ENTER THE CONTEST THIS WEEK

CANDIDATES ARE JUST GETTING THEIR PLANS IN SHAPE

YOU CAN ENTER, NOW IS THE TIME

You Can Enter Now or Any Time in The Next Two or Three Weeks—Very Little Work Having Been Done Yet—But Now is the Opportune Time.

Following the publication yesterday of the first list of names entered in the Reflector's popularity contest, several other nominations from energetic people, wide-awake people of Eastern North Carolina, are expected in this week.

Several names appeared in the first list—names of the very best people in this section, but not all of these will enter actively in the contest, and it will require several more nominations from which to develop a sufficient number of earnest working candidates to make the big contest the success it should be.

Nominations will continue to be received for some weeks yet, but the majority of them will be in by the first of the year, by which time the contest will have begun to get under way in good shape. No real work has been done yet. Candidates are simply planning their campaign and becoming familiar with the rules. In a short time the real work will begin and it is best to be entered and ready by that time.

The nine prizes ranging in value from $17.50 to $300 are going to make this contest one that will attract attention of the best people in The Reflector's territory as has been said, the race is just beginning and there is plenty of time to enter. Fill out the nomination ballot that will be found in this issue and send to the Contest Department at once. Send for subscription book and secure the subscription of your friends and neighbors before they are approached by some other contestant.

Rules.

Any white man or woman, boy or girl, of good repute, in Eastern North Carolina, is eligible to enter this great popularity contest. Clip the nomination blank and fill in with your name or that of a friend and send it to the Reflector Contest Department. It costs you nothing to vote—it costs your friends nothing to vote for you.

No votes will be issued for payment other than those scheduled. No employee of The Reflector, or member of his family, will be permitted to participate in this contest as a candidate.

In case of a tie, the value of the prize will be equally divided. Votes once issued to one candidate cannot be changed to the credit of another candidate.

Candidates and their friends are not confined to their districts. They may secure subscriptions anywhere.

A committee of unimpeachable public men will be chosen to judge the finish of this contest, and will assemble for that purpose immediately after the close of the contest.

By the filing of votes candidates must accept and agree to all conditions.

About Voting.

Any question that may arise between contestants will be determined by the Contest Management, and its decision will be absolute and final.

Anyone who was taking The Reflector at the time this contest started will be classed as an old subscriber. All others will be classed as new subscribers.

A subscription will not be counted as new if it is simply transferred from one member of a family or household to another.

The right is reserved to reject the name of any candidate for cause, or to alter these rules and regulations should occasion demand.

Until further notice no candidate will be permitted to cast more than 5,000 certificate votes on each day of publication of names.

How Votes Will Be Issued.

Candidates are not restricted to getting subscriptions or votes in their own particular districts, but may secure subscriptions in any part of the United States and if cash accompanies order, votes will be issued. Candidates in one district are not competing with candidates in other districts, except in the grand prize. The division of districts, as shown herewith, so equalizes competition that every contestant has an equal chance to win a first prize.

Ballots cannot be bought. They can only be obtained by subscribing and pre-paying a subscription to The Reflector Company.

How to Enter the Contest.

Fill out the nomination ballot published in this issue and send to the Contest Manager of the Reflector. Each contestant is entitled to one nomination ballot good for 1,000 votes. Contestants can nominate themselves. They do not have to be subscribers to The Reflector. There are no obligations upon entering the contest and it costs nothing to try it. Send in your name or that of a friend today.

Divisions of Districts.

For the purpose of the contest the Reflector's territory has been divided as follows:

District 1.—The county of Pitt.
District 2.—The counties of Beaufort, Hyde, Tyrrell, Washington, Dare, Edgecombe and Martin.

District 3.—The counties of Halifax, Nash, Wilson, Greene, Wayne, Johnson and Sampson.

District 4.—The counties of Craven, Pamlico, Carteret, Jones, Onslow, and Lenoir.

Awarding of Prizes.

The judges of the finish of the contest will be guided by the following rules:

First grand prize—The man, woman, boy or girl, having the greatest number of votes at the close of the contest will be awarded the $300 Stultz piano.

Second grand prize—The man, woman, boy or girl, having the second greatest number of votes will be awarded one year full course in East Carolina Teachers' Training school.

Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4.—After the grand prizes have been awarded the next highest in either of the four districts will be awarded their choice of any one of the valuable district prizes. Then the second next highest candidate in district number 2, their choice; and the third highest candidate in district number 3, their choice of the two remaining district prizes—and the fourth highest candidate in district number 4, the remaining district prize.

Rules and Plan of Contest.

Any white man, boy or girl, either married or single, may enter this contest by either sending the nomination coupon to The Reflector office or by having a friend nominate them.

No employee or member of his family will be permitted to enter the campaign.

The more rapid way to gain ground in the campaign will be to start a canvass among friends for subscriptions to The Reflector. Positively no votes can be bought.

After ballots are issued to one contestant they cannot be transferred to another. This is enforced in order to prevent scheming.

In the event of a tie for any of the prizes the prize will be the joint property of the contestants thus tied.

Contestants are not confined to their respective districts in soliciting subscriptions, but may solicit from friends and acquaintances anywhere.

A subscription will not be considered new when the contestant merely makes a transfer from one member of the family or household to another. A subscription which was not on the books when the contest opened will be considered new, provided, it is not a transfer as referred to above.

The Reflector's Contest Manager will render any assistance possible to the contestant without being unfair to either contestants. Candidates are invited to come often to The Reflector office for information on any detail of the contest.

Contest closes February 14th at 8 o'clock, p. m. Promptly upon the stroke of the hour the doors will be closed and subscriptions not inside the doors at that time will not be counted for votes. The judges will be selected from among Greenville's business men. Their character and integrity will be beyond question. They will be present during the closing hour of contest to see that the event closes in a fair and impartial manner.

Those contestants who are awarded the grand prizes will not be eligible for district prizes, the district prizes going to those in the district

LORIMER GIVEN HIS SEAT.

Senate Committee Does Not Sustain Charge of Bribery Against Him.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Washington, Dec. 21.—The senate committee on privileges and elections today submitted to the senate the evidence taken in the investigation of the charge of bribery against Senator Lorimer, and report that, in their opinion his title to the seat in the senate has not been shown to be invalidated by the use or employment of corrupt methods or practice. The report fully vindicates Lorimer, saying if there was any bribery there was nothing to show that he knew about it, and that if all charged with bribery were guilty it would not have changed the result. With this conclusion and finding in their report, the committee requested to be discharged.

ANOTHER HORRIBLE MINE DISASTER

EXPLOSION ENTOMBS OVER 300 OPERATIVES

NEARLY ALL BELIEVED TO BE DEAD

Disaster Occurs 700 Feet Below Surface—Mine Catches on Fire After Explosion and Escape Cut Off—Infuriated Mob Attack Mine Officials.

By Cable to The Reflector.

Bolton, England, Dec. 21.—Three hundred coal miners were entombed today in Hulton Colliery by a terrific explosion. Five hours after the disaster occurred only one had escaped. The mine caught fire from the explosion and flames drove back the rescuers. A few hours later many dead bodies were recovered. Relief work is rushed as rapidly as possible. Whether any will be saved is not yet known.

There were 337 men in the mine and it is believed at least 250 of those are dead, may be more. The explosion was 700 feet under ground. Mine officials were attacked by the infuriated mobs and soldiers were summoned to protect representatives of owners and prevent the men from rushing to their doom in the hope of rescuing some of the imprisoned miners.

MUSIC RECITAL

At East Carolina Teachers' Training School.

Another of those delightful entertainments that characterize the splendid work being done at East Carolina Teachers' Training School, was given in the auditorium Tuesday night, and those of our people who availed themselves of the opportunity to be present were indeed fortunate. The program as published in this paper a few days ago, was carried out with Miss Muffly as director of music.

Every number of the program was rendered with utmost accuracy, the choruses, solos and instrumental selections all being excellent, while the group of children's songs by the senior class made a decided hit with the audience. The recital in its entirety was a marked success and reflected much credit upon the school and pupils.

WITH MRS. C. T. MUNFORD.

She Entertains The Ladies Aid Society.

(Reported for The Reflector.)

Mrs. C. T. Munford joyfully threw open the doors of her home to the annual banquet of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church, on Friday evening, January 16th.

After being kindly welcomed by the hostess, we were ushered into the brilliantly lighted parlor where a cheerful coal fire awaited us, as did also a number of ladies who had preceded us. These were quickly followed by many others and "all went merry as a marriage bell" till suddenly we were called to order by our beloved president, who announced that the election of officers was to begin.

Our determination was to re-elect Mrs. Bert Moyer for president, but she declined, stating that although it had been a great pleasure to her to be our leader, yet she would accept under no consideration, as she felt that two years was a sufficient length to preside.

After the installation of the ruling body, the entertainment of the evening began.

Program.

Instrumental solo.—Mrs. J. W. Higgs.

Mrs. Lincoln's Mistress—recitation—Miss Ada Cherry.

Duet—Misses Gaston and Smith. Old Friends—reading—Mrs. H. E. Austin.

Nigger Lecture—Apples—reading—Mrs. Wiley Brown.

Having greatly enjoyed the literary function we were the better prepared for the delicious refreshments then served.

The large number of guests present proved the high esteem in which Mrs. Munford is held.

The hour for dispersing arrived too soon, even before we were aware of it, so bidding each other good-night, we declared the evening the most enjoyable of all and believed to have been so on account of the charming hostess who has never left a stone unturned for the pleasure of those she loved.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1910.

Congress has gone home to spend Christmas.

The turkey will soon be where he will not need a necktie.

By the time Christmas is over most people will be as short as the days.

Greenville would like to get some factories in her stocking.

The new year soon to arrive will be making one of nothing.

The folks in other towns who are kicking about inconvenient train schedules, might move over to Greenville where they are good.

Do not start out with the spirit of swapping Christmas presents. That robs it of its significance and sincerity.

Another scientist has been figuring out what is going to happen to this world about four hundred thousand years from now. We hope nobody will get nervous over it.

A resolution has been introduced in congress for an investigation of Theodore Roosevelt's railroad transportation while he was president. What's the use of shutting the stable door after the horse is gone? It is likely that the investigation will end in whitewash and not put any of the money back in the treasury.

Chirps the sprightly Greenville Reflector: "The season of sausage, spare ribs, backbone and chillings is here. This beats Bob Phillips' pumpkin pie." Aw, you don't know, you are just talking. Learn to spell chitterlings right before you claim the best of everything.—Greensboro News.

Makes no difference how you spell 'em, a little vinegar sprinkled on 'em makes the taste all right.

Courtesy.

It has been observed by the salesman and advertising solicitor, that the larger the business and the more busily engaged the man at the head the greater is the courtesy extended.

It is only the large concern dying of dry rot or the small concern that isn't growing that receive their callers discourteously.

Have you ever noticed that the fellows who run most of the big concerns of the country are the ones who always return courteous answers. If you address the president of a railroad, he will listen attentively and make a decent reply. But ask a civil question of the cub at the depot in a country town, you will get a smart and flippant reply. Go into a big city store and ask for the manager. He will talk pleasantly and give you the desired information. But happen to get in the way of the bright young fellow who is washing a window and he will hand you a package that will make your blood boil. But drop around 20 years later and the cub in the depot may have advanced until he is a brakeman on the local freight and the window washer will likely be driving one of the delivery wagons for the store. The presidents of railroads and the managers of big concerns are the fellows who in the flowery days of their youth acquired the habit of returning soft and courteous answers. That is one of the reasons they become railroad presidents and managers of big concerns. The cub who knows more than the president, and the alecky window washer will still be polishing glass in the autumn time of his life.—Merchants Journal.

Now for Trouble.

When the farmers go to demanding remedial measure it is time to take notice. The members of the Farmers' Union of Mecklenburg county are circulating the following petition:

We, the undersigned, petition you to enact a law to prevent dogs from running at large outside of incorporated towns in Mecklenburg county.

We remind you that no farm animals (except dogs) are permitted to run at large—not even poultry can trespass on land, if the owner of said land objects. We ask you to have it made a misdemeanor for any one to permit his dog to run at large and in addition to the fine add a penalty of $10 to go to the officer securing the conviction. Also require all dogs in the county to be listed for taxation as sheep or hogs are listed. All dogs not listed for taxation to be taxed three dollars. Make each person who harbors a dog the owner of the dog. Time was when politicians could fool the farmer but since that memorable awakening back in 1894, the aforesaid politicians have been more careful. In fact, time was when the farmer, or majority of them, wanted dogs, but they are learning better and it is refreshing to see this movement.

Discussing the petition the Statesville Landmark moved to say:

The petition is proper, timely and sensible. It ought to be circulated in every county in the State. It would doubtless secure many signatures—many more than the public generally think. All these years the politicians have run away from a dog law, under the idea that the dog is held in such esteem that any legislation restricting his ancient liberty would utterly destroy those responsible for it. This was probably true in the past. Time was that the proposition to prevent stock running at large almost revoked a civil war and it is yet so where a stock law has never been enacted. But where the law has been tried people now wonder why they ever objected to it. For years the Landmark has believed that the dog is not near so popular as he is generally regarded and that a dog law on the lines suggested would meet with much, if not general, approbation. Sensible people who want to keep dogs are willing to keep them at home and pay taxes on them and have them protected. The class who want to keep more dogs than they can feed and allow them to run at large and deplete on the community, at once a nuisance and a menace, deserve no consideration. If legislators could get away from the idea that a dog law is a political peril and would consider the question from the standpoint of the public good and common sense, such a law would be promptly enacted. But so long as the majority of the legislature is composed of aspiring politicians, whose chief concern is their own political fortunes, rather than the interest of the people, such wholesome and helpful measures as a dog law and others of similar importance will be neglected.

We do not see why this measure should not go through. Certainly, if the farmer is sick and tired of having dogs devour his sheep, he should be able to get this law enacted. As a general thing people in the towns are willing, for those having valuable dogs do not mind paying tax on them. There is no further reason for members of the legislature being afraid of the dog; the farmer is agin' him and that should end it.—Greensboro Record.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the lions are so lame to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new stronger one. Greenville resident would do well to profit by the following example:

Joseph Savage, Church street, Ta-horo, N. C. says: "For some time my kidneys were disordered the passages of the kidney secretions being scanty and at times painful. I had sharp pains in my lions and if I stepped suddenly, sharp twinges caught me across the back, making it hard for me to straighten. After trying a number of remedies without finding relief I procured Doan's Kidney Pills and began their use. They removed the aches and pains and regulated the passages of the kidney secretions. I am pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills in return for the benefit I have derived from their use."

"GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST"

December 25
"For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord."
—Luke 2:11.

GOD'S promise that the Seed of Abraham should ultimately bless all nations has influenced thought the world over, but particularly amongst those nations living contiguous to Abraham's home and northward and westward from there, in the directions in which the message of Divine favor has gone. At first the Jews thought of this promise as being fulfilled in them as a nation—that, without assistance from on High, they could approve themselves to God through obedience to the Law Covenant, and that then, as instructors of the world, they would teach all nations to keep that Divine Law, and thus bring the world to the blessed state of perfection, Divine favor and life everlasting. This hope was crushed out as they found themselves unable to keep the Law, going down into death, instead of attaining to perfection of life. Even Moses, the special servant of God, could not, and did not, attain the blessing of the Law.

The Jordan River was first held to be the place where Jesus was baptized. The Jordan River was first held to be the place where Jesus was baptized. The Jordan River was first held to be the place where Jesus was baptized.

Then God made them the promise of some better thing—of a greater Mediator and of a more successful Covenant through that Mediator. The Mediator of the New Covenant (Jer. 31:34) was to be greater than Moses; as he himself declared, "A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you from amongst your brethren like unto me (but greater)—him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall speak unto you. And it shall come to pass that the soul that will not obey that Prophet shall be destroyed from amongst the people." (Acts 3:22, 23.)

"The Desire of All Nations"
As surrounding nations and those afar off heard of Israel's hopes—that to them would come a great Savior, Deliverer, who would bless them and exalt them in the world and through them bless all peoples, the beauty of the thought took root in every direction. Messiah was more or less looked for under various names, and the glories of his Kingdom were pictured by heathen poets as the Golden Age.

Thus it happened that when our Lord was born, when he was made flesh and dwelt amongst us, "All men were in expectation of him"—not of Jesus, but of the promised Messiah, whom Jesus was. Thus it was that wise men in the East were attracted to see and to worship him that was born King of the Jews. Thus it was also that during Jesus' ministry certain Greeks came to the disciples saying, "Sirs, we would see Jesus." They had heard of him and recognized that in some respects his magic power implied a relationship with the long-expected Messiah. And so it was with the multitudes of Palestine. They heard; they listened. They said, Is this he? The rulers said, No, this is not the Messiah. Then the people asked, When Messiah cometh can he do greater works than this man? Never man spake like this man!

"Little flock" has been selected during these nineteen centuries from every nation, people, kindred and tongue, and that they are all saints, in the spirit of their minds, at least, and follow the Lamb, whithersoever he goeth walking in the footsteps of Jesus. Few understand that, as soon as these joint-sacrificers with the Master shall have filled up the measure of afflictions appointed, then the Kingdom of glory will be revealed and all flesh shall see it together and all shall be blessed by it.

A Savior—Christ the Lord
It was prophetically, of course, that the Babe of Bethlehem was called a Savior—he was to be a Savior. The Christ, the Lord. But as the Babe he was none of these. He became the Christ before becoming the Savior and Lord. The word Christ signifies anointed. In the Divine purpose it was arranged that Messiah should be anointed High Priest of Israel on a higher plane than Aaron—after the order of Melchisedec. (Psalm 110:4.) And every priest must be anointed to his office before he could fill it. Similarly, it was prophesied that Christ would be the great King, greater than David and Solomon, who were his types and foreshadows.

The anointing of Jesus was not with literal oil, but with that which the oil upon the head of the kings and priests of Israel typified—the holy Spirit. He received this holy Spirit at the time of his baptism, the Spirit falling upon him and abiding with him, anointing him for his great work of antitypical Priest and antitypical King of Israel, who, as the Messiah long-promised, would bless them, and through them, the world. But every priest was ordained to offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins, and in this also they typified Jesus, who, under the Divine arrangement, must first offer up himself as a sacrifice acceptable to God for the sin of mankind—in order that he might be the Savior or Deliverer of men from the curse of sin and death—that he might restore them and their earthly home to the glorious condition of perfection represented in Adam and his Eden home. Hence it was necessary that Jesus should not only consecrate his life to the Divine service and be anointed with the holy Spirit, but that, sacrificially, he should lay down his life, even unto death—even the death of the cross. As a part of his reward he was raised to glory, honor and immortality, on the third day thereafter.

As the glorified One he was now fully commissioned and empowered to establish the long-promised Messianic Kingdom, but has been waiting while a "little flock" have walked in his footsteps—until the elect number shall be completed and shall share his glory. Then his Kingdom will take the control of earth. Satan shall be bound for a thousand years and all the wonderful blessings promised in the Law and the Prophets and Gospels and Epistles shall be fulfilled.

"A Savior and a Great One"

We have seen how the Son of God attained his Priestly Office, for the sacrifice of himself; how he was anointed thereto, and also anointed to be the great King, and how he has been merely waiting for the due time for his Kingdom to begin. Now we inquire as to the force and significance of the word Savior, and how he saves his people from their sins!

Jesus became first of the seed of Abraham (heavenly) when at Jordan he made a covenant with God to lay down his humanity.

Moses is here represented as mediator between a type of the seed (heavenly) which will mediate between God and the World.

died—"the Just for the unjust, to bring us back to God," some during this Age and some during the period of his Messianic reign. Gradually he, with his saintly Bride class, will uplift humanity from sin and death to righteousness and life eternal and will destroy all who refuse the blessing in the Second Death, from which there will be no hope of recovery.

But the Christ, the Savior of Glory, Bride and Bridegroom, will, unitedly, be the world's Savior. The glorified Redeemer saves his Church first—by a special salvation and High Calling. These are the "elect," called to suffer with him and, if faithful, to reign with him on the Heavenly plane. These are dealt with now on the basis of faith; they pass from death unto life by the exercise of faith and their entering into a Covenant with God, of sacrifice, through the merit of the Redeemer. Their salvation will be made actual when they shall share in his resurrection, the "First Resurrection," and become kings and priests unto God to reign with Christ a thousand years.—Rev. 20:3.

Death From Electricity.
Death from electricity may come from paralysis of the heart or by stoppage of breathing. In some cases after getting the shock the victim has been able to get up, walk and talk about his accident, then fallen stone dead directly afterward. Sensibility to electricity is very different in animals. In Vienna experiments have been made on ten different species. A horse was killed instantly on 100 volts. The strength of the common house current is about 100 volts. Dogs are almost as easily killed. A rabbit stood a much stronger current. But the experimenters could not kill a frog with all the current they had.

"Touch Not the Queen."
Under this title a Paris journal professes to give an account of the tragic death of the queen of Siam, who was as greatly loved as her consort. Some years ago her majesty was boating with ladies of the court in a lake in the gardens of the palace at Bangkok. The boat overturned, and the queen could not swim. She was surrounded by numerous personages who could have saved her life, but no one has the right to extend the hand upon the queen. The king alone could have held her up and prevented her from sinking, and he was nowhere at hand. Respectfully the court allowed the queen to drown.
