$600 DOLLARS TO GO IN PRIZES

THE REFLECTOR'S ANNOUNCEMENT PROVES A SENSATION

CONTEST THE TALK OF THIS SECTION

Nominations Should be Made Promptly—The Prize List is Attractive—Early Workers Can Win Prizes While Others are Getting Started—Begin at Once.

No announcement ever struck a more popular chord than did the one in Wednesday's Reflector that told of this paper's matured plan to give the people of this section of North Carolina more than $600 in valuable prizes.

Even The Reflector knowing something of its own popularity and the esteem in which it is held, and expecting a hearty response to its liberal offer confesses to some surprise at the intense interest created.

Hundreds of The Reflector readers throughout a wide section saw the announcement, and many were doubtless surprised at the magnificence of the affair. It is safe to say that during the past few days it has been one of the principal topics of conversation at many informal gatherings. It must have been, judging from the interest already manifested—from reports received.

A few nominations have already been received, and many more are expected during the next few days. The Reflector invites prompt nominations from those who desire to compete for its prizes. The contest is only ten weeks long, and during the contest three special prizes will be given away, and an early start means a great deal.

It is desired to emphasize the fact that the contest is open to all, men or women, boys or girls may compete. It does not cost a single cent to try for one of the prizes. Any energetic person with the time and inclination may win a beautiful $700 Stultz piano without spending a cent. Only wide-awake people hear when opportunity knocks. The Reflector is now causing it to knock at many doors, and the one who opens will be the one rewarded.

The opportunity is not restricted to Greenville, but includes all of the territory of this and adjoining counties. Three of the four districts are entirely outside of Pitt county. Into each of these districts at least one prize must be awarded, and every candidate who enters has an equal chance to win one of the grand prizes. Those who mean to compete are urged to begin work promptly. Send in your nomination and apply for a subscription book. In the meantime see your neighbors and friends and request them to help you.

Early work is easy and effective. Some people will win prizes while others are getting started.

Just a Word, Mr. Property Owner.

Is it not better to have the policy and not have the fire than have the fire and not have the policy? You ask about your policy after the fire. And you say you don't remember what company you are insured with, but you soon find out. Why not ask what company you are insured with before the fire? Get the best, it don't cost any more. See C. L. Wilkinson and ask to be insured in the Insurance Company of North America, the oldest company in the United States, or the Spring Garden.

C. L. WILKINSON.

Wants Speedy Confirmation.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Washington Dec. 12.—President Taft conferred with Senators Hale and Lodge and urged them to secure confirmation of the judicial nominations sent to the senate yesterday. The president wants the senate to act with dispatch and confirm Lamar and Vandeventer, and the other appointments.

Among the president's callers today were Senators Bradley, Representative-elect Caleb Powers, of Kentucky and Representative Morgan, of Oklahoma, who asked the president to appoint C. M. Cade, United States marshal to succeed Jack Abernethy, who resigned a few days ago.

AYDEN CORRESPONDENCE.

Community Social News Items and Business Notes.

Ayden, N. C., Dec. 13.—Mrs. Joseph Kittrell died Monday night at her home near Pittmans chapel, Swift creek township at 9.30 o'clock. She was a daughter of the late Theo. Bland, about 33 years old and leaves a husband and four children to mourn their loss.

Rev. M. A. Adams preached two logical and soul-stirring sermons, here Sunday morn and night.

Lime, cement and hair.—J. R. Smith Company.

Alonso Carman, colored, was brought here and confined in the calaboose Sunday. The poor unfortunate is mentally unbalanced.

Rev. D. C. Webb, of Kinston, has moved his family here and occupies the late Worthington house on Lee street. He is taking a post graduate course at the Seminary.

Mr. J. Carl Jones has purchased the house and lot adjoining Mr. W. B. Quinerly on Main street. He will remodel it, then, says he will be ready for matrimony, "whether the free schools are closed or not."

Furniture, stoves, lead, paint, turpentine, varnish and drier.—J. R. Smith Company.

Miss Helen Cox, one of our Ayden girls who is teaching at Elks school house, in Chicod township had a basket party last Friday night. The baskets sold high as $12 and netted all told $80. This shows how popular our Ayden teachers are getting.

Prof. Wilbur E. Tingle tells us he will have a basket party at Rose Hill school house next Friday night for the benefit of a Christmas tree to be had there a little later.

Mr. W. F. Moseley and family have returned from Roanoke Rapids and occupy the same dwelling. They have the same cat and cow; Mr. Moseley has the same job he filled so faithfully when he left here about one year ago.

While Mr. Elmer Gardner was coming home from Maple Cypress Saturday evening, when near town he met a team running with a wagon, and not being able to clear the track he jumped. The wagon tongue struck the pony and turned him over and completely demolished the buggy. Fortunately Mr. Gardner escaped unhurt, though it was a narrow risk.

Mr. Craven Summerell and his son went hunting Friday morning and tied their mule to a tree. When they returned in a few hours the mule had become entangled and choked himself to death. The loss was great, as it was a fine mule.

Marriage bells at the Christian church Wednesday evening.

We have bargains in trico fannel and remnants.—J. R. Smith Company.

The Odd Fellows will have a public installation Friday night before the first Sunday in January. This order is growing rapidly, as there is degree work each meeting.

We are still ginning and buying seed and seed cotton. See us before selling.—J. R. Smith Company.

The Odd Fellows have had the picture of Mr. John Sugg and Hon. L. V. Cox, deceased, enlarged and placed in their hall to perpetuate their memory. They were splendid members of that order.

NOTICE!

To Trespassers of Training School Grounds.

Just before school opened last fall a notice was published in The Reflector, and notices have been posted on the grounds, to the effect that the school grounds, drive ways and walk ways are for the exclusive use of the school and those having business with the school. These grounds, drive ways and walk ways are not places for public recreation and cannot be used as such.

We now repeat this notice, because on Thanksgiving day some parties from Greenville were using the drive ways for holiday recreation. We prefer to believe that this was done through thoughtlessness and not in defiance of the published regulation. However that may be, this is to give notice that such use of the drive ways and walk ways will not be allowed, and that a repetition of the violation of these rules will be dealt with according to law.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Weak in Athletics But Strong in Debate.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Dec. 12.—The fortunes of the University in athletics have for the past few years been far below the ambitions of old alumni who recall the '05 base ball team and the '02 and '05 football teams; but her long continued success in intercollegiate debates fulfills the highest desires that the most loyal son might entertain for his alma mater. Her collection of victory trophies received a fine addition on Saturday December 3, in Philadelphia, when Carolina's representatives Messrs. W. F. Taylor and C. L. Williams, won from the University of Pennsylvania in a unanimous decision. Carolina supported the affirmative of the question, of the Federal government establishing a central bank.

This was the third debate out of a series of five that Carolina has won from the University of Pennsylvania. Out of the twenty nine debates which Carolina varsity men have engaged, they have won twenty-two and never lost a series. Among her rivals have been John Hopkins, George Washington, Tulane Vanderbilt, Washington and Lee, and the University of Georgia, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

The interclass and intersociety debates which are arranged every year between the members of the literary societies develop the raw material for the varsity teams. The latest contest of this kind was the freshmen debate in the Dialectic society, which was won by Mr. J. T. Pritchett. In the preliminary contest for this debate nearly twenty men were engaged.

Mr. Edgar W. Turlington, of the senior class, has won the Rhodes scholarship which provides for three years of study at Oxford University and travel in Europe. He was the only one of the three applicants who passed the examination. Turlington is president of the Phi Beta Kappa society, a title which goes to the highest scholar in each class. He is president of the Y. M. C. A., a position which is given always to the best rounded men morally and mentally in each class. He has won the Bingham medal in debate, a distinction which is awarded the man who excels in the intersociety debate held annually at commencement.

Mr. W. F. Hendricks has been elected manager of the 1911 football team.

Mr. R. G. Stockton has been elected student at large representative upon the University council. This brings the membership of the council up to eight.

Dr. L. R. Wilson and Dr. Edwin Mims delivered addresses at the sixth annual meeting of the North Carolina Library Association held in Winston-Salem last week. Dr. Wilson is president of the association.

Honor Roll.

The honor roll of Grimesland graded school is as follows:

Thomas Proctor, Jamie Butts, Blanche Proctor, Ethel Godley, Carrie Godley, Ethel Proctor, Thelma Bryar, Ruth Lewis, Raymond Parker, Mollie Boyd.

PRIMARY GRADES.

Annie Ruth Jones, D. Proctor, Walter Parker, Thelma Proctor, Jessie Lee Proctor, Alice Galloway Proctor Galloway, Zeno Gibson, Estelle Godley, Annie Stanley, Buck Moore, Ray Moore, Jimmie Dixon.

ANNUAL BANQUET.

Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade Monday Night.

Monday night from 8.30 to 10.30 was the occasion of the annual banquet of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, when it royally entertained a large number of its friends at the factory of the Imperial Tobacco Company.

When every convenience had been tastefully arranged for the reception and comfort of the guests, Mr. R. C. Flanagan, with his usual eloquence grace and wit, presided as toastmaster, presenting first Mr. Albion Dunn, of the local bar who responded with a fitting tribute to the value of the tobacco board of trade, to the material progress of our city and county. The president of the board of trade, Mr. E. B. Ficklen, was then presented, and won enthusiastic applause by the thrilling words of welcome and commercial uplift Mr. H. A. White, president of the chamber of commerce, was called upon and pointed out the importance of united effort in securing good roads and eulogized the achievements of the board of trade in behalf of the tobacco market.

Many other addresses was made and all voted the evening most pleasant and profitable.

The last address, however, by Mr. R. C. Bagby, won much distinction, who 'forgot not his bis.' on the occasion, and received continuous applause for his oratory.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

At Grimesland School Last Friday Night.

There was a birthday party held at Grimesland school, December 9, 1910, which consisted of many and various amusements. Prof. W. H. Ragsdale made a very interesting speech on 'Local tax' after which the crowd was invited to the dining room which was artistically decorated with holly, mistletoe and Christmas bells. Ambrosia ice cream and cake formed the menu. After supper the fish pond proved very entertaining to the children while the grown people enjoyed pining the 'donkey's tail' on Mrs. Scott Galloway, winning the prize. The evening closed with raffling off a cake for the prettiest girl. Miss Blanche Ferebee being the winner. The sum of forty dollars was realized.

Looks Like Acquittal.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 13.—Hattie LeBlanc, who has been on trial for her life, will probably know her fate by tonight. The closing arguments are being made today. Attorney Johnson, for the defense, says the government has failed to show that murder was committed and on that ground Hattie ought to be acquitted, but if murder was done it has not been shown that Hattie did it.

Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold its annual banquet at the residence of Mrs. C. T. Munford on Friday evening, December 16th, from 8 to 10 o'clock. Every member is requested to attend. We also wish to announce a bazaar to be held during the month of December 1911.

MRS. WILEY BRWON, Sec.

PERSONAL MENTION.

The People Who Come and Go on Our Trains.

Misses Mary and Lucy Randolph have moved to the home of their brother, Mr. Will Randolph, in the country.

Mr. Richard King, of Raleigh, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. E. H. Evans, returned home today.

Misses Helen Forbes and Lizzie Jones left today for LaGrange.

Mr. C. M. Jones came in Monday evening to spend a few days at home.

Christmas Gifts for Men.

Christmas is almost here and you will probably be looking for something for the man's Christmas. Frank Wilson, the king clothier's store, is brim full of all the newest novelties in neckwear, mufflers, gloves, suspenders, bath robes, sweaters and the famous guaranteed Holeproof Hose for ladies men or children and are all put up in fancy Christmas boxes. We are especially anxious for every lady and gentleman to make our store a visit as we can please and save you money. New shipment of neckwear arrived to day.

FRANK WILSON.

The King Clothier.

Boy Killed by Policeman.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Chicago, Dec. 13.—Joseph Lecok, 16 years old, was shot and a girl strike breaker was beaten by three men as a result of a riot in the garment workers strike today. The shot which struck the boy was fired by a policeman who was trying to guard the boy from a mob of strikers.

Financial Leaders Uneasy.

By Wire to The Reflector.

New York, Dec. 13.—Financial leaders are somewhat pessimistic about the new Supreme court appointments. They believe the court as now constituted will dissolve the Standard Oil and other big trusts when the case comes up in January. Dissolving of these trusts would directly and indirectly affect over a billion dollars, hence the unrest in financial centers.

FIRE COMPANY MEETS.

Committees Appointed to Investigate Fire Alarm System.

Hope Fire Company held its monthly meeting Monday night, and elected three new members. The most important matter discussed at the meeting was a fire alarm system. This resulted in the appointment of two committees, one consisting of Messrs. F. M. Wooten, E. H. Evans, and W. S. Moye, to look into the advisability of using the present gong on top of the municipal building; and the other consisting of Messrs. F. M. Wooten, D. J. Whichard and C. E. Rountree to consult with the county commissioners relative to letting the town attach an electric alarm system to the bell to be placed in the tower of the new court house.

It Is Well to Remember.

During the last campaign many Republican spellbinders were heard to quote President Gompers on the subject of wage increase in this country compared with the wages of laborers in other countries. Yet they forget to go further and tell how much lower the cost of living was in other countries, or that in this country the increase in the cost of food has far surpassed any raise in wages, or that President Gompers and other labor leaders vote the Democratic ticket.

Of course, these are incidents of the past, but they must be borne in mind until relief is obtained. So, along this line—especially lest we forget—it is well to think over the following statement made this week to the general assembly Knights of Labor by John W. Hayes, master workman: 'It is a safe estimate to say that at least one-half of the wage earners of the United States are working for the same wage rate that they were receiving ten years ago, and it is equally safe to estimate that the other half are working for not more than a 10 per cent increase. Yet everything that goes into the home has increased fully 80 per cent. in that period.'—Wilmington Dispatch.

This week and next are all the time left for Christmas trade. The business men should hustle with their advertising.

DIED DRIVING ALONG ROAD.

Mr. T. J. Worthington, Aged Citizen of Grifton.

Mr. T. J. Worthington, an aged and prominent citizen of Grifton section, died suddenly Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock, while driving home alone from a vestry meeting at St. John's Episcopal church in Pitt county. Parties driving from Grifton to Centerville were startled to meet Mr. Worthington's buggy with him sitting in it, dead. Mr. John R. Harvey took the dead man to the latter's home, where the body was turned over to the family.

Mr. Worthington was well known 80 years of age, and was a member of the vestry of St. John's church, where he had been to attend a meeting of the vestry. After leaving the church he drove to Dr. William Cobb Whitfield's home and left some hymn books. He had not left Dr. Whitfield's more than ten minutes when he was found dead in his buggy. Death was probably due to heart trouble.

Mr. Worthington was well known in this county as well as in Pitt, where he lived. He was a well-to-do country gentleman of the old Southern type, and was engaged in business at Haurahan for years. He was married some 15 years ago to Miss Mary Mewborn, who, with a daughter, survive him. His gentility was a marked characteristic of his life.—Kinston Free Press.

Petition to Set Aside Judgment.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 13.—Attorneys representing the state filed a petition in Davidson county criminal court today asking that judgment of the court acquitting Robin J. Cooper of the murder of Senator Carmack be set aside as illegal and void. Judge Vell ruled against the petition.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1910.

It looks good to see the walls of the new court house and the new jail climbing up so fast.

Charlotte is up against bad water again, and has nothing else with which to quench that thirst.

The appointment by President Taft of four Democrats to positions on the Supreme court bench will give opponents a new cause to howl.

The colored is trying to disturb the holidays by giving it out that he is soon to make another speaking tour. Wonder what he is going to find to talk about this time.

We find this item among the telegraph news in an exchange:

When a Louisville & Nashville train out of Mobile struck a cow near Kirtland, Ala., late Saturday afternoon, the results were as unusual and unexpected as they were fatal. The cow was hurled to one side, striking a negro watching the train go by. The negro was knocked into a puddle of water and killed. In falling he struck a dog, which was also playing the part of innocent bystander and the life of the canine was snuffed out, too.

We would like to know what became of the cow.

Major Whichard, of the Greenville Reflector, rightly rebukes us for putting his paper down as the Greenville News and demands that we apologize on pain of losing his playful friendship. With such an awful fate impending, why, of course, we apologize. We rush to the bench of repentance at double-quick time, because with us it is a case of Whichard right or wrong, we are for Whichard. —Wilmington Dispatch.

Selling Plant Food.

Thousands of farmers who are now selling cotton seed will be buying for their next year's crop far less nitrogen than they are selling from every acre. Of course the price for seed is good and the temptation is to sell, and the vast amount of plant food in the cotton seed is carried off to enrich the lands of the north and of Europe. Far better for the farm and the farmer to exchange the seed for meal and hulls and feed the meal on the farm, and having better roughage, manure bedding and manure absorbent of the hulls.

For the sake of immediate profit, thousands are improving their land by selling seed and next spring the same men will be trying to restore the waste with 200 pounds an acre of 2-3-2. Thousands more will neglect saving seed from the best of plants and will have to buy seed in the spring or depend on the mixed seed or the gin. Good seed for planting can not be bought for $35 a ton, and the man who takes pains in selecting his seed and improving his cotton can make a reputation for the stock and can sell seed at prices that make the old mill price look small, and if one sells it is better to get a fancy price than old mill price. But even at present prices, if I were growing cotton today, I would trade the seed to the mill and try to

Warning to Farmers.

At this time of year the country is usually covered with agents representing some "foreign" manufacturing concern, real or imaginary, with various and sundry proposition and articles for sale to the farmers and their families.

They know their business. They can out-talk any lawyer and and they know just how to make the article they are selling look like the thing the farmer has been needing and wanting these many years. They can show the farmer by actual figures where the thing they have will pay for itself in a year. They can prove to him that it will actually cost nothing. If the cash is not handy, they will take his note, and he does not have to pay for it until next year—perhaps not until he has made another crop. It does look to the farmer like an "attractive proposition." It would look so to everybody. And the farmer bites. He signs up. He pays his cash or pledges his honor. And the smart talker goes his way rejoicing that he has found one more "sucker."

The article comes. The farmer tries it. And it doesn't do what he had been led to expect. He is sick like "cusses," or feels like it. He writes the agent. No reply. Or he sees him and insists that he take back the article that won't do the work and refund at least part of the money. But there's nothing doing. The farmer's well-earned cash is gone or is bound to go. His next crop likely has been lost in the bank for collection, decimated by the agent has the money a good portion of it and several other middle men and manufacturers have the balance.

Cultivators and other farming implements and various other things are sold this way at a double price. Mr. Farmer, don't bite. Buy such things from a reliable firm near home that you know.—Fayetteville Index.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed, executed and delivered by Martha Smith to E. Turnage & Sons Company, on the 24th day of May, 1909 and duly recorded in the Register of Deeds office of Pitt county, North Carolina in Book D-3, page 322, the undersigned will expose to public sale, before the court house door in Greenville, to the highest bidder, for cash, on Thursday, January 13th, 1911, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying in the county of Pitt and State of North Carolina, described as follows, to-wit:

That piece or parcel of land in Contentnea township, bounded on the south and east by the lands of Frank Tripp; on the west and north by Dr. B. T. Cox, and on the north and east by Mary Ann Cannon's land containing 25 2-3 acres more or less. To satisfy said mortgage.

The Wily Giraffe.

Perhaps the most difficult of all wild animals to capture is the giraffe. In addition to being very rare, giraffes are exceedingly timid and are very swift footed. There is no special way to capture a giraffe, as almost every way has been tried, and all have been almost equally unsuccessful. The method which has occasionally resulted in a capture is by using a long cord at each end of which is a round weight. This cord is thrown by the hunter in such a manner as to wind around the animal's legs, either bringing it to the ground or rendering it incapable of escaping before it is made a prisoner. Most of the giraffes in captivity have been caught by chance when young.—Chicago Journal.

Cleare on Wk.
There are witty sayings which carry a concealed suspicion of ridicule, of which sort is that of the Sicilian who, when a friend of his made lamentation to him saying that his wife had hanged herself upon a fig tree, said, "I beseech you give me some shoots of that tree that I may plant them." Of the same sort is what Crassus said to a certain bad orator who, when he imagined that he had excited compassion at the close of a speech, asked our friend here after he had sat down whether he appeared to have raised pity in the audience. "Very great pity," replied Crassus, "for I believe that there is no one here so hard hearted but that your speech seemed pitiable to him."
Cleare's Oratory.

A Strange Likeness.
An extraordinary resemblance has recently been discovered at the London Natural History Museum between a specimen of the huge African elephant and the pygmy shrew mouse. Sir E. Ray Lankester suggested comparison of the two, and the result has been that practically every bone, muscle, blood vessel and nerve of the giant beast has been found identically reproduced in the little animal, which is scarcely two inches in length. In the museum a stuffed mouse has been placed between the fore feet of its enormous mounted prototype for the purpose of showing the curious likeness.

Hotel Was Crowded.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Cotton.
New York, Dec. 13.—Cotton opened narrow, but steady today, three points lower to three points higher. Cables were firm and support was given by bulls, but it was not sufficient to absorb all offerings. Later the market receded further. Opening: December 14.77; January 14.82; March 15.09; April 15.15 bid.

Stocks.
New York, Dec. 13.—Early trading in Wall street today was dull and featureless, with fractional gains and losses about evenly divided. Union Pacific, Steel, Lehigh Valley, Reading, Southern Pacific and Northern Pacific opened unchanged. At the end of the first hour there were fractional losses over first quotations.

Grain.
Chicago, Dec. 13.—Wheat opened lower with prices off 1-4c. Trade was small. Corn and oats were a little lower and provisions opened lower but regained. Opening: wheat May 95 1-2; corn December 45 3-8; oats December 31 1-4; pork May 17.70.

Playing a Game.
Trust the Republicans to play the game to the limit when the opportunity is given. Last spring or winter congress passed a number of appropriation bills for the erection of public buildings. The total amount was something over twenty millions. North Carolina has a number of buildings on tap.

Last summer it was discovered that there was some hitch about getting hold of the money and it was finally given out that the secretary of the treasury had to recommend the payment of the money. This he failed to do. Recently the members of congress have been after him to know why he does not come across and it has been ascertained that he is not going to come across. He says, by way of excuse, that the government is in no position to appropriate this money at present; that Uncle Sam is short of funds. But it has been shown that this is not the cause at all.

The Republican brethren are playing politics. They do not want it to appear that the party is responsible for this large appropriation and they are going to hold up the matter and let the next congress, which will be Democratic, shoulder the burden. This is a great game, but it is not likely to work. The bill has been passed, the present congress is not going to repeal it and the secretary of the treasury will have to come across or show that there are no funds available and if this is done it will be further shown that the Republican party is responsible for it.—Greensboro Record.

Holiday Habit.
In these modern days the holiday habit has almost reached the limit. Besides a long list of holidays for any and all kinds of excuses we now have the schools closed one week before Christmas and one whole week after Christmas. To begin with the children get only five days in the week, less a holiday every change of the moon, with the result that at the end of the year the child has received on an average about half a year's schooling. The holiday habit is something that is being worked to the extreme, solely for the benefit of the teachers. The parents pay the taxes, the children get the holidays and the teachers—well they get the holidays, too.—Raleigh Times.

Must Pay Their Debts.
The matter of debt-paying is becoming more and more stringent in Statesville. The preachers are talking it from their pulpits and some of the employers of labor are making it a rule to require their employees to pay their debts or go out. Some of the employers have had this rule in force for some years and others are putting it in force. If this practice continues—and it should be given all encouragement—the dead weight will be pushed out by hard work.—Statesville Standard.

DO YOU KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT? You Should For the Reasons:

MONEY in Bank is safe from fire and burglars; in your home it is not.
MONEY in Bank is safe from careless handling; in your pocket it is not.
MONEY paid by check guarantees to you a permanent receipt; cash handed out does not.
MONEY in Bank is a starter towards economy, always ready for use, or to be added to.

ADVICE TO PARENTS.

You Should Give Your Children A Chance.

As children grow up many serious misunderstandings follow from the failure of parents to recognize their children's individuality. If they would recognize this likeness and make allowance for it, the path to understanding would often be smoother. The many successes achieved in bringing up adopted children—children, usually, with a very poor start, from unknown and undesirable antecedents—show what can be done when parents study their child intelligently.

Parents are often mortified when their children give heed to the advice of others. Other people look at the children as individuals and study them without assuming to know all about them, and often discover traits entirely unsuspected by the parents. Children know and appreciate when they are being justly estimated.

Among the families of your acquaintance how many—or rather how few—fathers and mothers really know their own children? Often parent and child are so indifferent that they could not be expected to understand each other. But they ought at least to understand that they are different and make allowances.

It is sad to see a brilliant child in a commonplace home trying to keep its soul from overflowing the narrow limits prescribed by its parents—torn between duty and dreams. It is sadder to see a commonplace child in a brilliant home driven and badgered, coaxed and threatened, forbadged, coaxed and threatened, for and always falling back hurt and humiliated.

Why can't people learn to let their children alone? Why won't parents study their children? Why won't they ask their friends to help them understand their own? And if the child is commonplace, in mercy's name let him be commonplace! He won't rise to such heights of happiness, neither will he fall to such depths of misery. If the child is a genius, in mercy's name give him a double chance! Don't get in his way and block him just because you can't understand him! Clear the track!—Erman J. Ridgway, in The Designer.
