JOHNSON THE BOXING CHAMPION

JEFFRIES TAKES HIS DEFEAT IN GOOD SPIRIT.

Johnson Defeated Jeffries Yesterday in the Fifth Round—Money Spent Enormous.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Beno, July 5.—Thousands of people left last night, but there are still thousands here, many of them stranded. Jeffries is going back to his farm. He takes his defeat in the best of spirit and admits he was out-classed. He says he knew he was defeated from the seventh round. He has gotten out of the fight nearly $200,000. Johnson has gotten about $150,000. The amount of money that has been spent on the fight is enormous.

Riots Caused by the Fight.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Washington D. C., July 5.—Washington today is taking stock after a night of rioting between whites and blacks, which began immediately after word was flashed that Johnson was victor over Jeffries. One hundred and thirty five arrests were made by the police. Thirty five men are in city hospitals, three of whom, negroes, are in precarious condition. Fifteen riots occurred during the evening and night, but were suppressed by the police. The riots generally occurred on Pennsylvania avenue and in the very shadow of the capital. Negroes were pulled from street cars, chased and beaten. From New York and many other places come reports of similar riots.

The Markets.

New York 5.—In the face of unsettled and rather poor cables at the opening, cotton was strong, nine to thirteen points higher. The firmness was based on unfavorable weather conditions. Opening July 15.45; August 14.90, September 13.30, October 12.70, January 12.50.

New York 5.—The market continued extremely sensitive. Important grains were shown in many leading railroad stocks, but Pennsylvania fell one point and Union Pacific two. After the first sales there was a general downward movement. Industrials are also weak.

Chicago 5.—Sensational advances were made in spring wheat. The markets at Winnipeg opened four cents higher. All markets were up sharply. Corn was firm. Oats and provisions up. Opening July wheat 109½, corn 58½, oats 39½, pork, September 22.70.

Wreck of Twentieth Century Limited

Middletown, July 5.—Investigation began today into the wreck of Twentieth Century Limited late yesterday in which 20 persons were killed and many others hurt. It brought out conflicting stories as to the cause of the disaster. The engineer of the passenger train says he obeyed orders, but the engineer of the freight train into which he ran says he was mistaken. Railroad officials take the side of the freight engineer, claiming that the passenger train ran by the point it should have stopped for the freight. The coroner is investigating the matter.

Odd Fellows meet tonight. All members are requested to be on hand, as there is something in store for you. Come up boys, and have a good time.

HANRAHAN ITEMS

Wants It Headed That Way, But the Items Are Something Else.

Hanrahan, July 4.—Last week you put such a long head over what we wrote that many of our country friends failed to find the "Hanrahan Items" (that is what we country people choose to call everything written from any cross roads place.) Several asked us what was the trouble last week with Hanrahan, as there was nothing in The Reflector from there. We told them that there was, but we suppose when they glanced at that long head they thought it was some astronomical write up or a zoological turn loose.

And sure enough the turn-loose came Wednesday night at 11 o'clock just about the time most of the people in Grifton and surrounding country had retired and were about to be fanned into peaceful slumber by the gentle zephyrs. It was there that that unearthly sound broke in upon the stillness of the night. Our space is entirely too limited to tell the half that was done. Were these people frightened? Yes, not only the women and children, but the bravest of the brave. Did they look for it? No, but barricaded themselves behind their doors. Many of them shot at the air until they had no more cartridges to shoot with, and then they hid themselves as best they could, and for once offered up their supplication to the Most High. Was it only the weak minded and untutored that imagined all sorts of things? No, those that are highly cultured, and one that stands at the head of one of the most learned professions, was on his front porch cooling after a hot drive, when the blast came. Was he affrighted? Of course not, but he hastened to his closet and when he had securely barred the door, there on his knees (for the devotees of the mother church believe in kneeling when they pray) he promised his Maker and St. Peter that if they would only call off Gabriel for this once that he would surely attend church services the next Sunday morning. And as they had been somewhat slow in building their chapel, and his people could not worship there, he would do the next best thing, he would go and worship with the people of the daughter of the mother church. He had found out before Sunday that it was not Gabriel's trumpet but only a detestable concern attached to a stream boat, but he kept his promise and went to the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Many other things happened. Some serious, others ridiculous, but space forbids. Indulge us enough to say that the keeper of the railroad bridge, instead of responding by opening the bridge to the blast given as a signal for this, leveled his gun at the fiery eyed varment as she came in sight, and emptied the contents of his repeating rifle straight at her bow. Now in all seriousness, we hope that whoever has the authority will make that captain take that thing off of his boat.

Too much space already but, Mr. Editor, we do want to say that we feel like taking off our hat and giving three cheers for the new board of commissioners, of Grifton, in that they have by high license closed one of the most corrupting places, called a near-beer saloon, that has existed for sometime in our midst. Go a step further, gentlemen, and see that all business houses are closed on Sunday, and please fix that bridge.

MISS PATTIE WOOTEN ENTERTAINS

In Honor of Her Guests Misses Stev ns, Hackney, Patterson and Lovela e.

On Monday evening from eight-thirty to twelve Miss Pattie Wooten entertained a large number of friends at the home of her parents on Greene street, in honor of her guests, Misses Martha Stevens, Sudie Hackney, Helen Patterson and Edwina Lovelace, of Wilson.

The home was beautifully decorated in keeping with the day. The decorations were red, white and blue draperies and flags. The guests were met at the door by the hostess and Mr. Oscar Greene and ushered into the spacious hall where fruit punch was served by Miss Mary Shelburn and Mr. Carl Wilson. In the parlor the guests of honor received as follows: Miss Patterson with Mr. Frank Davis, of Wilson; Miss Hackney with Mr. Willie Wilson; Miss Stevens with Mr. John Hutchings; and Miss Lovelace with Mr. Joe Anderson.

The two contests were historical and very appropriate to the occasion. In the first one Mr. Wille Wilson was the most lucky guesser and was presented with prize by Mr. Ames Brown. Mr. Wilson then presented it to Miss Hackney. The prize was a silver spoon with independence hall in the bowl. The booby was stripped candy tied with the national colors and was won by Mr. Joe Anderson. In the second contest Misses Patterson, Ernestine Forbes, Christine Tyson and Essie Whichard and Mr. Oscar Greene tied. Miss Patterson cut the highest and was awarded a silver knife, which bore scenes in keeping with the glorious Fourth. The booby was a package of indoor fireworks also tied with the national colors and was won by Mr. Tom Dupree.

At the close of the contests delicious refreshments, which were adorned with silver stars, were served to the guests, by Mrs. J. L. Wooten and Mrs. N. W. Outlaw. The out of town guests present on this enjoyable occasion besides the guests of honor were Miss Bettie Russ, of Raleigh, and Messrs. Frank Davis, of Wilson; Paul Venable, of Durham, and Mack Lewis, of Kinston.

Greenville vs. Bloomer Girl.

Don't forget the baseball game Thursday, July 7, between Greenville and the Western Bloomer Girls. Miss Maude Nelson, the champion lady pitcher of the world, will do the twirling for the visitors, and from all reports will hold down her position in fine style.

Cake Baking Contest.

We wish to call your attention to the full page advertisement in this issue, announcing the cake baking contest. The proceeds of the contest will go to the public library. You are cordially invited to enter this contest and help a good cause, and you also have a chance to win a valuable prize.

New Louisiana Senator

Baton Rouge, July 5.—Governor J. Y. Sanders was today elected to the United States Senate to succeed Senator McEnery who died suddenly last week.

An editorial today will lead you to look in this issue for a report of the chamber of commerce meeting last night, but owing to its length we are forced to leave it out until tomorrow.

THE FATS VANQUISH THE THINS.

THE GAME WAS SLOW BUT VERY INTERESTING.

Stepped Twice by Rain With Score 12 to 8 in Eighth Inning—Large Crowd Out.

That was a jolly game of base ball in Munford's park, Monday afternoon, when the fats and the thins met in a contest for honors. The large crowd showed much interest in the game, and there was abundant "rooting" for both sides and plenty of applause when a good play was made. There was all grades of costumes in the make up of the players, all the way from snow white to the cowboy garb, with stockings as many colored as Joseph's coat.

The line up was after this wise:

Fats	Position	Thins
W. S. Moyer	1b	D. M. Clark
C. S. Forbes	2b	T. A. Duke
W. C. Dresbach	3b	F. J. Forbes
C. E. Moore	c	Alex. Blow, jr.
E. L. Daughtridge	p	W. I. Skinner
Dr. E. A. Moyer	ss	T. M. Hooker
R. C. Flanagan	cf	C. D. Tunstall
R. W. Randolph	rf	D. D. Oerton
Claude West	lf	D. C. James

Guy Lanier was ball umpire, W. F. Evans base umpire, K. W. Cobb and D. J. Whichard official scorers.

It was a little past 5 o'clock when Umpire Lanier called "play ball" and the fun started.

The thins took the first inning for Forbes, F., at the bat. He could not find Daughtridge's balls and fanned. Tunstall came up next, knocked a foul against a "coon's" head (who wished it had been a fowl) and was given his base on balls but died trying to steal second. Overton made a safe hit to first, stole second, but got no further, Clark being put out on the way to first and retiring the side without a score.

The fats came up for their half of the first inning determined to do something. Forbes, C., took his base on balls, worked to third and was brought in for the first run. Moyer, W. S., hit the ball but was put out at first. Moyer, E. A., made it safe to first and kept moving along. Flanagan went up in the air and was caught. Daughtridge hit for a two bagger, bringing Moyer across the plate. Randolph went to first, Daughtridge coming home on a passed ball. Moore made a three base hit that scored Randolph, but West fanned, leaving the fats 4 runs.

In the second inning Hooker took the bat for the thins, but it had holes in it. Blow made a safe hit, but was put out stealing to second. Duke was given base on balls, but James struck out and again the side made no score.

Dresbach for the fats hit to second. Forbes followed to first bringing Dresbach home. Moyer struck out and Moyer, Jr., was put out on way to first. Forbes got to the plate on a passed ball, and Flanagan put the side out by dying on the way to first, 2 runs.

In the third the thins got another 0 and the fats the same.

In the fourth the thins got busy, finding the ball more readily, and piled up enough runs to tie the fats, 6 to 6.

The fats started their half when rain run everybody to shelter. They went back after the rain, played the seventh inning and half the eighth, when another shower and approaching darkness stopped the game. In the meantime the thins made two more runs, but Skinner weakened so in his pitch in the seventh that the fats made enough runs to bring the final

CARNIVAL COMING

John R. Smith Amusement Co. Here Next Week.

Beginning next Monday, July 11, the John R. Smith Amusement Company will hold forth here for a solid week.

Among the many features will be the Great Wild West Show, exhibiting fifteen horses with human brains. They waltz, march and cake-walk to the merry music of the band. Arizona Charlie, the Western cowboy, is a wonder. He rides the fiercest of all animals with the greatest ease.

Smith's Old Plantation Show is one of the best now on the road, singing and dancing with old-time melody and scenes is a feature worthy of seeing.

The big four-in-one animal show, electric theatre, mammoth snake show, vaudeville, merry-go-round and many other features too numerous to mention, go to make this aggregation one of the greatest.

Mr. Smith guarantees everything just as represented. He caters to the ladies and children especially. Clean, moral and instructive, praised by the press and public everywhere.

John Annis Royal Italian Band, of Naples, will give free concerts every afternoon and night.

score 12 to 8 in favor of the fats.

Summary—Hits off Daughtridge 9, off Skinner 8. Base on balls by Daughtridge 5, by Skinner 5. Struck out by Daughtridge 11, by Skinner 5. Hit by Skinner 1. Errors, fats 4, thins 6.

The best and most amusing feature of the game was when Tom Hooker, the thinnest of the thins, when driving for the home plate run into Catcher Moore, one of the big fats, and completely floored him.

Back and Forth.

"There's one thing about you suburbanites that I never could understand," said the city chap.

"What is that?" queried the commuter.

"I've noticed time and again," continued the c. c., "that when you fellows reach town in the morning and again when you start for home in the evening you have a happy look. Now, why is it?"

"Oh, that's easily explained," replied the other. "After the day's work in the city we are always glad to get out of it, and after a night in the country we are always glad to get back."—Chicago News.

If you want to see things come to pass, watch Greenville.

If you don't want the road roller to run over you, don't try to stop the movement for good roads in Pitt county. They are coming.

The county conventions over the State leave the matter as to who will get the Supreme court nomination to be decided by the State convention.

And Mister Jack Johnson, of color, can feel himself the champion pugilist, of the world. Guess Jim Jeffries feels sore in spirit as well as in body, over the licking the black man gave him.

Some of the Charlotte Observer's writers need to go back to school and study history and geography some more. That paper says "Governor Jarvis is North Carolina's oldest living governor and lives in Goldsboro." Isn't that a display of ignorance?

The chamber of commerce has certainly taken on new life, as was shown in the meeting Monday night. It was about the best meeting the chamber has held, and much interest was taken in all the subjects up for consideration, as will be seen from the report in our news column. Good roads, a subject now awakening general interest all over the county, was the prime feature of this meeting, and in addition to this better mail facilities, increased passenger accommodations, a better supplied market, and the elimination of the house fly came in for a share of discussion. If much good does not come from the meeting and the discussion of these timely topics it will be contrary to expectation.

About "The Typhoid Fly."

We wish that every one in the State might read the April bulletin of the North Carolina Board of Health, which sets forth the danger from flies as strikingly as could be desired. Just now, when the fly has returned in full force, bringing the usual increase of typhoid fever cases along with him, a pamphlet like this is altogether timely. It emphasizes the menace of the common house fly—well termed by a Washington physician "the typhoid fly" —in causing typhoid fever and does not pass by without mention the important part which flies also play in spreading tuberculosis, cholera and many other diseases. Any one who reads its pages will fully realize that the fly which alights upon his food always comes from the vilest places—the very places, too, where disease germs most abound—and spreads infection with feet serving the purpose as perfectly as if they had been formed for it. On the principle that things seen are mightier than things read or heard, illustrations have been made numerous. Any citizen of the State may obtain a copy of this bulletin upon request to Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary and treasurer, at Raleigh, and this privilege should be liberally used.—Charlotte Observer.

Poverty has its advantages and adversity its uses. If you are poor you can wear out your old clothes. You are excused from calls, you are not troubled with many visitors, bores do not bore you, spongers do not haunt your tables, brass bands do not serenade you. No one thinks of presenting you with a testimonial. No store keeper irritates you by asking you "Is there anything I can do for you." Begging letter writers don't bother you. Flatterers do not flatter you. You are saved many a debt and many a deception. And lastly, if you have a true friend in the world, you are sure to know it in a short space of time.—Louisburg Times.

BAD DREAMS.
Nightmares, Restlessness and Night-sweats all Caused by Indigestion
Half of the nervousness in the world, all of the disturbing dreams and nightmares can be ended in a few weeks by a simple, inexpensive treatment.
Upset stomach is the cause of nervousness and bad dreams. Your food is lying in your stomach undigested and fermenting; it is forming poisonous gases which irritates the pneumogastric nerve that leads direct from the brain, and ends in a network of tiny branches running through the stomach.
It is also the irritation of this great pneumogastric nerve that causes headaches. Many times people have severe headaches and know they are caused by the stomach, but do not know in what manner.
If you are nervous, have dreams or nightmares and do not sleep sound at night, get a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets and take one or two after or with meals. They relieve distressed stomach in 5 minutes. Sold by Coward & Wooten, who guarantees them to cure indigestion or money back.

GREENWICH MERIDIAN.

Its Relation to Standard Time In This Country.

Standard time is the time in common use regulating the ordinary affairs of life. It is derived from the sun. Leaving out of account small irregularities of the solar motion that are of no consequence for our present purpose, when that celestial body is on the meridian of any place we call the time of that place noon, or 12 o'clock. It follows that when it is noon at any given place it is similarly noon at all other places having the same meridian. As the sun rises in the east and sets in the west, it is evident that when it is crossing the meridian of any place it must have already passed that of places to the eastward and not yet reached that of places to the westward. In other words, when it is noon in the given place it is forenoon in places to the westward and afternoon in places to the eastward.

Now, 15 degrees of longitude correspond exactly to one hour of time difference, and therefore the local times of the several standard meridians differ from Greenwich by an even number of hours. In the United States the standard time meridians are those whose longitudes are west of Greenwich 60, 75, 90, 105 and 120 degrees. The time of these meridians is respectively four, five, six, seven and eight hours earlier than Greenwich time because the sun in traveling across the sky from east to west passes the Greenwich meridian before it reaches the American meridians.—New York American.

The Coffee Shrub.
As a rule, the coffee shrub first flowers in its third year and then bears only a small crop of fruit. The fifth year is usually the time of the first considerable yield. In Java three gatherings are made annually, called the "early," the "chief" and the "after crop," but only the second is of great importance. The flower enjoys but a very ephemeral existence, as the setting of the fruit generally takes place within twenty-four hours, and the petals wither and fall off almost immediately. A coffee estate in full flower is a very beautiful sight, but its glory is very soon past.—Westminster Gazette.
