R. W. Dail is to move in town today.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Mallard, of Wilmington, are visiting relatives here this week.

For fish, beef, pork and sausage see B. F. Sutton at same old stand.

The lecture that was to be made in the W. H. S. auditorium tonight, was made in the Baptist church last night. The lecture was excellent.

Mesdames A. W. Ange and Myrtle Waters went to Jamesville Monday. Mrs. Ange is visiting Mrs. Waters.

We learn with regret that J. S. Ross is to leave us and move to Ayden about the first of January.

B. F. Sutton is in the market business again, at the same old stand. We have two markets now.

L. P. Wayne has accepted a position with the Flanagan Buggy Co., at Greenville. We regret very much to lose him.

Nice glassware, just in. Harrington, Barber & Co.

For nice oysters see me—B. F. Sutton. Barbecue on Saturdays. See me before you purchase your Christmas fruit.

B. F. Sutton, who has been living at Ayden, moved here Tuesday.

There was preaching on the street here yesterday and last night, by a man and woman, who are doing out-door preaching.

For Christmas goods see A. W. Ange & Co.

We have just received a nice lot of glassware. Harrington, Barber & Co.

At Winterville.

The Pastime Amusement Company will appear in Winterville High School auditorium Thursday night, 16th, giving a high class motion picture show for benefit W. H. S.

Deepening Water Main.

The water main on South Evans street is having to be sunk lower to be deep enough for the street to be graded. Looks like it was put too shallow at first.

NORTH CAROLINA DAY.

To be Observed by Farmville Graded School.

The teachers and pupils of the Farmville graded school are working hard on the program for North Carolina Day, which they expect to observe Friday, Dec. 17th. Fire in Spring Hope.

The town of Spring Hope had a big fire Monday, the hotel, Methodist church and parsonage, and several other buildings being destroyed. The fire started in a livery stable.

ROCHDALE ITEMS.

Rochdale, N. C., Dec. 12.—Mrs. Mills Smith went to Will Brown's Thursday to take Mrs. Pattie F. Smith over there to visit her sister, Mrs. L. L. Meeks, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Smith, of Farmville, were visiting at Mills Smith's Thursday.

C. D. Smith came home from Washington Tuesday evening and brought a lot of fresh oysters to our great enjoyment. We had one of the biggest oyster stews of the season.

Misses L. E. Gary and Mary Joyner, the teachers at Smith's school house, held a basket party Friday night and it was a complete success. They had a large crowd.

Poketink, Marltown, Grimersburg, Farmville and Snow Hill were represented and they took in $46.15. They sold baskets from fifty cents to five dollars. They served ambrosia and cake and confections of all kinds. They had a fish pond and a show which was a red bat from Egypt. The crowd stayed and enjoyed themselves until about eleven o'clock and reluctantly dispersed hoping, to have another good time Christmas eve at the Christmas tree.

Mrs. B. P. Willoughby and children spent Friday night and Saturday with Mrs. C. E. McLawhorn and Sunday with Mrs. Ivy Smith.

Guy Laster and a friend, of Snow Hill, spent from Friday night to Sunday evening at Ivy Smith's.

We had it rainy yesterday to the delight of the farmers after a long drought.

Misses Rosa Smith and Genie Nichols went to Winterville Saturday and spent until Sunday evening.

Mrs. Zola Bullock.

Whereas, it has pleased God in His infinite love to send His angel to conduct into the beautiful home of the souls the pure spirit of the beloved wife of our brother, W. R. Bullock, whose early death came in the bloom of young womanhood.

Resolved 1. That Bethel M. E. church has lost one of its most devoted and loyal members. And while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who is too wise to err and too good to be unkind, we are thankful for her life, which though brief was a life of influence for good.

2nd. That we as members of Bethel Lodge I. O. O. F., extend our deepest sympathies to the bereaved husband, relatives and friends.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the grief stricken husband and family, and to the Greenville Reflector for publication, and the same be recorded on the minutes of our lodge.

First come, first served. Get in line, order yours at once. Residence rates, five cents per day, extension telephone fifty cents per month. Why worry your neighbor? 12 6 dft

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

K. W. Cobb returned from Richmond this morning.

Mrs. J. L. Trippland two children, of Washington, D. C., came in Tuesday evening to visit Mrs. J. B. Johnson.

H. A. Blow and Bryan Buck, Confederate veterans of this county who have been at the soldiers' home in Raleigh, have come home to spend the holidays.

The Bazaar a Success.

The bazaar which the ladies of the Episcopal church are holding in Perkins' hall, had a most successful beginning Tuesday night. A very large crowd was in attendance and purchases were exceedingly liberal. The various booths are most attractively decorated and contain many beautiful articles appropriate for the holiday season. The lunch department was also well patronized, for the splendid menu was enough to tempt the appetite of any one.

The ladies have worked hard and earnestly in preparation for the bazaar, and have cause for congratulation upon its success. It will continue through several days.

Superior Court Clerk D. C. Moore has received the annual pension checks for the Confederate soldiers in Pitt county and widows of soldiers who are on the State pension list. In this county are two soldiers receiving second class pensions of $60 each; two of the third class receiving $48 each; 108 of the fourth class receiving $26 each, and 57 widows receiving $26 each. This makes a total of $4,506 of the State pension fund that is distributed in Pitt county. The checks come in handy for helping the old soldiers and widows enjoy Christmas. Mr. Moore is delivering them as fast as called for.

Vaccination Order.

At a called meeting of the Sanitary Committee of Pitt county in the town of Greenville, on Tuesday, Dec. 14th, 1909, at which were present J. P. Quinley, chairman, J. J. May, B. M. Lewis, Dr. Wm. Fountain, superintendent of health, Dr. W. W. Dawson and Dr. J. E. Nobles, the following resolution was passed:

Any person or persons within a radius of one mile of the public school building in the town of Greenville, who has been exposed to a case of small pox, or who wilfully refuses to be vaccinated or to allow any one in his charge to be vaccinated, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

The Younger Set.

Now is your change to trip the light fantastic toe, not only for your own amusement but for a worthy cause, the public library. Therefore don't hesitate for lack of escorts but come on, and you will find partners galore awaiting you. The young and the old, the married and single, are cordially invited to come either as a masker or a spectator. Don't forget the date, Dec. 31st. 12 16

Fasten Doors and Windows.

If everybody leaves home these evenings to go out Christmas shopping, or elsewhere, it is wise to see that all doors and windows are securely fastened. There are prowlers around, and a little precaution may save your house from being entered during such absence. 12 22

WEDNESDAY DEC. 15, 1909

Christmas is not going to wait just because you may not be ready for it.

If Zelaya is all that he is accused of, he is a bad specimen and deserves a thrashing.

No, we would not mind receiving a bunch of diamonds for a Christmas present. Would you?

It matters not how well Greenville may have done in the way of progress this year, lets try to make it do better next year.

It really looks like most of the people are doing their holiday shopping early, but others will be at it until the last minute.

Few people getting a package labelled "not to be opened until Christmas," will have so little curiosity as to not take a peep in it.

Bless the dear children, and some of the larger ones, too, they are so eager for Christmas to come. The Reflector hopes all their happy expectations will be realized.

There are those who do everything imaginable in the effort to discredit Dr. Cook, but he has reason to feel proud of the loyalty with which his friends have stuck to him.

Whether officers there are more active than elsewhere we cannot say, but Durham is taking the lead in capturing blind tigers. Yet it does not seem to stop them.

The Wilmington Star on Tuesday published a 40-page industrial edition that was something worth looking at. It was certainly creditable to the paper and to Wilmington.

Between now and April you will hear more abuse of bad roads than at any other time of the year. Maybe there will be enough of it to bring about more interest in good roads.

In enumerating the enterprises of a town, especially as large as Greenville, it would be a perfect man who could get them all the first time, hence it is not unusual that some were overlooked in the recent anniversary-holiday edition of The Reflector. It was not mentioned in the list that Greenville has three railroads, and nothing was said about steamboats that ply the river. A feed store, a bakery, the candy kitchen and several cafes and butchers, as well as the telegraph, telephone and express offices, and a nursery, were also among the enterprises overlooked, and attention may later be called to others.

It takes no prophecy to foretell the ruinous effects that assuredly follow over production. Tobacco has felt more keenly its effects than other products. Big acreage presupposes big yield, and experience teaches that it also entails deterioration. Loose methods and bad culture are as exhausting, and more so, to our lands as close culture. The enhanced value of any product thoroughly matured, to its highest standard of perfection, though less in bulk, nets the largest revenue as pay for our labor. The great object is the highest recompense in payment of effort exerted.—Southern Tobacco Journal.

Our live, interesting and much admired friend, the Greenville Reflector, issued its holiday edition yesterday. It is a gem of attractiveness, both in appearance and reading matter, and Greenville is to be congratulated upon having such an energetic exponent. The edition has a very handsome lithographic cover and at the top patriotically presents the city's slogan: "Our Greenville, Yours If You Come."—Wilmington Dispatch.

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That no Greenville Citizen Can Afford to Ignore

Danger signal No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale foam, or thick, red, slimy urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.
Danger signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here is proof in the statement of a nearby resident.

Wm. Murrill, Washington and Tarboro Sts., Rocky Mount, N. C., says "Doan's Kidney Pills proved in my case to be a valuable remedy for kidney trouble and I have no hesitation in recommending them to anyone afflicted with this complaint. I used them for backache and other annoyances arising from disordered kidneys and they brought me prompt relief." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. AN EVENING SPENT

With the most versatile pianists, could not possibly bring you more enjoyment than you, yourself could derive from either

The Lindeman
Player Piano,
The Milton,
The Bjure Bros.
Or Lester
Player Pianos,

In fact, with either of these Player Pianos as a companion, you have the advantage of playing the music yourself--the music you best like, and playing it in that rich, full manner, bringing out the delicate beauties of the melody which even many skilled pianists fail to develop, and this, possible with the veriest novice, without your knowing one note from another.

We will take your deaf and dumb piano in exchange.
