

BAD FIRE IN N. Y. CAPITOL

HANDSOME STATE BUILDING
DAMAGED $10,000,000

AND THERE WAS NO INSURANCE

Several Wings of The Building Destroyed and Entire Structure Narrowly Escapes—Night Watchman Missing and Supposed to Have Perished.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Albany, N. Y., March 29.—Fire swept the $26,000,000 state capitol building early today, destroying the senate assembly and state library, with their priceless records, doing damage estimated at from $7,000,000 to $10,000,000, and probably causing the death of the night watchman, Samuel Abbott, who is missing. The fire started at 2:30 a. m., in a room on the third floor used by Assemblyman A. J. Levy, and was swept by high wind across intervening courts to the old wings. The western, northwestern and southwestern wings were destroyed.

At eight o'clock the fire was still burning in the west wing but was under control. The entire fire fighting force of the city battled against the fire for five hours before they were sure of saving the senate and assembly chambers. The fire was well under way when discovered, and fed by tons of paper in the library room caused it to spread rapidly. Legislators aided the fire fighters. Night watchman Abbott was employed to patrol the library wings. He is missing.

The fire is believed to have started from electric wires, as insulation was gone from some of them and steps were being taken to repair them. Thousands of people gathered about the fire. The roofs fell in at six o'clock. Governor Dix who was present then placed the loss at $7,000,000. Much damage was done.

The Democratic caucus had just adjourned when the fire was discovered and many legislators were still up. The wings were constructed of stone and supposed fire proof, but the partitions and furnishings were of wood, and there were many ornaments of inflammable material that helped to feed the flames. There was no insurance.

FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT

Annual Meeting of State Association in Charlotte in May.

The detailed program of the annual tournament and meeting of the North Carolina Firemen's Association, over which a great deal of interest and enthusiasm has been created in four states, has been finished by the committees in charge and the invitations are mailed to the North Carolina Firemen. It is proposed to take in the states of North and South Carolina, Virginia and Georgia, but the invitations to these latter will be sent out later. The committee expects to have present between 2,000 and 3,000 firemen, the majority, of course, being from the Tar Heel State. Handsome prizes aggregating several thousand dollars will be awarded at this contest.

The event will be in the nature of a "Twentieth of May" celebration at Charlotte, the four days selected being May 16, 17, 18 and 19. The program is more than a mere program of events, containing all information that visitors may wish to know concerning this event.

Tobacco and Hook Worm.

A Winston-Salem physician is quoted as saying that tobacco is a good remedy for the hook worm. For the sting of the poisonous insects it has long been considered a first-rate antidote. Years ago the late Major Clingman, of this state, prepared a concoction composed largely of tobacco that he claimed was good for some of the "ills that flesh is heir to." Tobacco has heretofore been considered only as a luxury. But science is ever busy and the usefulness of the weed may yet be duly recognized in the world of medicine.—Union Republican.

A CALCULATION REVISED.

North Carolina Will Go Forward in Good Roads Building.

State Geologist Joseph Hyde Pratt has recently issued some good roads figures to which it may be profitable to devote special attention. During 1910 the total mileage in North Carolina which was specially surfaced—sand-clay, gravel and macadam included—amounted to 859 miles. Adding the mileage reported from the various counties, there are in this state 46,850 miles of public road, of which 4,618 miles have been improved. This leaves more than 42,000 miles still lacking permanent improvement. At the rate of 850 miles a year it will require in the neighborhood of half a century to complete the task which the good roads enthusiasts have set themselves.

Such a reflection would be somewhat discouraging were it not for the fact that the figures quoted do not by any means tell the whole story. No one conversant with the situation believes that North Carolina will have to wait anything like fifty years for a State-wide system of good roads. In the first place, there are thousands of miles of roads which need only the persistent and intelligent use of the split-log drag to put them in excellent condition considering the amount of traffic passing over them. "This little machine," says Dr. Pratt, "will enable any county to maintain its dirt roads in first-class condition at very small expense." Under the circumstances the rapid spread of knowledge and appreciation of the split-log drag is of first importance to the good roads cause. County after county is taking it up, and when its use shall have become uniform the period of fifty years referred to will have been materially reduced.

Again, no one believes that 859 miles is the best North Carolina can do in the way of annual road building. The movement is still comparatively young and much of the hard work of former years has not yet borne fruit. A little later the annual mileage built will increase by leaps and bounds. Counties a little backward now will become converted by the example of more aggressive neighbors. "There is not a single instance of a prosperous county" reports a correspondence of the Statesville Landmark who has traveled the state from ocean to mountains within the past three years, "where there has been no effort toward the betterment of the public highways. In every county where there has been considerable effort put forth in building good roads there is an alertness and a business air that are felt at once by the observant traveler."

Such a spirit is invariably contagious. It will spread with increasing force until approximately every township in North Carolina is alive to the importance of maintaining the best possible highways. There will not be required more than a few years to give the state a substantial system provided each well-informed man does his duty in preaching and practicing the gospel of good roads. Therefore it will be merely a matter of keeping the roads in condition—a task which must by no means be overlooked but which in the nature of the case will be very much less difficult than the one will succeed.—Charlotte Observer.

A WELL RENDERED PROGRAM

At The Closing of Brown School Near Bethel.

There are school closings and school closings. It is seldom that one reads of a poor entertainment at the close of a school, and certainly the mantle of charity should be thrown over failures of this kind.

Sufficient is it to say that it would not be flattery to pronounce the program of songs, dialogues, duets, and recitations rendered at the Brown school house, near Bethel, last Thursday evening, a gem. Not only were the school children who took part, perfectly at ease in their pieces, but their voices rang clear, so as to be heard distinctly in any part of the house.

To Miss Maude Barnhill is due the credit of the splendid training of the children.

It was a matter of general regret that Supt. W. H. Ragsdale could not be present to deliver an address.

MAKE INDUSTRIES PROSPEROUS

This Should Apply to Every Town and Community.

Says the Atlanta Journal: "Nowhere is the loyalty to home interests stronger than among Atlantians. Nothing touches the local pride of the citizens more than to use products made in Atlanta." The reason for the progress and prosperity of Atlanta is thus made plain by what the Journal says. That spirit has made Atlanta, but it is nothing new to the business men and people of that city. To our own knowledge that was Atlanta's policy 25 years ago and probably it dates further back than that.

Atlanta merchants prefer goods manufactured in Atlanta and Atlanta people prefer to buy Atlanta made goods. A manufacturer who opens an establishment in Atlanta is just as sure to be patronized as the sun will rise, for Atlanta's business men will give him their orders and push his goods. Whenever Atlanta makes anything, every Atlanta man is a booster for it. The traveling men put their customers onto it, and they scatter broadcast information about everything made in Atlanta. They put people on to what Atlanta manufactures.

Wilmington merchants and Wilmington people can do the same thing if they will. Quite a number of articles are manufactured in Wilmington and they ought to be purchased by home people. There is no use to name any of the articles, for when they buy anything made in Wilmington it contributes to the success of our industries, and it doesn't compel manufacturers to go out and hunt up trade. We have in mind a door, sash and blind factory, which has advertised in the Star's "business locals" at different times, reminding Wilmingtonians to remember that the factory is in business. Every door, every sash and every blind for new houses in Wilmington ought to be manufactured here. The doors, sash and blinds made in Wilmington are better than those which are brought here from other cities, and not only should our home builders insist on Wilmington building material, but our jobbers ought to give the preference to Wilmington made goods of every description and scatter them broadcast instead of handling some other lines.

Patronizing home industries builds them up and when Wilmington has a number of prosperous industries it will make a thrifty city. It will help every line of business and for that reason no merchant should handle any line of goods unless he gives a preference to the home product. When we practice the Atlanta plan, Wilmington will grow like Atlanta.—Wilmington Star.

Too Low in Both States.

North Carolina land is assessed for taxation at an average of $6.30 an acre. From what we know of the state the valuation is ridiculously low. Thus may be accounted for the fact that the annual revenues of the state have shown a deficiency as against necessary expenditures. "Nor does so low an assessment furnish an attractive advertisement for agricultural settlers from other sections. We have not the figures at hand to show the conditions in Virginia. But if they are similar, there is need for both the lawmakers and the courts to sit up and take notice.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Wilmington Negro Shot and Killed His Wife—14-Year-Old By Murdered in Wilmington—Fire in Kinston—Attempted Suicide in Greensboro.

Thomasville, March 28.—Albert Robinson, a boy at the Thomasville orphanage, found a dynamite cap out in the field Friday afternoon and putting a lighted match to it, an explosion took place, which had the effect of blowing off his thumb and two fingers in an instant.

Greensboro, March 28.—Mrs. Ulysses G. Thompson, of this city, attempted suicide this morning by flinging herself from the second-story window of her room, falling a distance of sixteen feet. She had been ill for several weeks, and during the past few days became hysterical, and it is supposed that her attempt at self-destruction was while out of her normal senses.

Wilmington, March 28.—Angered because she had left home in company with a roomer in their house, Garfield Ford, a respectable sort of negro, tonight shortly before midnight shot and instantly killed his wife, Julia Ford, in Price's alley, in the southern section of the city, whither she had gone with Dave Nixon, colored, who was the cause of the jealousy of the husband. Ford was captured a few minutes later by the police and is in prison. The woman fell over in the alley dead.

Aroused from his slumbers by stifling smoke between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock this morning, Mr. A. J. Thompson, who lives on Chestnut street, discovered his home to be on fire. The flames had made such headway, when Mr. Thompson discovered the fire, that he had barely time to get himself and family out of the building, before the walls and roof fell in. Two children were asleep in the house, and Mr. Thompson wrapped them in the bed and hastily carried them to safety. The building and all its contents were destroyed, including $150 in cash that Mr. Thompson had placed under the head of his bed when he retired for the night. Simultaneously with Mr. Thompson's arising, Mr. Cliff Moore, who lives in an adjoining house, was awakened from sleep to find the building burning down over his head. The fire evidently communicated from Mr. Thompson's house and had not done quite so much damage as to his neighbor's home, but was burning so rapidly that it was impossible for Mr. Moore to save his furniture.—Kinston Free Press.

What is the Lenten Sacrifice?

The Lenten season in two church denominations at least calls for so called personal sacrifices, the giving up of individual pleasures, and such of the world's gravities as might cause the thoughts to turn from religious things, to those of every day frivolities. The force of Lent, is not to come from the purely technical church observance, which gives public display without the inward spiritual living that refuses to be subject to the world-doing this period set apart by the church. But when there is the real retirement from worldly things, that have become the daily selfish gratifications, then with the due church observances, the outside world feels the force of such Christianity, which is displayed, but not with the purpose of securing the applause for personal right doing. Such a change cannot help being noted, and its effect must have a potential good that goes beyond the individual to make its impression upon others.

What is the Lenten sacrifice? Only the individual can truly tell, and well it is so, for like prayer, any publicity would destroy the personal heart impulses, that first thought and then carried to action. No two persons can make identical sacrifices except it may be to give their lives. For this reason who may question or set the limitation as to the extent of the Lenten sacrifice, as it applies to others? The forty and odd days of Lent, with the Easter offering to complete, who may declare for the amount of the offering, for like the entire Lenten season, there is presumed to be the sacrifice at Easter, in the way of money offering, as one has been blessed.

And beyond this Lenten period, are there not days, weeks, months in which the individual life should shine before the world, not ostentatiously, but with the inward spiritual effect? That while unconscious of making the daily sacrifice, yet does so, because trained to the thought and life to live, unselfish.—Newbern Journal

IMPORTANT

Cost of Production all Important in Farming.

European farmers work upon the principle of making the cost of production the essential thing. The American farmer generally speaking, has not looked to this matter, looking to an immense acreage to cover up any deficiency of production, based upon acreage basis. Limited acreage has naturally developed the European to practice an intensive farming through necessity, this working to an advantage. Every cent had to count in this kind of limited cultivation, the dollar going into the cost of production had to be more than realized in the farm's returns, so that every foot cultivated is developed in the highest degree, for failure meant disaster. All this has produced an extreme economical farming, much in contrast to the American prodigality. Take the potato crop, with its average of 88 bushels per acre in this country. The farmer raising 300 bushels boasts of his skill. But take the limited area in England the farmer there often raises 1,000 bushels, while in Belgium 1,600 bushels are raised.

The American farm waste has always been large, because of the very bountifulness of our soils, and the cheapness of the land. The increase in land values is working a benefit, in breaking up the large farms, and the smaller farms are receiving closer attention and being cultivated with the money cost an essential factor. With intensive farming, which comes with the small farm, the agricultural products of this country will increase to a vast extent in value, for there will be a great saving in the cost of production.—Newbern Journal.

COME BACK HOME.

These fellows can't stay away. They pull out and leave North Carolina now and then to go West or somewhere else, but bye and bye they are ready enough to come back. There was "Red Buck" (Mr. H. E. C. Bryant) one of the finest newspaper men in the state, went and hid himself away out in Montana to do pencil stunts out there. But it was no go—or rather, no stay. The call to "come back" got too strong for "Red Buck," and he come. That is just what every other absent down in the heart North Carolinian ought to do. We hate to see our brainiest and best devoting their energies to the upbuilding of other states when the old home needs them so much. There would be less of this going away, too, if North Carolina showed the proper appreciation for her own. Many an ambitious young man is made to feel that he is not given a fair show at home. It is perhaps as much true in North Carolina as any place in the world that "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country."

The Raleigh News and Observer, following its bent, did the state a good service in the legislative edition issued Tuesday. Besides the regular paper with more pages than usual, there was a magazine section of 44 pages giving a review of the work done by the recent legislature and a synopsis of all the acts passed by that body. It is the best information about the legislature that has come from any quarter.

A Thin Evil.

The atmosphere of the south's commercial and political independence has gone a long ways toward inviting the respect and admiration of the world at large. She has lived by that sparkling political honor and courage—abiding firmly in the faith of the aphorism (even in the face of examples like Mr. Taft's recent speech in Atlanta to the contrary where he accused the south of too strong a sentiment) that courage of conviction to her principles will always bring high virtues and great success. Is the south a sentimentalist as claimed by Mr. Taft—be it so! Sentiment is an excellent goods—naturally it has come to be the backbone of that great popular will, which today is awakening the world to the south's supporting record of accomplishment. In the south sentiment has created a friendly co-operation in business—in Mr. Taft's region, an absence of it has produced the bear and the bull proposition.

The folk of the south, all classes of them, however dull, will never fail to see through his Atlanta speech and the open web of such political clap trap. This is true from whatever source it might have proceeded. Mr. Taft has simply attempted to change the trend of thought in the south by an old quack device. In the meantime the south will continue to pursue the ever tenor of her way—emphasizing her great industrial progress, and maintaining her pure political affiliations. She will be pleased to be the gracious hostess always to the president of the nation, whenever he desires to come south, but he might as well attempt to put down an Indian uprising by a resolution of the board of trade as to kill out southern traction which is primarily his aim. HAIR ADVICE

VALUABLE TO THE PREMATURELY GRAY-HAIRED PEOPLE.

What a pity it is to observe so many people with thin and faded hair, and then realize that the most of these people might have a fine, healthy head of hair if they would but use the simple "sage tea" of our grandmothers combined with other ingredients for restoring and preserving the hair. No one, young or old, need have gray hair, weak, thin or falling hair, dandruff or any troubles of the sort if they would but use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. On the contrary, it is possible to have healthy, vigorous hair, of perfect color, by a few applications of this remarkable preparation.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy quickly removes dandruff, leaves the scalp clean and healthy, promotes the growth of the hair and restores the natural color of hair which has become faded or gray. It is a clean wholesome dressing, which may be used at any time and with perfect safety. Don't neglect your hair. Start to-day with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by Boye's Pharmacy, Greenville, N. C.

RADIANT HAIR.

Any Woman Can Have it by Using Parisian Sage.

Madam: If your hair isn't just what you would like it to be why don't you use Parisian Sage?

If it does not put life and luster into the hair and cause it to grow abundantly you can have your money back from Coward & Wooten.

"I cannot say enough in its favor. Two years ago I lost all my hair, I saw Parisian Sage advertised and thought I would try it. Before I had finished using the first bottle my hair had stopped falling and my head was covered with new hair; also removed all dandruff, and today I have a lovely head of hair."

I think Parisian Sage the best hair restorer and dandruff cure in the world today. It also makes the hair clean, fluffy, and silky, and I would recommend it to every one who wishes a hair restorer and beautifier. Miss Mary E. Dickson, 287 South Ave., Bridgeton, N. J., 1910.

For men, women and children, there is no hair preparation that equals Parisian Sage; it never disappoints; it does just what the American makers advertise it to do. It banishes dandruff, kills the dandruff germ, stops falling hair or scalp itching, or money back. Sold by Coward & Wooten, and druggists everywhere. Large bottle 50 cents.

You need never carry another pail of water or even go out of the house on stormy days. Put running water in your home—in the kitchen—bathroom—toilet—and have an adequate supply in the barn for watering stock—washing carriages, harness—for the lawn, garden—or for protection against fire—besides. A makes this possible. It eliminates the unsightly elevated water tank that freezes in winter—or dries out in summer. The compressed air in a Leader Steel tank does all the work. In your cellar or buried in the ground it cools, freezes, and it solves the water problem forever. A complete system costs $45.00 upwards and you can install it yourself, if you like. Let us show you how a Leader Water System in your home will save you money—in doctor's bills, and add to your comfort and satisfaction at the same time. A Leader Water System suited to the needs of your home will never get out of order or need repairs. A few minutes attention each day is all that the apparatus requires.

- The - Ledbetter Planter

Plants Cotton one seed at a time. No skips no bunching. Plants a peck or more to the acre one to six inches apart, always one seed at a time. Saves half the work and labor in chopping. Positive force feed means absolute regularity of drop without cracking or crushing the seed. Each plant has room to grow, though chopping be delayed.

Levels the bed, opens the furrow, plants seed any depth desired one seed at a time and presses earth over seed.

See every seed as it comes from the hopper to spout. Plants Corn one grain at a time, eight inches to forty-eight inches apart. Plants Pea Nuts any quantity desired. TRY THE LEDBETTER. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

NEW YORK AND CHICAGO MARKETS

Stocks.

New York, March 29.—The stock market opening was irregular with fractional gains and losses. The strength which characterized the market yesterday was not in evidence. Canadian Pacific was up 1-4; Consolidated gas was up; Missouri Pacific 1-8; Reading 1-8; and Atchafalaya 1-4; Steel was off 1-8; Amalgamated 5-8. American shares in London were weak.

Cotton.

New York, March 29.—Firmness characterized the opening of the cotton market with gains up to nine points being recorded. May options were up seven points, July nine and October six. Cables were steady, reporting futures fair in demand in Liverpool.

Opening—
March.....	14.22
April.....	14.20
May.....	14.35
July.....	14.18

Grain.

Chicago, March 29.—Further declines all along grain lines marked the opening of the market today. Bulls made an attempt to halt the declines in wheat but failed. Weakness in Liverpool and further moisture in wheat belts were the principal causes of the lower opening. Corn was under some pressure with May slightly lower. Oats showed more strength than other grains. Provisions were easier.

Opening—
May wheat.....	87 3-8
Corn.....	48 1-8
Oats.....	30 1-2
Pork.....	15.70

NOTICE.

North Carolina.—Pitt County. In the Superior court.

J. N. Hart, surviving partner) of Baker & Hart) vs.)

W. H. Harrington, Jr.)

By virtue of an execution directed to the undersigned from the Superior court of Pitt county in the above entitled action, I will, on Monday, the 1st day of May, 1911, at 12 o'clock, noon, at the court house door of said county, sell to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy said execution, all the right, title and interest which the said defendant W. H. Harrington, Jr., has in the following described real estate, lying, being, and situate in the county of Pitt and state of North Carolina, and being the excess over the homestead of the defendant as allotted and set apart to him on the 21st day of March, 1911, to-wit:

1st Tract: The old Samuel H. Langley home place, adjoining the lands of Thos. E. Langley, Geo. W. Daniel, the Dudley heirs, and W. H. Harrington, and containing 300 acres.

2nd Tract: That tract known as the Perry woods tract, adjoining the lands of Adolphus Dudley and others, and containing 25 acres.

3rd Tract: That tract adjoining the lands of G. W. Daniel, Joe Rollins, and others, and containing 60 acres and being the same property conveyed to the defendant by H. E. Daniel by deed, dated October 24th, 1910, and recorded in Book R-9, at page 588.

4th Tract: That tract adjoining the lands of S. E. Nobles, Phyl Highsmith, Wyatt Meeks and others, and containing 62 acres, more or less, and being same tract conveyed to the defendant by Asa Bullock and wife, by deed, recorded in Book U-9, at page 103, of the registry of Pitt county.

This March 28th, 1911.

A Fierce Night Alarm.

Is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, O. (R. R. No. 2.) for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks" he wrote, "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, hay fever, grippe, whooping cough, hemorrhages fly before it. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by all druggists.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AROUND WINTERVILLE

Things That Are Going on in Our Neighbor Town.

Winterville, N. C., March 29.—There will be services in St. Luke's Episcopal church next Friday, the 31st, at 10:45 a. m., by Rev. J. H. Griffith, of Kinston. A special invitation to all to be present.

Mr. S. C. Carroll spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. R. H. McGlohorn.

There were services in the Methodist church Sunday by Rev. Dr. Gibbs, the presiding elder. He preached a very fine sermon to a large congregation.

Don't forget the hats and slippers at A. W. Ange & Co's. They have a large stock.

Remember the music recital that will be given in the W. H. S. auditorium, Friday night, March the 31st. All are cordially invited to be present.

Harrington, Barber & Company can fit you up with wall paper and mouldings.

Misses Vivian Roberson and Louise Satterthwaite spent Tuesday night in Ayden.

Dried prunes, peaches, apples and beans at A. W. Ange & Co's.

The farmers around Winterville are very busy now hauling fertilizers.

For McCall magazines and patterns see Harrington, Barber & Company.

THIS IS CERTAIN.

The Proof That Greenville Readers Cannot Deny.

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently.

Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.

Mrs. T. S. Norman, 911 Evans St., Greenville, N. C., says: "I gladly give Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement, as they have proven of greater benefit to me than any other remedy I have ever used. I suffered from a dull ache through the small of my back. There was also a soreness across my kidneys and I was hardly able to get around on account of sharp, darting pains through my loins. Upon arising in the morning, I felt tired and languid and had but little ambition or energy. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Wooten's Drug Store, the backache and pains have disappeared, I do not suffer from backache and that tired, languid feeling has been removed."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Commercial Peer.

Those who cling to the idea that the British nation has no sense of humor may profit by noticing the fashion in which the London press comments on the approaching wholesale creation of peers. According to fancy lists that have been drawn up, Sir William Hartley, a millionaire jam maker, is to become Lord "Preserveus;" Mr. Carter, the head of a rich firm of expressmen is to receive the title of Lord "Deliver-us" and so on. As a correspondent of the American press points jests is lost when it is considered that the addition of a commercial element to the house of Lords is no novelty. That body already contains a numerous representation of rich railroad men, bankers, shipbuilders and shipowners. One peer derives his wealth from wool, another from silk and several others from the iron and steel industry. Four peerages owe their origin to the beer business. Two newspaper proprietors wear coronets and a tea dealer, a proprietor of book and news stands and a dairy farmer enjoy the same proud distinction. Thus it appears that the supposed requirement of blue blood is largely a fiction, and that the enrolment of a few score more "persons in trade" among the peers will not materially affect the traditions and the nervous sensibilities of that proud caste.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Attacks School Principal.

A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, biliousness and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50c at all druggists.

Cynics are people who are unhappy only when they are saying something mean.

A story of Kipling. Most of the stories told about John Lockwood Kipling were thought worth while simply because they brought in some allusion to his son. We recall one which concerns a sea voyage made by the elder Kipling and Rudyard when the latter was an active and somewhat mischievous youngster. One calm day when the vessel was in mid-ocean one of the ship's officers rushed into the men's smoking room with an agitated countenance. "Mr. Kipling," he said, "your son is hanging head downward from the end of the bowsprit." "Indeed," was the calm reply, "But," continued the officer, "if he lets go he will be drowned." Don't alarm yourself," said Mr. Kipling, "he won't let go.—Bookman.
