REPENT OR PERISH ---STRONG SERMON

ALL HAVE COME UNDER CON-DEMNATION

YOU ARE LOST EXCEPT YOU REPENT

Dr. Black Preaches on the Ten Commandments—A Sermon That Greenville Could Profitably Hear Repeated Often—Applied to Everybody Without Exception.

Greenville has heard much preaching, some of it good preaching, too, but no sermon was ever delivered here that was more outspoken against sin, and went more directly to the heart of every hearer, applying to every one present or absent without exception, than that delivered by Dr. William Black in the Methodist church Thursday night. It was a sermon that Greenville could profitably hear repeated over and over, and if every pastor of every church could take the same theme for his sermon every Sunday for a year, it would be expressing great truth none too often. It called the attention of people to sins they committed daily, almost hourly, in every sphere of life, many of them committed thoughtlessly, yet sins that all must repent of or be lost.

Dr. Black read that portion of the 20th chapter of Exodus embracing the Ten Commandments, also a few verses of the 13th chapter of Luke, then took as his text a part of the 3rd verse of the latter: "Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish." These were solemn words, but they were spoken by the Son of God, and carry with them an awful import. People may tell you that you can be saved in this way or that way, but Christ says "except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish." What does it mean to perish? To be shut out from God and from heaven forever. Sin unrepented means the loss of your soul. You must repent or perish. What is repentance? It is acknowledging that God is right and you are wrong. You may attempt to make excuse, but nothing short of repentance will suffice. How can you repent? You must know what sin is. You must know yourself to be a sinner. You must be sorry for sin. You must turn away from sin. You must turn to Christ.

Said the preacher, Christ did not come to annul the law as given on Mount Sinai, but the commandments spoken by God there are as much in effect today as they were then. He then took up the decalogue one by one and showed how they are violated. We violate the first by loving something else, it matters not what it is, more than we love God. The second is broken by taking some image or picture and worshipping that for God. We take God's name in vain in every oath uttered or irreverent word spoken. The law of the Sabbath is violated in all unnecessary work done on that day, and in making it a day of pleasure and recreation instead of rest and worship. Any nation will decay and crumble that disregards God's day, and there are people living now who will see this American nation, great as it is, totter and fall unless there is a change from Sabbath desecration.

As to the fifth commandment, he said it is astounding what little regard and respect children have for their parents. America is the laughing stock of the civilized world for this, for nowhere else is this sin so pronounced. Children are not made to be obedient in the home, and a government is no stronger than its home. Oh, the consequences of this sin and what it will lead to.

It does not take actual murder to violate the sixth commandment, but it is broken in anger, in malice, in hatred. Christ said as much. Likewise the seventh is broken in the lustful look, the impure thought, God's code of morals is no more binding upon the woman than upon the man.

A long list of examples were given of how the eighth is broken, charging too much when selling, giving too little when buying, not giving value received in wages or labor, not properly accounting for any matter of trust, living beyond the income, transferring property, failure to pay

AYDEN CORRESPONDENCE.

Community Social News Items and Business Notes.

Ayden, N. C., Nov. 18.—After a week of muscular rheumatism pains and being burned with various kinds of oils, greases, liniments, poultices and the like, we are glad to be back to our sanctum with the boys.

Rev. W. O. Winfield, of Bath, has accepted the pastoral care of the first Christian church in Ayden, and will hold his first service the first Sunday in December. He is a fine preacher, to say the least of him, and now let us hope and pray for better times.

A colored man named Hix Ebori, was accidentally killed in the woods of the Ayden Lumber Company last Thursday morning, the skidder rope striking him and breaking his neck. The lumber company prepared the body and shipped it to his former home, in Williamston, Thursday evening.

We will gin your cotton any day you bring it, and give you bagging and ties and the top cash price for your seed.—J. R. Smith Company.

We hear much complaint of sweet potatoes rotting quite early.

The price of turkeys is so high, no one except editors and aviators can eat them. (Not editors, oh, no.)

The clock was opened at J. R. Smith Company's store Thursday. Mr. Alfred Manning, of Grifton, won the 40-piece set of dishes; Mr. Lewis Cox, of Black Jack, the silk umbrella; Tom Manning, of Hanahan, a can of Wesson cooking oil. You get a ticket with each dollars purchase.

J. R. Smith and Bro. have purchased the interest of Mr. H. C. Ormond in the J. R. Smith Company, Inc., Mr. Ormond will move to Ormondville and go in business with his brother, Mr. W. W. Ormond. We regret exceedingly to give him up, as his stay in Ayden has won him many warm and strong friends, who wish for him even greater success in his new venture, near his old homestead in Greene county.

Yes, the election passed off so very quiet, had it not been for the merry laugh of Messrs. Jake M. Catter, J. R. Spier, and Lorenzo M. Lawhorn, you would have taken it to have been Sunday.

Our stock of underwear and cloaks are complete for infants, misses, boys girls and ladies, boots and shoes.—J. R. Smith Company.

The ladies of our town will reproduce the old maids convention at the graded school building Thursday night, Nov. 24th, for the benefit of the Methodist church. This play has proven a cure for the blues, disappointed lovers and gout, if you can't laugh, better stay away. Everybody is invited.

Messrs. J. J. May and son were in town Thursday, they tell us they have purchased a large gasoline engine to gin their individual cotton crops. These gentlemen are among Pitt county's most prosperous farmers, raising plenty of everything for the home, and then a large money crop.

Special Rates to Conference.

The North Carolina Conference will meet in Elizabeth City on Wednesday, 30th. The Norfolk Southern railroad will sell tickets at special rates good to go on any train. Ticket agents will give you full information.

debts—all of which God calls stealing.

The ninth is broken not only in the court house, but in every instance of holding back part of the truth, in speaking against another, in circulating reports, and all such. And the tenth is broken even in the wish to have that which does not belong to us, or in envying others for what they have.

It was a heart searching sermon, and there was not a person in all the vast congregation to whom some point, or many points, failed to apply. He closed with an earnest appeal to repentance, for "except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish." The morning services at 10.45 are equally as interesting as those held at night.

The service tonight will begin at 7.30. Several more cottage prayer meetings were held this afternoon. The request still stands for more singers in the choir. With as many good voices as there are in Greenville the number in the choir should be more than twice as large as it is.

THE DAIRY COW.

Good To Have One Around The House.

The dairy cow does more than bring financial success to the dairy farmer. She makes him a better citizen than he would otherwise be. Her influence upon home conditions is a most pleasing contribution to those factors which are responsible for the changed conditions which prevail in the farm homes of today. Thousands of these homes are now characterized by comfort and happiness where formerly they were blighted by drudgery and unhappiness.

Better financial conditions have contributed to this change, and the dairy cow has been in no small measure responsible. She has contributed in still another way. The dairy cow teaches kindness. Her owner soon learns that only by treating her kindly can he secure the highest possible returns from a cow and she responds quickly to kind words and proper care. Her disposition is one that the human family might well emulate. She is patient and long suffering, acquiescing mutely in the arrangements made by her owner for carrying on the dairy business, striving at all times to repay him for every effort made for her care and comfort.

The members of the family, as they come in contact with her and her kindly disposition, are influenced for good. As they appreciate financial benefit to come from caring for her well they take a deeper interest in her. In doing so they unconsciously cultivate those qualities which make them better citizens.

The dairy cow—the prototype of man's best friend—is wielding a greater influence than she is generally credited with. She has always been found in the front ranks in the march of civilization and no agricultural country can long prosper without her. She is a potent factor in the upbuilding of such a country, financially, and socially, and a wise people will appreciate her and encourage the industry of which she is the foundation.

PARLIAMENT MEETS.

But King George Will Likely Dissolve It.

By Cable to The Reflector.
London, Nov. 18.—Legislative program for parliament was announced in the house of commons today when that body together with the lords convened. Premier Asquith announced that the upper house would be asked to pass or reject the veto bill without delay. In the event of rejection King George would be asked to dissolve parliament on Nov. 23rd, a call a general election of lords. Crewe officially announced that King George had decided to dissolve the present parliament irrespective of Asquith's program and plans.

Largest in The World.

Our readers have doubtless noticed the advertising of the Cortright Metal Roofing Co., 50 N. 23rd St. Philadelphia, Pa., which has been appearing in The Reflector for some months past and we hope those who have had reason to be interested in roofing material have profited thereby. The Cortright Company is by far the largest maker of metal shingles in the world, and their product is well and favorably known over the entire United States. They are always glad to give prompt attention to inquiries and to either send samples and quote prices to those likely to be in need of roofing, or refer them to a nearby local agent.

GRUESOME FIND IN TRUNK.

Opened After Eight Years and Contained a Body.

By Wire to The Reflector.
New York, Nov. 18.—A trunk opened today at a boarding house was found to contain the remains of a man. The trunk has been in the possession of the family eight years and was left by a man named Lewis, who owed them board. It was thought he would come back for it and it was not opened and finally forgotten. The man had been put in the trunk while alive and the trunk sealed with plaster paris.

Death of Mrs. Ben. Wych.

Durham, Nov. 17.—The family of City Clerk George W. Woodward today received a telegram from San Antonio, Texas, announcing the sudden death of Mrs. Benjamin Wyche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodward. It created a great shock, as nothing of the illness had been sent out. She was out of the operating table when the end came, but the nature of the illness for which she was being treated was not learned. She was forty-one years of age and is survived by her husband who was formerly librarian at the State University, father and mother, three brothers and one sister. The remains will reach Durham Saturday.

(Mrs. Wyche was a sister of Mr. George J. Woodward, of Greenville. His many friends sympathize with him in his sorrow. He will go to Durham Saturday morning to attend the funeral.)

The meeting of the North Carolina Drainage Association in Wilmington next Monday, November 21st, for a three days' session, reminds us that there are 25,000,000 acres of swamp lands in the South and that the exclusive of Florida, North Carolina has a larger area of these valuable wet lands than any other States in the South. However, there are vast swamp regions in South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas.

In North Carolina there are 3,000,000 acres of swamp lands especially capable of drainage, according to the estimate of the State Geologist, Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, who made a survey of them, while a government drainage expert has pronounced reclaimed North Carolina swamp lands superior to the lands of the great corn belts of Ohio and Indiana. The drainage expert refers to the capabilities of these North Carolina swamp lands for corn production and says one million acres of them reclaimed would produce one-tenth of the corn grown in the United States. A vast source of wealth lies in these lands when properly drained and it is gratifying that a vigorous campaign has begun to bring about the reclamation of vast tracts of these extremely fertile North Carolina lands.—Wilmington Star.

THAW FAILS AGAIN.

Judge Refuses to Order Examination as to Saulty.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 18. County Judge Hasbrook today has refused to sign an order for the examination of inmates of the Matteawan State hospital in a suit brought by Harry K. Thaw to show that McDonald, an ex-pugilist, who is an attendant, is cruel to patients. Thaw's ultimate desire is the cause of McDonald's arrest, but the court insisted that papers in the case be strictly in accordance with the law before he would order a patient's examination.

GRANTS CHANGE OF VENUE.

Judge Landis Will Not Hold Pork Packers' Case.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Chicago, Nov. 18.—Judge Landis today ruled that he was not qualified to hold the governments case against the meat packers who are accused of conspiracy to form a combination in restraint of trade. He will grant the change of venue asked for by attorneys for the packers. The change was asked for on the ground that several years ago Landis, then an attorney, served in the prosecution of the beef trust case.

SMART COLOR COMBINATIONS.

Dark Costumes Must be Relieved by Vivid Electric Blues.

The absolute need of relieving black with some other color has had two very interesting effects on the color scheme of the year. In the first place, it has put to rout the old monotone idea that held us away for so many seasons, and has brought into prominence the combination of two and three colors in a single dress.

In the second place, it would be quite impossible to unite black with any dull or lifeless shade of another color, so the vivid electric blues, emerald greens and carmine reds, have replaced the faded pastel tones, the dead-leaf colors and the ashes of violets and roses of last season.

The new colors are very beautiful and they are a welcome relief after the dull drabness of the ones that preceded them, but they present many pitfalls to the unwary. A woman has to know not only what colors are new, but also what color combinations are considered smart. She has to consider not merely what one color is becoming to her, but whether she can wear all the different shades that will appear in her new gown, and once those points are settled, she has to know how the colors are used, and where they are used.—The Delineator.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1910.

The world may owe you a living all right, but you have got to work it out

Every day a business man fails to advertise means business lost that he might have had.

We cannot see that Kentucky should feel any honor over sending an ex-convict to congress.

The outcome at Raleigh shows that it is dangerous to go even as a spectator to an aviation or auto race.

There is enough swamp lands in Pitt county that if properly drained and cultivated would raise sufficient corn to feed the State.

Loafers are street signs that a town could afford to get along without. They point the way to indolence and backwardness.

That drainage convention to be held in Wilmington next week ought to be of interest to many people of Eastern North Carolina.

Every time we see any mention about union depots in other towns, it reminds us of something that Greenville has not but ought to have.

The promoters of an aviation meet in Baltimore lost $40,000 on the venture. We hope the Charlotte News and Raleigh News and Observer did not meet with that kind of luck on their respective aerial stunts.

Greenville is a town of opportunities, yet opportunities that are not taken advantage of avail nothing. So many things could be done here that are not done.

If you just must kick, go get you a football and try on that. But if you are thinking about kicking your town, hire yourself out for a football and get the kicking you deserve. There is just no use for the town kicker, and he is absolutely no good at all.

If the farmers of Pitt county are to make an exhibit of products of this year's crops, it is time there was some activity in that direction. Even if the one this time should be only a small scale, it would be a stimulus to a larger next year.

Ten carloads of Pennsylvanians, headed by Governor Stewart, of that State, came to Salisbury Wednesday and unveiled a memorial to the union soldiers of Pennsylvania who died in the prison at Salisbury and were buried in the national cemetery there. Governor Kitchin and Senator Overman took part in welcoming the visitors. These occasions show that sectional lines are being wiped out, and that in reality we are becoming a reunited people.

What Waits for the Boys and Girls.

When you are a man, Farmer Boy, the farms in your neighborhood will be better farms; they will be cultivated better, and grow bigger crops; better live stock, and more of it will be on them; there will be better buildings, better roads, more machinery, less hard physical work and greater demands for clear and accurate thinking. All this means that the farmer of that time will have to be a better farmer than those of to-day and this, in turn, means that right now, while you are a boy, if you would be one of those good farmers, you must begin to prepare yourself for it. You must lose no chance to study, to acquire useful knowledge to keep yourself strong in body and mind, to form good habits. If you do these things the future is yours: if you do not, you will be swept aside by the march of progress and be one of the "poor farmers," the "failures." What are you doing about it? Are you making the most of your school, of the practical training you get on the farm, of the books and papers you read? Have you ever thought about a college course—the short course in agriculture, at least—and about the fact that a farmer needs to prepare for his work as does a lawyer or a doctor? If you begin your life-work poorly prepared the blame will be largely your own, for on every side the doors of opportunity are open.

When you are a woman Farmer Girl the homes of the country may not be any dearer to those who share them but they will be brighter, more beautiful, better furnished, equipped with a hundred conveniences of which your mother has never known. There will be less hard work in the housekeeping of those days, but there will be demanded of the housekeeper a wider range of knowledge, a capability to deal with problems which are now left entirely to the physician, or the teacher, or the legislator. All this means that you, too, must keep both body and soul clean and pure and strong, that you must train your hands and discipline your mind, so as to be ready for the duties that will be yours. If you are thus prepared you will help to lift the whole race to a higher plane of living; if you are not, you will tend to hold it down. You are deciding right now which part you shall play.—Raleigh Progressive Farmer and Gazette.

Thanks.

The Greenville Reflector, one of the brightest and best papers in the State, is always doing something for Greenville, "Our Greenville, yours if you come," and Pitt county. Now it is talking of a county exhibit and we quote what he has to say: "Editor Whichard may be red-headed, as Jiv Cowan avers, if he is not bald-headed but he is at any rate level-headed. We hope he can bring the county farm product exhibition to pass. It will afford pleasure and profit and do good.—Raleigh Times.

A great deal is being said about the boys who win prizes in the Corn Clubs and in other work; but it must be remembered that the boy who does not win a prize has not failed if he has made an earnest effort. Such a boy may get more real good out of a hard struggle against circumstances than some fortunate boy who beats him all to pieces in the results he obtains. To make a good corn crop is a great thing; to make a determined effort to improve one's condition is greater.—Raleigh (N. C.) Progressive Farmer and Gazette.

If you would retain a friend, things his way instead of yours. But you can't be sure for companyment of a debt of gratitude.

A Slight Difference.
Undue rapidity of speech or indistinct utterance often leads to curious misunderstandings. An instance of this is given by Walter Seymour in his "Ups and Downs of a Wandering Life." "A clergyman," he says, "was sent for by a sick old parishioner who was not a churchgoer and who was deaf. The clergyman said: 'What induced you to send for me?' 'What does he say?' said the man to his wife. 'He says why the deuce did you send for him?'"

A Patron.
"Mr. Carriman is very busy now," said the private secretary of the railroad president. "Is there anything I can do for you?"
"Oh," replied the pompous visitor, "just a friendly call. I thought he'd like to know that I ride on his suburban branch now. I'm Colonel Nurtch."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Similarity.
"What a noisy thing that bass drum is!" remarked the clarinet disgustedly.
"Yes," replied the trombone; "just like a human being, isn't it?"
"Like a human being?"
"Yes; it's the one with the big head that makes the most noise."—London Telegraph.

Banks in France.
The "hill money" held by commercial banks in France is the only cash they have on hand, and that seldom exceeds 3 or 4 per cent of their deposit liabilities. The joint stock banks, however, have a secondary reserve, amounting to about 15 to 20 per cent of liabilities in "money at call and at short notice," which is money loaned to merchants and others on stock exchange and similar securities.

New York, Nov. 18.—Cotton open-

New York, Nov. 18.—Early trading in the stock market was extremely quiet with but few stocks quoting gains. At times it seemed to be at a standstill, while on several occasions the floor of the exchanges was practically deserted. New York Central made a gain of 5-8, but lost it. Hill stocks displayed early signs of strength, but lost it, other leading stocks following these.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Wheat was up were easier with lower hogs. Open-

His Favorite Opera.
Ushers in theaters handle some peculiar people during a season, but the experience of the employee of a Chestnut street playhouse was a puzzle for some time. A well dressed, middle aged man would secure an end seat in the front row almost every evening.
He would tell the usher if he fell asleep he was not to be disturbed until after the show. No sooner would the orchestra play the overture than the ushers would notice that the man was asleep. At the close of the night's entertainment some one would rouse the sleeper and he would leave with a polite acknowledgment. One night he explained his strange behavior:

"I suffer from insomnia," he said.
"The only relief I get is when I sit close to the drummer in an orchestra.
There is something in the rhythmic beating of the drum that soothes me to sleep."—Philadelphia Times.

Found a Place.
The billposter had one poster left and no conspicuous place to put it.
He stood on the corner and wondered what he should do with it. Presently an Italian woman carrying a big load of wood on her head passed by.
"Better than a Broadway electric tower for my business," said he.
Paste brush and paste were requisit-ed, the poster was clapped on the perambulating wood pile, and for fifteen minutes the ever curious Broadway crowd stopped, turned and even followed to learn something about the commodity that was advertised in that novel manner.—New York Sun.

Wanted to Know.
"Have you ever read any of my husband's poetry?"
"Yes, I have had that—er—yes, madam."
"What do you think of it?"
"Madam, are you looking for a compliment for your husband's verses or for sympathy for yourself?"—Houston Post.

Different Now.
"Before we were married," sighed the fond wife, "you used to call me up by long distance telephone just, as you used to say, to hear my voice."
"Well," retorted the rebellious husband, "nowadays you won't let me get far enough from you to use the long distance."—London Telegraph.

Pain and distress from morning to ery.

Get at the cause—cure the kidney.

Doan's Kidney Pills will work the cure.

They're for the kidneys only—
Have made great cures in this locality.

Mrs. J. W. Wallace, 1130 Albermarle
St. Tarboro N. C. says: "Doan's Kidney Pills benefited me greatly and I am therefore pleased to recommend them. I suffered constantly from dull, nugging backache and increasing pains across my loins. I was restless at night and arose in the morning tired and languid. I had but little strength or energy and could hardly attend to my housework

If I stopped or attempted to lift sharp, darting pains caught me in my back. My kidneys were weak and caused me much annoyance. I finally read about Doan's Kidney Pills and procuring a box, I began their use. They removed my backache and corrected the trouble with the kidney secretions. I now feel better in every way."
