MISSISS WHICHARD ENTERTAIN.

In Honor of Their Guests Misses Hancock and Rowe.

The home of Mr. Ashley Whichard on Pitt street was a scene of old time hospitality Monday evening when Misses Verna and Bessie Whichard entertained in honor of their guests, Misses Elizabeth Hancock, of Oxford, and Lucie Rowe, of Aurora. Cards and other games formed the amusement of the evening. No prizes were given, but every one seemed to delight in showing his or her skill and there was several hotly contested games from nine to eleven, when a salad course luncheon was served. After the luncheon the guests joined in a request for piano music of Miss Hancock. She rendered several pieces well, which were duly appreciated by all.

At twelve the guests departed for their various homes with many expressions of pleasure, and with well wishes for the young ladies in their school work the coming year.

Miss Hancock, who has been visiting relatives in New Bern, is a student in Oxford Seminary, of which Miss Verna Whichard is a faculty member. Teacher and pupil have a loving bond of friendship, which is very beautiful to see. They left this morning to resume their work at the seminary.

FARMVILLE ITEMS.

Farmville, N. C., Jan. 4.—Sunday was a good day for Farmville. Rev. R. L. Davis spoke at the Methodist church in the morning to a good congregation. The regular services at the Baptist church was conducted by the pastor. In the afternoon Rev. G. W. Belk, Presbyterian minister, preached in the opera house.

At 7 p. m. all the congregations in town joined in a special service at the Baptist church led by Brother R. L. Davis, in a discussion of law-enforcement, or "The Blind Tiger Must go." The house was crowded and Mr. Davis made a strong speech, full of facts, enthusiasm, reason and humor. The best citizens of the town were greatly pleased and many of them expressed their purpose to organize a law and order league. The business men and citizens generally are becoming aroused against the lawlessness that prevails in our town, especially with reference to the blind tiger.

The pews have recently been placed in the Baptist church and the people are very much pleased with them as shown by their liberal gifts to help pay for them, as the pastor made a personal canvass of the town. Almost everyone approached contributed.

All the teachers are back and the Farmville high school has opened with fine prospects.

Two men from Benson are just opening up a fine hardware store in our town. We welcome these men, as they come to us with a noble record from their home town.

W. E. Barrett, proprietor of the Horton Hotel, has sold his farm, near here and purchased one in Martin county. He leaves tomorrow for his new home, and Mr. Ruffin, of Hobgood, is to take charge of the hotel.

Anyone wanting nice fancy groceries call Phone No. 305 and J. G. Latham will wait on you 13 dtf

THE GREENVILLE POSTOFFICE.

Business Increasing and Getting Close to Free City Delivery Basis.

Postmaster R. C. Flanagan has furnished The Reflector some interesting comparative figures of postoffice receipts which show how business here is growing.

For the last three months of 1908 and 1909 the showing is as follows:

Oct.—'08 $1,026.56. '09 $1,128.10
Nov.—'08 $663.07. '09 $896.41
Dec.—'08 $697.76. '09 $938.22

The two fiscal years beginning April 1st, compared by quarters is as follows:

April 1 to June 30—1908, $1,919.78; 1909, $2,105.69.
July 1 to Sept 30—1908, $2,286.84; 1909, $2,279.43.

Oct 1 to Dec 31—1908, $2,387.18; 1909, $2,991.63.

The receipts for the quarter Jan 1 to March 31, 1909, were $2,274.20. If the present corresponding quarter this year shows a gain of $349.05, or about $117 per month, it will bring the receipts for the fiscal year ending March 31st to $10,000, which will entitle Greenville to free city delivery. We are getting close to this basis and can reach it if the people will work for it.

Equal to Poe, Conan Doyle and Gaboriau

Much discussion has been caused in literary circles by the publication in the New York Sunday World of Anna Katharine Green's new novel, "The House of the Whispering Pines." Many reviewers have claimed that this American creator of detective fiction excels the best mystery work of Edgar Allen Poe, Conan Doyle, the creator of Sherlock Holmes, or Gaboriau. Others disagree. Be it as it may, Anna Katherine Green has perpetuated her fame by her wonderful detective stories. By far the greatest work of her life is the celebrated "Leavenworth Case," and on account of the great interest felt in this writer the New York Sunday World will publish this wonderful detective novel in five 20,000 word booklets, each free with Sunday World. The first one appears Sunday, Jan. 9. Order a copy from newsdealers.

The Society Editor's Version.

A brilliant fire was held at high noon today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, No. 376 Dash street. A large number of persons were in attendance. Mrs. Smith made a charming escape in one of the season's latest kimonas. It was of pure china silk with a pretty flowered effect, ankle length and gored in the back. It can be made with slight expense, and is very pretty. The Smiths have a lovely home, and it is too bad that it was burned so badly. The firemen were becomingly garbed in blue suits and full-cut blouses. The weather was delightful for an affair of the kind. The effort of a big man with a horn was a pleasing feature. Mr. Smith was not present. He is in New York city, as was mentioned in our coming-and-going column today. There was lots of excitement. After awhile the fire was put out. Because of the fire Mrs. Jones, of No. 374 Dash street, opened her house for Mrs. Smith and her two children, one a bright boy of eight, and the other a lovely girl of five. The expression was heard upon all sides that it was a most successful event. Somebody said the affair would cost $2,000—Bohemian.

Birthday Party.

Reported for Reflector:

Master Thomas Norfleet Griffin very delightfully entertained his little friends on Friday, Dec. 31st, from three to five, the occasion being the celebration of his seventh birthday.

The little folks were received on their arrival by Master Thomas Norfleet and his brother, Hayden Lee, who were standing beneath a beautiful Christmas bell in the hall. They were ushered in the play room where a game of "pinning the tail on the donkey" was engaged in, causing much merriment, the result ending in a tie between Master Walter Linden Whichard and Master John Flanagan, the drawing declared Master Walter Linden the winner and he was presented with a prize, a Japanese cup and saucer.

The game being finished, each little guest was invited into the dining room where dainty refreshments were served, Master Thomas Norfleet presiding, serving each slice of the "birthday cake" coupled with a wish that each little guest might enjoy a bright and glad new year.

From the dining room the little guests were invited by the host into the parlor where a Christmas tree loaded with fruit and candy was very much enjoyed and fun reigned everywhere.

The little folks on taking their leave at the deepening twilight expressed their pleasure at an evening very pleasantly spent.

Small Fire.

Early Monday night, in some unaccountable way, fire broke out in a warehouse in the rear of the stores of the Taft & Boyd Furniture Co. and L. H. Pender and occupied jointly by both firms. It was in a dangerous location for a fire, but by timely discovery and quick response of the fire department the flames were extinguished before any damage of consequence was done. A large crowd gathered in response to the alarm and for a few minutes there was much excitement.

Died.

Bruce Tucker, aged 15 years and youngest son of Mrs. N. E. Tucker, died Sunday at her home in Contentnea township, of rheumatic fever with which he had been a sufferer for some time. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the family burying ground. Deceased was a brother of Mr. A. E. Tucker, of Greenville.

Bound by Ice Six Days.

C. E. Rountree returned Monday evening from his annual hunting trip down the river. He had quite a thrilling experience although he did not bag much game. He left here Monday week intending to return Friday evening, but he took his launch up in the upper part of Chicod creek, to his old camp, and during the bitter cold weather Wednesday and Thursday the creek froze over, holding his boat fast. He had to remain away from home a little longer than he intended. "Rat" says he thinks the weather beat anything Peary experienced in his polar expedition. He spent all day Sunday cutting his way out of the creek and he has blistered hands as a result.

Wrong Use of Sidewalks.

Some people who have been greatly annoyed by it are lodging complaints about the concrete sidewalks being used for roller skating and a resort for hand-wagons, goat carts, children's auto wagons, and such other things is get in the way of pedestrians. Besides the inconvenience to people, these things do more or less damage to the surface of the sidewalks.

Minstrels Coming.

The coming of the famous Barlow & Wilson minstrels to the opera house on the night of Wednesday, Jan. 12th, means an evening of pleasure to Greenville people. There has not been a good minstrel here in sometime and it is safe to say there will be a large audience this time.

TUESDAY JAN. 4, 1910.

Congress has pulled itself together again.

Tammany is getting it in the neck by the new mayor of New York.

If all of them had their deserts, Morse would have plenty of company in the Atlanta prison.

Those who are holding some cotton may yet see sixteen cents for it. The price is now within half a cent of that figure.

It is fortunate for the town that the water supply had got somewhere nearer back to a normal condition when the fire alarm came Monday night. If it had been a few days sooner when there was little water in the standpipe the result might have been disastrous.

One thing that every man in Pitt county should advocate this year is good roads. It is campaign year, and such interest ought to be awakened that the next legislature will be asked to authorize the county to vote on the question of issuing sufficient bonds to build a system of good roads all over the county.

Col. Al. Fairbrother is back in Greensboro, has made arrangements and renewed the publication of "Everything" and his "hot stuph" after a year's suspension while the Col. was on a vacation in California. "Everything" before its suspension became the most popular magazine in the South.

A visiting lady remarked to The Reflector man the other day, that she was glad to see Greenville had a rest room, and found it a great convenience. "One other thing you ought to get after" she added "is so much spitting on the sidewalks. It ought to be stopped." To all of which we heartily agree.

Maybe one of your new year resolutions was not to kick but push. If you did not make such a resolve it is not too late to do so now. Greenville does not need the kicking class this year, but wants men who will put their shoulder to the wheel and push with all their might. This year should be made a good one along the line of advancement.

Popular Kind of Taxes.

The most popular principle of taxation seems to be some system that will put the taxes on the other fellow. Nevertheless, to impose a discriminatory tax from which some shall escape, but which others must pay, is rank injustice. It puts a premium on the socialistic notion that taxes can be unequally levied and that one class can be made to pay for the support of another. If a man is compelled to pay a tax, he is pretty sure to consider whether or not it is justly levied; while if the tax is not imposed upon him, but on someone else, he is inclined to regard it as entirely fair and equitable. If small holders of real estate were exempt from taxation, they would have little interest in securing an economical administration. The taxpayer wants to know what he is taxed for, and the larger the body of taxpayers therefore, the greater the number of citizens interested in securing the best form of government.—Leslie's Weekly

AN EVENING SPENT

With the most versatile pianists, could not possibly bring you more enjoyment than you, yourself could derive from either

The Lindeman
Player Piano,
The Milton,
The Bjure Bros.
Or Lester
Player Pianos,

In fact, with either of these Player Pianos as a companion, you have the advantage of playing the music yourself--the music you best like, and playing it in that rich, full manner, bringing out the delicate beauties of the melody which even many skilled pianists fail to develop, and this, possible with the veriest novice, without your knowing one note from another.

We will take your deaf and dumb piano in exchange.
