HAPPENINGS WITHIN THE OLD NORTH STATE GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES TODAY

Newly Items of Interest Condensed for Busy Readers.

Mr. A. Strickland, of Scotland Neck, is a stronger believer in dreams now than ever before. Some weeks ago there was stolen from his smoke house about 150 pounds of nice hams. He says that he prayed over the matter and followed every clue he could get but made no headway toward recovering the meat or capturing the thief. Finally he had a dream one night in which he was shown the meat and the party who stole it. The vision of this dream would not leave him until the next evening in company with officer G. H. Johnson, he followed up and found some of his meat, arrested Peter Williams, who was bound over to court and is now in jail, failing to give bond, awaiting a final hearing before the Superior court. The man in whose house the meat was found has left for parts unknown and so it looks as if there is right much truth in the dream.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Former President Theodore Roosevelt has accepted an invitation to make an address here some time in October. He will speak under the auspices of the Uncle Remus Memorial Association. In a letter from Paris, Colonel Roosevelt says he will be accompanied here by Mrs. Roosevelt and daughter, Miss Ethel.—Concord Tribune.

Charlotte, N. C., May 3.—The board of aldermen of the city of Charlotte literally dumped $25,000 into a hole in the ground Monday night when they voted to expend that amount to have filled what is known as "the old rocky quarry hole," a gigantic chasm in the center of the city, from which rock for street macadamizing has been blasted for a score of years until the hole got so deep that further progress was impracticable. This hole has been the ghost which has troubled and frightened many administrations and Monday night's action will be a relief to the city, to the authorities and to many people who live in the vicinity of the old hole, which has been the cause of many near-law suits in the past. The filling of the hole will be accomplished by contractors and a formal call for bids will likely be made, after which the contract will be let and the work started. It will require many weeks to complete the job. The hole at present is about sixty feet deep and 150 by 200 feet across at the top. The rock which has been removed by blasting now covers practically every street and by way in the city except a relatively small section, which has been otherwise paved.

Raleigh, May 6.—The reports of the recent inspection of the companies composing the North Carolina national guard by the State and the United States army inspectors are nearly all in the office of the adjutant general here now and the showings made are generally very good.

Washington, N. C., May 4.—News reached this city this morning of the burning of the Washington and Vandemere railroad depot, at the town of Aurora, last night, between eight and nine o'clock. When discovered the entire roof of the building was on fire, and in spite

KING EDWARD SUFFERS LOSS.

House Struck by Lightning, Building and Contents Destroyed.

Hanrahan, N. C., May 4.—This morning about 8 o'clock during a severe electric storm, lightning struck and fired a tenant house about one mile from here on W. C. McLawhorn's place. The house was occupied by King Edward, an industrious colored man. His whole family were in the house at the time and were so shocked that the building and all of their possessions went up in flames before they recovered sufficiently to do any thing except to barely escape with their lives. None of them were seriously injured. King Edward and his family are honest, hard working people and deserve to be helped in their hour of distress. Any aid that may be tendered them from whatever source will be greatly appreciated, not only by them but by their white friends in the community.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, on the morning of April 28th, Brother S. C. Wooten was found dead in his room, and whereas, it has pleased an all-wise Father to remove Brother Wooten from this world, be it resolved by Covenant Lodge No. 17, I. O. O. F:

1st. That in the death of Brother Wooten we have lost a brother who practiced the principles of friendship, love and truth as taught by our beloved order, and that in our conventions he will be missed but not forgotten.

2nd. That we extend to the family of Brother Wooten our heartfelt sympathy in this their time of bereavement, and we commend them to Him who is all merciful, kind and loving.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy sent to the family and a copy sent to The Reflector for publication.

of heroic efforts on the part of the citizens, the entire freight and passenger depot was totally destroyed, as well as about fifty yards of trackage. The loss is estimated at between six and seven thousand dollars. The cause of the fire is unknown. Rats are believed to be the cause.

Spencer, May 4.—The board of aldermen of East Spencer is up in arms against near beer and at a meeting last night placed the license tax at $2,000 per annum. This was an increase from $25.

Raleigh, May 4.—Deputy United States Marshal Ripton W. Ward has gone to Atlanta to commit J. R. B. Carraway to the federal penitentiary to serve his five years for false entries and other acts through which, as cashier, he embezzled $110,000 from a New Bern bank. During the two days that the defaulting cashier spent in the Wake county jail here awaiting the trip to Atlanta he expressed an eager desire to begin the actual service of the sentence, saying he wants to be rid of the whole affair just as quickly as possible. He says he wanted to submit to the charges of which he was finally convicted a year or more ago. Therefore, considers that he has lost all this time that he might have been serving on the sentence.

Don't forget that Sunday will be a rally day with Memorial Baptist Sunday school.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsp. Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told

Ayden, N. C., May 5. Rev. R. C. Deal, of Kinston, will preach in the Christian church tonight.

J. S. Hart, better known as "Uncle Jack," is right sick at his home on West avenue.

Jesse Coward spent Wednesday at his old home in Lenoir county.

J. R. Smith Co. has purchased the interest of Dr. Joseph Dixon in the old Ayden Milling and Manufacturing Co. property and will begin at once to improve the property and build up the different lines of goods which they carry and manufacture.

At the convention of our citizens Friday night the old mayor and commissioners were nominated, and were elected Monday without opposition. They served the town well the last year making many needed improvements, and as they now have the experience they will do even better for us this year.

Mrs. C. M. Tucker, of Whitakers, and Mrs. H. C. Ormond spent Thursday with their sister, Mrs. A. McCullen.

E. H. Ange, of Jameville, has taken a position with J. R. Smith Co.

George Worthington has a little son at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Glenn, who have been on an extended visit to their former home at Stonewall, have returned to Ayden and will begin at once to advertise his tobacco warehouse, "Old Glenn is a hustler."

Rev. D. W. Arnold, of Greenville, preached a special sermon to the Odd Fellows in the Christian church last Sunday.

Dr. Smith, Hawks specialist, was with J. R. Smith Co. Monday and Tuesday and did a good business, but we have plenty of those same good eye glasses and will be glad to wait on you. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Ayden graded school will close Monday night, May 9th, with an address by Prof. A. J. Barwick, of Raleigh.

Exhibit at Colored Graded School.

Within the past few weeks quite a number of people have expressed a desire to visit the colored graded school and see something of the work being done there. Friday afternoon at four o'clock the teachers of the school will have on exhibition some of the work and the white people are invited to go out and see it.

This year we have done quite a good deal of work in sewing and cooking. The school is equipped with a sewing machine, a cook stove and the necessary utensils for elementary work in these subjects. While the trouble we have had with small pox has interfered considerably with our plans, we have been able to get a very creditable amount of work done, and we shall be pleased to have the people go out and inspect it.

H. B. Smith,
Supt. Schools.

Kimona and Shirt Waist Sale.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will hold their kimona and shirt waist on next Monday, May 9th. The sale will be open morning, afternoon and evening. They will have many handsome articles on display and refreshments will also be sold. 55

Preparations are well on the way for the old soldiers' reunion on the 10th.

GREAT COUNCIL OF RED MEN.

Meeting Next Year Will be at Elizabeth City.

Concord, May 4.—The Great Council of the Improved Order of Red Men, which has been in session here this week, has completed the most important work of the council, and after a short session tomorrow morning, the meeting will adjourn.

The delegates are being entertained tonight at a social session by the local lodge, after which a grand torchlight parade will take place over the principal streets of the city with about two hundred Red Men in line.

A resolution was passed at the meeting tonight to increase the per capita tax in order to put an organizer in the field and do other important work, making enough funds available to successfully complete the proposed work.

Representatives from Edenton and Elizabeth City extended an invitation to the order for the next meeting of the Great Council. On a vote of the delegates Elizabeth City was chosen as the place for the next meeting, which will be held the fourth Wednesday, in May 1911.

The election of the great chiefs of the great council of North Carolina resulted as follows:

Great Sachem—William L. Stamey, of High Point.

Great Senior Sagamore—William J. Leary, of Edenton.

Great Junior Sagamore—Capt. J. R. Anderson, of Charlotte.

Great Prophet—Sam T. White, of Greenville.

Great Representatives to the great council of the United States—Sam T. White, Greenville; E. A. Ebert, Winston-Salem; Benjamin W. Taylor Washington.

WOODLAND ITEMS.

Woodland, N. C., May 4, 1910.—

Miss Bertha Jones, of Ayden, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Nina Smith.

Mrs. J. L. Nobles went to Kinston one day last week.

J. Hardee spent Saturday night and Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. J. R. May.

J. L. Nobles went to Kinston today.

J. L. Baker, of Greenville, spent Sunday out here among his old friends.

Mrs. S. M. Manning, who is spending some time with us, has been very ill but is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gardner spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Gardner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John May.

John B. Garris and daughter, and Miss Cox, of Cox Mills, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his brother, N. Garris.

To all who it may concern: The Sunday school at Glendale school house will be in the morning on next Sunday at 7.15 o'clock. L. L. Nobles, Supt.

May brings on some warm weather. The farmers are glad to see it.

Inter Denominational Sunday School.

Mr. J. Van Carter, general secretary of the North Carolina Sunday School Association, is here in the interest of the work. A meeting of Sunday school workers will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the parlors of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, with a view organizing Pitt county in this work. All interested in Sunday school work are invited to be at this meeting tonight. The work is interdenominational.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

K. W. Cobb spent today in Bethel.

J. L. Wooten went to Hassell this morning.

J. S. Stump went to Scotland Neck this morning.

C. L. Wilkinson spent a part of Wednesday in Kinston.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Whedbee is critically ill.

Miss Julia Smith, of Ayden, spent Wednesday here with Miss Mary Kittrell.

Mrs. J. B. Johnson and little son returned Thursday afternoon from Ayden.

Mrs. James Long went to Scotland Neck Wednesday afternoon to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cobb went to Scotland Neck today to visit their daughter, Mrs. Albion Dunn.

B. B. Sugg, and his younger brother, Julius, left Wednesday evening for Ithica, N. Y., where the latter will enter school.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Knights of Pythias meet tonight.

The board of aldermen meet tonight.

The county commissioners will hold an adjourned meeting tomorrow.

The Embroidery Club will meet with Miss Nellie Pender Friday afternoon.

Pupils of the training school are rehearsing an operetta to be presented next Monday night.

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold prayer meeting at the church Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. All ladies invited.

Common 'Taters.

One morning a popular young minister was presenting his view upon an important subject under discussion, says the National Monthly, and insisting that he held certain things to be true, the commentators notwithstanding. He contended "I hold this to be true even though the commentators disagree with me—and again—I say even though the commentators disagree with me." At this point an old lady was seen to leave the church. On his way home from the service the minister was met by this old lady bearing a basket. She stopped and handed it to him saying, "Dear Brother, I heered you say the common-taters disagreed with you so I've brought you a basket of Virginia yams." —Ex.

Weather.

Fair tonight, Friday fair, slightly warmer in western portion, light to moderate northeast winds.

May 5 in American History.

1812—The British captured Oswego, N. Y.

1861—A day of battles. The Army of the Potomac opened the attack at the Wilderness; Sherman fought Johnston at Rocky Face Ridge, Ga.; Sheridan's troopers encountered Stuart's at Craig's Church, Va., and Kautz's raiders met the Confederates near Suffolk; the Confederate ram Albemarle was repulsed in Roanoke river, and Commodore Porter's Red river squadron fought at Dunn's Bayou, La.

1904—The canal zone formally ceded to the United States.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.) Sun sets 6:56, rises 4:48; moon rises 3:38 a. m.; 3:35 p. m.; moon in conjunction with Venus, passing from west to east of the planet, 4 degrees south thereof; planet Mercury visible; 11 p. m., eastern time, all Jupiter's four outer satellites closely grouped about the planet; 2:38 a. m., Halley's comet rises.

Trade Report.

Richmond, Va., May 5.—Bradstreet's Saturday will say for Richmond and vicinity:

Trade conditions generally are about as reported last week, as a whole weather conditions have been unfavorable for active trading and practically all crops are backward principally on account of cool weather. Dry goods are quiet. Wholesalers of shoes and rubber goods report favorable trade conditions and fair orders for fall shipments. Produce is fairly plentiful and in good demand. Tobacco manufacturers are especially active, some houses report the largest trade in their history. Drugs are active. Retail trade is quiet and collections are slow.

Drum Corps Disbanded.

The J. Bryan Grimes Drum Corps was disbanded at the Monday night drill meeting. This news is received with much regret from many, for there was a great deal expected of it at the tenth of May celebration and it is now too late to reorganize and drill sufficiently to do duty on that occasion. Indifference among the members is the cause of the corps disbanding. Major J. R. Rives says he wishes to thank the people of Greenville for their help and encouragement during his term as major.

Happened Near Depot.

The row between colored women, in which one was badly cut, mentioned in The Reflector a few days ago, occurred near one of the depots instead of in Tempy Yellowley's restaurant as stated.

The Emerald.

Emeralds from India, Persia and Peru are the most valuable. According to their tints and their luster, they are classed as prosines, meronians and domitians. According to Suetonius, Nero used to look at the fighting gladiators in his emerald. The stone is the emblem of charity, hope, joy and abundance. It had the reputation in olden times of curing epilepsy by application and of being an all round pain killer.

THURSDAY, MAY 5, 1910.

If this is the proverbial cold spell in May it comes early in the month.

Yes, living is high, but most of us manage to keep staying here somehow.

The business man who forgets his advertising, is forgetting the best aid to his business.

After what happened in Raleigh, it will not be consistent to talk about other folks.

Durham aldermen recently adopted some Sunday blue laws, but after a few weeks' trial repealed them.

North Carolina is going to lose another good one in the departure of Editor Gray, of the Wilmington Star, for Richmond.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson gives out the word that muskrat meat is good. Excuse us, please, the name is enough.

The Roanoke News of Weldon is forty four years old. Quite a remarkable age for a North Carolina newspaper. The News ranks high in the list of weekly newspapers and makes its presence felt in the State.

Lord Kitchener is being quoted as having declared that New York girls are the prettiest he has ever seen.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Which means that Lord Kitchener has never been in Greenville.

Up to this time we have refrained from joining the general chorus, but now we feel safe in saying that it is time to take them off.—Greensboro News.

Guess you changed your mind when you saw this cold spell in May, didn't you?

The other boys had just as well pass the weather medal on down this way. We said stick to 'em until after the cold spell in May, and that is just what we are doing. Even after giving us a "permit" to hold on, the Greensboro News took 'em off the first of May, but is now repenting its rashness.

Politics vs. Business.

In commenting on the fact that Chester, S. C., has an expense account of approximately sixty thousand dollars a year The Chester Lantern says: "No other business in Chester has an expense account of half this size, yet when it comes to selecting the men who shall manage this large business we are collectively and individually apparently as indifferent as if it was a matter of spending thirty cents." The same might be said of nearly every other municipal corporation in the country. People will vote for men to control the finances of their town whom they would not think of entrusting with their individual business. Politics, and nothing but politics, is usually thought of where good government and economical administration should be the chief considerations. No wonder many cities are burdened with heavy bonded debts, which consume in interest thousands of dollars annually that should be expended on improvements and extension of public utilities. The people are beginning to awaken, and it is this awakening which is popularizing the new form of government by commission. They are finding out that there is too much politics and not enough business in the management of municipal affairs under the present system.—Charlotte Observer.

We were a little surprised a few days ago to find $50 lying in the road beside the hedge at the corner of one of our prominent business farmer's homes, and the more so to find that it had lain there several months unmolested, but beginning to look much the worse for the exposure. The money was in the shape of farm tools which will have to be replaced by new ones before many years unless cared for better than that.—Gaffney, S. C., Ledger.

GOOD IN SPOTS.

One Man Who Discovered That War Was Not Wholly Bad.

Lem Jackson loved to loaf. He lived in the mountains not far from Greenville, Tenn., with his wife and a large brood of children. Lem had a "houn-dawg" that he set great store by, and he spent most of his time lounging in a runaway waiting to shoot a deer driven in by old Bose or sprawling on the bank of a stream fishing. In that way he was a good provider after a fashion, but not all the urging, scolding, nagging and broomsticking of his shrewish wife could drive him to work. Lem led the lazy life of a Rip Van Winkle until the outbreak of the civil war, and then he joined the Confederate army. At the end of six months Lem was shot through the right thigh, and it was long before he was able to limp out of the hospital and back to his regiment. In the second year he was shot in the left shoulder, and when he returned to duty his left hand was bent far back by a shortened tendon, but he was still able to raise his rifle. Early in the fourth year they got him again—a musket ball through the body—but he was back in the ranks long before the fighting was ended. Every one wondered at Lem's persistence in sticking to the terrible trade of war.

Dr. Girdner met Lem hobbling down the street in Greenville one morning in June, 1865, still pale and weak from his latest wound, his right leg short and wobbly, his left hand stiffly bent back.

"Glad to see you alive, Lem," said the doctor. "I suppose you're glad to be home again?"

"Waal," Lem admitted without enthusiasm, "I s'pose I had to git erlong home. Gin'ral Lee he surrendered us down to Appomattox, an' we all had to go home."

"But aren't you glad to be away from the dangers of war?"

"Why, doc, war hain't so bad," cried honest Lem—"war hain't so bad. There's lots of days when you don't have nothin' to do."—Harper's Weekly.

His Ambition.
The reader of plays sighed wearily.

"I started out in life," he said, "to make friends. See the result. In one year I have gained 2,000 bitter enemies, 7,000 associate enemies and 11,000 enemies by marriage. How many plays in the last bunch, John?"

"Two hundred an' twinty-nine, sor."

"Send 'em all back."

"But you haven't looked thim over, sor."

"Never mind that. I'm going to establish an enemy record if it takes every play in Christendom."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
