With Mrs. George Woodward Tuesday Afternoon.

The first of the pre-nuptial entertainments in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Irma Cobb to Mr. Albion Dunn, Dunn of Scotland Neck, took place Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. George Woodward, at her home on Greene street, gave the bride-to-be a linen shower.

Mrs. Woodward received her guests at the door and directed them to the library, which was decorated in red and green, where punch was served by Miss Lucille Cobb and Miss Marjorie Scott, the latter of Mebane.

In the parlor where the shower took place the decorations were white and green. In one corner was a large white arm chair to which the bride-elect was escorted. Above her head hung an immense bell of white chrysanthemums, and as cords attached to this were pulled there came down a shower of linen in her lap, the articles being varied and beautiful.

After the shower the guests were invited to the dining room where a salad course was served by Misses Annie Leonard Tyson, Pattie Wooten, Ruth Cobb and Ruebelle Forbes. Ices and mints were also served, these being green and pink in keeping with the decorations of the room.

WITH MISSES FORBES TUESDAY NIGHT.

Tuesday night at their home on Evans street, Misses Glenn and Helen Forbes gave a "traveling party" jointly in honor of their sister, Mrs. George Hadley, of LaGrange, and Miss Cobb, the coming bride of Thursday.

For this occasion the parlor was decorated in pink, the library in green and the hall in red. Miss Glenn Forbes served punch in the parlor and Miss Helen Forbes in the library.

The guests were presented with score cards for the game as they arrived, and the souvenirs were tiny suit cases filled with salted peanuts. The prizes to the guests of honor were similar suit cases containing a lace handkerchief. The guests prize was won by Mrs. J. L. Wooten, but she permitted the visitors to draw for it and Mrs. L. I. Moore, of New Bern, was the winner.

Between the fifth and sixth stages of the journey hot chocolate and sand-wiches were served, and when "Washington" was reached on the final stop ice cream and cake and marshmallows were served.

HOUSE-HARRISS.

Greenville Bride Goes to Louisiana for Future Home.

At 8 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride on Dickinson avenue, Mr. Archibald R. House, of Elizabeth, La., and Miss Mellie Harriss were married by Rev. John H. Shore.

The bride was attired in a handsome Catawba coat suit, and immediately after the ceremony and congratulations of friends the couple left by the Atlantic Coast Line for their far away home.

The popularity of the couple was shown in the large number of beautiful bridal presents received.

Mr. House is a Pitt county boy who a few years ago moved further South, and has a good position with a large Louisiana lumber-firm. He showed his good taste in coming back home for a bride and selecting one of such splendid worth.

WEDNESDAY DEC. 29, 1909

Cal rs for 1910 are getting on the wall.

Resolutions for the new year are getting ready to tap.

No more turkey hash until the day after New Year.

Come to think about it, it is nearly a year before Christmas.

Try to form some new year resolutions this time that will keep.

The president says "whiskey is whiskey." Some of it that is called whiskey is something else.

Try to keep the Christmas and holiday spirit with you all through the coming year and you will feel better.

If you can't get up any new resolutions for the new year, you might brush up some of the old ones and try them over.

A new year resolution every business man in Greenville should make is to have an advertisement in The Reflector.

After Christmas whiskey circulars are a waste of postage stamps. Folks are swearing off in readiness for the new year.

It is time to be laying plans as to what shall be done to advance Greenville, the coming year. We should all try to make the new year better than the old one.

Money invested at home is more likely to bring good returns than that sent away, and deposits in bank are much safer than money hid around the house.

How glad we are that we live in the South, far removed from the sweep of such terrible storms and blizzards as swept the New England coast in the last few days.

Peary's friends are dodging the suggestion that his report be submitted to the University of Copenhagen. They must feel pretty sure that they would not stand the test.

Charlotte out out open fire works and excessive noise this Christmas, and The Observer says the day was more enjoyable than usual to everybody there, even to the former advocates of fireworks and noise.

They are apparently having as much trouble locating Baxter Shemwell as they are Dr. Cook. About the only difference is Shemwell is reported to be all about in spots from Lexington, N. C. to Hot Springs, Ark., while Cook is not reported to be anywhere.

The following is taken from an exchange, contains much of truth: "The man who grows up in his native town is regarded as a boy by his elders until he is well started down the declivity of life, too often, that ends in a hole. The stranger who comes into a place is more often pushed to the front than the young man who has grown up with the town. This is the reason why so many young men become dissatisfied with their home surroundings and long to cast their lot in other quarters." And as long as this is so can you blame a young man of talent and ambition for wanting to get out among strangers away from home to seek fame and fortune? —Henderson Gold Leaf.

Doan's Kidney Pills relieve back-ache. Cure every kidney ail.

Greenville citizens endorse them. Mrs. J. S. Stokes, Twelfth and Evans streets, Greenville, N. C., says: "For some time I suffered severely from kidney and bladder complaint. My kidneys were weak and the irregular passages of the secretions caused me great annoyance. I also had bearing down pains through my abdomen and sharp, shooting twinges through my loins. There was a tender spot across my kidneys and at times my limbs pained intensely. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and was so much impressed that I procured them at Wooten's drug store. They soon relieved the pains in my sides and I limbed, restored my kidneys to a normal condition and at present I am feeling a great deal better in every way. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for the great improvement."
