Further Street Improvements Planned—More Lights on Streets—Licenses Granted and Denied.

The board of aldermen met in regular monthly session, Thursday night, with seven members present. In the absence of the mayor, Mayor pro tem E. G. Flanagan presided.

It was ordered that a plat be made of Pitt and Third streets, showing proper width, and to submit it to property owners to ascertain if each would give the amount of land necessary to make the proper width.

D. D. Overton, chief of fire department, recommended the purchase of some couplings to fit old hose; and also a donation to Rough & Ready company to help defray expenses of delegates to the colored firemen's convention. The board donated $15.

W. S. Moye requested the privilege of a gun club having target practice on Greenville Heights. The request was granted.

J. J. Corey was given privilege of running a restaurant under a license issued to W. H. Allen.

The street committee was instructed with D. M. Clark for engineering with D. M. Clark for engineering work in connection with the street improvements.

The water and light commission recommended that a light be put at the river bridge on Pitt street. The committee was authorized to place the light, and also one on Second street near Short.

Chief of police was instructed to notify C. W. Harvey to remove rubbish placed on street near his property.

The street committee was authorized to make arrangements for having paved streets swept.

The mayor was instructed to draw an ordinance requiring the property owners on Third, Fourth and Fifth streets, between Washington and Cotanch, to put down stone or hard sidewalk curbing.

The officers made their reports for the past month, which were approved.

Petition of W. E. Moore to run a shooting gallery was not granted.

W. W. Moore was released from the payment of livery license except for the time he was engaged in the business.

The meeting adjourned to a called meeting on Wednesday night, September 7th.

SHIPS HELD AT QUARANTINE.

Precaution Against Importation of Disease.

By Wire to The Reflector.
New York, Sept. 2.—The steamship Lusitania was held at quarantine all night last night because some of her passengers were suspected of having cholera. This morning when it was found the passengers did not have the dreaded disease, the ship was allowed to proceed to her dock. Government health officers announce that the inspection of all incoming ships will be maintained. Prevalence of the disease in four European countries and flight of people from the stricken districts is the cause of this precaution.

COTTON CROP FOR LAST YEAR.

Little Over Ten and Half Millions Bales.

By Wire to The Reflector.
New York, Sept. 2.—The New York cotton exchange today announced its estimate of the commercial cotton for the year ending September 1st, 1910. It estimates a total of 10,513,002 bales. North Carolina's estimate is 651,439; South Carolina 1,166,714; Virginia 63,932; Louisiana 274,898; Alabama 1,067,211; Arkansas 719,084; Oklahoma 375,109; Tennessee 354,131 Florida 63,007.

Critically Ill at Hospital.

Master Baird Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Brooks, recently operated on at the Washington Hospital as critically ill. The reports from his bedside today is that while he is holding his own his condition is still precarious. His playmates and friends wish for him a speedy recovery to health.—Washington News.

FAVORS THE TORRENS SYSTEM.

But Thinks It Should be Modified from The Massachusetts Law.

Editor Reflector:
Some days ago I noticed in a copy of your paper that Mr. Barwick, the mayor of Ayden, strongly advocated the Torrens Land System for North Carolina, and urged upon the Democratic voters of Pitt county the necessity of sending Mr. R. R. Cotten to the senate to make this Massachusetts law a law in our own state. At the time Mr. Barwick published this article, I knew very little of the Torrens Land System, so replying for information, I criticized a few of his points and asked that a clear and concise explanation of the system be given.

I have been both surprised and disappointed, that a man of Mr. Barwick's intelligence and ability has not rendered to we voters of Pitt county this much sought information. However, I noticed in Wednesday's Reflector an article taken from the Progressive Farmer, and I am glad to see that Mr. Cotten or Mr. Barwick have at least secured some information for us on this subject, although they were not the authors of it. It does seem that if Mr. Barwick expected us to accept this system upon his advocacy he would have explained the same; and that if we were expected to look to Mr. Cotten to pass this law for us, he would have pointed out for our benefit the advantages of the system, and not waited for the Progressive Farmer to do this "charitable act."

Now, in explanation of the position I have taken, I wish to state, that, in so much as I now believe the Torrens System is to the advantage of the majority of the people, I am heartily in favor of it; that is when it has been so modified that it will fit the conditions existing here in North Carolina, and not copied from a bill devised for a state like Massachusetts. But I do not object to sending a man to the senate upon this sole issue of so little immediate importance, or of pledging our legislators to get through this foreign law, as the Progressive Farmer would have us do.

It is indeed painful to note the general opinion of the Progressive Farmer has of the profession called law, and the pessimistic view it takes of our legislature when composed of a majority of lawyers. Yet who have we, not of the profession of law, who has made a study of the laws governing real estate, and is capable of constructing a law for North Carolina, upon the principles of the Torrens System, and with a mechanism equal to that of the Massachusetts law?

If we are to have a Torrens System in our state or county, and it is to be hoped we will have one, let us have an adequate law, made by competent, honest lawyers, of which we have plenty.

Yours very truly,
D. M. CLARK.

THERE ARE OTHERS COMPETENT

Member of Grand Jury and a Democrat.

Editor Reflector:
The article in your paper of August 29th, signed by N. R. Corey, in which he pleads so piteously the goodness of our present clerk of the court, and insists that he is the only man in the county that is competent to fill the office, notwithstanding he has held it for twelve years.

So far as his qualifications are concerned, we do not care to differ with Mr. Corey, but we do insist that Pitt county has a number of men that are fully competent and we are certain that it is not best to keep any man in office for any county position longer than twelve years, and by so doing you will cause indifference among our party supporters.

Mr. Corey also states that some of the records are lost and rather gives this a reason that our present incumbent be re-elected.

There was a vault in the office and we believe the clerk did his duty in putting the records in the vault, and for evidence that we are right, we refer to the report of the fire published in The Reflector on February 25th, in which it is stated that the records are safe. Also the reports of the grand juries for April and August (myself being one of the jurors) show that the records were all right except slight damage to some books, and the jury based its report largely upon Mr. Moore's statement.

Now, which shall we believe, the statement published by The Reflector

CAROLINA CLUB.

Holds Annual Meeting and Elects Officers.

Thursday night the annual meeting of Carolina Club was held in the club reception room, with a fair attendance of the members.

The first business was hearing the report of the board of governors covering the period since reorganization. This report showed a membership of 68, that the club is free from debt and has money to its credit. The quarters are handsomely finished and the club was never in such good condition as now.

The following officers were elected: President—W. L. Hall. Vice President—E. B. Sugg. Secretary—M. L. Turnage. Treasurer—A. J. Moore.

Board of Governors—C. C. Pierce, Dr. D. L. James, R. A. Tyson, Jr., R. Williams, O. C. Gregory and J. S. Mooring, the president and secretary ex-officio members of the board.

A committee for soliciting membership was appointed, consisting of C. T. Munford, J. S. Mooring and D. J. Whichard.

While the club has a creditable membership, it should be larger, for it is an institution of which the town should be proud.

TRADE REPORT.

General Conditions Unchanged—Rain Retarded Trade.

Richmond, Va., September 2.—Bradstreet's Saturday will say for Richmond and vicinity: The general conditions of trade continue about as reported last week. Continued cloudy weather and rain have retarded the retail trade. Manufacturers of tobacco, cheroots and cigars report active ordering. Dealers in malt and spirituous liquors report business well up to the average and in some instances in excess to recent years. Wholesalers of shoes and rubber goods continue to receive satisfactory orders and fall shipments are going forward. Dry goods are quiet but some improvement is noted. Scrap iron and junk are in poor demand. Naval stores continue firm. Crop reports are encouraging and with continued favorable weather a fair cotton and tobacco crop is expected, but not up to the average on account of early unfavorable weather. Collections in all lines are slow.

FARMERS ELECT OFFICERS.

The State Convention a Successful Gathering.

The Farmers' State Convention, just held in Raleigh, was a most successful meeting both in interest and attendance. On the last day of the meeting the following officers were elected:

President—Frank Shields, of Scotland Neck.

Vice President—Dr. A. S. Wheeler, of Billmore.

Secretary—Dr. I. O. Schaub, of Raleigh.

Those attending the convention from Pitt county were McD. Horton, Jr., J. T. Thorne, A. J. Moye, M. L. Moye, Joel W. Moye, Farmville; S. M. Crisp, Falkland; G. T. Tyson, Wm. McArthur, Robert McArthur, D. D. Haskett, Greenville; J. P. Quinerly, Jr., Grifton; F. A. Haddock, Winterville.

ROOSEVELT IN DENVER.

Greeted There as 'Our Next President.'

By Wire to The Reflector.

Omaha, Sept. 2.—Despite the early hour of his arrival here, Theodore Roosevelt was greeted by thousands of men, women and children. The day started out bright and clear, and with it began the biggest welcome Mr. Roosevelt has yet had. He is scheduled to talk today about the Panama canal. Omaha is decorated from top to bottom with flags and campaign posters of the former president. Many of these pictures are labelled "Theo. Roosevelt, our next president."

Occasionally a man gets so much self-respect that he can't enjoy life.

and affirmed by the grand jurors of April and August terms of court and that made by Mr. Moore himself to the jury, or Mr. Corey.

HAPPENINGS THROUGHOUT NORTH CAROLINA.

CREAM OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE EXCHANGES.

Chinaman Dead in Wilmington—New Born Boy Died From Bite of Lamprey Eel—Almond Tree in Kinston.

Ah Wing, a well known Chinaman, died at his home in East Wilmington Tuesday of dropsy, after an illness of some time. He was 46 years old and was married. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery yesterday afternoon and a number of Chinamen of the city attended the services.—Wilmington Star.

While playing in a pool of water on West street a few days ago the small son of an Asryan, who lives in that section of the city was bitten by a lamprey eel and in consequence died a few hours later. The boy was only three or four years of age and when the poison from the bite of the eel began to take effect his suffering was indeed horrible to behold.—New Bern Journal.

Mrs. A. Mitchell has in her beautiful yard at her home on Mitchell street an almond tree that is bearing. Several fully matured and ripe nuts were gathered from the tree yesterday. The tree was grown from a seed planted in the yard some years ago by Mrs. Mitchell and this is the first season that it has born fruit. This is another practical demonstration of what a wonderful climate ours is. Practically everything that is grown under the sun, can be grown here.—Kinston Free Press.

THE PRICE WILL BE HIGHER.

To The Cotton Interests of The South.

New York City, Aug 31, 1910. The coming year, in our opinion, offers to cotton producers an opportunity which is perhaps not fully appreciated. Hence the following:

Last season we realized the crop to be a very short one, and fifteen cents appeared a reasonable figure to us under the circumstance. That price, we may say, was maintained against combined efforts to the entire world, and, indeed, the only reason the price did not rule higher was the fact that the crop then available followed the longest one on record—14,000,000 bales. Accordingly, there were then very large visible and invisible stocks in spinners' hands, as well as a large supply of manufactured goods on spinners', jobbers and retailers shelves.

It would have been impossible to maintain last season's price if that price had not been justified in every particular. All interests fought the advance strongly, so that this season finds spinners, jobbers and retailers with the smallest supplies known since the war. In other words, the situation in this respect is exactly opposite from last year, at the same date, and there is absolutely no reserve stock to fall back on to supply any shortage that may develop.

The world requires a supply of 13,500,000 bales minimum this coming season to hold stocks for this time next year in a position no more strained than they occupy today. A crop of 12,500,000 bales would be given away if sold under 16c. The world would have to take it all at even higher prices if it were held for same.

And what crop may we expect? Last year the States, exclusive of Texas and Oklahoma, produced about 7,500,000 bales, and there is no reason to expect a larger yield from the same States this year, especially when the crop is three weeks late. In fact any increase must be extremely small, and on the contrary there is a strong probability that instead of an increase there will be a decrease. Texas and Oklahoma certainly do not indicate over 4,000,000, and these figures also more likely to be reduced than raised. Therefore, the total yield indicated is certainly not more than 11,500,000 to 12,000,000 bales.

Now at the opening this year the trade is hovering over the market like a vulture, hoping that the producer will rush to market his crop as he has in seasons past, even if he can get only 13c for it. In our judgment, those who follow such a policy will not only be robbing themselves—they will be throwing away the opportunity of a lifetime; and they will also be destroying the value of their neighbors' property.

It is a matter of little concern to us

Turk a Fine Dog.

Mr. J. Milton Johnston's dog, Turk, is certainly a fine animal, intelligent and well trained. Mr. Johnston had Turk at the Amuzu Theatre, Tuesday night, and the large audience was delighted with the splendid exhibition. Turk marched, waltzed, jumped through a hoop and did other tricks, the crowning feat being climbing a ladder and jumping off into a canvas sheet held below. Turk is as well trained as any dog we have ever seen.

More New Lawyers.

There were seventy-seven persons to stand the examination for license to practice law, before the Supreme court this week, and of this number fifty-five passed successfully. We see no one from Pitt county in the list of applicants.

that our efforts to establish a fair price for cotton, according to the law of supply and demand, were neither realized nor appreciated by those interested last season. That is now past history, but to allow this crop to rush to market without first warning the producers of the costly mistakes they may make and the advantages they stand to realize with wisdom would not be just to the cause we espouse.

Nor do we forget the ultimate consumer. He does not believe it, but it is true, that the price of raw cotton affects him but little. Prices remained virtually unchanged to him last year, in the face of the advance recorded on the cotton exchanges, and there is every reason to believe that the actual consumption last year was larger than the year previous. What we must adjust ourselves to is a gradual yearly increase in price to supply new industries and a growing population, the world over. But this increase will make itself felt gradually in retail prices. Cotton could advance enormously before the appreciation would be felt by the ultimate consumer. Most of the cost of the finished product bought by the ultimate consumer is accounted for in the many and varied processes of manufacture, transshipments and rehandlings.

What rules the producer, though, is not the cost of manufacture, but the law of demand and supply, and to him we say that, in our belief, a crop of 11,500,000 bales would readily be consumed this season at twenty cents.

COTTON CROP CONDITION.

One Per Cent. Below the Average for Two Years.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Washington, Sept. 2.—The crop reporting board of the bureau of statistics, Department of Agriculture, estimates from reports of correspondents and agents of the bureau that the average condition of the cotton crop on August 25th, was 72.1 per cent of normal, as compared with 75.5 July 25, and 63.7 August 25th last year, and 73.1 average for ten years.

LARGE TOBACCO SALES.

Warehouses Have Big Breaks and It Sells Well.

There were busy times out on the tobacco market today. As was expected after the weather improved, the warehouses all had large sales, there being between 175,000 and 200,000 pounds on the floors. The buyers were anxious for it and bidding was lively. There were many farmers from neighboring counties who have learned that Greenville is the best market they can find.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1910.

Mr. Roosevelt is not the first man who talked too much.

Perhaps the many big "I's" Mr. Roosevelt used in his speeches were so heavy they cracked his voice.

John Brown's bust in the hall of fame in Washington would be a black spot among the group of notable men represented there.

If Mr. Roosevelt wants to chase crooks he might do better to come back from the West and put in his time after some of them in Washington.

You can always count on Congressman John H. Small. He delivered a response to the address of welcome at the Inland Waterways Convention in Providence, R. I., and his speech measured up to his high standard.

Poor Uncle Joe.

So they are casting Uncle Joe aside, are they? They used him as long as they could; they availed themselves of his extraordinary qualities of leadership until the rising storm warned them that he was no longer an element of strength to the predatory interests. Then they make him a scapegoat; heap their sins upon him and send him into the wilderness. In what respect is he worse than those virtuous standpatters who now spurn him? They stand for the "system" as much as he does—only they have not been in the lime light. But so it ever was with those who serve the special interests. They have no gratitude; they show no mercy. They measure men by what they can do for them—not by what they have done for them.

Poor Uncle Joe, if he is a reader of Shakespeare he must often repeat Woolsey's lament, "Had I but served my God with half the zeal I served my king he would not in mine age have left me naked to mine enemies."
 —The Commoner.

No More Room for Patients.

An application by the Wake county authorities for the admission of a very urgent case of insanity to the State hospital for the insane at Raleigh elicits the surprising statement from Dr. McKee, superintendent, that the institution is full up and that there is no room for even a desperately insane white woman who is now locked in the county jail because she cannot be managed in the county home or elsewhere with any degree of certainty that she will not succeed in taking her own life for which she has developed a mania. A short time before she was locked up in jail she jumped into a boiling washpot and burned her legs awfully in attempting to kill herself. Later she mangled her throat with a broken plate trying to end her life. Her name is Willie Edlin, a maiden woman of about thirty odd years.—Ex.

It is rather surprising to learn that although quite the largest portion of the half million for asylums was expended on the central hospital at Raleigh, that institution is so crowded that an insane white woman, an urgent case, could not be placed therein on account of the crowded condition of the hospital, and was caged in the county jail of Wake. Every time this thing happens a sin is committed against humanity.—Catawba County News.

When we see the people turning out in such tremendous crowds to greet Mr. Roosevelt and listen to his carol harangues as he travels through the West, and when we remember how he marched through Europe a private citizen and received such attention at the hands of the nobility, we concede that he is the foremost private citizen in the world. But he forgets that he is nothing more than a private citizen. He conducts himself as a dictator and demagogue. It has long been known that he is brim-full of egotism and the attitude he is assuming in his roaring political harangues is indicative of his candidacy for a third term. He goes about just as if his election were already settled and his jaunt over the West has a political significance whether he will admit it or not. He pushes aside the real president, treats him with absolute unfairness and puts himself forward as the power of the land. The public yells at his reckless and roaring speeches and the louder they acclaim, the more bombastic he becomes. He says "I will make corporations come to time; I will keep order on the one hand and I shall insist upon order under all circumstances. I am going to cinch the crooks," and I will do a thousand and one other things. It is "I, I, I," in every word he utters and the patriotic and sensible people are becoming thoroughly disgusted.—Charlotte Chronicle.

"SAITO"

How seldom it is that one can purchase for a small figure a fabric that will give entire satisfaction, both in looks and wear. Brilliant in colorings and will not fade, though in contact with either sunshine or shower, in fact a beautiful SILK that will wash like white linen, retaining its beauty of color and quality.

"SAITO"

is the only Silk that will do this. Have you seen this

New Fabric?

Many will try to imitate this new creation of the manufacturer's art. Few will succeed.

J. R. & J. G. MOYE

ALONE SELLS IT IN GREENVILLE. THEY ALSO RECOMMEND IT TO WEAR, and GUARANTEE IT TO WASH.
