WEEKLY LETTER FROM WASHINGTON

Postmaster General Hitchcock's Fine "Saving" Qualities

"UNCLE SAM" FOOTS THE BILLS

Just A Few Items For Furniture Expenses And "Lame Duck Commission" Excursions — "Appropriate" Senate Committee Assignments — Fine Republican Administration.

(By TAVENNER.)

Washington, June 14.—Thirty-five dollar wastepaper baskets, $298 desks and $320 tables were some of the little economies effected by Postmaster General Hitchcock in refurbishing his "red room" and "brown room" office. These and other examples of Republican extravagance were revealed in testimony taken by the house committee on expenditures in the post office department.

Mr. Hitchcock sanctioned the expenditure of $7,500 in refurbishing three rooms, $4,000 of which went to furnishing the post master general's private office alone. Circassian walnut furnishings especially designed and manufactured, and specially designed carpets and draperies furnished the nucleus of this expenditure.

In no instance were bids advertised for, or competition permitted. The lucky dealer had to state his price and secure an order upon the treasury. Five hundred and forty dollars purchased two mahogany davenport for American royalty; $330 brought in two arm chairs; $98 produced a table; $295 purchased a second desk, and $160 a third. A wardrobe to hang coats in cost $265. One rug was purchased at $483.75. Another davenport in Circassian walnut "with pol-low" cost Uncle Sam $365. Draperies for one room cost $600. Parquet flooring in one room cost $282. A telephone table cost $60. A table with black marble top also cost $64. It cost $352 to "scrape" the wood-work in the private office preparatory to new finish.

Such was the measure of Mr. Hitchcock's economy in matters pertaining to his own personal comfort. In matters concerning the employees—the railway mail clerks for instance—he followed entirely different lines of procedure.

Mr. Hitchcock figured it out one day that by making three men do the work of four, he could make a record for economy in the railway mail division. The already overworked railway mail clerks were driven beyond the limit of endurance. Conditions in the West, especially in the tenth division, became intolerable. Open rebellion broke out on the Pierre-Tracy line, the men refusing to do the extra work imposed on them. Ten men were suspended. Then five of them were re-instated, but refused to return to work without their associates. This aroused the whole northwest. The clerks met in mass meeting at St. Paul Minn. They are now facing the postmaster general to relent in his plan to economize by overworking the railway mail boys.

Strange working of Hitchcock economy bump also caused the postmaster general to pay the full year salary of $5,000 to A. W. Lawshe, third assistant postmaster general, while the latter sojourned in New Mexico recuperating in health and looking after the interests of the Republican party, but performing no government service whatever.

Still another example of Hitchcock economy was his appointment of a pseudo "lame duck commission" of four of his intimate friends and political supporters to go on a sort of Holy Grail conquest at the government's expense. The commission investigated "time recorders" in various cities, and managed to disburse in expenses sums that would have gone a long way toward making unnecessary the discharge of railway mail clerks.

The average amount spent by each of the committee for subsistence was between nine and ten dollars a day, indicating that Mr. Hitchcock's friends had healthy appetites. Transportation expenses for each man for a period of less than two months, averaged $300. Among many items of expenditure charged to and paid by Uncle Sam appear barber fees, bath charges, telephone bills, shaves, news

SEEKING RELEASE OF FORMER LEGISLATOR

PITT COUNTY IN KANSAS JAIL

Asks Governor of Oklahoma to Intercede in Behalf of W. J. Nichols.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 13.—Governor Cruce received a letter Monday from the secretary of state of North Carolina, asking his assistance in securing the release from the Federal prison at Lavenworth, Kan., of W. J. Nichols, a former member of the North Carolina legislature. Nichols was convicted of violating the postal laws, under the name of C. L. Jackson, in connection with the operation of the Little Crater Crude Burner Company. Nichols sold county rights for the sale of a new patent crude oil burner, maintaining headquarters at El Reno. Through the efforts of Postmaster E. E. Brown, of Oklahoma City, the Federal authorities were induced to start prosecutions for using the mails to defraud. Nichols handled thousands of dollars as a result of his scheme, but was convicted and sentenced to serve two years. A short time ago Nichols wrote the governor, accusing the Federal officials of the western district of Oklahoma and Postmaster McCoy, of Guthrie having conspired to railroad him to jail.—Charlotte Observer.

Dry in Chicod.

Mr. D. L. Smith, carrier on R. F. D. No. 3, from Grimesland, was in town today. He dropped in to tell us that it is dryer down that way than in any section he has struck. Much of the cotton is not yet up, and so much of the tobacco died that there is very little left. The corn prospect is better than any other crop.

stand charges in fact, almost everything possible in such a category—except laundry, cigars and flowers. The Hotel Willard in Washington, the Astor in New York and kindred hostilities were employed to shelter the government emissaries. Porter fees average 50 cents. The "commission" always purchased Pullman tickets, and cab fares are thickly sprinkled among the vouchers. Sometimes the commission traveled alone, but generally together, as behooves any well-ordered, pleasure loving government committee.

Senate Committees.

The senate committees are now all formed for the session. Some of the committee appointments appear to have been singularly appropriate.

Senator Du Pont is chairman of the senate committee on military affairs. It is appropriate to the last degree that Du Pont should head this committee, inasmuch as the senator is the head of the powder trust.

It is appropriate, too, that Senator Guggenheim should be made chairman of the committee on the Philippines, and a member of the committee on agriculture and forestry, on conservation of natural resources, mines and mining and public lands. Considering Guggenheim's connection with the Morgan-Guggenheim Alaska syndicate notorious for its exploiting projects and its prominence in the Ballinger scandal, it is singularly appropriate the committees happened to fall as they did.

Senator Crane is a member of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce. When the late Mr. Elkins was its head the committee referred bills intended to curb the telegraph and telephone monopoly to a subcommittee of which Crane was chairman. Crane is the largest holder of telephone and telegraph and general electric stock in the world. The bills never got out of committee pigeonholes.

Most appropriate for inappropriateness of all is the appointment of Senator Lorimer to the committee on agriculture and forestry. As a member of the house committee on agriculture Lorimer fought the pure food bills and anti-butterine law for the Chicago beef trust, and there is little doubt but that the Stock Yards boss is under even more obligations to the beef trust now than he was while a representative. It will be noted that the designation of this committee in the senate is "agriculture and forestry." Lorimer's interest in forestry might be explained by Mr. Hines, that prominent member of the lumber trust, who "put him over."

PITT COUNTY BOY TO THE FRONT

PROVES HIMSELF A REAL HERO.

Goes Out in A Capsized Boat And Saves Six People.

The letter published below should have appeared in our Ayden correspondence Tuesday, but through an oversight the correspondent failed to get it in with his other copy, so it is published here:

Fort Hancock N. J., June 9, 1911.
Mr. R. W. Smith, Correspondent, The Eastern Reflector,

Dear Sir:

Having sent an article to your valued paper a few months ago concerning Lance Corporal Lester Jones, of the Coast Artillery Corps, of Fort Wadesworth, I now take the pleasure to call your attention to another exploit equally heroic.

Since I wrote you before, the company of which he is a member, has changed station to Fort Hancock, N. J. Here again this brave son of North Carolina distinguished himself. While taking a walk one evening by the beach he saw out in the bay a boat in apparent distress. While he was getting a boat ready in which to go out in, the boat turned over. With all possible speed he put out to the capsized craft and got there just in time to save the lives of six helpless people. This, I think, ought to be brought to the attention of his friends and relatives at home. Like all real heroes, he himself, would never say anything about the matter. I being a son of North Carolina, things of this sort make my heart swell with pride. Hoping to see this in an early issue of your valued paper, I remain, a constant reader,

MICHAEL J. MEEZY,
Bread Sergeant, Co. "B" Artillery.

HOPE FIRE COMPANY

Hears Report of Delegates—Recommendations to Aldermen.

At the meeting of Hope Fire Co. Monday night, the delegates to the recent State Firemen's Convention in Charlotte gave an interesting report of the state meeting and awakened much enthusiasm in the local company. The delegates who went to Charlotte were Chief D. D. Overton, Messrs. C. E. Rountree and C. B. Whichard. One thing especially emphasized by the chief is that hereafter there is going to be more rigid compliance with the law as to erecting and repairing buildings in the portion of the town designated as the fire district.

Hope Fire Company unanimously recommended to the board of aldermen the re-election of D. D. Overton as chief of the fire department, and the election of C. E. Rountree as assistant chief.

EXCAVATION CAVES IN.

Buried Ferd Barnhill And Gives Him Close Call.

Tuesday afternoon while workmen were excavating for the sewer on Sutton lane, there was a cave-in that came near resulting seriously. At a point where the ditch was about ten feet deep, Ferd Barnhill, colored, foreman of the street hands was at work at the bottom of it, when without a moments warning the ditch caved in and he was completely buried under a huge pile of dirt. Other hands happened to be near and they quickly dug Ferd out of his grave. Fortunately he received no injury, except slight bruises, but it gave him a close call.

Washington, June 14.—Representative Berger made his maiden speech in the house today during the debate on the wool bill. He made pleas for the working men and arraigned the trusts and high tariff.

James Gayley resumed the stand before the Stanley steel committee. He was questioned regarding trust agreement hold rails at $28 per ton.

Senator McCumber fired the opening gun against reciprocity in the senate today. He principally argued that it would damage American farmers and give an outlet to Canadian products at this country's expense. Senator Pomerene gave notice that he will speak tomorrow on the resolution directing the attorney general to prosecute the Standard Oil and Tobacco trust officers.

Charles Hieke was questioned by the Sugar Trust committee concerning Havemeyer's dealing in organizing the trust. The committee got very little out of him because "he could not remember."

BY THE SEASIDE AT WRIGHTSVILLE

THE SEASON STARTS OFF WELL.

Souvenir Dances, Fishing Parties and Other Entertainment.

Wrightsville Beach, June 14.—One of the most delightful dances in the history of Lumina took place on Monday evening, when the Tidewater Power Co. entertained in honor of the little folks, they being given the exclusive use of the ball room, until nine o'clock, when the grand march was formed, and attractive souvenirs were presented to the children, these being little sail boats, full rigged, and it is unnecessary to say that the children were greatly pleased.

Another delightful dance took place at Lumina on Tuesday evening, when the grown folks were also given a souvenir dance by the Tidewater Co., at which time many guests from the city, as well as the visitors and residents of the beach availed themselves of the opportunity to spend a delightful evening at this splendid resort.

One of the most successful and at the same time one of the most enjoyable fishing parties of the season was given on Monday, when a party of gentlemen, guests of the Seashore Hotel, went out in the sharpie "Virgie May" to the Five Mile Rocks, where several hours were spent in deep sea fishing. Those in the party were as follows: Mr. E. Reeves, of New York; Mr. W. C. Carrington, of Spartanburg, S. C.; Mr. M. F. Ritcher, of Concord, and several others. Between 150 and 200 members of the fluky tribe were landed, and the fishermen are enthusiastic over the success of their trip.

Residents of the beach are glad to learn that a large number of Georgians will visit here on June 28th, when an excursion will be run from Atlanta, in two sections, one solid section of sleepers and one of coaches. The trip will be for a ten-day visit to Wrightsville, and it is estimated that there will be between 1200 and 1500 Georgians who will take advantage of this splendid opportunity to visit Wrightsville Beach.

Mr. S. S. Lanier, of Birmingham, Ala., entertained about 20 guests in the private dining room of the Seashore Hotel, at a very delightful dinner, a few days ago, given complimentary to the representatives of the various coal companies registered at this popular hostelry. These gentlemen are here trying to secure the contracts for coal for the A. C. R. Railroad Company. The dinner was greatly enjoyed by all present, and is but one of the many pleasant social functions which will be given at Wrightsville Beach, from time to time, throughout the season.

Editor Reflector:

I am just in receipt of a letter from Congressman John H. Small offering a free trip (transportation expenses) to Washington, D. C., to the boy in his congression district who makes the most corn as per directions governing our State Boys Corn Club contest. This is a magnificent offer and will furnish some progressive boy a fine trip to Washington.

I will thank you very much to publish this notice and also urge your boy readers who have not already done so to send their names for application blanks that they may fill them out and enter the contest. There will be more than $100 in prizes going to the first district in addition to this offer of Mr. Small, but a boy to compete for these must have his application filed in my office. Simply asking to have his name sent in will not suffice; he must send in his signed application.

Yours truly,
T. B. PARKER,
Director.

A man living near Troy, N. Y., had no confidence in banks so he kept his money in his home. Fire burned his house down, and with it destroyed $4,700 in cash that he had saved up. A man with sense enough to make money and who uses so little judgment in taking care of it, is not entitled to much sympathy.

Tax-Payer's Biggest Dividend.
It is unanimously agreed by all who are acquainted with the facts that the system of medical examination in Atlanta's public school has proved an unequalled success. Over 57 per cent of the children examined during the term just past were found to be defective. All but a few of the defects, too, were easily remediable. So thousands of children were relieved, at very slight expenses to the city, of ailments which would otherwise have lessened their capacity for receiving the education provided. One hundred and forty-seven operations for adenoids were performed and one hundred and thirteen children were fitted with glasses. The most prevalent defect, however, was found, as it has always been where such examinations are made, to be in the teeth.
Very often the dunce of his class simply needs the removal of adenoids from this nose to make him an intelligent child. The enforced mouth-breathing has lowered his vitality and made both his physical and mental health bad. Or he may be stupid only because he cannot see well or hear well. Delay of treatment too long will probably inflict a handicap upon him for life. Of course parents should have these matters looked after, but it is a plain fact that many parents do not and never will—because they lack an intelligent and realizing sense of the issues involved—pursue any such course. The city or the state must save the child from his defects if he is to be saved at all. And if it is worth while to spend a considerable sum in educating him it is most assuredly worth while to spend a trifling sum in addition for the purpose named. This is simple business. It needs no kindly or humanitarian sentiment for its justification. It could be heartily advocated for public schools even by those very few remaining people who do not believe in public schools at all.—Charlotte Observer.

A Remedy for Trusts.
Mayor Gaynor, of New York, appearing at the Hotel Astor to welcome 700 or more Southern delegates to the fifteenth annual convention of the Interstate Cottonseed Crushers' Association, told them there was a very simple way to abolish trusts in this country. This was for the states to repeal the laws permitting corporations to be formed to own the stock of any number of corporations. He said this state had been guilty of a plain piece of humbug. It had passed in the same year one law enabling one corporation to own any number of other corporations, thereby forming itself into a trust, and another "most strongly-worded anti-trust law."
"Did you ever hear of two such inconsistent things?" he asked. "We passed a law denouncing trusts, and at the very same session of the legislature passed a law by which one corporation could own the stock of any number of other corporations and thereby legally form a trust."
The mayor said he didn't believe such a thing could have been done in the South, because southern men would have "shoved their foot through such nonsense."—Virginian Pilot.

Delegation of Colored Citizens Protest Against Disorderly Houses.
A large delegation from the congregation of colored New Zion Baptist church, headed by the pastor and board of deacons, visited police headquarters the other morning and entered complaint against several negro denizens of the neighborhood of their church in Jacksonville whom they wished prosecuted for running disorderly houses. The delegation of colored citizens, both men and women was thoroughly in earnest concerning the matter and exhibited unusual willingness to testify against the negro women.

Warrants were sworn out for the alleged disturbers of the peace and it is probable that they will be given a hearing in the city court Monday. The negro delegation told of wild carousals at night in the negro settlement and declared that they were unable to worship at their church in peace on account of the terrible disturbance.

This action on the part of the citizens of Greensboro's negro settlements establishes a precedent and if continued its results will be far reaching. Members of the delegation this morning complained of the fact that no such houses are allowed to be conducted in this city by white women, but if they would properly consider the fault lies wholly with the better class of negroes.

Heretofore great difficulty has been experienced in successfully prosecuting even the worst negro criminals because they either have the other members of their race in a certain fear of them, or for some other reason testimony which may be relied upon is hard to obtain. If the negroes who really desire law and order will help to see that it is observed the negro settlements will soon be cleared which infest them and they will be kept on as cleanly a plan as the white sections of Greensboro.—Greensboro Record.

A Turtle 400 Years Old.
Four hundred years ago, according to estimates, Indians, with their crude fishing devices, might have tried to catch a large turtle that appeared at times in the Chesapeake Bay, but it eluded generation after generation of red men, white sailors and oyster fishers until a few days ago, when it was finally captured and sent to a fish merchant in Homestead. It will make soup for 100 persons or more.

The turtle, weighting 317 pounds and measuring nearly five feet in diameter across its shell was captured in the Choptank river, near Choptank Md., and created a sensation in that town. According to the owner, there are 17,000 barnacles on its shell.—Pittsburg Post.

Now Lay Me Down to Sleep.

The fire upon the hearth is low,
And there is stillness everywhere
Like troubled spirits, here and there
The firelight shadows fluttering
And as the shadows round me creep,
A childish treble breaks the bloom
And softly, from a farther room
Comes, "Now lay me down to sleep."

And, somehow, with that little prayer
And that sweet treble in my ears,
My thoughts go back to distant
years,

And linger with a dear one there;
And, as I bear the child's amen,
My mother's faith comes back to me
Crouched at her side I seem to be,
And mother holds my hands again.

O for an hour in that dear place!
O for the peace of that dear time!
O for that childish trust sublime!
O for a glimpse of mother's face!

I do not seem to be alone—
Sweet magic of that treble tone—
And "Now I lay me down to sleep."
—Eugene Field.

A large crowd took advantage of the Japanese party at Red Banks, Tuesday night, and all enjoyed it. Launches plied back and forth over the two mile run, giving a delightful trip on the water. It was a fine night for such an outing. We are glad the King's Daughters made a neat sum for the benefit of the Stonewall Jackson Training School, the party being for that purpose.

COAST LINE LEAGUE OPENING GAME—FRIDAY

AYDEN AGAINST GREENVILLE.

At Greenville Ball Park, Friday, 16th, at 4 p. m.

The ball season of the Coast Line League, composed of teams of Greenville, Ayden, Grifton and Kinston, will open Friday, 16th. On that day Ayden will play Greenville at Greenville, and Grifton will play Kinston at Kinston. Each team will play two games a week for nine weeks.

The opening of this league is looked forward to with much interest and the people who attend are going to witness some good games. Ayden promises to bring up 600 rooters for her team to the opening game here, and Greenville cannot afford to turn out a smaller number to root for the home team.

Admission to all the league games will be 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children; 10 cents extra for grand stand seats.

The Greenville team is in fine shape for the conflict and expects to win the pennant.

HOME BOYS WIN ANOTHER GAME

It Was Almost One-Sided As Visitors Could Not Find Ball.

The Baraca team of Wilson came over Wednesday and played a game here with the Greenville team. It was practically a one-sided game, the visitors not being a match for the home boys at any point.

Some Files For the Fans.

Greenville is certainly the stup. Greenville has more eggs in the basket to give teams that come this way.

When the Coast Line League opens, then keep your eye on Greenville.

Wonder if the fans and the leas will get together again this season. Come along boys.

Lanier do pitch great ball. They will have to take something larger than a bat to find the ball pitched by Lanier.

Lutterloh unnerved the visitors with an "over the fence home run" the second time he went to the bat. The grand stand went wild.

The Wilson Times says Greenville has the best amateur team in the state. Keep up that reputation, boys.

SAVE YOUR HAIR; SAGE TEA WILL DO IT

Dandruff, Itching Scalp and Falling Hair Quickly Stopped.

There is one place where baldheaded men shine, and that is in the front row seats of the theatre. If these baldheaded people had used Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy in their earlier days they would not be so conspicuous now. This preparation does not plant new hair, but it does strengthen weak, dying hair, and not only brightens dull, parched hair, but gradually restores the color to faded or gray hair. It is a clean, wholesome hair dressing, which can be used daily with perfect safety.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
