EXTRAVAGANCE EXPOSED.

Wall Street "Farmers" Against Reciprocity.

(By TAVENNER).

Washington, D. C., June 6.—That the "farmers" principally interested in killing reciprocity are Wall street "farmers," whose "crops" consist chiefly of lumber and paper trust dividends, was revealed in testimony taken by the senate finance committee.

It was shown that Allen & Graham, alleged attorneys for the National Grange, are really professional lobbyists for the big tariff trusts. Their argument, when seeking business, is that they can pull the necessary wires in Washington to defeat or bring about the passage of any legislation they may be assigned upon.

Mr. Allen was made to admit under cross-examination that the anti-reciprocity literature with which agricultural districts have recently been flooded came direct from the lobbyists headquarters within a stone's throw of Wall street. Mr. Allen also admitted that the American Lumber Manufacturers' association, the Pulp and Print Paper association and the American Wool Manufacturers association (lumber trust, paper trust and wool trust, respectively), are among those who pledged themselves to finance this holy crusade for the farmers.

Allen & Graham have among their clients some of the best "farmers" in Wall street. The firm was shown to have represented as lobbyists the Whisky Security Company, (whisky trust) and the Standard Oil Company, the latter of which organizations is ahead of John D. Rockefeller, whose occupation as a big oil "farmer" is beyond controversy.

Commission Aply Named.

It is known now why Senator Aldrich calls his lame duck commission a "monetary" commission. It is because it spends so much money.

The monetary commission, according to a treasury report, has expended $207,134.48 of the people's money on European travel, meetings at famous summer resorts, on manuscripts book translations, monographs and members' salaries. The report also contains various insinuating entries that read "account clerical force and persons in attendance on commission."

The European trip cost $19,250.18. It was a nice summer trip and anybody who has traveled with a Cook party will tell you that a select little party of a half dozen can make a mighty fine circuit of the continent for $19,250.18. The account is not itemized beyond this statement. Indeed, Senator Aldrich has fixed it so the commission may spend any amount of money it desires without consulting anyone, and without giving a detailed report to anyone. The former senator is not hampered by any formalities whatever. He has only to reach into the treasury, get money and sign a receipt. It is appalling to contemplate what would happen to the treasury if all commissions and departments of the government were permitted to employ simply loose business methods while spending the people's money.

However, a fresh air fund to promote the recuperation of lame ducks, the commission is manifestly a big success. To this end witness the meeting of the commission at Narragansett Pier in July, 1909. It takes monetary backing to go to Narragansett in July. The bill was $9,493.74!

And Senator Cummins, of Iowa, is sufficiently inconsistent of the health of the lame ducks to contend that the commission is absolutely useless to the people, and that it ought to be abolished.

Cut Out of Bag.

Soon after President Taft entered the White House a movement was started by members of congress to bring about an investigation of the sugar trust. It was not a partisan movement. Senator Borah, of Idaho, Republican, introduced a sugar investigation resolution in the senate, and Campbell, of Kansas, introduced a similar one in the house. The president was greatly displeased. He sent a message to congress advising against an investigation on the ground that it might give immunity to the men higher-up and otherwise embarrass the government. The message was based on an opinion of United States Attorney General Wick-

GIBBONS ANNIVERSARY.

President Taft And Other Notables Present.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Baltimore, June 6.—Cardinal Gibbons today celebrated the 50th anniversary of his ordination to priesthood, and his 25th anniversary as cardinal. The ceremonies were held in the 5th regiment armory. President Taft and other notables including Chief Justice White, ex-President Roosevelt, Vice President Sherman, diplomatic senators and representatives were present. President Taft eulogized Cardinal Gibbons as a clergyman and citizen.

POSSE AND BURGLARS

Have A Midnight Battle And Two Are Killed.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Hattiesburg, Miss., June 6.—There was a midnight battle between a sheriff's posse and burglars who were trying to rob the safe of the Laneor Lumber Company. George Dewitt and William Taylor, yeggmen, were killed.

ersham, who was inspiring Washington dispatches at the time with the impression that he was about to prosecute the men higher-up for the $2,000,000 sugar underweight frauds.

Now, comes the attorney general with the statement, made under oath before a house investigating committee, that he never believed that the heads of the sugar trust could be successfully prosecuted for the underweight frauds. He also says that they would not have secured immunity from prosecution had they testified. In other words, the reasons given by both the president and the attorney general as to why the sugar trust should not be investigated under a Republican house, are now admitted to have been fictitious.

The real reason as to why the Republicans were unwilling to permit a congressional investigation of the sugar trust now becomes debatable. Was it because the attorney general had been a former sugar trust attorney and was prejudiced in favor of the innocense of the men higher up? Was it because Henry P. Taft, the brother of the president, was a sugar trust attorney? Or was it because the sugar trust has always been a friend and ally of the Republican party, and one of its star campaign contributors?

Running Down A Clue.

While investigating expenditures in the state department, where it cost $200 to shoe four horses for a year, the house investigating committee struck upon a clue tending to show that an artist named Rosenthal had been paid $850 for painting a portrait of Justice W. R. Day and that the government had been charged with $2,450. Rosenthal testified he had signed a blank voucher for $850. It appears that subsequently some one made the voucher appear that Rosenthal had acknowledged the receipt of $2,450.

As it is the duty of the committee under the law to investigate the expenditures in the state department, Chairman Hamlin of Missouri, ordered the state department to produce its books. Instead of producing the books Secretary of State Knox appeared before the committee with a letter from president ordering him not to comply with the committee's demands. For the present the matter ends here. Chairman Hamlin will probably bring the matter before the house and ask that the state department be compelled to produce its records.

Fighting Reciprocity.

The senate is attempting to kill the reciprocity bill by so amending it that it will not be acceptable to Canada. Senator Root, of New York is preparing an amendment in the interest of the paper trust. It will be recalled that when reciprocity was before the senate at the last session Senator Root was one of those who were bolsters in their protests that amendment was impracticable and impossible. That was less than five months ago, and now Mr. Root, reversing himself, declares the agreement must be amended so as to benefit the paper interests. His opposition is only a part of a systematic campaign being waged against reciprocity.

SUMMER COURSE AT TRAINING SCHOOL

A STRONG FACULTY IN CHARGE.

Large Student Body Present And More Arriving.

The summer course of East Carolina Teachers' Training School began today under most favorable conditions. A large number of teachers from all sections of Eastern North Carolina are here to get the benefit of the splendid advantages offered in this summer course for teachers, and many more are coming by every train.

At 11 o'clock this morning the student body assembled in the auditorium for the classes to be arranged. President Wright addressed some very timely words to the teachers. He said the purpose of this summer course was to help those who had not had the necessary professional training to do their best work. It is to help them to do their work more intelligently. If they know how to organize and manage their school they can do much better work. It is also to help those who have not made first grade certificates or the 5-year state certificates. It is to help teachers on the points where they are most lacking. As they had come here for work, there must be no loafing during study hours if they are to get the most benefit out of their stay. A loafer with nothing to do is not happy, but the busiest person is the happiest.

President Wright then fully outlined the study periods and the different courses that had been planned and the organization of classes proceeded so that the work can start off the very first day of the term.

The outlook is for a most successful eight weeks' course, and the teachers will go back to their respective fields much better equipped to do their work well.

The faculty for the summer school is as follows:

Prof. R. H. Wright, president.
Mrs. Kate R. Beckwith, lady principal.

Prof. C. W. Wilson, bursar in charge of office work with Miss Emma Jones and Miss Ola Ross, as stenographers.

ELECTION FOR MAYOR AND ALDERMEN

A VERY LIGHT VOTE WAS CAST.

After The Nominations But Little Interest Was Shown.

The election for mayor of the town and one alderman for each ward was held Tuesday. As a nomination is practically equivalent to an election here, there was not much interest after the primary had nominated Mr. F. M. Wooten for mayor, and the ward meetings had nominated candidates for aldermen. This is shown by 388 votes being cast in the primary for mayor, while only 182 were cast in Monday's election.

The vote by wards was as follows:

First Ward.

F. M. Wooten, mayor 41

J. E. Nobles, alderman 41

Second Ward.

F. M. Wooten, mayor 42

E. B. Ficklen, alderman 42

Third Ward.

F. M. Wooten, mayor 26

J. S. Tunstall, alderman 31

Fourth Ward.

F. M. Wooten, mayor 45

B. F. Tyson, alderman 44

Fifth Ward.

F. M. Wooten, mayor 43

H. C. Edwards, alderman 43

This will make the board of aldermen for the fiscal year beginning July 1st, as follows:

First ward—Dr. J. E. Nobles.

Second ward—W. A. Bowen and E. B. Ficklen.

Third ward—J. F. Davenport and J. S. Tunstall.

Fourth ward—Z. P. VanDyke and B. F. Tyson.

Fifth ward—H. C. Edwards.

Rats Took Corn From Mules.

On Shyllock's principle, "You take my life when you take the means whereby I live," rats came very near eating up Mr. J. L. Tomberlin's mules on his farm, five miles south of town. For some time he had been noticing that his mules were falling off more rapidly than they should have, even in work time and hot weather. One day last week he discovered the cause, which was nothing less than the rats were eating the corn which he fed to the mules, literally robbing them of their meals. By watching he found that the rats, which were of immense size, swarmed out as soon as he had put the corn in the box for the mules and left the stable, and dragged the whole ears away to their hiding places and devoured it. He saw them carrying it off and he also found an immense pile of cobs hidden away under the barn, where they had devoured it. He lost no time in setting upon the rats and smote them with clubs, dogs and even a shot gun. After the slaughter he found that 129 had been killed. Fortunately his crib was rat-proof, or he would have had no corn to feed the mules in the first place.—Monroe Journal.

NEWS THAT IS OF INTEREST TO TAR HEELS

GATHERED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Told For The Reflector's Busy Readers.

Wilmington.—Information has been received here to the effect that the "Knuckle," the new lightship for Frying Pan shoals, is now on her way from the Great Lakes to this port. The new ship is unusually large and will be placed in commission within a very short time. The "Knuckle" will be placed at the extreme end of the shoals in a position to safeguard shipping.

New Bern.—Several days ago, S. H. Bennett, a young white man about 24 or 25 years of age, and who was in the employ of the Hall Tailoring company in this city, embezzled $240 of that company's money and skipped out for a day or two, all trace of the fugitive being lost until Friday it was learned that he was registered at the Bonitz hotel at Wilmington, and a warrant for his arrest was sworn out. Sheriff Biddle wired Chief of Police Fowler at that place to arrest Bennett, who was registered under the cognomen of Barnes, and within 30 minutes after the telegram had been received he was in the toils of the law.

Raleigh.—The association of county commissioners will meet in Asheville August 16, and already the program is being arranged for the meeting. It is expected that many of the commissioners will be present. C. E. Foy of New Bern, is president, and D. McEachern, of Wilmington, is secretary.

He bought some strychnine at one of the drug stores, stating that he wanted it to kill a dog with. He took this with him to his shop, where he was found at 6 o'clock in a dying condition. Three doctors were summoned, but could not do anything to relieve him and he died at 6:30 o'clock. The cause for his action is not known.

Raleigh.—Buck Robertson is dead, and H. W. Montague is wounded in the right side as the result of a pistol duel in Eagle Rock township last night. The killing is said to have been the result of an attack on Montague by Robertson, who accused the other of making uncomplimentary remarks about a young woman.

Not Liberal With Newspapers.

The Reflector of Friday carried an editorial that furnishes food for thought to those of our merchants who are interested in Greenville's continued supremacy as a commercial center. It very aptly points out that Greenville's most formidable rival for the business of this territory is a town in which the merchants are very liberal in the use of printers' ink. It is a fact that business that rightfully belongs to our merchants is being drawn to other points. We are confident that our merchants possess as sound business qualities and serve their customers just as well as their rivals do, and we can see no reason for their failure to get more business unless the fault lies in the fact that they are not liberal with their newspapers.—Pitt County News.

TUESDAY, JUNE 6, 1911.

Nicaragua and Mexico both had a Diaz for president, and both grew tired of him.

It does you good to hear the folks talk about the Pitt county fair to be held next fall.

One germ that nobody fights against is the base ball fever. They all catch it, and don't care if they do.

While talk helps pave the way for enterprises, some work is also necessary if they are to be secured.

Election is all over now except those who want the places the aldermen have to give out. That will wait for the first of July.

There is nothing short in any way about Wrightsville Beach. No, Whichard, not even the bathing skirts.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Glad you told us that. But how about the cash?

So many trying to get admission into the Training school and being denied for lack of accommodations, again brings out Greenville's need of a modern hotel.

A sea serpent chasing a school of young whales is the story that comes from New York. Since losing Coney Island they must do something to draw people.

Nearly a year now since Greenville got in the eligible class for free mail delivery, but no free delivery has been established, and will not be until the town gets in proper condition for it.

Even the staid old New Bern Journal, after it has been going for thirty years, falls into the use of "patent insides." Strange how North Carolina papers will some times work against their best interests. "Patent insides" does more to keep down advertising than anything the papers have to contend with.

PROVINCE OF THE NEWSPAPER.

Not Its Aim to Supplant Pulpit or Rod Sabbath School.

To be sure, many changes might be made in newspapers if newspapers were to be reformed with a view to making them purely educative and regenerative in their effect. It is not, it must be admitted, the aim of the press to supplant the pulpit, rob the Sabbath school of its function, remove the need of the high school and devote itself wholly to spiritual and temporal preaching and teaching. What the effect of a newspaper made to fulfill the ideals of persons who view the press of the times with alarm because

It publishes a dangerous comic supplement can be best judged by the wide circulation of worldly dailies and the narrow scope of the circulation of those that most nearly approach those ideals. Circulation is not the sole consideration, but without it no educative or missionary work can be done. The most useful newspaper is one whose general effect is improving, and not one so virtuous and piggish that those standing in need of mental or spiritual tonic will have none of it. It is as the layman friendly to the projects of the school, the university and the pulpit, and not as a militant parson, that the press may be useful. The newspaper must be human or unread. To be widely read it must make a broad appeal. It is Horace, we believe, who asserts that it is right to unbend upon fitting occasions. And there is a well known couplet about nonsense being occasionally relished by the best of men. The comic supplement may not be absolutely necessary to the welfare of newspapers, but that it is inimical to the welfare of any class of newspaper readers, has not been convincingly argued, and it gives enjoyment to many lovers of humor.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Presidents Who Were Masons.

A few days ago the press dispatches announced that President Taft, wearing the Masonic apron, had posed for a photographer in Washington, so that his picture may be hung beside that of George Washington in a Masonic lodge in Virginia. This incident caused the Boston Globe to inquire what other presidents of the United States have been Masons, and it is ascertained that Jefferson, Jackson, Polk, Buchanan, Johnson, Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt were Masons, but there is some doubt as to whether Jefferson was a member of the order. George Washington was the master of a Virginia lodge and subsequently became the head of the order in this country. Gen Jackson was a grand master in Tennessee, McKinley was a Knight Templar, and both Roosevelt and Taft were raised to the Master Mason's degree after their election to the presidency.

It is understood that President Fillmore was also a Mason, but as in the case of Jefferson, there is some doubt about it, because the absence of records going back into the early days makes it difficult to say whether he was or not. In the time of Washington, however, Benjamin Franklin, Lafayette, Benjamin Harrison the elder, John Hancock, Joseph Warren and many other men who figured prominently in the American revolution belonged to the fraternity. It is the proud boast of the Masons of Massachusetts that Paul Revere, after the revolution became the grand master of their state.—New Orleans States.

You can tell the kind of county it is when you leave the good roads of one county and try to go somewhere in the other county. How strange it is that any man should ever think about voting against good roads bonds. A vote against good roads is to perpetuate a slur on a county.—Wilmington Star.

Graceful and Attractive Women.

If you are thin and want to be plump; if you have wrinkles in your face that you are not proud of, if your skin is sallow or subject to pimples or blackheads, take MI-O-NA stomach tablets for two weeks and notice the change. Nine-tenths of the thin people are thin because of the stomach it not active; it is not mixing thoroughly with the natural digestive juices the food put into it, and consequently is not extracting from the food enough nourishment matter for the blood to distribute to every part of the body. If the stomach does not do its work properly the nourishment in the food you eat is passed along without giving to the body any flesh building elements.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets quickly build up the stomach so that it extracts from the food all the elements necessary to form good solid flesh.

If you are thin try a two-weeks treatment of MI-O-NA stomach tablets; two with each meal will work wonders.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets are guaranteed to cure indigestion, acute or chronic, or money back. Sold by White's Drug Store, and druggists everywhere, at 50 cents a box.

The Model School.

We have been attracted by an article contributed to The Carolina Union Farmer, by Mr. W. T. Swanson, describing a model school which he has discovered at George, on the Tar river, in Northhampton county. It is called a high school and Miss Hannah Starr is the principal. But it is of the work of Miss Margaret Brown, an assistant, that Mr. Swanson chiefly talks. Miss Brown, he says, knows what the world wants, viz: people who can do things and do not mind doing them. He tells us that she has laid off the back ground of the school plot into thirty-six gardens, about 8 by 16 feet, and numbered them. She has left a narrow walk between the gardens for the pupils to stand and work. A narrow walk is laid between the tiers of the gardens for a passage. Each of the thirty-six children is assigned to a garden corresponding to his or her member on the plat book. Each pupil is left to choose such plants as desired, but the teacher carefully inspects all seeds brought. The little gardeners are shown how to fertilize the gardens with barn manure. The ground was previously plowed as deep as circumstances would permit. The manure was thoroughly mixed with the soils, then dug and hoed, till the surface was as fine and smooth as a salad bed. Each pupil was required to do his or her own work. When the seeds were presented she told the gardeners how far apart to plant the seed and how deep to cover them. She is not a boss, but a mild cheerful, sweet director.

They there is David H. Brown, a graduate from the West Town Agricultural School of Pennsylvania, who has charge of the Ear Row Contest among the large boys. His field lies still to the rear of the garden department. The rows are laid off about as usual. The plat is heavily manured and well plowed and harrowed. Each boy has his own row. All of these rows are fertilized with the fertilizer ingredients just alike. Each boy chooses his own variety of seed corn, and the plat is to be cultivated just the same all over. The same number of stalks are to be left in each row. Strict account is to be kept of everything, and the boy who gets the most pounds of shelled corn takes the prize, and of course, his corn to be considered the best variety. It seems to us that through Mr. Swanson, The Carolina Union Farmer has discovered the model school.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Burns and Fains.

It is amusing to learn that Burns when just emerging from obscurity jocularly anticipated that his birthday would come to be noted among other remarkable events. In a letter to his early patron, Gavin Hamilton, in 1786 he says, "For my own affairs I am in a fair way of becoming as eminent as Thomas a Kempis or John Bunyan, and you may henceforth expect to see my birthday inscribed among the wonderful events in the Poor Robin and Aberdeen almanacs along with the Black Monday and the battle of Bothwell Bridge."

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand on Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles. Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint. I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did." Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women. It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times. Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs. Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

If Nicht An' Been-Waur

When failure becloud the blue of your sky,
And trouble begin in torrents to pour,
Just think of the floods that others have whelmed
And say to yourself, "It nicht ha' been waur!"
You're drenched, but no droon'd; it nicht ha' been waur!

When out on life's sea your vessel is wrecked,
Beyond the relief of a humanly shore,
Cling fast to the spar God's put in your hand
And say to yourself, "It nicht ha' been waur!"
Some haven't a spar—it nicht ha' been waur!

When death, blanching death, stalks into your street
And knocks with appalling hand at your door;
Hold fast to the hope God's put in your heart
And say to yourself, "It nicht ha' been waur!"
What if you'd no hope!—it nicht ha' been waur!

And when you shall stand before the great Judge
Who'll open the book and scan your life o'er,
May He in His love forgive where you've failed,
And say to your Soul, "It nicht ha' been waur!"
Gang ye wi' the Sheep—it nicht ha' been waur!

LESSON IN COSTLY PRINTS.

Millionaire Buys Priceless Collection For Son's Course in History.

To teach his young son, heir to millions and all the responsibilities which go with a vast estate, the principles of patriotism, love of country, and to serve as a magnificent pictorial panorama of the great events in American history, Marsden J. Perry, the Providence financier, philanthropist and art collector has had placed in his magnificent Newport summer home the finest collection of colonial prints in this country.

As a central figure in an elaborate system of training, worked out before his birth, and constantly improved upon during the few years that have up to now passed over his head, Marsden J. Perry, Jr., is the subject of one of the most costly experiments yet recorded.

The study of America and its history has been one of the things in which it has been long planned young Marsden shall specialize, and to better do this the child has a private picture gallery of incalculable worth and illustrative of the great periods of his native land placed before him as a first aid.

The remarkable collection of prints which are the envy of all wealthy collectors of colonial objects, practically cover the salient points of the United States early progress. The wars, the treaties, the famous scenes in the courts and on the battlefields are all depicted.

An upper hall in the palatial Perry mansion on Newport's famous Ocean drive is the gallery which contains these prints. They cover one entire wall opposite to which is a glass partition through which one gets a complete view of the sea. Through this wall of glass the light streams in on the gallery of prints—the pictorial text-book of the boy millionaire.

"Washington Entering New York After the Battle of Trenton," "Martha Washington's Reception," Franklin at the Court of France," Franklin at the Court of St. James,"—these are the titles of some of them. Each picture is of practically the same size and mounted in a carved and gilded frame of simple design. They are the result of years of collecting.

Years ago Mr. Perry from time to time added to a small beginning in prints, picking them up, one here and one there. Some came to light in old farm houses. Others were located in the shop of some obscure dealer in antiques. Still others were rounded up by hired collectors who ran down possible clues and made a business of perfecting the collection. They represent the outlay of thousands of dollars.—Boston Post.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

Speakers Refuse to be Smoked Out

The Core Creek Canal near Beaufort, North Carolina, has been dredged to an average depth of eleven feet. On its high banks, but recently swamps, which for ages have made an impenetrable wilderness, twenty-five hundred people made "foot-prints on the sand of time" and gathered for an "Oyster Roast" held in honor of the opening of the canal. Judge Abernethy of Beaufort made a most eloquent and comprehensive address of welcome, and to the toastmaster, United States Senator Simmons, who next mounted the platform (a table provided for the roast) a hearty ovation was given. The bivalves were placed in a rectangle around the seats and all the preparations were made to begin the roasting soon after the address had been made. Some urchin lit the fire too soon, and as the speaker began, great clouds of smoke engulfed both the orators and audience. Congressional delegations had faced the smoke of battle before, and nothing daunted the addresses were delivered, punctuated by hearty applause—the smoke only indicated the fire and enthusiasm of the North Carolina spirit. With tears streaming down their cheeks from the smoke, the audience listened and applauded while Congressman Small and others pictured the future when the proper provision has been made for the canals on the coast—Joe Mitchell Chapple, in National Magazine.

Advantages of Farm Canning.

This will give any one a good idea of what can be made in canning at home. Right on the farm is the place where the best canned goods that can possibly be canned are put up. Of course, it takes the proper training to do this.

The farmer, in fact, has many advantages over the large canning factories. He raises his own fruit and vegetables. He can gather them at the proper stage. He can can them fresh, and only having a small amount can put his goods up in the best possible manner. I have been manager of a large cannery. There are many disadvantages there. The fruits and vegetables being scattered, hauled, or shipped some distance, a large part is damaged and the many other disadvantages cause a first-class article canned on the farm to bring a higher fancy price. Every farmer should can all his family can consume with some to spare his city neighbors, who after trying the home-canned goods will always be glad to buy his needs from him. Home canning should only be used as a side line on the farm. It can mostly be done during the summer months while there is not such a rush in the crops.—Wm. A. Shaw, in Raleigh Progressive Farmer.

He Likes Calf's Head.

In a paper published in St. Germain, France, there recently appeared this advertisement: "Gentleman, single, great lover of calf's head, but unable to obtain less than a whole one which it is impossible for him to consume by himself, desires to find one or more associates who would share a calf's head with him three times a week."

Noah's Liniment is the best remedy for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lame Back, Stiff Joints and Muscles, Sore Throat, Colds, Strains, Sprains, Cuts, Bruises, Colic, Cramps, Neuralgia, Toothache, and all Nerve, Bone and Muscle Aches and Pains. The genuine has Noah's Ark on every package and looks like this one, but has RED band on front of package and "Noah's Liniment" always in RED ink. Beware of imitations. Special Privilege and Dogs.
The dog question will not down "This section of North Carolina," says The Lenoir Tropic, "is a good stock country and times would be much better if more people would give attention to sheep raising and less time to the worthless dog industry. There are a few folks who appear to place a high estimate upon an ordinary hound than they do upon their families. We have learned of a certain family composed of a father, mother, six children and six dogs. There are no chickens, pigs or cows on the premises and the dogs are fed and cared for whether the children have sufficient food and clothing or not. If the head of this family would substitute pigs and sheep or other stock for his dogs the problem of supplying the household with the necessities of life would be solved, and his neighbors would find life more pleasant."

Entirely true, and there is more yet to be said. We tax the sheep which the worthless dog kills, but, except in the case of a few counties which have shown themselves enlightened enough to take the step, we lay no tax whatever upon dogs. We tax horses, cows, pigs and other indispensably useful domestic animals, but not the dog. We do not tax an animal whose existence necessitates maintaining at public expense a state Pasteur institute for the treatment of hydrophobia, which often attacks children through viciousness, which is given to making infernal racket during mankind's hours of sleep, which produces nothing and consumes voraciously. We virtually put a premium upon his indefinite multiplication at the expense, as the Tropic says, not only of useful animals but even of children who would otherwise be better fed—taking the children's bread and casting it unto dogs. Such dogs as their owners deem to possess value from the standpoint of sport, utility or sentiment should be taxed as other valuable property is. These should be exterminated as mere nuisances. We hope and believe that the time is not far distant when this will be done.—Charlotte Observer.

Many Horses Get Too Much Hay.
Experience and observation have convinced the writer that we feed very much more hay to our driving and hard-working horses than is best for them, and these observations are supported, theoretically, by the small stomach of the horse, the fact that he must work hard while digesting his feed and the experimental evidence that he does not digest coarse feeds so well when at hard or fast work. On the other hand, it must not be inferred that the horse does not need a certain amount of hay or roughage. There is a general rule that the horse should have from 1 to 1 1-2 pounds of roughage to every 100 pounds of weight, daily. For the idle horse, or the one doing light work, there may be no objection to his receiving the larger amount—1 1-2 pounds daily for every 100 pounds of his weight—if hays are cheaper than concentrates, but for the hard-working horse, the smaller amount—1 pound daily for every 100 pounds of his weight—is better. We are not able to quote definite experimental evidence to support our experience

THE HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND AYDEN

DR. DIXON MOVED TO VIRGINIA.

Ayden Ball Team Coming to Greenville Determined to Win.

Ayden, N. C., June 6.—The many friends of Mrs. Jesse Cannon are glad to learn that she has passed a successful operation at John Hopkins hospital. We hope she soon may return home to her family and loved ones.

Mrs. Allie Harrington and her charming daughter, Miss Velend, who have been taking in the commencement, returned to their home in Kingston Thursday.

We have a letter from Mr. W. F. Hart, of Morehead City, stating he is catching all sorts and kinds of fish, sharks, etc., when they do not bite off sinker, hook, bait, and all. This letter gets our sporting blood warming up.

Dr. Wm. McKinney has moved his family to the residence recently vacated by Mr. J. B. Patrick.

Dr. Jos. Dixon and family left last Thursday morning to make their home in Rhapadan, Va. The large crowd assembled at the depot to bid them adieu was only a token of the high regard our people held for them. Dr. Dixon was one of our prominent citizens. He located here when the town was in its infancy and was one of those progressive men that boosted his town and county, and plucked thorns and planted roses where ever the rose would grow. He built up an extensive and lucrative practice and at present is numbered among the most wealthy men of the community. We regret exceedingly to see him and his family leave us, but wish for them much success in his stock farming.

The Pikeville vs. Ayden game played on the local diamond Thursday resulted in a tie 3 to 3. The Ayden team played Tarboro Friday, 4 to 2 in favor of Ayden.

We hear that Miss Annie Ross, who was a former Ayden girl, has married a very wealthy young business man and made her home in Panama.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. J. J. Stroud to Miss Lela Brown, on the 14th of June, 1911 at the home of Mr. Theophilus Stancill.

At a regular communication of Ayden lodge No. 498 A. F. and A. M., the by-laws were changed so as to meet each first Thursday at 10 o'clock, and the brethren will furnish a barbecue, taking the roll alphabetically, 4 at a time. We hope this will increase attendance. The next meeting will be the regular installation of officers and work in initiary degree and barbecue. Editor of the Reflector has a stading invitation. (Thanks.—Ed.)

The Ayden base ball team played Plymouth here on our local diamond today. As each team has won one game each, this will no doubt be an interesting game.

Ayden will carry up at least 200 strong Friday week on the opening of the Coast Line League when they play Greenville. The boys will leave here with a determination to win the opening game.

Dr. W. H. Dixon returned from Baltimore Friday night.

Miss Sallie Bett Quinerly and Miss Bessie Lawrence returned from Greene county Sunday, where they had been spending a few days.

Beginning Sunday night, June 11, Rev. Mr. Caraway, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hocutt, of Hookerton, will hold a series of meetings in the Methodist church.

Mr. J. W. Moore returned home this morning from an extended trip West.

Mrs. H. F. Laws, of Kingston, spent Sunday with Mr. J. R. Turnage.

Messrs. W. B. Alexander, J. F. Hart, J. A. Harrington and Richard Wingate left this morning for Florida.

Mr. A. F. Cox, proprietor of St. Abrams Spring, moved his family from here to his summer home today.

The Difference.

Mr. J. J. Harrington asked us what's the difference between a newspaper editor and a clothes cleaner. Not knowing, we "bit." He replied, "one suits the press and the other presses the suit."

and observation, but we feel pretty safe in stating that this smaller amount of the roughage and giving all of it at the night feed, give better results than the roughage the horses will eat, or able to eat, during the time they are in the stable, morning, noon and night. With the driving or saddle-horse, especially, we feel morally certain this is true. We would, therefore, advise against the feeding of hay in the morning or at noon, and only a moderate amount at night—not over 10 pounds to a horse weighing 1,000 pounds.—Tait Butler, in Progressive Farmer.

Newspaper Builds Town.

We know a mercantile firm which bought a newspaper outfit and published a paper in a town of 150 inhabitants so as to build it up. The deficit of the first year was $1,000, and the merchants paid it up and kept the paper going. They cut the deficit to $500 and kept right on running the paper till it wiped out its own deficit. It is now a fine piece of newspaper property and in a live town of more than 10,000 population. It is the same town that started with 150 population not so many years ago. What can a man do for his town?—Wilmington Star.
