BATTS' CORN YIELD.

Yield of 226 2 3 Bushels Per Acre has Created Comment.

Mr. J. F. Batts' remarkable yield of 226 2 3 bushels of corn on one acre has created a great deal of comment, as will be seen by the following letter to T. H. Briggs & Son from Mr. R. H. Stockton, presented by the Majestic Manufacturing Company, of St. Louis:

St. Louis, Nov. 5, 1909.
T. H. Briggs & Son., Raleigh, N. C.,

Gentlemen: The writer noticed in your evening paper the following statement:

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 4, 1909.
"The winner in the corn growing contest in this country was announced today by the State Commissioner of Agriculture, Mr. Graham, as Mr. J. F. Batts, who had grown 227 bushels on one acre."

The writer has been interested in matters of this kind, and possibly you may not know that the exploitation of corn growing has been progressing very rapidly in the west and for two years Omaha has had a corn exposition where $50,000 in premiums has been given, but no such record of production has ever been shown. The writer has also offered a premium there for the last two years. Last year the premium was not worded correctly and a seed man of Connecticut captured it, but with a great deal less number of bushels than this.

Will you kindly advise what security was thrown around this measurement and inspection, obliging.

Yours truly,
R. H. Stockton.

For the benefit of those who, like Mr. Stockton, want to be "shown" the proof of Mr. Batts' remarkable yield the facts in the matter have been fully investigated, and they bear out the claim that has been made.

Mr. Batts, whose postoffice address is Garner, in a written certificate which he filed with a committee consisting of Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham, Col. F. A. Olds and T. B. Parker, says that during the year 1909 he grew on one acre of land in Wake county 226 2 3 bushels of corn; that he measured the land in the presence of J. P. Edmundson and J. J. Jordan, two disinterested freeholders, who are not related to the said Batts; that he gathered and measured the corn in their presence. The land was square tract "measuring seventy yards on every side." Mr. Batts certified to the above statement.—Raleigh Times.

Rev. Mr. Shore Leaves for Conference.

Rev. J. H. Shore, pastor of the Methodist church, left for Raleigh this morning to attend the Methodist Conference. He will carry up a good report. While the assessments on this church were larger this year than ever before, they have been paid in full and the financial condition is the best in its history. There has been raised this year for all purposes nearly five thousand dollars.

This church has given to the orphanage at Raleigh this year $204.40. Mr. Shore has done fine work and the members are hoping that he will be returned to this charge. The large congregations which attend Sunday services both morning and evening evidence very plainly that he is held in high esteem and that his sermons are enjoyed. And we trust that the Conference in its wisdom will return Mr. Shore to Greenville.

THE SOUTHERN CONGRESS.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 18, 1909.—The Southern Congress was organized in Washington D. C., at a meeting of representative Southern men from nearly every Southern State.

The purposes of that organization were to intelligently exploit the resources of the South so that our people might be posted as to the value of their possessions, the best method of how to utilize them, and an intelligent and united effort made to remove many misconceptions which existed in regard to our section.

Able men all over the South forcibly expressed their views, and unanimously agreed as to the wisdom of a course of this character.

Almost without exception, the press threw their columns open for news and information in regard to the work that we are carrying on, and gladly gave a helping hand, with the result, we think (due to wide spread information through the papers of the South and the whole country) of a material increase in land values, a marked improvement in regard to general conditions, and a re-awakened interest in civic pride, commercial development and agricultural pursuits.

The men in this work represent each of the sixteen Southern States, and very varied lines of the interest, and, with the exception of the secretary have not received a dollar of salary, and have cheerfully given their time and energy for the cause.

It has remained for one paper, "The Manufacturers' Record," of Baltimore, to make itself conspicuous during the past ten months by a continued series of insinuation and ridicule—attempting to prove that no move of this character throughout the South could possibly benefit the South. Perhaps the fact that the editor of that paper was prominent in a similar movement, which started in Philadelphia and dismally failed, is one of its motives, in this attack, and another, perhaps a stronger motive was brought out October 31st, 1903 when W. R. Hearst's exposure of the Archhold letters showed that this paper had been subsidized by the Standard Oil Company, which corporation today owns larger interests and mercilessly throttles more competitive interests than all other combined organizations in the United States.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told.

Ayden, N. C., Nov. 23, 1909.—Rev. Mr. Bridgers left Tuesday morning to attend the M. E. conference at Raleigh.

Mr. Dosile, lumber inspector for Ayden Lumber Co., had his hand mashed last week very badly. Dr. Frizzle amputated one finger.

We regret to hear of the sudden and untimely death of Mr. J. L. Keen, of Grifton. He was buried Monday. Mr. Keen had been a prominent figure in Grifton for a long time and will be sadly missed.

Quite a delegation of our Odd Fellows expect to attend the district meeting at Washington on Thanksgiving.

J. R. May and wife, of Greenville, spent Sunday in town visiting Walter Gardner.

Mrs. Fred McGlohon and daughter spent Sunday visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Smith. Tull West, who has been with J. J. Edwards & Son this fall, has accepted a clerkship in Kinston. We wish him good luck.

The infant of B. J. Skinner died last Tuesday. It was preceded by its mother a few days ago. We extend sympathy to the grief stricken father.

T. L. Willingham and wife, of Wilson, are visiting at Jesse Cannon's. The Philathea class entertained at R. C. Cannon's in their honor Monday night.

There will be service Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the Free Will Baptist church, and Thursday night at the Baptist church.

It is so very dry in our community that people have to carry water to the fields for hogs. Many wells are drying up.

There came near being a fire at the graded school Friday, caused by a defective flue.

A lamp was left burning on a sewing machine at Exum Dail's last night when it exploded and a conflagration was narrowly averted by the timely appearance of Joe McGlohon, as no one was at home at Mr. Dail's.

Homicide at Falkland.

A homicide occurred Saturday night at Falkland, the parties implicated being colored. The wife of Jim Drake was spending the night at the home of her father, Henry Vines. Drake went there to get his wife to go home and a row followed. Vines went to the wood pile and got an axe to run Drake off, and while trying to use the axe Drake stabbed him fatally in the abdomen. Dr. Laughinghouse, county coroner, went out to hold an inquest and found the facts about as above given.

At The Pastime Theatre.

The show Monday night was exceedingly good and the program brought many laughs from the audience. You can expect another good show this afternoon and tonight in the following program:

STATE NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

By the falling of heavy roof girders at a large fertilizer factory being built in Wilson, Monday afternoon, a colored man was instantly killed and several other laborers badly injured.

Wadesboro, N. C., Nov. 22.—Telephonic advices received here Saturday night told of the sudden deaths of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Griffin at their home north of Marshville. just over the line in Union county. Death came to both of these old people within the hour without previous illness and was caused by heart failure. They were old settlers, well known and honored, both were over seventy years of age. Three daughters and one son survive. The funeral services were held yesterday.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 22.—Sheriff A. S. Richardson, of Columbus county, this State, was twice shot and severely but not fatally wounded while engaged with a posse in effecting the capture of a white man named Bufkin, charged with murder, in a swamp near Causey, S. C., yesterday. Bufkin had fortified himself in a camp in the swamp, where he had been in hiding since the murder, two weeks ago, and as the posse approached fired from ambush with a shot gun. It was while returning the fire that Sheriff Richardson was wounded, Bufkin having finally surrendered under threat of the posse to set fire to the swamp and kill him on sight when he came out of his hiding. The prisoner was landed in jail at Whiteville, N. C., today.

A frightful tragedy occurred Friday evening near Pollocksville that has cast a gloom over that entire community. Mr. Shade Clark, a prosperous farmer living near there, had gone out in his cotton field to pick some cotton that had been left over from the last picking and in the meantime leaving his two children, aged 2 and 3 years old respectively, alone in the house. In some unknown way the children pulled some burning wood from the fireplace which ignited the carpet and in a few moments the entire house was in flames. Mr. Clark seeing the fire rushed to the house, but before he could reach it the roof fell in and both of the children were caught in the ruins and burned to death. Mr. Clark and family are prostrated over their loss, and the sympathy of the entire community is extended them in their bereavement.—New Bern Journal.

RECITAL AT TRAINING SCHOOL.

Pupils and Faculty Enjoy a Feast of Elocution and Music.

Miss May Jones, of Louisburg Female College, gave an elocution recital to the school in the assembly hall of E. C. T. T. S. on Monday evening. Her readings were of varied character and greatly enjoyed. "Polly of the Circus," a charming pathetic little love story, was divided into three parts. Brother Johnson's amusing definition of phenomenon caused much laughter. Miss Jones is particularly good in her child numbers and in negro dialect.

The music interspersed through the program added enjoyment to the occasion. Miss Bishop and Miss Annie Lee Davis played, Prof. Austin sang well.

The program was as follows:

You little know the terrible burden he has to carry on account of the carelessness and indifference of his customers.

Everything he has in the world is at stake and more failures among grocers are caused by the neglect or refusal of people to pay him than from any other cause.

The grocer is never a rich man. He works hard from morning until night and his profits are small. Many a day laborer is better off than he at the end of the year.

Often when he needs money to pay pressing bills and customers owe him money long past due, he is afraid to ask for it for fear they will get mad.

Think of it! After he has trusted them, favored them, handed out his goods freely and then needs the money which belongs to him, he's afraid to ask for it.

Surprising, What Kodol Will Do

For you, when you need it. But the longer you neglect indigestion, the more you will suffer before Kodol can restore Good Digestion.

And, of course, indigestion if neglected long enough, brings on serious diseases in which Kodol cannot benefit you. Some of these there is no help for at all.

There are, in fact, very few ailments which cannot be traced directly to impure blood. And impure blood is always due to a disordered stomach.

Use Kodol and prevent Nervous Dyspepsia.

Kodol will effectually assist Nature to secure a complete restoration of good digestion. It does this by at once digesting all food in the stomach and keeping it digested, until the stomach is rested and can resume its own work. Kodol removes the cause--and the effect quickly removes itself.

When it is recalled that Apoplexy, Heart Disease, Cancer--and even Consumption--are due to poor digestion and poisons thus transmitted to the blood, and throughout the system--the importance of maintaining good digestion is at once realized.

We knew what Kodol would do before ever the first bottle was sold. If we did not know just what it will do, we would not guarantee it the way we do.

It is easy for you to prove Kodol--the next (or the first) time you have an attack of indigestion. And you will certainly be surprised at the results. It is perfectly harmless.

There can be no harm in trying something that may do you a great deal of good--when it costs you nothing if it doesn't.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.
