GOES TO THE FOREIGN FIELD.

Miss Laura V. Cox Leaves Saturday For Mexico.

Miss Laura V. Cox, of Winterville, who has been called to the foreign missionary work as a teacher, leaves Saturday for Guaymas, Mexico, in which field she will labor under the direction of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Miss Cox was left an orphan, without means, in her early girlhood and spent the years from that time until maturity with relatives, working part of the time and attending school as opportunity afforded. In this way she fitted herself for teaching in the public schools and taught a few years. She joined the Baptist church at an early age and very soon thereafter resolved to give her life to missionary work. She was ambitious to obtain a thorough education, to equip herself for this work, and her relatives recognizing her true worth assisted her in going to college. She first attended the State Normal in Greensboro for two years, then attended Meridith College in Raleigh for three years and graduated there with the B. A. degree. Last year she took a course in the mission teacher training department of the Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky. In addition to her English studies, Miss Cox mastered several of the languages, making a specialty of Spanish and goes to her work in the foreign field as well prepared as any woman the Southern Baptist Convention has sent out in mission work. Pitt county is proud of her, and the prayers and good wishes of many people will follow her in her labors for the Master.

The Reflector is glad to state that Miss Cox will let her many friends at home hear from her occasionally through the columns of the paper.

TOWNSEND'S BIG BREAK.

Peoples Warehouse Filled to Overflowing With Tobacco.

There was not a happier man on the tobacco market today than C. R. Townsend, manager of the Peoples warehouse branch of the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Co. At his house it was a special sales day of tobacco from Falkland and Farmville townships. For several days he has been advertising this special sale and working particularly among the farmers of those townships to interest them in it. The fruit of his hard work was shown in the large number who came and brought tobacco to this sale, his house being filled from side to side with about 100,000 pounds. It was a fine sale, and Townsend pushed every pile to its full value, making the farmers glad that they had come.

NEW DEVELOPMENT IN CASE

Cashier Says Currency Clerk Was the Thief.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Chicago, September 16.—Discovering that a warrant was out for the arrest of Arthur Beal, nephew of Cashier Fred Russell, of the United States sub-treasury in Chicago, was a startling development today in the case of George W. Fitzgerald, who is under arrest charged with the theft of $173,000 from the sub-treasury. The announcement came on top of the promise of Fitzgerald to tell Judge Landis of the man who he said he believed took the money. Beal, for whom detectives are searching, was currency clerk in the sub-treasury at the time the money vanished.

WANT TUTTLE FOR GOVERNOR.

Massachusetts Railroads Unions Seeking Former Railroad President.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Boston, Sept. 16.—A delegation representing sixteen railroad unions today presented a petition containing 11,000 signatures to former president Lucius Tuttle, of the Boston and Maine railroad, asking him to run for governor in November on the independent ticket. Tuttle told the delegates he would make known his decision later. Labor unions say the movement extends throughout the State. Tuttle retired from the presidency of the B. & M. last Wednesday and was succeeded by President Millner.

A man is apt to be either his own best friend or his own worst enemy.

"FIX MY SHOE," SAID HORSE.

Meandered to Smithy and Made Him Understand His Need.

Joe has hauled a Hickerson express wagon to and fro between the International Mercantile Marine dock and the express transfer station in Eighteenth street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, for fifteen years. He is blind in one eye and weak in the other, but he possesses sense of the true horse variety. His only side trips have been occasional visits to Mr. Carroll, the horseshoer in Christopher street, between Washington and West.

Well, this morning Joe was left in the stable because his right forefoot shoe needed fixing, and Dan Barry, Joe's driver, had no time to take him around to Carroll's before business hours. But that didn't make any difference to Joe. Barry started for the dock with Joe's relief hitched to the wagon when he happened to look back. Old Joe was quietly walking out of the stable and trotting away southward. Before the driver could fairly take in the situation Joe was out of sight.

Half an hour later Joe stopped in front of the Carroll blacksmith shop. "Ain't that Barry's horse? asked Carroll of his assistant. "It sure is. Must run away, nothin'," said Carroll. "That horse never runs away."

Joe raised his right fore hoof as if it hurt him. Carroll looked it over. "That hoof's all right. Only needs a new shoe," was the mental note of Carroll. The new shoe was fitted. Next thing Carroll knew Joe was trotting away, but not in the direction of the stable. He was covering the distance to the International Marine dock as fast as he could without exciting suspicion.

He got there all right and just waited for Dan Barry to turn up. Barry found Joe pawing, as nervous equines are wont to do, with his new ly shod right forehoof. The driver did not miss the glitter of the new shoe. "Well, what d' you think of that!" exclaimed Barry, as if some one were near at hand to hear him. "He went and got himself a shod, and I'll bet he told Carroll in good horse talk to have it charged."—New York Globe.

THE WOMAN FARMER.

Why Some of Them Fall in Their Work.

Maude Ranford Warren, discussing the methods and prospects of the "new" woman in the pursuit of agricultural science, has this to say: "Plenty of women fall in farming because they have taken it up either too hastily or with too little capital, or because they have already worn themselves out at some other vocation and have not the strength for the hard work of the farm."

..The work of the farm is hard, and perhaps the hardest part of it falls to the lot of the uncomplaining woman who drudges in the kitchen, looks after the poultry, cleans the house, mends the clothing, coddles the children, and in some localities, does the milking.

If in addition to all this, the "woman farmer" should find time and inclination to plow two acres a day and weed the corn field after she has picked the beans and strawberries she can manage to retain a scintilla of gentleness, she is a marvel of womanhood.

The wife of a pioneer farmer is a female martyr. Yet she has given the world some of its noblest, sturdiest sons. She is not aware of the dull monotony of her life. All the universe is centered in the farm. And she is its brilliant sun. Her task, however, as a farmer's wife, is a sufficiently large one, and it is no wonder if she often falls when she endeavors and be a "woman farmer."—Philadelphia Press.

CRIPPEN CHEERFUL.

Government Having Hard Time Establishing Its Case.

By Cable to The Reflector.

London, Sept. 16.—The Crippen hearing was resumed again today with the same big crowd in attendance. The government is having a hard time establishing its case. Expert witnesses for the government again said it was impossible to tell whether the body found was that of a man or a woman, much less to identify it as the remains of Belle Elmore. Crippen appeared cheerful and quickly noted all flaws in the governments evidence.

MAIL DELIVERY BY MOTORCYCLE.

Pitt County Has Gone Ahead on This, Too.

Carrier Make Bost, of Route 5, has bought a motorcycle, and when the state of roads and the weather permits of his using same on his route, he will be able to serve all his patrons by noon each day, and also will get back in time to get off mail on the southbound C. & N. W. The machine is a Wagner, 3 1-2 horse power, one cylinder, and it sells for something above $200.—Catawba County News.

—Pitt county is way ahead on this, and some of her rural mail carriers have strictly up to date methods of carrying their routes. Some years ago Carrier Roberson, on one of the Stoke's routes, got a motor buggy for carrying his route. He used this for some time and then changed to a motorcycle, finding that it was cheaper to operate the latter. And Carrier Anderson, on one of the Greenville routes, is even ahead of this. He has an automobile and frequently carries his route in his car. So you see Pitt county mail carriers are right on the dot in their work.

FIRE IN BEAVER DAM.

Mrs. Allie Joyner Loses Her Dwelling House and Contents.

About one o'clock on Wednesday morning Mrs. Allie Joyner, of Beaver Dam township, lost her dwelling house and kitchen, and practically all the contents of both, by fire. Her son was first to discover the fire, and he barely had time to awaken his aged mother and get her out in safety. By the time the neighbors could be aroused with the ringing of the farm bell and reach the scene, the fire had so far advanced that practically nothing could be saved from the building. The fire started somewhere about the kitchen, but the cause is unknown.

Mrs. Joyner's loss is about $1,500 on which she only had $375 insurance. Notwithstanding her advanced age, she being over 80, she takes the loss of her home with remarkable resignation. She was heard to remark: "If the Lord saw fit to take away her home in her old age, it was all right, as he would soon take her and there will be nothing for her to trouble over."

FARMERS' UNION PICNIC.

Great Crowd at Simpson Thursday and Fine Speeches.

Thursday at Simpson one of the largest crowds that has gathered in a long time was present at the Farmers' Union picnic. The attendance was estimated at 3,000, people being there from various sections of the county and even from neighboring counties. Enthusiastic speeches were made by Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes, and by Mr. J. Z. Green, State lecturer of the union.

The dinner was also a great feature of the day, there being plenty to feed the large crowd and to spare. The Farmers' Union is growing rapidly in this section and the organization is doing much good.

AFTER N. Y. GAMBLING DEN.

Acting Mayor Gives Orders That They Be Broken Up.

By Wire to The Reflector.

New York, Sept. 16.—Another sensational and spectacular crusade against gambling in New York is under way today. Acting Mayor Mitchell has obtained the addresses of ring and fashion gambling establishments, and has given orders to the police to break them up, smashing doors, if necessary, to get into them. It is charged that these places are paying for police protection and to date have enjoyed immunity.

All Lovely in Montana.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Missoula, Mont., Sept. 16.—The Republican convention had a harmonious session here and the threatened insurgents uprising failed to appear. Both Roosevelt and Taft were endorsed.

Circus Passed Through.

Today a small circus that travels through the country in wagons, passed through town going from Grimesland to Farmville. There were some fifteen or twenty wagons of it.

GODWIN GETS NOMINATION.

Sixth District Congressional Nuddle Settled in Primary.

Dunn, September 15.—At 11 o'clock tonight Mr. J. C. Clifford, manager of Mr. Godwin's campaign, claimed that Mr. Godwin had carried the entire district by a majority of not less than 2,000. Brunswick county gives Mr. Godwin a majority of 500, while Bladen is claimed for Mr. Clark by 200 majority.

Lumberton, September 15.—Incomplete returns from seventeen of the twenty-three townships in Robeson give H. L. Godwin a majority of 1,340 over O. L. Clark in the primary election here today, Godwin receiving 1,787 votes and Clark 447.

Whiteville, Sept. 15.—Twelve voting precincts out of seventeen give Hon. H. L. Godwin a majority of six hundred and ninety-four over Oscar L. Clark, candidate for congress from the sixth congressional district.

Godwin's majority is conservatively estimated at from seven hundred to seven hundred and fifty in Columbus county. Godwin's majority in Whiteville township was only eleven votes.

Lillington, Sept. 15.—Godwin carries Harnett by a large majority, the complete returns give Godwin seven hundred and seven Clark one hundred and five. Several precincts are unheard from. It is predicted that Godwin will have one thousand and Clark one hundred and fifty. People turned out better than expected.

Fayetteville, Sept. 15.—In the sixth district congressional primary election today, the returns from fourteen precincts indicate without doubt that H. L. Godwin has carried Cumberland county by at least three hundred majority.

Clarkton, Sept. 15.—Brown Marsh township, Clark's home, gave Clark 102, Godwin nothing. Three other townships, Clark 188, Godwin 40.

Wilmington, Sept. 15.—Hannibal L. Godwin, of Harnett county, was nominated for congress in the sixth district today in the special primary, over Oscar L. Clark, of Bladen county by a majority of about four thousand. Every county in the district having gone for Godwin, except Bladen, which probably went for Clark by a majority of about two hundred and fifty, but complete returns could not be obtained tonight. The victory of Congressman Godwin's overwhelming, and is far greater than expected by his most earnest supporters.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

Gathered From Our Exchanges Today of Events Just Happened.

Gastonia, Sept. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. W. V. West, who live at the Loray mill, are receiving congratulations from their friends on every hand upon the event which occurred in their household yesterday morning when three fine, well developed and healthy boys arrived at the West home. The triplets are doing fine and the mother is getting along very well. Mr. and Mrs. West have two children besides these, a boy and a girl. The father is boss machinists at the Loray mill.

Salisbury, September 15.—John M. Julian, editor of the Salisbury Post, and secretary of the Bill Nye Memorial Association in North Carolina, who was stricken with pellagra two weeks ago, is rapidly sinking and no hope is entertained for his recovery. His case is acute, and he has been unconscious since Sunday. Death is expected at any hour.

Professional Beggars.

A number of professional beggars are now plying their trade, if such is may be called, in this city. In saying that these people are professionals we doubt that we veer from the truth in the least respect, for the same faces have been seen here many times previously. In one case the seeker of alms, has, to the writer's personal knowledge, been visiting this city for the past five years. She has repeatedly been offered a place in various county homes, but this she always refused, preferring to beg from the public. Such cases are impositions and should not be tolerated. When these people call refer them to the Associated Charities, and if they deserve aid it will be gladly given.—New Bern Journal.

No one will believe in you until you believe in yourself.

PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The People Who Come and go on Our Trains.

Mrs. T. J. Jarvis returned home Thursday evening from a trip of several weeks to Lincoln Springs and Shelby.

Mr. F. S. Quinn, of Norfolk, came in Thursday evening to visit relatives.

Messrs. Tom Dupree and John Shelburn went to Wilson Thursday evening.

Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes, was here a short while Thursday evening.

Mr. Reuben Bagley, of Stantonsburg, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. I. F. Lee and Mrs. W. B. Greene returned Thursday evening from Baltimore and Richmond.

Mr. Robert Greene returned Thursday evening from Richmond, where he had been to have his ears treated.

SPRINKLE BUSINESS SECTION.

Birds That Can Sing and Won't Sing, Should be Made to Sing.

Editor Reflector:

The merchants of the town would like to know why it is Evans street from Dickinson avenue to the court house square and one square of Third Fourth and Fifth streets on either side of Evans street can not be sprinkled so as to protect their stocks from the dust which they are receiving in immense quantities these windy days.

If the street committee is too busy to attend to this the merchants will have it done, if the said committee will allow them to use two sections of hose and the necessary water.

TWO MERCHANTS.

He Addressed the Jury.

A man who had never been in court before in his life was recently called as a witness in a court in southern Indiana. On being sworn he took a position with his back to the jury and began telling his story to the judge, who courteously said, "Address your remarks to the jury, sir."

The witness paused a moment, but not comprehending what was said to him, remained in the same position. The judge was then more explicit and said, "Speak to the jury, sir—the men behind you on the benches."

The witness turned around, bowed awkwardly, and said, "Good morning, gentlemen."—National Monthly.

A Query.

Editor Reflector:

I would like to ask what authority the white graded school of Greenville is to be opened on Wednesday, 21st, when the board of trustees had named Thursday, 22nd, as the date upon which it should open? It looks like somebody is taking more authority in the conduct of our school than is delegated to them.

Back From Millinery Centers.

Mrs. I. F. Lee and Mrs. W. B. Greene announce their return from Northern millinery centres having selected goods for Mrs. I. F. Lee & Co. We visited the hat parlors of a milliner direct from Paris. At our opening (to be announced later) we will show the newest and most up to date styles in all the latest shapes and shades for fall. Come and see us. 17d 1w. MRS. I. F. LEE & CO.

Big Breaks Today.

The several tobacco warehouses had tremendous breaks today, there being about 300,000 pounds on the market. Prices were remarkably good on such a large break, the farmers all expressing satisfaction at their sales. Greenville always holds her record in high prices for tobacco and is not passed by any other market.

Newspaper Man for Governor.

By Wire to The Reflector.

St. Paul, Sept. 16.—The nomination of James Gray to fill vacancy on the ticket caused by refusal of ex-Governor Lind to run again was made unanimous by the Democratic State central committee. Gray is a newspaper man of note.

Cellar Door Politics.

All this Roosevelt-Lorimer racket about the Hamilton club banquet at Chicago looks mighty trivial and childish to the proverbial man-up-a-tree. It's such a foolish little fuss for big men to engage in. "Smarty, smarty, gave a party," as the school children say, and invited Col. Roosevelt to be guests of honor, but Teddy, with whom politics was stronger than politeness, pouted and sent word that he didn't care to play in that back yard or slide down that particular cellar door unless that horrid Lorimer boy was tapped on the wrist and bounced over the fence. Some nerve, considering that it was Senator Lorimer's own back yard, for he was a member of the Hamilton club. But the other little boys were afraid of Teddy with his big stick, so they wrote and told Lorimer he mustn't come and play with them that day.

And now come Senator Lorimer's friends, with their thumbs to their noses, crying "Goody, goody, goody, we're going to give a party, too, and it's going to be bigger than your party and we don't want to play in your old back yard! And we're going to invite President Taft to sit at the head of the table—not because we want him particularly, but just to spite you."

Oh fudge!—Atlanta Journal.

Spider Kills a Mouse.

A curious sight was observed at Hotel Potter a few days ago when a spider was seen to capture and kill a mouse. The spider wove a web into which the mouse ventured and was caught, whereupon the spider seized him and held on until the mouse ceased his struggles and was dead.—Snow Hill Standard Laconic.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1910.

Business men pulling against each other is no way to pull business to a town.

There are some other Republican states that might follow the example of Maine, if they want to get decent.

Greensboro is working to get a commission form of government. Hope it will win out so the rest of us can see how it works.

The Republicans may try to make any excuse for it they please, but the Democrats carried Maine all the same.

In addition to the Democratic congressmen elected in Maine, the legislature will also elect a Democratic senator.

South Carolina newspapers must be weak in influence. In the primary in that state Blessie won out for governor with every paper but one against him. They must feel sore.

The decision of President Taft to make no further distinction between insurgents and regulars in the distribution of offices, has given some of the North Carolina pie hunters shake.

The Greensboro News suggests that North Carolina Democrats better have their thanksgiving this year before the November election. No need of that at all. They will have it at the usual time and with plenty to rejoice over, not only in this State but elsewhere.

The report is going around that the North Carolina Republicans have a barrel of money to spend in this campaign. It may help somebody for the money to get in circulation, but none of them will be helped by getting offices they hope to buy with the money.

A book that should be in the hands of every voter in the state is the Democratic Hand-Book that is now being sent out by the state executive committee, and a copy of which can be had by addressing Chairman A. H. Eller at Raleigh. The book contains 228 pages of campaign matter bearing upon both state and national politics and a comparison of the records of the two parties. Those who want to be informed on these things should read the book.

What is this coming to light now? Is Dr. Cook really going to make good? A Copenhagen dispatch states that he is enroute there from Etah with proof of his claims to the discovery of the North Pole. From this it may be inferred, if the dispatch is not a fake, that the time Cook was lost to the world and supposed to be in an asylum in some secluded place, he has been back in the Arctic regions gathering together the proof which he claims to have left behind.

Right and Wrong.

To try to be good as I toddle along I try to be decent and white; but oh, it's easy to live your life wrong, and often it's hard to do right! A man can go wrong without sweating a hair but if he would stick to the right, he has to be watching with vigilant care, and never let up in his fight. I find it so easy to spread a report, that darkens the fame of a man! It costs me an effort to pull myself short, and praise him the best that I can. I find it so easy, when making a trade, to say that my horse is a jockey, and its hard to confess that he's old and decayed, and not worth a kopeck a throw. I find it so easy to brag and to boast, and swell myself up like a joss; and I hate to admit that I'm merely at most, no more than a fierce total loss. I try to be decent and humble and fair, and never have I understood, as I journeyed the pathway with vigilant care, why it takes so much work to be good!—Walt Mason.

We are copying this from The Richmond Times-Dispatch—"It costs $17,596.10 to nominate Hoke Smith for governor of Georgia. Of this amount Mr. Smith's friends put up $7,997.47, and the rest of it came out of his own pocket. The salary of the governor of Georgia is $5,000 the year and the term of office two years, so that Hoke has spent more to get the office by $498.63 than he will receive in the way of salary. With a few damage suits against the corporations, however, between now and the date of his inauguration, he ought to take in enough to make things comparatively easy at the Executive Mansion during his incumbency. 'Little Joe' Brown spent $3,950.75, and was defeated. He has probably lived well within his income while governor. Why the boys didn't pluck Hoke a little cleaner we cannot understand—" simply to observe that Deacon Hemphill's closing remark was just about as pat as pat could be.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The visitor to the United States is very much impressed by the variety of dishes that the American housekeeper includes in her daily family menus, particularly if the visitor extends her travels west and south.

But there is one dish for which the Australian visitor has until recently looked in vain. It is called the passion fruit and is cultivated largely and highly esteemed in Australia.

As the Australians know the passion fruit it is a vine very much resembling the ornamental passion flower grown in gardens in many parts of the world.

The flower of the plant resembles that of the ordinary lavender-tinted variety, but is smaller and much more insignificant. The fruit is described by botanists as a berry about the size of a hen's egg, slate-color, with a thick though, leathery rind, which at the stage of complete ripeness shrinks and crinkles up.

The fruit both keeps and carries well, especially if plucked when a little unripe. Inside is a yellowish, mottled, jelly-like pulp with little flat, pointed black seeds. This pulp has a delicious subacid flavor, somewhat like peaches and cream with a dash of lemonade, and an elusive something all its own, besides.

There is no end to the ways in which it can be used. It can be eaten plain, as English people eat boiled eggs, with a small spoon, the top being first cut off. Or, if the fruit is cut open, the pulp may be served in a souce-dish with powdered sugar and cream. As a basis for fruit salad it has not its equal. There is nothing it will not blend with, oranges, grapes, apricots or pineapple.—Alice Henry, in the Designer.

The happiest man in the world, says an Atlanta paper, is said to reside in North Georgia. He has six fiddles, ten children, thirteen hounds, a deaf-and-dumb wife, and a moonshine still that has never been spotted by the government.—Reidsville Weekly.

Good Way to Use Hyomei for Catarrh. Besides breathing through the inhaler a few times a day, many catarrh sufferers write that they find inhaling HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-mee) from a bowl of steaming water, each night before retiring a great aid in curing stubborn cases.

Try it; it's very simple; gives quick relief and makes you breathe easier. Fill a bowl half full of boiling water; pour into the water a teaspoonful of HYOMEI, cover head and bowl with a towel, and breathe through nose and mouth the pleasant, medicated, anti-septic and healing vapor that arises. This method relieves that stiffness at once, and makes your head feel fine.

You can get a bottle of HYOMEI at druggists everywhere or at Coward & Wooten's for only 50 cents. Ask for extra bottle HYOMEI Inhaler.

But bear in mind that a HYOMEI outfit which includes inhaler and bottle of HYOMEI costs $1.00.

But, as stated before, if you already own an inhaler a bottle of HYOMEI costs but 50 cents. HYOMEI is guaranteed by Coward & Wooten and druggists everywhere to cure catarrh, sore throat, coughs, colds, asthma and croup, or money back. Try it on that generous basis.

"Niggering" Logs.
The question was asked me as a native of Maine if I could find out what "niggering" logs meant in the statement "We niggered the logs." I found that to "nigger" logs was to save the labor of chopping them into lengths by piling them up crossed at points where it was desired to separate them.
By building fires under these crossings several logs could be burned into sections at once. Because "a nigger" was supposed to be lazy this lazy man's way of cutting logs into lengths was, naturally enough, called "nig-gering."—Appleton Morgan in New Shakespeareana.

The Inexpensive Policeman.
Mr. Walter Seymour, who writes
"Ups and Downs of a Wandering Life," had Thorold Rogers for a tutor while at Oxford. Rogers was as amusing as he was heterodox. "I remember asking him one day, 'Mr. Rogers, what do you consider the origin of the idea of the devil?' 'Cheapest policeman they could find!'"

A Mistake.
Applicant For Situation—I've come about that job wot was advertised.
Employer—Well, can you do the work?
Applicant (in great alarm)—Work! I thought it was a foreman you wanted!
—Punch.

His Penalty.

you asked him for my hand? Gerald—He said that he wouldn't stand in the way of my unhappiness if I needed the money badly.—New York Press.

FARMER'S WIFE HAD HEAP TO DO

Mrs. Shepherd Was in Bad Shape
When She Could Not Stand on Her Feet.

Durham, N. C.—"I am a farmer's wife," writes Mrs. J. M. Shepherd, of this city, "and have a heap to do."
"Four months ago I could not stand on my feet, to do anything much, but at this time I do the most of my work. I took Cardui and it did me more good than all the doctors."

"You don't know half how I thank you for the Cardui Home Treatment. I wish that all women who suffer from womanly trouble would treat themselves as I have."
Ladies can easily treat themselves at home, with Cardui, the woman's tonic.
It is easy to take, and so gentle in its action, that it cannot do anything but good.

Being composed exclusively of vegetable ingredients, Cardui cannot lay up trouble in your system, as mineral drugs often do. Its ingredients having no harsh, medicinal effects, and being non-poisonous and perfectly harmless, Cardui is absolutely safe for young and old.
Ask your druggist. He will tell you to try Cardui.

By Wire to The Reflector.

New York, Sept. 15.—Cotton opened steady today, due to cover night orders, 2 to 6 points higher. Following the fall there were further advances on commission house buying. Gile's report was issued today and showed 68 against 73.2 on August 15th and 73.1 on August 1st. This had some effect on buying here. Opening: September 13.60; October 13.13; December 13.07; January 13.03; February 13.10 bid.

New York, Sept. 16.—The stock market opened quiet and steady today, prices practically unchanged, but traders predicted there would be an upward movement in leading issues before the end of the day. American stocks in London showed improvement and there were advances throughout the list 1/4 to 1/2.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Easy cables and favorable weather caused lower market in the wheat pit at the opening today. Prices were off 1/2 to 3/4c under general commission house selling. Later there was 1/2c rally. Corn was lower, oats easier with other grains, provisions strong. Opening September wheat, 94, corn, 55 1/2; oats 35; pork, January, 18.50.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

To Nominate Candidates for the Legislature and County Offices.

By direction of the Republican executive committee of Pitt county, notice is hereby given that the Republican voters of the several precincts of Pitt county are directed to assemble at their respective precincts at 3 p. m., Saturday, September 24, 1910, for the purpose of selecting delegates and alternates to the county convention, which by direction of the executive committee is hereby called to meet in the town hall in Greenville, N. C., on Saturday, October 1st, at 12 m.

Regardless of past party affiliations, all voters of Pitt county who believe in local self government in its broadest conception, and who are opposed to issuing county or township bonds to build public roads, and in favor of

LAST CALL FOR BELL PEPPER—
D. D. Haskett. 9 12 916

If there ever was a time when temperance people should work it is now. The importation of casks of liquor from a wet to a dry territory is a great imposition upon the good people of a country. When will this iniquity cease? Many who have the incubated disease will get the poison if they can reach it in any way. It does seem that our government might aid these poor wretches by helping to keep the destroyer from them. The near beer business does not make any showing for morality or soberness so far as we have been able to see. We trust the next legislature will wipe this disgusting business from the face of our good old state.—Ayden Baptist.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

There is no other such fashion and style in clothes as you'll find in these; there's no other clothing you can mention by name that's known positively to be all-wool, in all fabrics used; there's no other that fits so well as HART SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES.

In addition to our large stock of Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes, we are showing the newest and most attractive styles in hats, shoes and what a man wears. A pair of Banister shoes, a Hawes Hat and one of our new neck ties will give you the only finishing touch that Hart, Schaffner & Marx leaves off.

Space forbids to tell you all about the new Browns, Grays, Blues, and Blacks in all shades but a visit to this store will more than convince you.

Bear in mind, attend the main event, the real show, where the best clothes will be shown. Look for the Hart Schaffner and Marx labels. It is a small thing to look for, but a big thing to find.
