A CALL TO GIVE THANKS

PRESIDENT TAFT ISSUES THE ANNUAL PROCLAMATION

A YEAR OF GREAT PROSPERITY

Records of Harvests, Population Growth, Prosperity and Peace, Things for Which Thanksgiving is Especially Due—God's Blessings Abound Everywhere in This Fair Land.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The vigorous growth and progress of the country is reflected by the records of population and harvests and the general conditions of international peace are things for which Thanksgiving is especially due for the year 1910, according to the annual Thanksgiving Day proclamation issued by President Taft today. The proclamation is as follows:

"This year of 1910 is drawing to a close. The records of population and harvests, which are the index of progress show vigorous national growth and the health and prosperous well-being of our communities throughout this land and in our possessions beyond the seas. These blessings have not descended upon us in restricted measures, but overflow and abound. They are the blessings and bounty of God.

"We continue to be at peace with the rest of the world. In all essential matters our relations with other peoples are harmonious, with an ever growing reality of friendliness and depth of recognition of mutual dependence. It is especially to be noted that during the past year great progress has been achieved in the cause of arbitration and the peaceful settlement of international disputes.

"Now, therefore, I, William Howard Taft, President of the United States of America, in accordance with the wise custom of the Civil Magistrate since the first settlements in this land and with the rule established from the foundation of this government, do appoint Thursday, November 24, 1910, as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer enjoining the people upon that day to meet in their churches for the praise of Almighty God and to return heartfelt thanks to Him for all His goodness and loving kindness.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this fifth day of November in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and ten, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-fifth.

(Seal)
"WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT
"By the President:
"ALVEY A. ADEE,
"Acting Secretary of State."

YOUNG MAN SHOT.

Mr. Oscar Brown Wounded by a Negro.

This morning at a restaurant on Dickinson avenue, near the tobacco warehouses, Mr. Oscar Brown, more familiarly known as "Brownie," and a negro named Henry Evans had a difficulty. In the exchange of words the negro called Brown a liar where the latter struck him in the face with a beer bottle, giving him a bad bruise under the eye. Brown then started up the steps into the restaurant where the negro pulled a gun and shot him; the ball entering the muscles under the shoulder and ranging upward. The wound is not thought to be very serious.

Evans fled as soon as he fired the shot, but a telephone message down town soon had officers on his trail, and he was captured about a mile and a half from town and brought in to the lock-up.

Belgians Against Parliament.

By Cable to The Reflector.
Brussels, Nov. 8.—With the hall surrendered by soldiers, and mobs of socialists clamoring in the streets and attempting to storm the cordons of soldiers and break the building, the Belgian parliament was formally opened today by King Albert. The socialists demand a dissolution of the parliament.

AT THE EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS TRAINING SCHOOL

Professor Bivens Delivers a Lecture to Students.

Prof. J. A. Bivens, of the teachers training work of the State department of education, made a strong talk in the assembly hall of the training school Saturday night on "What North Carolina Expects of Her Teachers."

The first demand is health, with a knowledge and practice of the means of preserving health. The best work can result only from the best physical condition. Furthermore, the teachers should guide their students through hygiene sanitation, outdoor life and other means toward the physical ideal.

The next requirement is scholarship, broad and accurately furnishing a back ground of literature and service. Sympathy for human kind and unbounded love for the work is essential. This will give the teacher power to adjust herself to the community life and to become a leader. Until the teacher possesses these requirements, then and then only, will she fulfill what the state expects of her.

Prof. Bivens' lecture was a most valuable one, the kind that gives the teacher an uplift and greater love for her work.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Football Game—A. and M. of N. C. vs. V. P. I., of Va.

By comparative scores, at this time the annual Thanksgiving gridiron contest between A. and M. college of North Carolina and V. P. I., of Virginia, the odds favor the powerful A. and M. team but by no means will the contest be a one-sided run affair. The polytechnic boys are a husky lot of chaps, and they are equally confident. They base their confidence upon the results of their game with the University of North Carolina, Saturday, in Richmond, when they gave the Tar Heel eleven a humiliating drubbing.

Greatly reduced rates will be authorized from all points on the Norfolk Southern railroad to Norfolk for the Thanksgiving Day game.

A BAG OF "SLIPS."

That Turned Out to be "Some Potatoes."

Today Mr. John F. Evans, director of the farm demonstration work for Pitt county, drove up to The Reflector door and called the editor out. He said "I have finished housing my potatoes and have brought you a few 'slips.'" Thereupon he hugged a big sack out of the buggy and the two of us got them inside. My what "slips" they were! Every one of them great yams almost as large as a head and weighing many pounds each. Mr. Evans said his potato crop this year is the finest he ever made.

UNION MEN VOTING.

Working For Candidates Favorable to Their Interests.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 8.—Thousands of laboring men throughout the anthracite region of Pennsylvania today obeyed the strike order of the State federation of labor to quit work and vote and work for the candidate favorable to union and labor interests. Working men took greater interest in the election in the coal mining belt than ever before. A storm of wind with flurries raged during the day.

An Interesting Booklet.

The Norfolk Southern Railroad has issued an interesting booklet showing to some extent the industries along its road and the inducements the territory it traverses offers home seekers. Especial attention is given to the trucking and other agricultural advantages the soil and climate of this section of the State offers.

The Norfolk Southern has done a great work in Eastern Carolina by giving its people and industries better railroad facilities and doing a great work to this section in advertising the great advantages this section of the State offers to home seekers and manufacturers.

NORTH CAROLINA UNIVERSITY NOTES

Revival of The University After The War—The Coward.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 7.—During the past week, Dr. Battle made a series of talks in the chapel on the revival of the University after the war. Dr. Battle knows and perhaps loves the University better than any man in the State. It was under his guidance that this revival of the University took place after the suspicion caused by the Civil War. He has written the history of the University, the last volume of which will appear at an early date. Today in his old age, emeritus professor of history, his figure is a welcome sight upon the campus which he has known so long a time, and the large number of students who habitually take their Sunday afternoon walk in Battle's park have a pleasant feeling for the owner of these beautiful grounds.

Rev. R. W. Vogue pastor of the Episcopal church in Chapel Hill, made a talk in the Y. M. C. A. building Tuesday night on The Coward. He knew five sorts of cowardice and warned his student audience against it in each of these phases. The first and most inexcusable form of cowardice is that caused by temporary failure. Another and scarcely less despicable sort of cowardice is the man who is so completely the subject of public opinion that he lacks the courage to take a dare. Three other kinds of cowardice which he pictured with striking illustrations were lack of self-control, inability to conquer pride or prejudice, and intellectual cowardice.

The Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society held the first regular meeting of the year in the chemistry hall Tuesday night. President Venable, who before he came president, was head of the department of chemistry, read a paper on the formation of the meteor crater in Arizona. Dr. Bell, the new associate professor of physical chemistry, presented a geometric method of determining the composition of solid materials inseparable in any other way. During the discussion which ensued Dr. Herty, dean of the scientific school, remarked that in one case he had worked two years on the problem of the composition of a compound which by the use of this principle would have been quickly shown not to have been in existence.

The football game Thursday between the teams of the freshmen and senior classes was a hard fought contest which resulted in a victory 3-0 for the first year men. The superior training of the freshmen showed itself in the second half when they completely outplayed the seniors. The score came in the last three minutes of play when Captain Worth, of the freshmen, kicked a drop kick from the twenty yard line.

Drainage of Mattamuskeet Lake.

On Monday, October 31st, and November 1st, and 2nd, the final report of engineers and viewers of the Mattamuskeet Lake Drainage District, Hyde county, was heard at Swain Quarter, before the clerk of the Superior court.

Out of 577 tracts of land in the district only three appeals were filed. The election of the drainage commissioners will be held on the 12th. With the election of the commissioners the drainage district becomes a body corporate by virtue of the new drainage law and the drainage of 100,000 acres of fertile land including Lake Mattamuskeet is assured.

This drainage project is in some ways the largest and most daring of any heretofore undertaken in the United States. About eighty miles of canal will lead surface water to a large reservoir to be constructed on the south side of Lake Mattamuskeet where an immense pumping plant, capable of discharging 200 cubic feet of water per second, will be erected to lift the water from the reservoir into a navigable out-fall canal which carries it to Pamlico sound.

The planning of the work and surveys have been under way since October a year ago. Mr. Lawrence Byatt, of Wilson was engineer and Mr. Walter Jarvis, of Scranton, and A. R. Davenport, of Leechville, were the viewers.

The Ayden Furniture Company requests that holders of tickets in the piano contest return them every other Saturday so they can be registered.

SOME FORECASTS OF TODAY'S ELECTION

LOOKS LIKE A GREAT DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

BOTH SIDES CLAIM OHIO GOVERNOR

Snow and Rain in New York State Favor Democrats—Republicans Gloomy in Illinois—Democrats Sacrifcing Governor for Legislature in Tennessee—Negroes Giving Trouble in Oklahoma.

Negroes Capture Polls.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Muskogee, Okla., Nov. 8.—Trouble broke out between negroes and whites at Fussy creek precinct in Wagner county, and negroes seized the polls. Fussy creek is 4 miles from Coweta, the nearest white town. Fifteen armed white men started immediately for the scene and others will follow. Negroes at Coweta are still but have not made any demonstrations.

Negroes Causing Trouble.

Oklahoma City Ok. Nov. 8.—Interest in the action of negroes in Oklahoma overshadowed that State and congressional offices. The negroes threaten to vote in spite of the Grandfather clause, and in many places are preparing to use force. They have been secretly burying arms and trouble is feared. Troops are ready to act.

Democrats Lose Tennessee Governor

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 8.—Early voting indicated that the regular Democrats were sacrificing R. L. Taylor for governor in order to save the legislative ticket. As a result of this, Republicans and Fusionists claim the election of Ben W. Rooker by 15,000 plurality.

Looks Like Dix.

New York, Nov. 8.—Snow and rain is falling in New York. This is favorable to the Democrats because the country vote is largely Republican and is causing Republicanism some worry. There was a big early vote in the city. Morning odds on Dix were 3 to 1.

Strikes Among Welch Miners.

Oberdore, Wales Nov. 8.—Led by women and children, infuriated mobs of Welch coal strikers are attacking the colliers. Many have been wounded, some fatally. A squadron of cavalry tried to scatter the strikers and is now patrolling the mining districts.

More Chauffers Strike.

New York, Nov. 8.—One thousand taxicab chauffers joined the ranks of the strikers today in sympathy with the movement in behalf of the striking express men. There are now 1,800 taxicab drivers out.

Races at Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 8.—With a grand prize only four days away, the last contingent of races that will compete in it arrived today. From now on the grand prize course will be covered daily with dashers.

Both Claim Ohio.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Republicans and Democrats both claim Ohio Governor Harmon, the Democratic nominee, has the better in betting.

VOTING IN THE WEST.

Illinois and Ohio Are in Doubt of Victory.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Chicago, Nov. 8.—Uncertainty as to outcome of the election returns throughout the west today marked the opening of the polls in most of State, and politicians confessed they were totally at sea for a means of forecasting results. The better element of voters were at the polls early and whether this presaged Democratic or Republican victory was hazy, but leaders asserted it meant the election of clean men in any event. In Chicago a heavy vote is being polled. Republican leaders here for the first time expressed doubt, while Democrats predict a landslide. Balloting is being done seriously and the tariff is about the only thing considered. Election in Ohio is regarded as doubtful.

Breezy conversation is often tainted by the breath of scandal.

GREENVILLE'S PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS ITEMS

The People Who Come and Go on Our Trains.

Mrs. S. M. Schultz and daughter, Miss Mae, returned Monday evening from a visit to relatives in Rocky Mount.

Give Them The News.

The newspaper man is blamed for a whole lot of things he can't help, such as using partiality in mentioning visitors, giving news about some folks and leaving others out, etc. He sniply prints all the news he can find. Some people inform him about such things and others do not. An editor should not be expected to know the names and residences of all your uncles, aunts, and cousins, even if he should see them get on or off the train. Tell us about it. It's news that makes the newspapers, and every man, woman and child can be associate editor if they only will. Never apologize when you give this bit of information to an editor for if there live one so dead that he has lost his appreciation of such favors he is dead indeed, to every virtue that impart value to paper.—Louisburg Times.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Meeting to be Held Saturday, Morning, Nov. 12, 1910.

10.30 a. m.—Opening exercises.
10.40 to 11.—Class work—second grade.

11 to 11.20—Class work—fourth grade.

11.20 to 12.25.—How to study teaching.
—Prof. H. E. Austin.

12.15.—Explanation of reading course.—Supt. H. B. Smith.

Norfolk Southern Schedule.

Some slight changes have been made in the schedules of the Norfolk Southern passenger trains at this point. Night train eastbound formerly arriving at 12.41 a. m. is now 1.09 a. m. Night train, westbound, now comes at 3.25 a. m., instead of 3.53 as before, and westbound day train formerly coming at 4.14 p. m., has changed to 4.51 p. m.

So Frank.

She—Albert, I have come to the conclusion that I love George better than I love you, and—
He—What about the engagement ring I gave you to wear?
She—Oh, that's all right. George says he won't object if I wear it.

Alcohol Baths.

Alcohol baths are thrice beneficial when the hand is substituted for the sponge of old time usage.

Negroes and Illiteracy.

Illiteracy among the negroes of the United States is seven times as common as among the whites.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Little Items too Short for a Head, but Interesting.

This election is about over, and the next one will be in The Reflector's prize contest.

Get your nomination ballots ready for the Reflector prize contest.

With nine prizes, and all of them valuable, there is something in The Reflector contest worth working for.

The convicts are doing some good work on the river road toward Falkland.

Odd Fellows meet tonight.

Election returns will be received tonight at the office of Chairman F. C. Harding.

The battle of the ballots has gone on quietly today. To those who sit up to wait for the returns, the result will likely be known by midnight.

Tomorrow's Daily Reflector will be issued in the morning so as to give our readers the election news early.

This being election day there are no market reports.

You can get the election news tonight at the office of Chairman F. C. Harding.

We never saw a quieter election day in Greenville than this has been.

Rochdale Items.

Rochdale, N. C., Nov. 8.—Eld. J. F. Walters, of Ayden, attended his regular appointment at Arthur Saturday night and Sunday and had one to unite with the church Sunday.

Eld. J. F. Bundy, of Walstonburg, was with Eld. Walters at Arthur Sunday.

Miss Carrie McLawhorn, of Ayden, and Mr. Zeno Allen were at Mr. C. E. McLawhorn's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler Allen, of Marlton, were visiting at Mr. C. E. McLawhorn's Sunday.

Mr. Joe Cobb and the teachers of Standard, were visiting at Mr. Ivey Smith's Sunday.

Mr. L. A. Cobb, of Kinston spent Saturday at Arthur looking after some cotton.

Mr. Johnnie Tyson, of Renston, came Monday to make his home at his grandmother's, Mrs. Annah Willoughby.

The many friends in Wilmington and all over the state will hear with infinite regret that the venerable Dr. Theodore B. Kingsbury yesterday evening about 6 o'clock suffered a recurrent attack of paralysis and that last night his condition was regarded critical. Dr. Kingsbury was seated in the family room at his residence, No. 211 South Fifth street, reading his Bible when he reached up to turn off an electric light, suffering the stroke. His vocal organs are affected and last night he did not recognize those about him. Dr. Kingsbury suffered a similar attack about 2 years ago, but the one last night seemed more acute. He is in the 83rd year of his age. Friends earnestly hope that he will recover and soon be himself again.—Wilmington Star.

Crabs and Lobsters.

There are many curious points about crabs and lobsters. Every one of either genus is provided with a big claw for crushing and a small claw adapted by its shape for cutting as scissors do. With these two claws they tear the food they capture into fragments and feed themselves literally from "hand to mouth." But there is every reason to suppose that the claws are intended quite as much for fighting as for eating purposes, inasmuch as such powerful hands are not needed for devouring the soft food they prefer.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1910

Mark this down on the calendar as a Democratic day.

If egg coal is worth $8 a ton what will one-egg cost?

We are counting on it being good news when the election returns come in tonight

The Republicans already see that they are beaten, and are prepared to take their medicine.

If Mrs. Crippen is alive she is keeping very quiet about it and letting the doctor's neck have a close call.

Republicanism will be banished under a snow storm of ballots by night-fall. The pile has been growing larger all day.

That aeroplane exhibit in Raleigh on the 16th and 17th, under the auspices of the News and Observer, is going to be a great event. The railroads will give special low rates and thousands of people will attend.

After you read the election returns and get through shouting, buckle down to help make more business for your community. The election is not going to make much difference, and you will hardly get more than you work for. In fact, that is all you are entitled to.

What Makes Towns Grow.

Looking into the causes of city growth during the decade just past, a writer in The Manufacturers' Record sent out inquiries, with interesting results. "Two-thirds of the replies," he says, "points straight to what is the dominating element in this growth, the establishment of manufacturing industries or the expansion of those which have been in operation for a number of years. In a number of instances a special industry is given the main credit. Arkton, O., the center of the cereal food trade of the country, estimates that 70 per cent. of automobile tires made in the United States comes from its factories, while Detroit, Mich., counts 40 to 50 per cent. of all the automobiles made in the country among its producers. New Bedford, Mass., a fine example of the ability of the New Englander to turn defeat into victory, has its textile industry dating back to the decline of whaling in the North Atlantic." And so the story goes. Manufacturing pulls the distributing activities which accompany it when it is versatile or on a considerable scale, forms the chief of town-builders. Any town which desires further points on growing even against the worst that railroads can do, may with advantage send delegations to Charlotte.—Charlotte Observer.

Our State superintendent of public instruction has compiled from his forthcoming biennial report a summary of North Carolina public education funds and conditions that is highly interesting.

Ask for Mother Gray's Australian Leaf at drug gists or sent by mail for 50 cents. Sample free. Address, The Mother Gray Co., LeRoy, N. Y.

It shows among other things that 256 new schoolhouses were built last year at an average cost of $760, which proves that the new schoolhouses are much better buildings than the old ones that were a disgrace to most of our districts.

Not only was a large amount paid for the public schools last year than ever before by the State, but there was a much larger amount of special taxes voted, the latter amount being over half a million dollars to wit, $650,020. This large amount of special taxes voluntarily voted by the respective districts is larger than the total amount levied by the State some years ago.

There are now 10,975 teachers in the State, an increase of 46.0 over last year's number and their average pay is only $165 a year.

The Assassin of The Mafia.

Col. Jasper E. Brady's statement that a Spanish fanatic blew up the Maine and was quietly executed by the Spanish military authorities for doing so impresses us as to the only plausible explanation of this tragedy which has yet been advanced. On the maxim, "Seek whom the crime benefits," nothing could have been more absurd than to suspect responsible Spanish officials of surely bringing down armed intervention by a far more powerful nation upon their heads. Neither were Spanish military traditions such as to warrant a suspicion of this nature. The maxim cited would have pointed directly at the Cuban insurgents, or at least at irresponsible fanatics among them except that no one could show how such a feat lay in their power. Now that friendly relations between the United States and Spain are fully restored, the American people should welcome any evidence showing that Spain had no official or responsible connection with the disaster.—Charlotte Observer.

It is not going to be long before a new directory to take care of the new words being coined is needed. For instance, the Wilmington Star says—"Secretary Ballinger's Attorney, John Vetres, Esq., got under Roosevelt's skin in an address which he issued through the State Democratic committee in Tennessee on Monday. It covers Teddy about refraining from displaying his wisdom concerning the negro problem, whitewashing old John Brown and making a martyr and saint of the villainous fanatic who led a movement inspired with murder and anarchy. He calls the Colonel 'that panspical self-appointed school master,' which is a new one in America's polyhedral politician." Perhaps these are not new words—we are not sufficiently posted—but they had just as well be new. They are at least jaw-breakers.—Greensboro Record.

Cotton is now bringing 14 cents or more, and it is doubtful whether the south's great crop will ever be less. Acreage must, in the growth of population, become smaller, and consumption of cotton goods, for the same reason, larger. And the farmer is growing more business-like. Cotton will always be king.—Atlanta Journal

"After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering women. "Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. "It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic, to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens. ### Have Beautiful Hair.

Many women do not realize that attractions they possess because they do not give proper attention to the hair.

The women of Paris are famed for their beauty, not because their facial features are superior to those of other women, but because they know how to keep young by supplying vigor, luster and strength to the hair.

Three years ago, Parasian Sage could hardly be obtained in America. But now this delicate hair tonic and dressing can be had in every town in America. Coward & Wooten sell it for 50 cents a large bottle, and guarantee it to grow beautiful lustrant hair; to turn dull, listless hair into lustrant hair; to stop falling hair; to stop itching of the scalp. Ask for Parasian Sage.

Queer English Names.

Among the names in the North Hackney registers lists are the following: Frances Narrowsy, Heaven, William Paradise, Alfred Smuggers, Thomas Bonanza, Bumpus, Thomas Sictalarum, William Joseph Napier, Napier, Hans Nordstitcher and Fitzherbert Albert Buggy Lord, London, Globe.

Two Different Species.

Little Willie says, "what is a bookworm?" "A bookworm, my son, is either a person who would rather read a book than eat of a worm, that would rather eat a book than read." Chicago News.

ANSWERED BACK.

Ready Reply of a Ragged Turk to a Scot in Kilts.

During the troubles at Crete in 1897 the Seaforth highlanders were landed to help to restore order. Their advent, dressed in the familiar kilts, created a great sensation, as the natives, who themselves wear a kind of kilt, had never seen British soldiers in such a costume.

An amusing incident occurred one day when a party of Seaforths were marching through a small, wretched looking village. As usual, the inhabitants turned out to stare at the soldiers, and one of the highlanders with a view to raising a laugh among his comrades shouted out to a group of Turks, "Gae-hame, ye dirty blackguards, an' scrub yerse!"

Imagine his astonishment as well as that of the remainder of the highlanders when a ragged and evil looking Turk shouted back in reply, "Go home yourself, Scottish dog, and cover yourself up!" It was afterward discovered that this Mohammedan had spent several years in London and so learned the language. From "Anecdotes of Soldiers in Peace and War," by J. H. Settle.

Her Career.

"Well, has your college daughter decided upon her career?" "Yes, she has blue eyes, brown hair and works in a hardware store." Louisville Courier-Journal.

Carries On.

Woggs—So young Saphend and his father are carrying on the business? Boggs—Yes. The old man does the business, while young Saphend does the carrying on.—Pick.

A RUSSIAN SPY.

Trepoff's Ruse to Get at the Plans of the Nihilists.

When the famous General Trepoff was only at the beginning of his career Vera Sassulitch was his invaluable assistant.

Trepoff was the detested enemy of the nihilists, and he was very anxious to obtain inside information as to their doings and plans. Suddenly one day in 1878 he was fired at while driving through the streets of St. Petersburg by no other than Vera Sassulitch. She was at once seized by the soldiers and was charged with the attempted murder of Trepoff, being tried in the ordinary manner; but, to the amazement of the public, she was acquitted!

On her release the nihilists gathered about her, desiring to admit such a friend of the people to their closest acquaintance. In this way she was admitted to all their private circles and was made acquainted with their secrets. These she at once communicated to the Russian government. The truth was that the whole business, including the attempt on his life, was faked by Trepoff himself, and it was simply a clever ruse to get from the nihilists what could not be got in any other way. Thereafter Vera Sassulitch played the part of government spy on innumerable occasions.

Inconsistent.

A man who took his infant daughter to be baptized told the clergyman to call her Venus.

"But I refuse to call her Venus," said the clergyman indignantly. "Venus is the name of a pagan goddess."

"Well, how about your own girl, Diana?" said the man.

ONLY 50 CENTS.

That's all it Costs to get Rid of Indigestion.

All stomach misery will go in five minutes if you will put your faith in MI-O-NA stomach tablets which Coward & Wooten think so well of that they guarantee them to cure any stomach ailment, or money back.

Using MI-O-NA for one short day you will rejoice and be sincerely thankful that at last you have found a prescription that acts quickly and beneficially on the stomach.

Just as soon as you start to take MI-O-NA stomach tablets fermentation of food will be a thing of the past. Waterbrash, pain in the stomach, belching of gas and heart burn will disappear, and in a few days danger of dizziness, biliousness, nervousness and headache will vanish.

For sea or car sickness, vomiting during pregnancy, or after a night of sociability, MI-O-NA is better than the best remedy you can find. Large box for 50 cents at Coward & Wooten.

A Real Argument.

They were talking about argument, not in the abstract, but as applying to domestic happiness. "What do you think is the most unanswerable argument you ever heard?" one bachelor asked a married man.

"That's very easy," he replied. "When your wife says, 'If they can afford it, we can,' there is no law in that—and never will be."—Exchange.

MAILED LETTERS.

Belong to the Senders Until Delivered to the Addressee.

Under the postal regulations and the rulings of the highest courts of the United States a letter does not belong to the person to whom it is sent until it is delivered to him. The writer has a right to reclaim and regain possession of it, provided he can prove to the satisfaction of the postmaster at the office from which it was sent that he was the writer of it. Even after the letter has arrived at the office which is its destination and before it has been delivered to the person to whom it is addressed it may be recalled by the writer by telegraph
through the mailing office.

The regulations of the postoffice department of course require that the utmost care shall be taken by the postmaster at the office of mailing to ascertain that the person who desires to withdraw the letter is really the one who is entitled to do so, and a postmaster is responsible for his error
if he delivers the letter to an impostor
or an unauthorized person.

The vital principle in our political system lies at the bottom of this matter. In this country the state is the servant or agent of the citizen, not his master. It remains merely his agent throughout the transmission of a letter. The state may prescribe regulations under which its own servants
may carry a message for the citizen,
but it cannot shirk its responsibility to him.—New York Press.

ST. BERNARD DOGS.

These Famous Life Saving Animals
Are Said to Be Mongrels.

Among American tourists in Switzerland there is much rivalry for securing "real" St. Bernards to take home with them. They evidently do not know that the St. Bernards are mongrels.
The original St. Bernards saw the light toward the end of the fourteenth century. The mother was a Wallis shepherd dog, the sire a mongrel of a Great Dane and a Spanish mountain mastiff.

In the winter of 1812 nearly all the dogs lost their lives in the snow. In 1816 the last St. Bernard dog died.
But a monk of Martigny had a mongrel
St. Bernard, and this was crossed with Wallis sheep dogs. The breeding being done in scientific manner,
the present race of St. Bernards, though mongrel, like the first, is better and stronger than the old ones, it is said.

The railways have made use of St.
Bernards almost unnecessary now, yet they continue on the old stand in winter when the snow lies high. Only the male dogs are used for rescuing men in distress. They are followed by men on snowshoes, who carry provisions.
Each of the older dogs has one or more young companions, which he teaches the business.—Boston Post.

Seen in a Dream.

Mr. Hilprecht, professor of Assyriology in the University of Pennsylvania in 1893, when puzzling over sketches of objects excavated at Babylon, learned in a dream the solution to the difficulty that confronted him. Two drawings represented fragments of agate inscribed with characters. They were supposed to be bits of finger rings and,
being apparently of different colors,
were not closely associated together by the professor. But in a dream he saw an Assyrian priest, who told him how the priests of the Temple of Bel, having received a votive cylinder of agate from their king, were ordered to make earrings for their god. They made three by cutting up the cylinder, and the professor would find by fitting the fragments together that these were two of them. He did this and found that they gave a continuous description.

Helping Him Out.

For years Squire Latham, of whom many amusing stories are told, was a resident of Bridgewater, Mass., and it was while he was living there that the incident occurred which is related below. It illustrates his habitual coolness and whimsical temper.

He was awakened one night by his wife, who told him she thought there were burglars in the house. The squire put on his dressing gown and went downstairs. In the back hall he found a rough looking man trying to open a door that led into the back yard.

The burglar had unlocked the door and was pulling it with all his might.
"It doesn't open that way, you idiot!"
shouted the squire, taking in the man's predicament instantly. "It slides back!"

Magnets.

A steel horseshoe magnet can hold in suspension a weight up to twenty times its own.

THE FOG BUOY.

A Safeguard to Fleets of Warships in Thick Weather.

Probably the greatest menace to the safety of navigation at sea is the fog.
Modern steamships are seldom endangered by the most severe weather, but when the impenetrable envelope of mist incloses a ship she is exposed to the most terrible of perils, a collision at sea. A single ship may be comparatively safe even in a fog, but where there is a fleet of vessels the danger is greatly multiplied. There is always considerable danger, too, on account of the fact that many of the ship lines have what could be termed a beaten path across the ocean, and they always follow this route when possible.
In addition to the customary fog horns and sirens, a fleet of warships often keep informed of their relative positions by the firing of signal guns
at intervals only a few minutes apart.
Another method used is the fog buoy.
Each vessel in the fleet, especially if it is a warship fleet, carries a fog buoy, a large cask painted a vivid red. This is cast overboard at the first sign of a fog, and it floats from the stern of the vessel, attached to a rope of grass fiber, which does not sink beneath the surface of the water. By this means the exact location of the individual ships of the fleet is maintained, even though proceeding at a moderate rate of speed.—Wichita Eagle.

AN ANCIENT CUSTOM.

Wassailing of Apple Trees Still Observed in Parts of England.

What is the wassailing of apple trees?
This is an old custom, fast dying out, but still observed in parts of Somerset and Devon. At Wooton-Basset, near Minehead, the ceremony takes place on "old Twelfth eve. All assemble at the farmhouse and after a hearty meal form a procession to the nearest orchard, the master in front with a light and men with old guns, blunderbusses and anything that makes a noise in the rear. Plenty of cider is taken and some pieces of toast.

When the orchard is reached a ring is formed, and the master, in the center, seizes a branch and sings a verse beginning "Oh, apple tree, I wassail thee, in hopes that thou wilt blow."
Then all shout in chorus:

Hattuls, captuls, three bushel bagtuls,
Barn flooruls, tullet holefuls
And a little heap under the stairs.

Then follow cheers, drinking of healths, shouts of "Now, Tom Pbd, we wassail thee!" and the placing of the pieces of toast, soaked in cider, among the branches for the robins.—London

Out.
"He's out a good deal night, isn't he?" "He was last night. I won a hundred from him."—Exchange.

An Indian's Joke.

Indians extract no little quiet enjoyment from what seem to them to be oddities in the speech, manners and customs of white people. An Arapahoe stepped into the store of a trader
one day to purchase some tobacco.
The trader's son was in charge of the place. Now, this son was at that embarrassing stage of growth when the voice is changing, so that he never could tell whether tenor tones would issue from his lips or babylike fal-setto or de profundis bass. On this occasion when the Indian asked for tobacco the youth's bass notes held the right of way, though they were speedily followed by ascending tones up to a squeaky falsetto.

He asked the Indian, "Will you have fine cut tobacco or a plug?" beginning in a growl and ending in birdlike soprano.

The Arapahoe listened gravely to this vocal variety and then without a smile reversed the process and, beginning with the youth's highest note and ending with his lowest, scaled, "I think I'll take some plug."—Southern Workman.

"Exercise and Rest."

What is the relation between exercise and rest? Work is that at which we must continue, whether interesting or not, whether we are tired or not.
It used to be thought that the prime requisite of rest was the use of facilities other than those involved in the labor of the day. But there is such a thing as fatigue which goes deeper than daily work. We can work so hard as to become exhausted—too exhausted for any kind of work. Perhaps this is will fatigue. It is coming to be regarded as fundamentally true that rest from such fatigue demands continuity; that, for example, four periods of fifteen minutes each of rest is not the equivalent of one hour's rest;
that a man who goes on a vacation
and takes half an hour of his business work every day is doing the same thing as the man who had a horse with a sore back. He kept the saddle on only a few minutes each day, but the sore did not have a chance to heal.
Rest periods must be sufficiently consecutive to overcome consecutive fati-gued.—Luther H. Gulick in North American Review.

Cheerfulness and Cholera.

A cheerful disposition is held by some doctors to be the best protection against cholera. When this disease first visited Paris in 1832 a notice was issued advising the inhabitants "to avoid as far as possible all occasions of melancholy and all painful emotions and to seek plenty of distractions and amusements. Those with a bright and happy temperament are not likely to be stricken down." This advice was largely followed, and even when cholera was claiming over a thousand weekly victims the theatres and cafes were thronged. The epidemic was in some quarters treated as a huge joke, and plays and songs were written around it. Rochefort wrote a play,
"Le Cholera Morbus," which proved a success, and another production on the same lines, "Paris-malade," also had a long run.—London Chronicle.

Ether Tapers.

Ether is consumed by gallons to get drunk on in a small part of Scotland.
The origin of this peculiar and limited abuse is strange. In 1848 a bad epidemic of cholera broke out in Glasgow.
Among those flying from it were some who came back to Draperstown, their native place. With them they brought a cholera mixture which they found
"exceeding comforting." A rascally doctor, knowing that the comfort proceeded from ether, laid in a whole cask. He made his fortune and started the habit that lasts till yet. Ether is sold over counters in Scotland, the penny a drink. An old ether toper can drink two or three ounces a day, but one-half ounce is one big dram in water. The drinker gets hilarious in a minute. It is far wilder and more dangerous than alcohol.

How Tortoise Shell is Worked.

The soldering of two pieces of tortoise shell together is effected by means of hot pinchers, which, while they compress, soften the opposed edge of each piece and amalgamate them into one. Even the rasplugs and powder produced by the file, mixed with small fragments, are put into molds and subjected to the action of boiling water and thus made into plates of the desired thickness or into various articles which appear to have been cut out of a solid block.
