N. C. UNIVERSITY'S LAST GAME

BUT THEY WERE FIGHTERS FROM START TO FINISH

BROWN IN THE RACE FOR CAPTAIN

Some Notes on the Thanksgiving Game—Greenville Boy One of Candidates for Captain Next Season—Club Dances at The University.

Chapel Hill, N. C. Nov. 30.—The football team of the University of North Carolina has once again been defeated by the team in orange and blue on Thanksgiving day by the score of 7 to 0. The score alone gives a most inadequate account of the game as it appeared on the field in Richmond. The white and blue started things off with a rush in the first quarter the men from Carolina played with a dash and vim as one seldom sees on any field. When Virginia scored two points and soon increased their lead to seven, there became decidedly apparent an increased fury and determination in the work of the Carolina players. It was a hard fight from start to finish without any let-up. While every man on the team fairly earned his meed of praise, Garrett and Capt. Thompson, two men who were playing their last game, shone as linemen seldom get a chance to shine. Early in the game Porter got his nose smashed and pretty well smeared all over his face, but he played the whole game through as one of its stars. They all played—played the best game of this season. They lost. But as fighting men, Carolina's team proved themselves "all wool and three feet broad."

The Thanksgiving dances for the year will be given on next Thursday and Friday the 1st and 2nd of December, by the order of The Gorgas' Head and the German Club.

The members of the football team will enjoy a last supper together on Saturday night and a captain for next season will be elected. Four men seem at present to have a chance at being elected. They are Venable, Winston, Porter and Brown. Winston played a star end last year and has figured prominently in several positions this year. While Venable has never been a star, he is recognized as one of the hardest of players, and is always to be depended upon. Porter has had two years experience as a star fullback and is probably the strongest man in Carolina's defense. Brown made the team last year after three years on the scrubs. He has played good football more consistently this year than any other man on the team. Any one of the four candidates will make a good captain.

Rochdale Items.

Rochdale, N. C., Nov. 30.—Rev. J. W. Sumrell came Sunday morning and preached a very good sermon, and again at night. He spent the night with Mr. Alfred Nichols and returned to his home in Grifton Monday.

We had a very good Sunday school at Smiths school house and at Arthur Sunday.

Mrs. L. L. Meeks, who had spent several days at Mr. Mills Smith's, left Sunday evening to visit some of her children near Bruce.

Mrs. C. E. McLawhorn and Mrs. Mills Smith attended the Christian State Convention at Washington last week.

Mr. J. H. Cobb, of Standard was in our section Sunday.

Mr. Joe Cobb of Standard, went to Mr. Ivey Smith Sunday evening and took Miss Rebecca Evans, the principal teacher at Smiths school house home with him to spend the night with the teachers over the week.

A small band of Indian fortune tellers and disease healers came and pitched tents at Arthur Friday night but struck tents Sunday morning and left for Fountain.

Change Next Monday.

Next Monday will begin a new fiscal year in county affairs. Then the terms of all officers expire and the newly elected ones will be inducted into office.

THE KILLING OF A BEAR.

Incidents of a Hunt in the Eastern Section.

Mr. J. F. Farrell, and his guests, Messrs. A. C. Houser, of Buffalo, N. Y., S. W. Greenlaw, of Millbridge, Me.; Lawrance and Frank Pinner and Daniel G. Fowl, of Beaufort, have just returned from wilds of South river and report having had much sport gunning. Friday and Saturday were spent in and around Core creek swamp, where under the guidance of the veteran hunter, Len Merrick, they bagged a number of squirrels, several opossums and an extra large coon. Sunday was spent at Oriental, and before day Monday morning the party landed at Mr. Parker's place at the head of South river for a bear hunt.

Just at sunrise Len unleashed his pack of bear hounds and in a few moments the crisp morning air was filled with the shouts of the drivers and the music of the hounds. When Merrick recognized the baying of his pet bear dog "pup" he informed the hunters that it was certainly a bear because "Pup" did not speak exactly that way to anything else but Mr. Bruin. After an exciting dash through the swamp, piloted by Mr. Elijah Whitley the party succeeded in blocking the only line of retreat for old bruin. And right here let it be said, that this particular bear was a veteran fighter. Time and again he turned to face histormenters, but no bear could hope to cope with Merrick's dogs, so finally he was forced snapping and snarling, from his rival valiantly contesting every inch of ground, straight towards Mr. Houser. When the big fellow finally broke cover with bristles standing and the dogs close at his heels those nearest to Mr. Houser say that his cheek paled slightly as he realized that he was face to face with a thoroughly aroused and dangerous animal. But he proved equal to the occasion and at the flash of his gun old bruin's huge bulk staggered to the ground never again to turn upon the dogs who had now surrounded him, swayed unsteadily on his feet for an instant, and then, with a last defiant rush at the nearest dog, sank slowly to the ground.

Merrick and Whitley soon beat the dogs off, and then the whole party stood upon what must have been the largest bear killed for some time in Carteret county. After removing the bear's skin, the party weighed anchor for Beaufort via Oriental, and the inland waterway. The bear's skin will be tanned and a rug made of it for Mrs. Houser.—Beaufort Lookout.

MUNFORD'S CHRISTMAS SALE.

Great Bargains in Purchases and Prize Distributions.

C. T. Munford, the merchant prince who makes things hum at the special sales at his store, has just started a great Christmas sale in which prices have been marked down to money-saving bargains. Better still, for every 25 cents spent at this sale the purchaser gets a coupon ticket giving a chance at the handsome prizes to be given away on December 29th. These prizes are a china closet, a trunk and a combination writing desk and book case. You not only get the goods purchased at discount of 20 to 30 per cent, but just as many chances as you hold tickets to get one of these prizes free. A large advertisement in this paper tells about the bargains and the prizes.

Buncoed by a Negro Woman.

A clever trick was played on one of Wadesboro's merchants a few days ago by a colored woman. She wanted to buy a dress on credit but not having the proper financial rating she was denied the favor. Later she returned and stated that she "just must" have that dress to wear next day and offered to leave a new pair of shoes she had bought with the merchant until the next week when she would return and pay for the dress. This seemed fair and the merchant took the carefully wrapped pair of shoes and placed them under the counter. Two weeks and the woman failed to "come back" and then one of the clerks decided to see how much the firm had made on the transaction, getting a pair of shoes for a dress that cost only about two dollars. The package was unwrapped and contained a pair of old worn-out shoes. The woman was arrested and taken to the Wadesboro Jail.

ADDRESSES ON TOBACCO CULTURE

PITT COUNTY FARMERS GET VALUABLE INFORMATION

CARRINGTON, MATTHEWSON SPEAK

Eastern North Carolina Tobacco, Which is Mainly for Smoking, Has Poor Burning Quality. This Can be Improved With Proper Attention to Soil and the Fertilizers That is Used.

Those farmers who were present in the city hall today, and quite a number were there, received some valuable information about raising a crop of tobacco, and overcoming the deficiency in burning quality of the product of this section.

The meeting which was under the auspices of the tobacco board of trade, was called to order by Mr. O. L. Joyner, who after some remarks about the Eastern North Carolina crop and how the farmers had tried to find the trouble that gave their tobacco such a poor reputation for burning quality, introduced Mr. T. M. Carrington, of Richmond, president of the Tobacco Growers' Association of the United States.

Mr. Carrington only spoke briefly. He said better results can be obtained on the tobacco crop by improved fertilization, and the government is making investigations to determine how best to do this. Both Virginia and Eastern North Carolina stand low in the list of burning quality, and as ours is a smoking tobacco the purpose is to improve this quality. Chewing tobacco has increased only 7 per cent in ten years, while smoking tobacco has increased 87 per cent, hence the importance of increasing the quality of our crop.

Mr. E. H. Matthewson, of the United States department of agriculture was the next and principal speaker. He went at detail into the methods of improving the burning quality of our tobacco, giving figures showing where other sections surpass this in this respect. Investigations have been going on for years, and it is found that much of the burning quality depends on the per centage of potash in the tobacco. Chlorine reduces the burning quality, while potash increases it, therefore it is necessary to study the soil and use fertilizers in the proper proportion to bring the desired result. Every farmer should aim to make 1,000 pounds of tobacco to the acre and this tobacco should have 75 pounds of potash. He pointed out several formulas of fertilizers by which the proper amount of potash can be obtained, and by charts showed the relative product of different combination of fertilizers. It was a timely address and of value to all who heard it.

METHODISTS IN MEETING.

Conference Historical Society Holds Session.

Elizabeth City, Nov. 29.—The meeting of the Conference Historical Society was largely attended this evening. After devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. C. W. Robinson, President W. W. Rose introduced Hon. L. L. Smith the speaker of the evening. His subject was "Methodism in the Albemarle Country." His able address will be published in the Raleigh Christian Advocate. Historical articles of interest were presented to the society.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, W. W. Rose; first vice-president, R. B. John; second vice-president, C. I. Jerome; third vice-president, J. D. Bundy; secretary, M. T. Plyler; treasurer, T. A. Sikes; historian, L. S. Massey.

Gaynor's Assailant Arraigned.

By Wire to The Reflector.
New York, Nov. 30.—James J. Gallagher, who shot Mayor Gaynor, was arraigned today on two counts—one charging him with assault with intent to kill "Big Bill" Edwards, the other with carrying concealed weapon. He pleaded not guilty, and will be placed on trial within 30 days. Charge of felonious assault on the mayor was held in abeyance for the present.

SIGN POSTS AND MILE POSTS.

The Law Regarding Measuring and Making New Roads.

The Reflector has been asked to publish these sections of the law, taken from the Revisal of North Carolina relating to the proper marking of public roads with sign posts, and with the distance and direction to important places. It is very evident that this law is being neglected and overseers lay themselves liable for non-compliance. Here are the two sections relating to this matter: Section 2722. Overseers shall cause to be set up, at the forks of their respective roads, a post or posts, with arms pointing the way of each road, with plain and durable directions to the nearest public place to which they lead, and with the number of miles from that place as near as can be computed; and every overseer who shall for ten days after notice of his appointment, neglect to do so and keep the same in repair, shall for fail and pay for every such neglect ten dollars.

Section 2723. Every overseer of a road shall cause the same to be exactly measured, where it has not already been done, and at the end of each mile, shall mark in a plain, legible and durable manner, the number of miles, beginning, continuing, and marking the numbers in each manner and form as the board of supervisors shall direct; and every overseer shall keep up and repair such mark and numbers of his road. If an overseer shall neglect any of the duties prescribed in this section for the space of thirty days after his appointment to office, he shall forfeit and pay four dollars and the like sum for every thirty days thereafter the said marking may be neglected.

In addition to the above penalties, the overseer is liable to indictment.

OUR TWICE-A-WEEK WINTERVILLE LETTER.

Notes From Our Hustling Neighbor—What Its People are Doing.

Winterville, N. C. Nov. 30.—Prof. G. E. Lineberry, of Raleigh, came in Saturday night and spent Sunday with friends here. He left Monday morning for New Bern.

A. W. Ange & Company have reduced prices on all woolen goods 13, making $1.25 goods at 85c per yard.

Mr. J. S. Ross, of Ayden, was in town Sunday.

A lot of rubber shoes just received at A. W. Ange & Company's.

Mr. W. A. Cherry spent Sunday in town.

The A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company have increased their works so they can give employment to a few more laborers.

Mrs. J. D. Cox and Misses Esther Johnson and Pearl Hester spent Sunday evening in Ayden.

As we were passing through the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company's plant the other day, we learned they had made and sold about three thousand of the Pitt County School desks this season.

Mr. O. W. Rollins, of Ayden, was in town Sunday evening.

DEATH OF MRS. E. J. BROOKS

Mother of Trinity Professor Dies Within Month of Her Husband.

Professor E. C. Brooks left yesterday morning early for his old home in Grifton, Pitt county, where he was called by a telegram announcing the death of his mother Mrs. E. J. Brooks. Mrs. Brooks died Sunday, the 27th, exactly twenty-seven days after the death of her husband. She had suffered an apoplectic stroke and though she improved, there was seen to be no chance for her at any time. Professor Brooks went to her bedside two weeks ago but found her somewhat improved and returned to his work. She was about seventy years of age and leaves four children.—Durham Herald

Died.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. Martha E. Brown died of pneumonia and heart failure at the home of Mr. T. White, on Dickinson avenue. Mrs. Brown came to Greenville from Raleigh about three months ago to take a position as governess in the home of Mr. White. Her brother, Mr. J. W. Crawford, came Tuesday afternoon and took the remains to Raleigh by the morning's train for interment there.

CONDENSED FOR OUR BUSY READERS

Police After Blind Tigers in Wadesboro, Gallon Jug of White Lightning Found in Buggy—Disreputable Negro Shoots Woman of His Own Race in Greensboro—President of T. & J. Buggy Co. Dead.

A feed of corn for a horse off two stalks is good corn. That's what Mr. H. Browning, of Monroe, grew this season—eleven ears on each stalk—not large ears, to be sure, but pretty good size ones. Mr. Browning has been growing prolific corn for a number of years and he has got the growing of corn up to high standard.—Monroe Enquirer.

Wadesboro, Nov. 29.—The police are getting busy these days. Police-man Howell found a gallon of whiskey in bottles in a buggy in the lot in the rear of H. W. Little & Co.'s store. He did not know to whom the vehicle belonged and left Dave Liles, colored, to watch while he tried to find its owner. Dave however, as soon as the cop turned his back got in the buggy and drove off, and neither he nor the booze has since been seen.

Greensboro, Nov. 29.—This morning at nine o'clock, in the presence of three others, Fred Gilmer, enterprising negro about town, entertained the home of Bertha Price, a negro residing on East Washington street, and deliberately shot her down, with a forty-four Colt's revolver, the ball going clear through her body, entering below the heart and passing through the left lung.

Carthage, Nov. 29.—Col. W. T. Jones, president of the Tyson & Jones Buggy Company, of Carthage, died this morning after a gradual decline for the past three years.

CONVENTION OF GOVERNORS.

Twenty-Four States Represented in Conference

By Wire to The Reflector.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 30.—Governors of twenty-four states arrived here today from Frankfort to continue the conference which opened in that city yesterday. A delegation of prominent Louisville people went to Shelbyville where they met the governors and escorted them here. The first session of the conference here was held at the Seelbach Hotel, where the governors were afterwards entertained at luncheon. The committee on bylaws and constitution has been appointed by Governor Wilson. These are Governors Fort, Harmon, Weeks, Marshal and Ansel. Governor Draper will preside at all sessions here.

RAILROADS ARE WARNED.

Must Stop Juggling Dates on Bills of Lading.

Washington, Nov. 30.—To break alleged criminal practices of railroads juggling dates on bills of lading, the inter state commerce commission today issued warning to all railroads in the United States. An investigation conducted by the commission developed the fact that certain railroad carriers at Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis, and other points were issuing bills of lading contrary to rules of the commission. This violation can be punished by criminal prosecution. An order is made that property to be transported shall be in the possession of carriers at the time bills of lading are issued and dated when shipping instructions are given.

Small Fire Tuesday Night.

Early Tuesday night an old stable on the premises occupied by Mr. W. E. Perry, in West Greenville, was burned down. A small quantity of seed cotton hay and feed stuff and several chickens were destroyed with the stables. The building belonged to the heirs of the late Mr. James B. Cherry.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30 1910

Time can travel on an airship now.

Much of this kind of weather will make business for the plumber.

The government is making a sweet run after the sugar trust.

Wonder how long Greenville will continue to go without a fire alarm?

The months fly by so fast that you can hardly draw a long breath between times for bills to come again.

You would see people pouring in to Greenville faster than houses could be built for them, if they could find profitable employment here.

Just because that fire Tuesday night was only a little one, is no reason that Greenville does not need a fire alarm.

Goldsboro is following Greenville in throwing out the dog net for blue tigers. They even say one ought to be caught.

A fashion writer says the American woman lacks taste. Guess she had never tried her on ice cream or candy.

The A. & M. boys show that farmers are not only the best corn raisers, but also are champions when it comes to playing football.

President Taft is said to be worried over a dam. He might call in "Uncle Joe" who could give him a few without worrying a bit.

The government has sent out a list of all cities that the census returns give over 25,000 population. Only two in North Carolina—Charlotte and Wilmington—are on the list. And some of the 42,000 braggers are as quiet as Teddy Roosevelt was after the election.

Greenville stands in her own light in no other way so much as in not moving to get factories. Just see what little opportunity there is here for men of much capacity to get employment. And again just see how much the business houses stand in need of the trade of factory pay rolls. But these things are not coming simply waiting for them. The town must get busy and go after them.

Every road overseer in the county should read the article elsewhere in this paper citing the law in regard to sign posts and marks on the public roads. We doubt if there is a road in the entire county that give evidence of a strict compliance with this law, yet every road overseer is himself liable to the law for failure to have his road marked as the law directs. Now that attention is called to the law, there ought to be some getting busy to put up sign posts and marks.

Rev. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta, has paid his respects to the hobble skirt, and he did so thusly:

"The biggest piece of tom foolery that the devil ever put off on woman is the hobble skirt. It makes a woman appear in her walk like a Georgia convict in the chain-gang. Our women are too much in for fads—just any old fad."

It is thirteen months before the newly elected Democratic congressmen can even introduce bills to remedy existing evils. The first thing they should do is to fix it so that no congressman shall sit in congress after he is defeated and that the new elected member shall begin to serve the next month after the election.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The fact that 120 representatives in the next house never sat in Congress before may prove a real public gain. If they know less about the method of pushing special claims and private pension bills and working the patronage game in all its details they may have more time to devote to what is really public business.—New York World.

Farmer William Jennings Bryan has settled down to hard work on his Texas farm, where he will spend four months planting Bermuda onions and planning for all his next year's crops. While the political field may be overcrowded, there will always be plenty of room, contentment, happiness and glory for all "down on the farm."—Salisbury Post.

At last one court has taken the sensible view of the matter of near-ber. The Associated Press reports that in Ohio near-ber is now on a par with ordinary beer, according to a decision of the Supreme court in a case from Fulton county. "It was held in the original cases that malt liquor came within the provision of the county option law, regardless of the amount of alcohol in it, or whether it was intoxicating or not." The Circuit court reversed the Common Pleas court, and the Supreme court reversed the Circuit court." It took a good deal of reversal to get a thing right, but right prevailed at last. This near-ber dodge will react on the anti-prohibitionists.—Charlotte Chronicle.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES.

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Greenville women know the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail to make like a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, a fall of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Greenville woman's words:

Miss Susan Kainsaul, 503 N. Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says: "For some time I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and distressing pains through my loins. My kidneys were very weak and caused me great annoyance. My back pained me severely when first arising in the morning, I was so lame and sore I could scarcely get around. I at length procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Wooten's drug store and through their use I was entirely relieved. The fact that my kidneys have given me trouble since then, leads me to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills very highly."

The Great Porcelain Tower.
In 1430 A. D., after nineteen years of ceaseless labor and an expenditure of about $4,000,000, the Chinese government finished the wonderful porcelain tower at Nanquin, which stood for nearly four and a quarter of centuries, until 1856, the most marvelous building ever erected by human hands. It was of octagonal form, 200 feet in height, with nine stories, each having a cornice and a gallery without.

Age of a Fish.
The age of a fish can be determined with accuracy by inspection of the otoliths or bony concretions which are found in the auditory apparatus. These otoliths increase in size during the entire life of the fish, each year adding two layers, a light colored layer formed in summer and a dark layer formed in autumn and winter. The alternate layers are sharply contrasted and very distinct, so that there is no difficulty in counting them. The number of pairs of layers is equal to the number of years the fish has lived.
—Baltimore American

When the Hen Crows.
Willsford in his "Nature Secrets" (1905) writes:
"Beasts eating greedily and more than they used to do prenotes foul weather, and all small cattle that seem to rejoice with playing and sporting themselves foretells rain.
Oxen and all kinds of neat, if you do at any time observe them to hold up their heads and snuffle in the air or lick their hooves or their bodies against the hair, expect then rainy weather. Asses or mules rubbing often their ears or braying much more than usually they are accustomed presages rain. Hogs crying and running up and down with hay or litter in their mouths foretells a storm to be near at hand. The little sable beast (called a flea) if much thirsting after blood it argues rain. The cock if he crows in the daytime very much or at sunset or when he is at roost at unusual hours, as at 9 or 10, expect some change of weather and that suddenly, but from fair to foul or the contrary. But when the hen crows good men expect a storm within doors and without."

Lured into Bathing.
In a railway carriage chat the other day a London medical man told a good story which had come within his own experience. A mother was frequently bringing her child to him for treatment, but the doctor could discover nothing amiss except its need of a good wash. She was certain the infant was suffering from some terrible complaint and begged the doctor to do his best. He prescribed a daily wash with the water in which potatoes had been peeled. Never suspecting that this was merely a ruse to get the child washed, the mother followed the instructions to the letter. Rosy cheeks appeared, and a clean, healthy looking child gladdened the mother's heart. She sounded the doctor's praises everywhere and advised other mothers to test the efficacy of potato water. It never occurred to her that precisely the same result would have followed the daily application of soap and water.

A Spanish Ship Treasure.
In 1702 the largest bulk of treasure ever taken from a ship at sea was brought into London. It was the whole of the cargo of the Spanish ship Hermione, captured on May 21 by H. M. S.
Active. The Hermione surrendered to the Active without an action, and the treasure was landed at Portsmouth and conveyed to London in twenty decorated wagons, with British colors over Spanish and an escort party of sailors.
The strange procession reached London on Aug. 12, the day on which George IV. was born. On being sold the treasure realized £519,705 1s. 6d., and the share of the officers and men of the Active was as follows: The captain, £65,053 13s. 9d.; three commissioned officers, each £13,004 14s.
1d.; eight warrant officers, each £4,330 8s. 2d.; twenty petty officers, each £1,806 1s. 8d.; 158 seamen, each £485 5s. 4d.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Jury Penalties.
Nowadays no penalty is enforced when the twelve men chosen to form the jury are unable to agree upon a verdict. Formerly, however, a refractory jurymen was committed to prison and the verdict of the eleven was taken. In the reign of King Edward III. the judges decided that a verdict given by a majority was a nullity and recommended that the judges should carry the jury about with them in a cart till they should agree. The old custom that jurors should fast until they had agreed in their verdict prevailed long, but was mercifully relaxed somewhat in Tudor times, and during Queen Elizabeth's reign a banquet was usually given to the jury by the successful party to a suit.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Science and Cheese.
A medical authority kindly assures us that as long as cheese isn't decayed it will not affect the health of the consumer. This is a fact that we have suspected for a considerable time. But how is the ordinary cheese epicure to detect the difference unless he waits for results?

There is cheese so thoroughly disguised in the costume and aroma of decay that its proper standing on the sanitary testing table would puzzle a conjurer.

For instance, there is the brand known as Limburger.
But why pursue the subject?—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Circumventing Papa.
"Regional, I'm awfully sorry, but papa says he doesn't want to see you coming here any more."
"Bondsman, your father's wish is law.
He shall not see me again if I can help it. What evenings in the week does he spend downtown?"—Chicago Tribune.

Force of Habit.
"A thousand stars are looking down on you this night," said the poetical young man to the girl.
And she unconsciously put her hands up to arrange the position of her hair.

Official.
"We have had an official warning not to burn much gas this month."
"I never heard of such a thing."
"Oh, yes; it was last month's bill."
—Buffalo Express.

Made it Clear.
Now, Clarice, says the Boston Globe, don't get these things twisted; You eat piratives, see through binoculars and telescopes, and you don't know how to carry things.

Truly Answered.
Boats trading in the Medway in former years rejoiced in rather curious names, and the following was only one of the many amusing incidents resulting from this:
A boat named What's That to You, passing a lockyard at nighttime was hailed as usual by the coast guard-man.
"Boat ahoy! Your captain's name?"
"Captain X."
"And what are you laden with?"
"Coals."
"Where bound for?"
"Chatham."
"Ship's name?"
"What's That to You?"
"I asked you the name of the ship."
"What's That to You?"
"You shall be reported for your insolence!" roared the coast guard-man. Again he put the question, and receiving the same reply, the boat was commanded to remain where she was.
In the morning two boats were seen keeping guard. The officials, as they boarded the vessel with full authority to seize the offenders, observed for the first time the name painted in large letters. Amid the laughter and jeers of the crew of the What's That to You? they pulled moodily away.—London Telegraph.

Political Passions of 1844.
There were elements of picturesqueness and drama in the politics of the before the war time which are lacking nowadays. Marion Harland tells in her autobiography of a Whig rally which makes the political meetings of today seem tame, cut and dried affairs. It was in 1844, the year of Clay's defeat, and feeling ran high.
At that particular time John Tyler was perhaps the most unpopular man in the Union. In the progress of his review of national affairs the orator at last came to the hated name. Instantly arose the majestic figure of Captain Cooke the local eccentric, clad in the scarlet English hunting coat he invariably wore. "The Lord, have mercy upon the nation!" he cried, his voice solemn with wrath and sonority with the mint juleps for which the Bell was noted. "Fellow citizens, I always cry to high heaven for mercy upon this country when John Tyler's name is mentioned!
Amen and amen!"

Distilled Gold.
The investigations of a French chemist show that gold in the electric furnace boils freely at a temperature of 2,400 degrees C. In two or three minutes, it is said, from 100 to 150 grams of gold pass into the state of vapor. In condensing upon a cold body this golden vapor forms fliform masses and cubic crystals. At its temperature of ebullition gold dissolves a little carbon, which at the time of resolidification is deposited in the form of graphite. In an alloy of gold and copper, copper distills first.
In an alloy of gold and tin, the tin distills more abundantly than the gold, and when a large quantity of these mixed vapors is taken the tin burns on contact with the oxygen of the air, forming oxide of tin, colored purple by a fine dust of condensed gold. This is one method of preparing the color known as "purple of Cassius."—Harper's Weekly.

Japanese Children.
The Japanese child is exceedingly shy and retiring before its elders, and girls are taught to practice this more than boys. In the morning as soon as they are up the children go to their parents in turn, bow their heads to the ground and say "Good morning" or "How is your honorable health?" Before a meal they lift their chopsticks to their foreheads and bow in thanks, whether their parents are present or not, for the meal set before them. Before going out to school or elsewhere and on returning they must kneel before the mother and bow.
When father or mother go out the children must go to the porch, kneel down and say "Deign to go forth" or "Honorable return," as the case may be. As soon as infants can bow their heads the nurses train them in these respectful salutations.—Exchange.

The Effects.
"I have come to you, my friend, for comfort. My best girl has treated me very badly. I was trying to explain something to her, but she gave me such sharp looks they cut me to the heart; she withered me with her scorn, crushed me with her coldness and stabbed me with her keen edged tongue."
"See here, man, you oughtn't to come to me for comfort. What you need is to go to a hospital for treatment."
—Baltimore American.

Did They "Hes" Them.
"In the olden days they had no watches, you know," said the father.
"And how did they tell the time?"
asked the son.
"By sundials."
"Well, father," said the young man, feeling of his watchless chain, "how much could a fellow get on a sundial do you suppose?"—Yonkers Statesman.

Constant Mrs. Biggle.
Della—Mrs. Biggle is passionately fond of cream, isn't she? Stella—Oh, my, yes; she's such a crank on cream she's going to have her husband cremated.—Boston Herald.

Certainly Helpful.
Optimist—Ah! It is cherishing our illusions that keeps us young.
Pessimist—Yes, but only if we cling to the illusion that we are still young.

It is a maxim that no man was ever satisfied by influence while he was in it by crow.—Edison.

By Wire to The Reflector.
New York, Nov. 30.—Following the opening that was irregular, but active, the stock market developed a steadier tone toward the end of the first hour and in many instances fractional gains were scored in the leaders. Reading opened at 149 3/4 a gain of 1-2, but within 20 minutes after the opening fell back to the close. At the end of an hour, however, the stock market was quoting a gain of 5-8. Lehigh Valley was one of the strong features, quoting a gain of 7-8 at the opening.

New York, Nov. 30.—The cotton market opened steady with prices three points lower to one point higher. Wall street was a fair buyer.
Pressure mostly came from foreign traders who were waiting for reaction. After the call a further decline of five points followed. Opening: November 14.90; December 14.82; January 14.82; February 14.94 (bid); March 15.10.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—The wheat market was steady and about unchanged. Early trading was rather light. Trade in corn was small and scattered, with the price a shade lower; oats were steady with limited trade. Provisions were lower. Opening: December wheat 89 3-8; corn

ON THE RATE HEARING.

Railroad Men Giving Testimony Be- fore Committee.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Washington, Nov. 30.—Scoring methods of hauling freight on railroads and declaring that hundreds of thousands of dollars were annually wasted by railroads because of antiquated terminal facilities, D. O.
Ives, chairman of Transportation Department of the Boston chamber of commerce, resumed his testimony today before the inter state commerce commission in the rate hearing. Ives said service generally throughout the country had deteriorated and that roads constantly discriminated favor of large centres of traffic to the detriment of smaller centers. G.
A. Post, president of the Railway Business Association, was the next witness. He said his association has refrained from expressing any opinion on the question of advances, dis-spite reports to the contrary.

Sang at His Grave.

A Washington dispatch tells of a man who sang at his own funeral by means of a phonograph into which he sang a hymn to be used at his burial.
That is a little odd it is true, but it isn't half so remarkable as the fact that thousands of men "dig their graves with their teeth." A man can kill himself eating without being classed as a suicide when the funeral takes place.—Wilmington Star.

Looks Like Acquittal.

By Wire to The Reflector.
East Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 30.— Hattie Liblane, a 17-year-old girl, charged with murdering Clarence Glover, won the first big point in her fight today when the judge ruled that Glover's dying statement, "Hattie shot me," should be excluded from the evidence. It is said this means her acquittal.

Most Here—Christmas.

DO YOU KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT? You Should For the Reasons:

MONEY in Bank is safe from fire and burglars; in your home it is not.
MONEY in Bank is safe from careless handling; in your pocket it is not.
MONEY paid by check guarantees to you a permanent receipt; cash handed out does not.
MONEY in Bank is a starter towards economy, always ready for use, or to be added to.

SHOPPING AT HOME.

It Pays to Read Advertisements Be- fore You Start Out.

The most clever and progressive women have learned the immense advantage of carefully reading the advertisements.

Those who are more dull of apprehension prefer to wander around in different stores hunting for the special bargains and usual attractive articles.

The up-to-date woman of today sits down and takes her paper and reads the advertisements carefully before she goes "shopping."

She has learned by experience that the merchant who is up-to-date in his methods and has the most desirable offerings, is the one which makes his influence felt through this advertising.

If he did not do this he would not be an up-to-date merchant.
The back number merchant does not advertise.

Shopping at home, looking through the ads. before you start out, saves time and annoyance and is sure to result in both economy and satisfaction.

It pays to read advertisements.

Well Answered.

"Why do you weep over the sorrows of people in whom you have no interest when you go to the theater?" asked the man.

"I don't know," replied the woman.
"Why do you cheer wildly when a man with whom you are not acquainted slides to second base?"—Washington Star.

Starting a Family Jar.

"No man ever obtained anything worth having without working hard for it," said Mrs. Bickers to her husband, who was in a discouraged mood.
"Quite true," replied Mr. Bickers reflectively. "I remember that I obtained you without the slightest dif-culty."—Liverpool Mercury.

A Philosopher.

Little Willie—Say, pa, what is a philosopher? Pa—A philosopher, my son, is a man who can pretend to have a light heart when he has a light pocketbook.—Exchange.

The Supply.

yet. Bocker—Another trouble is that they aren't all born yet.—New York
