SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY.

A Day of Interest at Memorial Baptist Church—Collection for Orphanage.

All the services in Memorial Baptist church Sunday were under the direction of Superintendent C. W. Wilson, of the Sunday school, and it proved a day of unusual interest to the large congregations in attendance. The importance of Sunday school work was emphasized in all of the services, and a greater interest was awakened that will doubtless result in much good. The Sunday school which met at 9:45 recorded an attendance of 274.

At 11 o'clock Rev. B. W. Spilman, of Kinston, addressed a large audience, his subject being "The Problem of the Big Boy." Mr. Spilman spoke of that period in the boy's life when he is crossing from childhood to young manhood—too large to be longer regarded as a child yet too small to be looked upon as a young man—and with much interest pointed out the duties of the Sunday school especially the teacher, toward these big boys. He said that 75 per cent. of the boys in this period of life are lost to the Sunday school, and of the 25 per cent. remaining 90 per cent. become members of the church, hence is seen the importance of doing something to hold the 75 per cent. who are being lost to the Sunday school. Several suggestions were given by which this may be done—by keeping in touch with the individual boy and knowing his life, by giving him something to do in his class room, and making the Sunday school so interesting that it will attract him. Boys are naturally drawn where they find something doing, and he said he knew of no instance where a boy had attended Sunday school regularly for twenty years without becoming a member of the church.

At the evening service there were three interesting Sunday school addresses. Superintendent Wilson spoke on "Our Duties to the Children," Mr. J. W. Bryan on "Our Duties to the Young People" and Prof. W. H. Ragsdale on "Our Duties to Ourselves."

The choir gave excellent music at each of the services, and the splendid solos by Mr. M. Leslie Davis, of Beaufort, were greatly enjoyed. A voice superior to Mr. Davis, is seldom heard and he sings with much sweetness.

Announcement was made before the conclusion of the morning service that no service would be held on Thanksgiving day and that the church might make a Thanksgiving donation to the orphanage a collection was taken for that purpose, amounting to about $25.

Week of Prayer and Thanksgiving.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Jarvis Memorial church will hold the annual prayer services this week as follows:

Monday, 3 p. m., at Mrs. Ed. Harris', led by Mrs. Wiley Brown.

Tuesday, 3 p. m., at Mrs. R. M. Hearne's, led by Mrs. J. H. Shore.

Wednesday, 3 p. m., at Mrs. J. S. Cockrell's, led by Mrs. T. A. Person.

Friday, 3 p. m., at Mrs. Frank Wilson's, led by Miss Bettie Warren.

A cordial invitation is extended to every woman interested in the spiritual welfare of our community irrespective of denomination.

PITT BOYS WIN SUCCESS.

Some "Down Homers" Will Soon Move Into Their New Building.

Wherever The Reflector man strikes any of our home boys who have cast their lot in other places, it is always a pleasure to find them getting along well and making success of their business. While in Norfolk Friday we took enough time off from the festivities to look over the new building being erected by Whichard Bros. Co., wholesale dry goods and notion dealers there. This firm has had such a successful career that though they have moved once to larger quarters, it was not long before they found themselves again cramped for room to accommodate their growing business. To provide for this they decided to erect a modern building, and for this purpose secured a desirable lot on Randolph street near the Atlantic hotel. They now have nearly completed a splendid building 41 x 100 feet, four stories and basement, and expect to move into it about the middle of December. Folks who know them, and that includes nearly every Eastern North Carolina retail merchant, will be glad to know that these "down home" boys are meeting success.

Death of a Child.

On Saturday evening the infant son, aged six weeks, of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, died at their home on Evans street. The little one had been sick through most of its brief life, and its death was not unexpected. A sad incident connected with the death of this child is that the father, who was so badly injured in the automobile wreck two weeks ago, is in the hospital in Raleigh and could not be at home when his little one passed away.

The funeral took place at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Cherry Hill cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. D. W. Arnold. The pall bearers were Messrs. T. R. Moore, B. S. Warren, C. S. Forbes, H. A. White, C. M. Jones, P. T. Anthony, W. L. Hall and C. S. Carr.

Awarding of the Gold.

Over fifteen hundred persons witnessed the awarding of the gold at the store of C. T. Munford last Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p. m.

Mrs. Ernest Daughtride holding coupon number 11044 won the first prize of $12.50 in gold.

The second prize $7.50 in gold was won by J. T. Moseley who held number 15690 and Blaney Stocks drew third prize $500 in gold on coupon number 2289.

Little Miss Bertie Warren was blind folded and drew the lucky coupons.

Mr. Munford is tendered our hearty congratulations on the success of this sale.

Work for Votes.

Time is getting short on The Reflector piano contest. The candidates should keep busy from now until the close. A new candidate, Miss Lelia Stokes, of Grifton, has entered the race, and other new ones may come in and run high in the voting list. You may expect some surprises between now and noon on the 24th of December. The piano to be given away is a valuable one and worth working for. The list of votes will be published again Wednesday.

She is getting along remarkably well.

At the Pastime Theatre.

The management is going to add some new features to this little show, some time during this week, along a vaudeville line. Tonight they will run the slide of an illustrated song—"My Little Yiddish Queen." This will prove entertaining even though the management has been unable so far to secure anyone to sing.

Following is the program for this afternoon and tonight:

Dropped from the Clouds—a beautifully hand-colored picture. Legend of the Lighthouse. Betty's Choice.

Don't Eat Green Apples. This is a fine program, and has been highly spoken of by the shows which have run it ahead of us on this circuit. Come out and see it.

Beautiful Silverware.

The ladies of the Episcopal church have secured a large stock of silverware, suitable for wedding and holiday presents from Paul Gale Greenwood & Co. of Norfolk, and will have it on display at the piano store of Fineman & White in a few days. They will sell this stock for fifteen days, commissions from the sales will be for the benefit of the Episcopal church rectory. Buy your presents from them. Everyone knows the reputation of these goods.

Card of Thanks.

We take this means of thanking the people of Falkland and vicinity for their kindness and consideration during the late illness of our little daughter. Their unremitting care and tender sympathy will be ever remembered and sincerely appreciated.

INLAND WATERWAYS CONVENTION

By far the best meeting the Inland Waterways Association has held was the one in Norfolk last week. The attendance was very large, and more interest than has been known heretofore. About the best speech made at this convention was by Congressman John H. Small, who was one of the leading spirits there. Mr. Small spoke on Thursday and emphasized the need of immediate work on that portion of the waterway between Norfolk and Beaufort.

The most notable day in the history of Norfolk was Friday, when President Taft went down to speak on the waterways and other questions, and to be the guest of the city for the day. The city was beautifully decorated and every mark of respect and honor was shown the distinguished visitor. Features of the day were a military and naval parade, an oyster roast at Cape Henry, a magnificent display of fireworks and a smoker to the members of the press. President Taft spoke three times and at every appearance was given a great ovation. Norfolk did herself great credit in the way the president, the delegates to the waterways convention, the members of the press and the thousands of visitors were entertained.

There were a thousand covers at the smoker given at night in honor of the press. Besides editors from other places, there were some seventy odd from Washington City, among them being correspondents representing leading papers of all parts of the country. It was a distinguished gathering of the profession and they were given a royal reception. Norfolk made a most favorable impression on her visitors and all left singing the praises of the leading seaport city of the South.

The Washington News prints the story of a man trying to enter a house in that town by going down the chimney. He got hung in the chimney and came so near suffocating that he cried for help. His cry awoke the owner of the house, who, taking in the situation, called several neighbors to help extricate the would-be burglar. The chimney had to be torn down to get the man out. The News adds that the man was committed to jail and will be tried for burglary. Wonder if that point will not be an interesting one for the lawyers to contest. While the man slid eight feet down the chimney, can it be shown that he entered the house? No doubt that was his intent if he had not got stuck. The case is going to be an interesting one.

In his speech at Norfolk, Friday, President Taft expressed himself as favoring the building of a large fort between Cape Charles and Cape Henry to protect the entrance of Hampton Roads against invasion from a foreign enemy. There is already a land fort at Old Point (Fortress Monroe) and if this additional fort suggested by the president is built, Norfolk harbor, one of the best on the Atlantic coast, would be impregnable to attack. President Taft said he is going to devote himself during the remainder of his administration to securing this fort between the Virginia capes.

The Federal court in Missouri rendered a decision declaring the Standard Oil Company an illegal combination and ordered its dissolution within thirty days. The company took an appeal to the Supreme court of the United States, so that the final outcome of the matter is yet to be determined. The government regards this decision of the Missouri court as a great victory in the prosecution of trusts.

TRUTHFUL REPORTS.

Greenville Reads Them with Uncommon Interest.

A Greenville citizen tells his experience in the following statement. No better evidence than this can be had. The truthful reports of friends and neighbors is the best proof in the world. Read and be convinced.
John G. Latham, 907 Cotanche street Greenville, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills in my case far surpassed any other kidney remedy I had previously used. For some time my kidneys were disordered, the secretions being too frequent and painful in passage. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was so much impressed that I procured a box at John L. Wooten's Drug Store. They seemed to go directly to the seat of my trouble and gave me relief in a short time. My kidneys were restored to their normal condition and I felt better in every way."

Parental Severity.

The children of two centuries ago fell on stern times. If one may believe that the spirit of family life was accurately expressed by an excellent mother of that day who said, without humorous intent, that her children "loved her as sinners dread death." There is little doubt that parental control at that date was as rigorous as this anecdote indicates. It is said that when little Andrew Elliot, afterward lieutenant governor of New York, objected to boiled mutton his father, Sir Gilbert Elliot, frowned.

"Let Mr. Andrew have boiled mutton for breakfast," commanded the stern parent. "cold mutton for dinner and cold mutton for supper till he has learned to like it."--Youth's Companion.

A Bushel of Cents.

It beats all what odd questions reach some of the departments of government in Washington. Not long ago the treasury received a letter from a man who had made a bet asking "How many cents are there in a bushel?" The answer was not easy to offer. If the man had asked about pounds he might have received a definite answer. As it was, he got in reply a guess from a clerk that "roughly there is something like $320, or 32,000 pennies."
