Newsp Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told

Ayden, N. C., Jan. 1.
Rev. A. L. Ormond, who has been spending the holidays with his mother, returned to his home at Fayetteville Thursday.

C. E. Smith returned from a business trip at New Bern Friday.

On Tuesday H. G. Mumford, one of our popular countymen, was married to Miss Lida Roberson, of Robersonville.

Our merchants are all busy taking inventory.

Cotton is selling on our market today for 15 1/2, cotton seed at 50 cents per bushel.

Miss Bell, who has been living with her aunt, Miss Ella Wayne, left Tuesday to enter the orphanage at Atlanta.

Frank White has moved his family back to his old home in Lenoir county. Mr. and Mrs. White have made many friends since they moved here from Winterville some months ago.

We regret to learn that Rev. T. H. King, who has been pastor of the Baptist church here for several years, will not be with us again next year. Since he has been serving the church it has been very prosperous and gained considerable in membership.

We are glad to see Rev. J. H. Bridgers out again. He has been sick several days with shingles.

Miss Carrie Johnson has been spending the holidays near Timothy church.

Mrs. J. A. Davis has sold out her millinery interest to her partner, Mrs. B. S. Summerell. Glad to see Maj. W. S. Blount out again after an attack of neuralgia.

Alton and Charlie Nobles, of Petersburg, are visiting their father, O. C. Nobles.

Editor Reflector:
Years have passed since I left North Carolina (1892), and several years since I did not get The Reflector any more, for I had left Texas and went to Mexico. I am back now in Texas for a few months and will return to Mexico next spring.

As you well know a great many Americans are enticed to go to Mexico and buy lands from companies formed by some very unscrupulous persons, some of them are even indicted for using the U. S. mail fraudulently. I own a little property myself in Mexico. I know the neighboring republic thoroughly, and I should warn anyone intending to go to Mexico from those land agents and land companies who have their grand luxurious offices in a great many of the principal cities of the U. S., for instance St. Louis, Kansas City, Pittsburg, etc.

When anyone wants to go to Mexico (the best would be if several would go together) I herewith advise them not to buy from companies, but directly from the Mexican owners. There are Americans now in all larger Mexican cities, especially in Mexico's best seaport, Tampico.

The lands about Tampico are the finest in the world, especially the so called Herastico Valley, where the soil is 13 to 40 feet deep, excellent pure water, navigable streams, where all kinds of tropical fruits grow in abundance, corn and sugar cane is a staple crop, plenty of rain, no malaria, no rheumatism, in an altitude of from 150 to 500 feet above sea level. In my next letter I'll write fully about that wonderful land and climate. I am no agent, never would lower myself so, but what I say, what I write is for the welfare of honest toilers and tillers of ground. I am in my 73rd year. Doing good to others, in short "The golden rule" was and is my motto. Even while I am here I am not idle; in spite of my age I do not feel it, and I am teaching a public school. I am waiting here until friends of mine will be able to return with me to Mexico; as to some of my relatives will go. Texas is not so prosperous any more as it has been years ago. Cyclones do a great deal of harm in many localities. People will not stay any longer than absolutely necessary to sell out their properties.

I never have forgotten North Carolina. I have two dear daughters living in Pitt county. Fate had separated me from them, but my heart is with them and everything I hope will turn out all right. Success to The Reflector in the new year we are about to enter.
Lorenzo De Visconti.

Pastor Resigns.

On Sunday morning Rev. J. B. Cook, who has been pastor of Memorial Baptist church the past year, tendered his resignation to take effect the first of April. The resignation was accepted by the church.

Quite a Difference.

Certainly a vast difference in the weather this week and last. Then it was away down in the freezing, and now it is almost like spring.

week following Christmas was a pretty good record. The total number for the month of December was seventy five.

Pope-Coffield.

A surprise marriage took place about 7 o'clock Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith, on Evans street when Mr. W. A. Pope, of Tillery, and Miss Marsha Coffield, a sister of Mrs. Smith, were united by Rev. J. B. Cook.

Mr. Pope accompanied by several friends came to Greenville on the 6 o'clock A. C. L. train, and after going to the home of Mr. Smith the license and minister were sent for.

After the ceremony the couple attended service at the Baptist church, but no one caught on to the fact that they had just been married nor anticipated the reason for the minister reaching his pulpit a little late. It became known at the conclusion of the service that the couple had just been married and many friends surrounded them to extend congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Pope left on this morning's train for Tillery.

His Heart Brought Him Back.

A host of friends were delighted to see Mr. T. F. Christman on the street Saturday, just in from Toulumne, Cal. It was only the day before that The Reflector printed extracts of a letter he wrote Dec. 18th, and his friends in reading that letter had no idea that he was to follow in person so soon. Perhaps under the inspiration of writing that "Home is where the heart is" he could not resist the feeling to take the next train. We are all as glad to see him as he is to get back to Greenville.

To The People of Greenville.

Greenville, N. C., Dec. 4, 1910.
About two months ago I came here in the interest of the "Farmer's Educational and Co-operative Union of America." The purpose of this organization is to educate the agricultural class in scientific farming, eliminate gambling in farm products, apply the golden rule, establish justice and secure and maintain profitable and uniform prices for cotton and tobacco. If such a work succeeds in Pitt county the merchant as well as the farmer will be benefited; for whatever helps the farmer helps the merchant.

I am not only interested in farmers and merchants, but also, am interested in every man and woman in North Carolina. I am so much interested in the young people of our State that I have decided to edit a monthly magazine for the young men and women of North Carolina known as "North Carolina's Young Men and Women." In this publication, I hope to give short but interesting biographical sketches of our young men and women who have surmounted obstacles and are now succeeding in their varied chosen vocations, also, to give them an opportunity of expressing their opinions and sentiment on the different live issues of today which must of necessity effect North Carolina in one way or another.

I believe with all my heart that such a work is needed in North Carolina, therefore, I am going at it with all the energy of my soul. I have made arrangements with the P. D. Gold Pub. Co., Wilson, N. C., to do my printing but the work will be issued here. My publication will be something similar in both size and appearance to the "Human Life" which is published in Boston.

Since I am to begin such a great and responsible work in your midst, I earnestly and sincerely trust that the good people of Greenville will give me their loyal support and hearty co-operation.

Very sincerely,
G. C. Hedgepeth.

Same Initials and Nicknames.

A peculiar coincidence came to our notice a few days ago in this: The register of deeds of Mecklenburg county and of Pitt county bear the same name—W. M. Moore—and both are nicknamed "Bud." We don't suppose such has been before or will ever be again. If the Mecklenburger is as good as ours, and we take it that he is, they are a good pair of "Bud" Moore's.

Baraca Celebration.

The Baraca class of Memorial Baptist church will hold its annual celebration on next Monday night, 10th, in the auditorium of the church. At the conclusion of the exercises a banquet will be given in the city hall. The Philathea class, officers and teachers of the Sunday school will be guests of the Baracas.

MONDAY JAN. 3, 1910.

How is that new leaf coming on?

Habit is a great thing, and with some it is yet hard to stop writing 1909.

It looks like the new year resolution some folks made to get married is making good.

Now that the holidays are over, let everybody buckle down for a year of earnest work.

Everybody is glad that last week's cold wave is over. But you can look for more of them this month and next.

About the next thing they will be talking is Easter, and the Christmas bill will hardly give a breathing spell before the hat bill comes along.

Atlanta does not care much for the talk about her city prison and inhuman treatment of prisoners. It brings the city into notice once more.

The papers throughout North Carolina are speaking of the great progress made in all sections of the State during the year 1909. This is most gratifying. There is not a greater State in the Union than North Carolina, and none is more desirable to live in. In every avenue of industry this State offers opportunities that are unequalled elsewhere, and we have a climate that is unsurpassed. The State is also free from labor troubles and strikes that so affect some other sections, showing that among this class of our people there is remarkable contentment. Those looking for a place to settle should come to North Carolina.

Railroads and the Y. M. C. A.

It is announced that the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company has set aside $20,000 for the erection of a Y. M. C. A. building at Rocky Mount. The Kinston Free Press, from which we get this information, says that "this is in line with the policy actuating modern industrial undertakings generally. The time has arrived in the world's history, when 'captains of industry' have come to realize that an investment in manhood is the best and safest of all; for such an investment is in the nature of an insurance policy—it protects their other investments and makes their returns larger and more certain." In building this Y. M. C. A. home, the Coast Line is only following a precedent set years ago. The Seaboard Air Line was the pioneer in Y. M. C. A. railroad work in the South. Its Y. M. C. A. home in Richmond was a model which has been patterned after by railroads in general.

The Southern Railway, as one of its first investments at Spencer, built and furnished a splendid home for the Young Men's Christian Association. As a matter of fact, the railroads are more inclined to build Y. M. C. A. homes than they are inclined to build depots. They find that the fostering of the Y. M. C. A. sentiment is not only beneficial to the railroad service but tends largely to the welfare of the traveling public.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The country will learn with real pleasure that the Florida orange crop is safe until the next freeze. It is only of recent years that Florida fruit has come back on the market. It is so superior to that of other sections that a set-back in that industry would have been a national calamity.—Wilmington Star.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect the aching back, Urinary troubles, diabetes, surely follow. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve back-ache. Cure every kidney ail. Greenville citizens endorse them. Mrs. J. S. Stokes, Twelfth and Evans streets, Greenville, N. C., says: "For some time I suffered severely from kidney and bladder complaint. My kidneys were weak and the irregular passages of the secretions caused me great annoyance. I also had bearing-down pains through my abdomen and sharp, shooting twinges through my loins. There was a tender spot across my kidneys and at times my limbs pained intensely. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and was so much impressed that I procured them at Wooten's drug store. They soon relieved the pains in my sides and limbs, restored my kidneys to a normal condition and at present I am feeling a great deal better in every way. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for the great improvement."

AN EVENING SPENT

With the most versatile pianists, could not possibly bring you more enjoyment than you, yourself could derive from either

The Lindeman

Player Piano,

The Milton,

The Bjure Bros.

Or Lester

Player Pianos,

In fact, with either of these Player Pianos as a companion, you have the advantage of playing the music yourself--the music you best like, and playing it in that rich, full manner, bringing out the delicate beauties of the melody which even many skilled pianists fail to develop, and this, possible with the veriest novice, without your knowing one note from another.

We will take your deaf and dumb piano in exchange.
