which our staid ancestors were wont to gather for their vigil, or watch-night, for works of charity and to visit the graves of their kindred, while at early dawn, the faithful were present to assist at the celebration of the Lord's Supper, and the beautiful festival of All Saints, with the departed just, of all ages whose names are written in heaven since Abel offered his acceptable sacrifice and Saint Stephen fell asleep. And there is something in the very season which helps the mind to attune itself to the service of this day. "The November sun as it shines over masses of brown and yellow leaves, the peculiar stillness which belongs to the decay of nature, the hills covered with trees slumbering in the sobered light, all combine to bring a calmness over the soul, and inspire it with thoughts of its higher destiny."

A solemn awe instinctly creeps over us as we read in the Apostle's announcement, "Ye are come to the spirits of just men made perfect." T. C. Davis.

Addendum.

Editor Reflector: Since writing my inquiry in Saturday's Reflector, I learn that the Apostles' Creed is taught in all, or nearly all, of the grades in the graded school. I have not yet heard whether they make the sign of the cross and bow to the Virgin Mary or not, but I do not see any more reason or law for one than the other.

Respectfully,

Z. T. Broughton.

P. S.—I desire to return my thanks to the large number of citizens who have expressed their thanks to me, both through the mail and on the streets as I pass to and fro, for calling attention to this very serious mistake.

Z. T. B.

Our Greenville, yours if you come.

BOYS IN DEBATE.

They Start off the New School Year Well.

The Henry Grady Debating Society held its first meeting of the year at the graded school on Friday night, October 29th. The query was: "Resolved, that the women of North Carolina should be allowed the right of suffrage." The negative won by a close margin. Those who took part in the discussion were; affirmative—Linda Smith, Ben Taylor, David Moore and Chandler Zahnizer; negative—Adrian Brown, Alfred Schultz, Spruill Spain and Chas. Haskett.

The several new members very creditably acquitted themselves, which is indicative of the fact that this organization is not dying, either for lack of material or enthusiasm. The society decided that at the future meetings one person from each side will give a declamation, thus strengthening the interest and developing a new feature. The next debate will be held November 12th, when the following query will be discussed: "Resolved, that great aggregations of wealth are detrimental to the welfare and safety of the United States."

County Organizer of Farmers.

G. C. Hedgepeth, county organizer of the farmers union, will be at the following places during this week and will speak to the farmers on the subject of organization:

Wednesday night, Nov. 3rd, at the school house near Mr. J. W. Smith's residence in Beaver Dam township on the Nicholas road.

Thursday night, Nov. 4th, at Tarkett Hill school in Chicod township, on the Swift creek road.

Friday night, Nov. 5th, at Pollard's school house in Greenville township, on the Tarboro and Greenville road.

Saturday night, Nov. 6th, at Forbes' school house in Greenville township, on the Kinston road.

Mr. Hedgepeth says he would glad if the school committeemen and teachers would announce the meetings to the schools throughout the county.

At the Pastime Theatre.

Following is the program at the Pastime Theatre this afternoon and tonight:

A Billposter's Trials, comic.

Gratitude—dramatic.

Manufacturing Bamboo Hats—beautifully hand colored.

Beginning with the show tonight we will give with each ticket purchased during this week, a duplicate number, which will entitle the holder to a chance at a two pound box of Roysters' candy to be given away at the show Saturday night, Nov. 6th.

Be sure and come out and see a good show, also get a chance at that fine box of candy.

A New One Born Every Minute.

A certain old gentlemam from Rockingham who was taking in the fair and circus at Charlotte this was put in a room to sleep with a stranger Monday night. "How do you feel?" asked his room mate when they awoke next morning. "Fine," answered the man from Rockingham, "but a drink would help." The other volunteered to furnish a pint if he would furnish the dollar. He bit, and was told to wait at the Gem restaurant. From last account he is still waiting.—Rockingham Post.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

J. I. Smith went to Washington Sunday.

W. W. Leggett, of Washington, was here today.

John Shelburn and Blount Pearce spent Sunday in Tarboro.

Mrs. Wells Browne returned Sunday evening from a visit of two weeks in Norfolk.

Miss Lillian Burch, who had been spending two days at home, returned to Washington Sunday night.

Dr. R. T. Vann, president of Meredith College, spent Sunday night here with E. B. Higgs and left this morning.

Mrs. B. H. Hearne and grandchildren, Christine Evans and James Starkey, spent today with John L. Hearne and family in Tarboro.

Noah Biggs and E. E. Hilliard, of Scotland Neck, returning from the union meeting at Farmville, spent Sunday night here with Prof. C. W. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gilbert, of Panama, who had been here on a visit to Mrs. Gilbert's parents, left Sunday morning for New York where they take a steamer to their home in the Canal Zone. Miss Lillian Whitfield accompanied them.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

This warmer spell will likely call for rain.

November also makes a pretty start in weather.

You see a good moving picture show when you go to the Pastime Theatre.

Ghost party in the city hall tonight for the benefit of the Christian church.

Pay your subscription to The Reflector and vote for somebody in the piano contest.

Oysters, chicken salad, ice cream and cake at the city hall tonight, benefit of the Christian church. Public invited.

The sub-committees are at work on arrangements for the training school celebration on the 12th.

Postoffice Receipts Growing.

The increase of postoffice receipts can always be taken as a pretty good indication of the business development of a town. Through the kindness of Postmaster R. C. Flanagan we learn that the receipts of the Greenville postoffice for the month of October amounted to $1,128.10. Compared with the receipts for October, 1908, which were $1,026.56, the same month this year shows an increase of $102.46. This is getting Greenville close to the free delivery class, and the town will be entitled to it before another year.

To the Public.

The New York World has made arrangements whereby part of its Sunday edition can reach this town and be placed on sale in advance. If you are not already a regular reader, please give your newsdealer an order at once, and he will deliver advance reading matter before Sunday, together with an exchange check. On placing your order, he will inform you of the plan for furnishing you with the regular news part of the paper on presentation of exchange check.

MONDAY NOV. 1, 1909.

Cotton is getting pretty close to fifteen cents.

The farmers congress in Raleigh this week is going to be something worth while.

Even with cotton selling at nearly fifteen cents, money is mighty hard to get hold of.

The Charlotte News says pellegra will not become fashionable since mules have gone to taking it.

It matters not who wins in New York, they will go right on spending big piles of money running the city.

Columbia's $10 a plate banquet is being pretty well advertised. And Senator Tillman gave it a start.

You can do two good things by taking shares in the new series of The Home Building and Loan Association that begins next Saturday—you benefit yourself and you benefit the town.

The Greensboro News is wondering if that million dollar donation is not a scheme to have oil declared a remedy for hook worm. Too bad to try to spoil the old man's generosity like that.

The Mecklenburg county fair held last week in Charlotte is said to have been a failure financially, and the circus that appeared there during the fair is credited with bringing about this loss.

Every thoughtful man fully appreciates the necessity for saving money. The question that he faces is not, "Shall I save a portion of my income?" but "Where shall I invest my savings?" To know that one's savings are secure—to know that they will earn dividends consistent with the effort required to accumulate them—these are the propositions that confront the wage earner, and if he can satisfy himself that these conditions can be met, he will pursue his pet economies with renewed avidity. We firmly believe that the Building and Loan Association satisfies even the most timid as a safe place for their savings, and thus supplies in a most satisfactory manner the greatest incentive to thrift.

Chosen Instructor in Law.

Walter H. Grimes, Esq., of the Raleigh bar, will go to Chapel Hill on Monday to teach in the law department, having been tendered that position in accordance with the plan adopted by the trustees of the University. It will be remembered that the trustees deferred the election of a dean of the law department as successor to Judge MacRae until the regular meeting of the trustees in January, and authorized the president to secure an assistant instructor until the dean was chosen. Mr. Grimes has been chosen by President Venable. He read law only a year ago, stood high in the law school and has so recently gone over the course that he is perfectly familiar with it and can teach it well. Mr. Grimes was very popular at Chapel Hill with both faculty and students, and his return will be welcomed there by both.—Raleigh News and Observer.

TRUTHFUL REPORTS.

Greenville Reads Them with Uncommon Interest.

A Greenville citizen tells his experience in the following statement. No better evidence than this can be had. The truthful reports of friends and neighbors is the best proof in the world. Read and be convinced.
 John G. Latham, 907 Cotanche street Greenville, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills in my case far surpassed any other kidney remedy I had previously used. For some time my kidneys were disordered, the secretions being too frequent and painful in passage. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was so much impressed that I procured a box at John L. Wooten's Drug Store. They seemed to go directly to the seat of my trouble and gave me relief in a short time. My kidneys were restored to their normal condition and I felt better in every way."
 For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SUMMER IS GONE

And now is a good time to have your summer suit nicely cleaned and pressed, so it can be put away and kept for months. It is time to bring your overcoat and have it cleaned and overhauled for winter, perhaps it needs a new collar or re lining. A little work on it may save buying a new one. I am ready to do this work for you as it ought to be done.

New Tailored Suits

For months we have been keeping an eye on the production of the greatest garment manufacturers and style originators, both in this country and abroad, watching for the distinctive, out of the ordinary thoughts which spring up as it were, the multitude of handsome stamped out designs, which mark the display of ready-to-wear garments. We have been studying the style effects for fall at close range, too--drinking in some fashion messages of what is to be needed in woman's wearables and watching our selection of suits with first hand knowledge of your needs.

A MOST GORGEOUS DISPLAY OF FALL SHOWING

MUNFORD'S ENCHANTINGLY PRETTY WEAVES RADIANT WITH AUTUMNAL COLORS.

BEAUTIFUL AS THE MOUNTAIN SIDE when the autumn sun shines on the trees and grasses of dull Brown, Green, Blue and Gold, are the new goods for the coming season. Rich effects, every weave, which fashion has declared worth while is here at tempting prices. Many a beautiful sheen conceals a coating of lead to give weight, which causes the fabric to cut with very little wear. When you buy our goods, you buy absolutely the best our money can buy. That is why among people of this vicinity our goods have such a recognized standard. Choose the goods for the new class from our enticing values.

STYLISH CLOTHES FOR MEN.

In developing this special line we have anticipated every whim--every need of the young men who care for their dress. They are better suits than you'll find most anywhere else this season. Cut on vigorous lines and finished with due details--those details that young men are so keen about--shown in a wide range of styles, fine, fancy Worsted and Navy Blue Serge.

BOYS' SCHOOL SUITS--TIMELY VALUES.

Our complete fall line of school clothes has arrived and when we say school clothes, we mean something more than substantial knock-about clothes. These new suits enlist the same pains-taking care of the designers as do the suits for young men, and that is saying a great deal. Why shouldn't our boys have clothes full of class and style as well as we grown up folks?

BOYS, YOUR SUITS ARE HERE!

STYLISH MILLINERY.

For more than a decade this store's Millinery has been the premier event of the season. Each season they've grown nearer to perfection. In the great numbers, the vanity, the exclusiveness, and artistic elegance of the Hats assembled for this fall's exhibit, all our previous similar displays have been far out classed. Our Millinery Department with its magnificent settings of new fall Millinery will present a marvelously interesting and beautiful picture.

OUR OWN DESIGNERS

have had in view for the last several months the requirements of this event, and their contributions are equally praise-worthy. The prestige of this store as a style source will be immeasurably increased by the many beautiful creations and adoptions in the present exhibit. So elaborate presentation of fascinating modes has never before been attempted.
