

CROPS ARE GOOD IN FARMVILLE SECTION

SOME DAMAGE DONE BY WIND.

Another Interesting Story of The Long Ago.

Farmville, N. C., July 19, 1911.
Editor Reflector:

The drouth is at last broken and at this time we are threatened with a superabundance of water. One extreme usually begets another, even in nature.

This part of the county did not suffer as badly as other portions from dry weather. Our cotton, corn and tobacco were fine and are now, but they are somewhat damaged by the wind which accompanied the rain Saturday afternoon.

My boy of "corn club" has a very fine piece of late corn which the wind did not injure. From the appearance of his corn now he may be as successful as those who planted earlier.

Intensive farming is fascinating and sometimes profitable. It is also risky and a course of much anxiety. After having gone to very much trouble and expense upon a crop to see your prospects for a fine or phenomenal yield blighted in a moment, is indeed far from reassuring.

The wind did not do damage to more than one-third of Farmville township.

Only a few are curing tobacco this week, which is unusual, as we are generally two-thirds done by the third week in July.

Where were the parents of your Hanrahan correspondent when the clerk was binding out a nice boy, at their very door, to such a cruel and unfeeling man? I enjoy reading his pieces—but sometimes I feel sad.

I once heard of a town that was kept clean by every man keeping his own premises clean. How any man who had ever read the parable of the Good Samaritan could have permitted such a wonder to me; unless in his opinion the Good Samaritan was a single man and therefore the principle did not apply in his case, I cannot realize.

I once knew a man whose name was Felix, who was so afflicted with hook worms that no one wanted him around them. So he went in the woods a mile or so from any road or cleared land, built him a log hut, did not even skin the logs, covered it with boards and had only a make shift for a floor, no windows and a very poor door. In this shanty he and his sister Annie lived or existed. In the summer time they would peddle huckle berries and Annie would beg. In the winter or fall I suppose they picked cotton. (I do not know about that). Once they came to our house and mother bought some of their huckleberries, though she was nearly afraid to eat them, even after they had been washed. He then asked for something to eat and mother gave him some fat meat and corn bread in the kitchen. His fat meat began to drip and mother said to him, "Do not spill your grease upon my floor." He replied, "Give me some lean meat and I will not spill any grease." Poor fellow, he and his sister had a hard time, as most beggars do. The saddest part of my tale is to come. Just as the war was ending and a hope held out for him to better his life, he went to his wife's house. His wife was occupying an old deserted dwelling near the public road, and begged for something to eat. She said that provisions were not plentiful at her house and that he must leave, whereupon, seeing a griddle cake of corn bread upon the fire about done, he snatched it up and out of the house he ran, followed by one of his wife's children. She had a gun in her hand. Shortly afterwards some of the neighbors heard a report of a gun. The maiden returned to the house, all serene. In the morning someone passing this place saw a man lying prostrate, when he was called to, he did not answer, poor fellow, he was dead.

He was such a worthless fellow that no one ever inquired into the cause of his death. Whenever one boy wanted to insult another he had only call him Felix. Whenever a parent unkindful of his real responsibility to his child, wished to humiliate his child, he told him that he was as trifling as Felix. Many and many times have the hearts of the little ones been almost broken by being likened to Felix. The con-

CROWD AT WRIGHTSVILLE.

Visitors Get A View of a Water Spout At Sea.

Wrightsville Beach, N. C., July 19.—The many visitors at the beach were treated to a rare concert on Sunday last, when two special events were rendered, which greatly pleased the large number in attendance. As a delightful surprise to those who gather every Sunday to listen to the music at the Seashore, Manager Binton invited Mrs. Pearson, who is now filling an engagement at the Grand, and whose splendid voice is well known in Wilmington and on the beach, to render a solo, to which she graciously assented. She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harry Linden and on the violin by Mr. Linden. Mrs. Pearson's vocal selections were a fine feature of the concert, and added much to the pleasure of those who were present.

The visitors and residents of the beach, who were fortunate enough to be up at that hour, witnessed a wonderful sight on Friday morning about seven o'clock, when only a few miles from the coast a remarkable phenomena was observed in the form of a water spout. Differing materially from the average water spout that has been observed off this coast as it was not a perpendicular tower of water, but it arose from the water in an angle, leaning far to one side near the middle. It extended from the surface of the ocean far up into the clouds, its crest being entirely hidden. A short distance above where the column arose out of the sea it commenced to bend until at what appeared to be the middle, it resembled a bow. From here on up towards the clouds, it appeared to straighten out again, and where it disappeared into them it was almost in a straight line with the bottom. Many of the "oldest inhabitants" have never witnessed a water spout, though from time to time they have appeared off the coast, so those who got up for an early morning dip were particularly fortunate in being able to witness this wonderful spectacle.

The concerts at Lumina Sunday afternoon and evening proved to be as popular as ever, when hundreds flocked to this attractive pavillion. The music was exceptionally good, and was greatly enjoyed by the large number present.

WRECK ON NORFOLK SOUTHERN.

One Train Sent Around Over Atlantic Coast Line Track.

Tuesday morning a Norfolk Southern freight train was wrecked on a curve between Pinetown and Washington. Three cars were demolished and some of the track torn up. The morning passenger train for Norfolk had to be sent around from Washington over the Atlantic Coast Line tracks via Parrale to Plymouth to get by the wreck. The track was cleared in the afternoon and the train from Norfolk due here at 4:50 p. m. came by about 9 o'clock.

PURE SODA WATER A GODSEND.

Dr. Wiley Condemns Use of Bad Chemicals.

The soda water fountain is as great a menace to femininity, in many cases, as the bar room to masculinity, according to Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the government pure food and drug expert. Let it be understood that Dr. Wiley is not defending the bar room. While not a prohibitionist, he is "fernist" strong drink, and has said so officially numerous times.

Dr. Wiley is not opposed to soda water in itself, nor to gayly bedecked fountains from which it issues. He is strongly opposed to dangerous ingredients which are hidden in the foam-covered glasses handed out to young and old alike.

"I am a friend of the soda water man," Dr. Wiley said. The honest soda water man who sells real soda water is a godsend. I would not part with him for the world. It's the man who sells injurious chemicals and habit-producing drugs in soda water glasses to whom I am opposed and whom I would like to see driven out of business. I have been quoted from one end of the country to the other as being on the trail of all the people who sell soda water, I am not, and never have been. But it would give me great pleasure to aid in putting out of business that contemptible class of persons who make their flavors of injurious chemicals and who sell them as pure fruit flavors.

To be pure and healthy, soda water should contain three ingredients—pure fruit flavors, pure carbonated water, and sugar, not saccharin or some other injurious sweetening. To sell flavors that are made of chemicals instead of fruits is criminal. To begin with, what is soda water? That is one question I would like to have congress and the various state legislatures define positively. Until there is some authoritative action taken on the question there is little reason to believe that we will ever get pure, clean soda water in the ordinary drug store.

There is no law which compels the druggist to put specified ingredients into his concoction. He may put virtually anything under the sun except the poisons which are prohibited by law into a glass and squirt a little foam on top, and if the mixture is satisfying to the palate of the credulous he will make money. Some day I hope congress will tell us what soda water is and what it is not. Then we can proceed with some prospects of success, to drive some of the shysters out of business.

"First of all, soda water does not and is not supposed to contain any soda. The name is a misnomer. A great deal of the stuff that is sold under the name of soda water contains saccharin instead of sugar. Saccharin is injurious, and affects children seriously. Much of the carbonated water that is mixed with the flavors contains lead. Such a mixture should be prohibited by law. A great percentage of the flavor is made of various kinds of chemicals all of which are more or less injurious to young and old alike.

"Caffine, which is being used so generally by many unscrupulous soft drink dispensers, should be driven from the market by law. Its effects especially on young people, compare with the effects of cocaine and morphine.

"I could not venture an opinion on the yearly number of little children whose lives are ruined by the use of caffeine and other dopes which are hidden in soda water glasses. The number is frightful. The same is true of grown up folks. Of course, their systems are calculated to withstand the ravages of these insidious dopes better than children.

"At any rate silly parents are allowing children to ruin their nervous systems and stomachs by drinking the dregs of dirty, insanitary, filthy drug store soda fountains. I am inclined to believe that the next generation will find that we have developed a race of nervous wrecks. Many mothers would lift their hands in holy horror if their little girls or boys should walk into their homes puffing cigarettes, but still they will lead them to soda fountains and allow them to fill themselves with all sorts of stuff that has just as bad effect on their systems.

"Children should not be allowed to touch anything that tends to excite the nervous system, whether it is coffee or caffeine, or any of the other drugs that are passed out so freely.

She climbed the ladder with a bucket full of water and dashed it on the burning shingles.

Scotland Neck, July 18.—There was a serious affray near Spring Hill between two white men named Shaw and Tudor. They are brothers-in-law and came to Scotland Neck together Saturday afternoon on Shaw's buggy. When Shaw was ready to return home Tudor would not go; so Shaw went on and left him. Tudor went to Spring Hill on the 8 o'clock train that evening. He went to the home of Shaw, whom he found in the dining room at supper, and commenced abusing him for leaving him. Shaw resisted the abuse by striking Tudor with his fist, and Tudor returned the blow with a stick of wood. Then Shaw seized a knife and inflicted two severe wounds on Tudor, gashing his arm from his shoulder to his elbow and cutting his throat. Tudor said to be under the influence of liquor.

"It's rather a hard matter to point to the soda water fountain where you will get a habit-producing drug or where you will get pure soda water. I know of a number of stores where scrupulous proprietors sell only pure soda water. I know of many others where they will sell anything that will help fill their coffers.

"The only thing to do is to find out which man sells pure soda water and then stay away from other shops. This is not a hard job for any one who has much respect for his nerves and internal organs.

"The matter is in the hands of the health officials of every city. While there may be no specific legislation regarding soda water, there is broad legislation everywhere guarding the physical well being of the people who constitute the community, and under such laws there is no reason, in my mind, why a druggist or soda water fountain man should not be made to show exactly the sort of goods he is offering to the people. This rule should apply as well in Washington or any other great city as it would in a town in the West, and it should apply as well in a town in the West or South as it does in Washington; for where there is an inclination to crookedness, environment has little to do with the guiding of it.—Washington Post.

Senator Terrell's resignation means that Senator-elect Hoke Smith must go on and take his seat or it will stay vacant.

We would like to see Greenville have more business but to get it the business men themselves must do something to bring it.

One good thing is to get rid of fruit parings and vegetable scraps that might be decaying near the house. These help breed disease.

Montgomery county, Oklahoma, must have a long thirst. A prohibition election was held and the county voted wet by nearly 1700 majority.

Governor Kitchin made somewhat an egotistical boast in saying it was his personality that secured his nomination. State Senator Lockhart's letter credits him with saying this.

Congress is moving to keep members from spending so much money to secure their elections. A measure is being considered providing that a member shall not spend a sum exceeding ten cents for each vote in his district.

Recalling A Judge.

That new political scheme of the "recall" should be extended to the judiciary finds an adverse argument in a case now pending in Oregon, and which the Washington Post cites as follows:

"The beautiful plan of dragging from the bench a judge who does not construe the law to suit the 'people' is about to be tried in Oregon. John E. Coke is judge of a district comprising six counties in the southern part of that state. He presided at a murder trial some time ago, and the accused man, McCallen, was acquitted. McCallen had been in a fight with an enemy at Roseburg, in which McCallen's antagonist was killed. The man was prominent, and lawyers were engaged to assist the authorities to prosecute McCallen. These lawyers are now active in circulating petitions for the recall of Judge Coke, on the ground that the judge's instructions to the jury helped to bring about the verdict.

"Judge Coke is a Democrat, but he did not subscribe to Bryan's free silver theories. It is expected, therefore, that many Democrats will embrace the opportunity to recall him. The judge is also bitterly opposed to the liquor interests on account of his strict enforcement of the local option law. Here is a chance to retire him to private life, and no doubt it will be seized with eagerness.

"There you have it: Passion, politics and private interests arrayed against a judge, and about to drag him from the bench.

"Is it not to the interest of some kinds of lawyers to demand the head of the judge, if the case should go against them? If the 'people' can be convinced that the judge's view of the law was wrong, the judge must be wrong, and must suffer with his official life. Nor is it unreasonable to suppose that politics will cut out a figure in the matter. Politics will cut a figure anywhere it gets a chance, and the recall opens up new and fertile fields for political exploitation."—Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch.

Making A Lawn.

"We sowed grass seed early last spring (1910). It came up but has died out. Soil rocky with a clay bottom, and we gave it a good dressing of stable manure." Plow the land deeply now and sow cowpeas very thickly. Be sure to turn up a good deal of the clay, for grass needs clay in the South. In the fall when the peas are mature turn the whole growth under and harrow in a good dressing of lime and then a good application of acid phosphate and prepare the land well and smoothly, and sow seed very thickly in November. The best mixture is equal parts of Kentucky bluegrass, redtop and Rhode Island bent grass, and of these, five bushels of seed per acre will be needed to give the best results in a lawn. These seed weigh fourteen pounds to the bushel. Then rake or brush the seed in with a smoothing harrow and roll if the soil is dry. Then the next spring start the lawn mower as soon as the grass is tall enough for it to bite, and in all favorable weather run the lawn mower once a week and leave all the cut grass to rot on the land. Then every spring give it a top-dressing of raw bone meal, and once in five years a coat of lime.—W. F. Massey in Progressive Farmer.

Putting It Up To Smith.

Georgia is getting into a tangle. Governor Hoke Smith was elected United States senator last week, but he refuses to resign and qualify until next winter. Senator Terrell, who was appointed senator to serve until the legislature acted, sent in his resignation to Smith the other day, but Smith refused to accept it. This has riled Terrell and he has been writing the governor some warm stuff. Meantime, many senators say the election of Smith by the legislature terminates Terrell's term without more ado. The democrats in the senate are likely to need Georgia's vote very soon and they are putting the matter up to Hoke. He wants to remain governor to pass certain measures in which he is vitally interested. Seems to us that having been duly elected senator his duty is to go to Washington and be sworn in, or else resign and let the legislature elect some one who will get on the job.—Greensboro Record.

GOOD WORK

Done Daily In Greenville—Many Citizens Tell of It.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Greenville still continues, and citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than by experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case: Mrs. C. Barnhill, of Greenville, N. C., says, "I have been so greatly helped by Doan's Kidney Pills that I am pleased to recommend them. My back and head ached and I had dizzy spells and pains in my sides. My kidneys did not do their work properly and caused me much suffering. Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained at the John L. Look Out, Fraudulent Insurance.

Hon. James R. Young, North Carolina commissioner of insurance, has issued a notice to the people of the state giving a list of fraudulent mutual insurance companies just exposed by the Pennsylvania Commissioner of Insurance, Mr. McCulloch, under the provision of a special act of the Pennsylvania legislature and asking that the people of this state look over their insurance policies and see if they hold any in these fraudulent institutions. The list he gives follows: Integrity Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; Columbia Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; Loyal Mutual Insurance Co.; Fairmount Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; Colonial Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; The Metropolitan Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; The George Washington Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; Imperial Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; The Mercantile Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; The People's Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; The Mercantile Fire Underwriter's Insurance Co.; Northern Underwriters Insurance Co.; Royal Fire Underwriter's Insurance Co.; and Aetna Fire and Marine Insurance Co., of Delaware.

Don't Worry about Cotton Worms.

This little news item sent out this week from Southern Pines will relieve the worry in many a cotton farmer:

When Prof. L. C. Newman of the A. and M. College was shown the worms that are so abundant on the cotton in this section he smiled. The former who brought him the first specimens said: "We do not know what to do with them."

"Do with them," said Prof. Newman. "Do nothing with them." That is the larva of the lady bird, the best friend the cotton planter has when lice are on his cotton. Those worms develop into the lady birds, which eat the lice. You let that worm alone and it will settle the lice question."

Such information as that possessed by Professor Newman illustrates the value of the Farm Life school. A farmer trained in one of these schools would hardly have been worrying about those worms.

The Center of Population.

The center of population of the United States is four and a quarter miles south of Unionville, Monroe county, Indiana, according to a census bureau announcement. Since 1900, when it was six miles southeast of Columbus, Indiana, it has moved thirty-one miles westward and seven-tenths of a mile northward. The westward movement was more than twice that of the 1890-1900 decade. This acceleration of the westward movement is attributed by census officials principally to the growth of the Pacific and Southwestern States.

The geographical center of the United States is in Northern Kansas, so that the center of population, therefore, is about 550 miles east of the geographical center if the country.

Notice To Property Owners.

Weeds and rank vegetation growing on any lot in the town of Greenville, whether occupied or not, must be cut down and removed. Such being a source of annoyance, menace to health, abiding place for mosquitoes. The state law declares such to be a nuisance, and as such the county superintendent of health will be called on to assist the officers of the town in having the weeds and rank vegetation cut and removed from private and public lots.

This is a notice and warning that you may not be taken by surprise or forced to pay costs and fines unnecessarily.

Respectfully,
FRANK M. WOOTEN,
Mayor.

About Song Writers.

The sales of a really popular song run up into the thousands, and the lucky authors revel temporarily in the wealth it brings them. Jerome H. Remick and Co. have had as many as six of these songs selling at one time.

This is a remarkable record, but to have one writer furnish four of them seems almost a miracle. Percy Wenrich, one of our youngest song writers, has again demonstrated his ability to strike the popular fancy by his latest, "We've kept the golden rule."

Founded, as it is, upon the oldest and greatest principle of moral philosophy, the lyric goes as straight to the hearts of the music-loving multitude as does the tuneful melody.

A sentiment similar to that of "Old Grey Bonnet" pervades this song, and young and old will benefit by its moral.

When songs like "We've Kept the Golden Rule" become popular, the world is getting better.

CHORUS.

When we were playmates together,
In all sorts of weather,
I would whistle for you as we trot along to school.
Through the green fields we'd ramble,
And watch the lambs at gambol,
And we've always kept the Golden Rule.

A very delightful evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nichols, July 17, in honor of Miss Juniata Manning, of Richmond, who is visiting relatives in the neighborhood. UNCLE SAM'S COMMERCE.

Broke All Records For Year Ending June 30.

All foreign commerce records of the United States were broken during the fiscal year of 1911, ended June 30, last. Figures of the bureau of statistics show the vast volume of business transacted by American business men with foreign countries amounted to more than $3,500,000,000, which exceeds the record year of 1907 by more than $263,000,000.

The country's exports for the first time exceeded the $2,000,000,000 mark while the imports were second only to last year's. The year wound up with a balance of trade of more than $520,000,000 in favor of American business. This is $332,000,000 more than last year's balance, but was exceeded by the record year of 1908 and the years of 1901, 1900 and 1899.

Fifty per cent of the imports entered the country free of duty, being greater than at any time in the history of the trade except in 1892-93-94, when sugar was being imported free under the McKinley tariff law. The total value of merchandise entering free, however, was larger than in any year heretofore.

THE HAPPENING'S AROUND AYDEN

PERSONAL AND BUSINESS NOTES

The Meanest Man in the World—Stole Food From Sick People.

Ayden, N. C., July 17.—Mr. Ollie Stokes, of Renston, tells us that section witnessed the heaviest rain fall Saturday evening since last February, also said he had a fine crop of tobacco, the white leaf Orinoco variety, that would average 22 leaves to the stalk after being topped. Mr. Stokes is an exceptionally fine tobacco farmer and gets good prices.

Rev. J. W. Fulford, of Bunyan, arrived Monday and will locate here and serve the following churches: St. John's Winterville, Ayden and Holy Innocentes. We extend to him and his wife, a most cordial welcome in our midst.

Miss Fannie Tucker, of Greenville, is visiting Mrs. R. W. Smith.

What was left of our ball team returned from Kinston Sunday morning. The game played Saturday evening resulted 4 to 2 in favor of Ayden.

We have heard of him who would take your money and good name, as the meanest villain in the scale of humanity, but ex-Judge J. L. Hobgood was in our sanctum Saturday and tells us that a man by the name of Kieter and his daughter are both down with typhoid fever, his wife barely recovering, and some non-scrupulous wretch went in his kitchen and stole the last mouthful of his meat, which was 14-12 pounds, just purchased the evening before. This family are honest and hard working people, and we feel like that the thief who stole their meat should have the hottest corner and the brimstone should grade No. 1 at the last day.

Work is progressing finely on the Seminary and dormitory. Our Free Will Baptist friends have surely taken on new life.

Messrs. J. J. Hines and F. Lilly left Saturday for Black Mountain. They will spend some time recuperating. We hope they will feel much improved after inhaling the pure air of the "land of the sky."

Mr. O. W. Rollins has been on the sick list of late.

Mr. Harry G. Burton has returned from Wrightsville.

Mr. Alphonzo Hart has returned from Morehead City, where he attended the pony penning. While there he purchased one, about the size of a yearling, and the expense of getting him home was $9.00.

Miles Cannon, colored, who for a long time was a station hand here for the Atlantic Coast Line, has lost his health and job, and is now an object of charity. The Masons and Eastern Star in which he holds his membership, are loyal to him and family.

Miss Rosa Skinner and her brothers, Dock, Ned and William, of Farmville, were in town Sunday. They report good crops in their section.

Mr. Jesse Wingate and wife have moved to the Guthrie building near the Baptist church.

Capt. Britt, who for many years was conductor on the local freight by here, but who for some time has resided at Wilmington, will move his family here in a few days and occupy the Stokes house on Lee street. Capt. Britt is still in the employ of the A. C. L. and has many warm friends who will welcome him and family in our town. He will also buy cotton for Alex. Sprunt and Company, of Wilmington, N. C.

Mr. John S. Hart returned Monday from Morehead, where he had been visiting his brother, Mr. W. F. Hart. Uncle Jack said he went in bathing thought the pond was too wide to swim across, and was over his head. He had a delightful time fishing.

We are sorry to note that Mrs. Ed. Garris is again on the sick list. It is impossible for Governor Kitchin to give every body an office and keep them in good humor, but we say this much, he has dignified the office since his inauguration, and we dare say no one has dictated to him what he should do. This is "spine."

Mr. W. H. Smith, who has been real sick for some time with fever is improving.

Prof. H. H. Guyton, who has been taking orders for fruit trees this season, is moving his family to Greenville, having taken a position with Taft and Boyd Furniture Co.

Miss Lillian Bunting, of Bethel, is visiting Misses Hattie and Janie Kittrell.

Mr. L. L. Kittrell, who bought the mill of J. R. Smith and Bro. some months ago, has greatly improved this property, employed good workmen and is turning out beautiful mantles, columns, banisters, wire doors and windows, tobacco trucks, and will repair your carts wagons and buggies, saw your logs, dress your lumber, make moulding, grind your corn, sell you a coffin or casket and furnish you a hearse. Rev. M. A. Adams left Monday morning for Marines, Onslow county, to hold a two weeks' revival there.

Mr. E. B. Tucker, one of the clever R. F. D. men, came near having a serious accident Saturday night. He was coming out of his new building and stepping on a box it turned over, throwing backward and his neck and head striking the edge of the piazza floor, hurting him very badly. He is able to be out, but he holds a very stiff neck.

If you want a good sewing machine, examine those at A. W. Ange and Co.'s. They have the best.

Miss Hattie Harrell, of Aoshkie, spent Sunday with Miss Mimie Cox.

One of our boys got tangled up with the days of last week. The reason of this, a young girl was out of town on a visit and the week was unusually long for him, but at last his troubles are ended. She has returned.

Monday evening over the river this week.

We were glad to see Miss Janie Kittrell, of Ayden and Miss Lillie Bunting, of Bethel in our town yesterday.

We know that you are going to buy a wagon for your farm, and this fall you will have some heavy hauling. That is why we are giving special attention to our farmers "Tar Heel Wagons", right now. It is ready for you. If you wait until the spring to buy, we might have to build you one from the jump. Write or make a personal visit to the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., right away.

Messrs. F. F. Cox, Jno. R. Carroll and Eugene Cannon attended the would-be game of ball yesterday at Ayden.

Winterville has an ideal married man. He has learned to forget things that happened in married life. This is exactly the thing to do, but one of our married men actually forgot his wife's name so completely he could not get a letter to her while she was away on a visit.

Mr. J. R. Cooper is all smiles. He has a young girl stopping with him for several years.

Mr. H. D. Cooper, of Roanoke Rapids is visiting his brother, Mr. J. R. Cooper.

Winterville Loses to Grimesland.

In one of the most exciting games witnessed on the local diamond this season, Grimesland won from the locals by the score of 8 to 7.

At the beginning of the ninth inning the locals were in the lead but with one man on base, L. Buck realizing that it was an opportune time for him to capture the honors of the day, lifted one over center and for three bases, scoring one man and later coming in himself. This gave the visitors a lead which the locals were unable to overcome.

Tucker, who was on the ground for the locals, pitched a splendid game and but for the "punk" playing of two of his team-mates the score would have been quite different.

Edwards, the twirler for the visitors, was very effective in pinches and was giving good support as the error column will indicate.

The slugging of Suggs and the fielding of D. Cox was the feature for Winterville while the work of Suggs (a Greenville boy) at short and the hitting and fielding of L. Buck won the game for Grimesland. The base running of G. Buck also deserves mention.

Corn And Cotton.

Reports say some corn was so badly damaged by the dry weather that the rain could not revive it and it will be no good. Something like wilt is affecting some cotton, but no serious damage is reported. Generally, crops are very good.

A New Berry.

The latest triumph of Luther Burbank, the vegetable and fruit wizard, in an acidless strawberry, The Norfolk Landmark says the few people who could not enjoy the strawberry on account of its acid properties need now no longer repine. They can join their happy fellow mortals and revel in nature's choicest luxury. Burbank has extracted the sting. He has produced a variety called the Pategonia, probably because it is the last to be reached which is non-acid and tastes like a perfect berry flavored with pineapple.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Agricultural Census.

Figures of the 1910 agricultural census for Southern States in addition to those already reported in these columns show the following increases between 1900 and 1910:
North Carolina—Improved acreage from 8,327,000 to 8,800,000, or 6 per cent.; value of land from $141,956,000 to $242,545,000, or 141 per cent.; value of buildings from $52,700,000 to $113,170,000, or 115 per cent.; average value per acre of land from $6.24 to $15.29, or 145 per cent., and value of implements and machinery from $9,073,000 to $18,415,000, or 103 per cent.—Manufacturers' Record.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and it's the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. Its the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Notice.

We wish to announce that our land is posted and to warn people not to hunt on it. We have stock in the grounds and have had several cattle shot, supposed to have been shot by stray bullets fired by people shooting at marks. Unless this shooting on our property is stopped, we shall have to indict all persons we can catch on it carrying or using fire arms.
