MILLIONS SPENT ON FRAUDS.

Fake Consumption Cures Cheats Public Out of $15,000,000.

Over $15,000,000 annually is poured into the coffers of those who exploit and advertise fake consumption cures, according to a statement issued today by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis; and for this vast sum the victims receive nothing in return, but are often permanently injured and in the majority of cases cheated out of the chance of real cure. Worse still, most of this money is paid by those who can least afford it.

The National Association has investigated several hundred so-called "cures" and "treatments" for tuberculosis now being advertised throughout the country, and finds that more than $3,000,000 a year is being spent in soliciting the patronage of the public. On examination, it has been found that the great majority of these "cures" contain harmful and habit-forming drugs, such as morphine, opium and chloroform. None of them will cure consumption. The only cure for this disease that has ever been discovered is the combination of fresh air, rest and wholesome food. All of the "cures" that attempt to destroy the tubercle bacillus without these or to stop the progress of the disease in some mysterious way are branded as frauds, and impositions.

Three classes of "cures" are distinguished by the National Association. In the first class are included devices and drugs which can be bought for any sum ranging from ten cents to five dollars at a drugstore. The United States Department of Agriculture has just issued a bulletin in which some of the most used of these drugs and remedies are analyzed and condemned. The second class of "cures" includes the "institutes," "professors" or companies of "doctors," who for a consideration guarantee to cure consumption by some secret method of which they are the sole proprietors. There are nearly one hundred and fifty of these institute frauds in the United States, cheating the people out of millions of dollars annually.

In the third class of "cures" are placed a number of home-made remedies, which either through ignorance or superstition have been advanced as treatments for tuberculosis. Some of these are, onions, lemons, rattlesnake poison, coal dust, lime dust, pigs' blood, dog oil, milk "strippings," and even alcohol. These will not cure consumption declares the National Association. No drug, gas or other material has yet been discovered, which, when eaten, inhaled or injected into the body, will kill the germs of tuberculosis. Fresh air, which contains more oxygen than any substance known, will destroy the germs of tuberculosis, if it is breathed continuously for a long enough period, and if rest and wholesome food are employed at the same time to build up the body.

TRUSTEES OF TRAINING SCHOOL

Hear Report for Past Year—Faculty Re-elected for Next Year.

The trustees of East Carolina Teachers' Training School were in session here Wednesday to look over the affairs of the school for the past session and make arrangements for the next year. Those present at this meeting were J. Y. Joyner, of Raleigh, chairman; T. J. Jarvis, of Greenville; A. McDowell, of Scotland Neck; Y. T. Ormond, of Kinston; J. C. Parker, of Trenton; and R. B. White, of Franklinton.

President Wright made his report to the trustees, and great satisfaction was expressed over the year's work. The spirit that had dominated both the faculty and student body was most gratifying. The report showed a total individual enrollment of 476 for the school year, 142 in the regular session and 334 in the spring and summer school. Five states and thirty nine counties of North Carolina were represented among the students.

Three counties adopted the summer school here for their teachers in lieu of holding a county institute of their own.

Upon the recommendation of President Wright all the regular faculty of the past year were re-elected for the coming year, as follows:

Mrs. Kate R. Beckwith, lady principal.

Miss Sallie J. Davis, teacher of history.

Miss Mamie E. Jenkins, teacher of English.

Miss Fannie M. Bishop, teacher of music.

Miss Maria D. Graham, teacher of mathematics.

Miss Birdie McKinney, teacher of Latin.

Miss Kate Lewis, teacher of drawing.

Mrs. J. Ogden, dietician and teacher of household economics.

Miss Emma R. Jones, clerk.

Mr. W. H. Ragsdale, teacher of school supervision and administration.

Mr. Herbert E. Austin, teacher of science.

Mr. C. W. Wilson, teacher of pedagogy and bursar.

Miss Mittie Beaman was elected as hospital attendant.

Mr. L. R. Meadows, A. B. of Yale, was elected head of the department of English.

It was decided to create a department of primary methods, the teacher for this to be elected later.

Before leaving the trustees carefully inspected the entire school plant, and expressed much pleasure at its excellence.

June July Reduction Sale.

From June 23rd until Aug. 1st, C. S. Forbes will sell his entire stock at greatly reduced prices. This means much to you as he carries choicest fabrics of Hart Schaffner and Marx, Banister Oxfords, Queen Quality, Walk Over and other popular makes.

No pattern will be reserved but all will go at a reduction from 25 to 30 per cent.

Baseball Today.

Being disappointed in having a game of ball Wednesday, Greenville team got busy and made an engagement with the Tarboro team to come over and play a game this afternoon. The Tarboro boys arrived on the 1.12 train and the game was going on in Munford park when The Reflector went to press.

Our Greenville, yours if you come.

PROGRAM.

Pitt County Sunday School Association—In Session Friday Morning.

The Pitt County Sunday School Association, composed of delegates from all the white Sunday schools of the county, will meet at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church Friday morning, June 24th, at 9:30 o'clock. The following program will be carried out:

Morning Session.

Theme: The County Organization.

9.30.—Song and devotional service conducted by Rev. E. N. Johnson.

10.00.—Election of temporary officers, Enrollment of delegates, appointment of committees.

10.30.—Address—The county association—Its work, by J. Van Carter, general secretary of State Sunday school association.

11.00.—Round Table—"The organized Sunday School Work," conducted by Mr. J. Van Carter.

Adjournment for dinner.

Afternoon Session.

Theme: The Local School

2.00.—Address—Elementary department of the local school, by Mrs. Kate R. Beckwith.

2.15.—Address—Organized adult class department by J. W. Bryan.

2.30.—Address—Teacher training department, by Rev. E. T. Phillips.

2.45.—Address—Home department, by Z. T. Broughton.

3.00.—Address—Visitors department, by Rev. J. H. Shore.

3.15.—Reports of committees.

Election of officers.

Offerings and pledges.

The whole program will be interspersed with good music.

A large number of the Sunday schools of the county have already sent in a list of their delegates, and the convention promises to be one of much interest to Sunday school workers, and we hope our local Sunday school people will come out and welcome these visitors from the county, and thus make the County Sunday School Association the success it deserves to be.

RENSTON ITEMS.

Renston, N. C., June 24.—Mrs. Exum Dail and little son, of Ayden, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. E. E. Dail.

Miss Annie McGlohon left Saturday for Robersonville to be present at the Roberson-Roberson wedding.

Misses Fannie Lee and Lyma Rue Patrick are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo McLawhon.

Miss Bertha Jones, of Ayden, spent Saturday night with the Misses Dail.

Otis Stocks, who has been sick for sometime with fever, is improving.

Miss Leather Forrest, of Ayden, is visiting her grandfather, E. E. Dail.

Misses Venetia Cox and Louise Keebler, accompanied by Gordon Johnson, of Winterville, spent Sunday at Charlie Langston's.

Mr. Lovelace, of Wilson, spent last night with E. E. Dail.

Fine Potatoes and Tomatoes.

Mr. D. D. Haskett, who for the last few years has been the champion potato and tomato grower of this section, is continuing to hold his own with these products. He brought a basket of each to The Reflector, Wednesday evening, that were unusual in size and quality. We never saw a basket of finer white potatoes, some of them being almost as large as coconuts.

Ad. does the Work.

Mr. R. L. Jefferson, of Fountain, sends word that the little ad in The Reflector found his mule that strayed off last Sunday night.

The Reflector does job work.

STATE NEWS.

Neway Items of Interest Condensed for Busy Readers.

Yesterday about seven o'clock during a severe electric and rain storm Mr. Sam Burton, an aged farmer, drove under a tree near Roxboro to seek shelter from the rain. A bolt of lightning struck the tree and jumped off striking Mr. Burton, instantly killing him and his horse and seriously injuring his little boy who was with him.—Durham Sun.

WOODLAND ITEMS.

Woodland, N. C., June 24.—Miss May Smith, of Ayden, is spending the week with Miss Linnie McGlohon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nchles spent last Saturday night at D. W. Dail's, near Shelmerdine.

Misses Rena and Rosa Forlines and Pattie Keeter spent Saturday night in Greenville at Mrs. Will Moore's.

We are having some fine weather after such a wet spell.

Plow boys, like myself, and the grass are having a battle this week, and we need help. It looks like we may gain at last.

Annual Excursion Baraca Class of Baptist Sunday School.

The Baraca class of Memorial Baptist Sunday school will run its third annual excursion to the capital city of the State on Thursday, June 30th. Take a day off and go with us to see the many places of interest and sights around Raleigh. We pass through several counties on the route, giving you an opportunity to see the different lands and various crops planted along the Norfolk Southern railroad, and also to compare your home section with others.

That afternoon there will be a league game of ball between Raleigh and Wilson which you will have time to see before the train leaves.

The fare for the round trip is only $1.50 for adults and $1 for children under 12 years of age.

The hot wave is causing many deaths in the cities.

Robbing dental offices of false teeth seems to be a new fad with the burglar profession.

When an item has the Oyster Bay date line now, readers will take notice to see if T. Roosevelt has said something.

From the way building material is being placed in several parts of the town, we take it that Greenville will have many new buildings before summer has ended.

With Mr. Roosevelt to retire into solitude for two months and congress soon to adjourn, if Mr. Bryan can also be induced to keep quiet the country may get a little rest spell.

E. W. Sanders, Democratic congressman of the fifth Virginia district, has been unseated and his place given to J. M. Parsons, Republican, who contested Sanders' election.

Just keep it in mind that the chamber of commerce of Greenville will have a meeting on Monday night, July 4th, and there is going to be something worth while going on at that meeting.

Minnesota Republicans in their State convention endorsed the Taft administration, but overwhelmingly tabled a resolution endorsing the "Roosevelt policies." Possibly that will keep the colonel from remaining altogether as quiet as he started out to be for the next two months.

After noting that Major Whichard says we look like he does we ask some of our friends of the press association to kindly propose Whichard's name as the one to wrest the mendacity medal from Squire Sherrill, of the Concord Tribune, and as we are a member of the committee to make next year's award, we pledge our support. - Wilmington Dispatch.

Wonder what "entitlement" the boys are going to give us next.

Too much cannot be said in praise of East Carolina Teachers' Training School. It is most gratifying to the people of Greenville and Pitt county that the school has reached such marvelous success in its first year. The trustees at their meeting Wednesday were unstinted in praise of the school and plant, expressing themselves freely as to the excellent condition of it all. President Wright and his faculty have cause to feel proud of their work, and the students are to be congratulated upon the splendid records they made.

"The Western Bloomer Girls" is the name of a baseball team that is creating a sensation in central and western North Carolina—especially among the boys. The girls are going from town to town challenging the baseball teams and it seems that they catch the crowd every where they go. A few newspapers attacked the girls with a view to prevent the fans from patronizing such a female folly as a female baseball nine, but the bigger the criticism the bigger the crowd at the ball grounds. There are times when the disapproval of newspapers constitutes the biggest kind of an advertisement. The more that is said about some classes of shows and bloomer baseball teams the better they like it. It is nothing but free advertising and the rougher the criticism the bigger the advertisement. - Wilmington Star.

Charity and Children offers some good advice to the news paper men. "Brethren," it says, "let us all determine that we will not by voice or pen encourage the ugly spirit that is manifesting itself in the political campaign that is waging in certain sections of our State. The late deplorable gubernatorial campaign opened a Pandora's box of hate and bitterness; and we are reaping the fruits of that miserable campaign. Each citizen should contribute his part, be it large or small, toward calming the raging elements and bringing peace and harmony out of confusion and strife." No doubt Editor Johnson had in mind the present torn up condition of the party's home at State headquarters. It is no use to ask that crowd to quiet down and behave like respectable Democrats, but the thought Charity and Children gives expression to may serve to prevent a like situation in other parts of the State. - Charlotte Chronicle

Nightmares, Restlessness and Night-sweats all Caused by Indigestion
Half of the nervousness in the world, all of the disturbing dreams and nightmares can be ended in a few weeks by a simple, inexpensive treatment.
Upset stomach is the cause of nervousness and bad dreams. Your food is lying in your stomach undigested and fermenting; it is forming poisonous gases which irritates the pneumogastric nerve that leads direct from the brain, and ends in a network of tiny branches running through the stomach.
It is also the irritation of this great pneumogastric nerve that causes headaches. Many times people have severe headaches and know they are caused by the stomach, but do not know in what manner.
If you are nervous, have dreams or nightmares and do not sleep sound at night, get a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets and take one or two after or with meals. They relieve distressed stomach in 5 minutes. Sold by Coward & Wooten, who guarantees them to cure indigestion or money back.

THE SAVOR TEACHINGS BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDIES.

THE WHEAT AND THE TARES.

Matthew 13:24-43.—June 26.

"Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father."—P. 43.

HERE we have introduced by another "Kingdom" parable a great prophecy. Our study of a week ago showed various classes of hearers of the truth. To-day's study ignores all except the "good ground" hearers, which shows that our Lord foreknew the history of the Gospel Age. We are informed that he and his Apostles sowed none but good seed, but that after the Apostles had fallen asleep in death, the great Adversary, Satan, over-sowed the wheat field with tare seed, darnel. We are told that such spite-work is not uncommon in the Orient. The "darnel" seed is very different from the wheat, but the growing stalks look very much alike, and even when headed the resemblance is close, except to the expert, until the heads ripen; then the head of the wheat becomes heavy, while the darnel being light stands upright. Only the expert can discern the wheat from the tares while growing.

The Master gave this parable to illustrate how error would be brought into the church by Satan, and that the children produced by the error would in many respects resemble or counterfeit those produced by the truth. It was impossible for the Adversary to corrupt the seed of truth which Jesus and the Apostles sowed; neither was he allowed to interfere with the sowing of it, but he was permitted to oversow it in the field and, if possible, to choke the wheat, and in a general way to deceive the outside world respecting the true character of the wheat—the children of the Kingdom.

We are to have in mind the Almighty power of God by which he could hinder Satan and prevent the accomplishment of his plans at any and all times. We are to remember that the Divine Plan of the Ages permits many things which God does not approve, but in his Word condemns. We are to remember that the Divine Plan spans several ages and that only the finished work will fully display the Divine Wisdom, Justice, Love and Power. We are to remember that, in the present time, God permits the wrath of demons and men to oppose his purposes, but only so far as he can and eventually will overrule these to his own glory and for the good of all in harmony with himself.

The parable represents the servants as asking whether or not the "tares" should be gathered out from the "wheat," and thus the enemy's work be destroyed. The answer is, No, because in so doing there would be such a commotion in the wheat field as to disturb all of the wheat—so intimately were the true and the false associated—their roots intertwining in society, in the home, etc. Instead the Master declared that both should be allowed to grow together throughout the age until the "harvest" time at the end of the age; then the "reapers" should be instructed concerning the gathering together and the separating of the two classes. The wheat would then be gathered into the barn and the tares would be bundled for burning, to the end that none of the bad seed might affect the future crop.

At the special request of the disciples the Master interpreted this parable also. Jesus himself was the sower of the good seed of the Kingdom message. Satan was the sower of the crop of seed of false doctrines and deception. The "harvest" time will be the end of this age, just before the inauguration of the new age of Christ's Millennial Kingdom. The wheat class will be those counted fit to be associated with Christ in the glory of his Millennial Kingdom, and the gathering into the "barn" or garner represents the resurrection change which this wheat class will experience. The Apostle explains this, saying, "It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption; it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory; it is sown an animal (earthly) body; it is raised a spiritual (heavenly) body." This is the resurrection of the dead—the first resurrection.—1 Cor. 15:43, 44; Rev. 20:6.

The tare class is represented as being gathered out of the kingdom (V. 41), in the sense that the church at the present time is God's kingdom in embryo—in a state of progressive development or preparation for the glory and kingdom of the future. All of the Kingdom class are fully consecrated to God and by him begotten of the spirit with a view to their becoming Divine, spirit beings in the resurrection. Others who are not thus spirit-begotten have no right to class themselves with the "wheat" nor to consider themselves heirs of the Kingdom. Their presence in the Church of Christ is out of order. They have been permitted to commingle with the wheat for centuries, but with the end of the age the dispensational change will come incidental to the inauguration of the Millennium.

It would be a mistake to suppose that there are to be thieves and murderers of the baser sort among these offenders, but they include some whom the Apostle describes as doing the works of the flesh and the devil; namely, anger, malice, hatred, envy, strife. However, many "tares" are fine people of generous disposition, but not "New Creatures" in Christ Jesus. They are blame-worthy not because of not being spirit-begotten, but because they are in the nominal church and posing as christians. They are offensive in this sense in the Master's sight. Nor are they entirely to be blamed for thinking themselves christians. They have been encouraged so to think and act by preachers and teachers, many of whom, like themselves, have no knowledge of the Kingdom nor of the spirit-begetting power which initiates into membership in it. The gathering of these into "bundles"—into lodges, societies, churches, sects, parties—will especially be an evidence of the "harvest" work in progress. The true are exhorted to stand fast in the liberty wherewith Christ has made them free, and that they come not into bondage to sects and parties. They are to avoid membership in "bundles," but stand in the full fellowship of all who are of the true "wheat" class.

The casting of these bundles into the furnace will mean their destruction; but we are not to understand the furnace to be a literal one, nor the fire which will consume the tares to be a literal fire. The fire with which this age will end will be a great "time of trouble" foretold in the Scriptures as preceding and introducing the Millennial Kingdom—"A time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation." (Dan. 12:1.) In that time of trouble the delusions which now make the tares think themselves to be the true "church" will all be dissolved—they will all be reduced to their proper plane—the earthly plane—and recognize themselves as merely of the earth, earthly, and not in any sense members of the called-out, spirit-begotten, elect church.

Hearken now to the Master's words respecting the consummation of the Church's hope in the end of this age. He says, "Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father" "He that hath an ear to hear, let him hear." Not every one has the hearing ear, but this is the Lord's message to those who have the proper attitude of heart—to all who have the ability to understand spiritual things. Let such understand that with the close of this age the Lord's saintly ones, irrespective of the earthly church systems, will be associated with the Redeemer in the glory of his Millennial Kingdom and will shine forth as the sun for the blessing and enlightenment and uplifting of the human family.

Historic Doubles.
Those almost perfect doubles George Du Maurier and Sir Laurence Alma-Tadema were nearly indistinguishable. The story goes that a lady sitting beside Du Maurier at dinner started conversation by pooh-poohing all idea of a resemblance.

"You know, Mr. Alma-Tadema, I think it's absurd to say that you and Mr. Du Maurier are so awfully alike. There's really no resemblance at all. Don't you agree with me?"
"Quite," was the polite answer; "but, you see, I happen to be Mr. Du Maurier."

Settled Him.
Robert Smith, brother of Sydney Smith and an ex-advocate general, on one occasion was engaged in an argument with a physician over the merits of their respective professions.
"I don't say that all lawyers are crooks," said the doctor in his final summing up, "but my opponent will have to admit that his profession doesn't make angels of men."
"No," quietly retorted Smith; "you doctors certainly have the best of us there."

After He Saw Them.
Mr. Blank, with his four-year-old son Booth, on his way to visit friends who kept a large farm, was asked by the boy if there were pigs there. Being told there were, the delighted tot said he would take three of them home with him. Soon after their arrival at the farm nothing would satisfy the boy but an immediate inspection of the pigpen. It was his first sight of the uncleanly species, and he gazed abstractedly at the porkers.

"Well," asked his parent, "which three do you want to take home, Booth?"
"Daddy," the little fellow replied very earnestly, "one will be enough, and will you please carry it?"—Suburbanite.

Paired.
She was an amiable old lady and volunteered much information to the fair stranger who had come down to see an important event in the country town—the laying of the foundation stone of the new church.
"Yes," prattled the old lady, "that is the duke and duchess, and the couple behind them are the mayor and mayoress, and those two to the right are the vicar and—er—vixen."—London Ideas.

THE PRIZE PRESENT.

It Was the Gem of the Wedding Gifts He Assured the Bride.

Bored, unspokeably bored, he found himself in the room where the gifts were displayed. But then he might as well be here as any place else, he argued for everything connected with a wedding was a bore. His gaze wandered listlessly over the collection of silver, meat forks, cut glass berry bowls and onyx clocks till it fell on a faded little old Japanese print almost hidden behind a hideous chafing dish that looked as if it might have been handed down by the cliff dwellers.

In another moment he was before it, tingling with excitement, the spirit of the collector rampant.

"An Utamaro, sure as you're alive!" he exclaimed, looking about for some one with whom to share his joy. Anybody would do, so he tapped a stranger on the shoulder and announced with the air of reporting the discovery of a diamond mine, "It's an Utamaro, the real thing!"

"A what?" asked the man, adjusting his glasses.
"It is by Utamaro, the master of Japanese artists," he answered as he fled in search of his wife. She would understand. "To think of wasting it on those donkeys who won't know it from a signboard!" he grumbled.

He found her shaking hands with the bride, so he rushed up and rung the girl's hand enthusiastically. "I have just been admiring that peachy Utamaro!" he exclaimed excitedly.

"A peachy Utamaro! What's that?" asked the bride, mystified.
"That rare old Japanese print up there. It's the gem of your whole lay-out."

"Oh!" exclaimed the bride faintly, looking a little queer, so he thought, as she turned to greet another guest.

As his wife dragged him away he demanded to know what the dickens was the matter with that Utamaro.

"It was our present to them," she moaned. "I didn't dare tell you. You would have wanted it for your collection."—Los Angeles Times.

Halibut in Canada.

"One cannot be long in any hotel or restaurant in Canada without seeing halibut on the bill of fare," says a writer in Canada. "In this respect it assumes the position of a national dish. It is there on Christmas day and again on midsummer day, and there are not many days in between these two dates when halibut finds no place on the menu. So plentiful is halibut in the waters of the west coast of Vancouver island that Ernest McGaffey on one occasion watched a few Indians, with their crude fishing arrangements, catch 21,000 pounds in Clayquot sound in one day. When it is remembered that a halibut, sometimes weighs as much as 300 pounds perhaps this achievement will lose a tiny part of its glory."
