Suicide Near New Bern—Hull Starm at Wilmington—Homicide in Lee County—Criminal Assault in Duplin County—Negro Tries to Kill His Family in Concord.

While burning off some old straw in a field near Hookerton, last Saturday morning, the clothing of Mrs. Mary Heath caught fire and she was burned to death, despite the frantic efforts of her daughter, who had been assisting her in burning the straw, to extinguish the flames of her mother's burning clothing. The daughter herself was badly burned, as was a horse who was in the field hitched to a plow. The fire burned more rapidly than the woman expected and caught her in a trap, before she was aware of it. Mrs. Heath was a widow and an industrious woman, who was loved and respected by her neighbors.—Kinston Free Press.

Feeling against J. S. Sugar, the Jewish merchant at Snow Hill, who was bound over to court under a $500 bond on the charge of arson, has undergone a great change, after a fuller investigation of the disastrous fire which occurred there last week. The weight of public sentiment has acquitted him of any criminal connection with that fire. In chronicling the news, the Free Press but stated the facts as they were presented. However, the paper takes pleasure in giving Mr. Sugar the benefit of this public statement and hopes that a full investigation will exonerate him entirely.—Kinston Free Press.

Out of a dense, black cloud, which swept down upon the city with a startling suddenness, yesterday, after noon at 6 o'clock, came one of the worst hail storms that has visited Wilmington and vicinity in ten years, in the opinion of many. Except the smashing of several skylights, there was no damage in the city, but it is feared that truck throughout this section has suffered, information regarding which was not obtained last night on account of the fact that the electrical storm accompanying the hail prevailed until a late hour and those having telephones in the country were afraid to answer the calls.—Wilmington Star.

Jonesboro, March 14.—The first white homicide to occur in Lee county since its establishment took place three and a half miles east of Jonesboro yesterday morning, when Mr. M. A. Wood killed Dr. J. C. Cox, by striking him across the head with a piece of pipe. It seems that they fell out over a shop account. Dr. Cox denied owing the account, and it is alleged that Mr. Wood then struck Dr. Cox while sitting on a log at Mr. Wood's mill. It is reported that there was only one eye witness to the killing. Mr. Wood has made his escape, though the sheriff and a posse of men are in search of him.

Will Cannon, a half-witted negro, was arrested yesterday on the farm of Mr. J. P. Allison, in No. 2 township and is now in jail. In a fit of insanity Saturday night Cannon attempted to murder his entire family, assaulting his step-son with a razor. The boy managed to keep away from him until he secured a poker and knocked Cannon down. The neighbors came to the rescue and when the officers arrived yesterday Cannon was bound and tied securely with a strong rope. Arrangements are now being made to place him in the asylum at Goldsboro.—Concord Tribune.

New Bern, N. C., March 13.—Yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock, Miss Mattie Barrington, 18 years old, daughter of Jesse Barrington, of Ernuls, a small station on the Norfolk Southern railroad, seven miles from Newbern, committed suicide by blowing part of her head off with a double barrel shot gun. She went into an unoccupied room, loaded the gun with No. 4 shot, placed it on the floor and against her head and then touched the trigger. Ill health is supposed to be the cause of the deed.

AUCTION SALE OF LOTS.

An Item of Much Interest to Greenville.

On another page of this issue appears the advertisement of an auction sale of real estate to be held in Greenville on March 23rd, beginning at 10 o'clock. The map accompanying this advertisement shows the relation of the property to the business section of the town.

With the Training school on one side, the city hall, market and municipal building being immediately across the street on the other side, necessitating everybody who lives in or visits Greenville passing the property, naturally makes this some of the very best business property in Eastern North Carolina. The future of this property is immeasurable, for every advancement made by the town or the school will enhance the value of such property, and every business man in the eastern part of North Carolina should be interested in the sale.

In addition to the above, there will be sold on the same day some very desirable residence property, and this opportunity to get a home or make a good investment should not be missed.

QUEEN AND CRESCENT STRIKE.

Causing Riot and Bloodshed in Kentucky.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Burnside, Ky., March 15.—Reports here are that the strike on the Queen and Crescent has caused the death or injury of at least 20 persons. "They are slaughtering them right and left," said a fireman as he pulled into the Somerset yards today. Mobs continue to take negro firemen off trains and shoot up engines. Dead and wounded negroes are said to be hidden to conceal the number of casualties.

Stock Sold by Receiver.

The stock of the Central Mercantile Company was sold at public auction this morning by the receiver, Mr. C. M. Jones. It was purchased by Mr. R. O. Jeffries, his bid being 59 cents on the dollar. The stock and fixtures will inventory approximately $10,000. There were a large number of people at the sale.

terday afternoon a young woman, about twenty-one, a daughter of J. W. Judge, a farmer residing about 12 miles from Rose Hill, in Duplin county, was criminally assaulted by a negro, and is reported as being in a serious condition. Posses searched all last night for the negro and scoured the surrounding country today. This afternoon a negro was arrested at Mangolia who filled the description of the negro brute, but there is doubt about his being the man wanted.

Statesville, March 14.—Cleve McBride, the notorious blockader, who was shot in Yadkin county more than a month ago by a posse of Iredell officers who were attempting to arrest him, and who after being under guard at the home of Jim Hayes in Yadkin for two or three weeks while his wounds healed finally gave $500 bond for his appearance at Iredell Superior court for blockading, was re-arrested Saturday in Davie county by Sheriff Sprinkle, of Davie and Deputy Baity, of Iredell, and is now in jail here awaiting trial.

Wilmington, March 14.—An election is to be held here tomorrow to pass upon the adoption of the commission form of government bill and this afternoon it was found that the registration books of the Third ward, having about 700 votes, and in the very heart of the city, had been either misplaced or stolen. The books were not to be found when the registrar went to the office of the city clerk and treasury, but this fact was not learned until this afternoon, the impression of some being that it did not matter, as all desiring to vote could register on the day of election.

Wilson, March 14.—Although bills of indictment have been returned against four of the Lewis West crowd for murder in the first degree, counsel for the prosecution have decided to try only two of the gang under this charge. These are Lewis West and Ed. Purcell, alias Stetson. It is now well established that these two were in Mary Young's house when Deputy Sheriff George Mumford was murdered and that both fired shots.

LOOKS MORE AND MORE LIKE INVASION OF MEXICO

CALL MADE FOR MILITARY MAPS

Several Carloads of Heavy Projectiles for Artillery.

By Wire to The Reflector.

San Antonio, Tex., March 15.—A levy made upon the war department today for technical military maps of northern Mexico added a new element of affirmation to the report that the soldiers of the division encamped in the department of Texas will invade the southern republic. This is the most significant move made since the soldiers camped at Fort Sam Houston. The mimic attack on Galveston which was to have been the principal feature of the war game has been abandoned, at least for the time being. The only maneuvers now contemplated consist in marches which will take the troops nearer to the Rio Grande. Several carloads of heavy projectiles for the artillery arrived today and was not unloaded. This is also regarded as significant.

A Pointer to Farmers.

The Sun is always glad to aid the farmers and do what it can for their advancement and the promotion of their industries and give them a greater success.

Mr. W. C. Bradsher, the buyer for the A. T. Company, gives us a hint, and we use it in the hope that it will be beneficial to the farmers and at the same time enable them to realize better results from the sale of their tobacco. The suggestion is this:

Before planting tobacco seed blow the seed carefully to get out the chaff or faulty seed, and in this way you can rid the planting of seed that will make a faulty stalk of tobacco. Or else, another way is to put the seed in water just before planting, and this will bring all of the faulty seed to the top and can easily be discovered.

The farmers are requested to do this before they sow their plant bed, and thus improve the next crop. Such a precaution has been known to increase the value of crops in other states to a very handsome per cent. It is worth trying.—Durham Sun.

Why He Was Not Promoted.

He watched the clock.
He was always grumbling.
He was always behind hand.
He had no iron in his blood.
He was willing, but unfit.
He didn't believe in himself.
He asked too many questions.
His stock excuse was "I forgot."
He wasn't ready for the next step.
He did not put his heart in his work.

He learned nothing from his mistakes.

He felt that he was above his position.

He chose his friends among his inferiors.

He was content to be a second rate man.

He ruined his ability by half doing things.

He never dared to act on his own judgment.

He did not think it worth while to learn how.

He tried to make "bluff" take the place of hard work.

He thought more of amusements than getting on in the world.

Familiarity with slipshod methods paralyzed his ideal.—Ex.

Rotation for Farm Conditions.

Now is the time to plan crop rotations for the farm and while changes may be made, if necessary, it will be found most satisfactory to lay out the fields and plan the crop rotations so that there will be system and method in the farming operations. A lawyer or doctor may spend weeks studying one case, why should we not put our best thought and considerable time in planning a rotation of crops for the farm? Surely the importance of the matter merits our best efforts.—Progressive Farmer.

Died.

Mr. D. T. House died Tuesday at his home near House station. He leaves one son, Mr. A. R. House, of Bonami, La.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AROUND WINTERVILLE

Things That Are Going on in Our Neighbor Town.

Winterville, N. C., March 15.—Miss Elizabeth Boushall, who has been visiting her father, near Bel Cross, returned Tuesday.

Mr. Fountain Cox, who is attending school at Wake Forest, spent a few hours at home Monday night.

If you need a nice pair of spring slippers, call and examine our line before buying.—A. W. Ange & Company.

Remember that Dr. W. R. Cullon, Wake Forest, will lecture in the Baptist church Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

Don't forget the Ledbetter cotton and corn planters at A. W. Ange & Co.'s.

Miss Mary Smith, of Ayden, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Pearl Hester.

Mr. Lonnie and Miss Lizzie Whitley students of Winterville High School, were called home Monday morning on account of their mother being very ill.

The regular monthly missionary meeting was held in the Baptist church Sunday night. They had an excellent program.

Mr. Eugene Cannon spent Sunday at Mr. T. B. Smith's.

Miss Mimie Cox, who is teaching in Ahoskie, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Mr. Bob. Abbott and Mr. Ernest Cox spent Sunday in Ayden.

Mr. W. J. Harris is all smiles this morning—it is a girl.

For spring and summer pants, the best that can be had for the money, see Harrington, Barber & Company.

WHEN A GIRL SWEARS OFF.

Experience of a Durham Young Lady in Her Father's Clothes

There is a certain girl in our city (Durham) who has quite recently thrown down the armor and declares that woman suffrage, the harem skirt and even the divided riding skirt is a nuisance, an idiotic notion, something that women should steer clear of and wear the proverbial garment, even to the extent of the "hook-skirt".

One night last week this girl (we don't intend to call names) got the spirit of mischief into her lovely head and went forth with an idea to scare things up in general. She donned her father's clothes, shoes and hat, while the other members of the family, with a few guests, were in complete ignorance of her intentions. When her attire was complete she, with a stealthy step, made her way around the house, pulled her hat over her eyes and peeped in the window. The desired results happened. Her sister caught a glimpse of her, screamed, hollered "there is a 'nigger' looking in the window," went into hysterics, and then the chase. When "Miss Mischief" started to retrace she saw her brother headed her way and also saw in his hand a 32-calibre gleaming in the moonlight. She turned and confronted her father with a Winchester No. 2, she didn't faint or scream or do any of the little stunts characteristic of her sex, she simply backed up in a corner of the house, just as a bullet from the Winchester whizzed over her head. She waited as the steps from both directions drew close.

"We've got him," exclaimed her brother in a Sherlock Holmes voice. "You don't mean it," said Miss Mischief, with a perfect ripple of laughter.

That's all except we venture to say there are two men in town who feel like thirty cents, and a certain plucky girl who exclaims, "Never again!"—Durham Sun.

Curious Remedies.

Curious remedies for children's diseases have been found in many countries where superstition prevailed. It was believed in Ireland that any child would be cured of whooping cough if he were placed on the back of a donkey marked with a cross and the beast was led to a cross road. The doubtless cross—on the donkey and in the roads—gave the charm its potency. The blood of a black cat was regarded as a cure for the shingles.

Mr. J. R. Rives came in Tuesday evening from Baltimore.

THE GREAT ITALIAN CAMORA TRIAL BEGINS

TWO JURIES ARE DRAWN

Thirty-Nine Members of the Band to be Tried.

By Cable to The Reflector.

Viterbo, Italy, March 15.—After three days of effort a jury was finally produced today to try 39 members of the Camora on trial for the murder of a member of their own society, and for sitting of other crimes laid at the doors of the international band of Terrorists. In reality two juries were secured, and other provision are made in the event something happens to any members of the other jury.

A DANGEROUS SITUATION.

Calls For Circumspection

If Mexico were to plant a large army and navy on the edge of the United States, with the announcement that these forces were to be used against us in case we did not handle our affairs to suit Mexico, what would happen?

Mexico is a peaceful neighbor of the United States. It has scrupulously observed American rights, and has not committed any act of hostility. Mexico's troubles are her own. Why, then, should the United States make an armed demonstration against Mexico?

If nothing happens on the Mexican border this great military demonstration will have cost the United States a lot of money uselessly. If something does happen, it will be because the United States has precipitated it by this warlike move.

We are convinced that the people of the United States do not want war. They do not want Mexico, and they do not wish to intermeddle in Mexican international troubles. They do not care whether Diaz or the revolutionists win. They are concerned with their own affairs, and are anxious that this country should be at peace abroad and tranquil at home, so that every man can devote himself to his own business.

It would be an irremediable step if an American army should enter Mexico. No man can tell the consequences of such a move. The effect upon the administration, the changed relations with Mexico and the rest of Latin America, the attitude of foreign powers—these are a sealed book. All that can be said with certainty is that any step in the direction of the occupation of Mexico is most momentous and fear-reaching, and should be considered long and carefully.

The massing of troops on the Mexican border is a step toward the occupation of Mexico. It may not be so intended, but the effect may be the same as if the order contemplated the capture of the City of Mexico. If a clash should occur between American and Mexican troops, the American army will march forward. It will never turn backward until the City of Mexico is occupied, and perhaps not then.

Nothing is easier than to make a demonstration of military force. The military advisers of the president may be depended upon to make the most of the argument that a prompt display of force will tend to prevent trouble and disrupt the revolution in Mexico. But this advice is freighted with menace to the peace of the United States. There are greater factors involved, which the military men may not estimate at their full value.

The situation calls for circumspection on the part of the United States government, and a rigid control over the troops that are pouring into Texas and California.—Washington Post.

The Right Place to Advertise

The business man who neglects to promote his business by means of an advertisement in The Reflector, is certainly missing an opportunity. This paper is read eagerly every day by its more than twelve-hundred subscribers, as well as by other members of their families, to say nothing of the additional large number of borrowers. In fact every person who can get a hand on the paper reads it, not only the news but also the advertisements, and it is the place where business announcements should be placed to be read.

All men are born free and equal—but some deteriorate until they find themselves in the legislature.

Get Enough Horse Power.

I was once talking with a State commissioner of agriculture, and remarked that when I was farming on a large scale I used ten mules. He said, "That is too many. A four-horse farm is all that one man should have," and his idea of a four-horse farm, was a tract of land on which, where I now live no one would think of using less than eight horses. On such a farm as this man indicated, every one of the four horses would be hitched to a plow to plow the land for the crop, and every plow would take a man, and the plowing would be about three inches deep, while the eight horses would take no more men, but the team would plow at least six inches deep, and the same four men would cultivate a far larger area with two-horse riding cultivators. We need to get away from the old idea of estimating a farm by horses, and should use all the horses we can make profitable.—W. F. Massey, in Progressive Farmer.

Cut the Nickel in Two.

Will the Federal government oblige many citizens by coining some 2 1-2 cent pieces? we need them every hour. They would help to simplify many commercial problems, including some problems of street railway transportation. Half-cent pieces would be a nuisance and create unnecessary and troublesome commercial disturbance, but a coin that would represent the half of 5 cents would be a help.

Cut the nickel in two for us, Messrs. Congressmen. It would help the consumer and at the same time stimulate the exchange of commodities.—From Life.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15, 1911.

If you can't boost, quit trying to make a noise.

Woodrow Wilson is growing as a presidential possibility.

Mr. Bryan has been to see Governor Wilson. Wonder what he thinks of him?

No, you don't have to go out and hunt for mud, it comes to the door. But still it will not stay long.

The headline to an editorial in an exchange reads "Excuse for Suffragettes." We do not believe there is any.

Mr. Bryan says that the modern newspaper has lost much prestige and influence. And Mr. Bryan is editing a paper.

If the New York legislature holds together until it elects a United States senator, the outlook is for a long session.

Greenville is not a good town for burglars to plan to operate in. We have officers here who do things, and it is not safe for some folks to come this way.

Lightning is getting in its deadly work early this season. Already two fatalities from lightning have occurred in this State, with the season for storms hardly begun.

Mexico certainly did have a scare over our troops mobilizing on the border. When Uncle Sam moves his fighting boys it is enough to make any of them sit up and take notice.

The campaign preceding the coming municipal election in Charlotte is certainly developing into something warm, and the opposing candidates are using advertising space right along to tell their respective sides of the controversy.

Weather conditions will form no obstruction to Easter coming at the appointed time, and preparations for that event will go right along with the fair sex. Hence the importance of the advertiser not waiting on the weather to tell of his offerings.

Pitt county will in a few months more have a new court house, one of the finest and most modernly constructed in the state, and every citizen of the county will be proud of it. The Reflector wants to say here and now that the honor of presiding over the first court to be held in this new court house should fall upon Judge Harry W. Whedbee, and we hope the matter will be taken up in time for the governor to make such an exchange between judges as will permit this honor to come to him

After noting that the London hotels are to charge $50 a day during the coronation, the Greenville Reflector declares that this "precludes our going, and our friends across the pond can take notice that we will not be there." Umph! Queer kind of friends Whichard must have, to expect him to bring his lunch and hire his own bed when he goes to see 'em.—Wilmington Dispatch.
They are not all as clever to us as you are, Jim.

The Reflector will certainly be glad when it succeeds in hammering into the minds of the people the fact that Greenville needs more manufacturing enterprises. The growth of our population is slow because people cannot afford to move to a town unless they can find some employment there. If there were started up in Greenville manufacturing enterprises to give employment to an additional thousand people, the thousand people would be here in a very short time. Every additional citizen helps the town that much.

The Blade and the Ear.
The Greenville Reflector is not a little disgruntled over the scantiness of the sum set aside by the legislature for the Eastern Carolina Training School. Our contemporary cites the excellent work that the school is doing and declares that although not yet two years old this institution has become so popular that many applications have to be denied for lack of room. It thinks under the circumstances that there should have been an appropriation for extension and improvements as well as for maintenance and support.

We cannot fail to recognize the naturalness of The Reflector's attitude, but none the less we counsel patience on its part. The entire state finds cause for great satisfaction in the work which is being accomplished at the Greenville institution, but its progress, owing to the necessities of the case, must and will be gradual. While the people are thoroughly alive to the importance of public education, the demands for money in this direction are already very large. The university, the A. & M. College, the state Normal have needs which are nothing short of imperative. We believe that the legislature showed commendable impartiality in doing its best for each of the four higher institutions. That it could not do much more for all is certainly a matter of regret, but the state's income can not be handled as if it were made of rubber and indefinitely elastic.

The Eastern Carolina Training School has more than justified its establishment. Not only are its regular courses proving valuable but the summer months are being used for normal training that must make itself felt in the public schools during the years immediately before us. The energy and intelligence which have been displayed in its inception are excellent guarantees that this standard will be maintained. Extensions and improvements will come—not as fast as they might be utilized, but none the less surely. To come into its own in the fullest sense the young school has but to manifest a willingness to do first-class work with what equipment it possesses. This willingness is and has been in evidence. It is a case of "first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear."—Charlotte Observer.

Attacks School Principal.
A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, biliousness and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50c at all druggists.

DON'T PULL OUT GRAY HAIRS.
No Longer Necessary, Says A Writer.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that nature needs assistance. It is nature's call for help. Gray hairs, dull lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grand parents used. The best preparation of this kind is Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage, and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Weyth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by Moye's Pharmacy.

Nitrate of Soda for Grain Crops.

If wheat or oats do not seem to thrive as they should, it is a good practice to apply some nitrate of soda. I have used as much as 100 pounds an acre on wheat, always applying when the leaves are dry, to avoid scalding. In one experiment I increased the wheat crop nine bushels an acre on part of the field with an application of 100 pounds of nitrate, this part making 19 bushels where the rest of the field made 10 bushels, the land being in rather a low state of fertility. But I followed that wheat with peas and gathered only the peas, and the next season that land made a fine corn crop. Could have made a heavier one had I followed the peas with crimson clover, but at that time we had not found out the value of this clover.—W. F. Massey, in Progressive Farmer.

Whither Are We Drifting?
The citizens of the United States are witnessing a spectacle perhaps never before seen in modern times. The chief executive calls the nation to arms and leaves on a vacation. His secretary of state also goes on a pleasure tour and the assistant to the secretary is preparing to "trek" away from the capital. And to add to the gravity of the situation, it is stated that the chief executive and his secretary are at outs over calling the army into the field, the former acting in the matter without the advice of the latter.

The question might aptly be asked: Is the army a big alarm clock, which can be set to run until a certain designated time, when it will call the officials to duty? Indeed we have cause to inquire, whither are we drifting?—Salisbury Post.

NEWSPAPER PRESS FOR SALE.

Having placed an order for a new fast newspaper and book press, to be installed the middle of April, we have a newspaper press that will be sold at a bargain for delivery May 1st.

It is a Monona Leverless Press, large enough to print four 6-column pages, or two 9-column pages and has steam fixtures so that it can be run either by hand or power. Been in use six years.

It is a splendid press for a weekly paper and is in good condition to do many years good service. We used a press from the same factory for 17 years before installing this one, printing a daily paper with small circulation about 10 years of that time. Its speed, 800 an hour, is too slow for a daily paper with the present circulation of The Reflector, and for that reason we are having to displace it with a faster press.

Any one interested and wanting a good press for a weekly newspaper, can see this press at work every day in the Reflector building, before our new press is installed. Any one who cannot come to see it at work and examine it, can get particulars by addressing

AIR PRESSURE WATER SYSTEM
 Water under pressure for kitchen, laundry, bathroom, sprinkling lawn and garden, watering stock and for fire protection.

An air-tight steel tank in the basement, or in an out house, stores the water as it is pumped by hand or power and forces it through the pipes and faucets by compressed air in the upper portion of the tank. No elevated or attic tank to freeze and become stagnant. Water kept cool, clean and pure.

If you want anything of the kind, see me and I can make you low prices on the complete system installed in your home or farm.

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lots of it in Greenville, But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help. Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed. Not one so important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble. It is the kidney's cry for help. Head it.

Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted. Are just what overworked kidneys need.

They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work; never fail to cure any case of kidney disease. Mrs. Disco Pittman, Walnut St., Tarboro, N. C., says: "For some time I had not been feeling well and thought that my kidneys might be disordered, as my back was very weak and the kidney secretions annoying. My husband got me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and since using them, my back has become stronger and my kidneys have been normal. I am now feeling much better in every way and therefore am willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Great Wall of China.

But it would have been well worth while to make the trip if we had gotten nothing else but the view of and from the Great Wall at the end of the journey. About two thousand miles of stone and brick, twenty-seven feet high, and wide enough on top for two carriages to drive abreast, this great structure built two thousand years ago to keep the wild barbarian Northern tribes out of China, is truly "the largest building on earth," and one of the world's greatest wonders. It would be amazing if it would only over plains and lowlands, but where we saw it this morning it climbed one mountain height after another until the topmost point towered for above us, dizzy, stupendous, magnificent. By what means the thousands and thousands of tons of rock and brick were ever carried up to the sheer steep mountain sides, is a question that must excite traveler's wonder. Certainly no one who has walked on top of the great wall, climbing among the clouds from one misty eminence to another, as we did today, can ever forget the experience. Perhaps it was well enough, too, that the weather was not clear. The mists that hung about the mountain peaks below and around us; the roaring wind that shepherded the clouds, now driving them swiftly before him and leaving in clear view for a minute peak after peak and valley after valley, the next minute brushing great fog-masses over wall and landscape and concealing all from view—all this lent an element of mystery and majesty to the experience not out of keeping with our thought of the long centuries which this strange guard has kept watch around earth's oldest Empire. Dead, long dead and crumbled into dust, even when our Christian era began, were the hands who fashioned these earlier brick and laid them in the mortar here, and for many generations thereafter watchmen armed with bows and arrows rode along the battlements and towers, straining their eyes for sight of whatever enemy might be bold enough to try to cross the mighty barrier.

However unwise the spirit or the aim in which the wall was built, we must admire the almost matchless daring of the conception and the almost unparalleled industry of the execution. Beside it the digging of our Panama Canal with modern machinery, engines, steam power and electricity—considered as a feat of Herculean labor—is no longer a subject for boasting. To my mind, the very fact that the Chinese people had the courage to conceive and attempt so colossal an enterprise is proof enough of genuine greatness. No feeble folk could even have planned such an undertaking—Clarence Poe, in Progressive Farmer.

Has Millions of Friends.

How would you like to number your friends by millions as Bucklen's Arnica Salve does? Its astounding cures in the past forty years made them. Good Story of Archbishop Ryan.

Memories have been freshened by the death of Archbishop Ryan, and many incidents in his life are being told by those who knew him. Among them, one that he took great pleasure in telling himself, is the following: At the breaking of ground for one of the new buildings for the Catholic university at Washington Cardinal Gibbons was officiating. He turned over a large piece of grass-covered earth, when it was discovered that there had been a hitch in the ceremony.

"Well," said the cardinal, "I suppose that we will have to dig another sod."

"Oh, no, no," said Archbishop Ryan, "never go back on the old sod."

A Fierce Night Alarm.

Is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, O., (R. R. No. 2.) for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks" he wrote, "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, hay fever, lagrippe, whooping cough, hemorrhages fly before it: 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by all druggists.

THIN HAIR NO TOP.

A Dose of Parisian Sage in Time Multiplies one Hair by Nine.

Young men, old men, middle age men, all begin to worry when the hair thins out on top of the head, and the bald spot is getting ready to appear in public.

They don't know what to do; they get rattled, ask advice, try specialists, listen to barbers and do everything they ought not to do.

To these men we want to say that Coward & Wooten has a prescription for the hair called Parisian Sage, and if it will not cause hair to grow where the hair is thinning out, nothing on this earth will.

And we want to say to everybody, man, woman and child, that you can have your money back if Parisian Sage isn't the best hair grower, hair saver, hair beautifier and dandruff cure on the market today.

It stops itching scalp and falling hair, and makes hair grow thick and abundantly. Fifty cents for a large bottle at Coward & Wooten's, and druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.

That Hair.

That hair which you pull off and lay on the bureau before going to bed, lovely woman—we are going to tell you something more about it. First of all it seems to be pretty well sterilized and is all right from that standpoint. The departing Chinaman may have left germs in it, but the manipulator of the product seems to have been doing his work well. Consul George Anderson, of Hong Kong, contributes quite an entertaining article on the hair supply, to the Daily Consular and Trade Reports. It seems that an American has got on to the business over there and is working hair into the most modern shapes for the export trade. The hair is first combed into lengths. It is then washed in soda, soft soap, and ammonia, is dried, and then boiled for one day in plain water. It is again dried, and then treated with four or five chemicals, according to its condition, to sterilize, preserve and render it fit for use. It is then bleached, washed again, and prepared in different colors and packed.

How many pounds of hair do you wear, and how much did you pay for it? A woman with a good head of hair paid, probably, five or six dollars for it, and the hair would scarcely weigh over 6 or 8 ounces. Yet this Chinese hair, in the raw, sells over there for 57 cents a pound. But the manipulation of it is no doubt worth the difference.—Charlotte Chronicle.

A man seldom gets to the front by going back on his friends.

Stocks.

New York, March 15.—The stock market opened irregular, initial falling off being due to realizing. Despite selling orders, traders were disposed to believe that the upward tendency of the market had not reached its end. Stocks thrown on the market were readily absorbed. Harrison and Hill issue were particularly strong. New high record was made for Canadian Pacific. Missouri Pacific opened with an advance of 1-2. Industrial market was quiet and steady.

Grain.

Chicago, March 15.—Wheat and corn opened easier. Trade in oats was light and prices steady to a shade lower. Provisions showed a weak tone and trade was light.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of a mortgage executed and delivered by Marcellus Little and wife, Sarah Little, to the Central Mercantile Company, on January 8th, 1910, which mortgage was duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Pitt county, in Book G-9, page 121, the undersigned will sell for cash, before the court house door in Greenville, on Saturday, April 15, 1911, the following described tract or parcel of land, situate in the county of Pitt and in Pactolus township, adjoining the lands of R. R. Fleming and others: Beginning in the public road at an iron pin, Tilda Riddick's fourth corner; then with her line south 79 east 1737 feet to Tilda Riddick's third corner; thence south 12 west 823 feet to an iron pin, Louisa Little's second corner; then with her line north 80-45 west 1757 feet to an iron pin in the public road; then with said road north 12 east 870 feet to the beginning, containing 34 acres, more or less. Said land sold to satisfy said mortgage. This March 14th, 1911.

Embezzler Taken to Raleigh for Trial

Deputy Sheriff Falls, of Wake county, spent last night in the city on his way to Raleigh from Lenoir City, Tenn., where he went to get J. B. Gurley, who is charged with embezzlement.

Until a few weeks ago Gurley has been overseer of the Apex Knitting mills at Apex. It is alleged that he has embezzled about $400. He left the city about six weeks ago, and was recently arrested in Lenoir City, where he had been engaged in a similar line of work. Gurley is a young married man without any children, and it is said, comes from a good family. He stood well in Apex and the people of the town were surprised that he should be charged with any such offense as he was arrested for.—Asheville Citizen.

Maybe a woman figures it out it is better to trust her husband because he might be worse if she didn't.
