NORTH CAROLINA'S SOLID LINE-UP

LOOKS LIKE EVERY CONGRESS- MAN IS DEMOCRATIC

BUTLER AND MOREHEAD KICKED OUT

Woodrow Wilson Governor of New Jersey—Looks Like Harmon in Ohio—Returns Show a Good Line-up in the Democratic Column—The News is Glorious throughout the United States.

Raleigh—Democrats carry Cumberland county by increased majority. Republicans polled very light vote in Fayetteville.

Greene county gives the whole ticket a majority of about 800.

Anson county elects all Democrats by estimated majority of 1,500, a gain of 300.

Warren county is Democratic by 500, Republicans casting less than a hundred votes.

Raleigh—Returns from eleven of the thirteen counties in the tenth district show a majority of 800 for Gudge, Democrat, over Gann, Republican, who carried the district two years ago by 361.

Cowles, Republican carries his home county of Wilkes, by only 1200, a decrease of 400, and his district majority of 14,000 two years ago will be decidedly eliminated by returns from other counties.

Raleigh—The weather was extremely fine all over the state. Returns show rather a heavy vote for an off year. The tenth district congressional vote shows Gudge making gains over Grant. Cherokee county gave Grant a reduced majority. Gudge carried Buncombe by the usual majority.

Raleigh—The only interesting districts in the congressional fight are the second, fifth, eighth and tenth. Returns from the third district are meagre and show that Butler, Republican, carries his own county, Sampson, by 1,500, a Republican gain of 500. Returns from the fifth district, carried two years ago by Morehead, Republican, show large Democratic gains for Stedman over Blair. Democrat, overturns Republican majority in Cabarrus and Stanley.

Raleigh—Eighth congressional district returns show notable Democratic gains over two years ago when Cowles, Republican, defeated Hackett, Democrat. This year Dougherty, Democrat, overturns Republican majority in Cabarrus and Stanley.

Raleigh—Returns from five of the eleven counties in the fifth district show that Stedman, Democrat, has over 2,800 majority. Durham county two years ago gave only 20 Democratic majority, and now gives 735. Stedman's majority in the district may reach 3,500.

Raleigh—Returns from six of the nine counties in the third district show Faison, Democrat, to have about 200 majority over Butler, Republican.

Raleigh—Wake county gives from 1,500 to 2,000 Democratic majority. Returns from the first district show Small defeats King by the usual majority.

In the second congressional district Kitchin is elected over Norfleet by the usual majority. At Kitchin's home precinct no Republican votes were cast.

Washington—Beaufort county gave 750 majority on state and congressional tickets.

Tarboro—Edgecombe county is Democratic by about 1,200.

Nashville—Nash county will give the largest majority in many years. Pou, Democratic candidate for congress in the fourth district, will defeat Cooley, the independent Republican candidate. Nash county, which is Cooley's home, will give 600 majority against him. Cooley's is a greater snow-under than Pou gave the Republican candidate two years ago.

Absentminded.

Mrs. Nupop—Dear, the baby is getting to look more and more like you every day. Mr. Nupop (absentminded)—Well, punish him yourself. I can't be bothered with titles of his constant misdeeds when I come home tired and nervous.—Cleveland Leader.

GLORIOUS OLD PITT COUNTY.

Elects Entire Ticket By Majorities Around 1800.

Pitt county, as usual, covers herself with glory. The election was very quiet and while not near a full vote was polled, the entire Democratic ticket is elected by majorities around 1800. We wait for the official returns to give the tabulated vote of precincts, but the unofficial returns show them to be as follows, there being but slight difference in the vote received by the different candidates: Beaver Dam—Democrat 85; Republican 36.

Bethel—Democrat 135; Republican 72.

Belvoir—No returns in.

Carolina—Democrat 140; Republican 45.

Chicod—Democrat 318; Republican 55.

Contentnea No. 1.—Democrat 30; Republican 73.

Contentnea No. 2.—Democrat 35; Republican 68.

Falkland—Democrat 163; Republican 41.

Farmville—Democrat 173; Republican 63.

Greenville—Democrat 574; Republican 72.

Pactolus—Democrat 69; Republican 26.

Swift Creek—Democrat 167; Republican 87.

A Summary.

In Massachusetts Eugene Foss, Democratic candidate for governor, wins above 70,000 plurality.

In Connecticut Judge S. E. Baldwin, Democrat, is elected governor by 4,000 plurality.

In Ohio Gov. Judson Harmon, Democratic candidate for re-election, appears to have carried the State by about 15,000.

The Associated Press says in Philadelphia Foulherod, Republican, is defeated by Donohoe, Democrat.

In New York, John A. Dix, Democratic candidate for governor is elected by 55,000.

3 WAYS TO MAKE LAND PAY.

All Offer Fine Possibilities But Intensive Farming Brings Returns.

A living can be made from land in three ways:

1—By having much land. If one has much land, and is content with a poor living, he may do the minimum of work. The surplus of land will make up for the deficiency of labor. He can let beef-cattle fatten on the grass while he loaf. He can till ever so poorly, and still be alive at the end of the year.

2—By having less land and working more. Nothing except land and labor can make crops, and if the land be diminished in area, labor must be increased both in volume and in intelligent purpose. The man who seeks a living from a forty-acre farm can not sit down until the beef-cattle fatten themselves into steaks. He must sow and cultivate. He must also have a glimmering of the fact that it is not well to keep the same crop in the same field, year after year.

3—By having a little land—five or ten acres—and understanding it; by caring for it as an engineer would care for a great machine that he perfectly understood and wanted to drive to its capacity; by making up for a deficiency of land with an abundance of intelligent labor.

The five or ten acre farm is precisely as feasible a method of making a living as the eighty-acre farm. The miniature simply must be worked in a different way. It must be devoted to crops into the raising of which can be packed the labor and knowledge that alone can compensate for lack of land. Not that much labor can be put into the growing of a small patch of wheat or a few beef cattle; therefore, the small farm must be devoted to the raising of little things that bring big prices; little things that will not even grow little unless coddled and teased. Vegetables, berries and fruit require little land, but much intelligent labor. They bring good prices. Vegetables, berries and fruit are, therefore, the crops with which any man can make a small farm as profitable as he could make the largest farm that he could attempt to till with his own labor.—Allan L. Benson, in the Delinicator.

Aman hopes for the best until he gets in it. Then he hopes for some thing better.

DIX IS ELECTED GOVERNOR OF N. Y.

ROOSEVELT'S CANDIDATE COMPLETELY SNOWED UNDER

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IS 100,000

Entire New York State Democratic Ticket Elected—Newspapers Flash the Glad News as the Returns Come in—Roosevelt and His Man Stimson Go Down in Overwhelming Defeat.

New York—The vote for governor in this State in 1908 was: Hughes 804,651, Chanler 735,189; Republican plurality 69,462. Greater New York gave Chanler 321,290, Hughes 261,396; Democratic plurality 59,894.

New York—Frank Patterson, of the Democratic executive committee, called Dix on long distance phone at 7.30 to inform him that the whole Democratic ticket had been elected beyond question. He estimates Democratic plurality more than 100,000.

Oyster Bay—Democrats carried Roosevelt's own district by a plurality of 60.

New York—The Times tower flash light gives Dix as elected and says the Democratic victory will be of landslide proportions.

New York City and State returns will probably be completed at an early hour.

Dix Carries the city of Schenectady.

The World's flash light claims Dix elected. It says his majority will be more than 50,000.

The Evening Post in an extra edition announces the election of Dix.

New York—Thos. F. Bradley, Republican, is elected in the twentieth congressional district.

Brooklyn—The Eagle says the returns from the first sixty districts of the borough show average Democratic gains of 30 votes to the district. The Eagle also says Dix plurality in Kings county is 22,000.

Brooklyn—The Eagle issues an extra announcing the election of Dix and indicating election of entire state ticket.

Buffalo—Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic national committee, today voted the straight Republican ticket. It was an error but could not be rectified. Subsequently he told the joke on himself. Dix carried Utica by 1,817. The Democratic plurality in Rome was 278.

Syracuse—Complete returns in this city give Stinson 14,507; Dix 11,122.

Troy—Dix plurality in this city is 111.

Glenverville—Complete returns in this city give Stinson 2,263; Dix 1,594.

Buffalo—This city gives Stinson 26,513; Dix 31,183.

Poughkeepsie—John K. Sogue is elected mayor by the Democrats of this city; his majority being 967 over John C. Welch.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Little Items too Short for a Head, but Interesting.

The next election is the Reflector's subscription contest. Let a long list of nominations come in, as there is room for many winners.

The union prayer meeting will be held in the Methodist church tonight conducted by Rev. Charles C. Ware. There is not much but election news in this issue, but that is the kind the people want today.

Today will bring the usual day after election crowd to town to hear the news except where they get it through the Reflector and by telephone.

Now you all can get ready for Thanksgiving.

The printer says this is his sleepy day.

The walls of the new court house are climbing upward.

You can't always tell how much a man can drink from the size of his mug.

The many men go around looking for work with their eyes shut.

ANOTHER ELECTION AHEAD.

A Word About a Contest Just Starting November 10th.

Thursday is the day for the nominations and voting to begin in the great subscription getting contest and distribution of $500 worth of prizes by The Reflector. All the prizes are valuable and should insure a large number of candidates in the contest.

The first grand prize is a full session's course in East Carolina Teachers' Training School, covering all expenses of the winner at the school and railroad fare both ways, from home to Greenville and return.

The two next grand prizes are 8-day trips with all expenses paid, over the Atlantic Coast Line to Tampa, Fla., and return. This is a trip everybody should want to take, for it will have many attractions.

These grand prizes are open to everybody without regard to location.

Then there are six district prizes that will be confined to contestants living in the districts named elsewhere in this paper, all of them are working for.

One of these is $20 set of harness that can be seen at the factory of the John Flanagan Buggy Company. The reliability of this firm is a guarantee of the value of this prize.

Another is a handsome $25 buffet that can be seen at the furniture store of Taft & VanDyke. It is a beauty and will be an ornament to any home.

Another is a handsome $20 black lynx muff that can be seen at the store of Pulley & Bowen. And what woman would not like to own such a beautiful piece of fur?

Another is a $20 suit of clothes you can pick to fit, out of the splendid stock at the store of C. T. Munford. Go there and see for yourself.

Another is a large $17.50 traveling trunk at the store of J. H. Boyd. It is the very thing you need for going on a trip. It is raw hide bound and has double automatic trays.

Another is your choice of a $2) Schaffner & Marx overcoat at the store of C. S. Forbes, guaranteed to be first class in every particular as all coats bearing this name.

Now get busy to win one of the prizes. Read particulars in the large advertisement.

An Old Newspaper.

A copy of the Raleigh Register and North Carolina State Gazette, dated July 14, 1896, was shown us yesterday by Mr. E. T. Sheftall, of Marietta, Ga., who is spending some days in the city. The name of the subscriber was W. Alston, and his postoffice was Jones' Store. The name and address was written with pen on the margin and is still plainly visible. Mr. Sheftall is a descent of the Alstons of this state.

The paper contains only two pages, the first filled with congressional news and advertisements, and the second with "the latest European news" and advertisements. In this paper the European news is dated May 11, and the date of the paper is July 14, yet it is the "latest news," over two months old. Contrast that with the present, when news two days old is stale, and you will see how we have progressed. The paper carries no name at masthead as editor. The motto reads: "Ours are the plans of fair delightful peace, Unwarped by party rage, to live like brothers."

The paper contains an advertisement of a cock main in which the stakes are as high as three hundred dollars. No paper in the country would be permitted to carry such an advertisement now. One of the other advertisements shows that patent medicines were used in those days. The "Tincture of Yellow Bark" is advertised by a Charleston firm, and is also for sale "by appointment by J. Gale Raleigh, N. C."

Another advertisement is a long list of lands for sale for taxes by Jesse Allen, sheriff of Wilkes county.

The old paper is a unique document and is in very fair state of preservation.—Greensboro News.

No Paper This Afternoon.

As today's issue of The Daily Reflector comes out this morning, on which the force had to work all night, there will not be another issue this afternoon. If the press dispatches of today bring anything startling that the people should know at once, bulletins will be issued from the office.

HOW ELECTION WENT IN OTHER STATES

DEMOCRATS MADE GAINS IN ALL OF THEM

A BIG LANDSLIDE IN MINN. SECTIONS

What a RAP Poor Cooley Got—"Brother George" Can Continue to Stay Home and Pick Samps. Huckelberries—Stedman, Daught and Gudge Redeem Their Districts Republicans Lose in Every County.

ARKANSAS. Little Rock—Democrats made a clean sweep of all congressmen in this State.

CONNECTICUT. New Haven—Early returns from the State point to the election of Baldwin, Democrat, for governor.

Republicans concede that Baldwin is elected by 4,000 majority.

Norwich—C. W. Covestock, chairman Democratic State central committee, claims Baldwin's election by at least 60,000.

FLORIDA. Jacksonville—Early returns show local option in the lead. On a proposition for a prohibition amendment to the constitution all Democrats are elected.

Jacksonville.—The Times-Union says that the prohibition constitutional amendment has been defeated and the State will remain local option.

ILLINOIS. Chicago—The Associated Press says the twelfth Illinois congressional district Chas. E. Fuller, Republican incumbent, is elected.

Chicago—The Associated Press says the returns from more than 100 precincts in Chicago indicate a Democratic landslide.

Chicago—The Associated Press says the indications at 11 o'clock are that Democrats have gained control of house of representatives.

Danesville—The Associated Press says early returns indicate the reelection of Cannon in the sixteenth district by a slightly reduced majority.

IOWA. Des Moines—The Associated Press says Republicans claim all congressional districts except the second, fourth and sixth. Judge Provly, Republican, seems safe in the ninth, Des Moines district.

KANSAS. Topeka—Early returns are so fragmentary as to give little indication of the vote in this State.

Topeka—Governor Stubbs, Republican, has undoubtedly been re-elected governor, but by a reduced majority.

KENTUCKY. Louisville—The congressmen elected in first and eighth districts are Democrats. In the eleventh district Caleb Powers, Republican, is elected.

Louisville—At 9 p. m. indications are that Kentucky will elect Democratic congressmen out of eleven.

LOUISIANA. New Orleans—The Democratic nominees for congress and State offices were elected without exception in this State.

MARYLAND. Baltimore—The Associated Press says that though the returns are incomplete, sufficient is known at 10 o'clock to assure the election of Democratic congressmen, second and sixth districts.

MASSACHUSETTS. Boston—The vote for governor in 1909 was Republican 190,166; Democrat 182,250; Republican plurality 7,916.

The city of Boston complete gives Foss, Democrat 55,167, Draper, Republican, 27,902.

Boston—The Associated Press says Governor Draper gave out a statement tonight conceding the election of Foss by a substantial plurality and congratulating him.

MINNESOTA. St. Paul—Republican congressmen are elected in the third, sixth and seventh districts.

MISSISSIPPI. Jackson—An average vote was polled and all Democratic congressmen are elected.

NEW JERSEY. New York—The Times, of this city at 8.30 flashes the election of Woodrow Wilson as governor of New Jersey.

NORTH DAKOTA. Fargo—Early returns give Johnson, Republican, lead over Burks for governor.

OHIO. Columbus—Early returns from Franklin county indicate a great gain in the Socialist vote. In some precincts the Socialists have doubled their strength, taking votes from each party.

Cincinnati—In the first congressional district Nicholas Longworth, Republican, is elected.

Cincinnati—The Post claims Harmon will carry Havelton county. The Times-Star says the returns favor Harmon.

OKLAHOMA. Guthrie—Early reports for Oklahoma indicate the result of State ticket will not be known for several hours.

Returns show that a large vote was polled and a Democratic majority of 50,000 will be the result.

PENNSYLVANIA. Philadelphia—Chairman Penrose said at 11 p. m. that Times, Republican candidate for governor, will come to Philadelphia with a plurality of 40,000 and that the city will give him 40,000 more.

RHODE ISLAND. Providence—The first returns coming in show considerable Democratic gains.

Providence—Returns indicate the election of George H. Utler, Republican, also one of the two congressmen.

Providence—The Associated Press says at 11 o'clock it is impossible to tell who will win the gubernatorial contest. It is estimated by both sides that the winner will not have a plurality of more than 500.

SOUTH CAROLINA. Columbia—The Democratic State and congressional tickets are elected by the usual majority.

TENNESSEE. Memphis—There was a surprisingly light vote in country districts.

Nashville—At 9 p. m., returns far indicate that Hooper, Republican, is elected governor by 15,000 majority. The complexion of the congressional delegation is unchanged.

TEXAS. Austin—The entire Democratic ticket for State officers has been elected by a larger majority than was given Governor Campbell two years ago. All Democratic congressmen are elected.

UTAH. Salt Lake—Congressman at large Joel Howel, Republican, is elected.

VIRGINIA. Richmond—The election in Virginia today was for ten congressmen. In four districts the Democratic nominees had no opposition. The strongest fights were in the fifth and ninth, particularly the latter, where the present Republican incumbent was opposed by H. C. Stuart, Democrat. In Palaski county Stuart's majority over Slemm is estimated 200 to 250. This county gave Slemm 71 majority in 1908.

In Russell county Stuart's majority is about 300, where Slemm's majority in 1908 over 363, Giles county gives Stuart a majority of 225.

Richmond—At ten o'clock the situation in this State is as follows: The fourth, sixth, eighth and tenth districts are re-carried by Democrats without opposition. The first, second, third and seventh districts are re-carried by Democrats by slight opposition. The fifth district is claimed by both parties, but the best information obtainable, which is largely official Judge Saunders is probably beaten by 150 majority. In the sixth district with hardly one-half of the district reported, Stuart leads Slemm by 1000.

Richmond—The Democrats have elected their nominees in all districts, except the fifth and ninth.

WEST VIRGINIA. Wheeling—The Register says the scattering and incomplete returns at 10 o'clock indicate the Democrats made large gains in every section of the State. Republicans admit large losses, but do not concede Democrat claims of electing five congressmen and a control of the legislature.

Wheeling—The Associated Press says the returns to 10 o'clock indicate that Democrats made big gains in every section of the State.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1910

"Has anybody here seen" Butler?

Governor Dix, of New York, sounds good enough.

The Republicans are wondering what struck them.

Don't it make you feel good to say: "I am a Democrat."

No doubt bonds look like a big scarecrow to Marion Butler this morning.

Guess the Raleigh News and Observer now feels like flying in an airship sure enough.

Democrats have the opportunity of electing a president next time. All together for the goal!

It is not announced this morning that Col. T. Roosevelt, the lion hunter, is preparing to embark for Africa.

Said the Greensboro News Tuesday morning: "We have fit and blast, but are not yet dead." How about it this morning?

The Wilmington Dispatch defines G. O. P. as "Give Out Pie." Losing the prospects of pie is what is hurting so many of them this morning.

That was certainly a joke on Chairman Mack, of the Democratic national committee, in voting a straight Republican ticket. Wonder how they played it on him?

Pitt county is to be congratulated upon the excellent ticket elected Tuesday. They are good men, every one of them, and the people can rest assured that the affairs of the county will be properly administered.

There has been no truer verification of the "right man in the right place" than in Mr. F. C. Hardin, chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Pitt county. The splendid result in this county in Tuesday's election is largely due to his excellent management and direction of the campaign. He has kept in close touch with every detail from the very beginning of the campaign and has left nothing undone that was to the interest of the party. Sure the party owes him a debt of gratitude that should be recognized at the very first opportunity to repay.

Public School Course.
The Hickory Times-Mercury recently considered certain defects in the public school system of this State, in the way not of attack but rather of warning. As regards one of the points it mentions, few will be disposed to take issue. "It is a lamentable fact," we read, "that many of our best teachers are being driven out of the profession because of the meager salaries paid." The sole remedy applicable to this trouble can be obtained only after the wealth and prosperity of the State have further increased and in this respect time will work its own improvements. Another of our contemporary's points merits more extended discussion.

"When our children have completed the common-school course," says The Times-Mercury, "after having spent, perhaps, every day of the school term for fifteen years in an effort to master the subjects required to be taught, we find them to be very deficient in reading, writing, arithmetic, grammar and spelling, especially the latter. The greatest drawback to our young people of today is their inability to spell correctly some of the simplest words in the English language. The cause of this is found in the fact that our present system makes it impossible for any branch to be thoroughly taught in our public schools. The free-school curriculum embraces many studies that properly belong to the high school, thereby crowding into the course more studies than the pupil is able to carry or the teacher able to teach. This leads to the pupil's knowing a little of everything and not much of anything. In other words, he is deficient in everything and master of nothing."

The Times-Mercury has placed its finger on one of the most difficult of modern school problems, and no one who is conversant with actual school conditions can fail to see much truth in its remarks. "The curriculum," it argues, "should be so arranged as to make the pupil master of the elementary branches—reading, writing, spelling, arithmetic, geography, and a fair knowledge of the history of his own country." This presents a sound minimum truly. The list given might be extended to include a working knowledge of the principles of English Grammar, and of human hygiene, and there is very great probability that a few, at least, of the more strictly cultural subjects could be included in the better-equipped schools without seriously interfering with that thoroughness of the whole which The Times-Mercury so correctly deems indispensable.—Charlotte Observer.

Laws will be enacted by the next Legislature that would be better unmade, but there is one that should be made. We refer to the far too prevalent and promiscuous practice of men paying other men's poll taxes. It should be made a misdemeanor, at least. Some of our judges hold this ground is already covered by the law that applies to bribery, and that even now a man in indictable for such action. The practice has more than a tendency to debauch and debauch the citizenship of the State and to influence elections. The mere fact that men do not pay other men's taxes except upon the eve of elections is proof of this. The mere fact that I have taken my money and bought for another man his right to vote is no contention that I have bought his vote, but come home, human nature is so constituted that the man whom I have befriended understands that there is a moral obligation resting upon him to return to me something for my money. And so the means accomplish the ends. The easiest thing to return me is his vote. It is all wrong, and the man who contends otherwise is either a knave or a politician who has lost the conception of right and wrong. There is another danger beyond the moral side of this question. It gives the man with money too great an advantage and too much power. Virginia's "the Mother of States and Statesmen," requires that a voter must pay his poll tax in person and not by proxy.—Reidsville Weekly.

Have Beautiful Hair.

Many women do not realize that attractions they possess because they do not give proper attention to the hair.

The women of Paris are famed for their beauty, not because their facial features are superior to those of other women, but because they know how to keep young by supplying vigor, luster and strength to the hair.

Three years ago Parasian Sage could hardly be obtained in America. But now this delightful hair tonic and dressing can be had in every town in America. Coward & Wooten sells it for 50 cents a large bottle, and guarantee it to grow beautiful luxuriant hair; to turn dull, lifeless hair into lustrous hair; to stop falling hair; to stop itching of the scalp. Ask for Parasian Sage.

A Healthful Town.

"If this town is as healthful as you say it is, why do there happen to be so many doctors' signs in evidence?" "They are nearly all the signs of eye doctors. The people are so healthy here that they stay up nights enjoying the climate and injure their eyes."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Evidence of Faith.

Mrs. Brooke—Have you any faith in life insurance? Mrs. Lynne—Yes, indeed; I've realized $100,000 from two husbands, and they weren't very good ones either.—Judge's Library.

Descriptive.

Stella—Would you say she was a well dressed woman? Bella—No; she looks like a Wall street bear who has covered in a desperate hurry.—Puck.

Crushing Romance.

"It seems to me," said Battersby, "that we are knocking nearly all the romance and imagination out of life when we commercialize marriage, for that's about what we are doing. I like the good old way of courting, the way that was the classy thing when knights were bold. I like the idea of galloping across the drawbridge and snatching up the girl of my heart and putting her on the saddle before me and galloping away like mad. Wouldn't that suit you?"

"No, it wouldn't," replied the other man. "The girl of my heart weighs 200 pounds."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

In the Vote Mart.

A member of a certain city council had invested in a ready made suit of clothes and forgot to remove the price tag. A colleague called his attention to it, and he displayed signs of much mental disquietude.

"Were you afraid people would know what you paid?" inquired the colleague.

"No," was the reply. "I was afraid some of these lobbyists would think it is what I charge."—Washington Star.

Might Work.

"Why does a player pick up two bats before he goes to the plate?" "It makes one bat seem lighter. Don't you see?"

"I see. It's a fine scheme. I think I'll try it on the biscuits at our boarding house."—Pittsburg Post.

The Only One Lacking.

"Why are you so sure there is no such thing as a fourth dimension?" "Because," replied the discouraged fat man, "if there was I'd have it."—Ladies' Home Journal.

An Apt Suggestion.

The Rev. Samuel Longfellow was a poet, as well as his more eminent brother. He was the compiler of a hymn book for churches, in which work he was assisted by a fellow clergyman of the same Christian name. On applying to a third member of the profession to give the book a title the latter suggested that it be called the Sam book.

A Hard One.

"Father!" "Well, what is it?" "It says here, 'A man is known by the company he keeps.' Is that so, father?"

"Yes, yes, yes." "Well, father, if a good man keeps company with a bad man is the good man bad because he keeps company with the bad man, and is the bad man good because he keeps company with the good man?"—London Punch.

Why He Wept.

Spartan Mother—What's the matter? What are you crying for? Stung Hero (who has been taught never to cry for bodily pain)—Oh, I've sat down on a bee, and—I'm afraid I must have hurt it!—London Punch.

No Need For Alarm.

"She asked me what I thought of you." "Indeed!" "Yes. But don't get frightened. I didn't tell her."—Lippincott's.

No Friend of His.

"Is Mrs. Gaussip a friend of yours?" "No; she's a friend of my wife's." "Isn't that the same thing?" "Not at all. She feels very sorry for my wife."—Pittsburg Post.

BANISH CATARRH.

Breathe Hyomei for Two Minutes and Stuffed-Up Head Will Vanish.

If you want to get relief from catarrh, cold in the head or from irritating cough in the shortest time, breathe Hyomei (pronounce it High-o-me).

It will clean out your head in two minutes and allow you to breathe freely, awake or asleep.

HYOMEI will cure a cold in one day, it will relieve you of disgusting snuffles, hawking, spitting and offensive breath in a week.

HYOMEI is made chiefly from eucalyptus, a soothing, healing, germ-killing antiseptic, that comes from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia, where catarrh, asthma and consumption were never known to exist.

HYOMEI is pleasant and easy to breathe. Just pour a few drops into the hard rubber pocket inhaler, breathe it, and cure is almost certain.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomei costs only $1.00 at druggists everywhere and at Coward & Wooten's. If you already own an inhaler, remember that you can get an extra bottle of Hyomei for only 50 cents. For free trial sample, write Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

The business man was sitting in his office thinking of starting for home
when a suspicious looking person came in with a leather bag in his hand.
"If you don't give me $5," said the visitor, coming at once to the point,
"I will drop this on the floor."
The business man was cool. "What is in it?" he asked.
"Dynamite," was the brief reply.
"What will it do if you drop it?"
"Blow you up!"
"Drop it!" was the instant command. "My wife told me when I left home this morning to be sure to send up a bag of flour, and I forgot it. I guess it will take just about as much dynamite as you have there to prepare me for the blowing up I'll get when she sees me!"
"I'm a married man myself," said
the dynamiter and quietly slipped out.

Shied at the Price.
A noted painter said at the Art club
in Philadelphia, apropos of picture
prices:
"I am glad there are not many buyers like an old farmer in Center Bridge.
A very distinguished etcher, sketching in Center Bridge, made a study of the farmer's barn. The farmer happened to appear and said he'd like to have the sketch.
"Ef 'tain't too dear," he added cautiously.
"Oh," said the etcher, who makes $12,000 a year. "I won't charge you anything for the sketch, but—"
"His eye lighted on the pigpen.
"But I'll tell you what. You can give me one of those nice little pink sucking pigs there."
"Why, man," said the farmer with a frown, "do ye know what them pigs is worth? They're worth a dollar apiece."—Exchange.

Strong on Length.
Richard Carle engaged as cook a Swedish giantess who proved unsatisfactory. On departure she asked for a written testimonial, and Dr. Carle presented her with the following:
"To whom it may concern: I have lately had in my employ Hulda Swanson, who was engaged to cook for a family of three and do such other things as would be possible when not cooking. Under this head might come a little dusting and dishwashing and answering the doorbell. Taking all these things into account, I wish to say that Hulda is absolutely the tallest cook I ever saw."—Success Magazine.

The Post Again.
He had long hair and a pensive look.
He wrote a poem entitled "Why Do I Live?" He signed it Augustus and sent it to a magazine.
The editor wrote him as follows:
"My dear Augustus, the reason why you live is because you sent the poem by mail instead of bringing it personally."—Paris Modes.

A Harsh Order.
On the beach near an English town a sign bearing this legend was nailed to a post:
"Notice.—Any person passing beyond this point will be drowned. By order of the magistrate."

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Greenville Household Finds Them So.
To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Greenville readers:
David R. Willis, East Main Street,
Washington, N. C., says: "I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills as they have given me entire satisfaction. I suffered from disordered kidneys, the secretions from these organs being too frequent in passage, especially at night. I also had dull pains through my back, accompanied by sharp twinges in my hips. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended, and I at last cured a box. They relieved the backache, disposed of the pains in my hips and regulated the passages of the kidney secretions. Whenever I feel that my kidneys are disordered,
I at once use Doan's Kidney Pills
and they give me immediate relief."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., N. Y.,

States.

Was Not a Fungus.

A certain worthy minister was a keen and accomplished naturalist. His specialty was a remarkable knowledge of different classes of fungi. His enthusiasm, however, was but indifferently appreciated by certain members of his parish, and one day when calling upon one of them—a sour old spinster—he was considerably embarrassed when she reminded him of the exact length of time that had elapsed since he had last paid her a visit. He began to make excuses for the delay,
when she abruptly and curtly cut him
short.
"It was a toadstool," she said, with grim irony, "you'd have been to see me long ago!"—London Tit-Bits.

Tragedy of a Diary.

The author of "Leaves From a Garden" tells a story which is at once a study in feminine revenge and a warning against the keeping of diaries. A girl had made at the instigation of her parents what seemed to be a happy match. But she died, and her diary, found after her death, contained a record of such suffering that her mother's mind was unbalanced by the reading. The husband married again, and by way of wedding present to the second wife the mother of the first sent the diary.

THE FABLED PHOENIX.

Legend of How the Bird Lived and Died and Lived Again.

The ancient tradition concerning the phoenix has introduced into nearly every language the habit of applying that name to whatever is singular or uncommon among its kind. According to ancient writers, the phoenix was a bird of great beauty about the size of an eagle. A shining and most beautiful crest adorned its head, its plumage contained nearly every tint of the rainbow, and its eyes sparkled like diamonds.

Only one of these birds could live at a time, but its existence covered a period of 500 or 600 years. When its life drew to a close the bird built for itself a funeral pile of wood and aromatic spices, with its wings fanned the pile into a flame and therein consumed itself. From its ashes a worm was produced, out of which another phoenix was formed, having all the vigor of youth.

The first care of the new phoenix
was to solemnize its parent's obsequies.
For that purpose it made a ball of myrrh, frankincense and other fragrant things. At Heliopolis, a city in lower Egypt, there was a magnificent temple dedicated to the sun. To this temple the phoenix would carry the fragrant ball and burn it on the altar of the sun as a sacrifice. The priests then examined the register and found that exactly 500 years or exactly 600 years had elapsed since that same ceremony had taken place.

BRETON LASSES.

They Show No Regret in Parting With Their Luxuriant Tresses.

A correspondent writes from Pontivy, Brittany, giving some interesting facts of a "hair market" there. It is stated that in different parts of the motley crowd there were three or four different purchasers of this commodity, who travel the country for the purpose of attending the fairs and buying the tresses of the peasant girls.
They have particularly fine hair and frequently in the greatest abundance.
There seemed to be no difficulty in finding possessors of beautiful heads of hair perfectly willing to sell.

"We saw several girls sheared, one after the other, like sheep, and as many more standing ready for the shears with their caps in their hands and their long hair combed out and hanging down to their waists.

"No doubt the reason of the indifference to their tresses on the part of the fair Bretonnes is to be found in the invariable mode which covers every head from childhood upward with close caps, which entirely prevent any part of the hair from being seen and of course as totally conceals the want of it. The money given for the hair is about 20 sous or else a gaudy cotton handkerchief. The purchasers net immense profits by their trips
through the country."—Boston Herald.

Indian Humor.

Old Geronimo would scarcely be suspected of humor, and yet on one occasion the medicine chief gave me a sample of it. It was his custom in the later years of his life to watch for the coming of white visitors to Fort Sill or to Miss Adkisson's mission, near by,
in order that he might sell beaded canes to them. From the proceeds he was accustomed to purchase certain creature comforts not supplied by the government, but on which he relied for support in his old age. One day I was talking to him about them. He said: "They make me walk straight—the tobacco and the mescal. Yes, they put strength into me, and I lean on them."

Then to those beady eyes that so often had flared with hatred and cruelty came a gleam of humor. He continued: "I sell these canes, and the white man buys them—both for one purpose. They help us to walk."—

The Sago Plant.

Sago is a nutritive, farinaceous substance obtained from the pith of several species of palms growing in such hot countries as Java and Sumatra.
The stem, about fifteen to twenty feet long, is cut into pieces and the pith dug out and placed in a vessel having a sieve bottom. Water poured into the sieve washes the flour thus exposed into a second vessel. When the water is poured off and the residue becomes dry it is known as sago flour. The pith left behind forms what is known as common brown sago.
