Winterville, N. C. Nov. 20, 1909. D. J. Whichard and Mr. Pough, of Greenville, attended the association here Wednesday. M. G. Bryan went to Greenville Thursday. Misses Lela and Lula Stocks, from the country, attended the association here Wednesday. F. A. Edmundson and father went to Ayden Thursday. J. D. Smith, of Greenville, came in Thursday, to spend a few days at his home near here. T. I. Buck accompanied by his wife, came in Thursday to spend a few days visiting friends and relatives. This young couple was united in marriage a few days ago, at Morehead City. We congratulate them upon the step they have taken. I am representing the oldest and stoniest life and fire insurance companies in the world. Office in Bank building. J. S. Ross, Winterville, N. C. Miss Alma Cannon, who teaches near here, passed through our town yesterday enroute to her home, accompanied by Miss Lucy Dail. Remember the Thanksgiving services in The Baptist church at 10 o'clock. W. H. Collins, of Goldsboro, is visiting his nephew, H. F. Oglesby, this week. Miss Edith Munford, who has been attending the association here, returned to her home Thursday. Mrs. W. F. Jones, of Belhaven, is visit relatives here this week. The Neuse-Atlantic association came to a close Thursday at noon. As space is very limited, we shall give only the most important subjects and speakers. Ministerial education was very ably discussed by Rev. G. T. Watkins, of Goldsboro. General education was taken up and discussed by Supt. S. M. Brinson, of Craven county, and others. Rev. T. H. King made the report on Winterville High school, and Prof. G. E. Lineberry, State secretary of education, made a most inspiring address on same. Rev. Livingston Johnson, of Raleigh, made a very excellent address on State Missions. E. B. Lewis and S. H. Averett, of Thomasville, made two very able addresses on the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage. Mr. J. C. Whitley, of New Bern, also made a very able address on the orphanage. Following the discussions on the orphanage, Dr. Vann, of Raleigh, made a most excellent address. Rev. B. W. Spillman, made a very unique address on Home Missions. Last, but by no means least, was a very inspiring address on Foreign Missions, by Rev. C. L. Graves, of New Bern. All the discussions were of the highest order, and showed great preparation. The association, as a whole, was one of the best for several years. Winterville has indeed had a great feast. The attendance was very good, and a few times the house was filled to its utmost capacity. The music, too, was very good. Our people were very liberal in the entertainment of the guests, and all had an enjoyable time. We hope to have this noble body with us again in the near future. Mr. Peterson, an optician, has been in our town this week. There will be services in the Baptist church tomorrow (Sun-	Another week has gone by and it brings the time that much nearer for somebody to be made happy over being presented by The Reflector with that beautiful baby upright Bourdoin piano at the music store of Fineman &amp; White. Who will be that happy person? It all depends on which of the candidates has the most votes when the contest closes at noon on the 24th of December. The one who works hardest and gets the most votes will win this elegant piano. People are watching the contest with interest and talking more and more about it every day. The most important thing to do is help your favorite if you have one among the candidates. Get people to subscribe for The Reflector, or pay up if they are already taking it, and in this way votes can be secured. There is no telling what surprises may take place in the voting before the contest closes, and every candidate should be getting every vote possible in the meantime. From now on we will publish the standing of the vote oftener than heretofore, because interest is greater in it. Here is the way the list stands today: Miss Mary Johnson 25,000 Miss Lottie Blow 21,700 Miss Lillie R. Tucker 8,875 Miss Mavis Belle Evans 4,075 Miss Beulah Mumford 3,775 Miss Mand Mooring 3,485 James Tingle 2,050 Quinerly School 1,900 Mrs. D. E. Nichols 1,270 Miss Christine Johnson 1,050 Candidates should send in the names of subscribers as fast as secured so The Reflector can begin going to them, but they can hold the votes back if preferred. Do not hold back the names, for some persons have already been after us about not getting the paper, saying they had given their subscription to a candidate. Please let complaints of this kind be avoided by sending in names as fast as secured. To Norfolk and Return via A. C. L. Thanksgiving foot ball game, V. P. He leaves here today for home, where he is needed.	Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Hon. Jno. A. Fox, who has just returned to Washington after completing his trip of the country in the interest of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress say: I found the most remarkably interest, at a number of cities throughout the Pacific Coast, in the Southern Commercial Congress movement. A large number of prominent men, whom I had no idea knew of the movement, commend it as one of the finest steps ever taken for the advancement of any section of the United States, many having seriously considered taking the same step for the Pacific Coast States. It would not surprise me at all to see a Trans-Mountain Commercial Congress organized in the near future, with the same end in view—the co-operative advancement of the Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coast States. The practical lines on which the Southern Commercial Congress is being carried out appeal to me most strongly. It is an organization for the purpose of stimulating all other organizations and not for the purpose of interfering in any way with any endeavor made for any one place. I expect to attend all its sessions this year. All in attendance upon the Southern Commercial Congress which is to convene here Dec. 6th and 7th, will be welcomed as part of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, meeting in the same—Hotel Willard—place December 8, 9 and 10. Opening address by President Taft. Trade Report. Richmond, Va., Nov. 19.—Bradstreet's for Saturday will say for Richmond and vicinity: Little change is noted in trade conditions since last week. The continued dry and warmer weather is affecting sales of seasonable commodities particularly wearing apparel. The largest sales of loose tobacco for the crop of 1909 have been made this week, prices are generally satisfactory the price ranging up to 20 cents per pound. As the tobacco crop is marketed collections and trade show improvement in Virginia and the continued good prices of cotton in North Carolina has benefited trade in that state. The weather has been too dry for favorable crop growing throughout the district and wheat is report coming up poorly. Fancy grocers report active ordering, they anticipate unusual activity from this time until the holidays. The wholesale and manufacturing paper trade report improved conditions and increased ordering. Drugs are active. Naval stores are firm at recent prevailing prices. Travelers are out with spring samples of dry goods and notions, orders for future shipments are fair, and some filling in orders for immediate shipment are noted. Retail trade is fair and collections generally are good. Blow-off Pipe Bursts. The blow-off pipe of one of the boilers in the Imperial Tobacco Co. factory burst yesterday and scalded the fireman and his mother pretty badly, but their injuries are not serious. We are unloading a car of stock and poultry wire fencing. 11 23 Carr &amp; Atkins Hdw. Co.	Presbyterian—Sunday school at 10 o'clock. A cordial welcome to all. No preaching. Friday, 3 p. m., at Mrs. Frank Wilson's, led by Miss Bettie Warren. These men had threatened to burn Julia's house if she testified against them in the trial, which she did, and they apparently carried out their threats. While all three of the Adams' were convicted of counterfeiting, John and Lam were turned loose on account of a disease they were supposed to be suffering from. He left with his mother for his home in Jones county Friday. Coburn-Hill. Chocowinity, N. C., Nov. 18.—A very quiet home wedding was solemnized at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the residence of Mrs. M. M. Hill, in which Miss Cora May Hill and Mr. William Coburn were the contracting parties. Rev. N. Harding was the officiating clergyman. Mr. Fenner Hill, the brother of the bride, gave her away. Mr. and Mrs. Coburn were the recipients of many lovely and valuable presents. They left on the 10:25 Norfolk and Southern train for their future home near Plymouth. SATURDAY NOV. 20, 1909.

Surprise marriages seem to be in order now-a-days.

The Piedmont Press is the name of a new paper started at Hickory.

Poor old Duncan! He gets all the blame every time! The Durham postoffice fight is the latest.

The Wilmington near-beer dealers are learning that our prohibition laws were enacted for a purpose and are not to be ignored.

The farmer who sold his cotton at 10 cents and has to deliver now with the price of the staple 15 cents is a joke, but it serves him right.

Norfolk done things up in great style for the entertainment of President Taft, but we venture to say she did not beat Wilmington.

Asheville is having a bad time over the schedule the Southern Railway recently put on, making it so inconvenient for passengers in lying over at a junction going to and from the south.

The man who is exposing the customs graft in New York has received a "black hand" letter threatening his life and the destruction of his family if he does not quit and leave the city.

The Beaufort cut in the inland waterways was endorsed by the waterways convention just held in Norfolk. This cut, which has been partly made, will mean a great deal to all Eastern North Carolina.

President Finley, of the Southern Railway, in a speech at Salisbury Thursday said that "In no area of equal extent in the world is the agricultural outlook brighter than in the Southern States." And he said lots of other good things, too.

And now South Carolina is trying to claim the "birthplace" of Charlotte's slogan. The News and Courier says it was originally "Watch Charleston Grow" instead of Charlotte. Friend Wade Harris of the Chronicle has promptly called it down. Envious South Carolina is always trying to claim something that belongs to North Carolina.

Greenville has the best slogan we have ever heard, and it is entirely original—"Our Greenville, yours if you come."

Help the candidates in The Reflector piano contest.

The Southward Swing of Commerce.

The only port on the Atlantic and Gulf showing an increase in exports of breadstuffs in 1909 over the first ten months of 1908 was Mobile.

The only ports on the Atlantic and Gulf showing an increase in exports of meat and dairy products in 1909 over the first ten months of 1908 were Galveston, Mobile and New Orleans.

The only ports on the Atlantic and Gulf showing an increase in gallons of oil exported in 1909 over the first ten months of 1908 were Galveston and Port Arthur. Port Arthur has become the greatest oil port on the Gulf.

Andrew Jackson is not Dead.

"Andrew Jackson was a great man," says Senator Aldrich, "but he is dead."

The senator from Rhode Island is mistaken. Andrew Jackson is not dead; but the United States bank is dead.

When Senator Aldrich introduces his bill for the creation of a central bank of issue he will find that Old Hickory is still on guard and will have to be reckoned with.—New York World.

A Rare Opportunity.

Why the participating, non-assessable, treasury, preferred 7 per cent. stock of the United Wireless Telegraph Co., is the best and safest investment ever offered since the days of the Bell Telephone is because its system is in actual and profitable use on every coast steamship line of any prominence in the United States, operating with great profit in the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, Great Lakes, and Gulf of Mexico and is rapidly extending to foreign lines also. Its land stations completely encircle the United States from San Francisco to Key West, including Spokane, Cleveland, Toledo, Chicago, Seattle, Detroit, Buffalo, Erie, Boston, Albany, New York City, Atlantic City, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Norfolk, Elizabeth City, Hatteras, Charleston, Savannah, Mobile, Jacksonville, New Orleans, Galveston, etc. and new stations and steamers are being equipped daily; principal North Carolina towns to have stations. It is the only wireless line transacting commercial business in the United States, Cuba, and South America; it maintains daily commercial communication between New York and Chicago, nearly 2,000 miles overland; Seattle Washington, communicates with ships at Japan, 3,628 miles away at will; tested on leading railroads on rapidly moving trains with great success; total earnings this year will reach a million dollars; English government has taken over Marconi system; coast stations in that country and opened same to steamers using this system; president of company now in London making contracts to equip large foreign lines and arranging plans for wireless communication across the Atlantic to America. There are over 10,000 islands and hundreds of cities and towns and floating craft eager for equipment. U. S. Government to compel passenger steamers equip with wireless and travelling public demand it. Three large factories behind in filling orders for necessary equipment. Over $3,000 of this stock sold to representative business men of New Bern, and in great demand throughout the South. Stock now selling at $35 per share (250 per cent. above par) and price advances November 15th, to $40 per share; predicted this security will shortly enhance to a higher figure. Remember that each share of Bell Telephone stock that sold for 25cts a share, 29 years ago has earned $30,000 in dividends and made millionaires out of small stockholders. Buy it for your wives, children and self and put away for future enhancement or you may lose the opportunity of a life time. Communicate at once with

How to Hang a Horseshoe.

Of superstitions we have heard much. Now, it will be remembered that there is one common meeting point among the credulous of all nations--in Europe at any rate. Everybody who believes in luck at all believes in the luck of the horseshoe. But did it ever strike you that there is a right and wrong way to hang a horseshoe? You often in England find it hung or nailed to the door with the ends pointing downward, but in Ireland, where superstition is more reasonable, this is never so. There they always hang the horseshoe with the ends pointing upward, as otherwise your luck would run out, don't you see? --London Chronicle.
