LIPSCOMB-JAMES.

Beautiful Early Morning Marriage in Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church.

The first of the series of June weddings which Greenville people are to see, took place in the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church at 8 o'clock this morning, when Miss Mary James became the bride of Mr. William T. Lipscomb, Jr.

A few minutes before the hour, Mendelssohn's wedding march being beautifully rendered by Miss Helen Forbes, the ushers, Messrs. Charlie James, J. Burt James, Burney Warren and John Shelburn, marched down the aisle. They were followed by the two dames of honor, Mrs. C. C. Skinner, of New York City, and Mrs. Wilkinson, of Raleigh. They wore white silk mull over blue and carried pink carnations. The two maids of honor, Miss Charlotte Fennell, of Wilmington and Miss Mary Goodwin, of Philadelphia, wore pink and carried white carnations. The four flower girls, Misses Ada James, Nell White, Francis Whedbee, and Ella Moseley Wilkinson, had meanwhile marched in and formed in front of the altar.

The bride came in on the arm of her father, Col. F. G. James; the groom entered from the pastor's study behind the altar, with his best man, Mr. Alexander L. Blow, Jr. The Reverend Mr. Oliver, of Florence, South Carolina, performed the ceremony assisted by the Reverend J. H. Shore, of the Methodist church here.

The bride wore a tan cloth going-away gown with hat and gloves to match. She carried a large bouquet of brides' roses and lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony, amid a shower of rice from friends, who had assembled at the depot, the couple left on the Atlantic Coast Line train for Lake Toxaway, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The affair was a formal early morning church marriage.

A very informal reception was given Tuesday night at the home of the bride's parents exclusively to out of town visitors, members of the bridal party, and relatives of the bride and groom elect. The bridal party repaired to the James residence after the rehearsal at 9:30 p. m. and late supper was served at 10:45. The bridal presents, of which there was a lavish perfusion, were on display in the drawing room.

The out of town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Skinner, of New York City; Rev. and Mrs. Oliver, of Florence, S. C.; Mrs. Wilkinson, of Raleigh; Miss Charlotte Fennell, of Wilmington; Miss Mary Goodwin, of Philadelphia; and Mr. Frank Skinner, of New York City.

Should Fix it Up.

One matter that should quickly be taken up by the incoming board of alderman is the condition of the terminal of Washington street, commonly known as Baptism Landing. This is the spot on the river bank used more than any other by rowing and launch parties, and others who go out upon the river, than anywhere except the regular oyster-boat landing. At present this is used as a dumping ground for the trash and garbage of the town. Ladies who wish to go out for an hour's pleasure in a launch or row boat ought not to have to trip over everything from a tomato can to a barrel hoop in order to reach their boat.

Wrightsville Beach, Wednesday morning.—The North Carolina Press Association met this morning with an attendance of about 100. The editors were cordially welcomed by the mayors of Wilmington and Wrightsville and by Editor Cowan on part of Wilmington press with a response by Major London. The sessions promise much interest and elaborate preparations have been made for social entertainments and pleasure. It is a successful gathering and the Reflector man is hugging the shore.

JOSHUA LAWRENCE TUCKER.

The funeral service over the remains of the late Joshua Lawrence Tucker, of Grifton, Pitt county, took place in St. John's Episcopal church, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the service being conducted by the Rev. B. F. Huske, of Greenville, and the Rev. Jno. H. Griffith, of Kinston.

The attendance upon this service was by far the largest the writer ever witnessed at a burial in Pitt county. Fully 200 carriages and buggies surrounded the church at the time of the service, many coming from a distance. Immediately after the church service, Grifton Lodge (452) of Masons, of which Mr. Tucker was a charter member, had their interment service, in which a large number of Masons took part.

Mr. Tucker was 69 years of age, and is survived by a widow Mrs. Eliza Patrick Tucker, and the following named children: Calvin J. Tucker, of Grifton; Mrs. Watt B. Quinerly, of Ayden; Mrs. Walter F. Harding, of Richmond, Va.; and Mrs. Clarence V. Cannon, of Ayden; Miss Ella Wheeler Tucker and Master Joshua L. Tucker, Jr. Mr. Tucker was one of the most substantial citizens of Pitt county. His farming interests hardly being excelled by any one in the county. A man of fine parts and large influence 'Twill be indeed difficult to find one who will be able to measure up to his standards. For many years Mr. Tucker was a vestryman of St. John's church, and deeply interested in her welfare.

As a Confederate veteran, he was well known, was a member of company E. 55th regiment, serving under Capt. Jas. T. Whitehead. Was captured the first day at Gettysburg on the Emmettsburg road, was in prison at Fort Delaware for six months, then at Point Lookout in Delaware Bay for another six months. Exchanged, came home and was then sent to Richmond, Va. Was in the trenches at Petersburg, transferred to Gen. Cooke's Brigade. Was for a time color bearer of his regiment and surrendered at Appomattox.

Meeting of School Trustees

The board of trustees of the Greenville public schools held its June meeting Tuesday night and among other things appointed a committee to look into the advisability of employing a principal for the high school. This committee will make its report at the July meeting of the board. It is rumored that a large number of the trustees and people of the town are heartily in favor of having a principal.

Every teacher who was in the graded school faculty last year was re-elected.

ROCHDALE ITEMS.

Rochdale, June 7.—Arthur is booming, Mr. J. B. Joyner and Jacob Wilson have completed their large store house, and last Thursday they put in a nice stock of groceries. They expect to do an extensive grocery business. The firm will be known as Joyner & Wilson.

Robt. Strickland continues to do a grocery business at Arthur and Mr. B. F. Crawford has a large store considerably on the way to completion.

The meeting carried on all of last week by Walters, Pittman and Jones was a great success. The Rev. R. F. Pitman preached from Monday night until Friday night, inclusive, and did some of the best preaching that we have ever heard. A good many others said the same. He could hold a congregation nearest spell bound of any one we ever heard. He received fifteen converts in the church during the five nights that he was there. He and Rev. R. R. Jones left Saturday morning for their appointments and Rev. Walters received three Saturday night, making eighteen in all. It was a glorious meeting, as good if not the best that May's chapel has ever had. The baptism was administered Sunday evening by the pastor, W. F. Walters, of Ayden, in the presence of a very large concourse of spectators. Interest in the meeting ran so high that the house was crowded to overflowing several nights and Sunday. Rev. Walters left Sunday evening for Ayden.

Miss Etta Gay, of Farmville, was visiting at F. M. Smith's last week.

Miss Lee Nichols and Esther Blount, of Ayden, were visiting at Ivy Smith's last week.

Misses Mattie Little and Virginia Mayo, of Wilson, came Saturday evening to visit relatives and friends in our section for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cobb, of Norfolk, were visiting at Cobdale Saturday and Sunday, and B. P. Cobb took them to Greenville Sunday evening. Mrs. Cobb is going to remain for a few weeks.

The Rochdale nine went up and played Bynum's a game of ball Saturday evening and came out victorious. The game stood 8 to 2 in favor of Rochdale.

Miss Myrtle Warren Successful.

News reached Greenville this morning that Miss Myrtle Warren, who finished the work of the ninth grade at the high school last spring, had won the C. L. Murchison scholarship to St. Mary's. The scholarship is good for $300 a year for four years. Miss Warren won the scholarship in a competitive examination for which several others had entered.

PACTOLUS ITEMS.

Pactolus, N. C., June 8.—Miss Louise Satterthwaite left for Shelmerdine to visit Miss Lillian Baker, Friday.

Pactolus base ball team will play Grimesland Saturday, June 11th, 1910, at 2 p. m. on Grimesland baseball ground.

Miss Charlotte Ricks went to Ayden Monday to visit friends. Miss Mamie Roberson is in town visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. Ross.

Several young men took the trip to Bath Sunday. The boat left Yankey Hall at 5.30 o'clock and reached Washington at 6.30, remaining half an hour then left for Bath. When near Bath the boat struck a sand shore and got stuck. We were delayed about one and a half hours, reached Bath at noon. The table was set and everybody ate a large dinner consisting of pig, chicken, beef, hoe cake, pickles and plenty to drink, such as was refreshing. We went to the oldest church in the State, where we were treated very kind and given a piece of brick that the church was built of. The day being rainy we did not remain as long as we intended, but everybody had a very nice time.

Misses Bonnie Dixon and Myrtle Latham, of Wharton's were here visiting Mrs. G. Z. Ricks a few days last week.

Mrs. Martha Thigpen and daughter, Esther, are visiting Mrs. J. P. Fleming.

The Standard Oil man while on his way to Pactolus Friday was delayed about four hours by the bridge breaking in with him at Moye's Run.

Don't forget Sunday school every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and also a sermon Third Sunday for young men. Let all turn out.

Displays Fine Horsemanship.

All of the horses in Pitt county have not yet become modernized. Some of them are still shying at automobiles; and it was necessary for Mr. Royce Tucker to display some pretty good horsemanship when he passed Mr. O. C. Gregory's machine on Fifth street at the point which in the days gone by was known as "Buzzard Roost." He held him all right and came out of the incident with nothing worse than a few pieces of harness broken.

A $5 gold piece will be given to the person that guesses nearest to the number of dots, which will be shown on the picture curtain at the Amuzu theatre. Cards will be given at ticket office. Write your name and number of your guess and leave with ticket seller. 6 11

WOODLAND ITEMS.

Woodland, N. C., June 7.—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. W. Nobles spent Saturday night and Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Benj. Craft, near Falkland.

Misses Lessie Garris and Martha Hardee spent Saturday and Sunday near Coxville.

Owing to the rainy weather there were but few at Sunday school Sunday.

We are having some nice showers of rain this week.

Mrs. S. M. Manning has been spending a few days over in Renston section with relatives.

Miss Zilphia Nobles is spending a few days in Ayden.

Seems if there are some one or two that like chickens around here. Monday night a week ago someone went to W. L. Nobles' and took three chickens, and on to W. R. W. Nobles' and took some, but he doesn't know how many. They were tracked then some distance across the field. A few months back they came around to W. A. Nobles' getting eight at one time. And again at Henry Avery's, taking all but the rooster. Again at Mr. Grubbs' nine at one time. We all hope they will get a mess after a while so the rest of us can have some.

New Telephone Directory Out.

We are now delivering our new telephone directory, and we earnestly ask that all users of the telephone will call by number instead of name, as it very greatly expedites the service. It is not for our own good, but the subscribers that we ask this. Owing to our rapid growth it is impossible for the operator to remember all the numbers and have to look them up, thereby greatly reducing the efficiency of the service. In calling by number always call the figures singly, as 17 call, "one" "seven," or as 230-L. call, "two" "eight" "0" "L." Try this and you will like it. Respectfully,
Home Telephone & Telegraph Co.

We expect our boss would like to trade that little bathing suit off for last winter's overcoat "along about now."

Nash county shows the proper spirit in the way of voting special taxes for its schools. Two districts in that county voted Saturday. In one the vote was unanimous for the tax and in the other only 9 votes were cast against it.

President Taft says this country is threatened with socialism and that something must be done to give it a quietus. Guess he would give it a big dose of Trustism, using the cause as a remedy which he evidently thinks is "good for what ails you" when it is the 'c. p. who are concerned.

The Charlotte auditorium is up for discussion again and the State papers are offering the usual advice to the Queen City aldermen about purchasing the building from the burdened owners. From the advertising it has had everybody knows Charlotte has an auditorium all right, even if it is owned by people who think they have a "white elephant."

All of this talk some of the newspapers are doing about the prohibition issue in North Carolina politics, we believe, the father of a wish. At least, they are not doing the prohibition cause any good by continually agitating the matter. Some go so far as to almost intimate that the voters of the State were hypnotized into giving such a large majority for state wide prohibition in their arguments FOR the question to become an issue between the political parties.

Near beer is certainly receiving knockout blows thick and fast throughout North Carolina. The towns, one after the other are barring its sale, either by high license or prohibition. Rocky Mount is the first town to come under our notice, prohibiting its sale under the State prohibition law against intoxicants. We admire the action the board of aldermen there has taken against it. Doubtless a test will be made of the action under the State law permitting the sale of near beer as a soft drink, which we hope will result in its prohibition. It is the greatest curse the prohibition cause has had to contend with

The bond trouble was of such a serious nature that the Governor has found it necessary to call an extra session of the legislature to take action. The rate of interest was too low. People with money could pick up better investments almost anywhere else, and few capitalists will be found willing to buy low rate bonds simply as a matter of sentiment. The bonds bear 4 per cent. It is recalled by State Treasurer Lacy that "so certain was it that a State bond would find a ready market, some members of the legislative finance committee insisted upon offering a 3 1/2 per cent. bond, which they claimed, and were advised, could be floated at par." It would seem that the duty of the legislature is simple and clear. It has but to meet, call the roll and proceed to raise the interest to 5 or 6 per cent., adjourn and draw a day's pay, so as to make the bill as light as possible in correcting its past error of judgment.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Since the board of aldermen applied to the blind tiger joints Mayor LaRoque's prescription of an overdose of taxation certain sections of the city seem to be less frequented than was the case before. That is a healthy condition of affairs. Not that there is any special virtue in those sections appearing deserted, comparatively, but when the center of attraction is a near-beer joint, 'twere better that solemn stillness reign than activity on account of such traffic. So thought the mayor, so thought the board and so think we all.—Kinston Free Press.

Who can understand a woman? When she is on the scent for a bargain one might as well give her up. Here the papers have been full of accounts of the Irish lace fakirs going about plying their trade and doing a rushing business and even the newspaper exposure of the fake can not stop it. A woman will bite with her eyes open.—Charlotte Chronicle.

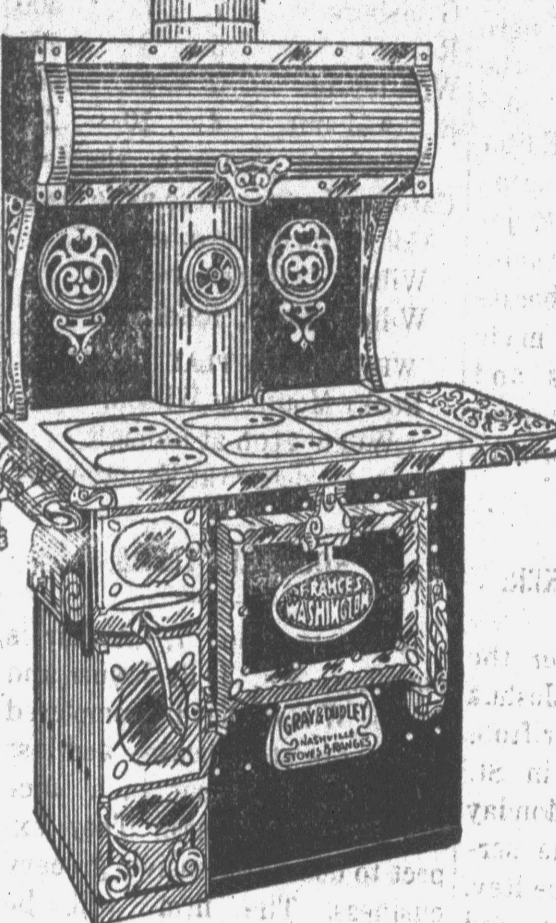

ARE YOU SURE? That the ice cream you buy is strictly PURE? Do you know that the makers' hands were clean, flies excluded from the factory, and freezers and other utensils kept in sanitary condition? Why take any chance where your health is concerned? Why not MAKE AND FREEZE YOUR OWN ICE CREAM IN 10 MINUTES FOR 1c A PLATE with Jell-O ICE CREAM Powder. It is so easy. Simply stir contents of one 13c package into a quart of milk and freeze, without cooking, heating or the addition of anything else. This makes two quarts of ice cream, clean, pure and wholesome. If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains come from sick kidneys. "I would save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Many residents of this vicinity endorse them. Mrs. L. Cameron, 117 Payton ave., Kinston, N. C., says: "The great benefit I obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills justifies me in recommending them. A dull, nagging backache, accompanied by sharp twinges through my loins bothered me for a long time. I had but little energy or ambition and was caused additional annoyance by a kidney weakness. Having Doan's Kidney Pills recommended to me, I procured a box. After taking the contents, the pains in my back ceased and difficulty with the kidney secretions was corrected."

A BUSINESS TRAINING

The Methods That Are Used in the Schools of Germany.

CLASS ROOMS AS OFFICES.

The Pupils Are Divided Into Firms That Carry on an Imaginary Trade With Each Other—The Course From Office-Boy to Director.

No one will deny the fact that Germans are among the keenest business men in the world. And undoubtedly one of the secrets of their success lies in the fact that in German schools boys are taught the practical details of business. The writer recently returned from Hamburg after a year's course of education, and an outline of the system of training boys in business may be interesting.

On my first day's attendance I was handed a time table on which appeared, set out in formidable array, such subjects as commercial correspondence, laws of bills of exchange, currency, political economy and commercial law, none of which at the time conveyed much to me and raised serious doubts in my mind as to whether I should be able to understand and appreciate what appeared to be most abstruse subjects.

At 9 a. m. sharp on the following day the course began, prefaced by a couple of hours' hard study, for the Germans are gluttons to work and think nothing of a twelve hour day. The first course was called "business training." We worked in two spacious rooms furnished as offices, each room representing a different business house. These two firms carried on an imaginary trade with each other, and the routine adhered to was modeled exactly on the lines of a first class business establishment.

Each firm had a director, and these two were the most eminent students in the academy. They had subject to their management and control a complete staff of correspondents, shorthand writers, typists, bookkeepers, etc. The whole was supervised by a master, to whom reference was made in case of dispute or difficulty.

On making my appearance I was informed that my services were in request as an office boy. I was somewhat taken back, not to say a little humiliated, by the lowly position assigned to me, and I gave the master to understand that I considered I was qualified to occupy a much better post than that which he had chosen for me. He did not seem in the least perturbed by my remarks, but said: "You have already made a mistake—a mistake of diplomacy. One of the great maxims of business as taught here is to do what you are told, to do it at once and do it well."

With that he handed me a pile of envelopes and a long list of addresses and told me to set to work addressing them. I did so, but not with a very good grace, the master coming round from time to time to inspect my work. For two solid hours I plodded on until 11 a. m., when the course came to an end. Then I took the opportunity of going up to the master again and asking him if he did not really think I had been wasting my time in what I had been doing.

"Not in the least," said he. "In everything, no matter how simple or how difficult, there is always a good deal to learn. If you have paid attention while you were working you will have learned something about the geography of the German empire, for each address contains the name of some important town and province in which it is situated and the name of some firm celebrated for some particular class of goods."

This gave me food for reflection. As a matter of fact, I had not paid the least attention to what I had been writing; consequently I had failed to derive the benefit which it was the master's intention I should obtain from what seemed to me at the outset a most senseless task. On the following day I resolved to follow out the master's instructions to the letter, and I was surprised to find how interesting the work became.

I continued addressing envelopes for two hours a day for a whole week, and the next week I received promotion. In this way I went through the whole routine, from office boy to director, and the experience which I obtained in the various capacities has proved invaluable to me in business.

As director I had to sign checks, dictate letters, enter into agreements with the other firm with reference to the sale and purchase of goods, keep an eye on the money market, work out arbitrage calculations, draw up and endorse bills of exchange and bills of lading, make out periodical statements of affairs, allow or dispute amounts placed to the debit of the firm on account of general average losses and generally supervise everything.

While we were thus drilled in practical work the theoretical side of business was not neglected. Lectures were given at fixed hours, bookkeeping and mercantile law. Thus we enjoyed the best advantage of acquiring the theory and practice of business at the same time.—Detroit Free Press.

In Sad. "I'll never offer any more friendly advice." "Wouldn't he listen to you?" "He listened to me carefully and then struck me for $2. Of course I had to cough up."—Detroit Free Press.

Troubles comparatively seldom come to us; it is we who go to them.—John Lubbock.
