SECOND BONUS OFFER CLOSES

MISS LELIA STOKES AWARDED GOLD WATCH

LAST BONUS OFFER 50,000 VOTES

No Candidate Who Hopes to Win A Prize Should Neglect This Last Offer of 50,000 Extra Votes Which Will be Given for a Club of $20.00 For Either New or Old Business.

The second bonus offer of 70,000 votes in The Reflector's popularity contest closed last night at 8 o'clock in a whirlwind of excitement. Candidates were busy, busy everywhere during the last days and hours of this period. Miss Lelia Stokes, of Grifton, having the highest number of votes was awarded the elegant ladies' gold watch purchased from Mr. W. L. Best, the popular Greenville jeweler.

Other candidates loose by a very small margin and are now more than ever determined to win one of the capital prizes.

The contest closes February 14th, and in order to allow each and every WORKING candidate the chance to run up their score to the top notch, a bonus of 50,000 votes will be given for each and every club of $20.00 secured on either NEW or OLD subscriptions between now and February 10th. Any amount from 25c up will count in making up these clubs.

In these ten days the real work in winning the capital prizes can be done. Several clubs can be secured in this time if the proper energy is put behind the effort made to secure them.

Every working candidate should get as many as three or four clubs and as many more as possible. Those who secured bonus votes under the first and second bonus offer should not allow themselves to believe that they already have the capital prize won. The candidate who feels that she is safe is the one that is sure to be disappointed.

The contest is going to close. It is not long until the last day. Every day should be made to count from this time on by those who desire to win prizes. Especially should the ten days of this last bonus offer be put to good use.

NEGRO PRISONER ESCAPES

Sheriff Nunn Leaves Prisoner in Custody of Hack Driver.

Boston Boyd, a negro prisoner who was brought to this city from Greenville by Sheriff Nunn last night to be incarcerated in the jail here for safe keeping for the Pitt county authorities, escaped from the sheriff right at the jail door and has not yet been apprehended. Sheriff Nunn brought Boyd from Greenville on the Coast Line train Monday evening, and summoning Marion Parker, a hack man, engaged him to carry him and the prisoner to the jail. On the jail yard the sheriff alighted, and deputizing Parker to look after the prisoner, went into his office for the keys to the jail. The prisoner was handcuffed and the hack was standing under the glare of the electric light in the jail yard. When he got into his office, he looked through the window and saw a man running with his hands held together in front of him. Suspecting at once that it was his prisoner escaping, Sheriff Nunn gave chase, but Boyd disappeared in the darkness back of the King building opposite the court house.

The sheriff was a little slow to realize that the running man was the prisoner escaping, as he saw no one following him, nor did he hear any outcry. He had left the negro in charge of the hack driver, but the hackman was not following the escaping negro when the sheriff saw him. The fact that the runner held his hands together in front of him aroused the sheriff's suspicions. But the negro had made a good gateway before anything was heard from the hackman. Diligent search was made by the sheriff and the city policemen after the escape but Boyd could not be found.

Boyd was bound over to the Superior court of Pitt county on the charge of stealing clothing from a store in Greenville. Sheriff Nunn has offered a reward of $25 for his capture.—Kinston Free Press.

How the Farmers Are Coming Along.

Saturday is corn inspection day at the court house in Rockingham. Every up-to-date farmer in the county should take an interest in this very important matter. Those who have nice seed corn should bring about 50 ears carefully selected and those who have no good seed corn should come and see what others have. The trouble with us farmers we think because we have been farming all our lives that we know all about the business, while some of us don't know why some cotton blossoms are white and some are red. Science is doing a great deal for the agricultural interest. The South is doubting its average yield of corn. Boys in our own State and South Carolina are making over 200 bushels per acre, and the South is now the third corn belt of the United States, having moved up from sixth.

We want to see the farmers move right on up, for upon them depends the prosperity of the country. After preparing your ground for corn enough for farm use and for fattening your porkers, then raise all the cotton you can. We have been having the finest kind of weather for breaking our lands. The writer was on his farm last week and came to one splendid colored tenant breaking his land. He was running a two-horse plow 8 inches and behind him in the same furrow another one-horse bull tongue was running about 4 inches deep. In all the land was being broken 12 inches. This tenant's name is Wade Spencer and he will get one and a half bales to the acre on this land.—Rockingham Post.

It is wiser to bet on your own success than the other fellow's failure.

Have Live Stock on the Farm.

The price of both hogs and cattle has decreased rapidly during the recent weeks, but live stock are still selling at profitable prices for the man who breeds and feeds regularly each year. Hogs, at even 5 cents a pound live weight, are profitable for any man who grows them in a common-sense, business way, and they are still selling for 7 cents. In the past we have gone into the raising of live stock and bought our foundation herds on a high market and sold out at a loss when prices swung to the other extreme. Those who have recently bought breeding hogs or cattle should not become alarmed. Fluctuations in prices always have occurred, and may be expected to continue, but the man who goes on raising good stock year after year, so that he can profit by the high prices when they come, has always found them a profitable farm crop. Hogs may go still lower, and probably will, but they will not go so low that the Southern farmer who raises them on legumes, which the hogs gather, and a small amount of corn can not still make pork at a profit.—Progressive Farmer.

WHAT THE LAW MAKERS ARE DOING

PROCEEDINGS OF THE N. C. GENERAL ASSEMBLY

MR. MOORING'S TOWNSHIP BILL

Senate Considers Increase of Governors Salary—House Discusses Constitutional Convention—Both Branches Have a Considerable Number of New Bills—One by Senator Cotten.

Senate—Wednesday.

The senate considered as a special order the bill to increase the governor's salary to $6,000.

Senator Graham thought it unwise to single out any state officer and raise the salary, but father that a general salary increase be considered. He said he had introduced a bill seeking to provide for the present deficit in the state treasury and that he would oppose the increase to $6,000, and would offer an amendment making the governor's salary $5,000. He said in his boyhood days he lived in the governor's mansion, when the governor received a salary of $2,000. He felt that a salary of $5,000 would be sufficient for the governor.

Among the new bills introduced were:

Pharr, of Mecklenburg: Amend the general insurance laws of North Carolina; also amend the general insurance laws regulating classes of insurance.

Bassett of Edgecombe: Relative to receipts and disbursements of public money.

Graham of Orange: Provided for the settlement, registration, transfer, and assurance of real estate in North Carolina.

Parham of Wayne: Exempt practicing dentists from jury service.

Sikes of Wake: Encourage road building in North Carolina.

Coxe, of Jackson: Raise revenue for the protection of the forests of North Carolina.

Ivie of Rockingham: Allow owners of mortgages when listing property to deduct the amount of mortgages.

Cotten of Pitt: Provide for settlement, registration, transfer, and assurance of real estate.

Starbuck of Forsyth: Require copy of appraisal for purchase by surviving partner and schedule of liabilities to be filed with the clerk; also amend section 1137 of Revisal.

House—Wednesday.

A special order of the house was the bill providing for submitting to a vote of the people the calling of a convention to revise the constitution of the state.

Among the new bills introduced were:

Battle: To authorize towns to amend and frame their own charter.

Battle: Relating to payment of wages due to infant employees of factories.

Williams of Buncombe: To provide regulation for railroad companies relative to employment of conductors and requiring full crews on all trains.

Mooring: To provide township meeting houses.

Hoffer: To regulate the delivery of mail within the state of North Carolina.

Brown of Jackson: To make appropriation for Cullemee Industrial School.

Richardson: To amend the divorce law.

Quickel: To amend the law of 1909 relating to non-resident license to hunt.

Ray: To amend the revisal by inserting the word felony in place of misdemeanor in certain sections.

McGill: To amend the laws of 1909 relating to concentrated feed for stock.

VIAL GIVES EVIDENCE OF THIRD PERSON CUMBERLAND MYSTERY

Think Miss Eleonor and Her Sweetheart Were Murdered.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Cumberland, Md., Jan. 26.—It was learned today that district attorney Robb now has in his possession evidence that will prove beyond doubt that Grace Eleonor and her sweetheart died at the hands of a third person. A vial has been found in the street in front of Eleonor's home where it was lain hidden in the mud and slush, which Robb thinks contained poison that killed the two. He is having the contents analyzed for traces of cyanide.

Men Have Narrow Escape.

By Wire to The Reflector.
New York, Jan. 26.—Two men were hurt and "Big Bill" Edwards, who saved Mayor Gaynor's life last August, had a narrow escape from death when a 30-ton steel girder crashed from the skeleton structure on the new municipal building.

Fifty Passengers Injured.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Meredith, N. H., Jan. 26.—A passenger train on the Boston and Maine railroad was wrecked by a broken rail near here today, and 50 passengers were injured, but none fatally. The train bumped over the ties for 60 feet before it was stopped.

No New York Senator Yet.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Albany, N. Y., Jan. 26.—William F. Shehan lost three votes in balloting today. The deadlock is still unbroken. Ninety-five were necessary to a choice. Shehan received 82; Dejeu 77; Sheppard 10; several scattering.

No Verdict Reached.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 26.—No verdict has been reached yet in the Schenck case. At 11.47 the jury was excused until 1.30 for luncheon. A verdict is unlikely, it is said.

Sheep and Dogs.

We wonder if the members of the legislature will ever get time enough to tackle the dog question. We have hopes, strong hopes. Years ago when the liquor question, in almost any phase, bobbed up, the legislators dodged like whiz. The mention of prohibition or any thing akin to it, caused a stampede. But look what has happened. Prohibition on one end of the State to the other. You may say that the legislature did not do it. Quite right, but it opened the way for it; it made it possible, first, by the passage of the Watts bill, the Ward bill and many other restrictive measures. With these safeguards enacted, the way was made easy.

When a thing like this happens, it is safe to say that one of these days the legislators will wake up and pass a dog law, but they are not going to do it until the people force them to it, just as public opinion did in the matter of prohibition. There are plenty of reasons why sheep husbandry should receive some little measure of protection, but what will have to be done is the rising up of the people with a demand that cannot be misunderstood.—Greensboro Record.

'Squire McWhorter and His Voucher.

The papers have been giving 'Squire McWhorter, of Union county, a laborer in the house of representatives at Raleigh, much praise for that when he was given a voucher for $10 for the first four days of the present session he asked what it was for, and when told it was for work for the State, said, "I haven't done a darn thing for the State!" and they let it go at that. Now it is told that 'Squire did not reach Raleigh until the voucher was made out and that he really had not done anything for the State; but he got the voucher cashed all the same. His remark put the book-keeper to thinking, though, and when it was learned that 'Squire only reached Raleigh that day he was informed that there had been a mistake and returned the money when he was requested to do so. Nevertheless, the 'Squire's remark will become classic and it was worth $100 to the State, besides serving to point a moral and adorn several tales.—Lumberton Robb's Mail.

PUBLIC PLAYGROUNDS.

But one city in the Carolinas has more than 50,000 population and only three others exceed 25,000. On the other hand, there are quite a number of towns ranging from the latter figures down to 4,000 or 5,000 which may confidently look for extended growth during the next decade. During this period of emergence into the city type these towns will do well to look carefully into how they are growing, as well as how fast. Certain public improvements are comparatively easy to secure before the community has been closely built up, but become increasingly difficult as the population increases. Among the most important of these matters is the subject of public playgrounds for the children.

On Saturday a large and convenient playground was opened in the city of Spartanburg, largely as a result of the efforts of the civic league, and on Monday a charter was issued to a Greensboro organization which has a similar end in view. It is not too soon for communities much smaller to begin work on the idea. As long as there are vacant lots available by the half dozen the matter is not pressing, but when these vacant lots one after another are taken up for building purposes it becomes a serious question as to how sufficient room is to be found for the recreation of the younger generation. We hope that the excellent example of Spartanburg and Greensboro will find many imitators. — Charlotte Observer.

This is a question The Reflector has many times tried to get Greenville interested in, but so far without result. It is something that will be harder to procure the longer it is neglected. Every town of any consequence ought to have a public playground of some kind, a park or place suitable for outdoor recreation. Some of these days Greenville will feel the need of this much more than is now apparent, and then a suitable place may be hard to procure, if at all. It would be better to get to work on it while there is some possibility of succeeding.

What effect does the hookworm have on the color of the hair? Patton, of the Charlotte News, says it causes red hair, but Cowan, of the Wilmington Dispatch, resents the allegation and threatens to show the allegator a thing or two. We also expect to see Whichard, of the Greenville Reflector, for obvious reasons, come to the defense of the red-headed man. Patton, however, has been making a special study of hookworm and may be able to defend his position. — Raleigh Times.

Go way, boy, and quit such silly questions. We had red hair before this hookworm business was ever born. But, by way of information according to the theorizers, hookworms have a banking after pale, sallow folks, and don't waste breath trying to catch the Florida kind.

Representative G. M. Mooring, of Pitt, has introduced in the legislature a bill to provide houses in the several townships for holding public meetings. This is a wise measure. There ought to be some suitable place in every township for all assemblies of a public nature, and these buildings could be provided without any great expense. A place for holding township elections, elections and meetings of general public nature, would be of great convenience to the people.

The harem skirt is said to be the latest. We are waiting for Cowan, of the Wilmington Dispatch, to enlighten us as to what it is.

It is time Mrs. Schenck was shedding some tears.

DRAWN UP BY POT HOOKS.

Two Wilkes men "Scrap" at Bottom of Sixty Foot Well.

Wilkes county is maintaining her reputation for originality. This story told by the Patriot is a clincher: "Leave 'em alone and let 'em scrap it out!" did not have to be said to a couple of combatants who engaged themselves in a few rounds here Monday. The pugilists in question were John Minton and Nelson Foster and the fight took place in the bottom of a sixty-foot well. They were both down in a well at Hotel Smithy putting in a new wall, when they fell out—not out of the well, but with each other. There were only two spectators and neither of these felt inclined to go down and act as pacifier. One of the on-lookers, however, whose veracity, please understand, is not questioned, says that the fight only stopped when he tied a pair of pot hooks to the well rope and fished Nelson out. He further avers that as Nelson was making the ascent John grabbed him by the heel, pulling off his shoe, which he hurled after his wriggling adversary. Nelson, in turn bid John adieu with a quid of well-chewed "Brown's Mule."

Don't Do It, Mr. Taft.

The New York World has printed so far five or six able editorial articles advising Mr. Taft to call the congress together in extraordinary session; but we do not suppose for a moment that he will be influenced by anything our contemporary has said upon the subject to take advice. There is no reason why he should, unless the congress at its present session shall fail to make the appropriations necessary to keep the government going. Speaking generally, the fewer and the shorter the sessions of congress the better for the country and all that therein dwell, and, besides, we should like the Democratic committees which are making up the program for the next session to have a little time to set their triggers, before springing the trap. Moreover, we are constitutionally opposed to Bossism of any sort. See what it did in Massachusetts. See what it has come very near doing in New York state. The only bosses are not in politics. — Richmond Times-Dispatch.

INDIGESTION.

Relief in Five Minutes and Permanent Cure or Money Back.

When Coward & Wooten states that they have a remedy that only costs 50 cents and is guaranteed to cure any man or woman who suffers from food fermentation, or money back, what are the poor stomach sufferers going to do about it? Food fermentation causes belching, sour stomach, gas eructation, heartburn and that lump of lead feeling as you probably know.

The name of this most remarkable stomach prescription is MI-O-NA. Most people call them MI-O-NA stomach tablets because they know that there is no remedy so good for indigestion or stomach disorders. Here is one opinion:

"I have been troubled with indigestion for more than a year. I bought one box of MI-O-NA and it cured me. Now I would not be without a box in the house for $5.00. It saves a lot of doctor bills when you can be cured for 50 cents.—Arthur Sederquest, 6 Nichols St., Wakefield, Mass.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets cost 50 cents a box at Coward & Wooten's and leading druggists everywhere, and money back if they don't cure.

Set of Ware FREE!

If you call at our store during our MAJESTIC DEMONSTRATION WEEK and allow us to show you the many advantages and superior qualities of the Great MAJESTIC RANGE, and will purchase one at the regular price, we will give you FREE the beautiful and useful Souvenir Set of Ware illustrated in this advertisement. This ware is made to match the quality of the Majestic Ranges, and we know all ladies will see the beauty and utility of this set, especially the first three pieces, which are entirely new and cannot be had alone by purchase, except at a very high price. The Prices of Majestic Ranges are the same, but we give the set FREE with each Majestic Range bought during the Demonstration week only.

Reasons Why the Great Majestic You Should Buy

- 1st.—It has the reputation of being the best range money can buy.
 - 2nd.—It not only has the reputation but IS the BEST range made, and we will prove this to you if you will let us.
 - 3rd.—It is constructed of malleable iron, material you can't beat, and of Charcoal iron, material that resists rust 300 per cent greater than steel rivited together airtight. No heat escapes or cold air enters the range, thus uses very little fuel to do perfect work.
 - 4th.—The reservoir alone is worth the price of range over any other reservoir made. It boils 15 gallons of water; is heated like a tea kettle, with pocket against left hand lining, and is movable and sets on frame, hence cannot wear out. When water gets too hot it can be moved away from fire.
- MAJESTIC RANGES use less fuel; heat more water—and, heat it hotter; costs practically nothing for repairs; lasts three times as long; bakes better; easier to keep clean and gives better satisfaction than any other range on the market. If you know positively that the above statements are true, wouldn't you buy a Majestic at once?
COME IN DEMONSTRATION WEEK AND WE'LL PROVE IT TO YOU.

Dandruff Easily Cured.

In fact Coward & Wooten the drug gist, has a certain hair restorer called Parisian Sage which costs only 50c a large bottle that is guaranteed to cure dandruff in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is the discovery of an eminent student, scientist and specialist, and is made in this country only by the Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Parisian Sage is a most pleasant daintily perfumed hair dressing, and besides curing dandruff, your druggist will return your money if it fails to stop falling hair or itching of the scalp.

It will make hair grow, and women who desire soft, beautiful and luxuriant hair can have it in two weeks preparation. It is not sticky or greasy by using this famous, quick acting

Self-Possession.

Self-possession is an ideal trait that should be cultivated as much so as a good reputation, or riches. We may never attain perfect self-control—and perhaps it would never be desired—but we can attain a degree of mastery over our will power that will often repay us as we journey along life's pathway. When we lose our temper, and let our passions work our mind into seething vortex, we are not only liable to commit serious injury upon another but cause a corresponding amount of damage upon our own person. True, the man who has not a spark of spunk in his composition, will accomplish little, or amount to much in any field of endeavor. His weakness of character will not only be treacherously taken advantage of, but he is liable to suffer the humiliation of being designated as a coward when he faces obstacles that require firmness of purpose. When we maintain the requisite caution over our passions, we need never fear for our personal welfare, however exasperating another's conduct may appear. Our life is far too short to mar its buoyancy of feeling by the volcanic disturbances of an ungovernable temper.

As we peer over the dim vista of past aeons and note the indescribable havoc that has been wrought through uncontrolled passion; the kingdoms that have been wrecked; the countries that have been devastated by the sword and the torch; the homes that have been destroyed and the numerous crimes committed and those who have paid the death penalty, it is then that we place ourselves in a position to fully realize why we should endeavor to exercise due caution and maintain control over our temper. A little observation will convince any one that it is both wise and profitable.—Durham

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

Reach Out For Factories.

The Greenville Reflector expresses the belief that "it is a good thing for any town that is trying to secure or wants the location of manufacturing enterprises, to exempt such plants from municipal taxes for a certain period of years; at least until they are operated long enough to be on a paying basis." This is not only a wise thought, containing a good wholesome hint, but it is timely, fitting many cases snugly. The Reflector, in continuation, tells of incidents it has known of where prospectors for factories were turned away from its own by reason of municipal taxes.

There are no doubt plenty of such incidents covering many places, and they are to be regretted. One of the drawbacks to lots of towns is the fact that manufacturing enterprises are not encouraged. As soon as a prospector arrives on the scene real estate wherever he casts his eye, shoots up about double its former value, and the tax-man commences to figure out how much is coming to the city or county. To a large extent it is a risk with the man who is going to invest his capital, yet owners of real estate desire to make a bigger profit off him than they would off any one else, and a city or town is not willing to lose a little of what it might obtain in order to get much more than it has in building up the community, in getting more taxes from increased property values and from poll-tax from new citizens.

All this is wrong. Some may argue that their city is an ideal factory location and hence manufacturers should pay taxes, as they are bound to prosper. That sounds nice, but when manufacturers can obtain just as ideal a place and are welcomed with open arms and not burdened with taxes, it is natural--in fact, it is good, hard business sense--for the other place to be selected. If you can obtain the same article for less money across the street than it is offered to you on this side, where are you going to make the purchase?

Factories are needed in many towns Wilmington included and Washington far from the foot of the class also in this need, and the way to get factories is to offer inducements, especially in the way of not saddling the enterprises with big taxes. As an indication of what factories will do, the town of Spartanburg, S. C., stands forth as a shining example. No town in the South made more wonderful gain in population during the last decade than did Spartanburg, and Spartanburg has long been noted as a place of high musical attainments and as a place where public spirited citizens are always ready to subscribe large amounts for any public undertaking. The county in which Spartanburg is located possesses almost two score of cotton factories. It was this big, throbbing industry that helped Spartanburg; that "boosted it." What we want to hear in Wilmington is the sound of the factory whistle, and to see the man with the dinner pail go by. We believe in and for the man with the overalls.--Wilmington Dispatch.

COURT HOUSE CORNER STONE

Laid This Morning in Presence of Small Gathering.

The corner stone of the new court house now being erected for Pitt county, was laid this morning a little after 10 o'clock. There were no exercises nor ceremony of any kind to mark the event, but a few people gathered to witness the big stone being placed in position in the northeast corner of the building. The stone is of Georgia Creole marble, a little off white color, and weighs 1300 pounds. Underneath the stone was a hollow to receive the box containing the articles deposited in the corner. The articles, as mentioned in The Reflector Wednesday, were put in a copper box and sealed and this was deposited under the corner stone by Mr. J. P. Quinerly, chairman of the board of county commissioners. As the huge stone was being lowered in position, several of the workmen on the building dropped small coins under it. Later the date of the burning of the last court house and the date work on this new building started is to be carved on the corner stone. It is noticeable that the superintendents and all the laborers on the building are taking much pride in the work they are doing on this public building.

Commander Sims Told the Truth. While Commander W. S. Sims in his London speech may have talked indiscreetly and violated the ethics of diplomacy, it is nevertheless the judgment of The Advertiser that he did not miss the truth when he said: "If the time ever comes when the British Empire is seriously menaced by an external enemy, it is my opinion that you may count upon every man, every dollar, every drop of blood of your kindred across the sea."

Commander Sims received for his indiscretion of speech a severe reprimand from Secretary of the Navy Meyer, which came at the behest of the president, who stated that the act of the commander was censurable. But who will say that Sims did not tell the truth? Certainly there is every reason to assume that the sympathy of the United States would be with the mother country in the event of a conflict between England and another nation. There is a kindred feeling between the two powers similar to that of a father and son, and while the two in time past have had their rows, the strife was not lasting.

On the other hand we believe England would be as quick to come to the aid of this country should we become "seriously menaced" by another power. And this is well. The two English speaking nations--the mightiest of all powers should stand together. Their alliance would frighten the world into submission should the other countries get too eager for a scrap. By standing together it seems quite reasonable that the union would serve as a means of keeping peace in the world.

Sims may have made a mistake speaking with his uniform on, as he did, but he knew what he was talking about.--Montgomery Advertiser.

Well Said.

The abolition of jury and the practice of allowing applicants for law license to cheat their way in examinations and the establishment of the Torrens system of guaranteeing land titles, are three important items that deserve attention. The three accomplishments together would decrease the number of lawyers for the good of lawyers generally and of the whole people, and the Torrens system would be helpful to the State as a whole as well as to individuals," says Bruce Craven in The Charlotte Observer.

This is by no means an unreasonable thing to say to a legislature that is composed mainly of lawyers. "Decrease the number of lawyers for the good of lawyers generally," ought to appeal to them.

But whether the lawyers-legislators like what he says or not, we wish to applaud Mr. Craven--Asheville Gazette-News.

NEW YORK AND CHICAGO MARKETS

By Wire to The Reflector.

Stocks.

New York, Jan. 26.--After opening rationally higher, the market in Wall street developed heaviness and most of stocks shaded off fractionally. Many of the standard railroad stocks quoted early gains, but failed to hold them. Union Pacific was extremely weak. Steel was inactive. Interborough was fractionally under the closing.

Cotton.

New York, Jan. 26.--With the exception of April 3 points off, cotton opened steady one to four points above the close. Cables were relatively steady, assisting the early tone. Opening: January, 14.65; March, 14.78; April, 14.84; May, 14.95.

Liverpool, Jan. 26.--Cotton opened January 7.83 1-2; January-February, 7.83; February-March, 7.83 1-2; closed January, 7.88; January-February, 7.83 1-2; February-March, 7.84.

FARMER'S WIFE HAD HEAP TO DO

Mrs. Shepherd Was in Bad Shape When She Could Not Stand on Her Feet.

Durham, N. C.--"I am a farmer's wife," writes Mrs. J. M. Shepherd, of this city, "and have a heap to do." "Four months ago I could not stand on my feet, I do anything much, but at this time I do the most of my work. I took Cardui and it did me more good than all the doctors."

"You don't know how I thank you for the Cardui Home Treatment. I wish that all women who suffer from womanly trouble would treat themselves as I have." Ladies can easily treat themselves at home, with Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is easy to take, and so gentle in its action, that it cannot do anything but good.

Being composed exclusively of vegetable ingredients, Cardui cannot lay up trouble in your system, as mineral drugs often do. Its ingredients having no harsh, medicinal effects, and being non-poisonous and perfectly harmless, Cardui is absolutely safe for young and old.

Ask your druggist. He will tell you to try Cardui.

N. B.--Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.
