METHODIST CONFERENCE

THE 74TH YEARLY SESSION AT ELIZABETH CITY

THE SESSION OF THE THIRD DAY

Bishop Hendrix Makes Third Talk on "Shrunken Ideals"—Sunday School Work Takes Prominent Part in the Day's Proceedings—Four Districts Pass Examination.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Dec. 2.—The third day of the North Carolina annual conference convened this morning at 9 o'clock, Bishop Eugene R. Hendrix in the chair. The opening song was "How Firm a Foundation" and the opening prayer was offered by Rev. M. Bradshaw. The bishop's third lecture on "Shrunken Ideals" was heard with deep interest by a large audience. With the closing of the bishop's address, Rev. W. L. Cunningham, secretary of the conference, read the minutes of yesterday's session and the business of the conference was taken up. At 1 o'clock the conference quartette rendered a splendid hymn, and the following were ordained deacons and bishops:

J. J. Boon, H. E. Lance, B. F. Watson, J. A. Marton, M. Y. Self, W. Stanbury and F. S. Love, all young men of great promise to the church and to the North Carolina conference and Revs. H. M. North, W. E. Hocutt, G. W. Fisher, G. B. Starling, J. M. Culbreth, J. M. David, M. A. Smith, B. D. Woodall, F. B. Hoblett, W. W. Rose, R. D. Bailey, L. S. Massey, and others.

The Raleigh, Durham, Fayetteville and Wilmington districts passed the examination of character and made their reports. These districts show great advancement over previous years along all lines of church work. The presentation of Sunday school work last night by Dr. Frank Brown of New York, was a great success and the large audience was held in silence by the speaker. Mr. W. B. Cooper, of Wilmington, presided over the meeting and introduced the speaker. Mr. Cooper is of the leading Sunday school workers of the church and spoke encouragingly of the outlook of the Sunday school. It was urged that more attention be given to Sunday school enterprise throughout the church, as that through the Sunday school the world must be brought to Christ.

KILLED BY FOLDING BED.

Thirteen Hours Before Man With Broken Neck Dies.

Though his neck was broken when the folding bed in which he and his wife were sleeping closed early yesterday morning, Benjamin Lott, an engineer of No. 245 West One Hundred and Forty-fifth street, lived thirteen hours in the Harlem hospital. When life ended at 2:10 o'clock in the afternoon the surgeon said only a man of his remarkable physique could have lived so long.

After the falling of the upright part of the bed the smothered cries of Mrs. Lott who was imprisoned between pillows and mattress brought John Redmond. He broke in the Lott's door and then called Patrolman Mahoney of the West One Hundred and Fifty-second street police station. The two released Mrs. Lott who was taken to the hospital with her husband. Within two hours she was able to go home.—New York World.

Americans Capture London.

By Cable to The Reflector.
London, Dec. 3.—London was captured by 800 United States sailors today. It was the most enthusiastic and most peaceful invasion on record. The Jackies, headed by British generals and the United States marine band, marched through the streets of the city to Guild Hall. They were viewed by thousands of people all along the way. American flags were displayed, and there were other marks of friendship.

It Flies Away.

"Why do they call a theatrical backer an angel? He hasn't got wings." "No, but he's very high."—Washington Post.

NORTH CAROLINA ITEMS

Of News Happenings Far and Near Within Its Borders.

In a statement issued by the Controller of the Currency it is shown that North Carolina has seventy-five national banks; that they have loans and discounts amounting to $34,000,478, and that their deposits amount to $26,268,662.

Mr. Haywood Johnson, who lives below Four Oaks, was in town yesterday and gave this office a call. Mr. Johnson is over eighty years old and is still hale and hearty. As evidence of this fact he walked to Smithfield yesterday, a distance of eleven miles. He did not walk from necessity, but from choice.—Smithfield Herald.

Wilmington, Dec. 2.—The hotel at Roseboro, Sampson county, was destroyed by fire this afternoon and it took heroic work by the citizens to prevent other property from being burned. The loss is estimated at $3,000, with no insurance. The building was owned by J. W. Underwood.

Revolutionists Sue for Peace.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Mexico City, Dec. 3.—The Mexican revolutionists have sued for peace. The government will grant their terms, and President Diaz has appointed a peace commission. The rebels sued for peace after overtures had been made to them by representatives acting for the Mexican government who made it known that the Diaz reign would meet the revolutionists half way with concessions. It is the first time President Diaz has ever relented towards those who opposed him. The chief demand of the rebels is general amnesty for political offenders including General Madero. The peace commission is now in session in San Isador.

Big Fire in Petersburg.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Petersburg, Va., Dec. 3.—A terrific fire raged here for six hours in the business district of the city early today gutting practically an entire block, causing a loss estimated at $1,000,000. The flames broke out in the Y. M. C. A. building at 2:30 o'clock and quickly spread to adjoining property. At 8:30 the flames were still burning fiercely, but under control. Fearing disorder in the city, the mayor issued orders that all saloons be closed for the day.

More Trouble at the Canal.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Colon, Dec. 3.—All boiler makers on the canal have struck. Many other workmen are threatening to join with the boiler makers. The water way authorities have sent to New Orleans for strike breakers and this is expected to cause further trouble. The men are very indignant at President Taft for refusing to consider their grievances when he was recently here and promised to make an investigation.

Next Conference Goes to Kinston.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Dec. 3.—The next session of the North Carolina conference will be held in Kinston, as was decided today. The conference is well up with its work and will be ready to adjourn Monday afternoon, after reading the appointments of the preachers for next year.

Root Appointed to Hague Tribunal.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Washington, Dec. 3.—President Taft today announced the appointment of Senator Elihu Root, of New York, as United States member of the Hague tribunal. Senator Root succeeds the late Chief Justice Fuller on the tribunal.

Strikers Attack Watchmen.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Two watchmen employed by the garment makers to guard their plants were attacked by a mob of strikers today and beaten into insensibility. One of the men was sixty years old. The strikers were infuriated by the snow storm which set in and promised further suffering to their families.

Clark on the Job.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Washington, Dec. 3.—President Taft held open house today to the members of congress conferring with him over administration matters which will come up in congress during the next session. Chaim Clark was the first caller.

MATTERS WITH THE ALDERMEN

REGULAR MEETING OF THE BOARD THURSDAY NIGHT

STREET WORK STOPPED AT PRESENT

Resignation of Alderman Flanagan Accepted to Take Effect in February—Near-Beer Matter Considered in Executive Session—Other Routine Business.

The board of aldermen met in regular monthly session, Thursday night, with the mayor and six members of the board present.

There was no report of interest from any of the standing committees. It was ordered that all work on street improvement be suspended for the present.

Alderman VanDyke and Edwards were appointed to fill vacancies on the committee to look after securing ground for additional cemetery.

The market house was reported in clean and sanitary condition.

Application was made for holders of near-beer license who have gone out of business for refund for pro rata part of the year. The consideration of this was taken up by the board in executive session.

The resignation of Alderman E. G. Flanagan, which was presented at last meeting, was accepted to take effect at the regular meeting in February, the board unanimously requesting him to continue to serve until then.

Reports of officers for the past month were read and approved, and such bills as were approved by the finance committee were ordered paid.

An error made in the tax levy against Rev. J. H. Shore was ordered corrected.

A petition for street lights in West Greenville was approved, and water and light commission was instructed to install the lights as soon as practicable.

Wiley Norcott was granted license to run a pool room in his building on Evans street.

William Lilly was granted dray license for part of the fiscal year.

TOBACCO SALES FOR NOVEMBER.

1,181,049 Pounds at an Average Price of $12.28.

Secretary C. W. Harvey, of the tobacco board of trade, has furnished us the following figures relative to sales on the Greenville tobacco market:

The sales for the month of November were 1,181,049 pounds at an average price of $12.23 per hundred. For the same month of 1909 the sales were 1,225,594 pounds at an average price of $10.53, showing that the market averaged $1.70 per hundred pounds this November over last year.

For the reason from August 15th to December 1st the market sold a total of 6,312,797 pounds at an average price of $10.10 per hundred. Up to the same date last year the sales were $853,964 at an average price of $9.00, the average season price this year being $1.10 above last year.

The Greenville market sold more tobacco in November than either Wilson or Kinston, the sales at Wilson not quite a million pounds and at Kinston a little over six hundred thousand pounds.

A Fine Idea.

Col. H. E. Fries, Mr. S. P. Collier, Jr., Mr. W. H. Johnson, Mr. E. A. Shubert and Mr. H. B. Varner are working over a plan for beautifying the stations along the Southbound and all of the farms and farm buildings in sight of the road between Winston-Salem and Wadesboro. The details have not been perfected, but it is almost certain that some novel contests will be started, offering handsome prizes to the farmers who paint their houses and barns and improve the appearance of their farms so as to make the best showing.

Prizes will also be offered the towns that beautify the grounds around the stations and in this work the road will lend a hand. Handsome farm houses and well kept farms will do the section through which the road runs a great deal of good and the movement ought to be successful.—Lexington Dispatch.

Death of Mr. George Jarvis.

Elizabeth City, Dec. 2.—Ex-Governor and Mrs. T. J. Jarvis was in the city yesterday, returning to their home in Greenville from Currituck county, where they had been to attend the last sad rites over the remains of Mr. George Jarvis, a brother of the governor. Mr. Jarvis had been ill for several weeks and his death was not unexpected. However, his death was a great shock to the citizens of Currituck county, who valued him most highly. He was 73 years old and was one of the most beloved and influential citizens of the county. He was a descendant of one of the most noted and highly honored families in the state, being a son of the late Rev. Benester Jarvis, a man of precious memory to many of the older citizens, and a leader in the Methodist church of pioneer days.

The funeral services were conducted from the home by the Rev. James Y. Old, of this city, and the interment followed in the family burying ground.

OUR TWICE-A-WEEK WINTERVILLE LETTER.

Notes From Our Hustling Neighbor—What Its People are Doing.

Winterville, N. C., Dec. 3.—Mr. M. B. Bryan went to Raleigh Wednesday on business for the Pitt County Oil Company.

The A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company have just received a car load of wire fence. They can supply you with fence to fence your farm whether it be a large or small farm. Miss ePar Nelson, of Grifton, who has been visiting Miss Annie McLawhorn, returned home Thursday.

If you have green pork to sell, see A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company. Mrs. R. H. Hunsucker left yesterday morning for Raleigh and Smithfield to spend several days with friends.

A. W. Ange & Company are paying the highest price for turkeys. They want 1000 for Christmas dinners.

Mr. R. L. Abbott attended the old maids convention at Ormondsville last night. He, too, wishes for Winterville to exchange some of its old bachelors with Ayden for one of its old maids.

We will give a good reduction on woolen dress goods from now until January 1st, 1911. Frisco flannel, 15c per yard; $1.25 mohair, good style at 90c per yard; flannel, nice quality, at 35c per yard; 50c woolen stripes at 25c. Come and see and be convinced.—A. W. Ange & Company.

Mrs. M. G. Bryan left Friday to spend several days with friends.

Mr. S. L. Ange, of Jamesville, who has been spending several days with his son, Mr. A. W. Ange, returned home Thursday.

Mr. O. W. Rollins, of Ayden, was in town Thursday.

Rev. M. A. Adams, who has been away for several days, returned last night.

Mr. J. S. Ross, of Ayden, was in town Friday.

ADDRESSES ON 'CHILDREN'S HEALTH'

DR. CARTER AND PROF. AUSTIN BOTH SPEAK

DR. RANKIN MISSED THE TRAIN

Dr. Carter Speaks on Adenoids and Visual Irregularities—Prof. Austin Speaks of the Neglect of Throat, Teeth and Eyes—Parents Should Give More Attention to Health of Their Children.

The chapel of the graded school was filled Friday night with an attentive audience to hear Dr. Rankin and Dr. Carter on adenoids, and their effects on school children. Much to the regret of all Dr. Rankin was unable to be present. He telegraphed that he was misinformed by the ticket agent at Raleigh as to the time of the departure of the train, and that he reached the station five minutes late.

Dr. Carter, of Washington, was introduced, and he dealt in detail with the subjects of adenoids and visual irregularities. While his address was at times rather full of technical terms for the laymen, in the main he was clear, and much good must come from it to the many who hear him.

At the conclusion of Dr. Carter's address, Superintendent Smith introduced Prof. H. E. Austin who always does well everything that he undertakes, and his address was no exception to his rule. He told the listeners in plain terms of the terrible consequences of neglecting children's throat, teeth and eyes. He declared that every child has a right to grow up healthy and strong, so that he may lead a happy and useful life, and that no parent has any sort of right to neglect those important matters. In addition to resulting in impaired health, Prof. Austin showed the close relationship between poor health and crime. He said that unhealthy children are troublesome in the school, and that when they grow up there is an estrangement between child and parent, and soon he goes away, often into evil-doing and crime.

The management of the school feels that a good start was made for better care of the children. There are many cases of illness among the pupils which is easily preventable. If a better knowledge concerning health and hygiene can be spread among the people, and especially a knowledge of those subjects about which people know but little it is believed that much good will result.

PERSONAL MENTION.

The People Who Come and Go on Our Trains.

Col. Harry Skinner returned Friday evening from Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Williams left this morning for Henderson, Ky., to remain through the holidays.

Mrs. Laura White went to Norfolk today.

Mr. T. M. Mead went to Rocky Mount today.

Born.

On Friday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. Albion Dunn, a son.

Gowan's Advertising Wagon.

Today there was seen on the street an advertising wagon that attracted much attention. It was in charge of Mr. J. S. Skeen, and was distributing advertising matter and sample packages of Gowan's Pneumonia Cure, a remedy manufactured in Durham that has become very popular. Mr. Skeen says he has been on the road with this wagon since the first of July, traveling from town to town.

Possibly a War Relic.

Capt. A. J. Griffin has brought The Reflector an old bayonet that he found in the vicinity of where the old breast works were during the civil war. This old bayonet, now badly eaten with rust, was probably dropped during the war.

RABBITS.

A Shipping Business That Makes Siler City Famous.

The total amount of game shipped from this place last week shows that Siler City still holds the undisputed title of the largest rabbit center in the country. As the auto industry has made Detroit famous; the beer product Milwaukee famous; the progressive spirit Charlotte famous; the pokeberry juice The News and O. server famous, so the rabbit industry has made Chatham county and Siler City famous. Possibly it may seem a joke to some people and a matter of unbelief that 20,000 rabbits were shipped from this place alone last winter, but such is a fact and the books of the produce dealers here will bear witness to it. It would appear that such a wholesale invasion of the rabbit family would deplete them to such an extent that the crop this season would be small, not so; they are here more numerous than ever. The shipments from the place last week amounted to 3,450. The shipments of birds amounted to $370. These rabbits sell here at 10 cents apiece, and much easy money is thus turned loose in the country.—The Grit.

The call for good roads is going up from all parts of the state.

Coldshoro had a hard time trying to get the aviation meet there pulled off.

There is so much faking these days that you do not know whether to believe the present stories about Cook or not.

Since his party has lost control of congress, President Taft has begun advocating economy in appropriations.

Governor Brown, of Georgia, who is attending the conference of governors in Louisville, Ky., got in quite a dilemma. He went to open his trunk for himself and Mrs. Brown to dress to attend a reception and found that his baggage had got mixed with a grocery drummer, and instead of finding the "glad rags" in the trunk which he opened, there was a display of canned corn, syrup, etc., things that would not do for a reception.

Effects of Prohibition.

Line upon line and precept upon precept, must the agitation for temperance and law enforcement be prosecuted. Prohibition has proved a blessing to North Carolina and is destined to do still greater things if given a fair trial. No man believes that prohibition will prohibit drinking, so long as whiskey is made anywhere.

The Record has often asserted that the colored people of this State are in a better condition, and that a more friendly feeling exists between the white and colored races in the State than in any other State. We are also pleased to note that this is the opinion of Dr. Booker T. Washington, the most distinguished and useful colored man in the United States.

He has recently made a tour of this State, speaking at many of our towns, on his investigation of the condition and progress of the colored people of the South. He has previously visited several other States, and he is reported as saying that his race "has attained in some respects the highest degree of contentment, prosperity and amicable relations with the whites in North Carolina." The dominant party in this State has been just to our colored population, providing them with schools, colleges and charitable institutions for their afflicted and we are pleased to note Booker Washington's appreciation of what has been done here for his race.—Pittsboro Record.

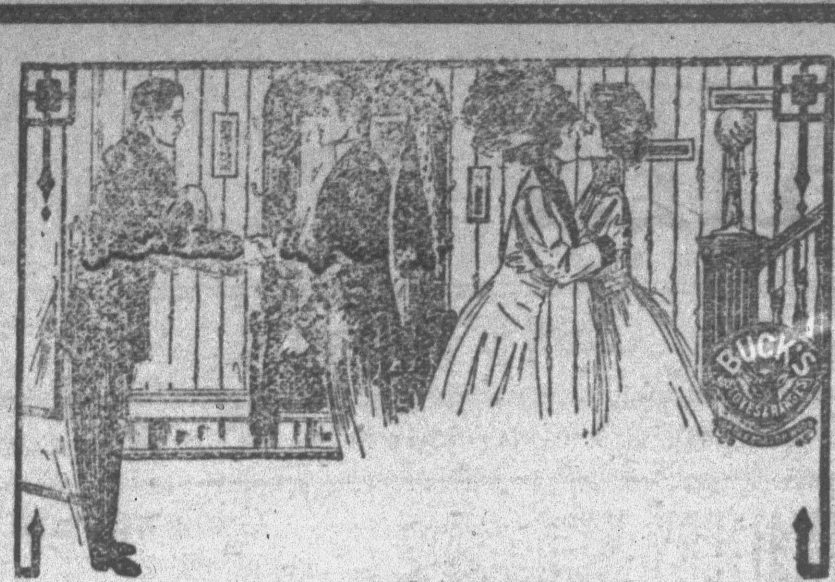

where, but it does prohibit the worst features of the traffic—the open saloon with its blandishments and temptations to man's social nature. Wherever the saloon and distillery have been banished, better order has resulted; property has increased in value and crime has been lessened.

Governor Stubbbs, of Kansas, gives the following facts and figures in regard to the workings of prohibition in the "Sunflower State."

The death rate in Kansas is the lowest of any State or nation on earth—only 7.12 per thousand.

Under prohibition the death rate has increased 100 per cent. while the number of convicts has only increased 17 per cent.

More than 50 per cent. of the county jails are without a prisoner under conviction, and last year 49 out of 105 counties did not send a prisoner to the penitentiary.

The ratio of convicted persons is one for every 700 inhabitants while 75 per cent. of the jail prisoners have been convicted for violations of the prohibition law.

Fifty-four counties are without a convict, and 87 without an insane person in the asylums.

The first few years of prohibition showed a decrease of 4 per cent. of divorce cases.

Ninety-six counties have not an inebriate. Six of the nine counties furnishing inebriates were counties bordering the wet section of Missouri.

In education this is the status: Kansas has a permanent school fund of $10,000,000, most of it invested in municipal bonds of cities of Kansas which offer the safest kind of investment. There are normal schools established in 100 of the 105 counties.

During the last nine years the enrollment of the State University has increased from 1,150 to 2,063, the normal from 1,630 to 2,860, the agricultural college from 870 to 2,192, besides 9,000 young pupils attending denominational institutions and 4,548 attending business college. School property is worth $16,000,000.

There are 700 newspapers and magazines and 98 per cent. of them will not admit liquor advertisements to their columns.

The first 20 years of prohibition reduced illiteracy 40 per cent.

The increase of wealth within the last ten years has been in bank deposits from $169,000,000 to $189,000,000. The per capita increase has been from $60 to $113.

The increase of wealth within the last ten years has been $120,000,000 (?) a year for that period. The total assessed valuation of property in Kansas is $2,435,691,859, which far exceeds the assessments of most of the States with equal opportunities. The State tax is 90 cents per $1,000, a very low rate.

The garnishment courts that ran continuously under liquor conditions have been put out of business.

Forty-nine of the county poor farms have been turned into experiment stations with the State Agricultural College, because there were no paupers to care for.—Reidsville Weekly.

A Lady Who Lives in Goldsboro Joins in the Chorus of Praise for Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Goldsboro, N. C.—"A physician treated me for many distressing symptoms," writes Mrs. Etta A. Smith, "but gave me no relief.

"I suffered with neuralgia around the heart and was troubled at times with my head. I had pain in my left side, bowels, left thigh, shoulders and arms.

"After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering women."

Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic, to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens.

Take Cardui, when you are ill, with the ailments of your sex. Take Cardui as a tonic, to prevent illness, when you feel it coming.

Preservative Peat.
Peat possesses wonderful antiseptic and preservative qualities owing to the presence of tannin, iron and other substances in it. Here is an instance: At the time of the covenanters, in 1683, three men were shot at a place called Crossgelloch on the moors above Old Cumnock, in Scotland. In 1823, when a monument was being erected to their memory, the workmen came upon the corpses rolled in their plaid. The bodies were in exactly the same state as when they were buried. The moss had preserved them as if they had been embalmed.

Wheat.
Wheat is the chief basis of the national nourishment of Englishmen, Frenchmen, Spaniards, south Italians—in north Italy maize takes precedence—and Hungarians, and it holds complete supremacy in North America and Australia. In German speaking central Europe wheat has a large consumption, but not to the extent that it is used in the lands named. The principal food is rye bread, not because of the poverty of the people, but because of the climate. The rye is more hardy than wheat and is more adapted to the soil of these lands.

MILITARY ACCURACY.

Exactness in Keeping Tab of the Movements of Soldiers.
We hear much of the perfection of military organization abroad, but it is doubtful whether any foreign war officer follows with an accuracy greater than that displayed by our own war department the movements of its officers. The following is an interesting case in point:
A young army officer who has seen service in this country and in the east was once with a scouting party in Arizona. After two weeks in the desert his squad came to the railway near a small station. Within ten minutes a telegram from Washington was brought to him by the station agent.
It asked if the officer wished to be transferred to one of the new artillery regiments then forming.
He answered by telegraph that he would be glad to enter either of them.
Then with his squad he set off again
across the desert.
It was six days later when they again struck the railway, this time eighty miles from the point at which they had previously crossed it, but the officer's reply from the war department was awaiting him. It had been telegraphed to every station within 200 miles.

A more striking instance of accuracy occurred after the same officer's transfer to the east. He was traveling home on leave, and, as the regulations require, he had notified the department of the day, hour and probable route of his journey. After he had been on the train for eight hours at a small station the porter entered with a telegram, asking if any one of his name was present. On opening the telegram the officer found that it ordered him to detached duty.
Exactness of detail could not be carried much further. The war department knew the whereabouts of an insignificant second lieutenant even when he was traveling on leave of absence.—New York Herald.

A Sure Remedy.
"I am fixing up a surprise for John,
but I am afraid that if he stays around the house he will discover me."
"That's all right. You just tie a towel around your head and ask him if he can't stay at home today and help you take up the carpets."

Her Bad Habit.
"I don't like that woman."
"Why not?"
"She's the woman who is all the time teaching my wife a new way of serving up cold meat."—Detroit Free Press.

May 15.01.

New York, Dec. 3.—The stock market suffered another set back today, and stocks in general were early quoting fractional losses. Several rallies occurred in quick succession and prices then began to go up, but this did not last long, for in the next ten minutes there was another slump.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Wheat opened from 1-8 to 3-8 higher with a steady tone at Liverpool, corn opened a shade firmer with offerings light, oats firmer with other grain, and provisions firm but small trade. Opening: December wheat 90 3-4; corn 46; oats 32; January pork 17.55.

Fatal to Bryan and Roosevelt.

European travel, associated with Kings and a study of monarchical governments seem to have a disastrous effect on modern American statesmen. Two years ago Mr. Willam J. Bryan came home from Europe the most popular man in America. But in less than 24 hours he had lost his chance to be president. His speech advocating the European system of government ownership of railroads was a death blow to his ambition. Theodore Roosevelt came back from Europe this spring the most popular and most idolized man in the country.
He kept his tongue for a while, the most surprising event of his life.
But when he began to talk he committed as fatal mistakes as Bryan.
His theme was 'New Nationalism'.
He, too, had become enamored with the strong governments of Europe,
the power and splendor of the governing classes and the weakness of the people. He ridiculed our constitution and attacked the Supreme court for rendering decisions in compliance with the constitution.
His 'New Nationalism' goes many bow shots further towards monarchy and away from democracy than Bryan's government ownership of railroads.—Newton Enterprise.

Governor Craig.

There is such a thing as filling a community a little too full of politics. In fact, it is easily done. But there is one thing that can easily be settled and now is a good time to do it. Let's name Hon. Locke Craig for governor and be quiet. He is one of the State's foremost sons and will make a good and great governor and will be nominated and elected and there's no use fussing about it. The Post would like to see it done quickly, without noise, or combustion.—Rockingham Post.

Love has enabled many a man to avoid the disgrace of dying rich.

DO YOU KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT? You Should For the Reasons:

MONEY in Bank is safe from fire and burglars; in your home it is not.
MONEY in Bank is safe from careless handling; in your pocket it is not.
MONEY paid by check guarantees to you a permanent receipt; cash handed out does not.
MONEY in Bank is a starter towards economy, always ready for use,
or to be added to.

FAMOUS NOVELISTS.

What Some of Them Did Before They Took to Writing.

Among those novelists who studied law we have Fielding, Scott, Charles Reade, Wilkie Collins, Blackmore,
Washington Irving, George Meredith,
Robert Grant, Henry James, Anthony
Hope, Rider Haggard and Owen Wister. Journalism, which Mr. Kipling once defined as the one legitimate branch of the profession, is represented by Dickens, David Christie Murray, William Black, J. M. Barrie, Marion Crawford, George W. Cable, Stephen Crane, George Barr Mc-Cutcheon, Frank Norris, Richard
Harding Davis and David Graham Phillips. The navy and merchant marine have given us Smollet, Captain Marryat, Fenimore Cooper, Clark Russell, Joseph Conrad and Morgan Robertson. Artists and architects include Thackeray, Du Maurier, Hopkinson
Smith, Robert Chambers, Thomas Hardy and William J. Locke. Medicine and theology are not so well represented. Under the former head we recall for the moment only Smollett (naval surgeon), Holmes, S. Weir
Mitchell and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle;
under the latter, Sterne, Charles Kingsley, Henry van Dyke, Edward Everett Hale, Ian Maclaren, Ralph Connor and Thomas Dixon. College professors who have either given up their chairs to become novelists or have found time for occasional novels in the midst of their other duties are Sir Walter Besant, Robert Herrick and Brander Matthews.—Bookman.

Yabbergrass!

"G'f'e him some yabbergrass, missis,"
was the advice of an old rag and bone man recently to a mother whose child was ailing in a mid-Derbyshire village.
The remark was puzzling until Ophelia's
"There's rue for you; we may call it herb of grace o' Sundays" came to mind. Rue, it seems, is still called "herb of grace" in Derbyshire.—London Family Herald.

Strategy.

The turkey was not a very large one,
and Mrs. Pedagog's boarders began to be a little anxious on the subject of its going around. Finally the last bit was distributed, and the idiot, glancing at his portion, observed that he had drawn the neck and the pope's nose.
"Ah, Mrs. Pedagog," said he, with a genial smile, "you are a wonder at making both ends meet."—Lippincott's.

Looking Ahead.

Young Wife (in passion)—I'm going home to my mother! Husband (calmly)—Very good; here's money for your railway fare. Wife (after counting it)
—But that isn't enough for a return ticket.—Every Woman's Magazine.

Early Intimations.

Fond Mother—I'm sure Horace will be a great astronomer when he grows up! This is the third time this week he has cried for the moon!—Bystander.

Set not thyself to attain much rest,
but much patience.—Thomas a Kempis.
