GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY AFTERNOON, FEBRUARY 25, 1910.

AT WELDON AND RICH SQUARE.

Prof. Ragsdale Speaks to the Teachers of Halifax and Northampton Counties.

County Superintendent W. H. Ragsdale addressed the teachers of Halifax county, at Weldon, on Friday 18th, and of him the Weldon News says:

"At the evening session Dr. Harrison introduced Supt. Ragsdale, of Greenville, who made a fine address on 'teacher training,' and told of the advantages the State of North Carolina was offering to the teachers in order that they may know the subject matter of what they undertake to teach. He emphasized the great need of a thorough training of teachers and said that the East Carolina Training School offered them advantages without cost and without price. That a teacher could enter at any time after March 15th, or in May, and that the only cost would be for board and incidental expenses not exceeding $2.50 per month, and urged upon the teachers to take advantage of these great opportunities.

"Anybody," he said, "can keep a school, but it takes a teacher to teach a school."

Of his speech at Rich Square, The Times, of that town, says:

"Supt. W. H. Ragsdale of Pitt county, followed Mr. Brogden speaking on 'Needs of The Teacher.' He emphasized the fact that there is a growing demand from North Carolina for the better training and equipment of her teachers. He stated that out of 7000 teachers in North Carolina only 600 had college training, and a smaller number than this had had efficient normal training. He predicted that salaries would be lowered instead of raised if this condition continued, and urged the teachers to prepare themselves to do better work.

"Mr. Ragsdale is earnest, frank and sympathetic in his manner and held the attention of the association from start to finish. Such a favorable impression did he make that were it not for the fact that Northampton has one of the best, kindest, and most conscientious superintendents in the State, the association would be tempted to desert in a body and go to Pitt county!"

Where Officers May be Found.

Sheriff L. W. Tucker has obtained temporary quarters in office of the city clerk on Fifth street. Persons can call on him there to pay their taxes or for any other business connected with the sheriff's office.

Superintendent Ragsdale has secured a room over the store of Frank Wilson to be used as an office for himself and the Board of Education. Entrance is by the stairway on Fourth street.

Superior Court Clerk Moore can be found temporarily in a room in the rear of the Greenville Banking & Trust Co., where those having business with him can call.

Register of Deeds Moore has not yet secured temporary quarters, but will have a place soon.

Helped Out Communication.

The fire Wednesday night so damaged the cable of the Western Union Telegraph Co., that not one of the company's lines out of Greenville could be used that day. The Home Telephone and Telegraph Co. kindly came to the rescue of the Western Union by furnishing a long distance wire to Washington via which point telegrams were handled without delay.

A. & M. COLLEGE NOTES.

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 24.—The executive committee of the board of trustees was in session recently. Besides ordering a general vaccination of the students, several other important matters were discussed among them being the new engineering and chemical building. This is a much needed building and the committee did well in considering its early erection. The contract will be let in the near future.

Tuesday, Feb. 22, being Washington's birthday a suspension of all schedule duties was made. This is also an important day in eyes of the athletes for other reasons, for beginning then the base ball and track teams are excused from drill. This gives unbroken daily practice. Captains Sexton and Sherman are quite busy getting the men in shape for the early contests of the season. A full schedule for both teams will be published in a few days.

While basket ball is not much encouraged, several who are interested in the game are working diligently trying to get out a winning team. The basket ball team is not excused from drill.

An interesting event was the cross-country run by members of the track team last Saturday Feb. 19. The race was about three and a half miles to Method and return. R. K. Babbington won first: 18 minutes and 11 seconds, while Trots followed a close second and Eason an easy third. About twelve men entered the race. Five prizes were given.

The third entertainment in the college lyceum course was given in Pullen Hall Saturday night. It was of the slight of hand type and generally liked by the boys.

R. W. Scott, a member of the State Board of Agriculture, recently addressed the winter course students. He emphasized the great opportunities which the course offers and how much the state is expecting from its members. It is very gratifying to know that the work course is not a failure but a great success.

This year's winter course is the largest in the history of the college and undoubtedly the course of instruction has been the best. Recently I. B. Parker, W. A. Simpkins and Clarence H. Poe have made valuable addresses to the class, as has Dr. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health.

New North Carolina Industries.

For the week ending 23rd, the Chattanooga Tradesman reports the following new industries in North Carolina:

Brevard—$50,000 light and power company.

Charlotte—$125,000 lumber company, $125,000 realty company.

Rutherfordton—$100,000 traction company.

Durham—$50,000 hosiery mill.

Wilson—$50,000 construction company.

High Point—$250,000 cotton mill.

Consolidated Records Secure.

The safe of the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Co., whose offices in the Shelburn building were burned, was pulled out and opened this morning. The books and records of the company were found to be in good condition. The loss the company sustained in office furniture, etc., was covered by insurance.

LOSSES AND INSURANCE.

Impossible to Give Accurate List From Recent Fire.

The Reflector stated in its account of Wednesday night's fire that it would later give a detailed list of the insurance, but after several efforts to get the accurate figures we find it impossible to do so. Going more carefully over the losses, it is now estimated that $125,000 will probably cover the total, while the total amount of insurance on these losses is only about $42,000. The amount of insurance was small from the fact that the risk being great, in the territory where the fire occurred the rate was so high that not much insurance was carried.

Some other individual losers not mentioned in our first report are given below.

Superior Court Clerk D. C. Moore lost personal effects in the court house to the value of $125 and had no insurance.

Justice C. D. Rountree, whose office was in Masonic Temple, lost his books and records, worth $75, and had no insurance.

F. J. Forbes lost part of his automobile that was in the old Flanagan building for painting, but this is covered by insurance. C. T. Munford sustained damage to buildings, insured.

County Board of Education and Superintendent Ragsdale lost nearly all in their office with $100 insurance.

York & Cobb lost their office equipment with $200 insurance. Dr. L. C. Skinner sustained damage to building, insured.

J. O. Proctor & Bro., damage to buildings, insured.

Home Telephone & Telegraph Co., damaged about $500, insured.

J. C. Lanier damage to mobile stock, insured.

J. G. Moye, damage to building and furniture, insured.

F. G. James & Son, Julius Brown, Dr. William Fountain and D. M. Clark all sustained damage to their office equipments, and all had insurance.

J. H. Starkey and W. L. Best sustained damage in moving stock.

The county had about $12,500 insurance on the court house and jail about one third of the loss.

J. W. Rice and J. C. Albritton, who occupied the old Blow house, had their furniture badly damaged.

There were some other small losses of which we have not yet been able to get information.

Telephone Service by Monday.

A crew is busy at work on the telephone cables and wires that were put out of commission by the fire, and it is hoped to have service restored by Monday. The fire being right in front of telephone exchange burned all the wires in two which destroyed the central connection with every phone in town. Material was shipped by express and everything is being done to restore service as quickly as possible.

To the Public.

Having lost my office by fire, notice is hereby given that I can be found for the present at the office of W. F. Evans on Third street in front of R. L. Smith's stables. C. D. Rountree. 226

Telegraph Lines Restored.

Lineman Riggan came in Thursday evening to repair the fire damage to the Western Union cable. The lines are now working all right.

GREENVILLE'S BIG LOSS.

Suggestion for a Court House Square and Park.

The people of the State will sympathize with the people of Greenville in the big losses sustained by fire yesterday morning. The burning of the county court house and the Masonic Temple removes two of the best buildings in the county. It is to be hoped that both were well insured. Pitt county will build a handsome court house, and should have more ground about it so as to have it immune from fire originating in nearby buildings. It would be a grand thing for the commissioners to buy the whole square upon which the court house is situated and have a good park surrounding it in the center of the town. Greenville will grow into a big town and the county fathers should provide a good breathing place in the heart of the town now when a disastrous fire compels a new departure.—Raleigh News and Observer.

We had just such a suggestion as the above in mind, even if the News and Observer did get ahead in mentioning it. Something along that line is just what ought to be done. The county is able to have a large court square and to erect a handsome building, and The Reflector hopes this will be the outcome.

The vault of the register of deeds office was opened today and the records in that were also found to have passed through the fire safely.

Some After Fire Notes.

A horse and a goat were burned to death in the stable of Sam Short.

Several people are wearing sore hands that were cut or burned while fighting the fire.

Bad as the weather is, many people have been coming in from the country to look over the scene.

It is an opportune time to talk fire insurance.

To show how near some people are to being safe and then miss, one man who lost by the fire was solicited to take a policy the afternoon before, but took until the next day to think over it.

Mr. S. J. Everett, who recently moved here from Williamston, had just placed his law library in his office in Masonic Temple building the day before the fire, and lost most of it without any insurance.

The burned out lawyers are hunting offices.

L. H. Pender, J. M. Reuss, L. W. Tucker and Walter Tucker had a narrow escape with their lives. They were up in the lodge rooms on third floor of Masonic Temple trying to get the lodge charters and valuable records, and the fire crowded them so there was barely time to get out.

To Subscribers of Public Library.

Please return the books you have which belong to the library to me at my residence on Wednesday afternoon, March 2nd, at three o'clock.

Until the books which were not destroyed (about thirty of the newest books) have been read by all the subscribers they may be exchanged regularly every Wednesday at three o'clock at my residence.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

Miss Maud Lee left Thursday afternoon for Dunn.

N. G. White of Greensboro, came in this morning.

Miss Susie Keel, of Rocky Mount, is visiting Mrs. J. G. Moye.

Mr. Wendt, superintendent at the Cabinet Veneer Co., went to Norfolk today.

General Superintendent, F. C. Toepelman came down from Henderson, Thursday, to look after the damage to telephone lines by the fire.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Walking was bad today.

Red Men meet tonight.

There was snow enough to cover the ground this time.

First rain, then sleet, and the snow made a combination hard to walk on.

The many congratulations that come to The Reflector on its escape from the fire have been very gratifying, in that they show the interest of a host of friends.

Taxed $5,000.

The monthly meeting of the aldermen held Monday night was the most largely attended session ever held by that body. The room was filled with citizens on business, most of them interested in doing something that would head off a movement to set up a locker club here. Headed by every minister in town and speaking through Dr. Leonard, a number of citizens asked that the aldermen pass some measure that would nip the club in the bud, now and forever. Lawyers J. R. McCrary and Z. I. Walser discussed the law, which is not what might be called plain on the subject, and finally the board adopted an ordinance placing a tax of $5,000 per annum on locker clubs. Violations are punishable by a term of 30 days in prison. The measure first placed the tax at $3,000, but this was increased after discussion.—Lexington Dispatch.

Honor Roll.

The following is the honor roll of Utopia graded school, Standard, for the fourth month: George Allen, Roy Worthington, Clara Nobles, Verna Hemby, Mildred McArthur, Daniel Lee Braxton, Joe Jones, Heber Aller, Lydia Tyson, Vivian Case, Isabelle Worthington, Alma Worthington, Herman Cobb, Maybelle Hemby, Bertha Wiloughby, Ellen Avery and Charlie McArthur.

The Suckers Still Biting.

A sharper has been going over this county taking orders for $5 worth of sugar at the rate 18 pounds to the dollar and throwing in a five dollar rocking chair. The money is collected with the order and promise made to ship the sugar and chair at once. Several orders were taken about three weeks ago, but no sugar and chair have yet come.—Newton Enterprise.

Press Broke.

While printing the first side of this isue of The Reflector an accident to the press broke several teeth on a small cog wheel, and waiting for the damage to be remedied caused the delay in the paper in getting to the readers. We regret this, but accidents will happen some time.

Reported for Reflector: A number of the young ladies of Greenville met at the home of Miss Helen Forbes Wednesday afternoon to organize the Wednesday Afternoon Club, the object being to bring the young ladies of the town more closely together and to encourage their taste for domestic arts.

After an hour pleasantly spent embroidering, the hostess brought in a chafing dish and each displayed her skill in the culinary department.

The members are Misses Mary James, Mary Higgs, Glenn Forbes, Rebecca Knight, Lizzie Higgs, Helen Forbes, Frances Bagwell, Vernessa Smith, Henrie Ragsdale and Lucille Sheridan.

Commissioner N. T. Cox Dead.

Mr. N. T. Cox, a member of the Board of County Commissioners, died of pneumonia, Thursday night, at his home near Shelderville. He was about 60 years old and one of the county's best men. This is the second death to occur among the commissioners since the last election.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of returning thanks to the firemen, citizens and every friend who rendered such valuable service in saving our home from destruction Wednesday night. We appreciate what was done far more than can be expressed.

FRIDAY, FEB 25, 1910

Two other serious losses to Greenville by the fire are the public library and rest room.

It is bad to sustain loss by fire, yet it helps a man not to be discouraged, but do his best to overcome it.

The fact has once more been demonstrated that Greenville needs a more effective fire alarm system than word of mouth and shooting fire arms.

When the Board of County Commissioners set to work to get a new court house, we hope they will decide to erect a handsome up-to-date building.

If anybody feels disposed to take advantage of Pitt county not having a jail, let him bear in mind Greenville has a guard house that will hold several offenders.

It is enough to make the heart sick to look at the pile of, smoking debris upon the site where stood the handsome Masonic Temple and think there is a likelihood of its not being rebuilt. Three things this building afforded are a distinct public loss - the home of the three fraternal organizations, the public library and the opera house. The latter had the reputation of being the best in the State for a town the size of Greenville.

Since the above was put in type, Capt. R. Williams, Greenville's leading Mason, tells us he thinks the Masons will take immediate steps to rebuild, though on a different plan. The purpose is to have a lodge and office building without an opera house.

Have you noticed how large a number of persons with whom you stop to have a little chat, speak of the dark blotches of human nature in the life of someone? We will not except the person of the highest moral standing in the community. Nine out of every ten persons in a ten minutes talk will bring up the defects in some one's life, and on out of a hundred may possibly startle you by speaking only of the good that may be found in most every individual. There is no life without its defects, neither without its excellencies, and what a different coloring it would give to humanity if the rule was reversed to what it is. And, reader, it rests with you and us to start the reform, and with such a good start as we may be able to give it, we are sure it will be contagious if we persevere. For when neighbors speak naught of ill and only laud the good that is in us we will not be far from that glorious period denominated the milenium. —Durham Sun.

The Wilmington Star, commenting on the suggestion of this paper that ten men on a jury be allowed to render a verdict, says The Record is wasting its time. We said as much at the time, but why not "give 'em a piece of your mind?" It is a kind of escape valve when one is not permitted to cuss. The Star suggests that the law be changed so as to permit the selection of a more intelligent jury, all of which is timely and to the point, but quite often a fool gets on a jury in spite of everything; the attorneys do not know him, perhaps, and he holds up the other eleven men. However, The Star's advice will not be taken any sooner than that given by The Record. To adopt either might interfere with the work to be done by the lawyers. Every time a case has to be tried the second or third time there is more money in it. —Greensboro Record.

Attorney General Bickett has passed upon a question of no little importance, as it involves the matter of taxation of church property. This case came up from Newbern and the attorney general gives his opinion that real estate owned by a church and rented, the rents being applied exclusively to religious and charitable uses, is exempt from taxation.

DO IT NOW
Greenville People Should Not Wait Until it is Too Late.

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, or palsy, Bright's disease, gravel or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.
Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them.
Here is one of many cases in this vicinity.
Romulus S. Butler, 219 Harvey St., Washington, N. C. says: "I am well pleased with the results that followed the use of Doan's Kidney Pills in my case and can highly recommend them to other kidney sufferers. I was subject to dull pains in my back, accompanied by sharp twinges through my loins for some time. Doan's Kidney Pills removed my trouble and benefited me in every way."

Damascus of Marvelous View. The view of Damascus from the mountain where Mohammed made his great renunciation is one of the marvelous views of the world. Again and again I deserted the mosques, the bazars, the marble baths, the courts of the fountains, the shadowy khans and the gardens by the streams for that bare height on which Abraham is said to have had the unity of God revealed to him.—Robert Hichens in Century.

Imitation. "Why, Gladys, you are spolling your dolly."

"No, mamma; I am painting its cheeks with the same color that you use."—Judge.

An aspiration is joy forever, a possession as solid as a landed estate.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Mrs. Kate Hall says: "I have, kept house 15 years, am the mother of four children, and I would not keep house without Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea." Wise woman, why? Drives away sickness, brings health and happiness to the whole family. It's the world's health preserver. Jno. L. Wooten.

Partial Forgiveness.

A farmer, believing himself to be dying, sent for a clergyman and somewhat shocked that good man by the offhand, easy way in which he announced his fitness to die. Pressed upon certain topics, particularly upon the question of forgiveness to his enemies, he said he forgave everybody who had injured him, "except Johnny Smith."

John had played him such a trick about the sale of a certain cow that the farmer declared nothing should make him forgive him. Impressed by the exhortations of the clergyman and moved by fear of the consequences of dying unforgiving and unforgiven, he turned to the minister and said, with an air of satisfaction at having hit off a solution of the difficulty: "All right. Jest as you say. If I die I forgive him, but if I live, by jiminy, he'd better look out!"

Not the Place For It.

He was writing the libretto for a comic opera. Suddenly he smiled. He had stumbled on a brand new joke.

He was a student of jokes, a collector, a reviser, an adapter, a fadist. He subjected the joke to every known test.

Finally he gave it the third degree. There was no longer any doubt of its originality.

He read his manuscript over carefully and, sighing heavily, stared at the joke.

He realized there was no place for it in the libretto. So he left it out and went on writing.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Presidential Succession.

In case of the removal, death or resignation or inability of both the president and vice president then the secretary of state shall act as president until the disability of the president or vice president is removed or a president is elected. The rest of the order of succession is secretary of the treasury, secretary of war, attorney general, postmaster general, secretary of the interior, secretary of agriculture and secretary of commerce and labor. The acting president in case congress is not in session must call a special session, giving twenty days' notice. —New York American.

The sorrow of yesterday is as nothing, that of today is bearable, but that of tomorrow is gigantic because indistinct.—Euripides.
