

HAPPENINGS DOWN AROUND AYDEN

MR. DAIL FINDS TURTLE'S NEST.

Personal Mention of The Traveling Public.

Ayden, N. C., July 12.—Miss Clarence, John S., and Sam Alphonzo Hart, all left Saturday for Morehead and they go from there Monday down further where the ponies grow wild. The annual penning and branding takes place on the 10th of May each year.

Mr. Geo. W. Dail returned a few days ago from down on the Atlantic coast and tells us while cruising along the beach his attention was attracted by the sign of some high sea monster's track, and by reason of himself being born and raised near there, he recognized it as a turtle's track and while meditating upon it and examining in the sand, he found her nest containing fourteen dozen or 168 eggs, as large as a walnut. He gave some to his comrades and took a quantity home with him and served them at his hotel here in Ayden.

Rev. W. B. Everett has returned from Morehead, where he has held a successful meeting. He tells us that a generous hearted sea captain took him out and gave him a lesson in catching fat-backs. He says that he was not afraid of being drowned, as he was too sick and his head was swimming all the time.

Prof. J. E. Sawyer has returned from an eastern tour, where he has been lecturing in the interest of the Seminary.

The most wonderful thing to relate is that Mr. Jack Dail, of our town, has a hog that was hurt in some way last spring, and the trouble settled in his shoulder to the extent that his leg, shoulder blade and all has come off and the place cured up and haired over. He gets about on three feet as though nothing had happened. The pig weighs about 75 pounds and we expect to see it on exhibition at the Pitt county fair.

Mr. J. J. Hines left Sunday for Richmond to spend a few weeks in a sanitarium there and will possibly undergo an operation.

Mr. J. R. Smith is giving his house a new coat of paint.

Mr. J. M. Barfield up on Lee street is improving the looks of his home by painting his houses and front fence. This is a good sign of progress and will help any town or community to repaint their fences, clean up, white wash and keep healthy, which is next to Godliness.

There was a large crowd in town Saturday, and we hear that in many sections that corn is drying up and that oak trees are dying all along the road.

Mr. Edgar Dixon was in town Saturday selling green corn which found a ready market, and was first-class.

We have had several calls for demits and application blanks since our last barbecue. We judged this would wake the boys up. They will come if you make the meetings interesting.

Miss Myrtle McGlohorn, who had been visiting relatives in town, returned home Sunday.

Mr. Will Cox lost a nice horse last week.

We hear that Mr. J. H. Cobb lost a nice drive horse last Saturday.

Mr. O. W. Rollins went to Stokes Sunday to attend the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Maria Rollins.

We took a stroll Monday through the campus of the Seminary and was struck with surprise and admiration, seeing so many mechanics at work, hammering, squaring and numbering timbers for the large dormitory and each piece fitting so nicely. We then went on to the main school building and found another squad of workmen remodeling the rubbish, and also preparing timbers and other material and everything moving on so nicely that we wondered if the master builder had not been taking lessons from the trestle board of Grand Master Hiram.

Mr. Harry Burton and wife, and Miss Helma Edwards are spending some time at Wrightsville Beach. Griffon and Ayden played ball here Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Jim Little, who has been playing on the Ayden team, is sick and was carried to his home near Hookerton Saturday. We hope he may soon recover and return, as we sure need him to help fan out the other boys.

Miss Myrtle Tucker, who has been visiting her uncle, Mr. E. E. Hardee, is

Are We Drinking Sewerage?

Greenville, N. C., July 12, 1911.
Editor Reflector:

Which is worse pollution of our water supply, boys swimming in the river two or three miles above the water plant, or sewerage, entering the river a hundred or so yards below and then swept back up the river, by the tide?

It is well known that bathing in the river for quite a distance above the water and light plant is prohibited by law; it is well known that at low water as has prevailed this summer, the tide goes far up the river above here (having been noticed at the Falkland landing), and it is also known that one of the main sewers of the town empties into the river just a short distance below the water and light plant. In fact, the lower sewer is not too far for tide water contamination.

Now, it is known that water can be had from driven wells, possibly overflow near the plant, so why not have them? This germ, bacteria pollution is enough without sewerage. Something ought to be done. What about it?

NEWS THAT IS OF INTEREST TO TAR HEELS

GATHERED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Told for The Reflector's Busy Readers.

Burlington, July 11.—Mr. Oscar Curtis suffered the loss of his right hand, at his home on South Main street this afternoon, in a rather peculiar explosion of dynamite caps. Mr. Curtis found a handful of caps in his barn, where it is supposed they had been left by well diggers, who had been dynamiting in the yard recently. He took them to his home and showed them to members of his family and was at a loss to know what disposition to make of them. Finally he decided to throw them away and just as they left his hand the explosion occurred.

Sheriff Deaton left yesterday for Knoxville, Tenn., to bring F. E. Drumwright, a young man of Eufola, to Statesville for trial on the charge of seduction. Drumwright was arrested at a point in Tennessee, about 90 miles from Knoxville, on a warrant sworn out by Mr. G. H. Shock, of Eufola, the father of the young woman whom he is alleged to have betrayed. He left Eufola some time ago.—Statesville Landmark.

The board of commissioners of Hoke county has let the contract to build a court house, the building to be completed in eight months.

Pitt Gets Tributary Road.

A delegation of citizens from Fort Barnwell came here this morning to present their claims to the county commissioners and central highway committee to have the central highway come by way of Fort Barnwell and cross Neuse river at Oak bridge. Their petition was granted, and the central highway will come by that route. Another tributary road will go from Fort Barnwell through Pitt and into Kinston, by way of Griffon, and still another will be built from Jones to Kinston, tapping in the central highway here.—Kinston Free Press, 10th.

Now for a branch from Greenville to Griffon. What says Ayden?

Mr. W. W. Perkins Operated On.

Mr. W. W. Perkins was operated on at the Wilson Sanatorium this morning for peritonitis.

Monday he was slightly unwell, yesterday peritonitis developed and so rapidly that Dr. Hassell, accompanied by Mr. J. W. Perkins, took him to Wilson on the Norfolk Southern 1:25 train this morning. Arriving at the sanatorium he was immediately operated on and was doing well when Dr. Hassell left him.

Greenville Man Honored.

At the eleventh annual convention of the Tobacco Association of the United States, held at Old Point, Va., July 4th, last, Mr. E. B. Ficklen, of Greenville, was elected a member of the board of directors of the association.

Sir Eldon Gorst Dead.

By Cable to The Reflector.
London, July 12.—Sir Eldon Gorst, British agent and consul general for Egypt, died today. Lord Kitchener may succeed him.

More Warships in Moroccan Waters

By Cable to The Reflector.
London, July 12.—Great excitement exists here over the Moroccan situation following the announcement that eight German warships have been ordered to Moroccan waters.

Rescue Work Continues.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Bridgeport, Conn., July 12.—Rescue crews are still toiling in the wreck of the federal express. Many of the 45 injured are in a critical condition in the hospitals.

New England Death List.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Boston, July 12.—The total death toll for New England from heat in the last twenty-four hours is 87. The total here to date is 161 and 596 prostrations. The drop in temperature today was 18 degrees.

Post Office Receipts.

The receipts of the Greenville post office for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, were some more than $11,100.00.

HAPPENINGS DOWN AROUND WINTERVILLE

A GOOD PLACE FOR DRUMMERS.

Personal And Local Items Of Interest.

Winterville, N. C., July 12.—Mrs. M. G. Bryan was called to Whichards Sunday to attend the burial of her mother.

Mr. J. D. Cox came in Saturday night to spend a few days.

Plenty of cheap summer goods at A. W. Ange and Co.'s.

Mr. J. A. Jarrell, of Griffon, spent Sunday with friends near here.

Mr. J. L. Rollins went to Whichards Sunday to attend the burial of his grandmother.

Miss Kate Chapman is visiting near Gardner's X Roads.

Lime, tobacco, cotton, lanterns, thermometers and alarm clocks at A. W. Ange and Co.'s.

Miss Lala Chapman is spending the week with Miss Cora Carroll.

Miss Minnie Mae Whitehead, who is attending the East Carolina Teachers Training school, spent Sunday and Monday at home.

Winterville has a fine opening for a good barber.

Rev. M. A. Adams returned home Monday.

Messrs. G. R. Dixon and Willford Buck returned Tuesday from Morehead, where they spent several days fishing.

Harrington, Barber and Company have fifty thousand shingles for sale. All red heart cypress.

Mr. T. C. Nelson and family have moved to Greenville.

Winterville is a hustling little town as is proven by the number of drummers that come; just yesterday seven got off one train here.

See Harrington, Barber and Company for your summer pants. They are selling them cheap.

Mrs. E. E. Cox left for Washington Monday evening to visit friends and relatives.

Miss Evelyn Sutton left Monday to visit friends in Kinston.

Miss Venetia Cox, after spending Monday at home, returned to E. C. T. S. that evening.

When you get ready for your baling wire, it will pay you to see Harrington, Barber and company. They have a large stock on hand.

Miss Pattie Sutton went to Greenville Monday to visit relatives and friends.

Messrs. J. F. Harrington, B. F. Manning and Eugene Cannon went to Norfolk and Ocean View Saturday night and returned by breakfast Monday morning. They report a good time.

Mr. M. B. Bryan and family, formerly of here, but now of Raleigh, came in Sunday to spend a day or two at home.

Harrington, Barber and Company have just received a car load of royal flour.

Mr. Ernest Cox left Monday evening for Asheville.
When you buy from home merchants, you are helping the town and thereby you share in the profits of your own purchase.

Mr. R. L. Abbott and partner attended the game of ball at Ayden yesterday.

Judging by the way the farmers are buying handy tobacco trucks and tobacco snuff from the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company, they must be about ready to cure some tobacco.

Messrs. Eugene Cannon and C. T. Cox drove over to Ayden yesterday evening.

If it is a regular style of Hunsucker buggy you want, or a special job you prefer, the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company is in a position to satisfy you.

Miss Annie McLawhorn, of Renston, is spending a day or two in town to the delight of her many friends.

We are giving carts and wagons our special attention now. When you get ready to buy, come to see us or write. We have something to say to you. A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company.

Mrs. W. E. Proctor and children, spent several days with Mrs. Ben. Tucker this week.

Travis Gets Plum.

E. L. Travis, of Halifax county, was commissioned by Governor Kitchin yesterday as corporation commissioner to succeed the late Henry Clay Brown. He qualified before Judge W. R. Allen, in the office of ex-Governor Aycock and will take up the duties of the commissionership today.

Wonderful Record.

Gentry, Me.—In the Hopkins, Manion and Kier families, Gentry has something to boast about. In the family of Monroe Hopkins there are nineteen children, although the father is only fifty and his wife forty-five years of age. There are no twins or triplets, and the eldest child is thirty. The parents were born in this country and have always lived on a farm. Mrs. Hopkins is very proud of her family, and says it has been a pleasure to rear it.

In the family of Mrs. Eliza Manion there are five generations, the combined ages of the five being nearly 300 years. The list beginning with Mrs. Sarah Henry, mother of Mrs. Manion, who is ninety-five years old, then come Mrs. Manion, Mrs. Mary Robb, Mrs. Mary Rees and the latter's eight-year-old daughter.

In the family of Mrs. Eliza A. Kier are six sons who are of the same height and who weigh exactly the same. Not long ago when a family picture was taken the six sons measured and found there was no difference. Then the oldest one stepped on the scales, and when his weight was determined he was followed by the next oldest, and so on down the line without moving the weights.

Ought to be Paid.

Washington, D. C.—The repayment to the Southern States of more than $68,000,000, collected by the government between 1862 and 1868 as a tax on raw cotton, is provided for in a bill introduced Saturday by Representative Clayton of Alabama.

Similar efforts to recover this tax have been made many times by other representatives of Southern States.

During the past ten years the percentage of people living in cities or towns of more than 2,500 inhabitants increased from 40.5 to 46.3, or 42,623,383 of the total.

No Relief Yet.

By Wire to The Reflector.
New York, July 12.—The death list, the work of the hot weather, between midnight and six o'clock this morning claimed 13 lives. There were prostrations too numerous to record. Light showers falling for half an hour failed to break the effect of the hot wave.

Forest Fires Burn Towns.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Detroit, Mich., July 12.—A half a dozen towns destroyed and scores of lives have been lost by fire sweeping across the forests of Northern Michigan. It has wiped out Au Sable, Pena, Millersburg and Tower. All small places in track of the flames seem doomed to ashes.

Stormy Scenes After King Leaves

By Cable to The Reflector.
Dublin, July 12.—Police guards had to protect the English anti-home rule spellbinders who started a public meeting here on the departure of the king and queen for London. Many bitter imprecations were hurled at the speakers, but the police prevented rioting.

Cheering King.

By Cable to The Reflector.
Dublin, July 12.—The king and queen were cheered by 3,000 Irishmen when they left for Kingston to board the royal yacht today.

Will Not Ask Divorce.

By Wire to The Reflector.
New York, July 12.—Ethel Berrymore says she will not sue Russell Colt for a divorce. She is a Catholic which forbids divorces.

Barn and Wheat Burned.

The barn of Mrs. M. E. Gaither, of the Harmony community, was totally destroyed by fire Saturday night and about 350 bushels of grain stored in the barn was burned along with it. The loss is about $800 with no insurance. The fire was discovered about 9 o'clock by Mrs. Gaither, who immediately gave the alarm and the men about the place reached the building in time to save the live stock and vehicles. The fire is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion.—Statesville Landmark.

Guests Flee In Night Clothes.

By Wire to The Reflector.
Louisville, Ky., July 12.—Several hundred guests had to flee in their night clothes early this morning on account of fire in the Willard hotel.

GREENVILLE BEAT KINSTON "WUSSER"

THE SCORE BEING 12 TO 1.

Slow and Uninteresting Game From The First Inning.

Since Greenville went to Kinston July 4th and got beat so badly the people here thought the game to be played here yesterday would be hard fought and closely drawn and the fans turned out in full force expecting to see something good, but the day proved to be Greenville's and the boys slugged the Kinston balls all over the field, the score being 12 to 1 in our favor.

Kinston took the lead in the first inning by scoring one run, but in the second Greenville recovered with six to the good, making seven runs, thus standing until the sixth, when two more runs were added, and then to the eighth and ninth when three more were put on, making a total of twelve. Heavy slugging of the Sloan balls and some misplays put Kinston to the bad.

Features of the game were: Darden's running, one-hand catch, and Forbes' home run.

Score by innings:

	R. H. E.
Greenville	070 002 012—12 15 2
Kinston	100 000 000—1 8 6
Batteries:	Lanier and Reddick;
Sloan, Pittman;	Fleming, Rogers.

Senator Smith, of Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., July 12.—Governor Hoke Smith's election as United States senator to succeed the late Senator A. S. Clay, was made practically certain today when a total of 128 votes were cast in his favor in the two houses of the legislature, each house voting separately, or 13 more than enough to elect on joint ballot. In the senate he received 21 votes and in the house 107 while his nearest competitor, Senator J. M. Terrell, received 17 in the senate and 36 in the house, a total of 53.

Charlotte P. O Receipts.

The receipts at the local postoffice during the fiscal year that ended June 30, amounted to $150,030.97, this amount being $10,803.68 more than the receipts for the year before, when they amounted to $139,227.29. This is the first time that the Charlotte or any other North Carolina postoffice has passed the $150,000 mark, and the total is almost one-third greater than the receipts at Wilmington, the next largest city in the state.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Wins The Bennett Cup.

HOW CITY PEOPLE LIVE.

People who live in the country and country towns, where there is plenty of room and abundant space between buildings, have much to be thankful for, especially amid such torrid temperature as has prevailed for some days recently. They read of intense heat, and prostrations and deaths occurring in the cities, but the news dispatches give only a slight idea of the intense suffering in the densely populated centers. While the temperature may really be no higher in the cities than in the country regions, the sun pouring down all day upon the compact stone and brick buildings makes them so hot that they are almost like ovens, and this heat is so retained that the buildings do not get cool during the night.

The writer has just had an opportunity during a forced stay of a few days in Baltimore of seeing how people suffer under such conditions. They exist through the day some how, and at night they almost live on the streets and in the parks. Along the residence section every house had a group of people with chairs and pillows on the sidewalks in front, and hundreds of men slept on benches and grass plots in the parks. Finding a place cool enough to sleep in was a problem with many of them.

In this, as in many other things, the people of the country are far more blessed than the people of the city.

RECIPROCITY ON FREE TRADE.

Simmons may be right in sticking to his agreement and trying to keep a high tariff on lumber, but that very thing is what we have been "cussing" the Republicans for, for these many years—high tariff protection for "infant industries" (political monied interests)—and as the Democratic party, stands for free trade we think it would be more in keeping with Mr. Simmons to work to that end. What a party looking spectacle: A Democratic senator working for high tariff protection of an "infant industry!"

Do you know who feeds the lumber baby? He is the man who needs the money most and that's why he voted the Democrat ticket, so let us have free trade in everything or join the Republican party.

The Folly of Lawsuits.

Whatever else you do, don't get into a lawsuit over some trifling disagreement with a neighbor. The courts are full of suits which could have been settled by mutual conces-

Accused of Stealing.

E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs, cuts, corns bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Only 25c, at all druggists.

sion or by arbitration to the great advantage of all parties except the lawyers in the case. Just the other day a suit was decided after two or three years of expense and worry on the part of two families. It was over a disputed line, as so many such suits are, and the land in dispute was probably not worth fifty dollars. The suit cost the winner $225, and the loser, being taxed with the costs, necessarily had more to pay. It is probable that each party spent at least $100 worth of time in monkeying with the case.

Another case recently noticed is where a farmer had a right to get water from a spring on a neighbor's land. He wanted to build a spring-house, the owner objected. The first man had got along without a spring-house for years, it would not have damaged the land-owner a penny, yet an injunction has been issued and a lawsuit is on. Each party will probably spend several hundred dollars and be no better off, and the old friendliness of the neighborhood will be a thing of the past.

To begin a suit in court over some such trivial matter which could easily be adjusted by a little give and take, is not only the poorest sort of business policy—a case of wasting certain dollars to gain possible cents,—but is also a crime against the community and a foolish waste of the best part of life. For what shall it profit a man if he gain a needless lawsuit only to lose the goodwill of his neighbors and his own friendliness towards them?—Raleigh Progressive Farmer.

Taxing The Childless.

Wisconsin starts an attack on race suicide. It is a small start, but even a start is revolutionary. The legislature has passed an income tax bill which becomes law if endorsed by the people at next year's election. The tax proposed ranges from one-half of one per cent up to six per cent, increasing with the size of the income. But there is exemption up to a certain point. In the case of an unmarried man this is $1,000. For each dependant, and here's where the attack on race suicide comes in, an extra $200 is exempted. Under this rule, as a man's family grows, his tax decreases. The decrease is not enough, in this case, to make much incentive to large families, but it establishes the principle, which is important. Our taxes have always run just the other way. So far as tariffs increase prices they subsidize race suicide, for those taxes increase as the family increases. Even our system of direct taxation has that effect. Let a baby come, and we do not penalize the father with a tax on its cradle?—Nebraska State Journal.

It Is Great.

The granulated appearance of a redmeated watermelon indicates the imprisoned particles of sugar developed from the saccharine constituent of the kind grown in the generous loamy soil of eastern North Carolina. Some foolish people cut a watermelon with a knife, totally ignorant of the Pender county method of breaking open a juicy specimen and fanning the bees away while getting away with the delicious hunks as fast as they can be lifted from the shattered rind. "Why should the heathen rage?" Why, it's simply because they want to come to eastern North Carolina where the best of everything grows to the quintessence of perfection.—Wilmington Star.

Not Buttermilk.

Those editors who got only buttermilk on that mountain trip must have been too slow for anything. When we saw them it did not look like buttermilk. That buttermilk story though is a good one to tell the folks back at home.—Raleigh Times.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and its the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. Its the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, quincy or sore lungs. Price 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free.

You can't convince a girl that any man she admires isn't in the hero class.

SAGE AND SULPHUR

CURES DANDRUFF

Restores Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color—Itching Scalp Quickly Stopped.

This applies to Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, for if it does not do exactly what is claimed for it, the sales would naturally drop off. However, Wyeth's Sage Sulphur Hair Remedy does "make good" as evidenced by its daily increasing sales. Druggists say that this preparation gives the best satisfaction of any hair remedy ever sold. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It removes dandruff, strengthens the hair, gives new life to dull or parched hair, and gradually restores gray hair to natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent, MOYE'S PHARMACY.

Indicted For Falling to Suicide.

Establishing a precedent in local courts, Irving Burriss, a young white man, was indicted in the recorder's court yesterday and will be tried this morning on a charge of attempting to commit suicide, which is a misdemeanor under the common law. Burriss was found Saturday night lying across one of the tracks of the suburban line between League and Highwood parks. It is stated that he was lying with his feet across one rail and his head across the other. He was seen by Motorman W. C. Baird, who was on a car returning from the beach on a parallel line, and was picked up. He is quoted as saying that he wanted to commit suicide is the reason he lay down on the track. It is thought Burriss was under the influence of whiskey at the time.—Wilmington Star.

Baseball Wives.

In the early days a woman with a ball club was a rarity. Now it is common for seven or eight players to take their wives on long trips and sometimes their children. Managers admit that the women have a restraining and refining influence, but they are not wanted. Often managers make wry faces when notified that some of the men are taking their wives. The women take the minds of the players off the game—sometimes a good thing, but more frequently a bad one. If there should be a quarrel the wives are certain to take sides. Two of the Cubs lost their tempers one night and clashed. It was over in a minute, and both were sorry. Chance, sitting as a judge, passed this sentence: "I'll fine you each $10, and if either of you dares tell his wife I'll make it $100."—American Magazine.

"Doctor Of Public Health."

A new degree has been invented by the University of Michigan. It is represented by the letters "D. P. H.," which mean "doctor of public health." The first "D. P. H." degrees were conferred a few days ago upon Drs. Evans and Keifer, who have been very successful in chasing germs to their lair and catching them. The new degree, it seems, is to be reserved for the honor of scientists who do something notable in the way for promoting the public health by hygienic, surgical or other means.—Savannah Morning News.

CURED TO STAY CURED.

Greenville Citizen Found Complete Freedom from Kidney Troubles.

If you suffer from backache—From urinary disorders—From any disease of the kidneys, Be cured to stay cured. Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures.

Greenville people testify. Here's one case of it: James Hardison, 411 Fifth St., Greenville, N. C., says, "I had trouble from my kidneys and the kidney secretions passed too frequently at night. In the morning when I got up, there was a lameness across my loins and I also suffered from backache. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured from the John L. Wooten Drug Company, relieved all these symptoms of kidney complaint and restored my kidneys to a normal condition. At the present time I am free from backache and I have no hesitation in giving Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for bringing about this change." (Statement given January 14, 1908).

No Trouble Since.

On December 17, 1910, Mr. Hardison said: "I take pleasure in confirming my former statement in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy made a permanent cure in my case and during the past two and a half years I have had no need of a kidney medicine." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Tomorrow.

Tomorrow's a convenient time
To finish every task,
In every season, every clime,
For that day we ask.
We seem to think that it will stay
Two weeks or maybe four.
We fill it full of work and play
And keep on adding more.

Tomorrow we are sure to write
Those letters, half a score,
To mow the lawn before it's night,
And look our scrapbooks o'er.
Then there's that little call to pay,
A book to be returned;
Storm windows to be put away
A ton of rubbish burned.

There is little Johnny's car to mend
And Mabel's doll to patch,
An errand for an absent friend,
Some silk for wife to match.
For purposes of work and play
That on our lists appear
Tomorrow should come twice a day
And then should last a year.
—Chicago News.

Miss Carrie Wilson and Dora Creal, of Dunn, who have been attending the summer school here left Tuesday afternoon to attend a house party in Wilson, after which they will visit Rocky Mount before going home.

Mr. H. A. White returned this morning from New Bern. Mrs. H. Skinner left this morning for Virginia Beach to spend a few days.

Mrs. Bettie Smith left this morning for Newport News.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cobb left this morning for Virginia Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Harriss and Mr. Lee King left this morning for Virginia Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Newbern Whitehurst and Miss Lucy Whitehurst left this morning for Morehead City.

Mrs. J. F. Jones and children, of Speed, are visiting Mrs. O. F. Clark. Judge H. W. Whedbee returned this morning from Lumberton, where he had been holding court.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Banning and child left this morning for a visit to Hendersonville.

Mrs. M. Cherry, of Washington, is here visiting relatives.

End of The Century Club Thursday Morning.

The End of the Century Club will meet with Mrs. R. O. Jeffers Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of electing two new members.

Sailing Down The Tar.

It was exactly 9:15 Monday evening when a beautiful float with refreshments on board and lighted with Japanese lanterns was pulled from the Old Dominion wharf by the smart little launch, "Mayona," upon which were the following couples:

Miss Mary Shelburn with Mr. Geo. Gornto.

Miss Carrie Alexander, of Elizabeth City, with Mr. S. E. Gates.

Miss Mattie Griffin, of Elizabeth City, with Mr. T. A. Duke.

Miss Veruessa Smith with Mr. Mark Tuftage.

Miss Mary Smith with Mr. Carey Warren.

Miss Lizzina Moore with Mr. J. I. Smith.

Miss Evelyn Aydtlett, of Elizabeth City, with Mr. Don Gilliam.

Miss Ruth Abernathy, of Hickory, with Mr. John Shelburn.

Miss Lee Brown with Mr. Alex. Blow, Jr.

Miss Elizabeth Ames, of Norfolk, with Mr. J. Benjamin Higgs.

Miss Francis Bagwell with Mr. C. R. Townsend.

Miss Pattie Uzzelle, of Wilson, with Mr. J. K. Brown.

Miss Isabelle Morton, of Belhaven, with Mr. Tom Dupree. After sailing down the old Tar beyond Red Banks, the float was turned homeward and a few minutes later was anchored safely at the banks, where to the delight of all, the most delicious luncheon was prepared by Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Tucker, who so gracefully chaperoned the little party. It was just a few minutes past twelve when all returned home happy, wishing for a repetition of the past. We might have called this the Pinafore, for all of the sailors were so nice that all of the ladies wanted to be the captain's daughter, and she could nowhere be found. We only have to add that we owe a part of our pleasure to Mr. Jesse Speight, who was the promoter of the delightful occasion and wonder why he is still a bachelor.

Will Show Tonight.

Owing to the freight wreck on the Norfolk Southern road near Zebulon yesterday and the consequent delay of the passenger train, the films for last night's show at the Gaiety theatre did not get here until after midnight, therefore it was impossible to have the regular show. There will be the regular show tonight with a good program. Don't miss it.

By Automobile To Canada.

Mr. Larry I. Moore, of New Bern, was in Beaufort Sunday. Mr. Moore accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Sawyer, arrived in Beaufort Saturday afternoon. It was learned yesterday that Mr. Moore is going to take his family to Canada in his automobile, and it is understood they will leave New Bern Tuesday morning. Mr. Moore has recently purchased a handsome Buick automobile and no doubt this trip will be the longest one yet undertaken by any New Bernian. Mr. Lee Smith, of this city, proprietor of the Craven Auto Co., will accompany the party on the trip, and will act in the capacity of chauffeur.—New Bern Sun.

Charity Record Not Good.

As the result of the investigation started by Mr. James Dempsey Bullock, a member of the executive committee of the Associated Charities of Wilson, it has been ascertained that the Carnegie Orphanage at Mt. Olive is not what it should be, and that the founder, Mrs. Carnegie, has applied the funds collected to build a home for herself and the ten children she has succeeded in getting together serves a two-fold purpose firstly, to give the institution the appearance of an orphanage, and secondly, to furnish help to work the crop on the place. Last year when Mrs. Carnegie came to town to solicit funds Mr. Bullock very promptly instituted inquiries and found she was not up to the representations she had made regarding her institution. This time she sent a young girl who on yesterday solicited alms from house to house.—Wilson Times.

Ordinance Notice.

"Section 1. Every occupant of a lot on any street shall keep the sidewalk clean and clear of weeds, grass and other rank vegetation as far as such lot extends. If any rubbish, dirt, ashes or any other thing be placed or left without lawful authority upon such sidewalk or in the gutters or streets adjacent thereto, the occupants of such lot shall remove same. If, after written notice by the chief of police, or street commissioners, requiring him to remove the things prohibited by this ordinance, he shall fail for twenty-four hours to remove the same, he shall be fined five dollars for each day thereafter it may so remain."

Notice is hereby given that every owner or occupant of a lot in Greenville must comply with the above ordinance by July 20th, and that those failing to do so, I shall proceed against as the law directs.

Happenings Around Simpson.

Simpson, N. C., July 12.—Miss Minnie Woolard, of Washington, is visiting Miss Janie Edwards.

Mr. Joe Williams, of Greenville, spent Sunday with Mr. Walter Tucker. Mr. W. L. Wooten went to Greenville Monday.

Miss Thelma Bryan, of Grimesland, returned home Monday, after a few days' visit at Mrs. W. E. Tucker's.

Mrs. Richard Buck, of Chocowinity, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mills.

Some of the young men gave a hay ride Monday night in honor of Miss Minnie Woolard, who is visiting Miss Janie Edwards. The crowd of merry-makers had lots of fun throwing hay, eating apples and melons, singing, playing harps and blowing horns. A delightful lunch was served on the way home.

Miss Lela Bryan entertained quite a number of her friends Thursday evening. Games and music were enjoyed. Refreshments, consisting of ices, cream and cake, were served. The guests departed with regret and declaring Miss Bryan a charming hostess.

[We are glad to have the Simpson correspondent and wish to return thanks for the same.—Ed.]

Narrowly Missed Lynching.

Anderson, S. C., July 12.—H. P. McDaniels, a wealthy farmer, reprimanded his negro tenant, T. C. Williams, for cutting down some pine saplings. The negro resented the reprimand and made an attack on Mr. McDaniels, hitting him between the shoulder blades with a large rock. One of the shoulder blades was fractured and his spinal column was injured. The news of the attack spread rapidly through the county and within an hour a large throng had gathered at the McDaniels home, many coming from a distance in automobiles. A warrant against the negro charging assault and battery with intent to kill, was secured from Magistrate Martin and Deputy Richard Smith arrested the negro, who offered no resistance. Because the negro's wife attempted to help him by bringing out a shotgun, she was also arrested.

Immediately after the arrests were effected, Deputy Sheriff Van Martin and Constable Tom Davis arrived in an automobile, picked up the prisoners and rushed them to the county jail. The mob had greatly increased in numbers and violence. Col. D. A. Geer and others held the crowds back and prevailed upon them to allow the law to take its course.

Burned To Death With House.

Princeton, N. C., July 11.—The people of Princeton were startled this morning to learn that Mr. Arthur Percival, a young farmer living near Princeton, and his wife had been burned to death in their house during the night.

The farm hands who had been working for him the day before left them at the supper table early in the night, this being the last time they were seen alive.

Near neighbors, upon arising this morning, soon discovered that the house was missing, and upon investigation found that the charred remains of this unfortunate couple were the only things left to tell the tale. It is supposed that the fire occurred about one o'clock this morning.

Mr. Percival married a daughter of Mr. R. W. Edmundson last December and they were living alone at the time of the accident. Being a popular young couple there was no reason for foul play, and it is supposed that the fire occurred from a defective flue.

Follows The Bank.

W. E. Warren, who did a flourishing business near the Coast Line station, through his attorney, J. M. Norfleet, has assigned all his property to Reuben Evans as trustee for creditors, without preference. This was forced by the failure of the Hub Grocery Co., which had advanced him about $1,500.—Tarboro Southerner.

Booze Cause Of It All.

Richmond, Va., July 11.—Caught in the act of stealing a case of fifty half-pints of bottled whiskey consigned to John Newby, New Bern, N. C., Emmett White, a negro, was shot and almost instantly killed last night by Special Agent G. B. Bee, of the Seaboard Air Line, in the local freight yard of the road. George Saunders, another negro, who interfered with Gee, was also shot by him through the arm and in addition was badly clubbed over the head.

Mr. W. O. Little Dead.
Mr. William O. Little died last night in Petersburg, Va., where he was engaged in the drug business. He recently suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which he never recovered. His brother, Mr. J. L. Little, left this morning for Petersburg not knowing of his death. The remains will be brought home tomorrow for burial at the family homestead, near Grimesland.

He was about forty years of age and is survived by his father, Mr. W. G. Little, one brother, Mr. J. L. Little, and one sister, Mrs. Cornelius Barnhill.

THE KING CAN DO NO WRONG.

Neither Can He Ever Die, According to British Law.

It is a curious point of British law that the king never dies, or, to put it in another way, it would be useless for any barrister to argue that the ruler's predecessors have really died, since the utmost the law will admit is that there may be a "demise of the crown," meaning, of course, simply that there has been a transfer of the royal authority from one person to another.

It is a maxim that "the king can do no wrong," and under the law he would not be held personally responsible for any crime or "tort" that he chose to commit at any time. At any rate, we are assured by high constitutional authorities that the law should actually and literally be so construed and that the statutes hold that any in jury his majesty might inflict upon a subject must be ascribed to the king's advisers. One thing seems to be certain, and that is that his majesty can under no circumstances whatsoever be arrested. Nor, moreover, could his goods be distrained or taken in execution should he fail to meet his liabilities.

A quaint feature of British law is that in theory the king is present at the law court at every sitting, though he might in point of fact actually be on the continent or elsewhere. It follows, therefore, that it is impossible to nonsuit him as plaintiff should he not put in an appearance when his case is called, since the law specifically states that the king is there. In a similar sense the king is always constructively present in parliament, though he be in fact thousands of miles from his shores.

His majesty is under the law the nominal guardian of all infants, idiots and lunatics, and to him is granted the sole right to print the Bible, the Book of Common Prayer and all acts of parliament in the United Kingdom. It has been stated, furthermore, that should he so desire the king could forbid the printing of any or all of them anywhere within his dominions.—Harper's.

A Case of Necessity.
"Why are you breaking up house-keeping?"
"My wife's florist says she'll have to take the rubber plant to a different climate."—Washington Herald.

Nature knows no pause in progress and development and attaches her curse on all inaction.—Goethe.

Attack Like Tigers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, saltnum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Cal., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

LEGION OF HONOR.

The Order That Was Founded by the Great Napoleon.

THRIVED DESPITE RIDICULE.

The Despotie Corsican Proved by the Inauguration of the Decoration That He Was a Keen Student of French Human Nature.

France owes the Legion of Honor to Napoleon. All orders of chivalry had been abolished by the revolution and had left a gap which it was not easy to fill. "They are mere geegaws," said Monge, the chemist, who had taught the revolutionists how to make gunpowder out of plaster of paris. "Geegaws, if you will," the first consul answered, "but people like them. Let us approach the question frankly. All men are enamored of decorations, the French more than any. They positively hunger for them, and they have always done so."

This was at Malmaison in 1802. In May the conseil d'etat was invited to consider the project of the institution of the Legion of Honor. It was ridiculed by many, notably by Moreau, who as victor of Hohenlinden was bitterly jealous of the victor of Marengo. At a dinner party he sent for his cook and said to him in the presence of his guests: "Michel, I am pleased with your dinner. You have indeed distinguished yourself. I will award you a sancepan of honor." Mme. de Stael was also satirical upon the subject. "Ah, one of the decorated?" she used to ask each guest who was shown into her salon.

But Napoleon had gauged human nature correctly. His Legion of Honor did meet a felt want, and it was definitely inaugurated on July 14, 1804. Among the eminent men of science and men of letters on whom it was then bestowed were included Laplace, the mathematician; Lalande, the astronomer; Cuvier, the naturalist, and Legouve, the poet. The most notable name omitted was that of Bernardin de St. Pierre, just then in disgrace for championing Mme. de Stael, whom Napoleon had banished, but he got the decoration later on the entreaty of Queen Hortense.

After Napoleon's downfall the question of suppressing the Legion of Honor arose. Chateaubriand, whom Napoleon had not decorated, strongly urged its abolition. So did Puzzo di Borgo, Marshals Victor, Marmont and Macdonald opposed. After debate it was decided to recognize and retain the order, not on any high moral or patriotic grounds, but because Louis XVIII. could not afford to make himself more unpopular than he was already by stripping people of their decorations. Chateaubriand and Lamartine consented to accept the red ribbon, but it was also conferred upon a great number of worthless personages and so brought into contempt.

There have been many Legion of Honor scandals since those days, but one of them surpasses all the others in magnitude. This is, of course, the Wilson scandal, the history of which, though intricate, is worth recalling.

The trouble may be said to have begun on the day on which Mlle. Allee Grey fell in love with an opera singer who need not be mentioned here. He wanted to marry her, and she wanted to marry him, and the papers were beginning to couple the two names in a manner most embarrassing to the president of the republic. The president, however, sent the opera singer about his business and found his daughter another husband, not a very good husband, but the best husband he could procure on the spur of the moment. His choice fell upon M. Daniel Wilson, who had long been one of M. Grey's political supporters and was a financier of some mark.

No sooner was M. Wilson established at the Elysee than he proceeded to enrich himself by various means. Among other things he founded a paper called Le Moniteur de l'Exposition Universelle, which really covered a traffic in decorations. The whole story came out in a state trial toward the end of 1887. It was proved that Wilson had made a regular practice of selling the Legion of Honor, or, rather, of inviting people who wanted it to bribe him to use his influence to obtain it for them. His overtures were presented through his jackals, Generals d'Audian and Caffereil and Mmes. Limousin and Kattazi, and the whole party had to stand in the dock together.

Wilson was sentenced to two years' imprisonment, a fine of 3,000 francs and five years' deprivation of civil rights. He appealed, and the court of cassation annulled the judgment. The accused, said the judges, was obviously guilty of everything that he was charged with, but as his offenses were not anticipated by any punitive law he could not be punished. So he retired to the country and tried to live down his bad name. As he ultimately got himself elected councillor general one must suppose that he succeeded in this object.—Pall Mall Gazette.

HOTEL BEDS ABROAD.

To Get into Some of Them One Has to Use a Stepladder.

The European bed always strikes the uninitiated American traveler as a huge joke. In France they commence to impress him with their height and narrowness, and he looks dubiously at the enormous Turkey red cotton "couvre pied" of elderdown, which seems something like a mountain, and he wonders how he is ever going to bear all that extra weight on his person. But when he has slipped between the sheets and the grateful warmth communicates itself to his cold bones—if it is winter they are sure to be like icicles—he discovers that it is deceptively light and deliciously comfortable.

In Switzerland the beds attain a little more height, but it is in Germany that they become of such an altitude as to necessitate a pair of steps to mount them. One tourist, finding that one leg of the stepladder was broken, solved his difficulty by going to the extreme end of the room, taking a running start and landing with a flying leap in the midst of the Turkey red elderdown. He crawled in under the crocheted counterpane and was soon fast asleep. Some time in the night he became sleepily aware of a consuming thirst and started to get out of bed for a drink. A startled shriek, followed by some swear words that even the thick headed German watchman understood, penetrated to the remotest chamber in the inn.

"I was half awake," he explained afterward, "and had been dreaming of standing on Table rock, in the Yosemite.
I started to get out of bed—and began to fall. Naturally I supposed I was plunging to the bottom of that precipice, and I'll leave it to you if any one wouldn't have let out a yell when he thought he was going to be dashed to death."

Sometimes in European hotels the tourist is taken solemnly to one side and told that by paying a few francs or lire more he can have the royal bedchamber. A certain hotel in Sorrento, where a dozen or more royal heads have lain in one season, is even more generous, for if the rooms are empty they make no extra charge.
And the traveler loves to recount when he is back on his native heath how his cheek pressed the same pillow that had been used by the little queen of Holland or the king of Saxony.—New York Tribune.

A Battle of Languages.

Three or four languages strove for mastery in ancient Gaul, which is now France. German was spoken by the 12,000 Frank invaders. Popular Latin was spoken by 6,000,000 Gallo-Romans.
Literary Latin was the language of the church and of literature. Low Latin was afterward the language of the administration. German was the first to succumb. In four centuries it ceased to be understood by the soldiers, and in seventy years more it had become an object of ridicule. But it survived in more than 900 words, expressing the things of government, law and war, and thus forms no insignificant part of the French language.

Corpse Rings.

The sailor of the old fashioned, shell-back class always wears a corpse ring.
This is a plain band of silver or gold, inscribed within with the sailor's name and port. Corpse rings are worn for the purpose of identification in case of death by drowning through shipwreck, etc. The shellback sailor can never swim, and he looks forward calmly to dying suddenly beneath the sea. Indeed, he usually prefers such a death to a lingering one in hospital.—Buffalo Express.
