STUMP BLASTING.

Dynamite very Effective as a Stump Remover.

About a hundred farmers and business men of this county gathered at the farm of Mr. John L. Wooten, near House Station, Thursday afternoon, to witness the stump blasting demonstration by The DuPont Powder Co., as advertised by Baker & Hart in The Reflector of recent dates.

Messrs. DuPont and John J. Crumbaugh, representatives of the company, who are carrying out demonstrations to the farmers throughout the United States, and 29 places in North Carolina, showing the advantages of using dynamite over the old way of digging and cutting stumps up, did some good work, although circumstances were somewhat against them. Eight stumps were taken up, some completely and the others splintered so they could be easily cut out.

Mr. DuPont explained that the demonstration was not especially to show the cheapness of using dynamite, but to show the farmers that this high explosive may be used to advantage without danger, as most people have the idea that it is too dangerous for use and only causes big accidents. Charges were used amounting to from forty to sixty cents to each stump, Thursday. It was explained that by a knowledge of the soil and wood the amount of the explosive could probably be reduced to half.

The method of placing the dynamite is very simple. A hole the size of the stick and two or three feet deep to the center of the stump at a 45 degree angle from the side is bored. Then the amount of the explosive to be used is placed and rammed tight and a fuse about two feet long, enough to allow plenty of time to get away, is placed and the work is done.

After the demonstration Mr. Wooten, who kindly took the writer into his automobile to see the work, carried us further on beyond his farm to Staton's Mill and showed us some of the good work being done on the county roads by convicts. We thank Mr. Wooten for courtesies shown us.

Grimesland Marriage.

Tally, a popular mail clerk on the N. & S. road. ## "HER AMERICAN HUSBAND."

Pleases a Large Audience Thursday Night.

The ladies of the End of the Century Club are certainly to be congratulated upon the class of the attractions they have selected for the lyceum course for the benefit of the public library. The bill for the second entertainment in the series was "Her American Husband," a musical comedy, which was presented Thursday night under the direction of Walter Cluxton and his company. The audience was large and appreciative, and greatly enjoyed the program.

The parts of some members of the company were admirable. The songs were good, especially the bass solo of Mr. Peltier.

The rendition of "An Old Actor" by Mr. Cluxton and the dago song and recitation by Miss Breman could not be surpassed in excellence. In the third act the scene around the camp fire was beautiful. The entire play was interesting and amusing, and throughout the program there was not the least objectionable word or expression. It was a high class attraction, and at the price at which the ladies are furnishing these entertainments, the people are certainly getting the worth of their money.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 4. The preliminary contest for the Carolina-Pennsylvania debate was held this week. Those contesting were J. L. Eason, J. H. Boushall, both of the senior class; and E. M. Highsmith and E. E. Barnett, of the graduate school. Dr. C. L. Raper, Dr. J. G. R. Hamilton and Prof. M. H. Stacy, the committee, decided in favor of Barnett and Highsmith. The debate will be held in Chapel Hill about the middle of November. Last year the debate was held in Philadelphia, and North Carolina won by a unanimous decision. Pennsylvania won in the fall of 1907 at Chapel Hill. The debate this November is the third of a series, and decides the tie.

Prof. E. V. Howell, dean of the pharmacy school, has been appointed by President H. H. Busby, of the American Pharmaceutical Association, to be a member of the national committee on drug reform. The other members of this committee are Sayres, of Kansas City, and Schneider, of San Francisco, men distinguished in their profession.

The chapel exercises were conducted this week by Rev. W. R. Royall, of the Methodist church. Talks were made by Dr. Mangum upon personal hygiene and the care of the body, and by Dr. McHider upon the prevention of disease, and by Professor Graham upon thoughtless destruction of property, and President Venable upon missing classes. Next week talks will be made upon the value of exercise and other other subjects of vital relation to student life.

Carolina, represented by Fountain and Venable, C. S., defeated Guilford, represented by Briggs and Vance, in the annual intercollegiate tennis meet. Fountain and Venable won three straight sets in both doubles and singles. Meets are being arranged with Wake Forest, Davidson, Richmond College, Washington and Lee, Randolph Macon, and Virginia.

The Pitt County Club met Monday night and elected officers as follows: W. R. Wilson, president; C. C. Armstrong, vice-president; J. C. Lanier, secretary and treasurer. The club numbers thirteen men this year. It intends to have a banquet in the early spring.

A. AND M. COLLEGE NOTES.

West Raleigh, N.-C. Nov. 4.—The National Farmers' Congress met in Pullen hall today with a large number of delegates, among whom are men of national reputation. The meetings of the congress will be of especial interest to the agricultural students, for this is the opportunity of a life time.

The chairman of the executive committee of the college trustees, W. H. Ragan, was here Wednesday inspecting the grounds and buildings with the president.

The college will hold a week's farm school in Forsyth county, early in this month. Prof. Schaub has signatures of more than two hundred people who will attend this school. The public schools near the place where the farm school is to be held will suspend a few days for it, as teachers and pupils are anxious to attend.

Professors Norman and Michels will assist Prof. Schaub as teachers. This is a new phase of the agricultural extension work in North Carolina, but from the interest manifested the outcome must be a success. Why not have a farmers' school in some central point (or several localities) of Pitt? Shall we permit Forsyth to lead us?

J. C. Brantly is rapidly improving from his operation for appendicitis in Rex Hospital recently. He is a member of the freshman class, and all are glad that he is soon to resume his duties.

J. R. Ross, who left college last March, returned yesterday to begin work again. The junior class rejoices in having their classmate return, as do all others who know Mr. Ross.

Prof. Mann, of the civil engineering department, arrived from Alabama with his bride last week.

The new series of The Home Building & Loan Association begin tomorrow. See the secretary, H. A. White, about taking some shares in it. As an investment it is good and safe.

Our Greenville, yours if you come.

THOSE WHO SOLD SHOULD DELIVER.

The Reflector does not believe it wise for planters to sell their cotton crop before it is made, and has for years advised against it. Those who did so this season have lost on an average of about fifteen dollars a bale. This is a heavy loss and to many is proving a great hardship, but those who sold in advance did so with the full knowledge of what they were doing and knew that cotton was to be delivered at the price contracted for. We hear that some who contracted to deliver cotton in November around ten cents per pound, seeing that the prevailing price is easily four cents higher, are talking of testing the validity of the contract entered into on the ground that it is gambling, so as to avoid living up to it. We hope no man in Pitt county will take such a course as this. If the price of cotton had fallen below that named in the contract every man who sold in advance would demand and take the difference, and with the price above what he sold for he should be equally true to his contract. If it is gambling when the price is above contract, it is just as much gambling when the price is below. The honorable course for those who sold in advance is to live up to their contract, and let it be a lesson hereafter to wait until the cotton is made before selling it.

The jury in the Watkins case at Asheville, after having the case for four days without reaching a verdict, was discharged. The jury was evenly divided for acquittal and conviction.

The price of cotton this season is likely to cause the farmers to produce a bumper crop next year, in which case you may look for low prices again.

Peary has got a crumb of consolation, the geographical society having endorsed his report and presented him with a medal.

Hearst was beaten so bad this time that he cannot even raise a cry of fraud.

The fact that Judge Gaynor was elected, while other members of the Tammany ticket suffered defeat, ought to afford a good lesson to the stripe of politicians that thinks successful campaigns are dependent upon abuse of opposing candidates. The man most qualified won by a handsome majority; those on the same ticket, against whom no charges were made, were defeated. As indicating public revolt from obscene campaign methods, the outcome has a peculiarly refreshing quality — Wilmington Star.

After daily columns about the "Great State Fair," at Raleigh, we are not surprised to see the Columbia papers talking of the "Greater State Fair," of South Carolina. We wonder what will happen when the ultimate superlative shall at length be reached. — Wilmington Star.

TRUTHFUL REPORTS.

Greenville Reads Them with Uncommon Interest.

A Greenville citizen tells his experience in the following statement. No better evidence than this can be had. The truthful reports of friends and neighbors is the best proof in the world. Read and be convinced.

John G. Latham, 907 Cotanche street Greenville, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills in my case far surpassed any other kidney remedy I had previously used. For some time my kidneys were disordered, the secretions being too frequent and painful in passage. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was so much impressed that I procured a box at John L. Wooten's Drug Store. They seemed to go directly to the seat of my trouble and gave me relief in a short time. My kidneys were restored to their normal condition and I felt better in every way."

AN EVENING SPENT

With the most versatile pianists, could not possibly bring you more enjoyment than you, yourself could derive from either

The Lindeman
Player Piano,
The Milton,
The Bjure Bros.
Or Lester
Player Pianos,

In fact, with either of these Player Pianos as a companion, you have the advantage of playing the music yourself--the music you best like, and playing it in that rich, full manner, bringing out the delicate beauties of the melody which even many skilled pianists fail to develop, and this, possible with the veriest novice, without your knowing one note from another.

We will take your deaf and dumb piano in exchange.

SUMMER IS GONE

And now is a good time to have your summer suit nicely cleaned and pressed, so it can be put away and kept for months. It is time to bring your overcoat and have it cleaned and overhauled for winter, perhaps it needs a new collar or re-lining. A little work on it may save buying a new one. I am ready to do this work for you as it ought to be done.
