As a citizen, he is one of the best in our midst; as a minister, he is one of the most devoted in the State. We can truly say that while it is our loss, it is Smithfield's gain. What shall we further say, for space would fail us, to express our full sentiments. We don't know yet, who will succeed him but we hope to report later.

J. B. Carroll & Co. have lately moved in the store formerly occupied by the East Carolina Furniture Co.

For the New Year.

Resolve that you keep an ad in The Reflector. Nothing will bring you better returns, no matter what business you are engaged in. The Reflector has the largest circulation in its history and of a class of people who buy largely, and pay their debts promptly. We have very few subscribers whom we are not proud of. Our plant is better equipped than ever before and with the copy we can give you a nice, neat business getting ad. Come to see us and contract for a space the entire year of 1910 and watch the result.

To Our Patrons.

A new mile post is past, a new record has been made. The past has been the best year that we have been in business. We thank you and we want you to know that we appreciate your patronage.

With a wish that in the New Year all the good things you deserve may come to you and yours we are.

Yours to serve,
A. B. Ellington & Co.

The Reflector does job work.

NEW YEAR CHANGES.

Very Few of Them Are Found This Time.

The Reflector man made his usual New Year round among the business houses this morning to see what changes had taken place for the new year. He found fewer than in any year such inquiry has been made. This indicates satisfaction around the business houses that is unusual.

T. S. Norman, who has been bookkeeper for J. R. & J. G. Moye, resigned to go on the road and is succeeded by N. W. Jackson.

W. A. Tyson, who has been with C. T. Munford, goes to the store of C. S. Forbes to succeed E. A. Rollins who goes to Rich-Richmond.

J. L. Carper, who has been with Frank Wilson during the fall, has retired.

Tripp & Allen have moved from the Andrews building around on Fifth street, and J. L. Starkey will take that store.

J. G. Latham will go in business in one of the Higgs stores on Dickinson avenue, and will be on Ninth street until the Higgs building is completed for him.

A New Year Suggestion.

To The Reflector:

We are just entering another new year. Let every one begin it with a resolution to be better people, and help to make their country better.

I will suggest one way to make our country better—work for prohibition.

We have had one year of it, of which we are very thankful, but it isn't as good yet as we would like.

As this will be election year again, I hope all voters will try to get such men in office that will work to keep liquor out of the state. Let us pray that the next legislature may pass some law to keep non-prohibition states from sending it to our State.

Of course we all know what a curse it is to humanity, so let us work hard to have a first class prohibition State. A Subscriber.

Miss Jackie Moore Dead.

Thursday evening telegrams were received here stating Miss Jackie Moore, who formerly lived in Greenville, but recently of Whitakers, died Thursday in a hospital in Richmond, where she went some time ago for an operation. She was recovering from the operation when she contracted pneumonia, which proved fatal.

Miss Moore was well known throughout Pitt county and her many friends regret to learn of her death. She had just passed her fiftieth year. She was a sister of Mrs. B. H. Hearne, of Greenville; Mrs. David Hyman, of Stokes; Mrs. Joseph Fleming, of Pactolus; Messrs. Guilford and L. C. Moore, of Stokes; Misses Malissa and Ellen Moore and Messrs. G. C. and Zeno Moore, of Whitakers, to whom we extend sympathy.

The funeral took place at Whitakers Friday afternoon.

The Old and the New.

Friday night a few minutes to midnight the many bells in town tolled a solemn requiem to the dying old year, and as the clock struck twelve they changed to a glad ringing welcome to the new year. A fitting climax of the tolling bells to the old year was the whistle at the factory of the Greenville Lumber & Veneer Co. playing "Home, Sweet Home."

Judge Allen for Supreme Court Justice

Goldsboro, N. C., Dec. 31, '09.

Editor Reflector:

The Goldsboro bar and the people of Wayne county will present the name of Judge William R. Allen to the State convention of the Democratic party next year, and will ask that he be nominated for the position of Associate Justice of the Supreme court. He has had an experience of nearly eight years on the Superior court bench, and the people of the State have had an opportunity to see and know him and to judge for themselves of his qualifications. We, who have known his daily walk and conversation for years, some of us from his early youth, testify with pleasure to his spotless character, his studious life, his universal tact, and to his profound and extensive learning. We believe him to be admirably equipped for Justice of the Supreme Court. We think no one will deny what we say of his qualifications, and we therefore rely with confidence upon his nomination. We hope you can support him and will be glad to hear from you.

THE NEW YEAR.

We have entered another year. With last midnight time recorded the last of the year 1909, and the year 1910 was ushered in. The birth of the new year was heralded with the glad ringing of bells and the dawn of this first day was robed in magnificent splendor and sun kissed brightness. May the brightness of this glorious day be the index to the blessings that crown our lives during the year. May it be indeed a glad, sweet, happy, prosperous new year for us all.

Reader, there are many days between the beginning and ending of this year. Looked at in prospective we may think they pass oh, so slowly; but the retrospect later will convince you that their flight was on eagle's wings. Begin the new year with the realization that but one day at the time is yours—use that day well for all it is worth. The day lost never returns, the opportunity once gone is gone forever. You know not what tomorrow may bring, but use today well and tomorrow will take care of itself.

Fill this new year with gladness. Be something to your fellow-man, your community and your country. Have faith in God and begin each day with a prayer to Him for strength and guidance. Blessings and happiness are yours if you seek them.

Let one of your mottoes for the new year be trade at home and keep your money at home. You do not help your home any, nor yourself either, by sending your money to mail order houses. If you are in trouble of any kind you do not go to the mail order houses—they would laugh at your appeal—but you go straight to the home business man. If you want a donation for a church, a school, a sick or needy person, or any other worthy object, the mail order house does not give it to you, but the home merchant does. The home man is your friend, he sympathizes with you in your sorrows, he rejoices with you in your pleasures, he is your friend in time of need, therefore he is the one who is entitled to your trade.

Nothing will make you ease much quicker than a busted water pipe. It even beats trying to fit the stove pipe.

Do not run when you see the bill collector coming. He will corner you sooner or later.

In the language of Tiny Tim, "God bless us every one" this new year.

DON'T GET RUN DOWN

Weak and miserable. If you have kidney or bladder trouble, dull head pain, dizziness, nervousness, pains in the back, and feel tired all over, get a package of Mother Gray's Australian-Leaf, the pleasant herb cure. It never fails. We have many testimonials from grateful people who have used this wonderful remedy. As a regular it has no equal. Ask for Mother Gray's Australian-Leaf at druggists or sent by mail for 50 cents. Sample free. Address, The Mother Gray Co., LeRoy, N. Y.

New year resolutions are good only as long as they are kept.

Did your new year resolution hold through the first day?

Happy New Year to everybody.

Pull for Greenville this year.

Up to date plumbers should wade in and buy that electrical device for thawing out frozen water pipes. It makes quick work of it and there is no hunting to see exactly where the freeze is. A wire is placed on a spigot in a house, the other end is connected with a hydrant on the street or perhaps in the front yard, the current is connected from the nearest wire, then the machine, which resembles the ordinary transformer seen on the streets, is set to work and no matter where the freeze is located the current thaws it out. There is no digging up of the ground and no delay.—Greensboro Record.

Superintendent J. J. Laughinghouse, of the State's prison, says he is just as much in the dark now as he was six months ago as to when the electric apparatus for the prison "death chamber," required under the act requiring that all death sentences in the state shall be in the prison by electrocution, will be ready. In fact, it looks now like it will not be ready January 14, when the Morris negro, to die for criminal assault, is scheduled to receive the distinction of being the first victim of the electrocution act.

TUESDAY, JAN. 25, 1910.

The towns in the middle and western part of the state are "making a noise" like growing. Whether they are really growing we are not prepared to say but they make folks think they are doing something. Can't we get up some new enterprise and "make a noise," too? Greenville affords a nice opportunity for a cotton mill, a flour mill and other similar manufactories. Lend a helping hand and let's get them.

The Tillman's of South Carolina, have got in the "fast set" and will have a "soiled linen washing" for the edification of that part of the public who love such sensations. A son of Senator Tillman separated from his wife and deeded his two children to his parents, alleging his wife's unfitness and inability to raise them. The children were slipped off from the young Mrs. Tillman during her illness and placed in the keeping of their grandparents, and the mother has brought suit for their repossession.

The Richmond News Leader raises the "great war cry" that prohibition in Virginia will jeopardize all business interests, and proceeds to give the anti-saloon league a round "cussing" for asking the legislature to submit the question by vote to the people, which is their right, and the legislature for noticing its petitions. But haply the barking of one poor little, pitiful man or body of men can't stop the onward march of prohibition, and Virginia will fall in line with the other states sooner or later. Whiskey must go. The hand of Almighty God is behind the efforts for its eradication and no matter who protests, the fight against it will win.

A Most Interesting Story.
It was whispered here, some time ago, that Judge George H. Brown would be offered the deanship of the State University Law School, to succeed the late Judge McRae, and, that in the event of his acceptance, Judge William R. Allen, of the Superior court bench would be tendered his seat in the Supreme court. It was argued, that, by this move, the Allen-Manning fight could be averted. Judge Allen, it was said, could not have declined, and had he accepted there would have been no contest. This sounds well, whether true or not. The talk passed. A contest is inevitable. I am reliably informed from friends of Judge Allen and Judge Manning that these gentlemen would not under any circumstances, defeat Judge Walker. It is said that neither would accept the associate jus-

CHILDREN WHO ARE SICKLY.

Mothers who value their own comfort and the welfare of their children, should never be without a box of Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children, for use throughout the season. They break up colds, cure feverishness, constipation, teething disorders, head ache and stomach troubles. These powders never fail. Sold by all drug stores, 25c. Don't accept any substitute. A trial package free to any mother who will address Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

ticeship to succeed him. Therefore, this dismisses a story that circulated two or three weeks ago; the fight will be between Allen and Manning.—H. E. C. Bryant, Washington cor. Charlotte Observer.

The Roar of the Mob

Have you ever heard the roar of the mob in pursuit of a human being? The yelp of the hyena, the snarl of the tiger, the deep growl of the bear, the howling of the dog—all are as music that is sweet when compared to the wild cry of the mob in pursuit of human prey. All the finer virtues of man's mind and soul are washed out in the lust for the blood of a brother; reason is dethroned by insanity.

There is a fierce joy in hunting a fellow creature in mob formation, and, which is perhaps more appealing, it incurs no individual risk; there is always safety in numbers. The mob, though soulless, feels the call of manifest destiny, and puts itself in the role of an avenging angel when the safety of numbers is assured.

A mob charges a jail and batters down the doors thereof because it is a mob and is ruled by savagery. It drags forth a helpless victim because it thirsts for blood.—Asheville Citizen.

We hope not one of our people will become discouraged because the liquor organs bewail the failure of prohibition to prohibit. Those liquor brethren are in deep distress because of the vast amount of whiskey that is being received at the express offices and through blind tigers. It is heart rending to read their gloomy dissertation on the decline of public morality on account of the violations of law. Do not become alarmed beloved. Public morals are about as safe and sound as before the prohibition victory. The law is here and it has come to stay. It may not be enforced as it ought to be, but it is not going to be repealed. The people of North Carolina do not want liquor sold by law and they said so in plain terms. They meant what they said. The politicians who have been recently converted may not all be sincere but the people are, and they are very well satisfied with what they have done. Prohibition is not keeping everybody sober, but it is doing tolerably well and it will do better by and by.—Charlotte Chronicle.

SATURDAY JAN. 1, 1910.

THE NEW YEAR.

We have entered another year. With last midnight time recorded the last of the year 1909, and the year 1910 was ushered in. The birth of the new year was heralded with the glad ringing of bells and the dawn of this first day was robed in magnificent splendor and sun kissed brightness. May the brightness of this glorious day be the index to the blessings that crown our lives during the year. May it be indeed a glad, sweet, happy, prosperous new year for us all.

Reader, there are many days between the beginning and ending of this year. Looked at in prospective we may think they pass oh, so slowly; but the retrospect later will convince you that their flight was on eagle's wings. Begin the new year with the realization that but one day at the time is yours—use that day well for all it is worth. The day lost never returns, the opportunity once gone is gone forever. You know not what tomorrow may bring, but use today well and tomorrow will take care of itself.

Fill this new year with gladness. Be something to your fellow-man, your community and your country. Have faith in God and begin each day with a prayer to Him for strength and guidance. Blessings and happiness are yours if you seek them.

Let one of your mottoes for the new year be trade at home and keep your money at home. You do not help your home any, nor yourself either, by sending your money to mail order houses. If you are in trouble of any kind you do not go to the mail order houses—they would laugh at your appeal—but you go straight to the home business man. If you want a donation for a church, a school, a sick or needy person, or any other worthy object, the mail order house does not give it to you, but the home merchant does. The home man is your friend, he sympathizes with you in your sorrows, he rejoices with you in your pleasures, he is your friend in time of need, therefore he is the one who is entitled to your trade.

Nothing will make you cuss much quicker than a busted water pipe. It even beats trying to fit the stove pipe.

Do not run when you see the bill collector coming. He will corner you sooner or later.

In the language of Tiny Tim, "God bless us every one" this new year.

DON'T GET RUN DOWN

Weak and miserable. If you have kidney or bladder trouble, dull head pain, dizziness, nervousness, pains in the back, and feel tired all over, get a package of Mother Gray's Australian-Leaf, the pleasant herb cure. It never fails. We have many testimonials from grateful people who have used this wonderful remedy. As a regular it has no equal. Ask for Mother Gray's Australian-Leaf at druggists or sent by mail for 50 cents. Sample free. Address, The Mother Gray Co., LeRoy, N. Y.

New year resolutions are good only as long as they are kept.

Did your new year resolution hold through the first day?

Happy New Year to everybody.

Pull for Greenville this year.

Up to date plumbers should wade in and buy that electrical device for thawing out frozen water pipes. It makes quick work of it and there is no hunting to see exactly where the freeze is. A wire is placed on a spigot in a house, the other end is connected with a hydrant on the street or perhaps in the front yard, the current is connected from the nearest wire, then the machine, which resembles the ordinary transformer seen on the streets, is set to work and no matter where the freeze is located the current thaws it out. There is no digging up of the ground and no delay.—Greensboro Record.

Superintendent J. J. Laughinghouse, of the State's prison, says he is just as much in the dark now as he was six months ago as to when the electric apparatus for the prison "death chamber," required under the act requiring that all death sentences in the state shall be in the prison by electrocution, will be ready. In fact, it looks now like it will not be ready January 14, when the Morris negro, to die for criminal assault, is scheduled to receive the distinction of being the first victim of the electrocution act.
