HAPPENINGS WITHIN THE OLD NORTH STATE

GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

Newspaper Items of Interest Condensed for Busy Readers.

New Bern, Feb. 12.—Jesse Whitehead, colored, charged with burglarizing a number of houses in the city in the past three months and in whose house about $500 worth of loot was found a few days ago, was this afternoon found guilty of burglary in the first degree and sentenced by Judge Peebles to be electrocuted on April 29th.

It appears from Red Buck's report from Washington, that the recommendation "for improving the Cape Fear river, above Wilmington, continuing improvement with a view of securing a navigable depth up to Fayetteville, including surveys and acquisition of land for sites, for locks and dams and completion of plans for the same, in accordance with the report submitted to the sixtieth congress, first session, $410,000," has been included in the rivers and harbors bill. The project has been thus adopted by the government and it will proceed to improve its property, for the Fayetteville transportation business was bought by it some time ago.—Charlotte Chronicle.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

We the undersigned commissioners of the town of Grimesland, having heard that there have been made some complaints against Dr. William Fountain, superintendent of health of Pitt county, are glad to exonerate him from any such charge in our town or immediate community. There were some objections from those, or some of those, who were forced to be vaccinated, and also some few objected to being quarantined, but Dr. Fountain vaccinated as directed, and quarantined those who had the smallpox. We approve the course taken by him, and feel thankful to him for his services. We feel that under his care and attention the disease in and around Grimesland was stamped out as quickly as the nature of the disease would permit.

So far as we have been able to learn all the buildings in which there was smallpox have been properly fumigated. We have been unable to detect any inattention on the part of Dr. Fountain in his management of the smallpox in this locality.

W. E. Proctor, chairman.
J. L. Gibson.
L. Y. Holliday, town clerk.
W. S. Galloway, mayor.

W. G. Williams left today for Raleigh.

"Scotching For the Preacher."

During a trial this week for the disturbance of public worship, a good old brother and member of the church was kindly disposed in his testimony in regard to the charge against the young men. He said he heard the utterances of the young men, but "just thought that they were scotching for the preacher." He was asked to explain to his honor and the jury what he meant by the term "scotching." He said that when the preacher would "get on a good roll," they would utter a hearty "amen!" The old idea of the hearty Amen is going out of date even with our good brethren of the Methodist church.—Catawba County News.

RESOLUTIONS

Passed by the Methodist Sunday School.

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father in his infinite wisdom to take unto himself the spirit of our beloved friend and member, Brother, Frank Johnston, who departed this life on Wednesday, Feb. 2, 1910: therefore be it

Resolved 1st. That as a member of this school he was noble, faithful and true, exemplifying in his life the ideals and teachings of our school, true in heart and soul and faithful to his creator.

2nd. That by his death we, the members of the Methodist Sunday school, have lost a most loyal and devoted member.

3rd. That although we are deeply conscious of our loss, we rejoice in the memory of a life and a manhood of strength and purity.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, to whom our hearts and sympathy go out in their hour of bereavement, a copy be spread upon the minutes of this school and a copy be sent to The Daily Reflector.

Can't be Taught at College.

Demureness among girls appears to be a lost art. 'Tis not taught in our up-to-date college curriculums, says Annie Hamilton Donnell in The Designer for March. The beautiful old ideals of love and service and gentleness have departed with it—gone, it would seem, clean out of sight. Our girls are taught independence primarily—they "specialize" in that in all our colleges—with a judicious sprinkling of electives in science and Biblical study, and the most enlightened methods of uplifting humanity and making over a wicked and poverty-stricken world.

It all seems a worthy object—I would not dare to say it is all wrong. But in the hurry and zeal to know everything there is to be known and to delve into unknowable mysteries, so many beautiful old beliefs and graces are left behind that can never be picked up again! We come through the ordeal of modern education such "new" men and women? New women especially, for 'tis in our girls that the greatest change is evident, and it is our girls who, all unknown to themselves, in their joyous, unafraid, self-certain outlook upon life, are in the greatest danger. Look—have we not disillusioned them, robbed them of precious things?

In our striving to make them independent young beings, able to wage a splendid little warfare of their own in the big war, have we chiefly succeeded in making them self-centered and self-sufficient? Have we made them selfish, in our overzeal? Have we accomplished our ends too well? Have we?—have we? I wish some one would say we haven't!

Meeting of Mystic Circle.

Tar River Ruling No. 2060 will meet tonight at 7:30, Red Men's hall. Each member expected to be present. This is the second meeting of Ruling and very important and every member should be present. J. I. Thomason, State Supreme Deputy, will be with us. E. L. Daughtridge, Worthy Ruler.

ENFORCED THE VERY.

Greensboro Man Responsible for His Boys Turning Thieves.

Does a father sometimes make thieves of his children? The police here have a case that looks very much like it. They say a man went away from Greensboro to work, leaving his wife and two small boys here, with instructions for the boys to go around and pick up enough coal and pieces of wood to make fuel during his winter, sending not enough money to buy provisions, much less fuel; that these little fellows tried to do the work; it was a case of root hog or freeze and they worked manfully, but finding it tough work to get much coal, they have turned into stealing it. The officers say there are four cases of larceny of wood and coal against the boys, but the prosecuting witnesses, knowing the situation, refuse to indict the little chaps. Here is a job of the right kind—let the boys alone, but go after the old man with gloves off. He is said to be earning a fair salary and is a good worker and that his only trouble is that he is too stingy to support his family. He needs attention and may get it, law or no law, if he is not careful.—Greensboro Record.

N. C. Towns Going Forward.

The smaller towns of North Carolina show plain marks of progress and are steadily going ahead. These towns, too, are starting off well with municipal ownership of such public utilities as waterworks and sewerage. The town of Spencer has just decided to take the waterworks system from the hands of individuals and have the town own and conduct it in future, while this week Sanford voted bonds for the installation of a sewerage system. Spencer is to purchase its waterworks plant for $43,000, while Sanford has voted $25,000 in bonds for a sewerage system. Such marks of progress and improvement are decidedly gratifying and go to again emphasize the fact that North Carolina is going forward by leaps and bounds.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Invited to Deliver Address.

Mr. F. C. Tepleman, general manager of the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, has been invited to deliver an address before the Southeastern Telephone Association (embracing Georgia, Alabama and Florida) which meets in Atlanta on the 23rd inst. "The Conversion of Magneto into Central Energy Exchanges," is the subject assigned for his consideration and the invitation has been accepted. Mr. Tepleman is one of the brightest and most practical telephone men in the country and his paper will be a valuable contribution to the literature and information on the subject discussed we are sure.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Resolution by Board of Aldermen.

Resolved, that in the action of the Board of Aldermen in employing Dr. J. E. Nobles to take charge of the smallpox situation in the town of Greenville, that this board meant no reflection upon Dr. Wm. Fountain, superintendent of health of Pitt county, and did not desire and do not now desire in any way to injure or reflect upon him.

James C. Tyson,
Clerk of Board of Aldermen,
Feb. 14th, 1910.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Feb. 12.—Lucius Polk McGee, of New York City, has been elected dean of the law school of the University. He is at present connected with one of the largest law firms of the metropolis commanding an income several times larger than he can hope to receive here. Love of his alma mater and the opportunity for service to the people of North Carolina are considerations that impel him to come. Mr. McGee is a North Carolinian by birth and education. He was born in Person county shortly after the civil war. Inheriting a legal mind from his grandfather, George E. Badger, one of the greatest lawyers and statesmen that North Carolina has produced, he chose law as the field for his life work. After graduating at the head of his class at the University of North Carolina he taught school awhile and returned to the University for the study of law. He obtained his license in 1891 and practiced law while in the office of F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh. He then went to New York City and was associated there with two of the greatest lawyers of the last half century, William M. Everett and Joseph Choate. Later he became assistant editor-in-chief of the American and English Encyclopedia of Law. For six years he was professor of law in the law school of the University. By his students here he was considered possessed with a really great legal mind. He returned to the practice of the law in New York City last year. Besides editing the American and English Encyclopedia of Law, Mr. McGee is the author of "Due Process of Law" which is quoted in high places beyond the borders of this State. Mr. McGee returns this year to his native State to be dean of a law school that has long been producing the greatest lawyers of North Carolina.

Baseball prospects received a severe setback the other day when that mighty slab artist, Hearn, severed his connection with the University. Coach Lawson gave it as his opinion that Hearn with careful training would have developed into the greatest college pitcher in the South. The students, though greatly shocked by the news, have become reconciled to the inevitable and now place their hopes in the husky southpaw Hedgepeth, and the peerless Stewart.

Prof. Wm. Cain, of the department of mathematics, has during the last year issued from the press several books on mathematics. Some of his books have gone through five and six editions. These books have received the recognition of universities and the approval of civil engineers. That engineering genius who drew the plans for the Brooklyn bridge acknowledged the use of Cain's treatise on "Stress and Strain" in making the calculations for the construction of that wonderful bridge.

MINISTER ASSAULTED.

Rev. Jesse McCarter, of Farmville, Roughly Handled.

We learn that on Saturday morning Rev. Jesse McCarter, pastor of the Baptist church at Farmville, was assaulted on the street of that town by Messrs. S. M. Pollard and J. A. Burnett, both his assailants striking him one blow each.

The cause of the attack is said to be an item in a letter which Mr. McCarter, our Farmville correspondent, wrote The Reflector last Friday, in which it was stated that neither of the drug stores of that town had a registered pharmacist, but are owned and managed by ex-saloon keepers.

Our informant of the trouble says that Mr. Pollard met Mr. McCarter on the street and asked him to retract the statement, which the latter replied could not be retracted as it was true. Mr. Pollard thereupon struck the minister in the face, knocking him down, and as he got up from the ground Mr. Burnett, who had come up in the meantime, also struck Mr. McCarter a blow on the head.

Warrants were issued by the mayor of Farmville against both the assailants of the minister, and the trial is expected to take place Tuesday.

Stokes County's Fine Mules.

Stokes is said by horse traders to be the home of the finest mules of any county anywhere. This is doubtless true. There is a rage among farmers for the best they can buy. They want only big, slick ones that cost from $200 to $350, and there are many of this kind on farms of the county. A look at the animals tethered to fences, saplings and stumps at any public country gathering will often cause one to wonder if the occasion is not a stock fair rather than a religious gathering or a farmers' union meeting.—Danbury Reporter.

The next step will be Washington's birthday.

Senator Heyburn must feel exceedingly lonesome.

Greenville must not get at the stand still stage. Keep the town moving ahead.

Those who put off paying their Christmas bills until now, are dodging behind the Lent excuse.

The present administration thinks the whitewash brush is preferable to the big stick of its predecessor.

While many people are observing Lent, Satan is as busy as ever. He never takes a rest spell and always finds plenty of helpers.

Either land must be very low in Texas or whiskey very high, for the fellow who gave 100,000 acres of land for the same number of gallons of whiskey to have made a profitable trade.

In former years New Bern held very interesting mid-winter fairs. A movement has started in that city to revive the annual fair, and we would like very much to see it succeed.

The New Bern Sun says "There are some people in this town that the town could get on very well without." Quite true, but if you banish all who somebody else says ought to go, there would be nobody left.

A member of the Maryland legislature is hunting trouble. He has introduced a bill intending to prohibit women wearing hats of a larger diameter than ten inches. Of course the bill will not pass, but the way the women will turn up their pretty noses at him will be enough to make his life miserable.

You Cannot Get Something for Nothing

Did you ever see one of those darkies who when he went to do a hard job would play a little on one side of it and then fool a little on the other side, doing this and that and the other, and concerned chiefly with keeping out of the real work just as long as possible? If you have, you know how much he is really worth when downright hard labor is demanded.

Well, we have often seen farmers who seemed to us to think just like such darkies work. They would wonder and debate over and plan for a peanut or a potato patch, but they never did a good half hour's really honest, concentrated thinking about their farming as a whole—never considered the various lines of work in relation to each other or to their own substantial and permanent welfare. They farmed without plan or system, with no definite goal in view and, therefore, no certain course in any direction.

To succeed at farming a farmer has got to think, honestly, earnestly, persistently and bravely. He must, when he finds a problem that needs solving, put his mind to work on it and keep it there until he has mastered it, just as he puts his team into a field and keeps it there until the field is plowed. The man who is afraid to work his brain a little must expect to do a lot of work with his muscles for which he will get very little pay.—Raleigh (N. C.) Progressive Farmer and Gazette.

A Republican in Virginia is contesting the seat of his successful Democratic opponent on the grounds that one of the candidates against him, and who split the vote, was a crazy man. Yet that being true then those who voted for such a man must have been crazy and their votes shouldn't have counted anyway. So where's the getting off place for the desirous and anxious brother?—Wilmington Dispatch.

Reliability is a newspaper's first duty to the people. To be reliable a paper must be fair. The most degrading sin of which a newspaper can be guilty is that of trying to fool its constituency. "Hitch your wagon to a star," if you must, but don't try to make the people believe you are carrying the star in your wagon—Webster's Weekly.
