HOW THEY ARE IN FRANKLIN COUNTY

PEOPLE THERE ARE DELIGHTED WITH THEIR GOOD ROADS

MR. H. A. WHITE GETS LETTER

Franklinton Township Has a Road Law Similar to the One Proposed For Greenville Township—They Are Enthusiastic Over Results of the Law.

The bill now pending in the legislature to permit the people of Greenville township to vote on the question of issuing bonds for good roads, was drawn almost similar to one passed a few years ago for Franklinton township in Franklin county. Mr. H. A. White recently wrote Mr. H. A. Vann, of Franklinton, to ascertain how the people there were satisfied with results, and received the following reply:

Franklinton, N. C., Feb. 6, 1911.
Mr. H. A. White,
Greenville, N. C.
My dear Sir:

I have your letter of January 31st, relative to the road question, and would have answered more promptly but have been so very busy that this is my first opportunity.

There are such a number of things to be said for roads that I hardly know where to begin. From an economical standpoint, good roads mean more to the farmer than anybody can state in words. You can stand on our streets today and see a little mule hitched to a one-horse wagon in town with three bales of cotton on, and that same mule, before we had good roads, could hardly get here with one bale. Farmers who had wood for sale and couldn't market it on account of the bad roads, are now bringing their wood to town, hauling from half to three-quarters of a cord at a time, from five miles out. I know farmers who used to market their products four miles from home because they had an "improved" road to go over; now they bring them seven (7) miles to Franklinton because they have a good road. Another farmer who owns about 200 acres of land told me that he saved enough in three days hauling, using two mules and hauling wood five miles, to pay his road tax for this year. One man fought the bond issue so hard that when he found that he was beaten, he had to be carried home and was sick for a week. When the engineer got to his place laying out the road, he not only had become an enthusiastic road man, but took down his front fence to make room for it.

If we were to hold the election over again, I don't believe there would be five men to vote against it. To show you in a more substantial way how farmers feel about it, we have not had to pay a single cent in damages and we have completed over forty (40) miles of roads.

Another question is the increase in land values. There's a farm three miles from town which couldn't be sold at $2,500; two months after a good road was put through it, it sold for $3,700 cash.

These facts I've given you are rather "rambling," but it's hard to take just a few things that are being said for a thing, when everything you hear is in favor of it and nothing against it.

With best wishes for success of your election, and assuring you of my willingness to give you any information possible, I am,
Yours very truly,
A. H. VANN.

WITH MRS. F. G. JAMES.

Entertains About Eighty of Her Lady Friends.

At her handsome residence, on Fifth street, Thursday evening from 8:30 to 11:30, Mrs. F. G. James was "at home" to about eighty of her lady friends.

The guests upon arrival were given a cordial welcome by Mrs. H. A. White and Mrs. W. T. Lipscomb, Jr., who received at the front door, and to this was added the greeting of the hostess and her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Skinner, of New York, who received at the library door.

Mrs. H. L. Fennell, of Wilmington, served punch in the hall.

The home was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and potted plants.

Decorated tally cards were passed by little Misses Ada James and Nell White, and the amusement of the evening was progressive heart dice, the guests being awarded unique favors each time they progressed. At the end of the game each player received an additional souvenir, a miniature drum filled with bonbons. Salted almonds, cake and frozen marangues were served.

The pleasure of the evening was increased with vocal solos by some of the guests.

The naturalness and ease with which Mrs. James always entertains, made this occasion all the more enjoyable.

TRADE REPORT.

Trade Conditions Generally Are Fair—Some Lines Are Active.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 10.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say for Richmond and vicinity: Trade conditions generally are classed as only fair. Some lines are active while others are quiet. The lumber industry is inactive and building operations are quiet. Naval stores are firm at recent prevailing prices. Drugs and chemicals are active. The wholesale dry goods market is quiet. Wholesale milliners have had a good advance spring trade. The loose leaf tobacco market is active and prices are satisfactory, prices range up to thirty cents per pound for the best grades of sun-cured leaf. Peanuts are active, prices ranging up to 2 3-4 cents for shelling stock. Produce is quiet, however, low prices for some commodities stimulate buying. Apples are scarce and high. Retail trade is quiet, unfavorable weather during week deterring early spring shopping. Collections are fair.

THE ELOSSOR MYSTERY.

Another Sensation Sprung in The Case.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Cumberland, Md., Feb. 10.—One of the greatest sensations that has yet developed in the death mystery of Charles E. Twigg and Miss Grace Elossor came today. Miss Jane Cummett, who lived in the room over that in which the bodies were found, says she heard Mrs. Elossor exclaim "My God, this is terrible, nobody must be told." She also stated that with this exception there was absolute quiet. This is a flat contradiction of statements made by them, who said there was utmost confusion and loud screaming from the moment the bodies were discovered. Miss Cummett had not before been asked about the case.

SURPRISE IN ARNOLD MYSTERY.

Parties Avoid Conference With Father of Missing Girl.

By Wire to The Reflector.

New York, Feb. 10.—Developments in the mysterious case of Miss Dorothy Arnold, now missing 60 days, took a surprise turn today when Geo. S. Griscom, Jr., of Pittsburgh, and his father evaded all attempts of members of the Arnold family to hold a conference with them. The Griscoms arrived here last night from Italy. The Arnolds said they had an appointment to meet the Griscoms this morning, but the latter denied this and no meeting took place. The Griscoms refused to talk about the case.

RECIPROCITY WITH CANADA.

Committee Will Report the Matter Favorably.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Reciprocity with Canada and adoption of the treaty before the end of the present session of congress now seems to be an assured fact from developments at the capitol today. The ways and means committee spent two hours on the matter, and while the vote was postponed until tomorrow it is practically agreed by the committee that it will report the reciprocity favorably.

LaFollette Attacks President.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Washington, Feb. 10.—In an open letter here today Senator LaFollette attacked President Taft for the latter's stand in the Cunningham coal land cases and demanded that President Taft answer the questions he is now seeking to evade responsibility for in these cases.

JUDGE COMES TO CUPID'S AID.

Young Couple Reunited Under Habeas Corpus Proceedings.

A rather unusual proceeding was heard before Judge Justice in court yesterday afternoon, on a writ of habeas corpus sued out by a young husband to recover his wife from her parents, who Sunday afternoon took the young bride away from him, directly after they had been married. The bride was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCoy, and the bridegroom was Mr. Floyd Heath, both of whom lived in Contentnea Neck township. The couple were married Sunday under a license secured from the register of deeds of Pitt county. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. McCoy went to the young couple's home and Mrs. McCoy took the young bride away. The bridegroom sued out a writ of habeas corpus and secured counsel. The father of the young lady also secured counsel, who advised him that, the young lady being over 16 years of age, the marriage was a lawful one, and that his redress would be in an action against the register of deeds of Pitt county.

The parties were all in court, and upon the circumstances being related to His Honor, Judge Justice, the judge asked the young lady if she desired to go with her husband and upon her answering in the affirmative, told the young man to take her. They went away happy.—Kinston Free Press.

This is one of the young couples for whom license to marry was obtained here some days ago, mention of which was made in The Reflector.

RECOVERED STOLEN WHEEL.

Negro Who Had it is Locked Up in Guard House.

Saturday Policeman Clark received a telegram from Parmele asking him to look out for a negro with a stolen bicycle. A description of the wheel was given the officer, and he kept his eyes open. Today Officer Clark ran across a negro who was trying to sell a good wheel for $12. He examined the wheel and found that it filled the description of the one stolen at Parmele. The officer took charge of the wheel and locked the negro in the guard house.

EXPLOSION IN MINE.

Causes the Death of Fourteen of the Operatives.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Trinidad, Col., Feb. 10.—The fourteen men entrapped in a mine here by an explosion last night are all believed to be dead. Two bodies were taken from the mine by a rescuing party this morning.

The rescuing party declared there was small hope of any of the men being alive. The Cokedale mine was known as a model mine of North America, and was regarded as absolutely safe.

A FULL HOUSE AGAIN.

Misses May and Hall Attract Large Crowds.

Despite the inclement weather, and advanced prices in admission, the little Amuzee Theatre was packed last night. The pictures were up to the standard, the vaudeville, ladies made good for what they claimed, and the orchestra seemed to be making up for lost time.

To the People of Greenville.

Tomorrow, at eleven o'clock, in the auditorium of the Training School the County Teachers' Association will hold its February meeting. We have been particularly fortunate in being able to arrange for addresses by two of the foremost educators in the Eastern States. One of the speakers is Dr. George D. Strayer, of Teachers' College, Columbia University, New York. The other is Mr. A. S. Cook, superintendent of schools in Baltimore county, Maryland.

Both of these men occupy high positions in the sphere of education, and I am sure it is well worth while for our citizens to hear them. I very much hope all who can make arrangements to attend the lectures will do so. It is not often that we are favored with the presence of men so eminent in their chosen profession, and I urge our people to attend if possible.

I believe the citizens of Greenville owe it to the teachers of the county to attend at least one of their meetings a year, and I hope a large number will be present tomorrow.

DISGUSTING.

The fashionable 400 of New York ought to take some side trips into the country and learn enough about good manners to know how to behave themselves in public, especially to be decent when they assemble within a church. The Dieces-Gould marriage took place Tuesday afternoon, and here is the way the New York World pictured some of the scenes in St. Bartholomew's church where the ceremony was performed:

The ceremony was witnessed by about four hundred, including many well-known theatrical folk and opera singers. Of the 400 within the church probably 250 were women, and of these fully 200 forgot the sacredness of the edifice and their good manners and stood not on the floor but on the benches and in many instances even on the backs of pews.

The wedding of Miss Marjorie Gould and Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., a little more than a year ago was characterized by the good behavior of the persons in the church and the outrageous conduct of the throngs in the streets. The wedding yesterday will be remembered principally for the good behavior—thanks to the police—of the street crowds and the bad conduct of the guests at the ceremony.

THE END OF IT ALL.

The prices of many things may go up, but pencils, pen and ink remain about stationary.—Durham Sun.

A paper weight will have to be put on that to hold it down.—Greenville Daily Reflector.

It is as you observe, gentlemen—you can drive a horse to water, but a pencil simply must be lead (purchased).—Charlotte News.

Well! Well! Aye, ink well. Such stuff is certainly not all "write" and we move to blot (ter) it out.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Such copy is a waste of ink and paper and the pen will shut you in if you don't shut up!—Greensboro Daily News.

In other words, we suppose you want a stopper put in the bottle. All write, here goes.

In New York City, Monday was a bitterly cold and stormy day, but big Tim Sullivan, the Tammany politician, made many a poor soul happy. At his club boys on the Bowery, he distributed 7,000 pairs of shoes and socks to a line of wretched humanity filling back for many blocks. In line was a man who was once a multi-millionaire but who lost all his wealth in Wall street. Big Tim is always doing some noble thing like this.—Wilmington Star.

This generosity of Big Tim may not be heralded around so much as the gifts of millions, with strings attached, by Rockefeller and Carnegie to colleges and libraries, but it is the kind that gets close to the needy and does the most real good.

The question is frequently asked, what is the last heard from West, the Wilson murderer? We think the last really heard from him was the afternoon he did the fatal shooting. There have been rumors and rumors, but while they were about West he was not about them.

The Durham Herald very wisely suggests that if the legislature does not down the clubs, you will see these take the place of near-beer saloons. Yes, and white folks and negroes will both have them.

There are some people who get mad with the Bible because it condemns their conduct, but what's the use? They cannot change the Bible, hence the proper thing to do is change their conduct.

Ex-King Manuel, of Portugal, is said to have something like $100 a day for spending money. Lots of us would like to have the privilege of trying to get along on one-tenth that much.

New Orleans spent $15,000 in the fight trying to land the Panama exposition. Even if the exposition was lost, the city got the worth of the money in advertising.

Whether Greenville is the best town in the world or not, it is good enough for us to be saying all the good we can about it. You go and do likewise, and quit your kicking.

Jim Robinson, of the Durham Sun, intimates that it is easy to "love your neighbor as yourself" if it happens to be a pretty and sweet girl living next door.

For once the Greensboro News has commended the Raleigh News and Observer. Surely it must be an indication of the approach of universal peace.

The senate did right in killing that divorce bill, which ought never to have passed the house.

Those favoring the establishment of Piedmont county made a big fight for it, but they lost.

Generally speaking, there is a compassion for the blind, but not when it's a tiger.

When they have once been to Greenville they want to "come back."

How Is It in Iredell?

Far and away the, most important movement ever inaugurated for the material progress of Iredell county was formally launched by the good roads meeting in Statesville Saturday, when it was decided to ask the legislature to authorize the county to vote on a bond issue of $400,000 for good roads and to work the roads by taxation. The spirit of the meeting, the unity of action, was most encouraging. It shows that the people are aroused to the importance and the necessity for a forward movement for good roads, and if every citizen of the county does his duty Iredell will in the near future be placed in the front rank among the progressive counties of the state. As soon as the bill is prepared it will be printed and everything in connection with it will be explained. Those who don't understand should ask questions and hear explanations before accepting any story that may be passed around. But most important of all now is for every individual in the county who favors the plan proposed to get to work right away. Talk the measure at every opportunity and make opportunities to urge it on every occasion. Talk and work from now until the day of election.—Statesville Landmark.

What a Commentary!

Referring to the Torrens bill. The Monroe Enquirer says: "At this time resting under an adverse report by the judiciary committee, the measure seems to be laid upon a cooling board for this session. While we would not wrongfully raise a suspicion against our lawyer friends who compose the judiciary committee exclusively, we cannot help but think the bill would have fared better in the hands of some other committee. It is not natural that these gentlemen would see the need of sweeping away a system that is highly promotive of litigation and fees. We say in all sincerity, that these gentlemen should not be expected to see the necessity for this change, or be blamed for not seeing it. But if we are ever going to get the change, the fact still remains that we must get it from some other source than the judiciary committee." Which seems to be letting our lawyer friends down easy.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Tortured for 15 Years.

By a cure-defying stomach trouble that baffled doctors, and resisted all remedies he tried, John M. Modders, of Moddersville, Mich., seemed doomed. He had to sell his farm and give up work. His neighbors said, "he can't live much longer." "Whatever I ate distressed me," he wrote, "till I tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for me that I can now eat things I could not take for years. Its surely a grand remedy for stomach troubles" as good for the liver and kidneys. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c at all druggists.

Waking Up Down East.

Mr. J. T. W. Broom, who is permanently connected with the State department of agriculture, spent Sunday at home, having just completed a tour of the counties of Harnett, Robeson, Scotland, Bladen, Columbus, Brunswick, Cumberland. Two to four institutes for farmers were held in each county. While some of these counties are well known for their fertility and big crops, some of them are just waking up on the agricultural line. The ancient occupation of these counties was the gathering of pine lumber and turpentine, but that is passing out now and the people are furnishing their attention to modern lines of agriculture. But all of them are alive to the question of good roads, and Mr. Broom says that he has not been in a county in which bonds have not been voted for road improvement. He left last night to hold institutes at Louisburg, Franklinton, Oxford, and Creedmore.—Monroe Journal.

Life Saved at Death's Door.

"I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patterson, of Wellington, Texas, when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years." Quick, safe, sure, its the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup and all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

If your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind.

An Egg Romance.

Among all the strange workings of imagination and the marvelous adventures of old romances, there could scarcely be found a story to match that of the South Dakota grocer's clerk and the New York heiress, who have just realized their affinity through the medium of a soft-boiled egg.

According to the veracious news dispatch, a young man of Alexandria, S. D., while packing a crate of eggs wrote his name and address together with the date on one of the biggest of the oval. Three weeks passed by, and then one morning a beautiful young woman in far-away Brooklyn, N. Y., found this very egg by her breakfast plate.

The handwriting had a certain artistic flourish that caught her eye, and what was more important the egg was perfectly fresh. This last fact she interpreted as a token that something wonderful was in store for her.

And so, half playfully, she wrote the grocer's clerk away off in Dakota, telling him how she admired his honest eggs and also his sentiment in inscribing his name upon its shell. Forthwith, the clerk replied. Photographs were exchanged. A week later he went to Brooklyn on a visit. His suit prospered, and now his friends out west have received wedding announcements tastefully penned on egg shells that are wrapped in cotton.—Atlanta Journal.
