TWO SUNDAY MORNING FIRES

ONE IN RESIDENCE SECTION,
OTHER IN TOBACCO TOWN

LOSS $25- TO $30,000, HALF INSURED

First Fire in Mr. Frank Wilson's Residence—Second Starts in Peoples Warehouse—The Latter Causes Much Loss and Gives Other Portions of The Town Close Call From Sparks.

A little before 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, by the firing of pistols, barking of dogs and cries of "fire," Greenville's only means of giving a fire alarm the people of the town were aroused from their slumber to learn that there was a fire somewhere. Some hurried out to go and look for the fire at random, while others took time to call up the central telephone office to see if the whereabouts of the fire could be learned, and in this way the fire was finally located.

The family of Mr. Frank Wilson, on Fifth street, near the A. C. L. railroad, had been awakened by their home being filled with smoke, and upon making investigation found that fire was burning fiercely in the kitchen directly underneath the kitchen. The basement was used for the storage of wood, and how the fire started there is a mystery. Enough citizens and firemen arrived in time to put the fire out, but the under part of the house was considerably burned and damage was done throughout the building by smoke. An estimate of the loss cannot be made now, but it is covered by insurance.

Just about the time this fire was out, and while the firemen were still running a stream under the house a bright glare to the southward showed that there was another fire in the tobacco section of the town, and it was found to be the Peoples warehouse on Ninth street about midway between the two railroad depots. As quickly as it could be done the firemen moved to the new scene of trouble, but the flames had made such headway in the frame structure that the fire could not be checked until the warehouse, prize house and stables adjoining, and also the new brick stables of Mr. W. H. Dale, Jr., next to the warehouse, were destroyed. By good work the flames were kept from spreading to the range of frame stores just across the street from the warehouse.

The wind was from the west and a great flood of sparks were sent flying over and on the roofs of buildings to the eastward along Ninth street, and but for the rain that had fortunately fallen early in the night there is no telling how far the fire would have spread. As it was, people were kept busy protecting their property along the range of sparks.

The Peoples warehouse was owned by Mr. B. E. Parham, of Greenville, and his father-in-law, Mr. R. M. Jones, of Durham, and it was leased and operated by the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Company. The prize house was used by Mr. T. A. Person. The loss on these buildings was approximately $15,000, about half covered by insurance. The Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Company lost about $1,500 worth of tobacco with about $1,000 insurance. Mr. Person lost about $6,500 worth of tobacco with $4,000 insurance. Mr. Dale's loss on his brick stables was $3,000, with only $1,200 insurance.

All the team were gotten safely out of Mr. Dale's stables, but it was found Sunday morning that one horse had been burned to death in one of the warehouse stables. The horse had been put in the stall Saturday by a man from the country whose name we have not learned, and at the time of the fire no one knew that the horse was there.

Mr. J. S. Tunstall and others occupying the buildings across Ninth street in front of the warehouse, sustained some damage, as did also the new brick buildings being built by Messrs. Cobb & Edwards on the west side of the warehouse. We could not learn the extent of this damage.

The plant of the American Tobacco Company, is situated just across Tenth street from the scene of the fire. This plant is well equipped for fire protection escaped

VISIT OF A LAYMAN.

Mr. John T. Pullen, of Raleigh, Speaks Twice Here Sunday.

There is not a layman in North Carolina who is better known and doing more to uplift humanity and carry the people to his fellow man than Mr. John T. Pullen, of Raleigh. Greenville enjoyed a visit from him Sunday, on which day he spoke twice in Memorial Baptist church. His subject at the morning service was "Ear marks that I love my Master," and in the evening "The Word of God." There are few men that can talk like Mr. Pullen, and even preachers might well desire to possess the gift of making men's hearts like this consecrated business man.

Wherever Mr. Pullen goes he in reality spreads the gospel, for one of his characteristics is to distribute handy little pocket editions of portions of the Bible that are convenient for business people to carry about with them and catch treasurers of truths at odd moments. While here he gave away a large amount of the "Book of Psalms," "The Proverbs" and the "Gospel of St. John." There are many people who will long gladly remember the visit of Mr. Pullen to Greenville.

While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Moore.

SUPREME COURT APPOINTMENTS.

Four Named by The President Are Democrats.

By Wire to The Reflector. Washington, Dec. 12.—President Taft today sent to the senate the following nominations: for chief justice Supreme court, Edward D. White, of Louisiana; Associate justices, Joseph R. Lamar of Georgia; Willis Van Devanter, of Wyoming; Chief justice commerce court, Martin A. Knapp, of New York; Associate justices, Robert W. Archbold, of Pennsylvania; William H. Hunt, of Montana; John Emmett Garland, of South Dakota; John W. Mack, of Illinois; Inter state commerce commission, B. H. Meyer, of Wisconsin; C. C. Mack, of Kentucky. Justice White is a Democrat and has been associate justice 16 years. He is 65 years old and a Confederate veteran. Martin A. Knapp, head of the commerce court, is chairman of the inter state commerce commission. Of the other appointments Lamar is a Democrat and is also Mack and Garland. All others are Republicans.

ANOTHER BRAZIL MUTINY.

Five Hundred Dead as a Result of Bombardment.

By Wire to The Reflector. Rio de Janeiro, Dec. 12.—Martial law prevailed throughout a large part of Brazil as result of a mutiny of a battalion of the marine corps. More than 500 are dead as the result of a bombardment of Cobra Island by government troops and shelling the city by mutineers. Hundreds of residents have fled into the country fearing another outbreak. A special session of parliament was held today. The government believes it has the situation well in hand, but is taking every precaution. Troops were distributed throughout the troublesome belt for a thirty-day period of martial law.

English Elections Still Going.

By Cable to The Reflector. London, Dec. 12.—While polling went on in the English election today, interest centered in Ireland where a chaotic condition prevails and where an open conflict between armed forces may bring on civil war that will tear Great Britain asunder. The magnitude of the crisis has just been realized and Ireland is center of dissension. As the polling progresses the situation becomes more and more menacing. At noon today the government coalition forces had a lead of 52.

Damage. The outside sprinklers were put to work on the front of the building next to the fire and kept it thoroughly safeguarded from harm. The sprays of water from the sprinklers in the glare of the fire presented a pretty scene that many who saw it spoke about.

It cannot be told with certainty how these fires started, but circumstances and their circumstances are so many that the hypothesis of incendiarism.

NORTH CAROLINA ITEMS

Of News Happenings Far and Near Within Its Borders.

Kinston, Dec. 10.—The money amounting to $3,905, stolen from the shanty of Mrs. Pettie Watson at the Goldsboro Lumber Company, near here, has been recovered. Suspicion rested upon a negro named Norman Brown. He was captured and under threats, confessed that he had stolen the money and led a party to where it was buried. Every cent was recovered. Brown was given a preliminary hearing and sent on to court.

Kinston, Dec. 10.—The store of the Moseley Hardware Company was robbed Thursday of $100 worth of pistols. Suspicion rested on a negro, Babe Sherrod. He was arrested and one of the stolen pistols was found on his person. He was sent on to court. He had just finished serving a road sentence.

NO MONEY TO KISS.

When Housework is Done by Hand Instead of Machinery.

If women did have so much work they could do their work. Nineteenth of the women who employ servants need employ none if they had to do no sweeping or dusting, clothes-washing, dish-washing or ironing. If they did their own work, they could save the wages of their servants and the cost of boarding them. A modes estimate of the average servant's wages is $20 a month. If a girl is fed well, her board, at the present high cost of living, will amount to $20 a month or more. That is $480 a year. If she breaks and wastes no more than $5 a month, she will be a wonder. That makes $540 a year as the average cost of keeping a servant. Keeping a servant twenty years means kissing $10,800 good-by. The average family that keeps a servant twenty years has, at the end of that time, no money saved to kiss. The rest of the man's income went for food, rent, clothing and other things that are regarded as necessary. The $10,800 that wasn't saved represented all that might have been saved.—The Delinquent.

Rocky Mount Hotel Burned.

The Woodard Hotel at Rocky Mount was destroyed by fire Friday night. While the hotel was conducted by some one else the building was owned by Mrs. Pattie Winsted a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. King, of Greenville. Her loss was very heavy and only about half covered by insurance.

Christmas Box for Orphans.

On next Wednesday the ladies of the Baptist church will pack a Christmas box to be sent to the Thomasville Baptist orphanage. Those of our people who wish to make contributions of any kind are requested to send them to the home of Mrs. R. L. Humber by 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Honor Roll

The honor roll for Utopia graded school is as follows: Lydia Tyson, Nannie L. Elks, Alma Worthington, Mildred McArthur, Grigg Tyson, James Cobb, Presto Elks, Herman Cobb, Maybel Hemmy, Malvina McArthur, Charlie McArthur, Bertha Willoughby, Isaac Joyner, MARY WYNN, Principal.

YOUNG MEN'S PRAYER LEAGUE.

Interest in the Services Increase Each Sunday.

That interest in the Young Men's Prayer League is growing, was shown by the larger number present at the meeting Sunday afternoon in the Baptist church. The spiritual feeling of the meeting was marked, and all in attendance were helped by being there.

The subject for the afternoon was, "Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do" and the leaders, Messrs. H. D. Bateman, W. M. Wallace and T. R. Moore, discussed it in a manner that was edifying to all who heard then. Interesting talks were also made by Messrs. G. E. Harris, F. R. Stretch, G. E. Swarouth, of Norfolk, and President Wilson.

A matter of business at this meeting was the election of Mr. W. E. Hooker as treasurer.

The subject for next Sunday afternoon is "My Helper," text, Phil. 4:13. Leaders, Messrs. T. A. Person, J. G. Latham, and Burney Warren. Place of meeting Methodist church at 3:30 o'clock.

The invitation committee and others should get by and see that the attendance reaches a hundred next Sunday. Those who are attending are certainly getting more enjoyment out of Christian as well as becoming more useful in the Master's service.

An Obligation Stands.

When does an obligation cease to be an obligation is a pertinent question that might well be propounded occasionally for the thoughtful consideration of the public. Many act on leaving a community like the promise to pay had become non-existent. Our observation has been that this is true especially of numbers of young men who have been members of clubs and lodges. They remove to other towns, leaving dues unpaid, and frequently bills not settled in stores, and seem to think the act of moving settles all accounts. Why any one should form such a conclusion passes comprehension. A man's word should be his bond, and a bill once made stands against him until it is paid. The law established a period when bills grow out of date but this does not relieve the debtor of his honest obligation. It remains until canceled either by being gratuitously marked off or is paid. Morally, a bill cannot grow out of date.—Salisbury Post.

Another Sensation in LeBlanc Case.

By Wire to The Reflector. Cambridge Mass., Dec. 12.—The second week of Hattie LeBlanc's fight for her life opened with the biggest sensation during the trial. Attorney Johnson for the defense said he had found new evidence and asked to be allowed to reopen his case. This was granted and Nellie Walshe, a former employee in the Glover home, was put on the stand. She said she met Mrs. Glover on the street near the laundry on the night her husband was killed. Other witnesses had testified to seeing a woman near the laundry, but none had recognized her.

"Plowing Match"

To a "plowing match" out in Illinois, a month or so ago, six thousand came; and the farmers—men who own big prairie farms—buckled down to the task of plowing a half-acre of land just as well as they could. Such contests would be well worth while in the South. One of our greatest needs is more knowledge of how to do the fundamental work of farming and a truer appreciation of what it is worth to do it well. We are altogether too tolerant of slipshod work, and until the farmer himself learns how to do farm work, and do it well, it is sheer folly for him to expect good-work of the "trifling negroes" he employs.—Raleigh Progressive Farmer and Gazette.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

An Interesting Meeting Held Saturday, Dec. 10th.

The third meeting of the Pitt County Teachers' Association for 1910-'11 met in the auditorium of the graded school building, Saturday morning, December 10th at 10:30.

The association was called to order by the President, H. B. Smith. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. C. C. Ware, pastor of the Christian church. This was Mr. Ware's first visit to the association. He made an excellent impression upon the teachers by the most impressive manner in which he conducted the devotional exercises.

Then the regular business programme for the day was taken up. The first was a class of eighteen children, most ably conducted by Miss Dabney, of the Training school, in paper cutting and folding. It was interesting indeed, to see how she worked in number work and reading in connection with the hand work.

The next was another most interesting lecture by Prof. H. E. Austin on "How to Study," by McMurry. Those who miss these lectures will never be able to estimate their loss. As was announced at the first meeting in October, he will give a series of lectures this year on "How to Study." He laid special stress on each teacher's purchasing a book so that each one may be prepared for the part of the book assigned for each lecture.

Prof. Funderburk's lecture on sanitation was postponed till the next meeting on account of the lateness of the hour.

Pamphlets for "North Carolina Day" were distributed by Superintendent W. H. Ragsdale, urging, if it was not convenient to have this observed on December 23, it should be observed some time during the term. The attendance was fine, and the programme was good from beginning to the end. Thus closed one of the best sessions in the history of the association.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1910.

Care is being taken now that stockings is free from holes.

Now honest, don't you think Greenville needs a fire alarm?

The census returns show that your Uncle Sam's family is growing some.

The report in the advance in hogs at Chicago does not look like the price of meat is to be lower.

If factories prove so profitable to other towns, it does look like Greenville should take the hint.

It looks like those towns which the last congress put on the list for public buildings are to be left out of the appropriations made by the present congress.

That a town as large as Greenville has nothing to alarm the people and the fire department when a fire occurs, is an evidence of neglect that is a reflection on those whose duty it is to make provision for the protection of property.

Weakness of Graded Schools.

The average graded school cannot do thorough work. Some are better than others but all are poor enough. There is ample justification for the cry for the methods of the "old field" schools in our modern institutions. We have made progress in almost everything else except the most important matter of all is the education of our children. We have fine equipments to be sure. That is one of the troubles. Our equipment is a little too fine, or rather we have come to depend on it too much. The modern school man holds up his hands in horror at the backless bench that was so high the child's feet did not touch the floor, but that child with that rude equipment made a sight more progress and mastered the basic principles of education with a great deal more thoroughness than the delicate pupil of today, who sits on patent desks made to fit every curve of the body in a house built by expert mechanics with an eye to light heat and ventilation exactly adapted to the needs of the child. Well, what is the matter anyhow? It is not with the children, for they are as bright as their fathers and mothers were; it is not with the teachers either, for they are, in the main, well prepared and capable. In our judgement, the trouble lies in the crowded conditions of our schools. Children cannot be educated in the mass. It is a personal and individual proposition. The old field school was far more efficient than the modern city school because the old master, if he was half a teacher had ten times the advantage of the graded school teacher of today. He could take his own go time, and look his pupils square in the eye. He was not rushed. He had no iron clad course to cover. He could favor the fellow who needed a little push, and hold back those who were running away. Above all, he could draw lines upon the present upon precept. The graded school teacher is an automation. So are his or her pupils. They work by rule. The main idea is to cover the ground; and when it is covered the system is satisfied but the child has learned nothing. There is the metallic ring about the whole business. The machinery overwhelms the boys and girls. The question among the children is not what have you learned, but how far have you gone. The system is at fault. The teachers and the children are the same that they were forty years ago; but they do not have a chance and they never can have until we reduce the size of the classes and give each teacher twenty children instead of sixty.—Charity and Children.

Advertising and the Buying Public.

"A large part of the public cannot understand why a merchant who advertises heavily can sell goods cheaper than his fellow merchant who does not advertise," declared a local merchant to a Chronicle man in speaking of the large Christmas trade that has already begun.

The Chronicle believes that the merchant was mistaken. The large majority of people do practically all of their shopping only after consulting the advertising columns of the papers. A comparatively few do not understand the reasons why the large advertiser can sell goods cheaper and yet make more money, and there is no one who is not influenced by newspaper advertising who reads a newspaper at all and even those who do not read the newspapers are influenced indirectly by the people who do read the advertisements. The merchant who advertises is the merchant who sells the largest volume of goods, and vice versa. The merchant who sells the largest volume of goods is the merchant who makes the largest legitimate profit, and the public recognizes the fact that the large advertisers enjoy the largest volume of trade.

Just at this time when everyone is shopping for Christmas and deciding upon what to give to various friends and relatives advertising is especially effective. And it will be found that definite advertising pays. Many people have not decided upon many gifts and are hanging for suggestions for presents. It is up to the merchants now to make these suggestions, describe articles, quote etc so that the shopper and the sales force will both be saved time and bother.—Charlotte Chronicle.

One difference between vanity and pride is that vanity prevents some people from engaging in honest toil to make a living, while pride induces people to work their fingers off in preference to being under obligations to anybody for what they eat and wear. Vanity is often mistaken for pride. Pride will make a man come to the scratch. Vanity in its final solution will make him ask for credit.—Wilmington Star.

SALE OF TOWN PROPERTY

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain Mortgage Deed executed and delivered by Moses King and wife, Virginia King, to W. T. Allen, on the 11th day of March 1909, and duly recorded in the Registers office, in Pitt county, in book 5-4, page 382. The undersigned will on Saturday, the 11th day of January, 1911 at 12 o'clock noon, before the court house door, in Greenville expose to public sale to the highest bidder for cash the following described property to-wit:

One house and lot in the town of Greenville, North Carolina, and described as follows: Lying on the east side of Pitt street, bounded on the north by Jennie Cherry lot, on the east by the Perkins lot, on the south by Jane Hardee lot, and on the west by Pitt street fronting 18 feet on Pitt street and 141 feet deep. This sale is made to satisfy the terms of said mortgage deed. This the 9th day of December, 1910.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES.

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Greenville women know the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail to take like a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzyspells, distressing urinary troubles, a cell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Greenville woman's words:

Miss Susan Kainsaul, 503 N. Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says: "For some time I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and distressing pains through my lions. My kidneys were very weak and caused me great annoyance. My back pained me severely when first arising in the morning, I was so lame and sore I could scarcely get around. I at length procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Wooten's drug store and through their use I was entirely relieved. The fact that my kidneys have given me trouble since then, leads me to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills very highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's— and do not take any other.

The Medicine She Wanted.
Village Dame (describing various aches and pains)—My throat 'e did go tickle, tickle, tickle, till I see, "I must be a-goin' to be ill." So I 'olds un tight w' my 'and, but that didn't do no good; I puts my old stockin' round un, but that didn't do no good. So in the mornin' I talked it over w' Mrs.
Giles next door, and we thought as we'd send over to the White 'Orse for threepennorth o' gin, cos I see: "P'raps
it may do I good and p'raps it maynt.
But even if it don't," I see, "you can't take it when you be dead!"

Twin Earthquakes.
Earthquakes which consist of two shocks separated by a brief interval of quiet or of two maxima of intensity are known as twin earthquakes. In Great Britain one in about every twenty earthquakes is a twin, and the strongest shocks experienced in that country belong to this variety. It is believed that twin earthquakes are due to impulses arising from two detached foci, separated in different cases from four to more than twenty miles, but lying along the same fault in the earth's crust.

Cotton.

New York, Dec. 12.—Unloading on disappointing cables from Liverpool caused cotton to open seven to twelve points lower, although the decline was soon checked by buying. Certain interests here absorbed great deal of cotton upon the apparent presumption that it was good policy to purchase on every reaction. Opening: December 14.65; January 14.72; March 15.04; May 15.22.

Stocks.

New York, Dec. 12.—Irregularity and extreme heaviness with a lower range of prices ruled early trading in the stock market. Losses were scored ranging from 5-8 to one point. Steel common also lost about 7-8. Pennsylvania and New York Central opened slightly higher, but at the end of 20 minutes were quoting fractional losses.

Grain.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—Wheat started up 3-8 to 1-2c; corn and oats were also higher; provisions started lower. Opening: December wheat 91 1-4; corn 46 3-8; oats 31 3-4; pork January 19.10.

Let It Be a Christmas for All.

"Remember the empty stocking." Just that one line in one our exchanges caught our eye several days ago, and it has since been running almost incessantly through our minds. There is a powerful sermon of gratitude, of unselfishness, of love in those few words of admonition. It is a timely recall of the right kind of person to his duty in this life; to his love of humanity.

"Remember the empty stocking." Are you going to remember it? It would seem that all one has to do to be moved to some act of kindness would be to remember it. There will be plenty of empty stockings this Christmas. There were plenty last Christmas, and the year before. There will be plenty this time, but why not try to cut down the number? You can help. There are many little weary hearts passing along the streets, crowded with shoppers and over which the holiday atmosphere hangs dense, and many sad little eyes look into prettily decorated windows presenting beautiful dolls and other bright toys, and wish and hope—and wonder if Santa Claus will remember them this year. But how is he going to remember them if some of his friends, those who know him well, who keep in touch with him, do not direct him to the home where the stocking is going to be empty unless he comes. Can you direct him to a few homes? Can't you personally get Santa Claus to promise to carry a dollie to some little girl, and a horn—and Oh, several of so many little toys (they don't cost a fortune)—to some little boy? Don't wait for some other person to tell Santa. Tell him yourself. Don't entrust the task to another. Perform the great work of love yourself. Don't you know some little boys and girls whose stockings are apt to be empty? If you do, direct Santa Claus to their homes. Go personally and see that old Saint Nicholas gets there. It's not much trouble, and it won't cost much, and what joy it will bring to little hearts. What happiness it will mean to so many little ones to know that Santa Claus has not forgotten them. Make up your mind today to attend to this. Promise yourself you will do this. Promise it for the sake of whatever comforts you have enjoyed in the past, perhaps, for the own little precious lives that have been spared you, pay it as a debt of gratitude to the One who loves little children.—Wilmington Dispatch

Jerry Moore, the 15-year-old boy who raised 228 3-4 bushels of corn on one acre of land in Florence county, S. C., was born in Ansona county, North Carolina. When he gets through showing those South Carolinians how to produce corn he should come on back to North Carolina. He is an asset that should not be loaned to South Carolina for any great length of time.—Wilmington Star.

DO YOU KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT? You Should For the Reasons:

MONEY in Bank is safe from fire and burglars; in your home it is not.
MONEY in Bank is safe from careless handling; in your pocket it is not.
MONEY paid by check guarantees to you a permanent receipt; cash handed out does not.
MONEY in Bank is a starter towards economy, always ready for use, or to be added to.

"Not If It Was My Boy."

Some years ago the late Horace Mann, the eminent educator, delivered an address at the opening of some reformatory institution for boys, during which he remarked, that if only one boy was saved from ruin, it would pay for all the cost and care and labor of establishing such an institution as that. After the exercises Mr. Mann was asked: "Did you not color that a little when you said that all that expense and labor would be repaid if it saved one boy?"

"Not if it was my boy," was the solemn and convincing reply.

Ah! there is a wonderful value about "my boy." Other boys may be rude and rough; other boys may be reckless and wild; other boys may seem to acquire more pains and labor than they ever will repay; other boys may be left to drift un-cared for to the ruin which is so near at hand; but "my boy,"—it were worth the toll of a lifetime and the lavish wealth of a world to save him from temporal and eternal ruin. We would go the world around to save him from peril, and would bless every hand that was stretched out to give him help or welcome. And yet every poor, wandering, out-cast, homeless man is one whom some fond mother called, "my boy." Every lost woman, sunken in the depths of sin, was somebody's daughter in her days of childish innocence. Today somebody's son is a hungry outcast, passed to the very verge of crime and sin. Today somebody's daughter is a weary, helpless wanderer, driven by necessity in the paths that lead to death. Shall we shrink from labor, shall we hesitate at cost when the work before us is the salvation of a soul? Not if it is "my boy," not if we have the love of him who gave his life to save the lost.—Common People.

Opportunity.

The story of the life of Governor-elect Hooper, of Tennessee, furnishes a lesson and an inspiration in opportunity. The Baltimore Sun says of him:

"The governor-elect of Tennessee is Benjamin W. Hooper, less than 40 years of age, who does not know his real name, or who his parents were. He was found on the streets of Knoxville and committed to the care of an orphan asylum, when he was taken ten years later by Capt. Hooper, of Newport, Tenn., who gave him his name and educated him. It is one of the splendid things about this republic of ours that the name a man makes for himself is the only thing that counts; the things he does, the only ones reckoned up when the people look about them for their leaders. From orphan asylum to the executive mansion! From nameless waif to governor of a sovereign State! The way is always open in this country to those who work and strive and keep the faith."

It is the man himself that counts. If he is of worth and merit he will be given due recognition, no matter what the story or lack of it of his ancestors. All men may not be born equal but the accident of birth will neither make nor unmake the man. He must do that himself.—Raleigh Times.
