AN ADDRESS.

To the Law Abiding Citizens of North Carolina.

As one who is constantly thinking and working for the enforcement of our prohibition law, and who is constantly studying the situation in all parts of North Carolina, both in person and by correspondence, let me say there is great need for the friends of law and order to be active at this time. Too many of our good citizens, who worked and voted for the law last year, are not working and voting for enforcement now. My purpose in this communication is not to discount the good that is coming from our law or even intimate that the law is a failure, but rather to emphasize the necessity of vigilance and constant work on the part of friends of prohibition to the end that we may secure the very best results from our prohibition law.

Some of the communications coming to our office are alarming in their contents. A communication from a minister stated that he thought there are one hundred blind tigers in his town. We are constantly receiving letters that are telling of enforcement in various communities. I might add that in a certain town in North Carolina on one Saturday night, I made it a point to see for myself what was going on, and being a comparative stranger, I could place myself in a position to learn some things. In an hour and fifteen minutes I saw eleven people drunk; also saw a white man drunk, a negro half drunk, and three negro women drinking from the same tickler. This was in the middle of the street. I discovered, too, that in that portion of the town, where lawlessness was going on with a high hand at nine o'clock on Saturday night, that there was not an officer to be seen. I saw them, however, a few minutes later on the most prominent street in the town, where law and order was reigning.

This leads me to state that in some towns and counties in our state, the officers are not doing their duty, and that the situation is in the hands of the citizens for settlement. The only proper solution of this problem is for citizens to elect such officers as will be true to their duty in the enforcement of this law as well as others. Our General superintendent, Dr. P. A. Baker, says: "What is needed in most communities, after the saloon is abolished, is to go forward and abolish the public officials at the next election by electing only those who are friendly to the law. Friendly officials will enforce the law and unfriendly officials will neither enforce it or permit you to do it." As I see it, just ahead of us in North Carolina is the agitation and election of such officers as have the courage of their convictions and manhood to do their sworn duty.

I want also in this connection to call the attention of our faithful friends, the preachers of North Carolina, to this matter of lawlessness. No one questions the fact that the Bible most emphatically teaches us as citizens to "submit ourselves to every ordinance of man." Paul puts it, "Be subject to the higher powers," and this Bible doctrine was emphasized by many churches in their annual gatherings last fall. It occurs to me, that at this stage in the history of temperance reform in our state, it is needful for the pastors to preach

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., Nov. 2, 1909.

Misses Mamie and Lee Nichols went to Greenville Monday morning.

D. Gibs left for Norfolk Monday morning.

Oscar Rawlings, of Winterville, was in town Sunday night.

Mrs. E. M. Dimpot, of Rocky Mount, has been visiting her father and mother in Ayden, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harriss.

Miss Jimmie Davis left Saturday evening for Wilson.

There was a runaway at the tobacco warehouse Monday afternoon. A negro who was hauling hogsheads to the warehouse, and while unloading the horse jumped to run, caught the negro and one wheel of the cart ran over him. The doctor says he is in no serious danger.

The Ayden horse market is coming all the time. J. E. Winslow is adding fifty more feet to his stables here.

On Friday night, Oct. 29th, E. L. Brown gave quite a surprise to the teachers of the Ayden graded school who are boarding with him. At 8.30 o'clock Mr. Brown had invited quite a number of young ladies and gentlemen of the town to call and have a merry time. For more than three hours fun was carried on in the parlor and hall, and at 11 o'clock all were called into the dining room to enjoy the refreshments which had been very tastily selected and prepared.

Those present were, Misses Lena Dawson, Blanche Cannon, Jimmie Davis, Elizabeth Bridgers, Rosa Bland, Florence Blount, Lucy Turnage, and Messrs. J. H. Coward, S. F. Noble, LeRoy Turnage, Ned McLawhorn, C. R. Cannon and W. E. Tingle.

Invents Card Stripper.

R. A. Smith has perfected a device for use in cotton mills which the test of the machine shows will save from three to five pounds of cotton on each carding machine. The device is a cotton stripper for carding machines. Not only does it save cotton, but it makes stronger cloth. One of the strippers has been in use at Saxon mills for several months and has given perfect satisfaction. Mr. Smith values his patent at $360,000. The stripper will be manufactured at the Russell-Compton Machine shops.—Carolina Spartan.

to our people on the duties of citizenship or some kindred topic warning them against disobedience, rebellion and anarchy, and urging them to give their evidence and use their influence for the enforcement of our law.

Again, I say there is no question in my mind as to the improvement already to be seen in our state under prohibition, but still there are grievences and evils that must be corrected, and the sooner these corrections come, and had citizens learn that the great state of North Carolina will not suffer her laws to be disregarded, the better it will be for the violators as well as for the community at large.

Assuring you that our State organization stands ready to advise or to assist, in any way it can, any community that is troubled with lawlessness, and asking that you communicate with us on this point. I am, Yours very truly,

N. C. Anti-Saloon league,

R. L. Davis, Supt.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

By Woodland Sunday-school.

Whereas, the alwise and merciful Heavenly Father has removed from our presence our teacher and brother, H. Wiley Nobles, to the Heavenly realms above, we deeply feel this stroke of divine providence. Our eyes are beclouded so that we can not see the wisdom of our affliction; we know the hand that called him has never erred, but doeth all things well.

Resolved, first—That we bow in humble submission to our Heavenly Father, and pray His grace may comfort the bereft ones.

Second—That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his aged parents in this, the saddest event of their lives.

Third—That the community has lost an honored citizen, Bethany church a faithful member, our Sunday-school a teacher whose place will be hard to fill.

Fourth—That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this Sunday-school, a copy be sent to the aged parents, a copy be sent to the Free Will Baptist and one to the Eastern Reflector for publication.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

Raleigh, Nov. 1st.—The penitentiary authorities are very much pleased at the big cotton crop on their farm on the Roanoke river. Already over 500 bales have been picked and is now being gathered. The record crop there is something over 1,000 bales, so it will be seen that this is a very good crop indeed.

Asheville, Nov. 1.—Up to a late hour tonight the jury in the Watkins murder case had not reported and the prevailing belief now is that the case will result in a mistrial.

Manly, Moore county, has started in to haul the children of its township to school. It is said that this custom is in vogue at some other places in the country. There is a good school at Manly, but the population is scant; so the officials have put a wagon to work to haul the children of one township to the school and back to their homes.—Raleigh News and Observer.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Routine Business Transacted—Jurors for December Court.

The Board of County Commissioners was in session Monday, but had little outside of routine business to transact.

J. A. Whichard was elected constable of Carolina township to succeed J. N. Woolard, resigned.

The following were drawn as jurors for December civil term of Superior court.

R. T. Bagby, James A. Whitehurst, J. R. May, H. Burnette, Donnie Worthington, Edward Faucett, R. S. May, D. N. Nobles, J. L. Wilkinson, R. H. Hunsucker, F. O. Stokes, F. G. Dupree, D. H. Williamson, Southey Carroll, W. J. Vainright, William Stallins, W. D. Gainer, George Cox.

UNION MEETING AT FARMVILLE.

Farmville, N. C., Nov. 2, 1909.

On Friday morning, Oct. 29th., the Roanoke Union Meeting met at the new Baptist church just completed, a few of the ministers and delegates arriving the night before.

At 10:45 the union began with Pastors J. B. Cook, of Greenville, J. G. Blalock, of Weldon, G. P. Harrell, of Tarboro, J. M. Bennett, of Elm City, present to gether with a few visiting laymen and a few of the Farmville people.

As brother G. J. Dowell, the moderator, had not yet arrived, Rev. R. A. McFarland, of Scotland Neck, was elected moderator pro tem and Pastor Blalock secretary.

Subjects of interest were discussed and the spirit of fellowship was strong.

The afternoon session was more largely attended.

Friday night the introductory sermon was preached by Rev. J. G. Blalock, of Weldon. The sermon was thoughtful and helpful. Many spoke in high praise of the sermon.

Saturday morning was devoted to practical subjects, the talks were excellent and the attendance good.

At 2:30 p. m. a Baptist church was organized, the visiting pastors and delegates taking part.

Saturday night Mr. Arch Johnson, of Thomasville, editor of Charity and Children, spoke on the orphanage and as usual made a splendid talk. E. E. Hilliard, of Scotland Neck, with telling effect for a few minutes spoke on Baptist and Religious Liberty.

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock Prof. Wilson, of Greenville, conducted a Sunday school mass meeting with excellent attendance and fine interest. All the Sunday schools of the town were invited to attend which they did in a body.

The dedicatory sermon was preached by Dr. R. T. Vann, of Raleigh, and president of Meredith College, no man can describe Dr. Vann. He was suffering with a severe cold, but the sermon was excellent. Many visitors were present but the people of Farmville deserve great credit for their attendance and most excellent entertainment. A good subscription was taken for the pews that have been ordered.

Sold to Roper Lumber Company.

Norfolk Va., Oct. 31.—Announcement was made here today of the sale of the Kinston & Carolina Railroad & Lumber Co., running from Kinston to Pink Hill, N. C., a distance of 25 miles, to the John L. Roper Lumber Company for $35,000 and the assumption of certain indebtedness amounting as a whole to $100,000. The sale was under receivership proceedings at Kinston yesterday. The John L. Roper Lumber Company, the purchaser, is owned by the Norfolk & Southern Railway Company.

Meeting Night Changed.

Hope Fire Company had a large meeting Monday night, but had no business of importance to transact. As a matter of convenience to the members, the time of meeting was changed from the first to the second Monday night in each month, the change going into effect with the December meeting.

PREPARING FOR CELEBRATION.

It Will be a Holiday and Buildings Will be Decorated.

It is evident that Greenville will take partial holiday on the 12th, at the public celebration of East Carolina Teachers' Training School and installation of President Wright. The sub-committee of the Chamber of Commerce to look after the holiday feature of the day, are calling on the business people of the town asking that business be suspended during the hours of the exercises, from 10 to 2 o'clock, and the request has met a general response of the willingness to close.

The sub-committee on decoration is also at work and has the promise of many people to decorate business houses and residences with school colors. They request all who can to take part in the decoration that day. The colors adopted by the school are royal purple and old gold, a pretty combination, and these will be the colors for decorations. Let everybody take part and help to make the celebration the greatest day Greenville has ever known.

LET'S HAVE A GAME.

"There's a new game out," says the Waverly Democrat, "called 'tickle the editor.' You take an ordinary sheet of writing paper, on which you pen a few lines suitable for the occasion. Next you fold it carefully, inclosing in the fold a banknote sufficiently large to pay arrears and a year in advance, and hand it to the editor. Keep an eye on him, and if a smile adorns his face the trick works fine. It can also be played by mail."

Come on, let's have a game.—New Holland (O.) Leader.

And when you play that game with The Reflector you can also say who you prefer to vote for in the piano contest.

Football is claiming its victims. A West Point cadet died Sunday morning of injuries received in a game Saturday, and an Annapolis cadet who was hurt in a recent game has since been in a critical condition with little hope of his recovery.

Had you noticed how soon Cook and Perry have dropped out of the public eye? People are not near so much interested in the North Pole now as they are in fifteen cent cotton.

Some of the smart women of New York have taken to pipe smoking as a substitute for cigarettes. If they will smoke anyhow, they have made a sensible change.

Maybe Greensboro don't care if the automobilists did not look at the town as they passed through on their tour from New York to Atlanta.

It is a matter of record that the prohibitionists never give up a fight. If they are defeated and their contest of the election goes against them, they immediately set to work for another election at as early a date as the law will allow. They can match the politicians in election trickery, too. An evidence of prohibition farsightedness comes from the town of Fairfield, in the State of Texas. As reported in The Greensboro News, that town after having been dry for some time, went wet at an election recently called. Under the Texas law there can be no more than one saloon for every five hundred people, and a few days after the election when those who wished to serve the liquid needs of the morally stunted applied for licenses, to their consternation they found that the maximum number of licenses had already been granted to the leading prohibitionists of the town. Result, Fairfield is still dry. A cute trick, wasn't it?—Charlotte Chronicle.

Sunday observance was discussed yesterday in the Synod of North Carolina at Red Springs.

Don't accept any substitute.

Dr. Anderson took strong ground against the Sunday newspapers and scored them warmly. Considerable talk was indulged in and finally one brother, whose name is not given—more's the pity—suggested that the best way to handle the Sunday newspaper isto put it away, until Monday and then read it. Evidently this gentleman would not be a good man to introduce a Sunday closing ordinance.—Greensboro Record.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with indigestion, have been sorry for it--when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling--you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol--the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester--and physica are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach--but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does--rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

Ladies' Tailor - Made SUIT

New Tailored Suits

For months we have been keeping an eye on the production of the greatest garment manufacturers and style originators, both in this country and abroad, watching for the distinctive, out of the ordinary thoughts which spring up as it were, the multitude of handsome stamped out designs, which mark the display of ready-to-wear garments. We have been studying the style effects for fall at close range, too--drinking in some fashion messages of what is to be needed in woman's wearables and watching our selection of suits with first hand knowledge of your needs.

A MOST GORGEOUS DISPLAY OF FALL SHOWING

MUNFORD'S ENCHANTINGLY PRETTY WEAVES RADIANT WITH AUTUMNAL COLORS.

BEAUTIFUL AS THE MOUNTAIN SIDE when the autumn sun shines on the trees and grasses of dull Brown, Green, Blue and Gold, are the new goods for the coming season. Rich effects, every weave, which fashion has declared worth while is here at tempting prices. Many a beautiful sheen conceals a coating of lead to give weight, which causes the fabric to cut with very little wear. When you buy our goods, you buy absolutely the best our money can buy. That is why among people of this vicinity our goods have such a recognized standard. Choose the goods for the new class from our enticing values.

STYLISH CLOTHES FOR MEN.

In developing this special line we have anticipated every whim--every need of the young men who care for their dress. They are better suits than you'll find most anywhere else this season. Cut on vigorous lines and finished with due details--those details that young men are so keen about--shown in a wide range of styles, fine, fancy Worsted and Navy/Blue Serge.

BOYS' SCHOOL SUITS--TIMELY VALUES.

Our complete fall line of school clothes has arrived and when we say school clothes, we mean something more than substantial knock-about clothes. These new suits enlist the same pains-taking care of the designers as do the suits for young men, and that is saying a great deal. Why shouldn't our boys have clothes full of class and style as well as we grown up folks?

BOYS, YOUR SUITS ARE HERE!

STYLISH MILLINERY.

For more than a decade this store's Millinery has been the premier event of the season. Each season they've grown nearer to perfection. In the great numbers, the vanity, the exclusiveness, and artistic elegance of the Hats assembled for this fall's exhibit, all our previous similar displays have been far out classed. Our Millinery Department with its magnificent settings of new fall Millinery will present a marvelously interesting and beautiful picture.

OUR OWN DESIGNERS.

have had in view for the last several months the requirements of this event, and their contributions are equally praise-worthy. The prestige of this store as a style source will be immeasurably increased by the many beautiful creations and adoptions in the present exhibit. So elaborate presentation of fascinating modes has never before been attempted.
