AYDEN ITEMS

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told

Ayden, N. C., Dec. 14.

A small son of Willis Dixon happened to the misfortune to get his leg broken in a hay press last week.

On T. J. Worthington's farm while rabbit hunting one colored man accidentally shot another, the load taking effect in his thigh. He will recover.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Daugherty lost their last and only child Friday. They had one burned to death last spring. The remains were taken to Grainers for interment.

A small negro child of Willie Grioes was severely burned Thursday. The child was playing in the fire with a broom. It died Sunday.

Cotton sold on our market Saturday for 15 1/2 cents.

Unloading a car of lime. J. R. Smith Co.

The ladies of the Philathea class of the Christian church, entertained the Baraca class last Friday night. It was a very joyous occasion.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekas celebrated fittingly Monday night with speeches and an oyster stew. These are strong fraternal orders and are doing our town and community much good.

Joe J. Lawrence has purchased the Garris house on West avenue and will move his family to it soon.

Dr. L. C. Skinner has purchased the James Jones farm, a part of the late Skilton Dennis estate.

There were 116 bales of cotton sold here Saturday. This proves we are doing business.

The stock holders of the Loan and Insurance Co., met Friday night and elected Joseph S. Ross, of Winterville, general manager, to succeed J. F. Barwick, who had resigned. Mr. Barwick has made a most proficient manager and the company has made money under his leadership. Mr. Ross is a splendid insurance and business man. He will locate here and enter upon his duties about Jan. 1st.

W. J. Boyd made a business trip to Baltimore last week. He said the thoroughfare in that city resembles Ayden on a busy Saturday.

G. J. Cherry, of Charleston, S. C., president of the Ayden Lumber Co., arrived last week. He is spending a few days looking after his large timber interest.

Mrs. J. R. Smith returned Sunday from her mothers, Mrs. Fred McGlohon.

The new M. E. church is nearing completion and the finishing touch of Bob Davis' paint brush is making it a picture of exquisite beauty.

Now is a good time to advertise in the Ayden Department.

R. W. Smith.

GRADED SCHOOL NOTES.

Boys Have Good Debate—Graduating Class Organizes—Christmas Holidays

The boys of the Henry Grady Debating Society held their regular bi-monthly debate at the graded school last Friday night. The query was "Resolved, that the signs of the times indicate the continued safety and welfare of the United States." The affirmative was argued by Messrs. Adrian Brown, Charles Haskett, Alfred Schultz and Chandler Zahnizer. The negative by Messrs. Linda Smith, Ben Taylor, David Moore and Spruill Spain.

There was not a poor speech made. The boys had prepared their talks with much care and study, and the debate was one of the best they have yet held.

In addition to the debate, declamations were given by Messrs. Alfred Schultz and Ben Taylor; the former delivered Spartacus to the Gladiators at Capua, and the latter, The Death Bed of Benedict Arnold. At the next meeting of the society the entire membership will deliver declamations.

During the latter part of the session a joint debate will be held with the Aycock Debating Society of Goldsboro city schools. It is also probable that a debate will be held with Raleigh, or with some other schools.

The graduating class of the school numbers six this year, as follows: Misses Estelle Greene, Hilda Critcher, Sadie Exum, Agnes Spain and Nannie Bowling and Alfred Schultz. The class organized some weeks ago; Miss Estelle Greene was elected president, Miss Hilda Critcher, vice president; and Alfred Schultz, secretary. The class colors are blue and white.

From the music department four will be graduated this year, Misses Agnes Spain, Estelle Greene, Hilda Critcher and Lillian Carr. These young ladies will be the first to graduate from the school of music.

The enrollment of the school has been 420 this fall, and the average daily attendance over 96 per cent. of this number. The management takes pride in the high percentage of the attendance and the small number of tardies.

School will close for the holidays on Wednesday, the 22nd, and re-open Tuesday, Jan. 4th, giving a vacation of two weeks. Barring a few exceptions, the children have worked hard this fall, and their progress has been most satisfactory. There has not been much sickness in town, and but few other things to interfere with the steady progress of the school. When Christmas comes, the children and the teachers will richly deserve a happy vacation and here's hoping that they will have it.

Buying Some.

The fifteen cents mark for cotton, Saturday, caused a great many of the holders to sell. Speight & Co. bought between 900 and 1000 bales on that day, and several cars of peanuts.

If you haven't seen the manager about that telephone, you had better do so at once. We are now receiving orders at the rate of two and three per day, a little faster than we can put them in. First come, first served. Get in line, order yours at once. Residence rates, five cents per day, extension telephone fifty cents per month. Why worry your neighbor? 12 6 dft

The New York Sunday World, recognized at home and abroad as America's greatest newspaper, has selected December 19 as the most appropriate date for its special Christmas number, full of Christmas features. Many publications issue their Christmas number at a date so far in advance of Christmas day as to lose almost all of the Yule time spirit. The Sunday World's Magazine section will be replete with Christmas Stories and features. There will also be the words and music of a Christmas carol of great merit.

How To Down Taft.

The Greenville Reflector wants to know, should Colorado send a woman to Congress "as now seems probable," would Speaker Cannon make her take off her big hat while occupying her seat in the house of representatives. We had never thought of it before, but we now believe that this would be the best way—in fact, it is probably the only way—of organizing an opposition to the speaker with courage enough to stand unbroke against him. We would like to see Cannon or any other speaker order the members from Colorado or some other State to remove her hat, if she did not feel inclined so to do, and then, on her refusal observe what would take place when the sergeant-at-arms attempted to remove the obnoxious headgear. Right there is the chance for the opponents of Speaker Cannon. We see no other way than by the election of a woman for the anti-Cannonites to make headway. The trouble is, they would stand as much in awe of their female leader in the revolt as they do now if the man against whom they have not the courage to make a combined effort. So it seems likely that Cannon will continue to rule the house until there are enough female members elected to organize an opposition which does not fear his power.—Charlotte Observer.

The Greenville Reflector has celebrated its 15th year as a daily by issuing an anniversary edition which reflects great credit to that newspaper and the thriving city, which it has been such a great factor in upbuilding. The Reflector and the people of Greenville should feel proud of this special edition for it presents interesting articles and figures showing the great progress Greenville has made, a masterpiece in enterprise. The Reflector which aided so much in this consummation and its continued work for Greater Greenville should be given much credit. May The Reflector's anniversaries yearly indicate prosperity to itself and the good

The Greenville Reflector has just issued an "anniversary-holiday" edition that is a credit to the paper and to the community that so generously supports the enterprise. The Daily Reflector on Dec. 10 was fifteen years old and The Eastern Reflector nearly twenty-eight, and this anniversary-holiday edition was issued to commemorate the event. The edition is full of choice reading matter contributed by leading citizens of Greenville and Pitt county and carries a large amount of advertising of Pitt county business men. The Reflector deserves well at the hands of its clientele, and we are glad to note that its services are appreciated.—Kinston Free Press.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.
